Qatadah said concerning the Ayah: 54&M AM&p Ar *4 4He Who produces for you fire out of the green tree, xvhen behold you kindle therewith. this means, the One Who brought forth this fire from this tree is able to resurrect him. It was said that this refers to the Markh tree and the 'Afar tree, which grow in the Hijaz. If one wants to light a fire but has no kindling with him, then he takes two green branches from these trees and rubs one against the other, and fire is produced from them. Only a few of Nuh’s people believed in him, despite the long period of time he spent among them. He stayed among them for one thousand years less fifty, and after he stayed among them for so long and their disbelief became too much for him to bear - for every time he called them, they turned away from him even more - he prayed to his Lord saying, “I have been overcome, so help (me)I” So Allah became angry because Nuh was angry with them. Allah said: 4 So We gave him the glad tidings of a forbearing boy.} This child was Ismail, peace be upon him, for he was the first child of whom glad tidings were given to Ibrahim, peace be upon him, and he was older than Ishaq. The Muslims and the People of the Book agree, and indeed it is stated in their Book, that Ismail, peace be upon him, was born when Ibrahim, peace be upon him, was eighty-six years old, and Ishaq was born when Ibrahim was ninety-nine years old. According to their Book, Allah commanded Ibrahim to sacrifice his only son, and in another text it says his firstborn son. But here they falsely inserted the name of Ishaq. This is not right because it goes against what their own Scripture says. They inserted the name of Ishaq because he is their ancestor, while Ismail is the ancestor of the Arabs. They were jealous of them, so they added this idea and changed the meaning of the phrase "only son" to mean the only son who is with you,' because Ismail had been taken with his mother to Makkah. But this is a case of falsification and distortion, because the words "only son" cannot be said except in the case of one who has no other son. Furthermore, the firstborn son has a special status that is not shared by subsequent children, so the command to sacrifice him is a more exquisite test. i And, when he (his son) was old enough to walk with him,} means, when he grew up and started to go with his father and walk with him, for Ibrahim used to go every so often to check on his son and his mother in the land of Faran (i.e., Makkah), to see how they were doing. It was said that he used to ride on Al-Burdq, traveling there swiftly, and Allah knows best. It was reported from Ibn 'Abbas, peace be upon him, Mujahid, Ikrimah, Said bin Jubayr, 'Ata' Al-Khurasani, Zayd bin Aslam and others that $\wedge (\& \text{ iAtid}$, when he (his son) was old enough to walk with him,} means, when he became a young man and was able to work as his father did. i LJ} 4 is) 6[$\wedge \text{ £ ££} > \text{ iAnd}$, when he (his son) was old enough to walk with him, he said: "O my son! means, when both of them had pronounced the Shahadah and remembered Allah - Ibrahim because he was about to offer a sacrifice and Ismail because he was about to die. Or it was said that “submitted themselves” means that they submitted and followed the command of Allah; Ibrahim obeyed the command of Allah and Ismail obeyed Allah and his father. This was the view of Mujahid, Ikrimah, Qatadah, As-Suddi and Ibn Ishaq, 121 and others. At-Jabari 21 :75. 121 At-Tabari 21 :77.

The meaning of the phrase “and he had laid him prostrate on his forehead” is: he placed him facedown so that he could slaughter him from behind, and not have to see his face at the time of slaughter, so that it would be easier for him. Ibn ‘Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, Mujahid, Said bin Jubayr, Ad-Dahhak and Qatadah said: and he had laid him prostrate on his forehead; } means, “He turned him upside down on his face.” 1 11 Imam Ahmad recorded that Ibn ‘Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, said, “When the rituals were enjoined upon Ibrahim, peace be upon him, the Shaytan appeared to him at the Mas’a and raced with him, but Ibrahim got there first. Then Jibril, upon him be peace, took him to Jamrat Al-‘Aqabah and the Shaytan appeared to him, so he stoned him with seven pebbles until he disappeared. Then he appeared him at Al- Jamrah Al-Wustd and he stoned him with seven pebbles. Then he laid him prostrate on his face. Ismail, peace be upon him, was wearing a white shirt, and he said, ‘O my father, I do not have any garment in which I can be shrouded apart from this; take it off me so that you can shroud me in it.’ He started to take it off, then he was called from behind: 3} 40 Ibrahim! cut him at all, because a sheet of copper was placed between them. Ibrahim was called at that point, and it was said: iVerily, thus do We reward the doers of good means, this is how We deal with those who obey Us in things that are difficult for them; We make for them a way out.’ As Allah says: Jt* J6 Jv* <j*J v ji Map tdfk iAnd whosoever has Taqwa of Allah, He will make a way for him to get out (from every difficulty). And He will provide him from (sources) he never could imagine. And whosoever puts his trust in Allah, then He will suffice him. Verily, Allah will accomplish his purpose. Indeed Allah has set a measure for all things. (65:2-3). On the basis of this Ayah and this story, some of the scholars of Usui have stated that it is valid for a ruling to be abrogated before anyone is able to act upon it - unlike some of the Mutazilah. The evidence for this is obvious, because Allah commanded Ibrahim, peace be upon him, to sacrifice his son, then He abrogated that and pointed out the ransom. The purpose of His command had been primarily to reward His close Friend for his patience and resolve in sacrificing his son. Allah says: 4©^' iytlfl 'fr 'i* di>\$ iVerily, that indeed was a manifest trial. meaning, it was clearly a test when he was commanded to sacrifice his son, so, he hastened to do it, in submission to the command of Allah and in obedience to Him. Allah said: 111 At-Tabari 21:74.

276 Tafstr Ibn Kathir 4 And of Ibrahim who fulfilled all that. $ (53:37), and 4 And We ransomed him with a great sacrifice>. It was reported that Ibn ‘Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, said, “A ram which had grazed in Paradise for forty years.” Imam Ahmad recorded that Safiyyah bint Shaybah said, “A woman from Bani Sulaym, who was the midwife of most of the people in our household, told me that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ sent for Uthman bin Talhah, may Allah be pleased with him.” On one occasion she said, “I asked ‘Uthman, Why did the Prophet ﷺ call you?’ He said. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to me, ‘I saw the horns of the ram when I entered the House [i.e., the Ka’bah], and I forgot to tell you to cover them up; cover them up, for there should not be anything in the House which could distract the worshipper.’” Sufyan said, “The horns of the ram remained hanging in the House until it was burned, and they were burned too.”² This offers independent evidence that the one who was to be sacrificed was Ismail, peace be upon him. The Quraysh had inherited the horns of the ram that Ibrahim sacrificed, and they had been passed down from generation to generation, until the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was sent. And Allah knows best. Reports which state that the One Who was to be sacrificed was Isma‘³, and that this is Correct without a Doubt Sa’id bin Jubayr, ‘Amir Ash-Sha’bi, Yusuf bin Mihran, Mujahid, ‘Ata’ and others reported from Ibn ‘Abbas that it was At-Tabari 21 :90. ² Ahmad 4 :68

The one whom Allah commanded Ibrahim to sacrifice of his two sons was Ismail.’ We find this in the Book of Allah, because when Allah finishes the story of the one of the two sons of Ibrahim who was to be sacrificed, He then says: i And We gave him the glad tidings of Ishaq - a Prophet from the righteous>, and 4 So, We gave her glad tidings of Ishaq and after Ishaq, of Ya’qub} (11:71). He mentions the son and the son of the son, but He would not have commanded him to sacrifice Ishaq when He had promised that this son would in turn have a son. Umar said to him, “This is something about which I have never given any thought, but I see that it is as you say.” Then he sent for a man who was with him in Syria, a Jew who had become a Muslim and was committed to Islam, and he thought that he had been one of their scholars. Umar bin ‘Abd Al-‘Aziz, may Allah be pleased with him, asked him about that. Muhammad bin Kah said, “I was with Umar bin ‘Abd Al-‘Aziz. They had started to worship an idol called Bal, and he called them to Allah, may He be exalted, and forbade them to worship anyone besides Him. Their king believed in him, then he apostatized, and they persisted in their misguided ways, and not one person among them believed in him. So he prayed to Allah against them, and Allah withheld the rain from them for three years. Then they asked him to relieve them from that, and promised that they would believe in him if rain came to them. So he prayed to Allah for them, and the rains came, but they persisted in their evil ways of disbelief. So he asked Allah to take him to Him. Al-Yasa' bin Akhtub had grown up under his care, may peace be upon them both. So Ilyas was commanded to go to such and such a place, and whatever mount came to him, he was to ride on it and not to give it away. A horse of fire was brought to him, so he rode it, and Allah clothed him with light and covered him with feathers, and he used to fly with the angels as a human angel, heavenly yet also earthly. iThen he (agreed to) cast lots,$ means, to draw lots." iand he was among the losers .> means among those who have been overcome. This was because the ship was being pounded by the waves on all sides, and they were at risk of drowning, so they drew lots, and whoever lost would be thrown overboard so as to lighten the load. The Prophet of Allah Yunus, peace be upon him, lost the draw three times, but they did not want to throw him overboard. He took off his garment so that he could throw himself into the sea, and they tried to stop him. Then Allah commanded a large fish from the Green Sea (i .e Mediterranean Sea) to cleave the oceans and come and swallow Yunus, peace be upon him, without cutting his flesh or breaking his bones. The fish came and Yunus, peace be upon him, threw himself overboard, and the fish swallowed him and took him away, traveling through all the seas with him. When Yunus had stayed for some time in the fish's belly, he thought that he had died; then he moved his head and legs and arms, and saw that he was alive. He prayed in the belly of the fish, and one of the things he said in his main prayer was: "O Lord, I have taken as a place of worship to You a place which no other person has reached.” They differed as to how long he spent in the belly of the fish. Some said three days; this was the view of Qatadah. Some said seven days; this was the view of Ja'far As-Sadiq, may Allah be pleased with him. Some said forty days; this was the view of Abu Malik.*2 * Mujahid said, narrating from Ash-Sha'bi, “It swallowed him in the morning and cast him forth in the evening.” And Allah knows best how long exactly was. The Reason for the Revelation of These Ayat

Abu Ja'far bin Jarir recorded that Ibn 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, said, “When Abu Talib fell sick, some of the people of the Quraysh, including Abu Jahl, entered upon him and said, ‘Your brother’s son is insulting our gods; he does such and such and says such and such. Why don’t you send for him and tell him not to do that?’ So he sent for the Prophet ﷺ and he entered the house. There was space enough for one man to sit between them and Abu Talib, and Abu Jahl, may Allah curse him, was afraid that if [the Prophet ﷺ] were to sit beside Abu Talib he would be more lenient with him, so he jumped up and sat in that spot, and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ could find nowhere to sit near his uncle, so he sat by the door. Abu Talib said to him, ‘O son of my brother, why are your people complaining about you and claiming that you are from the gods?’” At-Tabari 21:152

Surah 38. Sad (4-11) (Part-23) insult their gods and say such and such?’ They made so many complaints against him. Thereupon, he said, ‘If, O uncle, all that I want from them is one word which, if they say it, the Arabs will become their followers and the non-Arabs will pay jizyah to them.’ They were worried about what he said, so they said, ‘One word? Yes, by your father, (we will say) ten words! What is it?’ Abu Talib said, “What word is it, O son of my brother?” He said, «Si'i 'i/i iii »L« ilaha illallah. They stood up in agitation, brushing down their clothes, saying, ‘Has he made the gods into One God. Verily, this is a curious thing!’ Then this passage was revealed, from this Ayah to the Ayah: ‘Nay, but they have not tasted (My) torment!’” This is the wording of Abu Kurayb.*¹¹ Something similar was also recorded by Imam Ahmad and An-Nasai, and At-Tirmidhi said, “Hasan.”²¹ ‘We have not heard (the like) of this in the religion of these later days.’¹¹¹ At-Tabari 21:149. *²¹ Ahmad 1:362, An-Nasai in Al-Kubra 6:442, Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi 9:99. A few scholars grade this narration weak, including Al-Ama’ut (Al-Musnad no. 3420) and Al-Albani in Da’if Sunan At-Tirmidhi under the Tafsir of this Ayah.

know the consequences of what they say and what they rejected on the Day when they are herded into the fire of Hell. Then Allah points out that He is the One Who is in control of His Creation and Who does whatever He wills, Who gives whatever He wants to whomever He wants, and honors whomever He wants and humiliates whomever He wants, and guides whomever He wants and misguides whomever He wants, and sends the Ruh (Jibril) by His command upon whomsoever He wants among His servants, and seals the hearts of whomever He wants, so no one can guide him apart from Allah. His servants do not possess any power and have no control over His dominion, not even a speck of dust’s weight; they do not possess even a thin membrane over a date stone. Allah says, denouncing them: ‘Or have they the treasures of the mercy of your Lord, the Almighty, the Real Bestower?’ meaning, the Almighty Whose might cannot be overcome, the Bestower Who gives whatever He wills to whomsoever He wills. This Ayah is like the Ayah: ‘Or have they a share in the dominion? Then in that case they would not give mankind even a speck on the back of a date stone. Or do they envy men for what Allah has given them of His bounty? Then, We had already given the family of Ibrahim the Book and Al-Hikmah, and conferred upon them a great kingdom. We have already seen their stories in detail in numerous places (in the Qur’an). Allah says: 444>- Vf <M$} 4such were the Confederates.} meaning, they were greater and stronger than you, they had more wealth and children, but that did not protect them from the punishment of Allah at all when the command of your Lord came to pass.’ Allah says: 4Not one of them but denied the Messengers; therefore My torment was justified.}

Al-Ayd means strength in knowledge and action. Ibn ‘Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, As-Suddi and Ibn Zayd said, “Al-Ayd means strength.”¹¹ At-Tabari 2 1 :166 , 167.

Mujahid said, Al-Ayd means strength in obedience to Allah.” Qatadah said, “Dawud, peace be upon him, was given strength in worship and the proper understanding of Islam.”² He told us that he, peace be upon him, used to spend a third of the night in prayer, and he fasted for half a lifetime. He never fled from the battlefield, and he always turned to Allah, which means that he turned to Allah with regard to all of his affairs. 4 Verily, We made the mountains to glorify Our praises with him in the 'Ashi and Ishraq.} means, Allah caused the mountains to glorify His praises with him at sunrise and at the end of the day. This is like the Ayah: &4 40 you mountains. Glorify (Allah) with him! And you birds (also)!} (34:10). The birds also used to glorify Allah's praises with him. If a bird flew by him and heard him chanting the Zabur, it would not go away; instead it would stay hovering in the air, glorifying Allah along with him. And the lofty mountains would respond to him and echo his glorification of Allah. Ibn Jarir *1 At-Tabari 21:166. 121 At-Tabari 21 :167. *31 Fath Al-B&ri 3 :20, Muslim 2 :8 16 recorded from 'Abdullah bin Al-Harith bin Nawfal that Ibn 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, did not pray Ad-Duha. ['Abdullah said:] "So I took him to Umm Hani, may Allah be pleased with her, and said to her, Tell him what you told me.' She said, The Messenger of Allah sH entered my house on the day of the conquest of Makkah. He called for water to be poured into a large bowl, then he called for a garment which he used as a screen between me and him, and he washed himself. Then he sprinkled water around the house and prayed eight Rak'ahs. This was Ad-Duha, and its standing, bowing, prostration and sitting were all equal in brevity.' Ibn 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, left, saying, I have read the Qur'an from cover to cover, and I never knew about Salat Ad-Duha until now!' Then he recited: i glorify Our praises with him in the 'Ashi and Ishraq.} I used to say, "What is Salat Al-Ishraq, but now I know what it is." i And (so did) the birds assembled,^ meaning, hovering in the air. id} A '$} i all obedient to him.} means, they obeyed him and followed him in glorifying Allah. Ibn Abi Najlh reported that Mujahid said, "He was the strongest and most powerful of the people of this world." [1 * At-Tabari 21:169. ' At-Tabari 21 :169.

321 Surah 38. Sad (21 - 25) (Part-23 422. When they entered in upon Ddwud, he was terrified of them. They said: "Fear not! (We are) two litigants, one of us has wronged the other, therefore judge between us with truth, and treat us not with injustice, and guide us to the right way .4 423 . Verily, this my brother (in religion) has ninety-nine ewes, while I have (only) one ewe, and he says: "Hand it over to me, and he overpowered me in speech."4 424. [Ddwud] said: "He has wronged you in demanding your ewe in addition to his ewes. And, verily, many partners oppress one another, except those who believe and do righteous good deeds, and they are few." And Ddwud guessed that We have tried him and he sought forgiveness of his Lord, and he fell down prostrate and turned (to Allah) in repentance. 425. So, We forgave him that, and verily, for him is a near access to Us, and a good place of return . The Story of the Two Litigants In discussing this passage, the scholars of Tafsir mention a story which is mostly based upon Isrd'iliyat narrations. Nothing has been reported about this from the Infallible Prophet sgg that we could accept as true. But Ibn Abi Hatim narrated a HacLith whose chain of narration cannot be regarded as Sahxh because it is reported by Yazld Ar-Raqashi from Anas, may Allah be pleased with him. Although Yazld was one of the righteous, his Hadiths are regarded as weak by the Imams. So, it is better to speak briefly of this story and refer knowledge of it to Allah, may He be exalted. For the Qur'an is true and what it contains is also true. 4 he was terrified of them. This was because he was in his Mihrab (private chamber). That was the noblest part of his house, where he commanded that no one should enter upon him that day. So, he did not realize that these two people had climbed the fence surrounding his Mihrab (private chamber) to ask him about their case. 4and he overpowered me in speech. means, *he defeated me.'

The evidence for it is the report recorded by Imam Ahmad from Ibn 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, who said; "The prostration in Surah Sad is not one of the obligatory prostrations; I saw the Messenger of Allah jg prostrating in this Surah. "21 This was also recorded by Al-Bukhari, Abu Dawud, At-Tirmidhi, and An-Nasal in his Tafsir. At-Tirmidhi said, "Hasan Sahib."3 In his Tafsir of this Ayah, An-Nasal also recorded that Ibn 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, said, "The Prophet jg prostrated in Sad, and he said: J I La tijjJ j a I Jjta La*1>w'B «Dawud prostrated as an act of repentance and we prostrate as an act of thanks.n" This was recorded only by An-Nasal.141 The men of its chain of narration are all reliable. In his Tafsir of this Ayah, Al-Bukhari recorded that Al- 'Awwam said that he asked Mujahid about the prostration in Surah Sad. He said, 1 asked Ibn 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased At-Tabari 21 :181. Ahmad 1 :359. 131 Fath Al-B&ri 2 :643 , Abu Dawud 2 :123 , Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi 3 :176 An-Nasal in Al-Kubra 6 :342 141 An-Nasal 2:159.

Abu Dawud recorded that Abu Said Al-Khudri, may Allah be pleased with him, said, "The Messenger of Allah jg recited Sad while he was on the Minbar. When he reached the prostration, he came down from the Minbar and prostrated, and the people prostrated with him. On another occasion when he recited it, he reached the prostration and the people prepared to prostrate. He jg said: "'Iff Zji Ujj» iThis is repentance far a Prophet, but I see that you are preparing to prostrate .» Then he came down (from the Minbar) and prostrated."2 This was recorded only by Abu Dawud and its chain of narration meets the conditions of the Two Sahihs. iand verily, far him is a near access to Us, and a good place of (final) return .} means, on the Day of Resurrection, he will have good deeds by virtue of which he will be brought close to Allah, and he will have a good place of (final) return, which means the lofty levels of Paradise, because of his repentance and his perfect justice in his kingdom. Rulers and Leaders This is advice from Allah, may He be exalted, to those who are in positions of authority. They should rule according to the truth and justice revealed from Him, they should not turn away from it and be led astray from the path of Allah. Allah has issued a stern warning of a severe punishment to those who go astray from His path and forget the Day of Resurrection. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Ibrahim Abu Zur'ah, who read the Scripture, reported that Al-Walid bin 'Abd Al-Malik said to him: "Does anyone have the right to question the Khalifah? You have read the first Scripture and the Qur'an, and you have understood them." He replied, "May I speak, O Commander of the faithful?" He said, "Speak, for you are under the protection of Allah." I said, "O Commander of the faithful, are you more dear to Allah, or Dawud, peace be upon him? Allah says: ⁴And We created not the heaven and the earth and all that is between them without purpose! Then Allah explains that because of His justice and wisdom, He does not treat the believers and the disbelievers equally. Allah says: ^{J Jljif 4}Shall We treat those who believe and do righteous good deeds as those who do mischief on the earth? Or shall We treat Those who have Taqwa as the evildoers?} meaning, *We shall not do that.' They are not equal before Allah, and since this is the case, there must inevitably be another realm in which those who obey Allah will be rewarded and the wicked will be punished. This teaching indicates to those of a sound mind and upright nature that there must inevitably be a resurrection and recompense. We see evildoers and criminals are prospering and increasing in wealth, children and luxury, until they die in that state. We see oppressed believers dying of grief and distress, so by the wisdom of the All-Wise, All-Knowing, All-Just who does not do even a speck of dust's weight of injustice, there should be a time when the rights of the oppressed are restored with due justice. If this does not happen in this world, there must be another realm where recompense may be made and consolation may be found. The Qur'an teaches sound aims based on a rational way of thinking, so Allah says: 4(Tin's is) a Book which We have sent down to you, full of blessings, that they may ponder over its Ayat, and that men of understanding may remember.} meaning, those who are possessed of wisdom and reason. He did not miss it deliberately, but because of forgetfulness, as happened to the Prophet sg on the day of Khandaq, when he was too busy to pray 'Asr and he prayed it after the sun had set. This was recorded in the Two Sahihs with more than one chain of narration, including the report from Jabir, may Allah be pleased with him, who said, "On the day of Khandaq, TJmar, may Allah be pleased with him, came after the sun had set and started cursing the disbelievers of the Quraysh. He said, 'O Messenger of Allah, I could not pray 'Asr until the sun had almost set.' The Messenger of Allah jg said, I U 4)1j> aBy Allah, I did not pray it either. He (Jabir)

Then he began to pass his hand over their legs and their necks.} Al-Hasan Al-Basri said, "He said, 'No, by Allah, you will not keep me from worshipping my Lord again,' then he ordered that they should be slaughtered."13 ' This was also the view of Qatadah. 'Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, said, "He began patting the horses' heads and legs out of love for them."12* This is the view that was favored by Ibn Jarir. He said, "Because he would not punish an animal by cutting its hamstrings or destroy his own wealth for no other reason than that he had been distracted from his prayer by looking at it, and it was not the animals' fault." This view which Ibn Jarir thought more correct is subject to further review, because such action may have been permissible according to their law, especially since he got angry for the sake of Allah for being distracted by these horses until the time for prayer had lapsed. Then, since he dispensed with them for the sake of Allah, Allah compensated him with something better, the wind which blew gently by his order wherever he willed. Its morning lasted a month's (journey), and its afternoon lasted a month's (journey). This was faster and better than horses. Imam Ahmad recorded that Abu Qatadah and Abu Ad- Dahma', who traveled a lot to the Kaljah, said, "We met a man from among the bedouins who said to us: The Messenger of Allah jg took my hand and started teaching me some of that which Allah had taught him. Forgive me, and bestow upon me a kingdom such as shall not belong to any other after me. Verily, You are the Bestowcr.") I1 ' Allah does not explain exactly what this Jasad was which He placed on his throne. We believe that Allah tested him by placing this Jasad on his throne, even though we do not know what it was. Everything that has been said concerning it has been taken from the Isr&'Uiyat, and we do not know what is true. (Since the word means "corporeal" interpretations centered around some form of Jinn.) Allah knows best.

332 Tafsir Ibn Kathir Some of them said, "No one after me will have the right to ask Allah for such a kingdom." This is the apparent meaning from the context of the Ayah, and several Hadiths with a similar meaning have been narrated from the Messenger of Allah In his Tafsir of this Ayah, Al-Bukhari recorded that Abu Hurayrah, may Allah be pleased with him, said that the Prophet ﷺ said: 'An Ifrit from among the Jinn came and bothered me last night- or he said something similar -Trying to stop me from praying. Allah enabled me to overpower him, and I wanted to tie him to one of the pillars in the Masjid so that you could see him this morning. Then I remembered what my brother Sulayman said, 'My Lord! Forgive me and bestow upon me a kingdom such as shall not belong to any other after me}'» Rawh said, "so he let him go, humiliated." »! This was also recorded by Muslim and An-Nasai. 121 In his Sahih, Muslim recorded that Abu Ad-Darda', may Allah be pleased with him, said, "The Messenger of Allah stood up to pray and we heard him say, 'I seek refuge with Allah from you.' » Then he said, 'I curse you with the curse of Allah.' » three times, and he stretched out his hand as if he was reaching out to take something. When he finished his prayer, we said, 'O Messenger of Allah, we heard you say something in your prayer which we have never heard you say before, and we saw you stretching out your hand.' He ﷺ said: 111 Fath At-Bari 1 :660. Muslim 1 :384, An-Nasai in Al-Kubra 6 :443.

11 The enemy of Allah Iblis came with a flame of fire to throw in my face, so I said, "I seek refuge with Allah from you" three times, then I said, "I curse you with the complete curse of Allah," but he did not back off. I said it three times. Then I wanted to seize him . By Allah, if it were not for the words of our brother Sulayman, he would have been chained up and he would have become a plaything for the children of the people of Al-Madinah. n" 11 Allah says: 'We subjected to him the wind; it blew gently by his order wherever he willed. Al-Hasan Al-Basri, may Allah have mercy on him, said, "When Sulayman, peace be upon him, slaughtered the horses out of anger for the sake of Allah, Allah compensated him with something better and swifter, the wind whose morning was a month's (journey), and its afternoon was a month's (journey)." 121 iC 4 wherever he willed. $ means, wherever in the world he wanted. 4 -^0?!^ } & $ i And also the Shayatin, from every kind of builder and diver means, among them were some whom he used to build high rooms, images, basins as large as reservoirs, and cauldrons fixed (in their places), and other difficult tasks which humans were unable to do. Whatever you do is permissible for you, so however you judge, it will be right.' It was reported in the Two Sahihs that when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was given the choice between being a servant and a Messenger - who does what he is commanded to do and distributes things among the people as Allah commands him to do - or being a Prophet and a king, who can give to whomever he wishes and withhold from whomever he wishes without being held accountable for anything, he chose the former. He consulted with Jibril, peace be upon him, who said, "Be humble." So he chose the former because it has a greater value before Allah and brings a higher status in the Hereafter, even though the second option, prophethood combined with kingship, is also a great thing both in this world and in the Hereafter, when Allah tells us what He gave to Sulayman, peace be upon him, in this world, He tells us that he will have a great share with Allah on the Day of Resurrection. These tests afflicted his body, his wealth and his children, until there was no part of his body that was healthy except his heart. Then he had nothing left in this world which he could use to help him deal with his sickness or the predicament he was in, besides his wife, who retained her devotion to him because of her faith in Allah and His Messenger. She used to work for people as a paid servant, and she fed and served him (Ayyub) for nearly eighteen years. She did not leave him, morning and evening, except for when she was serving people, then she would come straight back to him. When this had gone on for a long time, and things had gotten very bad, and the time allotted by divine decree had come to an end, Ayyub prayed to the Lord of the worlds, the God of the Messengers, and said: t} iVerily, distress has seized me, and You are the Most Merciful of all those who show mercy$ (21:83). And according to this Ayah: iAnd remember Our servant Ayyub, wlien he invoked his Lord (saying): "Verily, Shaytan has afflicted me with distress and torment!" } It was said that "distress" referred to bodily afflictions and "torment" referred to the loss of his wealth and children. Then the Most Merciful of those who show mercy responded to him, telling him to stand up and strike the ground with his foot. He did this, and Allah caused a spring of water to flow. He commanded him to wash in it, and all the pain and affliction in his body disappeared. Then He commanded him to strike the ground in a different place, and Allah caused another spring to flow, and Ayyub was commanded to drink from it. Then all his internal problems disappeared, and he became healthy again, inside and out. Allah says: c>r,- - : gft istrike the ground with yourfoot. When Allah healed him, how could her service, mercy, compassion and kindness be repaid with a beating? So Allah showed him a way out, which was to take a bundle of thin grass, with one hundred stems, and hit her with it once. Thus he fulfilled his oath and avoided breaking his vow. "Except Your true servants amongst them."4 484. (Allah) said: "The truth is - the truth I say - "4 485. "That I will fill Hell with you and those of them (mankind) that follow you, together."4 The Story of Adam and Iblis Allah mentions this story in Surat Al-Baqarah, at the beginning of Surat Al-A'raf in Surat Al-Hijr, Al-tsra', Al-Kahf and here. Before creating Adam, peace be upon him, Allah told the angels that He was going to create a human being from sounding clay of altered smooth black mud. He told them that when He finished creating and forming him, they were to prostrate to him as a sign of honor and respect, and out of obedience to the command of Allah, may He be exalted. All of the angels obeyed this command except for Iblis, who was not one of them. He was one of the Jinn, and his nature betrayed him at his time of greatest need. He refused to prostrate to Adam, and he disputed with his Lord about him, claiming that 352 Tafslr Ibn Kathir he was better than Adam, because he was created from fire while Adam was created from clay, and fire was better than clay, or so he said. He made a mistake by doing this, and he went against the command of Allah, thus committing the sin of disbelief. So Allah exiled him, humiliated him, and cast him out of His mercy and His sacred Presence, and called him "Iblis" symbolizing that he had Ablasa min Ar-Rahmah (despaired of mercy) - that there was no hope for him of mercy. He cast him down from the heavens, disgraced and rejected, to the earth. Iblis asked Allah to give him a reprieve until the Day of Resurrection, so the Forbearing One, Who does not hasten to punish those who disobey Him, gave him a reprieve. When he knew that he was safe from destruction until the Day of Resurrection, he rebelled and transgressed. $[Iblis] said: "By Your might, then I will surely mislead them all, except Your true servants amongst them."} This is like the Ayat i[Iblis] said : "See this one whom You have honored above me, if You give me respite until the Day of Resurrection, I will surely seize and mislead his offspring all but a few!"} (17:62). Others, such as As-Suddi, interpreted it as being an oath sworn by Allah.¹²¹ This Ayah is like the Ayat &£& oJ&SiV lit Jjil' o*- the Word from Me took effect, that I will fill Hell with Jinn and mankind together.) Then Allah tells us that the idolaters say: v> t) 4 We worship them only that they may bring us near to Allah.) meaning what motivates them to worship them is the fact that they made their idols in the image of the angels - or so they claim - and when they worship those images it is like worshipping the angels, so that they will intercede with Allah for them to help and give them provision and other worldly needs. As far as the resurrection is concerned, they denied it and did not believe in it. Qatadah, As-Suddi and Malik said, narrating from Zayd bin Aslam and Ibn Zayd: 4&& Ji ionly that they may bring us near to Allah.) means, “So that they may intercede for us and bring us closer to Him.”¹¹¹ During Jahiliyyah, they used to recite the following for their Talbiyah when they performed Hajj; “At Your service, You have no partner except the partner You have; he and all that he owns belong to You.” This pretentious argument which the idolaters of all times, ancient and modern, used as evidence is what the Messengers, may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon them all, came to refute and forbid, and to call people to worship Allah Alone with no partner or associate. This is something that the idolaters themselves invented; Allah did not give them permission for it, nor does He approve of it; indeed, He hates it and forbids it.

Verily, there came to you My Aydt and you denied them, and were proud and were among the disbelievers. } The Call to repent before the Punishment comes This Ayah is a call to all sinners, be they disbelievers or others, to repent and turn to Allah. This Ayah tells us that Allah, may He be blessed and exalted, will forgive all the sins of those who repent to Him and turn back to Him, no matter what or how many his sins are, even if they are like the foam of the sea. This cannot be interpreted as meaning that sins will be forgiven without repentance, because Shirk can only be forgiven for the one who repents from it. Al-Bukhari recorded that Ibn 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, said that some of the people of Shirk killed many people and committed Zina, (illegal sexual acts) to a great extent; they came to Muhammad jg and said, "What you are saying and calling us to is good; if only you could tell us that there is an expiation for what we have done." This was also recorded by Muslim, Abu Dawud and An- Nasa1. [11 What is meant by the first Ayah (25:68) is: ^Except those who repent and believe, and do righteous deeds> (25:70). (5:74) And Allah says: 4Verily, those who put into trial the believing mat and believing women (by torturing them), and then do not turn in repentance (to Allah)} (85:10). Al-Hasan Al-Basri, may Allah have mercy on him, said, "Look at this generosity and kindness! They killed His close friends but He still called them to repentance and forgiveness." There are many Ay&t on this topic. The Two SdhXhs record the Hadith of Abu Said, may Allah be pleased with him, from Messenger of Allah ijg about the man who killed ninety-nine people. Later on, he regretted it and asked a worshipper among the Children of Israel whether he could repent. He told him no, so he killed him, thus completing one hundred. Then he asked one of their scholars whether he could repent. He said, "What is stopping you from repenting?" Then he told him to go to a town where Allah was worshipped. He set out for that town, but death came to him while he was on the road. The angels of mercy and the angels of punishment disputed over him, so Allah commanded them to measure the distance between the two towns; whichever he was closer to was the one to which he belonged. They found that he was closer to the town he was heading for, so the angels of mercy took him. It was said that when he was dying, he moved himself (towards that town), and Allah commanded the good town to move closer to him and the other town to move away.^{1,1} This is basic meaning of the Hadith, we have quoted it in full elsewhere. How the Disbelievers will be driven to Hell

Allah tells us how the doomed disbeliever will be driven to Hell by force, with threats and warnings. This is like the Ayah pZ ja dl 0 4The Day when they will be pushed down by force to the fire of Hell, with a horrible, forceful pushing.} (52:13) which means, they will be pushed and forced towards it, and they will be extremely thirsty, as Allah says: p 3i ff Ji oj&K >J&0 4The Day I've shall gather those who luwe Taqwa unto the Most Gracious, like a delegation. And they will say: "All the praises and thanks be to Allah Who has fulfilled His promise to us and has made us inherit the land. We can dwell in Paradise where we will ; how excellent a rewardfor the workers!"} The Believers willbe taken to Paradise Here Allah tells us about the blessed believers, who will be taken to Paradise in groups, one group after another, starting with the best of them: those who are closest to Allah, then the most righteous, then the next best and the next best. Each group will be with others like them, Prophets with Prophets, the true believers with their peers, the martyrs with their counterparts, the scholars with their colleagues, every group composed of people of the same kind. A&jK $ -&-} itill when they reach it,} means, when they arrive at the gates of Paradise, after passing over the Sirat, where they will be detained on a bridge between Paradise and Hell, and any injustices that existed between them in this world will be settled until they have all been purified from sin through this trial. Then permission will be granted for them to enter Paradise. It was recorded in the Hadith about the Trumpet that when the believers reach the gates of Paradise, they will consult one another as to who should ask permission for them to enter. They will ask Adam, then NUh, then Ibrahim, then Musa, then Isa, then Muhammad ^ (may blessings and peace be upon them all). This is akin to what will happen in the arena of judgement, when they will ask for someone to intercede for them with Allah when He comes to pass judgement. This is to show the noble position of Muhammad sgj above the rest of mankind in all situations. In Sahih Muslim, it is reported that Anas, may Allah be pleased with him, said, "The Messenger of Allah said: qa.: Jjf ut.

What it implies is that when they come to the gates of Paradise the gates will be opened for them as a sign of honor, and the angelic gatekeepers will meet them with glad tidings, greetings of peace and praise. Unlike the gatekeepers of Hell who will meet the disbelievers with rebuke and reprimand, the believers will be filled with happiness and joy, each according to his 111 Path Al-B&ri 11 :413, Muslim 1 :197. 121 Fath Al-B&ri 11:414, Muslim 1 :197.

The Virtues ofthe Surahs that begin withHaMim Ibn ‘Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, said, “Everything has an essence and the essence of the Qur’an is the family of Ha Mim,” or he said, “the Ha Mans.”*2 ' Mis'ar bin Kidam said, “They used to be called “the brides’.”*3 All of this was recorded by the the Imam, great scholar, Abu TJayd Al-Qasim bin Sallam, may Allah have mercy upon him, in his book Fada’il Al-Qur’an.W Humayd bin Zanjuyah narrated that ‘Abdullah, may Allah be pleased with him, said, “The parable of the Qur’an is that of a man who sets out to find a place for his family to stay, and he comes to a place where there is evidence of rainfall. While he is walking about, admiring it, he suddenly comes upon beautiful gardens. He says, *1 liked the first traces of rainfall, but this is far better.’ It was said to him, The first place is like the Qur’an, and these beautiful gardens are like the splendor of family ofHa Mim in relation to the rest of the Qur’an’.” This was recorded by Al-Baghawi. So, call you upon Allah making religion sincerely for Him, however much the disbelievers may hate.} The Regret of the Disbelievers after They enter Hell Allah tells us that the disbelievers will feel regret on the Day of Resurrection, when they enter Hell and sink in the agonizing depth of fire. When they actually experience the unbearable punishment of Allah, they will hate themselves with the utmost hatred, because of the sins they committed in the past, which were the cause of their entering the Fire. At that point the angels will tell them in a loud voice that Allah's hatred towards them in this world, when Faith was offered to them and they rejected it, is greater than their hatred towards Fir'awn said: "I show you only that which I see, and I guide you only to the path of right policy!"} Musa was supported by a believing Man from Fir'awn's Family The well-known view is that this believing man was a Coptic (Egyptian) from the family of Fir'awn. As-Suddi said, he was a cousin [son of the paternal uncle] of Fir'awn. And it was said that he was the one who was saved along with MQsa, peace be upon him.*2 ' Ibn Jurayj reported that Ibn 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, said "No one from among the family of An-Nasal in Al-Kubra 5 :188 At-Tabari 21 :375.

iand he has come to you zoith clear signs from your Lord?) means, "how can you kill a man just because he says, 'My Lord is Allah,' and he brings proof that what he is saying is the truth?" Then, for the sake of argument, he went along with them and said, 4And if he is a liar, upon him will be (the sin of) his lie; but if he is telling the truth, then some of that (calamity) wherewith he threatens you will befall on you.) meaning, 'if you do not believe in what he is saying, then it is only common sense to leave him alone and not harm him; if he is lying, then Allah will punish him for his lies in this world and in the Hereafter. If he is telling the truth and you harm him, then some of what he is warning about will happen to you too, because he is threatening you with punishment in this world and in the Hereafter if you go against him. It is possible that he is telling the truth in your case, so you should leave him and his people alone, and not harm them.' Allah tells us that Musa asked Fir'awn and his people to leave them in peace, as Allah says: JW 41 o' Jy fj J dy. Ctj*' yIU-) ^ o\j 4 l>-v i ojj 4And indeed We tried before them Fir'awn's people, when there came to them a noble Messenger, saying: "Deliver to me the servants of Allah. And truly, I seek refuge with my Lord and your Lord, lest you should stone me. But if you believe me not, then keep away from me and leave me alone.") {44:17-21). Similarly, the Messenger of Allah told the Quraysh to leave him alone and let him call the servants of Allah to Allah; he asked them not to harm him, and to uphold the ties of kinship that existed between him and them, by not harming him. Allah says: 4 40& 'V 4Say: "No reward do I ask ofyou for this except to be kind to mefor my kinship with you."} (42:23), meaning, 'do not harm me, because of the ties of kinship that exist between me and you; so do not harm me, and let me address my ceill to the people.' This was the basis of the truce agreed upon on the day of Al-Hudaybiyah, which was a manifest victory. ji£ & l\} iVerily, Allah guides not one who is a transgressor, a liar!} means, If the one who claims to have been sent by Allah is a liar, as you say, this would be obvious to everyone from his words and deeds, for they would be inconsistent and self- contradictory. Proofofthe Torment ofthe Grave iwhile an evil torment encompassed Fir'awn's people. this refers to drowning in the sea, then being transferred from there to Hell, for their souls are exposed to the Fire morning and evening until the Hour begins. When the Day of Resurrection comes, their souls and bodies will be reunited in Hell. Allah says: At) ^Ajyy itUji pil 4And on the Dap when the Hour will be established (it will be said to the angels): "Admit Fir'awn's people to the severest torment!"} meaning, more intense pain and greater agony. This Ayah contains one of the major proofs used by the Ahlus-Sunnah to prove that there will be torment in the grave during the period of Al-Barzakh; it is the phrase: $\\Axc-j Vjic iThe Fire, they are exposed to it, morning and afternoon}. But the question arises: this Ayah was undoubtedly revealed in Makkah, but they use it as evidence to prove that there will be torment in the grave during the period of Al-Barzakh) l] Imam Ahmad recorded from 'A'ishah, may

Allah be pleased with her, that a Jewish woman used to serve her, and whenever ‘A’ishah did her a favor, the Jewish woman would say, “May Allah save you from the torment of the grave.” ‘A’ishah said, “Then the Messenger of Allah came in, and I said, ‘O Messenger of Allah, will there be any torment in the grave before the Day of Resurrection?’ He said, “No, no one said that?” I said, This Jewish woman, whenever I do her a favor, she says: May Allah save you from the torment of the grave.” The Messenger of Allah said, * The life after death, before the Day of Resurrection

“The Jews are lying, and they tell more lies about Allah. There is no torment except on the Day of Resurrection .» Then as much time passed as Allah willed should pass, then one day he came out at midday, wrapped in his robe with his eyes reddening, calling at the top of his voice: u bfrSi; i $ k(akiii jiii jbuf Eii« «The grave is like patches of dark night! O people, if you knew what I know, you would weep much and laugh little. O people, seek refuge with Allah from the torment of the grave, for the torment of the grave is real”[1] This chain of narration is Sahih according to the conditions of Al-Bukhari and Muslim, although they did not record it. It was said, ‘how can this report be reconciled with the fact that the Ayah was revealed in Makkah and the Ayah indicates that there will be torment during the period of Al-Barzakh?’ The answer is that the Ayah refers to the souls (of Fir’awn and his people) being exposed to the Fire morning and evening; it does not say that the pain will affect their bodies in the grave. So it may be that this has to do specifically with their souls. With regard to there being any effect on their bodies in Al-Barzakh, and their feeling pain as a result, this is indicated in the Sunnah, in some Hadiths which we will mention below. It was said that this Ayah refers to the punishment of the disbelievers in Al-Barzakh, and that it does not by itself imply that the believer will be punished in the grave for his sins. This is indicated by the Hadith recorded by Imam Ahmad from ‘A’ishah, may Allah be pleased with her, according to which the Messenger of Allah entered upon ‘A’ishah when a Jewish woman was with her, and she (the Jewish woman) was saying, “I was told that you will be tried in the grave.” The Messenger of Allah was worried and said: «O Jews will be tested.» ‘A’ishah, may Allah be pleased with her, said, “Several nights [•I Ahmad 6 :81

So the Prophets and believers may be killed in this world, but their call will prevail in this world." Allah granted victory to His Prophet Muhammad sg and his Companions over those who had opposed him, disbelieved in him and shown hostility towards him. He caused His Word and His religion to prevail over all other religions, commanded him to emigrate from his people to Al-Madinah, where He gave him supporters and helpers. Then he did them the favor of accepting ransom from them. Shortly after that, Allah enabled him to conquer Makkah, and he rejoiced in his return to his homeland, the sacred and holy land of Al-Haram. Through him, Allah saved it from its disbelief and Shirk. Then Allah enabled him to conquer the Yemen, and the entire Arabian Peninsula submitted to him, and the people entered the religion of Allah in crowds. Then Allah took him (in death), because of his high status and honor, and He established his Companions as his Khalifahs. Allah reminds His servants of His blessing in that He created the cattle \Al-An'am\ for them, which refers to camels, cows and sheep; some of them they ride and some of them they eat. Camels may be ridden or eaten; their milk is drunk and they are used for carrying heavy burdens on journeys to distant lands. Cattle are eaten and their milk is drunk; they are also used for plowing the earth. Sheep are eaten and their milk is also drunk. 509Surah 40. Ghafir (82 - 85) (Part-24) The Lesson to be learned from what happened to Those Who Came before Allah tells us about the nations who rejected their Messengers in ancient times. He mentioned the severe punishment they suffered despite their great strength, He mentioned the traces which they left behind in the earth and the great wealth they amassed. None of that availed them anything and could not prevent the punishment of Allah at all. That is because when the Messengers came to them with clear signs and decisive evidence, they did not pay any attention to them. Instead, they were content with the knowledge with them, or so they claimed, and they said that they did not need what the Messengers brought them. Mujahid said, "They said, we know better than them, we will not be resurrected and we will not be punished." * As-Suddi said, "In their ignorance, they rejoiced in what they had of (worldly) knowledge. So Allah sent upon them a punishment which they could not escape or resist." irti iand surrounded them.} means, encompassed them. 4that at which they used to mock,} means, that which they used to disbelieve in and said would never happen, u»} iSo when they saw Our punishment,} means, when they saw with their own eyes the punishment which came upon them, they said, 4We believe in Allah Alone and reject (all) that we used to associate with Him as (His) partners.} means, they affirmed that Allah is One and denied the false gods, but this was at the time when excuses were to no avail. And remembers (glorifies) the Name of his Lord, and praus.} (87:14-15) And; A'.fM o' d> 2> iAnd say to him : "Would you purify yourself?"} (79:18) What is meant by Zakdh here is purification of the soul, ridding oneself of all bad qualities, the worst of which is Shirk. The Zakdh paid on one's wealth is so called because it purifies wealth, and it is a means of increasing it, blessing it and making it more beneficial, and a means of assisting one to use it in doing good deeds. Qatadah said, "They withheld the Zakdh of their wealth." This is the apparent meaning according to many of the scholars of Tafslr, and this is the view favored by Ibn Jarir.11 ' But the matter is subject to further examination, because the obligation of Zakdh was instituted during the second year after the Hijrah to Al-Madlnah, according to what is stated by several scholars. Yet this Ayah was revealed in Makkah. However, it is not unlikely that the principle of giving charity and Zakdh was already in place and had been enjoined at the beginning of the Prophet's mission, as Allah says: ibut pay the due thereof on the day of their harvest} (6:141). As for the details of Zakdh and how it is to be calculated according to the Nusub, were explained in Al-Madinah. This is how we may reconcile between the two opinions. Similarly, prayer was originally enjoined before sunrise and before sunset at the beginning of the Prophet's mission; it was only on the Night of the Isra', a year and a half before the Hijrah, that m At-Tabari 21 :431

Allah enjoined upon His Messenger jg the five daily prayers. The conditions and essential elements of prayer were explained later, in stages. And Allah knows best. Allah says that He created the earth first, because it is the foundation, and the foundation should be built first, then the roof. Then a seal will be placed over their mouths, and their hands will speak. Then it will be known that not a single fact can be hidden from Allah, and at that point, 4those who disbelieved will wish} (4:42). Allah created the earth in two days, then He created the heavens, then He [Istawa. i/d) the heaven and gave it its shape in two more days. Then He spread the earth, which means that He brought forth therefrom its water and its pasture. You cannot getfurther than your rank .» There are numerous Marfa' and Mawquf Hadiths, Sahih, Hasan and others, which indicate that the smoke is one of the awaited signs (of the Hour). This is also the apparent meaning ofAyat in the Qur'an. Allah says: iThen wait you for the Day when the sky will bring forth a visible smoke. meaning, clearly visible, such that all people will see it. According to Ibn Mas'ud's interpretation, this was a vision which they saw because of their intense hunger and exhaustion. He also interprets the Ayah iCovering mankind,} meaning, it covered them and overwhelmed them. But if it was only an illusion which happened to the idolators of Makkah, Allah would not have said "covering mankind." 4>Ijc ithis is a painful torment.} means, this will be said to them by way of rebuke. Ibn Mas'Qd interpreted this to mean the day of Badr. It was also narrated from Ibn 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, in a report related to him from Al- 'Awfi12 ' and from Ubayy bin Ka*b, may Allah be pleased with him. 131 This is possible, but the apparent meaning is that it refers to the Day of Resurrection, although the day of Badr was also a day of vengeance. Verily, they are a host to be drowned.} When Moses and the Children of Israel has crossed the sea, Pharaoh wanted to strike it with his staff so that it would go back as it had been, and it would form a barrier between them and Fir'awn and prevent him from reaching them. But Allah commanded him to leave it as it was, quiet and divided, and gave him the glad tidings that they were a host to be drowned, and that he should not fear either being overtaken by Fir'awn or drowning in the sea. Ibn 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, said: And leave the sea as it is (quiet and divided). means, leave it as it is and keep moving. 111 Mujahid said: 4<JS it is} means, a dry path, as it is. 'Do not command it to go back; leave it until the last of them have entered it. This was also the view of 'Ikrimah, Ar-Rabi' bin Anas, Ad-Dahhak, Qatadah, Ibn Zayd, Ka'b Al-Ahbar, Simak bin Harb and others.131 How many of gardens and springs hurt they left behind. So they did not deserve to be given a respite, because of their disbelief, sin, transgression and stubbornness. Ibn Jarir recorded that Said bin Jubayr said, "A man came to Ibn 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, and said to him: 'O Abu Al-'Abbas, Allah says, 4 And the heavens and the earth wept not for them, nor were they given respite} - do the heavens and the earth weep for anybody?' He, may Allah be pleased with him, said, 'Yes, there is no one who does not have a gate in the heavens through which his provision comes down and his good deeds ascend. Are they better or the people of Tubba' and those before them? We destroyed them because they were indeed criminals.) Refutation of Those Who deny the Resurrection Here Allah denounces the idolaters for their denial of the Resurrection and their belief that there is nothing after this life and no life or resurrection after death, which they based on the fact that their forefathers had died and had not returned. They said. If the resurrection is true, {Then bring back our forefathers, if you speak the truth 1.} This is false evidence and a specious argument, for the resurrection will happen on the Day of Judgement, not in this world; it will happen when this world has ended and ceased to be. Allah will bring all creatures back, created anew. He will make the evildoers fuel for the fire of Hell, and on that Day you will be witnesses over mankind and the Messenger will be a witness over you. Then Allah threatens them and warns them of the irresistible torment other idolaters like who denied the resurrection, suffered. Such as the people of Tubba', i.e., Saba'. Allah destroyed them, wreaked havoc upon their land and scattered them here and there throughout the land, as we have already seen in Surah Saba'f This was brought about because the idolaters denied the Resurrection. Here too, the idolaters are compared to them. They Tubba' were Arab descendants of Qahtan, just as these people (Quraysh) were Arab descendants of 'Adn&n. Among the people of Himyar - who are also known as Saba' - when a man became their king, they called him Tubba', just as the title Chosroes was given to the king of Persia, Caesar to the king of the Romans, Fir'awn to the disbelieving ruler of Egypt, Negus to the king of Ethiopia, and so on among other nations. But it so happened that one of the Tubba' left Yemen and went on a journey of conquest until he reached Samarqand, expanding his kingdom and domain. He is the one who founded Al-Hirah. It is agreed that he passed through Al- Madfnah during the days of Jahiliyyah. He fought its inhabitants but they resisted him; they fought him by day and supplied him with food by night, so he felt ashamed before them and refrained from harming them. He was accompanied by two Jewish rabbis who advised him and told him that he would never prevail over this city, for it would be the place to which a Prophet would migrate towards the end of time. So he (il See volume seven the Tafstrof Surah Saba' (34 :15-19) told him about the significance of this House, that it had been built by Ibrahim Al-Khalil, peace be upon him, and that it would become of great importance through that Prophet who would be sent towards the end of time - So he respected it, ZiklZZU performed Tawaf with it with a fine cloth. Then he returned to Yemen and invited its people to follow the religion of guidance along with him. At that time, the religion of Musa, peace be upon him, was the religion followed by those who were guided, before the coming of the Messiah, peace be upon him. So the people of Yemen accepted the religion of guidance along with him. 'Abdur-Razzaq recorded that Abu Hurayrah, may Allah be pleased with him, said, "The Messenger of Allah said: 'do not know whether Tubba' was a Prophet or not' Al-Baghawi 4:154. It has deficiencies, in the mode of narration and the wording of the text. However, there are a number of authentic narrations that support its general meaning. See As-Sahihah

It was narrated that Tamim bin 'Abdur-Rahman said: " 'Ata' bin Abi Rabah said, 'Do not revile Tubba', for the Messenger of Allah forbade reviling him.'" And Allah knows best. These are the disbelievers. More than one commentator stated that this referred to Abu Jahl; undoubtedly he is included among those referred to in this Ayah, but it is not specifically about him. Ibn Jarir recorded that Abu Ad-Darda' was reciting to a man: 4 Verily, the tree of Zaqqum will be the food of the sinners.} The man said, "The food of the orphan." The Life and the Death of the Believers and the Disbelievers are not Equal Allah the Exalted states here that the believers and the disbelievers are never equal. Allah said in another Ayah, p &S(P&£& ap. 4Not equal are the dwellers of the Fire and the dwellers of the Paradise. It is the dwellers of Paradise that will be successful. Allah's statement, ih&^ iAnd Allah left him astray with knowledge, has two meanings. One of them is that Allah knew that this person deserves to be misguided, so He left him astray. Say (to them): "Allah gives you life, then causes you to die, then He will assemble you on the Day of Resurrection about which there is no doubt. But most of mankind know not.") The Conviction of the Disbelievers, Their Argument and the Refutation of it Allah mentions here the creed of Ad-Dahriyyah and the Arab idolators who embraced their creed, denying Resurrection, 4&J C% (2C- VI Jt £ \ij) 4 And they say: "There is nothing but our life of this world, we die and we live....") They say that there is only this life, some people die while others are born to life, without Resurrection or Judgement. This was the creed of Arab idolators who used to deny Resurrection, in addition to, the creed of the atheist philosophers among them who denied the creation and Resurrection. This was also the statement of atheist philosophers who deny the Creator and think that the world will return to its original form once every thirty-six thousand years, when everything will restart its life-cycle again! They claim that this cycle was repeated for infinity, thus contradicting the sound reason and the divine revelation. They said,*

*C> iand nothing destroys us except Ad-Dahr (time).) Allah the Exalted said in reply, iAnd they have no knowledge of it, they only presume.) they speculate and guess! As for the Hadith recorded by the two collectors of the Sahih, and Abu Dawud and An-Nasal, from Abu Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allah jJg said, JJ —L» 1 ijfi I ^ajjl C~Lj •if'do Jjjj» 8 Allah the Exalted says, "Tlte Son of 'Adam annoys Me when he curses Ad-Dahr (time), while I am Ad-Dahr. In My Hand are all matters; I cause the alternation of his days and nights."^ In another narration; «#Ji^ Jli 2)1 Sli ; V •Do /iof curse Ad-Dahr (time), for Allah is Ad-Dahr . »21 Ash-ShafiT, Abu 'Ubaydah and several other Imams of Tafsir explained the meaning of the Prophet's statement, 'y> ill y>j}\ 1 'jo "Do not abuse Ad-Dahr (time), for Allah is Ad-Dahr .» They said, "During the time of Jahiliyyah, when an affliction, a calamity or a disaster struck them, the Arabs used to say, "Woe to Ad-Dahr {time}!" So they used to blame such incidents on Ad-Dahr, cursing Ad-Dahr in the process. Surely, it is Allah the Exalted and Most Honored Who causes these (and all) things to happen. This is why when they cursed Ad-Dahr, it was as if they were cursing Allah Himself, since truthfully, He causes all incidents to happen. Therefore, abusing Ad-Dahr Path Al-Bari 8 :437, Muslim 4 : 1762, Abu Dawud 5:423, An-Nasal in Al-Kubra 6 :457 121 Muslim 4:1763 was prohibited due to this consideration, for it was Allah Whom they meant by abusing Ad-Dahr, which - as we said- they accused of causing (distressful) incidents.” This is the best explanation for this subject, and it is the desired meaning. Allah knows best. We should mention that Ibn Hazm and those of the Zahiriyyah like him made an error when they used this Hadith to include Ad-Dahr among Allah’s most beautiful Names. Allah’s statement, “And when Our Clear Ayat are recited to them,) means, when the truth is made plain to them and used as evidence against them, asserting that Allah is able to resurrect the bodies after they have perished and disintegrated, “their argument is no other than that they say: “Bring back our fathers, if you are truthful!”) ‘bring them back to life, if what you say is true.’ Allah the Exalted said, “Say (to them): "Allah gives you life and then causes you to die..."") For you are witnesses that He brings you (or new life) to existence after non-existence,” (2:28) Therefore, He Who is able to initiate creation, is able to restart it, as well and more obviously, “And He it is Who originates the creation, then He will repeat it; and this is easier for Him.” (30:27) Allah said next, 33 Surah 45. Al-Jathiyah (24-26) (Part-25) “then He will assemble you on the Day of Resurrection about which there is no doubt.” ‘when He resurrects you, it will be on and for the Day of Resurrection, not in this life. Therefore, your statement is groundless,’ “Bring back our (dead) fathers, if you are truthful!” Allah said, “The Day when He will gather you (all) on the Day of Gathering.” (64:9), “For the Day are these signs postponed? For the Day of sorting out.” (77:12-13), and, “We delay it only for a term (already) fixed.” (11:104) Allah said here, “then He will assemble you on the Day of Resurrection about which there is no doubt.” there is no doubt that it will come, “But most of mankind know not.” and this is why they deny Resurrection and discount the fact that the bodies will be brought back to life. Allah the Exalted said, “Verily, they see it afar off. But We see it (quite) near.” (70:6), they discount the possibility that Resurrection will ever come, while the believers believe that its occurrence is easy and imminent.

35 Surah 45. Al-Jathiyah (27-29) (Part-25) “the followers of falsehood shall lose.” those who disbelieve in Allah and reject the clear proofs and unequivocal evidences that He has sent down to His Messengers. Allah said, “And you will see each nation humbled to their knees (Jathiyah),” kneeling, fearful of the tremendous calamity and events. It was said that this will occur when Hellfire will be brought forth, for she will exhale once, and everyone will fall to their knees, including Ibrahim, the Khalil. He will proclaim, “Myself, myself, myself! Today, I will not ask You (O Allah) but about myself.” And even ‘Isa, will proclaim, “Today, I will only argue before You on my own behalf, I will not ask You about Maryam, who gave birth to me.” Allah said next, “each nation will be called to its Record.” meaning, Record of deeds. Allah said in a similar Ayah, “And the Book will be presented; and the Prophets and the witnesses will be brought forward” (39:69). This is why Allah said here, “This Day you shall be recompensed for what you used to do.” “you will be judged according to your deeds, good and evil.” Allah said in similar Ayah, “On that Day man will be informed of what he sent forward, and what he left behind. Nay! Man will be a witness against himself, though he may put forth his excuses.” (75:13-15) Allah said, “This, Our Record speaks about you with truth.” It contains the record of all your actions, without addition or deletion. And they will find all that they did, placed before them, and your Lord treats no one with injustice (18:49) Allah's statement, iVerily, We were recording what you used to do . means, *We ordered Our scribe angels to record your deeds.' Ibn 'Abbas and others commented, "The angels record the deeds of the servants and then ascend to heaven with them. There, they meet the angels entrusted with the Records of deeds sent down from Al-Lawh Al-Mahfuz on each Night of Al-Qadr, containing what Allah has written will occur from the servants, long before He created them. They will compare their records and find out that not a single letter was added or deleted." These appear together in many places of the Qur’an, such as Allah’s saying, ‘Your Lord has decreed that you worship none but Him, and that you be dutiful to your parents.’ (17:23) Allah says, ‘Be grateful to Me and to your parents. Muhammad bin Ishaq bin Yasar * narrated from Ba’jah bin ‘Abdullah Al-Juhanl that a man from his tribe (Juhaynah) married a woman from Juhaynah. She delivered a baby after six months. So her husband went to Tjthman, may Allah be pleased with him, and told him about that. Thus, Uthman summoned her. When she was getting dressed, her sister started crying. She asked her: “Why do you cry? By Allah, no one has ever approached me (for sexual relations) of Allah’s creation except him (my husband). So let Allah decree (for me) as He wills.” When she was brought before Tjthman, he commanded that she be stoned to death (for adultery). ‘All heard of this, came to Tjthman, and said: “What are you doing?” He (Tjthman) said: “She delivered after six months! Can this ever happen?” ‘All, may Allah be pleased with him, said: “Don’t you read the Qur’an?” He said: “Yes, of course!” He (‘AH) then said: haven’t you heard Allah’s saying, ‘and his gestation and weaning is thirty months’, and; ‘two complete years’ (2:233) (Subtracting the two numbers) we are only left with six months.” Tjthman, may Allah be pleased with him, said: “By Allah, I did not see that! Bring the woman back.” But they found that she had already been killed. Bajah continued: “By Allah, no two crows and no two eggs are more similar than that child turned out to be to his father! When his father saw that he said, “By Allah! This is my son without any doubt.’ Later on, Allah afflicted him with a skin abscess in his face (because of his false accusation to his wife). Some people claim that it was revealed about 'Abdur-Rahman bin Abi Bakr. But this claim is weak and rejected, because 'Abdur-Rahman bin Abi Bakr embraced Islam after this was revealed. His adherence to Islam was excellent, and he was among the best of his contemporaries. (9:122) This Ayah has been used as evidence that the Jinns have warners from among themselves, but no Messengers. Opening

Opening denies them any rewards or blessings for them. This is similar to His saying, And We will approach what they have done of deeds and make them as dispersed dust. (25:23) Allah then says, And those who believe and do righteous good deeds, Which means that their hearts and souls have believed, and their limbs and their hidden and apparent acts have complied with Allah's Law. And believe in that which has been sent down to Muhammad Adding this statement to the previous one is a method of adding a specific meaning to a general one. This provides proof that after Muhammad's advent, believing in him is a required condition for the true faith. Allah then says, For it is the truth from their Lord. which is a beautifully placed parenthetical clause. Thus, Allah says, He expiates from them their sins and amends their Bal. Ibn 'Abbas, said, "This means their matter." Mujahid said, "This means their affair." Qatadah and Ibn Zayd both said, "Their condition." And all of these are similar in meaning. It has been mentioned (from the Prophet in the Hadith of the responding to one who sneezes, "May Allah guide you and rectify your (Bal) affairs. Then Allah says, m Tuhfat Al-Ahwardhi 8 : 11 .

With him, Allah has completed the religion and established the evidence against all people in a way that was never done by a previous Prophet. Allah's Messenger jg has most clearly informed about the signs and indications of the Hour, as we have discussed elsewhere. Al-Bukhari recorded from Sahl bin Sa'd, may Allah be pleased with him, that he saw Allah's Messenger jg bring his index and middle fingers together while he said,

In fact, Allah has commanded the people to establish righteousness on earth, as well as to join the ties of kinship by treating the relatives well in speech, actions, and spending wealth in charity. Many authentic and sound Hadiths have been reported through numerous routes of transmission from Allah's Messenger in this regard. and sever whoever severs you?' It replied, 'Yes indeed!' He said, 'You are granted that!' Abu Hurayrah then added, "Read if you wish: 4 So would you perhaps, if you turned away, spread corruption on earth, and sever your ties of kinship?" means, there indeed are locks upon some hearts, firmly closing them so that none of its meanings can reach them. Ibn Jarir recorded from Hisham bin 'Urwah, from his father, may Allah be pleased with him, that Allah's Messenger ﷺ once recited this Ayah, Will they not then reflect upon the Qur'an, or are there locks upon their hearts? and a young man from Yemen said, "Indeed, there are locks upon them - until Allah opens them totally or slightly." After that 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with him, always liked that young man, and kept that to himself until he became in charge, upon which he utilized him (as a consultant). Condemning Apostasy Allah then says, Verily, those who have turned back meaning, they departed from the faith and returned to disbelief. And after guidance had become clear to them - Shaytan has enticed them meaning he adorned and beautified that (apostasy) for them. 115 Surah 47. Muhammad (29-31) (Part-26) their affair to His believing servant? Yes indeed, He will expose their affair and manifest it so that those with insight will be able to understand it. In that regard, Allah revealed Surah Bard'ah (or At-Tau>bah), in which He clarified the hypocrites' scandals, and pinpointed their practices that are indicative of their hypocrisy. Because of that, this Sūrah (Surah Bara'ah) is also called "The Exposer". Adgh&n is the plural of Dighn, which means what the souls harbor of envy and hatred toward Islam and its people who support it. Allah then says, 4Had We so willed, We could have shown them clearly to you, so that you would know them by their marks. Allah is telling His Messenger ag, "Had We willed, O Muhammad, We would have shown you the specific individuals who are hypocrites, so that you would plainly know them." However, Allah did not do that in regard to all of the hypocrites. He conceals His creation, lets their affairs run according to apparent purity, and leaves the inner secrets to the One Who is well aware of them. Allah then adds, /1 . mA' »// \ 4Jyl' ^ r 4But you will know them by the tone of their speech!} which means, you will know them by their speech that reveals their intentions.' He indicates that those people can never harm Allah in the least, and rather they only harm themselves and become losers on the Day of Resurrection. He will nullify their deeds. Allah will not reward them even the weight of a mosquito (i.e., the smallest thing) for any good that they did before their apostasy, but would instead totally invalidate and destroy it. Their apostasy wipes away their good deeds entirely, just as the good deeds would normally wipe away the evil deeds. Imam Ahmad Ibn Nasr Al-Marwazi reported in Kitab As-Salah (the Book of Prayer) that Abu Al-'Aliyah said, "The Prophet's Companions used to think that no sin would harm a person who says 'La ilaha illallah, ' just as no good deed would benefit a person who joins partners with Allah. So Allah revealed, % j£it ljXx, -it \S\} iObey Allah and obey the Messenger and do not invalidate your deeds.} This made them fear that some sins could nullify their deeds." 11 It has also been reported from Ibn TJmar, may Allah be pleased with him, that he said, "We, the Companions of Allah's Messenger used to think that good deeds would all be accepted, until Allah revealed, $£% j#f \jS\jS iObey Allah and obey the Messenger and do not invalidate your deeds.} So we asked each other: What is it that can nullify

Thus, Allah says, 4So do not lose heart and beg for peace while you are superior.} meaning, in the condition ofyour superiority over your enemy. If, on the other hand, the disbelievers are considered more powerful and numerous than the Muslims, then the Imam (general commander) may decide to hold a treaty if he judges that it entails a benefit for the Muslims. This is like what Allah's Messenger did when the disbelievers obstructed him from entering Makkah and offered him treaty in which all fighting would stop between them for ten years. Consequently, he jg agreed to that. Allah then says:

He recited it in a vibrating and pleasant tone. Mu’awiyah (a subnarrator) added: “Were I not afraid that the people would crowd around me, I would surely try to imitate and produce his recitation.” Both Al-Bukhari and Muslim recorded this Hadith through Shu’bah. The Reason behind revealing SuratAl-Fath

This honorable Surah was revealed after the Messenger of Allah ﷺ returned from the area of Al-Hudaybiyyah, during the month of Dhul-Qa’dah, in the sixth year of Hijrah. This is when the idolators prevented him from reaching Al-Masjid Al-Haram to perform the Umrah he intended. They stopped the Prophet ﷺ from reaching Makkah at that time, but then were prone to peace negotiations. A peace treaty was conducted stipulating that the Messenger ﷺ would return this year and then come back for Umrah the following year. The Messenger ﷺ agreed. However, some of the Companions disliked these terms, including Thmar bin Al-Khattab, as we will mention in detail, Allah willing, while explaining this Surah. After the Prophet ﷺ slaughtered his sacrificial animals in the area where he was stopped and headed back to Al-Madinah, Allah the Exalted and Most Honored revealed this Surah about what occurred between him and the idolators. Allah declared the Al-Hudaybiyyah peace treaty a manifest victory, because of the benefits peace would carry and the good results that did originate from it. ‘Abdullah bin Mas’ud and other Companions said, “You consider the conquering of Makkah to be Al-Fath (the victory), while to us, Al-Fath is the treaty conducted at Al-Hudaybiyyah.” Jabir (bin ‘Abdullah) said, “We only considered Al-Fath to be the day of Hudaybiyyah!” 11 Al-Bukhari recorded that Al-Bara’ (bin ‘Azib) said, “You consider Al-Fath to be the conquest of Makkah, which was indeed a victory. However, we consider Al-Fath to be the pledge of Ar-Ridwan on the Day of Al-Hudaybiyyah. Then, we were fourteen hundred with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. Al-Hudaybiyyah had a well, whose water we consumed, not leaving a drop of water in it. When the news of what happened reached the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, he came towards us and sat on the edge of the well. Then he asked to be brought a bucket of water and used it for ablution. He next rinsed his mouth, invoked Allah and poured that water into the well. Soon after, that well provided us, as well as our animals, with sufficient water, in whatever amount of water we wished.”*2’ Imam Ahmad recorded that Thumar bin al-Khattab said, “We were with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ on a trip, and I asked him about a matter three times, but he did not answer me. So I said to myself, ‘May your mother lose you, O son of al-Khattab! You were stubborn in repeating your question three times to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ; each time he did not respond to you.’ So I mounted my animal, my camel, and went ahead for fear that a part of the Qur’an might be revealed in At-Tabari 22 :201 ’2| FathAl-Bari 7 -.505.

The number of the Companions who gave their pledge to Allah's Messenger jg at that time was either 1,300, 1,400 or 1,500. However, 1,400 is the better choice.

Hadiths about the Pledge at Al-Hudaybiyyah Al-Bukhari recorded that Jabir bin 'Abdullah, may Allah be pleased with him, said, "We numbered one thousand and four hundred on the day of Hudaybiyyah."* 1 Muslim also collected this Hadith. 2' The Two Sahihs recorded that Jabir said; "We numbered one thousand and four hundred at that time. The Messenger jg placed his hand in the water and it started gushing forth from between his fingers until everyone had quenched their thirst."*31 This is a short form of the story. Another narration of it mentioned that the Companions became thirsty on the day of Al-Hudaybiyyah and the Messenger of Allah jg gave them an arrow from his quiver. They took the arrow, placed it in the well of Al-Hudaybiyyah and the water gushed out until they all satisfied their thirst. Jabir was asked how many of them there were on that day and he said, "We were one thousand and four hundred. And had we been a hundred thousand, that water would still have been sufficient to satisfy us all."*4 * In another narration collected in the Two Sahihs, Jabir bin 'Abdullah said that they were one thousand and five hundred at the time.*5 Al-Bukhari recorded that Said bin Al-Musayyib was asked by Qatadah, "How many were present for the pledge of Ar- Ridwan?" Said said, "One thousand and five hundred." Qatadah posed, "Jabir bin 'Abdullah, may Allah be pleased with them both, said that they were one thousand and four hundred." Said said, "He forgot. He told me that they were one thousand and five hundred."*6 * However, Al-Bayhaqi commented, "This narration testifies that Jabir used to state that they were one thousand and five hundred, but later on remembered the true number and said that they were one thousand and four hundred."*7 111 Fath Al-Bari 8 :45 1 * Muslim 3 :1484 * Fath Al-Bari 7 :505 and Muslim 3 :1484 ' Fath Al-Bari 7:504. *s * Fath Al-Bari7 :507 and Muslim 3 : 1484 ' FathAl-Bari7:507. 171 Dala'ilAn-Nubuwwah 4 :97

134 Tafstr Ibn Kathir The Reason behind conducting the Pledge of Ar-Ridwan Muhammad bin Ishaq bin Yasar said in his book on Sirah: "The Messenger of Allah sg beckoned Umar bin Al-Khattab in order to send him to Makkah, so that he could inform the chiefs of Quraysh of the Prophet's intent (to perform Vmrah at Makkah). Umar said, 'O Allah's Messenger! I fear the Quraysh for my being. There are no longer any chiefs from the tribe of Bani 'Adi bin Ka*b remaining in Makkah who would protect me, in addition, the Quraysh know my enmity and harshness against them. However, I could tell you about a man who is mightier than I in Makkah: Uthman bin 'Affan. We should send him to Abu Sufyan and the chiefs of the Quraysh informing them that you did not come to fight them, but to. visit this House and to honor its holiness.' Uthman left to Makkah. He met Aban bin Said bin Al-'As upon entering Makkah or just before that. As a result, Aban took Uthman with him and extended his protection to him so he could deliver the message of Allah's Messenger jg. Uthman indeed went to Abu Sufyan and the chiefs of Quraysh and imparted the Prophet's message that he was sent with. When Uthman finished delivering the Prophet's message to them they said to him, If you wish, you can perform Tawaf around the House.' Uthman replied, I would not do that before the Messenger of Allah gets the chance to perform Tawaf around it.' So the Quraysh kept Uthman waiting in Makkah. However, the Messenger of Allah jg and the Muslims were told that Uthman had been killed." Ibn Ishaq continued, "I was told by 'Abdullah bin Abu Bakr that when news of Uthman's death was conveyed to him, the Messenger of Allah said, ³?^ & •kVe will not leave until we fight the people .s”¹¹ Ibn Ishaq continued, “The Messenger of Allah ﷺ called the Muslims to give a pledge of allegiance, resulting in the pledge of Ar-Ridwan being conducted under the tree. Later, people used to say that the Messenger of Allah took the pledge from them to die. However, Jabir bin ‘Abdullah said, The ^ Ibn Hisham 3 :329-330. This part of the narration is not authentic but its general meaning is found in the upcoming references

Messenger of Allah ﷺ did not ask us to give a pledge to die (or be victorious), but that we would not run away (from battle).’ The Muslims gave their pledge and none among them held back from giving it, except Al-Jadd bin Qays from the tribe of Bani Salamah. Jabir used to say afterwards, ‘By Allah, it is as if I am looking at him now next to the shoulder of his camel taking refuge behind it, so that the people did not see him.’ Soon afterwards, news came to the Messenger of Allah that the story of Tjthman’s death was not true.” Al-Bukhari recorded that Nafi’ said, “People said that ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar embraced Islam before ‘Umar, but this is not true. What happened is that on the Day of Hdaybiyyah, ‘Umar sent ‘Abdullah to bring his horse that he kept with a man from Al-Ansar, so he could use it to fight. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ was then taking the pledge from the Muslims under the tree while ‘Umar was unaware. So, ‘Abdullah conducted his pledge and fetched the horse and brought it to ‘Umar, who was wearing his armor in preparation for battle. ‘Abdullah told Umar that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was accepting the pledge under the tree. ‘Umar proceeded with ‘Abdullah and gave his pledge to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ- This is why some people thought that ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar embraced Islam before ‘Umar, may Allah be pleased with them both.” Al-Bukhari also recorded Ibn ‘Umar saying that, the people who were with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ scattered under the shade of trees. Suddenly, the people gathered around the Prophet ﷺ and ‘Umar said, “O ‘Abdullah! Investigate why the people are gathering around Allah’s Messenger.” Ibn ‘Umar found the people giving their pledge. He gave his pledge, then went back and told ‘Umar, who also went and gave his pledge. In a Hadith collected by Muslim, 151 Jabir bin ‘Abdullah said, “On the day of Al-Hdaybiyyah, we were one thousand and four hundred. We gave the pledge of allegiance to the Prophet while ‘Umar was holding the Prophet’s hand ¹¹¹ See the references for Muslim that follow. ¹²¹ Ibn Hisham 3 :329-330. ¹³¹ Fath Al-Bari 7 :52 1 ¹⁴¹ Path Al-Bari 7:521. ¹⁵¹ Muslim 3 :1483

We were fourteen hundred. We did not give him our pledge to die, but gave the pledge not to run from battle.” However, Al-Bukhari recorded that Salamah bin Al-Akwa’, may Allah be pleased with him, said, “I gave the pledge to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ under the tree.” Yazid asked him, “O Abu Maslamah, to what did you pledge at that time?” Salamah said, “To die!”² Al-Bukhari also collected a Hadith from Salamah bin Al-Akwa’ that he said, “I gave my pledge to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ on the day of Hdaybiyyah. I stood to the side and the Messenger ﷺ said, *Wh\j notgive thepledge, O Salamah?» and I said, *1 did.’He ﷺ said, “Come and give pledge». Allah characterizes the bedouins who lagged behind the Messenger of Allah during the Vmrah of Hudaybiyyah, saying that when the Prophet jg and his Companions later went on to conquer Khaybar, the bedouins asked them to take them along. They were hoping to collect war booty, having been absent when it was time to fight the enemy and enduring with patience therein. Allah the Exalted ordered His Messenger to refuse to give them permission to accompany him, being a punishment that is similar to their error. Allah has promised those who were present at Al-Hudaybiyyah to earn Khaybar's war spoils alone, not shared in that with the bedouins who lagged behind. Hushaym narrated this explanation from Abu Bishr, from both Said bin Jubayr and 'Ikrimah . 121 Qatadah, as narrated from him in one version, held the same view . 131 The second view is that these people are the tribe of Thaqif, according to Ad-Dahhak. The third view is that they are Banu Hanlfa, according to Juwaybir and Az-Zuhri, as Muhammad bin Ishaq narrated from him . 141 Similar was narrated from Said bin Jubayr and Ikrimah . 151 The fourth opinion is that they are the Persians, according to 'Ali bin Abi Talhah who reported that from 'Abdullah bin 'Abbas. This is also the view of 'Ata', Mujahid, and 'Ikrimah . 161 Ka'b Al-Ahbar said that they are the Romans , 171 while Ibn Abi Layla, 'Ata, Al-Hasan and Qatadah - in a different narration from him, said that they are the Persians and Romans . 1®1 Mujahid also said that they are the idolators . 191 In another narration Mujahid said, "They are men given to great warfare," and did not specify any particular people. Seeing that, the Companions got up, slaughtered their sacrifices, and started shaving the heads of one another. Later on Mu’awiyah bin Abu Sufyan married one of them, and Safwan bin Umayyah married the other. When the Prophet jg returned to Al-Madinah, Abu Basir, a new Muslim convert from the Quraysh, came to him. The disbelievers sent two men in pursuit who said to the Prophet Sjt, ‘Abide by the promise you gave us.’ So, the Prophet jg handed him over to them. They took him out (of Al-Madinah) until they reached Dhul-Hulayfah where they dismounted to eat some dates they had with them. Abu Basir said to one of them, “By Allah, O, so-and-so, I see you have a fine sword.’ The other drew it out (of its sheath) and said, ‘Yes, by Allah, it is very fine and I have tried it many times.’ Abu Basir said, let me have a look at it.’ When the other gave the sword to Abu Basir, he struck him with it until he died. When Abu Basir heard this from the Prophet jg, he understood that he would return him to the idolaters again, so he set off until he reached the seashore. Abu Jandal bin Suhayl also got himself released from the disbelievers and joined Abu Basir. Thereafter, whenever a man from Quraysh embraced Islam he would follow Abu Basir until they formed a strong group. By Allah, whenever they heard about a caravan of the Quraysh heading towards Ash-Sham (Greater Syria), they

The people of Quraysh sent a message to the Prophet ﷺ requesting him for the sake of Allah and kith and kin to send for (Abu Basir and his companions) promising that whoever among them came to the Prophet ﷺ, would be secure. Al-Bukhari narrated in the Book of Tafsir that Habib bin Abi Thabit said that he went to Abu Wa'il asking him about something and he said, "We were at Siffin, when a man said, "Do you not see those who call to Ali's Book?" 'Ali bin Abi Talib said, 'Yes.' Sahl bin Hunayf said, 'Do not feel certain in the reliability of your own opinions! 'Umar came (to the Prophet ﷺ) and said, 'Are we not on the true cause and theirs is the false cause? Are not our killed in Paradise and theirs in the Fire?' He said, *Yes.' "Umar said, "Why then should we be humble with regards to the cause of our religion? Why should we go back before Allah decides in the matter between us (between Muslims and the idolators.)' The Prophet ﷺ said, "Ijil <1>1 <1>1 willaijl ^1 lit «0 son of Al-Khattab! I am Allah's Messenger and He will never abandon me . He is Allah's Messenger and Allah will never abandon him.' Surat Al-Fath was later revealed." Al-Bukhari collected this Hadith in several other parts of his Sahih, and so did Muslim and An-Nasab using various chains of narration from Abu Wa'il, Sufyan bin Salamah, from Sahl bin Hunayf. Some of these narrations read, "O people! Accuse sheer opinion (of being imperfect)! On the day Abu Jandal came, I saw myself willing to reject the command of Allah's Messenger ﷺ, had I had the chance." In yet another narration, "Surat Al-Fath was revealed and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ called "Umar bin Al-Khattab and recited it to him." Allah has indeed fulfilled the True Vision which He showed to His Prophet In a dream, the Messenger of Allah saw himself entering Makkah and performing Tawaf around the House. He told his Companions about this dream when he was still in Al- Madinah. When they went to Makkah in the year of Al- Hudaybiyyah, none of them doubted that the Prophet's vision would come true that year. When the treaty of peace was conducted and they had to return to Al-Madinah that year, being allowed to return to Makkah the next year, some of the Companions disliked what happened. 'Umar bin Al- Khattab asked about this, saying, "Haven't you told us that we will go to the House and perform Tawaf around it?" The Prophet ﷺ said. i Yes. Have I told you that you will go to it this year?» Umar said, "No." The Prophet ﷺ said, H j j 4 j ! J j U J i D "Then you will go to it and perform Tawaf around it." This occurred in the Vmrah performed the following year, on the seventh year of Hijrah during the month of Dhul-Qa’dah. When the Messenger sg left from Al-Hudaybiyyah, during the month of Dhul-Qa’dah (the sixth year of Hijrah), he went back to Al-Madlnah. He remained in Al-Madinah during the months of Dhul-Hijjah and Al-Muharram. In Safar, he marched forth to Khaybar, and Allah opened that city for him, partly by force and partly by its people surrendering to him. Khaybar was a wealthy province that had abundant date trees and vegetation. The Prophet jg hired the (defeated) Jews of Khaybar to attend |i| Fath Al-Bari 3 :656, Muslim 2 :946.

to a part of its green fields and divided the province among those who attended Al-Hudaybiyyah with him. No one else except those Companions took part in attacking Khaybar, except Ja'far bin Abi Talib, who came back with his companions from Ethiopia. Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari and his people also attended that battle. None of them were absent except Abu Dujanah Simak bin Kharashah, according to Ibn Zayd. 111 This fact is well recorded in (the Books of) history. The Prophet sg then returned to Al-Madlnah. When the month of Dhul-Qa’dah came, the seventh year of Hijrah, the Prophet jg went to Makkah for 'Umrah accompanied by those who were with him at Al-Hudaybiyyah. He resumed Ihram from Dhul-Hulayfah and took the sacrificial animals with him. It was said that the sacrificial animals were sixty. The Prophet jg and his Companions started reciting the Talbiyah aloud. When they came close to Marr Az-Zahran, he sent Muhammad bin Maslamah before him with the horses and weapons. When the idolators saw this advance regiment, they were overwhelmed with fear. They thought that the Messenger of Allah ag would attack 'hem and that he had betrayed the treaty that he conducted with them, which stipulated cessation of hostilities for ten years. The idolators went quickly to Makkah to inform its people. When the Prophet ag made camp in the area of Marr Az-Zahran, where he was close enough to see the idols that were erected all around the Haram, he sent the weaponry, arrows, arrow cases and spears, to the valley of Ya'jaj. He next went on his way towards Makkah with the swords resting in their sheaths, just as he agreed to in the peace treaty. While the Prophet jg was still on the way to Makkah, the Quraysh sent Mikraz bin Hafs who said, “O Muhammad! We never knew you to be one who betrays his promises.” The Prophet sg said, •Villi •Why do you say that?» Mikraz said, “You are headed towards us with the weaponry, the arrows and the spears.” The Prophet ag said, HT At-Tabari 22 :259.

«Efl; Jij Jus s& jj» “/ did not do that, I sent all that to the valley of Ya'jajj Mikraz said, “This is the way we knew you to be, trustworthy and keeping to your promises.” The leaders of the disbelievers left Makkah so that they would not have to look at the Messenger of Allah jg and his Companions, out of rage and anger. As for the rest of the people of Makkah, men, women and children, they sat on the pathways and house roofs watching the Messenger of Allah jg and his Companions. The Messenger entered Makkah with his Companions while reciting the Talbiyah. The Prophet jg sent the sacrificial animals to Dhu Tuwa while riding his camel, Al-Qaswa', the same camel he was riding on the day of Hdaybiyyah. 'Abdullah bin Rawahah, from Al-Ansar, was holding the bridle of the Prophet's camel and repeating this poem, “In the Name of He, other than Whose religion there is no true religion, In the Name of He, Whom Muhammad is His Messenger, O children of the disbelievers, stay out of his way, For today, we shall impose on you the fulfillment of its interpretation, Just as we fought with you to accept its revelation, Severe fighting that removes the heads from where they rest, And overwhelms the companion from attending to his companion, Ar-Rahmfin has sent down in His revelation, In pages that are being recited before His Messenger, That the best death is that which occurs in His cause, So, O Lord, I believe in its statements.” This story is collected from various narrations. Imam Ahmad recorded that 'Abdullah bin 'Abbas said, “When Allah's Messenger jg and his Companions came to Makkah, the fever of Yathrib (Al-Madinah) had weakened and bothered them. The idolators circulated the news that a group of people were coming to them and that they had been weakened and bothered by the fever of Yathrib (Al-Madinah). The idolators sat in the area close to Al-Hijr. Allah conveyed to His Prophet what the idolators said, so he ordered his Companions to do RamcU. in the first three rounds, so that the idolators witness their strength. The Companions did Ramal the first three rounds. He also ordered them to walk normally between the two comers, for from there the idolators would not be able to see them. The Prophet jg did not order them to do Ramal in all the rounds of Tawafout of pity for them. The idolators commented, 'Are these the people whom you claimed were weakened by the fever. They are stronger than so-and- sol''' ' The Two Sahihs also recorded this Hadith^ In another narration, “Allah's Messenger jg and his Companions came (to Makkah) on the morning of the fourth day of Dhul-Qa'dah. The idolators circulated the news that a group of people was coming to them, who had been weakened by the fever of Yathrib (Al-Madlnah). So, the Prophet jg ordered his Companions to do Ramal in the first three rounds of Tawaf. The Prophet 5g did not order them to do Ramal in all the rounds of Tawafout of pity for them.”¹³¹ Al-Bukhari recorded that Ibn 'Abbas said, “In the year when the Prophet jg came as stipulated by the peace treaty, he said, 'Perform Ramal.' So that the idolators may witness their strength. At that time, the idolators were watching from the area of Qu'ayqi'&n.(4* ” Ibn 'Abbas said, “Allah's Messenger sg performed Tawaf of the Kahah and the Sa'i/6 ' at As-Safa and Al-Marwah to show his strength to the idolators.” ¹⁷¹ Al-Bukhari recorded that 'Abdullah bin TJmar said, “Allah's Messenger sg set out for 'Umrah, but the Quraysh idolators prevented him from reaching the Ka'bah. So, he slaughtered his sacrifice, got his head shaved at Al-Hdaybiyyah, agreed to a formal pact with them that he would perform 'Umrah the following year, would not carry weapons against them, except swords and would not stay in Makkah, except for the period they allowed. Messenger jg. They gave the Messenger aid, support and victory, just as the shoot hardens the plant, 4that He may enrage the disbelievers with them> Relying on this Ayah, Imam Malik stated that the Rawafid are disbelievers because they hate the Companions, may Allah be pleased with them all. Malik said, “The Companions enrage them, and according to this Ayah, he who is enraged by the Companions is a disbeliever.” Several scholars agreed with Malik’s opinion, may Allah be pleased with them. There are numerous Hadiths mentioning the virtues of the Companions and prohibiting the criticism on their mistakes. It is sufficient that Allah the Exalted has praised them and declared that He is pleased with them. Allah the Exalted and Most Honored said, 4Allah has promised those among them zoho believe and do righteous deeds, forgiveness> for their sins, iand a mighty reward . a generous reward and honorable provisions. Certainly, Allah’s promise is true and shall come to pass and will never be broken or changed. Surely, all those who follow the guidance of the Companions, may Allah be pleased with them all, will be similar to them. However, the Compa- nions have the better virtue, the obvious lead and the perfection in character, on account of which none among this Ummah will be able to attain their level. May Allah be pleased with them and make them pleased. May He place them in the gardens of Al-Firdaws, and make it their abode, and He indeed has done all of that. In his Sahlh, Muslim recorded that Abu Hurayrah said that the Messenger of Allah sg said, U i L*j jL* jl ^ 1 JU iljii m A category of Shiites Allah the Exalted is teaching the believers that they should not raise their voices above the voice of the Prophet sg. It was stated that this Ayah was revealed about Abu Bakr and TJmar. Al-Bukhari recorded that Ibn Abi Mulaykah said, "The two righteous ones, Abu Bakr and 'Umar, almost earned destruction when they raised their voices before the Prophet sg who was receiving the delegation of Bani Tamlm. This is why Allah the Exalted and Most Honored said, 40j£ inor speak aloud to him in talk as you speak aloud to one another, just as He said in another Ayah, 4Uuo ^j} 4Make not the calling of the Messenger among you as your calling one of another. (24:63) Allah's statement, ilest your deeds should be thwarted while you perceive not. means, "We ordered you to refrain from raising your voices to the Prophet ﷺ, so that he will not get angry with you, because in doing so, you will also anger Allah." Therefore, Muslims are to avoid suspicion without foundation. The Leader of the faithful 'Umar bin Al-Khattab said, «Never think ill of the word that comes out of your believing brother's mouth, as long as you can find a good excuse for it.»»21 Malik recorded that Abu Hurayrah, may Allah be pleased with him, said that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, Abu Dawud 5:246. Allah the Exalted said about backbiting; fe ^ %) in neither backbite one another), thus prohibiting it, which was explained in a Hadith collected by Abu Dawud that Abu Hurayrah said, “It was asked, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Fear Him and beware of Him, ^3 ^>y iVerily, Allah is the One Who forgives and accepts repentance, Most Merciful.} He forgives those who repent to Him, is merciful with those who go back to Him and trust in Him. The majority of scholars have stated that repentance for committing the sin of backbiting is that one refrains from backbiting intending not to repeat it again. There is a difference of opinion if whether feeling remorse is required in this case, and also if one should apologize to those who he has backbitten. Some scholars stated that it is not necessary for one to ask those whom he has backbitten to forgive him, because if they knew what was said about them, they could be hurt more than if they were not told about it. It is better, they said, that one should preuse those whom he has backbitten in audiences in which he has committed the act. It is also better if one defends the injured party against any further backbiting, as much as one can, as recompense for his earlier backbiting. 9 " - / ' AX>\ 111 Ahmad 3:351

413. O mankind! We have created you from a male and a female, and made you into nations and tribes that you may know one another. Verily, the most honorable ofyou with Allah is that (believer) who has At-Taqwa. Verily, Allah is All- Knowing, All-Aware.) All ofMankind are the Children of 'Adam and Hawwa' Allah the Exalted declares to mankind that He has created them all from a single person, 'Adam, and from that person He created his mate, Hawwa'. From their offspring He made nations, comprised of tribe, which include subtribes of all sizes. It was also said that 'nations refers to non-Arabs, while 'tribes refers to Arabs. Various statements about this were collected in an individual introduction from the book, Al-Inbah, by Abu 'Amr Ibn 'Abdul-Barr, and from the book, Al-Qasad wal-Amam fi Ma'rifah Ansab Al-Arab wal-'Ajam. Therefore, all people are the descendants of 'Adam and Hawwa' and share this honor equally. The only difference between them is in the religion that revolves around their obedience to Allah the Exalted and their following of His Messenger sg. After He forbade backbiting and belittling other people, alerting mankind that they are all equal in their humanity. Allah said, 40 mankind! We have created you from a male and a female, and made you into nations and tribes that you may know one another. so that they get to know each other by their nation or tribe. Mujahid said that Allah's statement. ithat you may know one another refers to one's saying, "So-and- so the son of so-and-so, from the tribe ofso-and-so." 111 Sufyan Ath-Thawri said, "The Himyar (who resided in Yemen) dealt with each other according to their provinces, while the Arabs in the Hijaz (Western Arabia) dealt with each other according to their tribes." There are many Hadiths from the Prophet fg that support this meaning. Al-Bukhari narrated that Abu Hurayrah said, "Some people asked the Prophet fg, Who is the most honorable among people?" He replied, «The most honorable among them with Allah is the one who has the most Taqwa. They said, We did not ask you about this.' He said, u Those among you who were best in Jahiliyyah, are the best among you in Islam, if they attain religious understanding. Al-Bukhari collected this Hadith in several places of his Sahih, [2] An-Nasab did as well in the Tafsir section of his Sunan. 131 Muslim recorded that Abu Hurayrah said that the Messenger of Allah fg said, *Ji >L;^3 'fbrfj J! He did not find a place in the Masjid where his camel could sit and had to dismount on men's hands. He led his camel to the bottom of the valley, where he had her sit down. However, Faith had not yet firmly entered their hearts, 4%Ja 4 &&GU ^ jS J fee 4The bedouins say: 'We believe." Say: "You do not believe, but say, We have submitted,' for Faith has not yet entered your hearts..."} This honorable Ayah, provides proof that Faith is a higher grade than Islam, according to the scholars of the Ahl us- Sunnah wal-Jam&'ah. This is also demonstrated in the HadXth of Jibril, peace be upon him, when he questioned the Prophet Sg about Islam, then Iman then Ihsan. Thus moving the 211Surah 49. Al-Hujurdt (14-18) Part-26 general matter to one more specific, then even more specific. Imam Ahmad recorded that 'Amir bin Sa'd bin Abi Waqqas said, "The Messenger of Allah jg gave (something to) some men and did not give one of them. Sa'd said, 'O Allah's Messenger, you gave to so-and-so and so-and-so. However, you gave nothing to so-and-so, even though he is a believer.' The Prophet sg said, «Or say, a Muslim .» Sa'd repeated his statement thrice each time the Prophet 3g

I do not give them things for fear that they might be thrown on their faces in the Fire.®" This Hadith is recorded in the Two Sahibs.¹²¹ Therefore, the Prophet 2g made a distinction between the grade of believer and the grade of Muslim, indicating that Iman is a more exclusive grade than Islam. I mentioned this subject in detail supported by evidence, in the beginning of the explanation of the chapter on Iman in Sahih Al-Bukhari, all praise is due to Allah and all the favors are from Him. So this proves that the bedouins whom the Ayah mentioned were not hypocrites, rather they were Muslims in whose hearts Faith was not yet firmly established. They claimed a higher grade for themselves than the grade that they earned, and they were taught a lesson as a consequence. This meaning agrees with the meaning given by Ibn 'Abbas, Ibrahim An-Nakhal, Qatadah and that preferred by Ibn Jarir. These 111 Ahmad 1:176. ¹²¹ FathAl-Bari 1 :99, Muslim 1:132.

Which was revealed in Makkah

The Beginning of the Mufasssal Section of the Qur'an This Surah is the first Surah in the Mufasssal section of the Qur'an, according to the correct view. It is said that the Mufasssal starts with Surat Al-Hujurat. Some common people say that the Mufasssal starts with Surah 'Ammah An-Naba, (chapter 78), however, this is not true because none of the respected scholars ever supported this opinion. Aws (bin Hudhayfah) said; "I asked the Companions of Allah's Messenger (j&) how they divided the Qur'an. They said; Three, five, seven, nine, eleven, thirteen, and the Mufasssal section as one." This was recorded by Ibn Majah and Imam Ahmad. 121 If one counts forty-eight Surahs, the next Surah will be Surah Qaf The details are as follows: The [first] three Surahs are Al-Baqarah (chapter 2), Al-Imran (3), then An-Nisab (4). The five are Al-Ma'idah (5), Al-An'am (6), Al-A'raf (7), Al-Anfal (8) and Bara'ah (or At-Tawbah) (9). The seven next Surahs are Surah Yunus (10), Hud (11), Yusuf (12), Ar-Ra'd (13), Ibrahim (14), Al-Hijr (15) and An-Nahl (16). The nine next Surahs are, Subhan (or Al-Isra' (17)), Al-Kahf (18), Maryam (19), Ta Ha (20), Al-Anbiya' (21), Al-Hajj (22), Al-Mu'minun (23), An-Nur (24) and Al-Furqan (25). The next eleven Surahs are Surat Ash-Shu'ara (26), An-Naml (27), Al-Qasds (28), Al-Ankabut (29), Ar-Rum (30), Luqm&n (31), AlifLam Mim As-Sajdah (32), Al-Ahzab (33), Saba' (34), Fatir (35) and Yd Sin (36). The next thirteen are Surat As-Sajfat (37), Sad (38), Az-Zumar (39), Ghafir (40), I 1 Mufasssal refers here to the short Surahs. This starts from Surah Qaf to the end of the Qur'an Abu Dawud 2:114, Ibn Majah 1 :427 and Ahmad 4:9. This is part of a weak Hadith which was removed

226 Tafsir [bn Kathir Ha Mim As-Sajdah (or Fussilat) (41), Ash-Shura (42), Az-Zukhruf (43), Ad-Dukhan (44), Al-Jathiyah (45), Al-Ahqaf (46), Al-Qital (or Muhammad) (47), Al-Fath (48) and Al-Hujurat (49). After that comes the Mufasssal section, according to the Companions, may Allah be pleased with them all. Therefore, Surah Qaf (chapter 50) is the first of the Mufasssal, just as we stated, and all praise is due to Allah and all favors are from Him. The Virtues of Surah Qaf Imam Ahmad recorded that Tjmar bin Al-Khattab asked Abu Waqid Al-Laythi, "What did the Prophet jg recite during the 'Id Prayer?" Abu Waqid said, " Surah Qaf and Surat Iqtarabat [i.e. Surat Al-Qamar (54)]." Muslim and the Four Collectors of the Sunan collected this HadithJ' Imam Ahmad recorded that Umm Hisham

Our oven and the oven of the Messenger ﷺ was one and the same.”¹⁴¹ Muslim and An-Nasab collected this Hadith. Therefore, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to recite this Surah during large gatherings such as the ‘Ids and during Ahmad 5:217, Muslim 2:607, Abu Dawud 1:683, Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi, An-Nasab in Al-Kubra 3 :79, 3 : 183 and Ibn Majah 1 :408. ^ Ahmad 6 :435. 228 Tafstr Ibn Kathlr $And We are nearer to him than his jugular vein.} means, His angels are nearer to man than his jugular vein. Those who explained ‘We’ in the Ayah to mean ‘Our knowledge,’ have done so to avoid falling into the idea of incarnation or indwelling; but these two creeds are false according to the consensus of Muslims. Allah is praised and glorified, He is far hallowed beyond what they ascribe to Him. The words of this Ayah do not need this explanation (that ‘We’ refers to ‘Allah’s knowledge’), for Allah did not say, ‘and I am closer to him than his jugular vein.’ Rather, He said, 4 Sr- U? ill iAnd We are nearer to him than his jugular vein.} just as He said in the case of dying persons, iBut We are nearer to him than you, but you see not.} (56:85), in reference to His angels (who take the souls). Thus, the angels are closer to man than his own jugular vein, by the power and leave of Allah. ' Consequently, the angel touches mankind, just as the devil touches them, for the devil is as close to them as the blood that runs in their veins; just as Allah's Prophet who is truthful and was told the truth, told us. This is also the apparent meaning of this Ayah. Imam Ahmad recorded that Bilal bin Al-Harith Al-Muzani said, "The Messenger of Allah j g said, c-«L U <31 U <3)1 I j* i i l S C I L o b I f f I f; i l J>-j j p J i l l I f; 4-1 p U ^ J L; j l < u j l l a U L « Verily, a man might utter a word that pleases Allah the Exalted, unaware of how highly it will be regarded, and on its account Allah the Exalted and Most Honored decrees His pleasure of him until the Day he meets Him. One before the rising of the sun at dawn and the other before sunset in the evening. Qiyam Al-Layl, prayer at night, was a command for the Prophet and his followers for sometime but it was later abrogated for the Ummah. Later, during the Isra' journey, Allah abrogated all of the previous orders for prayer by ordaining five daily prayers, including the prayers of m At-Tabari 22 :376.

'Ali said, it refers to "The angels." Some scholars said that Al-Jariydt Yusra refers to the stars that float in their orbits with ease. This would mean that the At-Tabari 22 :389-392 and 'Abdur-Razzaq 3 :41 254 Tafsir Ibn Kathir things mentioned were ascendant in their order, beginning with the lower, then mentioning the higher one after that, etc. The winds bring the clouds, the stars ar" above them and the angels who distribute by Allah's order are above hat, and they descend with Allah's legislative orders and the decrees He determines. and others said, "The meandering of the water, sand and plants when the wind passes over them; carving paths out of them, that is the Hubuk." All of these sayings return to the same meaning, that of beauty and complexity. The sky is high above us, clear yet thick, firmly structured, spacious and graceful, beautified with stars such as the sun and orbiting planets such as the moon and the planets of the solar system. 258 Tafsir Ibn Kathir Exalted and Most Honored said, iVerily, they were before that>, in the life of the world, i gooddoers} As He said: JH* ^ 4£«f and drink at ease for that which you have sent on before you in days past!)>{69:24} Allah the Exalted described the good acts that they performed, iThey used to sleep but little at night. ^ The scholars of Tafsir have two opinions about this: The First Opinion The first is that, they used to spend a little part of every night awake. Ibn 'Abbas said, "Every night, they would worship Allah, even during a little part of the night."111 Qatadah narrated that Mutarrif bin 'Abdullah said, "Hardly a night would pass by them that they did not pray to Allah the Exalted and Most Honored, either in the beginning, or the middle of it." ' Mujahid said, "Only a few nights, if any, would they sleep through the night until the morning without praying Tahajjud.."31 Qatadah said similarly 41 Anas bin Malik and Abu Al-'Aliyah said, "They used to pray between Al- Maghrib and Al-'Isha.'."^ The Second Opinion They used to spend a little part of the night in sleep. This was preferred by Ibn Jarir. Al-Hasan Al-Basri said: 111 At-Tabari 22:407. At-Tabari 22:407. At-Tabari 22:408. At-Tabari 22:408, At-Tabari 22:407-408.

iThey used to sleep but little by night}, "They performed voluntary night prayer and would not sleep during the night except a little. They were active and would continue until they were seeking forgiveness right before dawn." 'Abdullah bin Salam said, "When the Messenger of Allah arrived at Al-Madinah, people quickly gathered around him and I was among them. When I saw his face, I knew that it was not the face of a liar. The first statement I heard from him was, IjJL oJl 1 i ^Ulj «0 people! Feed with food, keep relations to kith and kin, spread the Salam, pray at night while people are asleep, and you will enter Paradise in peace .»"2' Imam Ahmad recorded that 'Abdullah bin "Umar said that the Messenger of Allah sg said, «U^aUJ l J It Isf ^ j| «Verily , there are lofty rooms in Paradise in which their outside can be seen from inside and their inside from the outside .» Abu Mdsa Al-Ash'ari said, "Who are they for, O Allah's Messenger?" He sg said, jit <— ovf Ifd 11For those who use soft speech, feed food and spend the night in voluntary prayer while people are asleep »*3' Allah said: i.And in the hours before dawn, they were asking for forgiveness.} At-Tabari 22:408-409. 121 Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi 7 :187 Ahmad 2:173.

Mujahid and several others said: "They were performing Sa/dh." ' Others said that they would stand in prayer during the night and delayed asking Allah for forgiveness until the latter hours before dawn. As Allah, the Exalted the Blessed, said; iAnd those who seek forgiveness during the last hours of the night.>{3:17}; This is because it is better if asking for forgiveness is done while praying. It is confirmed in the Sahlh collections as well as others, from several Companions, that the Messenger of Allah jjg said, : Jyf? Jill iSi djil Jj'l id ji Jfj Jui '<il Ojn Ji^* Iri j* •^ JA ja . jdp j *Allah, the Most High, descends each night to the lowest heaven zohen the last third of the night remains. He says, "Is there anyone who is repenting so that 1 may accept his repentance? Is there anyone seeking forgiveness, so that I may forgive him? Is there anyone asking of Me, so that I may grant him his request?" until Fajr begins .»121 Many of the scholars of Tafstr said that when the Prophet Ya'qub said to his sons: ixfpj^ il will ask my Lord for forgiveness for i/o»^(12:98), he delayed doing so until the hours before dawn. Allah the Exalted and Most Honored said, M && 111 At-Tabari 22:413. 121 Path Al-Bari 3:35, 11:133 and 13:473, Muslim 1:521 and 523, Abu Dawud 2:77 and 5:101, Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi 9:471, An-Nasal in Al-Kubra, 4 :24 and Ibn Majah 1 :435.

4And in their wealth there was the right of the Sa'il and the Mahrum .} After Allah mentioned their quality of performing prayer, He then mentioned their quality of spending in charity and acts of compassion and kindness, 4And in their wealth there was the right}, a designated part which they dedicated to the Sa'il and Mahrum. The Sa'il is the poor who begs others, and he has a due right. As for the Mahrum, Ibn 'Abbas and Mujahid said, "He is the poor person who does not receive a stipend."  Meaning he does not receive a stipend from the Muslim treasury, nor does he have a means of income, nor a profession. The Mother of the faithful, 'A'ishah may Allah be pleased with her, said about the Mahrum, "He is the displaced, the one who does not have a profession to easily earn an income from." Qatadah and Az-Zuhri: "The Mahrum is the one who does not ask the people for anything."*2 * Az-Zuhri added that the Messenger of Allah sg said, 3 OLu-iDlj - aUl * aJLc- JaJJj <J jhjj 'Ij JJ l . i i j la 1L I ^ V ^jj t «The poor (Misktn) is not the one who goes round to the people and asks them for a mouthful or two or a date or hvo. But the poor is the one who does not have enough to satisfy his needs and whose condition is not known to others, so that others may give him something in charity. This Hadith is recorded in the Two Sahihs using another chain of narration.*4 Allah's Signs on the Earth and in Mankind Allah the Exalted and the Blessed said next, (1 * Af-Tabari 22:414. * At-Jabari 22:416. * An-Nasab , 5 :85. The meaning of this Ayah (51:56) is that, Allah the Exalted, the Blessed created the creatures so that they worship Him Alone without partners. Those who obey Him will be rewarded with the best rewards, while those who disobey Him will receive the worst punishment from Him. Allah stated that He does not need creatures, but rather, they are in need of Him in all conditions. He is alone their Creator and Provider. Imam Ahmad recorded that Abu Hurayrah said that the Messenger of Allah said, Jj ">U_i bjXCff "Allah the Exalted said, "O Son of Adam! Busy yourself in worshipping Me, and I will fill your chest with riches and dissipate your meekness. Otherwise, I will fill your chest with distracting affairs and will not do away xvith your meekness."^2' At-Tirmidhi and Ibn Majah collected this Hadith and At- Tirmidhi said, "Hasan Gharib. Opening The Tafslrof SuratAt-Tur, (Chapter - 52) Whichwas revealed in Malrimh The Virtues ofSuratAt-T&r• • Malik narrated that Jubayr bin Mutlm said, “I heard the Prophet ig reciting Surat At-Tur while praying Maghrib. Surely, I have never heard a more beautiful voice or recitation than his recitation.”¹¹¹ This Hadith is recorded in the Two Sahths using a chain of narration that includes Malik. Al-Bukhari recorded that Umm Salamah said, “I complained of being ill to the Messenger of Allah jg, and he said, •&i; t'jju «Perform fawSf (of the Ka'bah) behind the crowd, while you are ridings So, I performed Tawaf while the Messenger of Allah was praying beside the House, reciting At-Tfir.”^{*3} In the Name ofAllah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. * % t }y. i#jr 4 oj' 35 jj-Jj Hi ^ jx 'J3\ .ii ^ jC. At-Tur is the mount that has trees, similar to the mount where Allah spoke to Mdsa, while Musa was on it, and the mount on which Allah started the prophethood of Isa. A mount that does not have trees is called Jabal, not Tur. Allah said, 4$^ 4And by the Book inscribed}, it is said that it means Al-Lawh Al-Mahfuz, (the Preserved Table). It is also said that is refers to the divinely revealed inscribed Books that people recite, and this is why Allah said,

And by Al-Bayt Al-Ma'mur.} In the Two Sahihs it is confirmed that the Messenger of Allah jg said in the Hadith about Al-Isra', after ascending to the seventh heaven: i Uji Ojn.?'* S <L>-Jb jA ISIJ i JI ' "Then, I was taken to Al-Bayt Al-Ma'mur. It is visited every day by seventy thousand angels who will not come back to visit it again. n 1 * 1 The angels worship Allah in Al-Bayt Al-Ma'mur and perform Tawafaround it just as the people of the earth perform Tawaf around the Ka'bah. Al-Bayt Al-Ma'mur is the Ka'bah of those who reside in the seventh heaven. During the Isra' journey, the Prophet saw Ibrahim Al-Khalil, who was reclining with his back on Al-Bayt Al-Ma'mur. It was Ibrahim who built the Ka'bah on earth, and surely, the reward is compatible with the action. Al-Bayt Al-Ma'mur is parallel to the Ka'bah; every heaven has its own house of worship, which is also the direction of prayer for its residents. The house that is located in the lower heaven, is called Bayt Al-'Izzah. And Allah knows best. The statement of Allah the Exalted, 4 yip" iAnd by the roof raised high.} Sufyan Ath-Thawri, Shu'bah, and Abu Al-Ahwas, all narrated from Simak, from Khalid bin 'Ar'arah, from 'Ali bin Abi Talib: iAnd by the roof raised high} "Meaning the heaven." Sufyan added, "Then 'Ali recited, iAnd We have made the heaven a roof, safe and well-guarded Yet they turn away from its signs.^(21:32) "21  Fath Al-Bari 6 :349 and Muslim 1 :150. ,2) At-Tabari 22:257-258.

Similar was said by Mujahid, Qatadah, As-Suddi, Ibn Jurayj, Ibn Zayd and preferred by Ibn Jarir.¹¹ ' The statement of Allah the Exalted, 4And by the sea that is Masjur.} The majority say it refers to the oceans of the earth. Masjur, means, the sea will be kindled with fire on the Day of Resurrection just as Allah said in another Ayah, 4And when the seas become as blazing fire.}(81:6) i.e., it will be kindled with fire and become a raging fire that surrounds the people in the gathering area, this was reported by Said bin Al-Musayyib from 'Ali bin Abi Talib.'² It was also reported from Ibn 'Abbas, and it is the view of Said bin Jubayr, Mujahid, 'Abdullah bin TJBayd bin TJmayr and others. Qatadah said, "Masjur is the filled sea." Ibn Jarir preferred this explanation saying, "The sea is not lit with fire now, so it is filled." Al-Hafiz Abu Bakr Ibn Abi Ad-Dunya recorded that Jafar bin Zayd Al-'Abdi said, "One night, in Al-Madlnah, 'Umar went out investigating the welfare of Muslims and passed by the house of a man who was standing in voluntary prayer. "Umar stood 111 At-Tabari 22:458. 121 At-Tabari 22:458.

There is none that can avert it.} Umar said, 'Ey the Lord of the Ka'bah, this is a true vow.' 'Umar dismounted his donkey and sat next to a wall for a while. He then went back to his house and fell ill for a month. During his illness, the people would visit him, not knowing what caused his illness." May Allah be pleased with 'Umar. Describing the Day of Torment, the Day of Resurrection Allah said; <E£if&0 iOn the Day when Tamur the heaven Mawr} Ibn 'Abbas and Qatadah said: "Shaking violently." 1 11 Also from Ibn 'Abbas, "Split." Mujahid said: "Spin violently." Ad-Dahhak commented on the Ayah, saying, "The earth will violently spin and move by the command of Allah, and its areas will violently move towards each other."¹²¹ This was preferred by Ibn Jarir, because of the meaning of the word, Mawra, which denotes meanings of spinning and shaking. Allah scud, iAnd Tasir the mountains will Sayr.} will fade away and become scattered particles of dust blown away by the wind, iThen woe that Day to those who denied}, woe to them that Day as a result of Allah's torment, punishment and affliction that He will direct at them, At-Tabari 22:462. The Tafsir of SuratAn-Najm

(Chapter - 53) Which was revealed in Makkah The First Surah in which a Prostration is revealed Al-Bukhari recorded that ‘Abdullah [bin Mas’ud] said, “Surat An-Najm was the first Surah in which a prostration was revealed. The Prophet ﷺ (recited it in Makkah) and prostrated. Those who were with him did the same, except an old man who took a handful of soil and prostrated on it. Later on, I saw him killed as a disbeliever; he was Umayyah bin Khalaf.”’ Al-Bukhari recorded this Hadith in several places of his Sahih, as did Muslim, Abu Dawud and An-Nasai, using various chains of narration through Abu Ishaq from ‘Abdullah.¹² In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. “By the star when it goes down 42 . Your companion has neither gone astray nor has he erred.” 43 . Nor does he speak of desire.” 44 . It is only a revelation revealed.} Allah swears the Messenger is True and His Words are a Revelation from Him Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Ash-Sha’bi and others stated that the Creator swears by whatever He wills among His creation, but the created only vow by the Creator. Allah said, 111 Fath Al-Bari 8 :480 121 Fath. Al-Bari 2:641 and 643. 7:202 and 348. Muslim 1 :405. Abu Dawud 2 : 122 and An-Nasai 2 :160

4By the star when it goes down .} Ibn Abi Najih reported that Mujahid said, “The star refers to Pleiades when it sets at Fq/r.”111 Ad-Dahhak said “When the Shayatin are shot with it.” And this Ayah is like Allah’s saying; “A $!$-~!~»~~>-s^ <So, / swear by the setting of the stars. And verily, that is indeed great oath, if you but know. That is indeed an honorable recitation. In a Book well-guarded. Which none can touch but the pure. A revelation from the Lord of all that existsM56:75-80) Allah said; iYour companion has neither gone astray nor has erred,} This contains the subject of the oath. This part of the Ayah is the witness that the Messenger of Allah jg is sane and a follower of Truth. He is neither led astray, such as in the case of the ignorant who does not proceed on any path with knowledge, nor is he one who erred, such as in the case of the knowledgeable, who knows the Truth, yet deviates from it intentionally to something else. Therefore, Allah exonerated His Messenger and his Message from being similar to the misguided ways of the Christians and the erroneous paths of the Jews, such as knowing the Truth and hiding it, while abiding by falsehood. Rather, he, may Allah’s peace and blessings be on him, and his glorious Message that Allah has sent him with, are on the perfect straight path, following guidance and what is correct. Muhammad 0,was sent as aMercy for allthat exists;He does not speak ofHis Desire Allah said, 111 At-Tabari 22:495.

Imam Ahmad recorded that Abdullah bin Mas‘ud said, “The Messenger of Allah ﷺ saw Jibril in his original shape having six hundred wings, each wing filling the side of the horizon, with a colorful array, and pearls and rubies falling from each wing as much as only Allah knows.”6 ' Only Imam Ahmad collected this Hadith. Imam Ahmad recorded that ‘Abdullah bin ‘Abbas said, “The Prophet asked Jibril to appear himself to him in his original shape and Jibril said to him, ‘Invoke your Lord.’ The Prophet m At-Tabari 22 :499 and Al-Qurtubi 17 :85. Ahmad 1 :395 and 412. Al-Bukhfi and Muslim recorded the same without the mention of pearls and rubies. See the narration recorded by Ahmad 1 :460, which is similar.

Meaning of Mat a distance oftwo bows' length or less” Allah’s statement, jf ijli 4And was at a distance oftwo bows' length or less means, Jibril came closer to Muhammad when Jibril was descending to him on earth. At that time, the distance between them became only two bow lengths, when the bows are extended to full length, according to Mujahid and Qatadah.¹²¹ It was said that the meaning here is the distance between the bow’s string and its wood center. Allah’s statement, 4$ 4or less^ indicates that the distance was as only as far described, not more. This type of usage is found in several instances in the Qur’an, such as, 4~ i’ji* & li dlSi 4Then, after that, your hearts were hardened and became as stones or even worse in hardness.>(2:74) The Ayah says that their hearts became not softer than rocks, but as hard and difficult as rocks, and more. We mentioned the various Hadiths about the Night of Isra' in the beginning of Surat Al-Isra'. Therefore, there is no need to repeat them here. Imam Ahmad recorded that Ibn Mas"ad commented: 4 And indeed he saw him at a second descent. Near Sidrat Al- Muntaha.} "The Messenger of Allah said, «J saw Jibril while he had six hundred wings and a colorful array of pearls and rubies falling from the feathers of his wings,n"*1 This bfadith has a good, strong chain of narration. 319 Surah 53. An-Naim (19-26) (Part-27) Refuting Idolatry, Al-Lat and Al-'Uzza Allah the Exalted rebukes the idolators for worshipping idols and taking rivals to Him. They built houses for their idols to resemble the Ka'bah built by Prophet Ibrahim, Allah's Khalil. iHave you then considered Al-Lat,> Al-Lat was a white stone with inscriptions on. There was a house built around Al-Lat in At-Ta'if with curtains, servants and a sacred courtyard around it. The people of At-Ta'if, the tribe of Thaqif and their allies, worshipped Al-Lat. They would boast to Arabs, except the Quraysh, that they had Al-Lat. Ibn Jarir said, "They derived Al-Lat's name from Allah's Name, and made it feminine. Allah is far removed from what they ascribe to Him. It was reported that Al-Lat is pronounced Al-Lat because, according to 'Abdullah bin 'Abbas, Mujahid, and Ar-Rabf bin Anas, Al-Lat was a man who used to mix Sawlq (a kind of barley mash) with water for the pilgrims during the time of Jahiliyyah. When he died, they remained next to his grave and worshipped him." Al-Bukhari recorded that Ibn 'Abbas said about Allah's statement, 4Al-Lat, and Al-'Uzza "Al-Lat was a man who used to mix Sawiq for the pilgrims."121 Ibn Jarir said, "They also derived the name for their idol Al-'Uzza from Allah's Name Al-'Aziz. Al-'Uzza was a tree on which the idolators placed a monument and curtains, in the area of Nakhlah, between Makkah and At-Ta'if. The Quraysh revered Al-'Uzza."131 During the battle of Uhud, Abu Sufyan said, "We have Al-'Uzza, but you do not have Al-'Uzza." Allah's Messenger replied, 'j'y ij Jil :JJ» "Say, "Allah is Our Supporter, but you have no support."*1' At-Tabari 22:523. FathAl-Bari 8:478. At-Tabari 22:523. FathAl-Bari 6:188.

320 TafsTr Ibn Kathir Manat was another idol in the area of Mushallal near Qudayd, between Makkah and Al-Madlnah. The tribes of Khuza'ah, Aws and Khazraj used to revere Manat during the time of Jahiliyyah. They used to announce Hajj to the Ka'bah from next to Manat. Al-Bukhari collected a statement from 'A'ishah with this meaning. 111 There were other idols in the Arabian Peninsula that the Arabs revered just as they revered the Ka'bah, besides the three idols that Allah mentioned in His Glorious Book. Allah mentioned these three here because they were more famous than the others. An-Nasal recorded that Abu At-Tufayl said, "When the Messenger of Allah jg conquered Makkah, he sent Khalid bin Al-Walld to the area of Nakhlah where the idol of Al-'Uzza was erected on three trees of a forest. Khalid cut the three trees and approached the house built around it and destroyed it. When he went back to the Prophet and informed him of the story, the Prophet said to him, p iliU "Go back and finish your mission, for you have not finished if.» Khalid went back and when the custodians who were also its servants of Al-TJzza saw him, they started invoking by calling Al-TJzza! Muhammad bin Ishaq said that Manat used to be the idol of the Aws and Khazraj tribes and those who followed their religion in Yathrib (Al-Madlnah). Manat was near the coast, close to the area of Mushallal in Qudayd. The Prophet jg sent Abu Sufyan Sakhr bin Harb or 'Ali bin Abi Talib to demolish it. Ibn Ishaq said that Dhul-Khalasah was the idol of the tribes of Daws, Khath'am and Bajllah, and the Arabs who resided in the area of TabalahJ' I say that Dhul-Khalasah was called the Southern Ka*bah, and the Ka'bah in Makkah was called the Northern Ka'bah. The Messenger of Allah jg sent Jarir bin 'Abdullah Al-Bajall to Dhul-Khalasah and he destroyed it. Ibn Ishaq said that Fals was the idol of Tay' and the neighboring tribes in the Mount of Tay', such as Salma and Ajja. Ibn Hisham said that some scholars of knowledge told him that the Messenger of Allah sg sent 'Ali bin Abi Talib to Fals and he destroyed it and found two swords in its treasure, which the Prophet jg then gave to 'Ali as war spoils. Muhammad bin Ishaq also said that the tribes of Himyar, and Yemen in general, had a house of worship in San'a' called Riyam. He mentioned that there was a black dog in it and that the religious men who went with Tubba' removed it, killed it and demolished the building. Ibn Ishaq said that Ruda' was a structure of Bani RabT'ah bin Ka*b bin Sa'd bin Zayd Manat bin Tamim,*21 which Al-Mustawghir bin Rabi'ah bin Ka*b bin Sa'd demolished after Islam. In Sindad there was Dhul-KaTsatsat, the idol of the tribes of Bakr and Taghlib, the sons of the Wa'il, and also the Iyad tribes. Opening 344 Tafsir Ibtī Kathir The Tafsīrof Surah Iqtarabat As-Sd'ahw (Chapter - 54) Which was revealed in Mafekah The Hadith of Abu Waqid preceded, in which it is mentioned that the Messenger of Allah jfc; would recite Surah Qaf (chapter 53) and Iqtarabat As-Sa'ah (Al-Qamar , chapter 54), during (the 'Id Prayers of) Al-Adha and Al-Fitr. The Prophet used to recite these two Surahs during major gatherings and occasions because they contain Allah's promises and warnings, and information about the origin of creation, Resurrection, Tawhid, the affirmation of prophethood, and so forth among the great objectives. 41 • The Hour has drawn near, and the moon has been cleft asunder.} 42. And indeed there has come to them news wherein there is Muzdajar.} 45. Perfect wisdom, but wamers benefit them not.} Also called Surat Al-Qamar.

The Hour draws near; the cleaving of the Moon Allah informs about the approach of the Last Hour and the imminent end and demise of the world, 'j3 4The Event ordained by Allah will come to pass, so seek not to hasten it. >(16:1), / > •> / •>* » - ' \ iDraws near for mankind their reckoning, while they turn away in heedlessness >(21:1) Hadiths about the Last Hour There are several Hadiths with this meaning. Al-Hafiz Abu Bakr Al-Bazzar recorded that Anas said that one day, when the sun was about to set, the Messenger of Allah gave a speech to his Companions, saying, l-L» Ci!' j U !;ju l_f~ / He in Whose Hand is my soul! Not much of this world is left compared to what has already passed of it, except as much as what is left in this day of yours compared to what has already passed of it. Anas said, "We could only see a small part of the setting sun at the time." Another Hadith that supports and explains the above Hadith is recorded by Imam Ahmad that 'Abdullah bin 'Umar said, "We were sitting with the Prophet sg while the sun was rising above Qu'ayqa'an, 121 after 'Asr. He said, ^ J* JjL* 'J. jUi-i J> 'pSjUi- i U» !IWhat remains of your time, compared to what has passed, is as long as what remains of this day compared to what has passed o//f.»" 131 Majma'Az-Zawa'id 10:311. asked him about what he heard from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ about the Last Hour. Anas said, 'I heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say, Ulillj j$» «You and the Last Hour are as close as these two (fingers)X” Only Imam Ahmad collected this Hadith.[^] There is proof to support these Hadiths in the Sahih listing, Al-Hashir (literally the Gatherer), among the names of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ; he is the first to be gathered, and all people will be gathered thereafter (for the Day of Judgement).^{*5} * Allah’s statement, and the moon has been cleft asunder.> It occurred during the time 111 Ahmad 5:338. * Fath Al-B&ri 1 :355 and Muslim 4 :2268 * Ahmad 4:309. 347 Surah 54. Al-Oamar (1-5) (Part-27) of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, according to the authentic Mutawatir Hadiths the scholars agree that the moon was cleft asunder during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ, and it was among the clear miracles that Allah gave him. Hadiths mentioning that the Moon was split The Narration of Anas bin Malik Imam Ahmad recorded that Anas bin Malik said, “The people of Makkah asked the Prophet ﷺ for a miracle and the moon was split into two parts in Makkah. Allah said, 4The Hour has drawn near, and the moon has been cleft asunder . Muslim also collected this Hadith^{f2^} Al-Bukhari recorded that Anas bin Malik said, “The people of Makkah asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ to produce a miracle, and he showed them the splitting of the moon into two parts, until they saw (the mount of) yira’ between them.”¹³¹ This Hadith is recorded in the Two Sahiths with various chains of narration. The Narration of Jubayr bin Mut'im Imam Ahmad recorded that Jubayr bin Mut'im said, “The moon was split into two pieces during the time of Allah’s Prophet ﷺ; a part of the moon was over one mountain and another part over another mountain. So they said, ‘Muhammad ﷺ has taken us by his magic.’ They then said, If he was able to take us by magic, he will not be able to do so with all people.”^{*41} Only Imam Ahmad recorded this Hadith with this chain of narration. These two gardens are lower, in virtue and in status than the two before them, as supported in the Qur'an. Allah said: £rJ-> 4And below these tivo, there are two other Gardens.} We previously mentioned the Hadith stating that there are two gardens made of gold, their vessels and all they contain, and there are two gardens made of silver, their vessels and all they contain. The first two are for the near believers (Muqarribm) and the latter two are for those on the right (Ashab Al- yaminJ ' Abu Musa commented, “There are two gardens made of gold for the Muqarribln and two gardens made of silver for Ashab Al-Yamm.” There are several proofs that the former two gardens in Paradise are better in Allah mentioned the former two gardens before the latter two, thus indicating their significance, then He said, 4ly,d&r £rj> 4And below these tivo, there are two other Gardens.} And this is an obvious form of honoring the first two gardens over the latter two. Allah described the former gardens: iWith Afnan}, which are the extending branches, as we explained, or various types of delights. But He said about the latter two gardens, iMudhammatan}, being dark, because of the intense irrigation. Ibn ‘Abbas said, “Mudhdmmtan means, they have become dark green because of extensive water irrigation.”¹²¹ Muhammad bin Ka*b said: iMndhamtnatdn} “Full of greenery.” There is no doubt that the former two gardens are better, their branches are fresh, FathAl-Bari 8 :491 . ¹²¹ Ad-DurrAl-Manthur 7 :715 .

iKadhilah} Muhammad bin Ka*b said: "It will certainly occur," while Qatadah said, "It shall not be discontinued, taken back or aborted." Allah's statement, 4 - ^ 4Bringing low, exalting indicates that Al-Waqi'ah lowers some people to the lowest parts of the Fire, even if they had been mighty in this life. It also elevates others to the highest grades in the residence of eternal delight, even if they were weak in this life. This was said by Al-Hasan, Qatadah and others.¹²¹ Al- 'Awfi reported from Ibn 'Abbas: 4Bringing low, exalting}, "It made the near and the far hear it," while 'Iknmah said, "It lowered, and thus those who were close heard it, and elevated, and thus those in the distance heard it." Ad-Dahhak and Qatadah said similarly. Allah said, iWhen the earth will be shaken with a terrible shake.} meaning, it is shaken and moved violently over all of its surface and through its depths. Ibn 'Abbas, Mujahid, Qatadah and others said about Allah's saying: {i}Whai the earth will be shaken with a terrible shake.} it means "Violently shaken."¹³¹ Ar-Rabi' bin Anas said, "The earth will be shaken with all that is in it, just as a sifter is shaken with its contents." This was said by Ibn 'Abbas, Mujahid, 'Ikrimah and Qatadah and others.' 11 Ibn Zayd said: "The mountains will becomejust like Allah described them, 4A heap of sand poured out.>(73: 14). ""2| Allah's saying: 4So that they will become floating dust particles.> Abu Ishaq narrated from Al-Harith, from 'Ali: "It will become like the rising dust storm that soon fades away leaving no trace of itself behind." Al-'Awfi reported from Ibn 'Abbas about Allah's saying: 4So that they will becomefloating dust particles .> "It describes the rising embers from the fire when it is kindled, but when the embers land, they are extinguished quickly."*3 ' 'Ikrimah said, "The floating dust particles that the wind scatters all around," while Qatadah said, 4floating particles>, "Like the dry parts of trees that the wind scatters all about." This Ayah is similar to several other Ayat that indicate that the mountains will be moved from their places, demolished and blown off their bases, becoming like 111 At-Tabari 23:92, 93. 121 At-Tabari 23:93. 131 At-Tabari 23:94.

Throne, and they are those who were brought forth from 'Adam's right side.' ' This category will be given their Books of Records in their right hand and will be taken to the right side. As-Suddi explained that they will comprise the majority of the residents of Paradise. Another category is those who will be placed to the left of Allah's Throne, and they are those who were brought forth from 'Adam's left side. This category will be given their Books of Records in their left hands and will be taken to the left side. They are the residents of the Fire, may Allah save us from their actions. A third category is comprised of those who are the foremost and nearest before Allah. They are in a better grade and status and nearer to Allah than those on the right side. They are the chiefs of those on the right side, because they include the Messengers, Prophets, true believers and martyrs. They are fewer than those on the right side; so Allah said, 11 u 4So those on the right - how will be those on tlie right! And those on the left - how will be those on the left! And those foremost will beforemost. Allah divides people into these three groups upon their death, as indicated by the end of this Sarah. Allah mentioned them in His statement as well, rrp [il See the narration ofAbu Dharr, no. 349 of Al-Bukhari , and it was mentioned in volume five , in the beginning of the Tafsir of Surat Al- Isra'.

Salaman!"} The Reward of the Foremost in Faith Allah states that the foremost of the close believers are a multitude, a crowd among the earlier generations and a few from the latter generations. There is a difference over the meaning of the first generations and the later generations. Some said that the former means earlier (believing) nations, while the later refers to this Ummah. This was reported from Mujahid and Al-Hasan Al-Basri, in the collection of Ibn Abi Hatim, and this is the preference of Ibn Jarir.¹¹¹ He considered it supported by the saying of Allah's Messenger sg: m At-Tabari 23 :98

416 Tafstr Ibn Kathir «We are the later nation, but the foremost on the Day of Resurrection .»¹ Ibn Jarir did not mention any other interpretation nor did he attribute this view to anyone else. There is another Hadith that could support this meaning. Imam Abu Muhammad bin Abi Ijatim recorded that Abu Hurayrah said that when these Ayat were revealed, iA multitude of those (foremost) will be from the first ones. And a few of those will be from the later ones .^, this news became hard for the Companions of the Prophet These this Ayat, Si yij iA multitude of those will be from the first ones. And a multitude of those will be from the later ones.}, were revealed. The Prophet jg then said, ' J' J'P 4>Jl ~ «/ hope that you will comprise a quarter of the residents of Paradise, a third of the residents of Paradise. Rather, you are a half of the residents of Paradise, and will have a share in the other half.v Imam Ahmad also recorded this .²¹ However, this opinion that Ibn Jarir chose is questionable, rather it is a deficient interpretation. This is because this Ummah is the best of all nations, according to the text of the Qur'an. Therefore, it is not possible that the foremost believers from earlier nations are more numerous than those of in this Ummah; the opposite is true. The latter opinion is the correct one, that, Si iA multitude of those will befrom the first ones}. 111 Path Al-Bari 11 :526. Ahmad 2:391.

427Surah 56. Al-Wdqi'ah (13-26) (Part-27) refers to the earlier generations of this Ummah, while, i 3ij> iAnd afew of those will befrom the later ones.}, refers to the latter people of this Ummah. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that As-Sari bin Yahya said that Al- Hasan recited this Ayah, iAnd those foremost will befrom the first ones.}, Then he commented, "A multitude from the earlier generation of this Ummah." Ibn Abi Hatim also recorded that Muhammad bin Sirin commented: iA multitude of those will befrom the first ones. And afew of those will befrom the later ones.}, "They stated, or hoped that they will all be from this Ummah." Therefore, these are the statements of Al-Hasan and Ibn Sirin that those foremost in faith are all from this Ummah. There is no doubt that the earlier generations of each nation were better than the latter generations. In this pretext, this Ayah might include all previous believing nations. In this regard, it is confirmed in the authentic Hadith compilations, from more than one route, that the Messenger of Allah said; 6*^* p 'JiA A*- eThe best people are my generation, then the next generation, then the next generation n* 1 ' He also said: °4pLUI «A group ofmy Ummah will always remain on the truth and m Al-Bukhari no. 3651

Rather, this spring of wine flows freely, j>ji jj V* Vy iWherefrom neither Yusadda'un nor Yunzifun .} meaning, they will never get headaches from this wine nor intoxicated. Rather, this wine does not affect their minds, even though it has a strong and tremendously delightful taste. Ad- Dahhak reported from Ibn 'Abbas: "The wine (of this life) has four side-effects, it intoxicates, gives headaches, induces vomiting and causes excessive urine. So Allah mentioned the wine of Paradise free of these characteristics."111 Mujahid, Ikrimah, Said bin Jubayr, 'Atiyah Al-'Awfi, Qatadah and As- Suddi said that Allah's statement, iy^ ^} iWherefrom neither Yusadda'un} means, "It does not give them a headache."121 While they said that iM %~} inor will they Yunzifun.} means that "It does not change then- sense of reasoning."131 Allah's statement, iAnd with fruit that they may choose. And with the flesh of fowls that they desire.} meaning, whatever fruits they wish for will be distributed among them. This Ayah is a proof that we are allowed to choose the fruits that we prefer and wish to eat. Al-Qurtubi 17:203. At-Tabari 23:103, 104. At-Tabari 23:104, 105.

Imam Ahmad recorded that Thabit said that Anas said that the Messenger of Allah jfe liked dreams. A man might have a dream, so he would ask about him if he did not know him, and would like to hear the dream if that man was praised for his good qualities. Once a woman came to him and said, "O Allah's Messenger! I had a dream that I was taken out of Al- Madlnah and entered Paradise. I heard noise because ofwhich Paradise wept. I looked and found so-and-so, so-and-so,' and she mentioned the names of twelve men whom the Prophet jg had sent with a militaiy expedition. They were later brought on (in Paradise, in the dream) with their wounds still bleeding. It was said, Take them to the river Baydakh or - Baydhakh.' They were taken to that river and submerged in it and their faces turned as radiant as the full moon. They were brought a plate made of gold containing green dates. They ate as much of the green dates they wanted to and whenever they turned that plate around, they would eat from the fruit it contained, as much as they wanted, and I (the woman said) ate with them.” Later on, that army sent an emissary to convey the news (of the battle) and he said that so-and-so and so-and-so died, mentioning the names of the twelve men who were mentioned in the dream. So, Allah’s Messenger jg called the woman and again asked her to mention her story, and she did. This is the narration that Abu Yala collected, ' and Al-Hafiz Ad-Diya' said, “This Hadith meets the criteria of Muslim.” Allah said, 4And with the flesh offowls that they desire. > Imam Ahmad recorded that Anas said that the Messenger of Allah jg said, Jt'J-'f. icJJl Jliife *LJl> «Birds of Paradise are like Bukht camels^ that graze in the trees of Paradise .» Abu Bakr commented, “O Allah’s Messenger! Surely, these birds must be wonderful.” The Messenger jg said, 111 Ahmad 3 :135, and Musnad Abu Ya'ld 6 :44. ' A species of camel with a very long neck. See An-Nihayah.

“Those who eat them are more wonderful .» and repeated this statement thrice. The Prophet went on, iij& j' je'j'l J>j “And I hope that you will be among those who eat from them.»<" J Only Imam Ahmad collected this Hadith using this chain of narration. Allah said; ilike unto preserved pearls>, indicating that they are just as white and pure fresh pearls. We mentioned Allah’s statement, 4As if they were eggs preserved.$(37 :49), in SurafAs-SaZ/df(chapter37),and also their description in SuratAr- Rahman (chapter 55). This is why Allah said afterwards, iA reward for what they used to do> meaning, ‘these delights that We granted them are rewards for the good deeds that they performed (in this life).’ Allah the Exalted said, £f$2Ll vu> yi S4 % £>£ iNo Laghw (evil vain talk) will they hear therein , nor any sinful speech. Layth bin Abi Sulaym reported that Mujahid said about the Ayah, iand an article of use for the Muqwn For those who are present at their homes and travelers, for every kind of food that requires cooking by fire.” Ibn Abi Najlh also reported that Mujahid said, “For the Muqwin, means, all people who enjoy (eating food cooked by fire).” |S| Similar was mentioned from ‘Iknmah, and this explanation is more general than the previous, since those who are in their own locale and traveling, whether rich or poor, all need fire for cooking, heating and lighting purposes. It is out of Allah’s kindness that He has made the quality of kindling fire in some elements, such as stones, that people can use and take in the baggage for their journeys. When a traveler needs fire at his campsite for cooking and heating, he takes out these substances and uses them to kindle fire. He feels comfort next to the fire and he can use it for various needs that he has. Al-Muwatta’ 2 :994 Fath Al-Bdri 6 :380 , Muslim 4 :2 184 At-Tabari 23:145. At-Tabari 23:146. ,s| At-Tabari 23:145.

There is a Hadith in the Sahih that states, "The strong believer is better and more beloved to Allah than the weak believer; both have goodness in them". The Prophet ﷺ ended his statement this way to draw attention to the second type of believer, so that their own qualities are not forgotten in the midst of preferring the former type. In this way, the latter is not dismissed as being degraded in the Hadith. Therefore, the Prophet ended his statement by praising the second type - the weak believers - after giving preference to the first type. Allah said: 4And Allah is All-Aware of what you do.} meaning, since Allah is perfectly aware of all things. He made distinctions between the rewards of the believers who spent and fought before the Conquest and those who spent and fought afterwards. Surely, Allah does this by His knowledge of the intention of the former type and their perfect sincerity to Him, all the while spending in times of hardship, poverty and dire straits. This is found in the Hadith, m Muslim 4 : 2052

486 Tafsir Ibirt Kathir Reward for the Charitable, the True Believers and the Martyrs; and the Destination of the Disbelievers Allah the Exalted describes the reward that He will award to those who spend from their wealth, whether male or female, on the needy, the poor and the meek, iand lend Allah handsome loan,)> meaning, they give in charity with a good heart seeking the pleasure of Allah. They do not seek worldly rewards or appreciation from those to whom they give in charity. Allah’s statement, 4it shall be increased manifold, indicating that He will multiply the good deeds from tenfold, up to seven hundredfold and even more than that. and theirs shall be an honorable good reward. theirs will be a generous, handsome reward, a good dwelling to return to and an honorable final destination. Allah's statement, 4And those who believe in Allah and His Messengers - they are the Siddiqun This completes His description of those who have faith in Him and in His Messengers, by describing them as Siddiqun, true believers. Al-'Awfi reported from Ibn 'Abbas about 4And those who believe in Allah and His Messengers - they are the SiddTqiin} that its meaning does not continue to the next Ayah, iand the martyrs (are) with their Lord. They shall have their reward and their light. |i] At-Tabari 23:191.

Abu Ad-Duha (stopped after he) recited. jti 4they are the Siddtqiin then initiated recitation: iand the martyrs (are) with their Lord. Masruq, Ad-Dahhak, Muqatil bin Hayyan and others said similarly. Al-A'mash narrated from Abu Ad-Duha from Masruq from 'Abdullah bin Mas"ad commented on Allah's statement, 4they are the Siddiqtin, and the martyrs ivith their Lord. "They are of three categories," meaning there are those who spend in charity, the Siddiqun and the martyrs. Allah the Exalted said, jji-'i'j '-it 4And whoso obey Allah and the Messenger, then they ivilt be in the company of those on whom Allah has bestowed His grace, of the Prophets, the Siddiqin, the martyrs, and the righteous (4:69) Therefore, Allah made a distinction between the Siddiqin and the martyrs, indicating that they are of two distinct categories, so there is no doubt that Siddiq is a better status than the martyr. Imam Malik bin Anas recorded in his Muwatta' that Abu Said Al-Khudri said that the Messenger of Allah jg said, ja ^ 'jAZs "The people of Paradise will look at the dwellers of the lofty mansions as one looks at a brilliant starfar away in the east or in the west on the horizon, because of their superiority over one another .» At-Jabari 23:191.

On that the people said, "O Allah's Messenger! Are these lofty mansions for the Prophets whom none else can reach?" The Prophet replied, 1 hnI JI^j toXj ^ "No! By Him in Whose Hand is my soul! these are for men who believe in Allah and believe in the Messengers, » Al-Bukhari and Muslim also collected this HadithS 1 ^ Allah's statement, iand the martyrs with their Lord.} means that they will be in the gardens of Paradise, as recorded in the Sahih: <jjlj jU ioJli Jt ^!B M L>S :)& liU : Jlii iLj Jiiliil ill; JI ji : Jlii lift Jji Ilia U5 iji&i ili Jjl2i ulJt jIJJI JI CtVy 11 v 14J1 "The souls of the martyrs live in the bodies ofgreen birds, who fly wherever they wish in Paradise and then return to their nests in chandeliers. They said, "We wish that You return us to the life of the world, so that we may fight in Your cause and be killed as we were killed the first time." Allah said, "I have decreed that they shall not be returned to it again .»|21 Allah's statement, }They shall have their reward and their light.}, means that Allah will grant them a generous reward and a tremendous light that will precede before them. In this, the believers vary regarding the level of reward they receive, according to their good actions in the life ofthis world. Imam Ahmad recorded that Umar bin Al-Khattab said that he heard the Messenger of Allah say, 111 Fath Al-Bari 6 :368 , Muslim 4 :2177 Muslim 3:1502.

4Beautified for men is the love of things they covet; women, children, much of gold and silver (wealth), branded beautiful horses, cattle and well-tilled land. This is the pleasure of the present world's life; but Allah has the excellent return with Him.^(3:14) Allah, the Exalted also sets a parable for this life, declaring that its joys are fading and its delights are perishable, saying that life is, 4^& iLike a rain (Ghayth),$ which is the rain that comes down to mankind, after they had felt despair. Allah the Exalted said in another Ayah, 4iritis £ j_o ^ tijjl y*j$ iAnd He it is Who sends down the Ghaijth (rain) after they have despaired.$(42:28) Allah’s statement, 4Z ithereof the growth is pleasing to the tiller;$ meaning that farmers admire the vegetation that grows in the aftermath of rain. After that, the green fades away and becomes scattered pieces of dust. This is the parable of this worldly life, it starts young, then matures and then turns old and feeble. This is also the parable of mankind in this life; they are young and strong in the beginning. In this stage of life, they look youthful and handsome. Slowly, they begin growing older, their mannerism changes and their strength weakens. They then grow old and feeble; moving becomes difficult for them, while doing easy things becomes beyond their ability. Allah the Exalted said, iAllah is He Who created you in (a state of) weakness, then gave you strength after weabiess, then after strength gave (you) weakness and grey hair. He creates what He wills. And He is the All-Knowing, the All-Poiverfid . $>(30 :54) This parable indicates the near demise of this life and the imminent end of it, while in contrast, the Hereafter is surely coming. There are two opinions about the meaning of, ionly to please Allah therewith,} The first is that they wanted to please Allah by inventing monasticism. Said bin Jubayr and Qatadah said this. The second meaning is: "We did not ordain them to practice that but, rather, We ordained them only to seek what pleases Allah." Allah's statement. ibut that they did not observe it with the right observance.} meaning, they did not abide by what they ordered themselves to do. This Ayah criticizes them in two ways: first, they invented in things in their religion, things which Allah did not legislate for them. The second is that they did not fulfill the requirements ofwhat they themselves invented and which they claimed was a means of drawing near to Allah, the Exalted and Most Honored. Ibn Jarir and Abu 'Abdur-Rahman An-Nasal - and this is his wording - recorded that Ibn 'Abbas said, "There were kings after 'Isa who changed the Tawrah and the InjH when there were still believers who recited Tawrah and the Injfl. Their kings were told, *We were never confronted by more severe criticism and abuse than of these people.' - they recite the Ayah, iAnd whosoever does not judge by what Allah has revealed, such are the disbelievers.}(5-A4), as well as, they accuse us of short comings in our actions, while still they recite. Therefore, summon them and let them recite these Ayat our way and believe in them our way.' The king summoned them and gathered them and threatened them with death if they did not revert from reciting the original Tawrah and Injll to using the corrupted version only. They said, Why do you want us to do that, let us be.' Some of them said, *Build a narrow elevated tower for us and let us ascend 4 111 At-Tabari 23:203.

it, and then give us the means to elevate food and drink to us. This way, you will save yourselves from hearing us.' Another group among them said, 'Let us go about in the land and eat and drink like beasts do, and if you find us in your own land, then kill us.' Another group among them said, 'Build homes (monasteries) for us in the deserts and secluded areas, wherewe can dig wells and plant vegetables. Then, we will not refute you and will not even pass by you.' These groups said this, even though they all had supporters among their tribes. "The parable of the Muslims, Jews and Christians is that of a man who employed laborers to work for him from morning until night for a known wage. So, they worked until midday and said, 'We are not in need of the wages that you promised and our work was in vain.' So, the man said, 'Do not quit now, complete the rest of the work and yours will be the full wage I have fixed for it.' However, they refused and quit, and he had to hire another batch of workers. He said (to the second batch), 'Complete the work for the rest of the day and I will give you the same wage I promised the first batch.' So, they worked until the time of the 'Asr prayer and said, 'Whatever we have done is in vain and we forfeit the wages you promised us.' He said to them, 'Complete your day's work, for only a small part of the day remains.' However, they refused, and he employed another batch to work for the rest of the day, and they worked until sunset and received the wages of the two former batches. This is an example of them (i.e., the Jews and Christians) and of those who accepted this light (i.e., Islam). » Al-Bukhari was alone in recording it. Reason for revealing this Surah

Imam Ahmad recorded that ‘A’ishah said, “All praise be to Allah, Who hears all voices. “The woman who disputed” came to the Prophet 5® and argued with him while I was in another part of the room, unable to hear what she said. Allah the Exalted and Most Honored revealed this Ayah, 4 Jy Si' 4Indeed Allah has heard the statement of her that disputes with you concerning her husband>”(1! till the end of this Ayah. Al-Bukhari collected this Hadith without a chain of narration in the Book of Tawhid in his Sahib. 12' An-Nasal, Ibn Majah, Ibn Abi Hatim and Ibn Jarir also collected this Hadith.l3] In the narration that Ibn Abi Hatim collected, ‘A’ishah said, “Blessed is He, Whose hearing has encompassed all things. And for disbelievers, there is a painful torment. Az-Zihdr and the Atonement for It Imam Ahmad recorded that Khuwaylah bint Tha'labah said, “By Allah! Allah sent down the beginning of Surat Al-Mujadilah in connection with me and ‘Aws bin As-Samit. He was my husband and had grown old and difficult. One day, he came to me and I argued with him about something and he said, out of anger, ‘You are like my mother’s back to me.’ He went out and sat with some of his people. Then he came back and wanted to have sexual intercourse with me. I said, “No, by the One in Whose Hand is the soul of Khuwaylah! You will not have your way with me after you said what you said, until Allah and His Messenger issue judgement about our case.’ He wanted to have his way regardless of my choice and I pushed him away from me; he was an old man.’ I next went to one of my neighbors and borrowed a garment from her and went to the Messenger of Allah I told him what happened and kept complaining to him of the ill treatment I received from ‘Aws. She is also known as Khawlah bint Malik bin Thalabah, and Khuwaylah. All these are close to each other, and Allah knows best. This is what is correct about the reason behind revealing this Surah. Therefore, Allah’s statement, ui f&l J-M} iThose among you who make their wives unlawful to them by Zihar refers to

Zihar, which is derived from Az-Zahr, meaning, the back. During the time of Jdhiliyyah, when one wanted to declare Zihar towards his wife, he would say, "To me, you are like the back of my mother." That was one way they issued divorce during that time. Allah allowed this Ummah to pay expiation for this statement and did not render it as a divorce, contrary to the case during the time of Jdhiliyyah. Allah said, 'o' 4they cannot be their mothers. None can be their mothers except those who gave them birth.} meaning, when the husband says to his wife that she is like his mother, or the back of his mother etc., she does not become his mother. Rather his mother is she who gave birth to him. This is why Allah said, j;a> Si^ O&J£0 4And verily , they utter an ill word and a lie.} meaning, false and sinful speech, Ahmad 6 :410. Abu Dawud 2 :662 , 664

iAnd verily, Allah is Oft-Pardoning, Oft-Forgiving> meaning, "what you used to do during the time of Jahiliyyah, and what accidentally slips out of your mouth, unintentionally. Allah's statement, iAnd those who make unlawful to them (their wives) by Zihar and wish to free themselves from what they uttered, Ash-Shafil said, "It means to keep her for a while after the Zihar, without divorcing her, even though his is able to do so." Ahmad bin Hanbal said, "To return to having sexual relations with her or to merely intend to do so, but only after he pays the expiation mentioned in the Ayah for his statement." It has been quoted from Malik that it is the intention to have sexual relations or to keep her or actually having sexual intercourse. Said bin Jubayr said that this Ayah, ijifuyi iand wish tofree themselvesfrom what they uttered meaning, if they want to return to having sexual intercourse which was forbidden between them. Al-Hasan Al-Basri said that it is to utilize her sexual organ, and he did not see any harm in doing what is less than that before paying the expiation. 'Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from Ibn 'Abbas: ibefore they touch each other .i "The 'touching' refers here to sexual intercourse."111 Similar was said by 'Ata', Az-Zuhri, Qatadah and Muqatil bin Hayyan. Az-Zuhri added, "He is not to kiss or touch her until he pays the expiation." The Sunan compilers recorded from 'Ikrimah, from Ibn 'Abbas that a man said, "O Allah's Messenger! 1 pronounced Zihar on my wife, but then had sexual intercourse with her before I paid the expia- tion." The Messenger jfi, said, m At-Tabari 23 :231

Allah's statement, if* <j; i£rt~' fC#* 2 ^} }And he who finds not must fast two successive months before they both touch each other. They soon betrayed the treaty that they made with Allah's Messenger jg. Therefore, Allah sent His torment down on them; it can never be averted, and His appointed destiny touched them; it can never be resisted. The Prophet jg forced them to evacuate and abandon their fortified forts that Muslims did not think they would ever control. The Jews thought that their fortifications will save them from Allah's torment, but they did not help them against Allah in the least. Then, that which they did not expect came to them from Allah, and Allah's Messenger jg forced them to leave Al-Madlnah. Some of them went to Adhri'at in the area of Ash-Sham, which is the area of the grand Gathering and Resurrection, while others went to Khaybar. The Prophet jg allowed them to evacuate their forts and take whatever their camels could carry. They destroyed the property that they could not carry. This is why Allah the Exalted said, ithey demolished their own dwellings with their own hands and the hands of the believers. Then take admonition, O you with eyes.) meaning, "Contemplate the end of those who defied Allah's command, contradicted His Messenger and denied His Book. See how Allah's humiliating torment struck them in this life, as well as, the painful torment that Allah has reserved for them in the Hereafter." Abu Dawud recorded that 'Abdur-Rahman bin Ka'b bin Malik said that one of the Prophet's Companions said, "The Quraysh idolators wrote to 'Abdullah bin Ubayy and those who were still worshipping idols among the tribes of Al-Aws and Al- Khazraj. The Messenger of Allah m was in Al-Madlnah at the time, before the battle of Badr occurred. They wrote: 'You have given refuge to our citizen. We swear by Allah, you should fight him, or we will expel you or gather all our forces, until m At-Tabari 23 :262

we kill your soldiers and take your women captive.' When the news of this threat reached 'Abdullah bin Ubayy and the idolaters of Al-Aws and Al-Khazraj, they prepared to fight the Prophet jg. The news of this reached the Prophet jg and he went to them saying, "77ie threat of the Quraysh has caused you extreme anxiety! The Quraysh cannot cause you more hartn than what you will cause yourselves by your actions. Do you want to fight your children and brethren ?» When they heard these words from the Prophet jg, they dis- persed and the news of what happened reached the Quraysh idolaters. After the battle of Badr, the Quraysh idolators wrote to the Jews of Al-Madlnah, 'You have armor and forts! You should fight our citizen or we will do such and such to you, and nothing will prevent us from acquiring your women.' The news of this letter also reached the Prophet jg and Bani An-Nadlr intended to betray their treaty. Bani An-Nadlr sent a message to the Prophet jg asking him to come with thirty of his Companions to meet thirty of their rabbis half way, from either side. They said that the rabbis would listen to the Prophet jg and if they believe in him, the rest of Bani An- Nadlr would believe. They intended to kill the Messenger jg, and Allah informed His Messenger jg of this plot before they could harm him. The next day, the Prophet jg gathered his forces and laid siege to their area, saying to them, Ajii Yj tEXj> j Y 4ilj "By Allah ! The next morning, the Prophet jg laid siege to the tribe of Bani Qurayzah and left Bani An-Nadlr alone that day. The Prophet jg ordered Bani Qurayzah to sign a new treaty of peace, and they accepted. The Prophet jg left Bani Qurayzah and went back to Bani An-Nadir with his forces and fought them until they agreed to surrender in return for safe passage out of Al-Madlnah. Bani An-Nadir evacuated Al- Madinah and took with them all whatever their camels could cany from their furniture, including even the wood and the doors to their houses. The date trees of Bani An-Nadir were granted to the Messenger jg by Allah when He said, iri & Ayo »li(4And what Allah gave as booty to His Messengerfrom them - for this you made no expedition with either cavalry or camelry that is, what you earned without a fight. The Prophet ag divided most of their

The Prophet jg kept a part of the war booty for himself and that part of charity of the Prophet jg was transferred to the administration of his daughter's children, i.e., children of Fatimah.” [I ' However, let us summarize the battle of Bani An-Nadir here. From Allah alone we seek help.

The Reason behind the Battle of Bani An-Nadir

After the seventy Companions whom the Prophet jg sent to teach the Qur'an were killed at the area of Bi'r Ma'unah, excluding 'Amr bin Umayyah Ad-Damn, who killed two men from the tribe of Bani 'Amir on his way back to Al-Madinah. He did not know that these two men had a promise of safe passage from Allah's Messenger jg. When he went back to Al-Madlnah, he told the Prophet sg what happened and the Prophet jg said, •U&V JAfj diii jiJ» “You have killed two men, I shall pay the blood money for them. Bani An-Nadir and Bani 'Amir were allies and had treaties. The Prophet jg asked Bani An-Nadir to help pay the blood money for the two dead men. The area of Bani An-Nadir was in a suburb of Al-Madinah, a few miles to the east.¹² ' Abu DSwud 3 :404 Ad-Durrari fi Ikhtisar Al-Maghazi was-Siyar 180, 181, and Ibn Hisham 3 :195. This narration is Mursal.

Stlrah 59. Al-Hashr (1-5) (Part-28 547 In his book of Sirah, Muhammad bin Ishaq bin Yasar said; “Then the Messenger of Allah jg went to Bani An-Nadlr to ask them for financial help to pay the blood money of the two men from Bani 'Amir, who were killed by 'Amr bin Umayyah Ad-Damri. They had a promise of safe passage from the Prophet according to the (subnarrator) Yazld bin RCtman. Bani An-Nadlr and Bani 'Amir had a treaty and were allies. When Allah's Messenger jg went to Bani An-Nadlr asking them for help to pay the blood money for the two men, they said, Yes, O Abu Al-Qasim! We will help you, since you asked us for help.' Yet, when they met each other in secret, they said, You will not find a better chance with this man than this,' while the Messenger of Allah jgg was sitting next to a wall of one of their houses. They said, 'Who will ascend this wall and drop a stone on this man and rid us of his trouble?' 'Amr bin Jihash bin Ka*b volunteered and ascended the wall of the house to drop a stone on the Messenger jg. The Messenger of Allah was sitting with several of his Companions, such as Abu Bakr, TJmar and 'Ali. The news of this plot was conveyed to the Prophet from heaven, and he stood up and went back to Al-Madlnah. When the Companions thought that the Messenger was absent for a long time, they went to see where he was and saw a man coming from Al-Madlnah. They asked him, and he said that he saw the Prophet jg enter Al-Madlnah. The Messenger's Companions went to him, and he told them the news of the betraying plot that the Jews planned against him. He ordered them to prepare for war and to march forth to Bani An-Nadlr. The Prophet^ gathered his forces and marched to the area of Bani An-Nadlr, who had taken refuge in their fortified forts. The Messenger j|| ordered their date trees be cut down and burned. The Jews heralded at the Prophet, 'O Muhammad! You used to forbid mischief in the earth and blame those who did it. Why is it that you had the date trees cut down and burned?' Meanwhile, 'Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salul, Wadi'ah, Malik bin Abi Qawqal, Suwayd, Da*is and several other men who all belonged to the tribe of Al-Khazraj bin Bani 'Awf, sent a message to

Bani An-Nadlr saying, 'Be firm and strong. We will never abandon you. If you are fought against, we will fight along with you and if you are forced to leave Al-Madinah, we will accompany you.' The Jews waited for this claim of support, but the hypocrites did not deliver. Allah cast terror in the hearts of the Jews. They asked the Messenger jg to allow them safe passage out of Al-Madinah and to spare their lives. In return, they would only take what their camels could carry, except for weapons. The Prophet sg agreed. The Jews collected all the wealth their camels could transport. One of the Jews would demolish his own house around its door, so that he could carry the door on the back of his camel. Bani An-Nadir moved to Khaybar, and some of them went to Ash-Sham. They left all that remained behind for the Messenger of Allah jg, who had control over how it was to be divided. The Prophet jg divided it between the emigrants and none of Al-Ansar got a share, except for Sahl bin Hunayf and Abu Dujanah Simak bin Kharashah. They said that they were poor and the Messenger of Allah jg gave them their share. Only two men from Bani An-Nadir embraced Islam, Yamin bin Umayr bin KaTa bin 'Amr bin Jihash and Abu Sa'd bin Wahb and they saved their wealth due to their acceptance of Islam." Abu TJbaydah said that Linah is a different kind of dates than 'Ajwah and Sami. ' Several others said that Linah refers to every type of date fruits, except for the 'Ajwah (ripen dates), while Ibn Jarir said that it refers to all kinds of date trees. 121 Ibn Jarir quoted Mujahid saying that it also includes the Buwayrah type. When the Messenger of Allah laid siege to Bani An-Nadlr, to humiliate them and bring fear and terror to their hearts, he ordered their date trees to be cut down. Muhammad bin Ishaq narrated that Yazld bin Raman, Qatadah and Muqatil bin Hayyan said, "Bani An-Nadlr sent a message to the Messenger 3g, saying that he used to outlaw mischief in the earth, so why did he order that their trees be cut down? Allah sent down this honorable Ayah stating that whatever Linah was felled or left intact by the Muslims, has been done by His permission, will, leave and pleasure to humiliate and disgrace the enemy and degrade them."*31 Mujahid said, "Some of the emigrants discouraged others from chopping down the date trees of Jews, saying that they were war spoils for Muslims. The Qur'an approved of the actions of those who discouraged and those who approved of cutting these trees, stating that those who cut them or did not, did so only by Allah's leave." For instance, the booty collected from Bani An-Nadir was not acquired because of fighting them using horses and camels. The Muslims did not fight Bani An-Nadir in battle, but Allah forced them out of their forts on account of the fear that He placed in their hearts for Allah’s Messenger jg. Therefore, it was Fai’ that Allah awarded His Messenger, with his discretion to spend it however he sees fit. Al-Hashr (6-7) (Part-28) why Allah the Exalted said, uyti tfjJJ <£ji) iit is for Allah, His Messenger, the kindred, the orphans, the poor, and the wayfarer until its end and the following Ayah. mentioning the ways the Fai’ should be spent. Imam Ahmad recorded that ‘Umar said, “The wealth of Bani An-Nadlr was of the Fai' type that Allah awarded His Messenger jg and for which the Muslims did not have to use cavalry or camelry. Therefore, it was for the Messenger of Allah sg, and he used it for the needs of his family for a year at a time, and the rest was used to buy armors and weapons used in the cause of Allah the Exalted and Most Honored.”¹¹¹ Ahmad collected the short form of this story. The Group, with the exception of Ibn Majah, collected this Hadith. Abu Dawud recorded that Malik bin ‘Aws said, “While I was at home, the sun rose high and it got hot. Suddenly the messenger of ‘Umar bin Al-Khattab came to me and I went along with him and entered the place where Umar was sitting on a bedstead made of date-palm leaves and without a mattress. He said when I went in, ‘O Malik! Some of your people’s families came to me due to their famine, and I have ordered that relief aid should be given to them, so take it and distribute it among them.’ I said, ‘I wish that you ordered someone else to do it.’ He said, ‘Take it.’ Then Yarfa (the servant of ‘Umar) came saying, ‘O Commander of the faithful! May I admit ‘Uthman bin ‘Affan, ‘Abdur-Rahman bin ‘Awf, Az- Zubayr bin Al-‘Awwam and Sa’d bin Abi Waqqas?’ ‘Umar said, ‘Yes,’ and they came in. After a while Yarfa came again and said, ‘O Commander of the faithful! May I admit Al-‘Abbas and ‘Ali?’ Umar said, ‘Yes.’ So, they were admitted and Al-‘Abbas said, ‘O Chief of the believers! Judge between me and this one (i.e., ‘Ali).’ The group (being ‘Uthman and his companions) said, ‘O Chief of the believers! Judge between them and relieve both of them from each other.’ I (Malik bin Aws) thought that [1] Ahmad 1 : 25. 121 Fath Al-Bari 8 :498, Muslim 3 :1376, Abu Dawud 3 :371 , Tuhfat Al- Ahwadhi 5 :381 , and An-Nasal 7 :132

they asked the four men to come in before them for this purpose. ‘Umar said, “Be patient!” He then asked the group (‘Uthman and his companions), ‘I ask you by Allah by Whose permission the heaven and the earth exist, do you know that Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) said, ‘Our (the Prophet’s) property will not be inherited. Whatever we leave, is charity?’ The group said, “He said so.” ‘Umar then turned to ‘Ali and Al- Abbas and said, ‘I beseech you by Allah by Whose permission the heaven and the earth exist, do you know both that Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) said, ‘Our (the Prophets’) property will not be inherited. Whatever we leave, is charity?’ They replied, ‘He said so.’ ‘Umar then said, ‘Allah bestowed on His Messenger (ﷺ) a special favor unlike what he gave all other people. Allah the Exalted said, ‘Our (the Prophets’) property will not be inherited. Whatever we leave, is charity.’ And what Allah gave as booty (Fai) to His Messenger from them - for this you made no expedition with either cavalry or camelry. But Allah gives power to His Messengers over whomsoever He wills. And Allah is Able to do all things.’ Therefore, this property, the booty collected from Bani An- Nadlr, was especially given to Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ). However, by Allah, neither did he take possession of it and leave you, nor did he favor himself with it to your exclusion. Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) took the yearly expenses from it for himself and his family and left the rest in the Muslim Treasury.’ He then asked the group, ‘I ask you by Allah with Whose permission the heavens and earth exist, do you know this?’ They replied, “Yes.” ‘Umar then said to ‘Ali and Al-‘Abbas, ‘I ask you by Allah, with Whose permission that heavens and earth exist, do you know this?’ They said, “Yes.” ‘Umar added, When Allah took His Prophet (ﷺ) unto Him, Abu Bakr said: I am the successor of Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ)! Then you both came to Abu Bakr asking for your (Al-‘Abbas’) share of inheritance from your nephew, and he (‘Ali) asked for his wife’s share from her father’s inheritance. Abu Bakr said: Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) said, ‘Our (the Prophets’) property will not be inherited. Whatever we leave, is charity.’” Allah knows that Abu Bakr was true, pious, rightly guided and a follower of what was right. So, Abu Bakr assumed the responsibility of that property. When Abu Bakr died, I said: I am the successor of Allah's Messenger and the successor of Abu Bakr. So I managed it as long as Allah allowed me to manage it. Then you both ('Ali and Al-'Abbas) came to talk to me, bearing the same claim and presenting the same case, asking for that property. I said to you: I am ready to hand over this property to you if you wish. I will do so on the condition that you will take a pledge before Allah's that you will manage it in the same way as Allah's Messenger used to. So, both of you agreed and on that condition I handed it over to you. Now you come to me to render a different judgement over the property than the one I made before. By Allah, I will never give any decision other than what I have already given, until the Last Hour begins. If you are unable to manage it, then return it to me, and I will do the job on your behalf.”¹¹¹ They recorded this from the Hadith of Az-Zuhri. ¹²¹ Allah said, ipIME %& -i iin order that it may not become a fortune used by the rich among you.} means, *We made the expenditures for the Fai' like this, so that the wealth does not remain among the wealthy, who would spend it as they wish and desire and give none of it to the poor.' Selflessness ofthe Ansar Allah said, iand give them preference over themselves even though they were in need of that.} meaning, they preferred giving to the needy rather than attending to their own needs, and began by giving the people before their own selves, even though they too were in need. The latter give charity even though they love the wealth they give, not that they really need it, nor that it is necessary for them to keep it. The former prefer others to themselves even though they are in need and have a necessity for what they spend in charity. Abu Bakr As-Siddiq gave away all his wealth in charity and Allah’s Messenger asked him, «What did you keep for your family, » and he said, “I kept for them Allah and His Messenger.” Ikrimah (bin Abi Jahl) and two other wounded fighters were offered water when they were injured during the battle of Al- Yarmuk, and each one of them said that the sip of water should be given to another of the three wounded men. They did so even though they were badly injured and craving water. When the water reached the third man, he and the other two died and none of them drank any of the water! May Allah be pleased with them and make them pleased with Him. Al-Bukhari recorded that Abu Hurayrah said, “A man came to the Prophet sg and said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! revealing the beginning of this honorable Surah. Hatib was among the Early Emigrants and participated in the battle of Badr. Hatib had children and wealth in Makkah, but he was not from the tribe of Quraysh. Rather, he was an ally of the Thman. When the Messenger of Allah ﷺ decided to conquer Makkah, after its people broke the peace treaty between them, he ordered the Muslims to mobilize their forces to attack Makkah, and then said, «O Allah! Keep our news concealed from them . Hatib wrote a letter and sent it to the people of Makkah, with a woman from the tribe of Quraysh, informing them of the Messenger's intent to attack them. He wanted them to be indebted to him so that they would grant safety to his family in Makkah], Allah the Exalted conveyed this matter to His Messenger ﷺ, because He accepted the Prophet's invocation [to Him to conceal the news of the attack). The Prophet ﷺ sent someone after the woman and retrieved the letter. This story is collected in the Two Sahih. Imam Ahmad recorded that Hasan bin Muhammad bin 'Ali said that 'Abdullah bin Abu Rafi' - or Ubaydullah bin Abu Rafi' - said that he heard 'Ali say, "Allah's Messenger ﷺ sent

And if any of your wives have gone from you to the disbelievers then you succeed over them (gain victory); then pay those whose wives have gone, the equivalent of what they had spent. And have Taqwa of Allah, the One in Whom you are believers .} After Al-Hudaybiyyah, Emigrant Muslim Women may not be returned to the Disbelievers In Surat Al-Fathj 1] we related the story of the treaty at Al- Hudaybiyyah that was conducted between the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and the disbelievers of Quraysh. In that treaty, there were these words, “Everyman (in another narration, every person) who reverts from our side to your side, should be returned to us, even if he is a follower of your religion.” This was said by Tirmidhi, Ad-Dahhak, ‘Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd, Az-Zuhri, Muqatil bin Hayyan and As-Suddi. So according to this narration, this Ayah specifies and explains the Sunnah. And this is the best case of understanding. Yet according to another view of some of the Salaf, it abrogates it. Allah the Exalted and Most High ordered His faithful servants to test the faith of women who emigrate to them. When they are sure that they are faithful, they should not send them back to the disbelievers, for the disbelievers are not allowed for them and they are not allowed for the disbelievers. In the biography of ‘Abdullah bin Abi Ahmad bin Jahsh in Al- Musnad Al-Kabir, we also mentioned that ‘Abdullah bin Abi Ahmad said, “Umm Kulthum bint ‘Uqbah bin Abi Mu'ayt emigrated and her brothers, ‘Umarah and Al-Walid, went after her. They came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and talked to him about Umm Kulthum and asked that she be returned to them. See the beginning of Surat Al-Fath (48) in volume nine.

601 Surah 60. Al-Mumtahanah (10-11) (Part-28) Abu Al-‘As bin Ar-Rabi* was married to Zaynab, the Prophet’s daughter. She was a Muslim, while Abu Al-‘As was still an idolator like his people. When he was captured during the battle of Badr, his wife, Zaynab, sent his ransom, a necklace that belonged to the Prophet’s first wife Khadijah. The Prophet ﷺ became very emotional when he saw the necklace and said to the Companions, “If you decide to set free the prisoner who belongs to her, then do so.” They did, and Allah’s Messenger ﷺ set him free. His ransom was that he send his wife to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. Abu Al-‘As fulfilled his promise and sent Zaynab to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ along with Zayd bin Harithah.’ Zaynab remained in Al-Madinah after the battle of Badr, which took place in the second year of Hijrah, until her husband Abu Al-‘As bin Ar-Rabi* embraced Islam in the eighth year after the Hijrah. She returned to their marriage without renewing the dowry. Allah’s statement, “But give them that which they have spent.” meaning, the husbands of the emigrant women who came from the idolaters, return the dowry that they gave to their wives. This was said by Ibn ‘Abbas, Mujahid, Qatadah, Az- Zuhri and several others.’³¹ Allah’s statement, “And there will be no sin on you to marry them if you have paid their due to them.” means, when you wish to marry them, then give them their ¹¹¹ Abu Dawud 3 :140. ² What is correct is that it was the sixth year before Al-Hudaybiyyah before this Ayah was revealed At-Jabari 23 :328, 329.

That is, marry them under the condition that their ‘Iddah (waiting period) is finished and they have a legal guardian for their marriage etc. Allah said, “Likewise do not keep disbelieving women, thus forbidding His faithful servants from marrying idolator women or remaining married to them.” In the Sahih, it is recorded that Al-Miswar and Marwan bin Al-Hakam said that after the Messenger of Allah ﷺ conducted the treaty with the Quraysh idolators at Al-Hudaybiyyah, some Muslim women emigrated to him and Allah the Exalted sent down this Ayah about them, *“O you who believe! do not keep disbelieving women, Then Umar bin Al-Khattab divorced two of his wives, who were idolatresses, and one of them got married to Mu'awiyah bin Abi Sufyan, while the other got married to Safwan bin Umayyah. Ibn Thawr narrated that Ma'mar said that Az-Zuhri said, "This Ayah was revealed to Allah's Messenger while he was in the area of Al-Hudaybiyyah, after making peace. He agreed that whoever comes from the Quraysh to his side, will be returned to Makkah. When some women came, this Ayah was revealed. Allah commanded that the dowry that was paid to these women be returned to their husbands. Allah also ordered that if some Muslim women revert to the side of the idolators, the idolators should return their dowry to their Muslim husbands. Allah said, ijP' iK4 iLikewise do not keep disbelieving women^."121 111 FathAl-B&ri 5:391. At-Jabari 23 :329 . See the section about narrations at the beginning of the book

If a woman flees to the disbelievers and they do not give back what that her husband spent on her, then if a woman comes to them (the Muslims) they are not to return to her husband anything until they pay the Muslim whose wife went to them the equivalent of what he spent. The Virtues of SuratAs-Saff Imam Ahmad recorded that ‘Abdullah bin Salam said, “We asked, ‘Who among us should go to the Messenger jg and ask him about the dearest actions to Allah?’ None among us volunteered. The Messenger jg sent a man to us and that man gathered us and recited this Surah, Surat As-Saff, in its entirety.’ ”1 ' In the Name ofAllah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. And He is the Almighty, the All-Wise Therefore, we do not need to repeat its meaning hereJ Allah’s statement, 40 you toho believe! Why do you say that which you do not do?$ This refutes those who neglect to fulfill their promises. This honorable Ayah supports the view that several scholars of the Salaf held, that it is necessary to fulfill the promise, regardless of whether the promise includes some type of wealth for the person receiving the promise or otherwise. They also argue from the Sunnah, with the Hadith recorded in the Two Sahihs in which Allah’s Messenger gg said, lilj t jS «. iL>- 1 At-j lil : “There are three signs for a hypocrite: when he promises, he breaks his promise; when speaks, he lies; and when he is entrusted, he betrays . We mentioned the meaning of these two ffadiths in the beginning of the explanation of Sahih Al- Bukh&ri, and to Allah is the praise and the thanks. Therefore AllSh implied this meaning, when He continued His "" See volume nine , the Tafsir of Surat Al-Hadid (57 : 1) I2 ' Fath. Al-Bari 1:111 and Muslim 1 :78 131 Fath Al-Bari 1:111.

614 Tafsir Ibtī Kathīr admonishment by saying, 'Most hateful it is with Allah that you say that which you do not do.' Imam Ahmad and Abu Dawud recorded that 'Abdullah bin 'Amir bin Rabl'ah said, "Allah's Messenger came to us while I was a young boy, and I went out to play. My mother said, 'O 'Abdullah! Come, I want to give you something.' Allah's Messenger said to her, "What did you want to give him?" She said, 'Dates.' He said, 'If you had not given them to him, it would have been written as a lie in your record.' Muqatil bin Hayyan said, "The faithful believers said, 'If we only knew the dearest good actions to Allah, we would perform them.' Thus, Allah told them about the dearest actions to Him saying, 'Verily, Allah loves those who fight in His cause in rows.' Allah stated what He likes, and they were tested on the day of Uhud. However, they retreated and fled, leaving the Prophet behind. It was about their case that Allah revealed this Ayah: 'O you who believe! Why do you say that which you do not do?' Allah says here, 'The dearest of you to Me, is he who fights in My cause.' Some said that it was revealed about the gravity of fighting in battle, when one says that he fought and endured the battle." Ahmad 3 :447 and Abu Dawud 5 :265. [2] Ad-DurrAl-Manthur 8 :146

625 Surah 61 . As-Saff (5-6) (Part-28) battle, even though he did not do so. Qatadah and Ad-Dahhak said that this Ayah was sent down to admonish some people who used to say that they killed, fought, stabbed, and did such and such during battle, even though they did not do any of it. Said bin Jubayr said about Allah's statement, 'Verily, Allah loves those who fight in His cause in rows (ranks)' "Before Allah's Messenger began the battle against the enemy, he liked to line up his forces in rows; in this Surah, Allah teaches the believers to do the same." He also said that Allah's statement, 'as if they were a solid structure.' means, its parts are firmly connected to each other; in rows for battle. Muqatil bin Hayyan said, "Firmly connected to each other." Ibn 'Abbas commented on the meaning of the Ayah, let: 'as if they were a solid structure.' by saying, "They are like a firm structure that does not move, because its parts are cemented to each other." 2 ' -ff ff 'if) J'i fs fyi' iJ+r. ^ yil (j* iEx IJ ^ Jj« 4i&&i / * 1 »- Mi; - \ »: \ 'fy? This brings consolation for Allah's Messenger for what the disbelievers among his people and others did to him. And it orders him to be patient. This is why he once said, 'I am patient' Jijf iij 4)1 «May Allah have mercy with Musa: he was annoyed more than this, yet he was patient. The Quraysh sent 'Amr bin Al-'As and TJmarah bin Al-Walid with a gift for An-Najashi. When they, 'Amr and 'Umarah, came to An-Najashi, they prostrated before him and stood to his right and left. 'Amr and TJmarah said, "Some of our cousins migrated to your land; they have abandoned us and our religion." An-Najashi said, "Where are they?" They said, "They are in your land, so send for them," so An-Najashi summoned the Muslims. Ja'far said to the Muslims, "I will be your speaker today." So, the Muslims followed Ja'far and when he entered on the king he did not 111 Ahmad 4:127. Ahmad 5 :262 . There are some deficiencies in some of these narrations . He said, "Allah has sent a Messenger to us from Him, who ordered us not to prostrate to anyone except Allah, the Exalted and Most Honored. He also ordered to perform prayer and give charity." 'Amr bin Al-'As said, "They contradict your creed about Isa, son of Maryam." The king asked, "What do you say about Isa

and his mother Maiyam?" Ja'far said, "We only say what Allah said about him, that he is Allah's Word¹¹¹, a soul created by Allah and sent down to the honorable virgin who was not touched by a man nor bearing children before." An-Najashi lifted a straw of wood and said, "O Ethiopians, monks and priests! By Allah, what they say about Isa is no more than what we say about him, not even a difference that equals this straw. You are welcomed among us, and greetings to him who sent you. I bear witness that he is Allah's Messenger whom we read about in the Injil. He is the Prophet who Isa, son of Maryam, foretold the good news about his advent. Live wherever you wish. By Allah, had I not been entrusted with the responsibilities of kingship, I would have gone to him, so that I could be honored by carrying his slippers and his water for ablution." The king ordered that the gifts of the idolators be returned to them. 'Abdullah bin Mas'ud soon returned and later on participated in the battle of Badr. He said that when the Prophet received the news that An-Najashi died, he invoked Allah to forgive him.¹² Allah said, iBut when he came to them with clear proofs, they said: "This is plain magic."} this refers to Ahmad, who was anticipated, in accordance with the early Scriptures and early generations, according to Ibn Jurayj and Ibn Jarir. Al-Madinah who gave the pledge to him and supported him, vowing to protect him from mankind and the Jinns if he migrated to them. When he migrated to them with his Companions, they fulfilled their vow to Allah. This is the reason why Allah and His Messenger sg called them, Al-Ansar, the Supporters. The name became synonymous with them. May Allah be pleased with them and please them, as well. A Group of the Children of Israel believed in *isa and a Group ofThem disbelieved Allah said, iThen a group of the Children of Israel believed and a group disbelieved.$ When "Isa, peace be on him, conveyed the Message of his Lord to his people and the disciples supported him, a group from the Children of Israel believed. They accepted the guidance that 'Isa brought to them, while another group, was led astray. This group rejected what 'Isa brought them, denied his prophethood and invented terrible lies about him and his mother. They are the Jews, may Allah curse them until the Day of Judgement. Another group exaggerated over Isa, until they elevated him to more than the level of prophethood that Allah gave him. They divided into sects and factions, some saying that Isa was the son of Allah, while others said that he was one in a trinity, and this is why they invoke the father, the son and the holy ghost! Some of them said that isa was Allah, as we mentioned in the Tafsir of Surat An-Nisa'^ Allah gives Victory to the Believing Group Allah said, ipZ& ip:$ iSo, We gave power to those who believed against their enemies, [1) See volume three, the Tafsiroi SuratAn-Nisa' (4 :171).

627Surah 61 . As-Saff (14) (Part-28 that is, We gave them victory over the group of Christians which defied them,' iand they became the victorious (uppermost) .> 'over the disbelieving group, whenWe sent Muhammad.' Imam Abu JaYar bin Jarir At-Tabari reported that Ibn 'Abbas said, "When Allah decided to raise Isa to heaven, 'Isa went to his companions while drops of water were dripping from his head. At that time, there were twelve men at the house. Isa said to them, 'Some of you will disbelieve in me twelve times after having believed in me.' He then asked, Who among you volunteers that he be made to resemble me and be killed instead of me; he will be with me in my place (in Paradise).' One of the youngest men present volunteered, but 'Isa commanded him to sit down. Isa repeated his statement and the young man again stood up and volunteered, and Isa again told him to sit down. Isa repeated the same statement and the young man volunteered. This time, 'Isa said, Then it will be you.' The appearance of Isa was cast upon that young man, while 'Isa, peace be on him, was raised to heaven through an opening in the roof of the house. The Jews came looking for Isa and arrested the one that appeared as him, killing him by crucifixion. Some of them disbelieved in Isa twelve times, after they had believed in him. They divided into three groups. One group, Al-Ya'qubiyah (the Jacobites), stud, 'Allah remained with us as much as He walled and then ascended to heaven.' Another group, An-Nasturiyyah (the Nestorians), said, 'Allah's son remained with us as much as Allah walled and He then rased him up to heaven.' A third group said, 'Allah's servant and Messenger remained vrith us as much as Allah willed and then Allah raised him up to Him.' The last group was the Muslim group. The two disbelieving groups collaborated against the Muslim group and annihilated it. Islam remained unjustly concealed until Allah sent Muhammad jg, iThen a group of the Children of Israel believed and a group disbelieved.) This Ayah refers to the group among the Children of Israel that disbelieved and the group that believed, during the time of "Isa, iy»wU j/yJ* lE»l» iSo, We gave power to those who believed against their enemies, and they became the victorious (uppermost).^ through the victory that Muhammad 3^5 gained over the religion of the disbelievers, which brought the dominance of their religion."111 This is the wording in his book for the Tafsir of this honorable Ayah. Similarly, An-Nasal collected this statement of Ibn 'Abbas in his Sunan.'2' Therefore, the Ummah of Muhammad will always be prevalent on the truth until Allah's command (the Final Hour) commences, while they are on this path. The last group of them will fight against Ad-Dajjal along with 'Isa, peace be on him, according to Hadiths in the authentic collections.'31

The Virtues of SuratAl-Jumu'ah Ibn 'Abbas and Abu Hurayrah narrated that Allah's Messenger used to recite SuratAl-Jumu'ah and SuratAl-Munafiq during the Friday Prayer. The Favor that Allah grantedby sendingMuhammad jg Allah the Exalted said. <Ei 4& & 4He it is Who sent among the unlettered ones a Messenger from among themselves,} the word 'unlettered' here refers to the Arabs. If they do, they are rightly guided; but if they him away, your duty is only to convey the message; and Allah is All-Seer of (His) servants.} (3:20) Mentioning the unlettered ones in specific here does not mean that Muhammad jg was only sent to them, because the blessing to the Arabs is greater than that of other nations. In another Ayah, Allah said, *££} 4And verily, this is indeed a Reminder for you and your 632Surah 62. Al-lumu'ah (1-4) (Part-28 people (43:44). Surely, the Qur'an is also a reminder for those other than Arabs to take heed. Allah the Exalted said, <Awf warn your tribe of near kindred.} (26:214)

(6:19) and in His statement about the Qur'an, iBut those of the groups that reject it, the Fire will be their promised meeting place." (11:17) There are other Ayat that indicate that his Message is universal. He, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, was sent to all people, mankind and the Jinns alike. We mentioned this meaning before in Surat Al-An'am producing various Ayat and Hadiths. All praise and thanks are to due to Allah. This Ayah testifies that Allah has indeed accepted the invocation of His friend Ibrahim when he supplicated Allah to send a Messenger to the people of Makkah from among them their own. One who will recite to them Allah's statements, purify them and teach them the Book and the Hikmah. So, Allah - all praise and thanks be to Him - sent him when the Messengers ceased and the way was obscure. Indeed it was a time when it was most needed. Especially since Allah hated the people of the earth, Arabs and non-Arabs alike, except for a few of the People of the Scripture, who kept to the true faith Allah the Exalted sent to Isa bin Maryam, peace be upon him. This is why Allah said, ;•&< & iju& $y s~Vt 4^ djr»

They later changed, corrupted and contradicted it, choosing polytheism instead of Tawhid. and doubts instead of certainty. However, they did not abide by it, and this is why Allah resembled them to the donkey that carries volumes of books. Surely, when the donkey carries books, it will not understand what these books contain because it is only carrying these books using its strength. This is the example of those who were entrusted with the Tawrah; they read its letter but did not understand its meanings nor abided by them. Rather, they even corrupted and changed the Tawrah. Therefore, they are worse than the donkey, because the donkey cannot understand. They, on the other hand, could have understood using their minds, but their minds were of no benefit. The people of Islam gather weekly, on every Friday in the major places of worship. It was during Friday when Allah finished the creation, the sixth day, during which Allah created the heavens and earth. During Friday, Allah created Adam, and he was placed in Paradise, and ironically, it was a Friday when he was taken out of Paradise. It will be on a Friday when the Last Hour will commence. There is an hour during Friday, wherein no faithful servant asks Allah for something good, but Allah will give him what he asked for. All of this is based upon Hadiths in the authentic collections. In the ancient language Friday was called, 'Arubah. It is a fact that previous nations were informed about Friday, but they were led astray from it. The Jews chose Saturday for their holy day, but Adam was not created on Saturday. The Christians chose Sunday, which is the day the creation was initiated. Allah chose Friday for this Ummah, because it is the day the creation was finished. Allah will never forgive them. Verily, Allah guides not the people who are the rebellious.} As Allah said in Surat Bara'ah, and a discussion preceded there, and here we will present some of the Hadiths reported that are related to it. Several of the Salaf mentioned that this entire passage was revealed in the case of 'Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul, as we will soon mention, Allah willing and our trust and reliance are on Him. U1 See the volume four, the Tafslr of SuratAt-Tawbah (9 :80)

In his book, As-Sirah, Muhammad bin Ishaq said, "After the battle of Uhud ended, the Prophet jg returned to Al-Madlnah. 'Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul - as Ibn Shihab narrated to me - would stand up every Friday, without objection from anyone because he was a chief of his people, when the Prophet m would sit on the Minbar, just before he delivered the Jumu'ah Khutbah to the people. 'Abdullah bin Ubay would say, 'O people! This is the Messenger of Allah with you. Allah has honored us by sending him and gave you might through him. Support him, honor him and listen to and obey him.' He would then sit down. So after the battle of Uhud, even after he did what he did, that is, returning to Al-Madlnah with a third of the army, he stood up to say the same words. But the Muslims held on to his clothes and said to him, 'Sit down, O enemy of Allah! You are not worthy to stand after you did what you did.' 'Abdullah went out of the Masjid crossing people's lines and saying, *By Allah, it is as if I said something awful when I wanted to support him.' Some men from Al- Ansar met him at the gate of the Masjid and asked him what happened. He said, 1 just stood up to support him and some men, his Companions, jumped at me, pulled me back and admonished me, as if what I said was an awful thing; I merely wanted to support him.' They said to him, 'Woe to you! Go back so that Allah's Messenger jg asks Allah to forgive you.' He said, TBy Allah, I do not wish that he ask Allah to forgive me.'  1 Qatadah and As-Suddi said, "This Ayah was revealed about 'Abdullah bin Ubay. A young relative of his went to Allah's Messenger sg and conveyed to him an awful statement that 'Abdullah said. The Messenger sg called 'Abdullah, who swore by Allah that he did not say anything. The Ansar went to that boy and admonished him. However, Allah sent down what you hear about 'Abdullah's case and Allah's enemy was told, 'Go to Allah's Messenger,' but he turned his head away, saying that he will not do it." Muhammad bin Ishaq said that Muhammad bin Yahya bin Hibban, 'Abdullah bin Abi Bakr and 'Asim bin Tlmar bin Qatadah narrated to him the stoiy of Bani Al-Mustaliq. said that while the Messenger of Allah jg was in that area, Jahjah bin Said Al-Ghifari, a hired hand for Umar, and Sinan bin Wabr fought over the water source. Sinan called out, "O Ansar", while Al-Jahjah called, "O Muhajirin!" Zayd bin Arqam and several Ansar men were sitting with 'Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul at that time. When 'Abdullah heard what happened, he said, "They are bothering us in our land. By Allah, the parable of us and these foolish Quraysh men, is the parable that goes, 'Feed your dog until it becomes strong, and it will eat you.' By Allah, when we go back to Al-Madinah, the most mighty will expel the weak from it." He then addressed his people who were sitting with him, saying to them, "What have you done to yourselves? You let them settle in your land and shared your wealth with them. By Allah, if you abandon them, they will have to move to another area other than yours." Zayd bin Arqam heard these words and conveyed them to Allah's Messenger jg. Zayd was a young boy then. Umar bin Al-Khattab was with the Messenger and he said, "O Allah's Messenger! Order 'Abbad bin Bishr to cut off his head at his neck." The Prophet jg replied, J <'1 |JU>J jl 'fJ- u r.0l Ijl _aISo« 'What if people started saying that Mulhammad kills his companions, O 'Umar? No. However, order the people to start the journey (back to Al-Madinah) .» When ‘Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul was told that his statement reached Allah’s Prophet jg, he went to him and denied saying it. He swore by Allah that he did not utter the statement that Zayd bin Arqam conveyed. ‘Abdullah bin Ubay was a chief of his people and they said, “O Allah’s Messenger! May be the young boy merely guessed and did not hear what was said correctly.” Allah’s Messenger jg started the journey at an unusual hour of the day and was met by Usayd bin Al-Hudayr, who greeted him acknowledging his prophethood. Usayd said, “By Allah! You are about to begin the journey at an unusual time.” The Prophet jg said, ^ j I Jli U Ui®

656 TafsTr Ibn Kathir «jiVi it Did not the statement of your friend, Ibn Ubay reach you? He claimed that when he returns to Al-Madinah, the mighty one will expel the weak one out of it .» Usayd said, “Indeed, you are the mighty one, O Allah’s Messenger, and he is the disgraced one.” Usayd said, “Take it easy with him, O Allah’s Messenger! By Allah, when Allah brought you to us, we were about to gather the pearls (of a crown) so that we appoint him king over us. He thinks that you have rid him of his kingship.” The Messenger of Allah Si traveled with the people until the night fell, then the rest of the night until the beginning of the next day and then set camp with the people. He wanted to busy them from talking about what had happened. The minute people felt the ground under their feet, they went to sleep and Surat Al-Munafiqin was revealed. Al-Hafiz Abu Bakr Al-Bayhaqi recorded that Jabir bin ‘Abdullah said, “We were in a battle with Allah’s Messenger S& and a man from the Emigrants kicked an Ansari man. The Ansari man called out, ‘O Ansari!’ and the Emigrant called out, ‘O Emigrants!’ Allah’s Messenger Si heard that and said, IfejpS JU La uWhat is this call of Jahiliyyah? Abandon it because it is offensive .» ‘Abdullah bin Ubay heard that and said, ‘Have they (the Emigrants) done so? By Allah, if we return to Al-Madinah, surely, the more honorable will expel therefrom the meaner.’ The Ansar at that time, were more numerous than the Emigrants when the Messenger of Allah si came to Al-Madinah, but later on the Emigrants increased in number. When this statement reached the Prophet Si, Umar got up and said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Let me chop off the head of this hypocrite!’ The Prophet si said: * J * Ibn Hisham 2:290-292. This and the last two narrations are not authentic, from the view of the chain of narrators. Much of the information can be seen again in the following narrations which are authentic, among them the narration in the Two Sahuhs.

657 Surah 63. Al-Munafiqim (5-8) (Part-28) IV-J> «Leave him, lest the people say that Muhammad kills his companionsJ” ’ Imam Ahmad, 2 ’ Al-Bukhari and Muslim 3 ’ collected this Hadith. ‘Ikrimah and Ibn Zayd and others said that when the Prophet and his Companions went back to Al-Madinah, ‘Abdullah, the son of ‘Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul, remained by the gate of Al-Madinah holding his sword. People passed by him as they returned to Al-Madinah, and then his father came. ‘Abdullah, son of ‘Abdullah, said to his father, “Stay where you are,” and his father asked what the matter was? His son said, “By Allah! You will enter through here until the Messenger of Allah allows you to do so, for he is the honorable one and you are the disgraced.” When the Messenger of Allah Sg came by, and he used to be in the last lines, ‘Abdullah bin Ubay complained to him about his son and his son said, “By Allah, O Allah’s Messenger! He will not enter it until you say so.” The Messenger si gave his permission to ‘Abdullah bin Ubay and his son said, “Enter, now that the Messenger of Allah 3g gave you his permission.” 4 ’ In his Musnad, Abu Bakr ‘Abdullah bin Az-Zubayr Al-Humaydi recorded from Abu Harun Al-Madani that ‘Abdullah, the son of ‘Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul, said to his father, “You will never enter Al-Madinah unless and until you say, ‘Allah’s Messenger Si is the honorable one and I am the disgraced.” When the Prophet Si came, ‘Abdullah, son of ‘Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul said to him, “O Allah’s Messenger! I was told that you have decided to have my father executed. By He Who has sent you with Truth, I never looked straight to his face out of respect for him. But if you wish, I will bring you his head, because I would hate to see the killer of my father.”’5’ Dala’il An-Nubuwwah 4 :53 I2 ‘ Ahmad 3 :392 ‘ Al-Bukhari no . 4907 , Muslim no . 2584 I4 ‘ At-Tabari 23 :403, 405. ‘ Musnad Al-Humaydi2 :520

And Abu Az-Zubayr heard the question, “What about a man who divorces his wife while she is still on her menses?” ‘Abdullah answered, “During the time of Allah’s 111 Fath Al-B&ri 8:521. 121 Fath Al-B&ri9 :258 , 393 ; Muslim 2 :1094 , 1095

35Siirah 65. At-Taldq (1) (Part-28) clear that she is pregnant, or he does not due to having sex, or since he does not know if she is pregnant or not. This is why the scholars said that there are two types of divorce, one that conforms to the Sunnah and another innovated. The divorce that conforms to the Sunnah is one where the husband pronounces one divorce to his wife when she is not having her menses and without having had sexual intercourse with her after the menses ended. One could divorce his wife when it is clear that she is pregnant. As for the innovated divorce, it occurs when one divorces his wife when she is having her menses, or after the menses ends, has sexual intercourse with her and then divorces her, even though he does not know if she became pregnant or not. There is a third type of divorce, which is neither a Sunnah nor an innovation where one divorces a young wife who has not begun to have menses, the wife who is beyond the age of having menses, and divorcing one's wife before the marriage was consummated. Allah said, 4;lii \f^j} } and count their 'Iddah meaning, count for it and know its beginning and end, so that the 'Iddah does not become prolonged for the woman and she cannot get married again, 4|^=vj } And have Taqwd of Allah, your Lord.} in this matter. Therefore, the husband does not have the right to force her out of her house, nor is she allowed to leave his house, because she is still tied to the marriage contract. Allah said,

They also relied on the Hadith of Fatimah bint Qays Al-Fihriyah when her husband Abu 'Amr bin Hafs divorced her the third and fined time. He was away from her in Yemen at the time, and he sent her his decision to divorce her. He also sent some barley with his messenger, but she did not like the amount or method of compensation. He said, "By Allah I am not obligated to spend upon you." So, she went to Allah's Messenger sg, who said, "There is no obligation on him to spend on you." Muslim added in his narration, «nor housing.» And he ordered her to finish her 'Iddah period in the house of Umm Shank. He then said, "She is a woman my Companions visit. To the contrary, he should divorce her on good terms, observing kindness and good manners. 111 At-Tabarani in Al-Kabir²⁴ :382 121 An-Nasal 6 :144

The Command to have Witnesses for the Return Allah said, dlji 4And take as witness two just persons from among you> meaning when taking her back, if this is your decision. Abu Dawud and Ibn Majah recorded that Imran bin Husayn was asked about a man who divorced his wife and then had sexual intercourse with her, without notifying witnesses of when he divorced her and when he took her back. Imran said, "His divorce and taking her back was in contradiction to the Sunnah. Incorporate the presence of witnesses for divorcing her and taking her back, and do not repeat your conduct." Ibn Jurayj said that 'Ata' commented on the Ayah, 4And take as witness two just persons from among you "It is not permissible to marry, divorce or take back the divorced wife except with two just witnesses, just as Allah the Exalted has said, except when there is a valid excuse." At-Taldq (4-5) (Part-28) *Iddah ofPregnantWomen Allah's statement, 4 l>4&- 4And for those who are pregnant, their 'Iddah is until they lay down their burden Allah says: the pregnant woman's 'Iddah ends when she gives birth, whether in the case of divorce or death of the husband, according to the agreement of the majority of scholars of the Salaf and later generations. This is based upon this honorable Ayah and what is mentioned in the Prophetic Sunnah. Al-Bukhari recorded that Abu Salamah said, "A man came to Ibn 'Abbas while Abu Hurayrah was sitting with him and said, 'Give me your verdict regarding a lady who delivered a baby forty days after the death of her husband.' Ibn 'Abbas said,' [Her Iddah period lasts until) the end of the longest among the two prescribed periods.' I recited, 4For those who are pregnant, their prescribed period is until they deliver their burdens Abu Hurayrah said, 1 agree with my cousin (Abu Salamah).' Then Ibn 'Abbas sent his slave Kurayb to Umm Salamah to ask her. She replied, The husband of Subay'ah Al-Aslamiyyah was killed while she was pregnant, and she delivered a baby forty days after his death. Then she received a marriage proposal and Allah's Messenger jg married her to somebody. Abu As-Sanabil was one of those who proposed to her.'" Al- Bukhari collected this short form of the Hadith, which Muslim and other scholars of Hadith collected using its longer form. Imam Ahmad recorded that Al-Miswar bin Makhramah said, "Subay'ah Al-Aslamiyyah gave birth to a child a few days after the death of her husband. When she finished the postdeliveiy term, she was proposed to. So she sought the permission of Allah's Messenger jg for the marriage, and he permitted her to 111 FathAl-Bari 8:521. 121 Falh Al-Bari 9 :379 , Muslim 2 : 1 123 , TuhfatAl-Ahwadhi 4 :375 , An- Nasal 6 :192

Al-Hajjaj recorded that Ubaydullah bin ‘Abdullah bin Utbah said that his father wrote to Umar bin ‘Abdullah bin Al-Arqam Az-Zuhn, requesting that he go to Subay'ah bint Al-Harith Al-Aslamiyyah to ask her about the matter in question, and about what Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said to her when she sought his verdict. Umar bin ‘Abdullah wrote to Ubaydullah bin ‘Abdullah bin Utbah informing him that Subay'ah told him that she had been married to Sa’d bin Khawlah, and he was one of those who participated in the battle of Badr. He died during the Farewell Pilgrimage, while she was pregnant. Soon after his death, she gave birth. When she passed the postnatal term, she beautified herself for those who might propose to her. Abu As-Sanabil bin Bakak came to her and said, *Why do I see you have beautified yourself? Do you wish to remarry? By Allah, you cannot marry unless four months and ten days have passed.” Subay'ah said, “When he said that, I dressed myself in the evening and went to Allah’s Messenger and asked him about his verdict. He gave me a religious verdict that I was allowed to marry after I had given birth to my child, saying I could marry if I wish.”¹³¹ This is the narration that Muslim collected. sweet...” Al-Jawhan said, “The ‘f/r/ut’ is a tree of the shrub variety, which secretes Maghfur.” Muslim collected this Hadith from ‘A’ishah in the Book of Divorce in his SahO, and his wording is the same as Al- Bukhari in the Book of Vows.’⁴ In the Book of Divorce, Al-Bukhari recorded that ‘A’ishah said, “Allah’s Messenger ^ liked sweets and honey. After performing the ‘Asr prayer, he used to visit his wives, going close to them. So he went to Hafsah, daughter of ‘Umar, and stayed with her more than his usual stay. I (‘A’ishah) became jealous and asked about that. It was said to me, ‘A woman of her family sent her a small vessel of honey as a gift, and she gave a drink to Allah’s Messenger made from it.’ I said, “By Allah, we will contrive a plot against him.’ I said to Sawdah bint Zam’ah, When the Messenger visits you and draws close *’ Fath Al-Bari 1 1 :572 ’ Fath Al-Bdri 9:287. ’3| It appears in a narration that follows. ’ Muslim 2 :1100.

He then visited Safiyyah and she also said similar to him. When he again visited Hafsah, she said, ‘O Messenger of Allah, should I not give you that (drink)?’ He said, «J do not need it.* Sawdah said, By Allah! We have prevented him from drinking honey.’ I said to her, ‘Keep quiet!’ ” 1 ’ Muslim also recorded thisHadUh, ’ butthiswording is from Al-Bukhari. In the narration of Muslim, ‘A’ishah said, “The Messenger of Allah used to hate to have a bad odor coming from him”¹³¹ This is why they suggested to him that he ate Maghdfir, because it causes a bad odor. When he said, «No, I had some honey.* They said that the bees ate from a tree that is called Al-Vifut, which has Maghdfirgum, suggesting that this is the reason behind the bad odor they claimedwas coming from him. The latter narration, collected through Tlrwah from ‘A’ishah, mentions that itwas Hafsahwhogave theProphet^ the honey. 111 Fath Al-B&ri 9 :287 121 Muslim 2:1101,1102. 131 Muslim 2:1102.

In another narration collected from TJbayd bin ‘Umayr, from ‘A’ishah, it was Zaynab bint Jahsh who gave the honey to the Prophet si, while ‘A’ishah and Hafsah were the plotters. Allah knows best. Some might say that they were two separate incidents. However, it is not likely that the Ayat were revealed about both incidents, if indeed they were two separate incidents. Allah knows best. A Ijadhith that Imam Ahmad collected in the Musnad mentions that ‘A’ishah and Hafsah were the plotters. Imam Ahmad recorded that Ibn ‘Abbas said, “I was eager to ask ‘Umar about the two ladies among the wives of the Prophet jg, about whom Allah said, C.«*> jjj 4>l 4!fyou two turn in repentance to Allah your hearts are indeed so inclined;} Then I performed Hajj along with ‘Umar, and on our way back from Hajj he went aside (to relieve himself). I also went aside along with him carrying a tumbler of water. When he finished and returned, I poured water on his hands from the tumbler and he performed ablution. I said, ‘O Commander of the faithful! Who were the two ladies among the wives of the Prophet to whom Allah said, ilfyou two turn in repentance to Allah your hearts are indeed so inclined}?’ TJmar said, *1 am astonished at your question, O Ibn ‘AbbSs.’ ” - Az-Zuhri (a subnarrator) said that “Umar did not like the question, but he still answered it, saying that they were ‘A’ishah and Hafsa. “Then *Umar went on relating the story and said, We, the people of Quraysh, used to have authority over our women. But when we came to live with the Ansar, we noticed that the Ansari women had the upper hand over their men, so our women started acquiring the habits of the Ansari women. At that time, I was residing at the house of Umayyah bin Zayd, in Al-‘Awali. [x] Once I got angry with my wife, and she talked back to me; I disliked her answering me back. She said. By Allah, the wives of the Prophet sg talk back to him, and some of them may not speak with him for the whole day, until nightfall.’ Then I went to Hafsa and asked her, T)o you talk back to Allah’s Messenger?’ She said, ‘Yes.’ I asked, “Does any of you keep Allah’s Messenger angry all day long, until night?’ She replied, ‘Yes.’ I said, “Whoever among you does this is a ruined, losing person! Doesn’t she fear that Allah may get angry for the singer of His Messenger and, thus, she will be ruined? Don’t ask Allah’s Messenger too many things, and don’t retort him in any case. Demand from me whatever you like, and don’t be tempted to imitate your neighbor, for she is more beautiful than you, and more beloved to Allah’s Messenger than you.’ He meant ‘A’ishah. I, and an Ansari neighbor of mine used to visit the Prophet jg in turns. He used to go one day, and I another day. When I went I would bring him the news of what had happened that day regarding the revelation and when he went, he used to do the same for me. In those days it was rumored that the Ghassan (tribe) were preparing their horses to invade us. My companion went and returned to us at night and knocked at my door. I came out to him. He said that a grave thing happened. I asked him, “What is it? Have Ghassan come?’ He replied that it was worse and more serious than that, adding that Allah’s Messenger jg had divorced all his wives. I said, ‘Hafsa is a ruined loser! I expected that would happen some day.’ So I dressed myself and I performed the Subh. prayer. I went to Hafsa and found her weeping. I asked her, ‘Has Allah’s Messenger divorced all of you?’ She replied, 1 don’t know. He is there alone in the upper room.’ I went to the upper room and asked a black slave of the Prophet jg to ask for his permission to see me, and the boy went in and then came out saying, 5 mentioned you to him and he remained silent.’ I then went out and came to the Minbar and found a group of people around it and some of them were weeping. I sat with them for some time, but could not endure the situation. So, I requested to the boy, ‘Will you get the permission for “Umar?’ He went in and then came out saying, 1 mentioned you to him, but he did not reply.’ So, I went to

Minbar and sat with the people who were sitting by the Minbar, but I could not bear the situation, so I went to the boy again and said, “Will you get the permission for ‘Umar?’ He went in and brought the same reply as before. When I was leaving, behold, he called me saying, ‘Allah’s Messenger has granted you permission.’ So, I entered the Prophet’s room, greeted him with the Saldm and saw him lying on a mat without bedding on it, and the mat had left its mark on the body of the Prophet jg. I said, “Have you divorced your wives, O Allah’s Messenger?’ He raised his eyes to me and replied no. I said, 'Allahu Akbar. O Allah’s Messenger! We, the people of Quraysh used to have the upper hand over our women. But when we came to Al- Madxnah, we found a people whose women had the upper hand over them. Our women started learning this behavior from them. Once, I got angiy with my wife, and she talked back to me. I disliked that behavior from her and she said, Why do you dislike that I talk back to you? By Allah, the Prophet’s wives talk back to him and one of them would ignore him the whole day, until the night.' I said to her, Whoever does this among them is the ruined loser! Does she feel safe from Allah getting angry with her on account of His Messenger's anger? In that case, she would be ruined.' On that the Prophet jg smiled. I then said, 'O Allah's Messenger! I went to Hafsa and said to her, 'Do not be tempted to imitate your companion ('A'ishah) for she is more beautiful than you and more beloved to the Prophet.' The Prophet sgs smiled again. When I saw him smiling, I said, 'Does the Messenger feel calm?' He said, 'Yes.' So, I sat down and cast a glance at the room, and by Allah, I couldn't see anything of importance, except three hides. I said, 'Invoke Allah, O Allah's Messenger, to make your followers prosperous, for the Persians and the Byzantines have been made prosperous and given worldly luxuries, even though they do not worship Allah.' The Prophet jig sat upright and said. SlliJl^ ^ iklji !i_>lkijl jjl U dji kiLijU «0 Ibn Al-Khattab! Do you have any doubt? These people have been given rewards of their good deeds in this world only. The Prophet swore that he would not go to his wives for one month, because of his severe anger towards them, until Allah the Exalted and Most Honored censured him." 11 Al-Bukhari, Muslim, At-Tirmidhi and An-Nasal also collected this Hadith using various chains of narration.12 * Al-Bukhari and Muslim also collected it from Ibn 'Abbas, who said, "For a whole year, I was eager to ask TJmar bin Al-Khattab about an Ayah. However, I hesitated out of respect for him. Once, he went on a Hajj trip and I accompanied him. On our way back, he stopped to relieve himself behind some trees of Arak. I stopped until he finished and then walked along with him and asked him, 'O Leader of the believers! Who are the two women who helped each other (or plotted) against the Prophet 2|5?' "3 * This is the narration that Al-Bukhari collected, while Muslim recorded that Ibn 'Abbas asked, "Who are the two women about whom Allah the Exalted said, ibut if you help one another against him,}" TJmar replied, "A'ishah and Hafsa."4 * Muslim mentioned the rest of the Hadith. Muslim also recorded that Ibn 'Abbas said that TJmar bin Al-Khattab said to him, "When Allah's Messenger ig stayed away from his wives, I entered the Masjid and found people striking the ground with pebbles. They said, 'Allah's Messenger has divorced his wives.' That occurred before Hijab was commanded. I said to myself, T must investigate this news today.' " So he mentioned the Hadith in which he went to 'A'ishah and Hafsa and admonished them. He then said, T went in and found Rabah, the servant of Allah's Messenger sitting on a window sill. I called, 'O Rabah, seek permission for me from Allah's Messenger.' " He then mentioned the story as we mentioned above. TJmar continued, "I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, what trouble do you 11 Ahmad 1:33,34. They were under two of our righteous servants means, they were the wives of two of Allah's Messengers and were their companions by day and night, eating with them and sleeping with them, as much as any marriage contains of interaction between spouses. However, it they both betrayed them meaning, in the faith, they did not adhere to the faith sent through their husbands nor accepted their message. Therefore, all the intimate knowledge of their husbands neither helped them nor prevented punishment, hence Allah's statement, 4U\ CJift CSu 4So, they availed them not against Allah means, because their wives were disbelievers, ^and it was said meaning, to these wives, iSib'M£ 3&\ iEnter the Fire along with those who enteric The part of the Ayah that reads, ibut they both betrayed them^ does not pertain to committing illegal sexual intercourse, but to refusing to accept the religion. Surely, the wives of the Prophets were immune from committing illegal sexual intercourse on account of the honor that Allah has granted His Prophets, as we explained in Surat An-Nur. 11 ^ Al-'Awfi reported from Ibn 'Abbas, "They betrayed them by not following their religion. The wife of Prophet Nuh used to expose his secrets, informing his oppressive people whenever any person embraced the faith with Nuh. She was shown her house in Paradise."² Ibn Jarir said that Al-Qasim bin Abi Bazzah said, "Fir'awn's wife used to ask. Who prevailed?' When she was told, "Musa and Harun prevailed", she said, "I believe in the Lord of Musa and Harun." Fir'awn sent his aides to her and said to them, "Find the biggest stone. If she insists on keeping her faith, throw the stone on her, otherwise she is my wife. When they came to her, she looked up to the sky and was able to see her house in Paradise. She persisted on the faith and her soul was then captured. The stone was thrown on her lifeless body."³ This is the meaning of her statement, "My Lord! Build for me a home with You in Paradise, and save me from Fir'awn and his work," means, "deliver me from him, because I am innocent of his actions," and save me from the people who are wrongdoers." Her name was Asiyah bint Muzahim, may Allah be pleased with her. Allah said, "Inna Inna Maryam, the daughter of 'Imran who guarded her chastity (private part)." 111 At-Tabari 23:500. This means that He deals with all of His creatures however He wishes and there is none who can reverse His decree. He is not questioned concerning what He does because of His force. There are two views concerning this, and the most correct opinion seems to be the latter as is proven in the Hadlth of Isra' (the Prophet's Night Journey) and other narrations. Concerning Allah's statement, i? oi cpy iyou can see nofault in the creation of the Most Gracious.} means, it (the creation) is done in a flawless manner, and these are connected with each other so as to forms a straight level, having no disunion, conflict, inconsistency, deficiency, flaw or defect. Then, after Allah negated any deficiency in the creation of the heavens, He explains their perfection and beauty. He says, }And indeed We have adorned the nearest heaven with lamps,} This refers to the stars which have been placed in the heavens, some moving and some stationary. 111 At-Tabari 23:507. *21 At-Tabari 23:507. *3) Ad-DurrAl-Manthur 8 :235

iand We have made them (as) missiles to drive away the Shaydtin,) The pronoun 'them' in His statement, "and We have made them" is the same type of statement as the stars being referred to as lamps. This does not mean that they are actually missiles, because the stars in the sky are not thrown. Rather, it is the meteors beneath them that are thrown and they are taken from the stars. This is by His making it a stable abode and dwelling place. He placed in it mountains and caused water springs to gush forth from it. He fashioned pathways, and placed useful things in it and places fertile for the growth of fruit and vegetation. Allah says, 4 p 4\ $} iHe it is Who has made the earth subservient to you; so walk in the paths thereof} meaning, travel wherever you wish throughout its regions and frequent its countrysides and all the areas of its domain in your various journeys to seek earnings and trade. So, it is merely out of His favor and His grace that He causes water to spring forth for you, and He makes it run to the various regions of the earth in an amount that is suitable for the needs of servants, be it little or abundant. Verily, your Lord is the best Knower of him who has gone astray from His path, and He is the best Knower of those who are guided.) We have already discussed the special letters of the Arabic alphabet at the beginning of Surat Al-Baqarah. Thus, Allah's saying, 4^> 4Nun), is like Allah's saying. i'j 4Siid), and Allah's saying,  Also called Surat Al-Qalam.

iQafo, and similar to them from the individual letters that appear at the beginning of Qur'anic chapters. This has been discussed at length previously and there is no need to repeat it here. The Explanation of the Pen Concerning Allah's statement, 4M& 4By the pen The apparent meaning is that this refers to the actual pen that is used to write. This is like Allah's saying, iRead! And your Lord is the Most Generous . Who has taught by the pen. He has taught man that which he knew not.} (96:3-5) Therefore, this statement is Allah's swearing and alerting His creatures to what He has favored them with by teaching them the skill of writing, through which knowledge is attained. Thus, Allah continues by saying. 4and by what they Yastur.} Ibn 'Abbas, Mujahid and Qatadah all said that this means, "what they write." 111 As-Suddi said, "The angels and the deeds of the servants they record." Others said, "Rather, what is meant here is the pen which Allah caused to write the decree when He wrote the decrees of all creation, and this took place fifty-thousand years before He created the heavens and the earth." For this, they present Hadiths that have been reported about the Pen. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded from Al-Walīd bin Tjbadah bin As-Samit that he said, "My father called for me when he was dying and he said to me: Verily, I heard the Messenger of Allah ;gl say, : Jli 4o 'i jUi3» ifol jU li Jj\ !>)» m At-Tabari 23:527, 528.

8 Verily, the first of what Allah created was the Pen, and He said to it: "Write." The Pen said: "O my Lord, what shall I write?" He said: "Write the decree and whatever will throughout eternity." n'^ This Hadith has been recorded by Imam Ahmad through various routes of transmission. 121 At-Tirmidhi also recorded it from a Hadith of Abu Dawud At-Tayalisi and he (At-Tirmidhi) said about it, "Hasan Sahih, Gharib," 131 Swearing by the Pen refers to the Greatness of the Prophet^ Allah says, iYou, by the grace of your Lord, are not insane.} meaning - and all praise is due to Allah - "you are not crazy as the ignorant among your people claim. They are those who deny the guidance and the clear truth that you have come with. Therefore, they attribute madness to you because of it.' &10 iAnd verily, for you will be reward that is not Mamnun.} meaning, For you is the great reward, and abundant blessings which will never be cut off or perish, because you conveyed the Message of your Lord to creation, and you were patient with their abuse.’ The meaning of: inot Mamnun is that it will not be cut off. This is similar to Allah’s statement, ‘j*. :ILZ} ia gift without an end.} (1 1:108) and His statement. At-Jabari 23:526. Ahmad 5:317. TuhfatAl-Ahwadhi 9 :232 iThen they shall have a reward without end> (95:6) Mujahid said, 4Without Mamniin) means “Without reckoning.”¹¹¹ And this refers back to what we have said before.

an Exalted Character.” Concerning Allah’s statement, iAnd verily, you are on an exalted (standard of) character.$> Al-‘Awfi reported from Ibn ‘Abbas, “Verily, you are oh a great religion, and it is Islam.”¹²¹ Likewise said Mujahid, Abu Malik, As-Suddi and Ar-Rabl’ bin Anas.¹³¹ Ad-Dahhak and Ibn Zayd also said this.¹⁴¹ Sa’id bin Abi ‘Arubah reported from Qatadah that he said concerning Allah’s statement, 4And verily, you are on an exalted (standard of) character. “It has been mentioned to us that Sa’d bin Hisham asked ‘A’ishah about the character of the Messenger of Allah so she replied: ‘Have you not read the Qur’an?’ Sa’d said: ‘Of course.’ Then she said: Verily, the character of the Messenger of Allah ag was the Qur’an.’ ”,sl ‘Abdur-Razzaq recorded similar to this¹⁶¹ and Imam Muslim recorded it in his Sahlh on the authority of Qatadah in its full length.¹⁷¹ This means that he would act according to the commands and the prohibition in the Qur’an. His nature and character were patterned according to the Qur’an, and he abandoned his ¹¹¹ At-Tabari 23:528. ¹²¹ At-Tabari 23 :529 ¹³¹ At-Tabari 23 :529 , and Ad-DurrAl-Manthur⁸ :243 ¹⁴¹ At-Tabari 23:530. ¹⁵¹ At-Tabari 23:529. ¹⁶¹ ‘Abdur-Razzaq 3 :307 ¹⁷¹ Muslim 1 :513.

Along with this, Allah gave him the exalted character, which included the qualities of modesty, kindness, bravery, pardoning, gentleness and every other good characteristic. This is like that which has been confirmed in the Two Sahlhs that Anas said, “I served the Messenger of Allah jg for ten years, and he never said a word of displeasure to me (lff), nor did he ever say to me concerning something I had done: “Why did you do that?” And he never said to me concerning something I had not done: *Why didn’t you do this?’ He had the best character, and I never touched any silk or anything else that was softer than the palm of the Messenger of Allah !§• And I never smelled any musk or perfume that had a better fragrance than the sweat of the Messenger of Allah.”¹¹ Imam Al-Bukhari recorded that Al-Bara’ said, “The Messenger of Allah jg had the most handsome face of all the people, and he had the best behavior of all of the people. And he was not tall, nor was he short.”²¹ The Hadiths concerning this matter are numerous. Abu Isa At-Tirmidhi has a complete book on this subject called Kitab Ash-Shamd’il. Imam Ahmad recorded that ‘A’ishah said, “The Messenger of Allah ^ never struck a servant of his with his hand, nor did he ever hit a woman. He never hit anything with his hand, except for when he was fighting Jihad in the cause of Allah. And he was never given the option between two things except that the most beloved of the two to him was the easiest of them, as long as it did not involve sin. If it did involve sin, then he stayed farther away from sin than any of the people. He would not avenge himself concerning anything that was done to him, except if the limits of Allah were transgressed. Then, in that case he would avenge for the sake of Allah.”¹³¹ Imam Ahmad also recorded from Abu Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, Fathi Al-Bari 10:471, and Muslim 4 :1814. '2) Fath Al-Bari 6:652 '31 Ahmad 6 :232. Similar with Muslim 7 : 80.

Thus, the entire statement means, ‘so you will know and they will know,’ or tyou will be informed and they will be informed, as to which of you is afflicted with madness.’ And 111 Ahmad 2:381. * Al-Qurtubi 18 :229 At-Jabari 23 :531. 141 Af-Tabari 23:530.

It is confirmed in the Two

Both Al-Bukhari and Muslim recorded this in their Two SahOis, as well as the rest of the Group, except for Abu Dawud. All of its routes of transmission are by way of Sufyan Ath-Thawri and Shuhah who both reported it from Said bin Khalid. [2 > The scholars of Arabic language have said that Ja'zari means rude and harsh, while Jawwdz means greedy and stingy. Concerning the word Zanim, Al-Bukhari recorded from Ibn 'Abbas that he said concerning the Ayah, i'Utl (cruel), and moreover Zanim.} "A man from the Quraysh who stands out among them like the sheep that has had a piece of its ear cut off."131 The meaning of this is that he is famous for his evil just as a sheep that has a piece of its ear cut off stands out among its sister sheep. In the Arabic language the Zanim is a person who is adopted among a group of people (i.e., he is not truly of them). Ibn Jarir and others among the Imams have said this. This is similar to Allah's statement, iLeave Me alone (to deal) with whom I created lonely (without any wealth and children etc.). And then granted him resources in abundance. And children to be by his side. And made life smooth and comfortable for him . After all that he desires that I should give more. Nay! Verily, he has been opposing Our Ayat. Then he frowned and he looked in a bad tempered way. Then he turned back, and was proud. Then he said: "This is nothing but magic from that of old, this is nothing but the word of a human being!" I will cast him into Hellfire. And what will make you know what Hellfire is? It spares not (any sinner), nor does it leave (anything unburned)! Burning and blackening the skins! Over it are nineteen (angels as keepers of Hell). 124 Tafstr Ibn Kathir that no one could hear what they were saying. Then Allah, the All-Knower of secrets and private discussions, explained what they were saying in private. He said, iSo they departed, and they were whispering : "No poor person shall enter upon you into it today."} meaning, some of them said to others, "Do not allow any poor person to enter upon you in it (the garden) today." Allah then said, 4/s- & iAnd they went in the morning with Hard} meaning, with strength and power. iQadirin} meaning, they thought they had power to do what they claimed and what they were desiring. ci ys &} iBut when they saw it, they said: "Verily, we have gone astray."} meaning, when they arrived at it and came upon it, and it was in the condition which Allah changed from that luster, brilli- ance and abundance of fruit, to being black, gloomy and void of any benefit. They believed that they had been mistaken in the path they took in walking to it. This is why they said, 4oJu ti} 4Verily, we have gone astray.} meaning, “we have walked down a path other than the one we were seeking to reach it.’ This was said by Ibn ‘Abbas and others. Then they changed their minds and realized with certainty that it was actually the correct path. Then they said, iNay! meaning, “we have transgressed, trespassed, violated and exceeded the bounds until what this happened to us.’ iWe hope that our Lord will give us in exchange better than it. Truly, we hope in our Lord.} It has been said, “They were hoping for something better in exchange in this life.” It has also been said, “They were hoping for its reward in the abode of the Hereafter.” And Allah knows best. Some of the Salaf mentioned that these people were from Yemen. Said bin Jubayr said, “They were from a village that was called Darawan which was six miles from San’a’ (in Yemen).” It has also been said, “They were from the people of Ethiopia whose father had left them this garden, and they were from the People of the Book. Their father used to handle the garden in a good way. Whatever he reaped from it he would put it back into the garden as it needed, and he would save some of it as food for his dependants for the year, and he would give away the excess in charity. Then, when he died, and his children inherited the garden they said, Verily, our father was foolish for giving some of this garden’s harvest to the poor. If we prevent them from it, then we will have more.’ So when they made up their minds to do this they were punished with what was contrary to their plan. Allah took away all of what they possessed of wealth, gain and charity. Nothing remained for them.” Allah then says, iSuch is the punishment,} meaning, such is the punishment of whoever opposes the command of Allah, is stingy with what Allah has given him and favored him with, withholds the right of the poor and needy, and responds to Allah’s blessings upon him with ungratefulness (or disbelief). ibut truly, the punishment of the Hereafter is greater if they but knew.} meaning, this is the punishment in this life, as you have heard, and the punishment of the Hereafter is even harder.

He says, 4The Day when the Shin shall be laid bare and they shall be called to prostrate themselves, but they shall not be able to do so.} meaning, the Day of Judgement and the horrors, earthquakes, trials, tests and great matters that will occur during it. Al-Bukhari recorded that Abu Said Al-Khudri said that he heard the Prophet ag saying, j 0’j$> SyQ t tUJ-j l\jj UjjJl «Onr Lord will reveal His Shin, and every believing male and female will prostrate to Him. The only people who will remain standing are those who prostrated in the worldly life only to be seen and heard (showing off). This type of person will try to prostrate at that time, but his back will made to be one stiff 120 Tafslr Ibn Kathir plate (the bone will not bend or flex).” This Hadith was recorded in the Two Sahihs and other books from different routes of transmission with various wordings. It is a long Hadith that is very popular.* 1 Concerning Allah’s statement, ‘Their eyes will be cast down and ignominy will cover them;’ means, in the final abode, due to their crimes and arrogance in the worldly life. Thus they will be punished with the opposite of what they did. When they were called to prostrate in the worldly life, they refused to do so even though they were healthy and secure. Therefore, they will be punished with the lack of ability to do so in the Hereafter. When the Almighty Lord makes Himself visible (before the believers), then the believers will fall down in prostration to Him, but no one of the disbelievers and hypocrites will be able to prostrate, rather, their backs will become one plate. Everytime one of them attempts to prostrate, he will bow his neck but will not be able to prostrate. This is just like in the life of this world, when these people were in opposition to what the believers were doing. For whoever denies the Qur’an Then Allah says, ‘Then leave Me alone with such as belie this narration.’ meaning, the Qur’an. This is a severe threat which means, leave Me alone with this person; I know about him and how I will gradually punish him and increase him in his falsehood. I am giving him respite for a while, then I will seize him with a mighty and powerful punishment.’ Thus, Allah says, ‘We shall punish them gradually from directions they perceive not.’ meaning, and they will not even be aware of it. Rather, they  FathAl-Bari 8:531, 532, and Muslim 1 :167.

121 Surah 68. Nun (42-47) (Part-29) will believe that it is a noble blessing from Allah, but really the same matter is actually a form of humiliation (for them). This is similar to Allah's statement, ‘Do they think that in wealth and children with which We expand them, We hasten unto them with good things. Nay, but they perceive not.’ (23:55,56) Allah also said, ‘So, when they forgot that which they had been reminded, We opened for them the gates of everything, until in the midst of their enjoyment in that which they were given, all of a sudden. We punished them, and lo! They were plunged into destruction with deep regrets and sorrows.’ Therefore, Allah says here, ‘And I will grant them a respite. Verily, My plan is strong.’ meaning, I will delay them, give them respite and extend their time. Yet, this is My plan, and My plot against them.’ Thus, Allah says, ‘Verily, My plan is strong.’ meaning, ‘great against whoever opposes My command, rejects My Messengers and dares to disobey Me.’ In the Two Sahihs it is recorded from the Messenger of Allah ^ that he said, ‘In “Verily Allah the Exalted gives respite to the wrongdoer until He seizes him and he will not be able to escape Him. Then he recited, ‘And I will grant them a respite. Verily, My plan is strong.’’

Such is the punishment of your Lord when He seizes the towns while they are doing wrong. Verily, His punishment is painful (and) severe.’ (11:102) In reference to Allah’s statement, ‘Or is it that you ask them for a wage, so that they are heavily burdened with debt? Or that the Unseen is in their hands, so that they can write it down?’

The Effect ofthe Evil Eye is Real In this Ayah is a proof that the effect of the evil eye and its affliction by the command of Allah is real. Many Hadiths have been reported concerning this through numerous routes of transmission. The Hiadith ofBuraydah binAl-Husayb Abu 'Abdullah bin Majah recorded from Buraydah bin Al- Hu$ayb that the Messenger of Allah said, '4j^ "There is no Ruqyah121 except to cure the evil eye and the sting.i This is how Ibn Majah recorded this Hadith. Imam Muslim also recorded this Hadith in his Sahih on the authority of Buraydah himself, but he did not attribute it to the Prophet There is a story concerning this incident (as reported by Buraydah in Sahih Muslim),¹⁴ and At-Tirmidhi recorded the Hadith in this manner (like Muslim's version).¹⁵ This Hadith has also been recorded by Imam Al-Bukhari, Abu Dawud and At-Tirmidhi on the authority of 'Imran bin Husayn, however, / he did not attribute it to the Prophet Imran's wording is, in At-Tabari 23 :564,565. 'There is no Ruqyah except to cure the evil eye and the stingy '* 11 Muslim recorded in his Sahih from Ibn 'Abbas that the Prophet ﷺ said, '«The evil eye is real. If anything were to overtake the divine decree (and change it), that it would be the evil eye. And if you perform Ghusl (to remove the evil eye) then wash it.»(21 Muslim was alone in recording this Hadith, as Al-Bukhari did not mention it. It is reported from Ibn 'Abbas that he said, "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to invoke Allah's protection for Al-Hasan and Al-Husayn (his grandsons) by saying, '«I seek protection for you two by the perfect Words of Allah from every Shaytan, and dangerous creature, and from every eye that is evil .»' Then he would say: "Thus, did Ibrahim used to seek protection for Ishaq and Isma'il (his sons)»' This Hadith was recorded by Al-Bukhari and the Sunan compilers. ,3) The Hadith of Abu Umamah As'ad bin Sahl bin Hunayf Ibn Majah recorded from Abu Umamah As'ad bin Sahl bin Hunayf that 'Amir bin Rab'ah passed by Sahl bin Hunayf while he was bathing and he said, "I haven't seen the skin of a beautiful virgin girl nicer than this that I see today (i.e., 111 Fath Al-Bari 10:163, Abu Dawud 4:213, and Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi Muslim 4 :1719. 3| Fath Al-Bari 6:470, Abu Dawud 5:104, Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi 6:220, An-Nasab in Al-Kubra 6 :250 , and Ibn Majah 2 : 1 164

So he was brought to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and it was said to him (the Prophet ﷺ) that Sahl had been afflicted by a seizure. The Prophet ﷺ then said, «? Then the Prophet ﷺ called for some water and he commanded 'Amir to perform Wudu' with the water. So he washed his face, his hands up to his two elbows, his two knees, and the inside of his Izar. Then the Prophet ﷺ commanded him to pour the water over Sahl. Sufyan said that Ma'mar related from Az-Zuhri that he said, "The Prophet ﷺ ordered him to turn the water pot over (empty its contents over) him (Sahl) from behind him." 111 An-Nasab recorded this Hadith through different routes from Abu Umamah with the wording, "And he turned the pot over pouring its contents over him (Sahl) from behind him." 121 The Hadith of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri Ibn Majah recorded that Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri said, "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to seek refuge from the evil eye of the Jinns and the evil eye of humans. Then when the Mu'awwidhatan were revealed, he used them (for seeking protection) and abandoned everything else." 141 This was recorded by At-Tirmidhi, and An-Nasab. Another Hadith from Abu Sa'id • Imam Ahmad recorded from Abu Said that Jibril came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, "O Muhammad, are you suffering from any ailment?" The Prophet ﷺ said, "Yes." Then Jibril said, "In the Name of Allah I pray over you for healing (Ruqyah), from everything that bothers you, from the evil of every soul and every evil eye that hates you, may Allah cure you, in the Name of Allah I pray over you for healing." This Hadith has been recorded by Muslim and the Sunan compilers except for Abu Dawud. Imam Ahmad also recorded from Abu Said or Jabir bin 'Abdullah that the Messenger of Allah was bothered by some illness, and Jibril came to him and said, "In the Name of Allah I pray over you for healing (Ruqyah), from everything that bothers you, from every envious person and evil eye, may Allah cure you." [3] The Hadith of Abu Hurayrah Imam Ahmad recorded from Abu Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Verily the evil eye is real." [4] Both Al-Bukhari and Muslim recorded this Hadith as well. [11] Ahmad 3:28,56. [2] Muslim 4:1718, Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi 4:46, and An-Nasab in Al-Kubra 6 :249 , and Ibn Majah 2 : 1164 Ahmad 3:58, 75. [14] Ahmad 2:319. [15] Path Al-Bdri 10:213, and Muslim 4:1719.

129 Surah 68. Nun (48-52) (Part-29) Ibn Majah recorded from Abu Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "The evil eye is real." Ibn Majah was alone in recording this Hadith. The Hadith of Asma' bint 'Umayy al-Muhibbi Imam Ahmad recorded from "Ubayd bin Rifa'ah Az-Zuraqi that Asma' said, "O Messenger of Allah! Verily, Bani Israhil are afflicted with the evil eye; should I seek to have Ruqyah?" The Prophet ﷺ replied, "Yes, for if anything could overcome the divine decree, it would be the evil eye." [12] This Hadith has been recorded like this by At-Tirmidhi, Ibn Majah, and An-Nasab. At-Tirmidhi said concerning it, "Hasan Sahih." [13] The Hadith of 'A'ishah Ibn Majah recorded from 'A'ishah, may Allah be pleased with her, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ ordered her to have Ruqyah performed as a cure against the evil eye. [14] This was reported by Al-Bukhari and Muslim [15] The Hadith of Sahl bin Hunayf Imam Ahmad recorded from Abu Umamah bin Sahl bin Hunayf that his father informed him that the Messenger of Allah went out on a journey in the direction of Makkah and they (the Companions) accompanied him until they came to the valley of Kharrar from Al-Juhfah. They stopped there and [11] Ibn MSjah 2:1159. Alunad 6 :438 * Tuhfat Al-Ahuiadhi6 :219 , and Ibn Majah 2:1160. Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi6 :220 [16] Ibn Majah 2:1161. Fath Al-Bari 10:210, and Muslim 4 :1725 using coverings (to cover their nakedness). So 'Amir removed a cloak of wool that he (Sahl) was using to conceal himself. He ('Amir) said, 'I looked at him and my eye fell upon him while he was pouring water on himself bathing. Then I heard a loud splash in the water coming from where he was. So I went to him, and I called him three times, but he did not answer me. So I went to the Prophet ﷺ and informed him. Then, the Prophet ﷺ came walking, and he was wading in the water. I can still picture the whiteness of his shins, when he came to Sahl (who was unconscious), he hit him on his chest with his hand and said, "O Allah! Remove from him its heat, its cold and its pain." He (Sahl) then stood up, and Allah's Messenger said, "If one of you sees in his brother, or himself, or his wealth that which pleases him, then he should ask Allah to bless it, for verily, the evil eye is real." [1] The Accusation of the Disbelievers and the Reply to Them Allah says, "and they say: 'Verily, he is a madman!'" meaning, they cut at him with their eyes and attack him with their tongues saying, "Verily, he is a madman." They say this because he came with the Qur'an. Allah then says, "But it is nothing else but a Reminder to all the creatures ('Alamin).} This is the end of the explanation (Tafsii of Surah Nun (or Al-Qalam), and all praise and blessing belong to Allah. 111 Ahmad 3:447.

Warning concerning the Greatness of the Day of Judgement Al-Haqqah is one of the names of the Day of Judgement, because during it the promise and the threat will inevitably occur. Due to this, Allah has declared the greatness of this matter. So He says, iAnd what will make you know what Al-Haqqah is?} Mention of the Destruction of the Nations Then Allah mentions the destruction of the nations that denied the Resurrection. He says, <$Asfar Thamiid, they were destroyed by the Tdghiyah!} It is the ciy which will silence them, and the quake that will silence them. Qatadah said similar to this when he said, “At-Taghiyah is the shout.” * Mujahid said, “At-Taghiyah means the sins.” This was also said by Ar-Rabx‘ bin Anas and bin Zayd. They said that it means transgression. 149 Surah 69. Al-Haqqah (39-43) (Part-29 remember 19 443. This is the revelation sent down from the Lord of all that exists. The Qur'an is the Speech of Allah Allah swears by His creation, in which some of His signs can be seen in His creatures. These also indicate the perfection of His Names and Attributes. He then swears by the hidden things that they cannot see. This is an oath swearing that the Qur'an is His Speech, His inspiration and His revelation to His servant and Messenger, whom He chose to convey His Message, and the Messenger carried out this trust faithfully. So Allah says, 'So I swear by whatsoever you see, and by whatsoever you see not, that this is verily the word of an honored Messenger.' meaning, Muhammad jg. Allah gave this description to him, a description which carries the meaning of conveying, because the duty of a messenger is to convey from the sender. Therefore, Allah gave this description to the angelic Messenger in Surat At-Takwim, where he said, 'Verily, this is the Word of (this Qur'an brought by) a most honorable messenger. Owner of power (and high rank) with Allah, the Lord of the Throne. Obeyed and trustworthy.' (81:19-21) And here, it refers to Jibril. Then Allah says, 'And your companion is not a madman. And of course, Muhammad did not do any of this (as the disbelievers claimed).' Thus, Allah says. 'We surely would have seized him by his right hand,} It has been said that this means, 'We would seize him by the right hand because it is more stronger in grabbing.' ^ y} 4 And then We certainly would have cut off Al-Watin from him,} Ibn 'Abbas said, "It (Al-Watiri) refers to the artery of the heart, />£} i And indeed it (this Qur'an) will be an anguish for the disbelievers (on the Day of Resurrection).} Ibn Jarir said, "And verily this rejection will be anguish for the disbelievers on the Day of Judgement." 11 ' He (Ibn Jarir) also mentioned a similar statement from Qatadah.' 2 ' It is possible that the meaning of the pronoun (it) may also refer to the Qur'an, in which case the verse would mean that the Qur'an and belief in it are a cause of anguish for the disbelievers. This is as Allah says, {Thus have We caused it (the denial of the Qur'an) to enter the hearts of the criminals. They will not believe in it.} (26:200,201) And Allah said, {And a barrier will be set between them and that which they desire} (34:54). Therefore, Allah says here, {And verily, it (this Qur'an) is an absolute truth with certainty.} meaning, the right and truthful news in which there is no doubt, suspicion or confusion. Then Allah says, {So glorify the Name of your Lord, the Most Great.} meaning, He Who sent down this magnificent Qur'an. This is the end of the explanation {Tafsir} of Surat Al-Haqqah. And to Allah belong all praise and blessings. At-Tabari 23:595. 121 At-Tabari 23:595.

The Tafsir of "Lord of the ways of ascent"

[Tafsir Ibn Kathir (Abridged), Darussalam English Edition, PDF p. 6102]

'Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from Ibn 'Abbas, "Lord of the ways of ascent means loftiness and abundance." * Mujahid said, "Lord of the ways of ascent means the ways of ascension into the heavens."*2 * Concerning Allah's statement, iThe angels and the Ruh Ta'ruju to Him 'Abdur-Razzaq reported from Ma'mar from Qatadah that Ta'ruju means to ascend. In reference to the Ruh, Abu Salih said, "They are creatures from the creation of Allah that resemble humans but they are not humans." It could be that here it means Jibril, and this is a way of connecting the specific to the general (other angels). It could also be referring to the name of the souls (Arwah) of the Children of Adam (humans). For verily, when they (the human souls) are taken at death, they are lifted up to the heavens just as the Hadith of Al-Bara' proves.*3

Ibn Abi Hatim recorded from Ibn ‘Abbas that he said concerning the Ayah, Jil J *y_ J} in a Day the measure whereof is fifty thousand years> “It is the Day of Judgement.” The chain of narration of this report (tb Ibn ‘Abbas) is authentic. Ath-Thawri reported from Simak bin Harb from ‘Ikrimah that he said concerning this verse, “It is the Day of Judgement.”*4 * Ad-Dahhak and Ibn [1 * At-Tabari 23 :600 ' At-Tabari 23:600. * At-Tiwal by At-Tabarani no. 238. 157 Surah 70. Sa'ala Sa'il (1-7) (Part-29) Zayd both said the same. ‘Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from Ibn ‘Abbas concerning the Ayah, iThe angels and the Ruh ascend to Him in a Day the measure whereof is fifty thousand years .> “It is the Day of Judgement that Allah has made to be the measure of fifty thousand years for the disbelievers.”m Many Hadiths have been reported with this same meaning. Imfim Ahmad recorded from Abu Umar Al-Ghudani that he said, “I was with Abu Hurayrah when a man from Bani ‘Amir bin Sa'sa'ah passed and it was said: This man is the wealthiest man of Bani ‘Amir.’ So Abu Hurayrah said, ‘Bring him back to me.’ So they brought the man back to Abu Hurayrah. Then Abu Hurayrah said, “I have been informed that you are a man of great wealth.’ The man from Bani ‘Amir replied, *¥68, by Allah. I have one hundred red-colored camels, one hundred brown-colored camels...’ and so on he counted numerous colored camels, the races of the slaves and the types of fetters for his horses that he owned. So Abu Hurayrah said, “Beware of the hooves of the camels and the cloven hooves of the cattle.’ He continued repeating that to him until the color of the man began to change. Then he will see his path, either to Paradise or to the Fire. Then he (Abu Hurayrah) mentions the rest of the Hadith about the sheep and camels just as mentioned before. In this narration (of Ahmad) the Prophet jg also added, *! Ahmad 2 :489. * Abu Dawud 2 :304, and similar with An-Nasal 12 :5.

The intent behind mentioning this here is the Prophet’s statement, «Until Allah judges between His servants on a day whose measurement isfifty thousand years. Instructing the Propheti to have Patience Then Allah says, {So be patient, with a good patience meaning, Tie patient, O Muhammad, with your people’s rejection and their seeking to hasten the torment since they think it will not occur.’ Allah says in another Ayah, Cp* ft Jjii.it Lift ofjtj V C/jfi ft {Those who believe not therein seek to hasten it, while those believe are fearful of it, and know that it is the very truth. Such shall dwell in the Gardens, twnores} Man is Impatient Allah informs about man and his inclination to corrupt his behavior. Allah says, 4Verily, than was created very impatient;} Then, Allah explains this statement by saying, 4Apprehensive when evil touches him;} meaning, whenever any harm touches him he is frightful, worried and completely taken back due to the severity of his terror and his despair that he 168 Tafsir Ibtidai Kathir Mas'ud, Mas'ud and Ibrahim An-Nakha'. 111 It has also been said that it means tranquility and humble concentration (in the prayer). This is similar to Allah's statement, (•£$»» <4 ( J»^ 4, Successful indeed are the believers. Those who with their Salah are Khashi'un> (23:1-2) This was said by Tjibah bin 'Amir. From its meanings is the same terminology used to describe standing (still) water (Al-Ma Ad-Da'im). This proves the obligation of having tranquility in the prayer. For verily, the one who does not have tranquility (stillness of posture) in his bowing and prostrating, then he is not being constant (Da'im) in his prayer. This is because he is not being still in it and he does not remain (in its positions), rather he pecks in it (quickly) like the pecking of the crow. Therefore, he is not successful in performing his prayer. It has also been said that the meaning here refers to those who perform a deed and are constant in its performance and consistent in it. This is like the Hadith that has been recorded in the Sahih on the authority of 'A'ishah that the Messenger of Allah s|| said, "3^ L)\j JLLcVl aThe most beloved deeds to Allah are those that are most consistent, even if they are few . s*2 Then Allah says. 4And those in whose wealth there is a recognized right. they make a covenant they do not break it. These are the characteristics of the believers which are opposite of the characteristics of the hypocrites. This is like what is reported in the authentic Hadith, "The signs of the hypocrites are three. When he speaks he lies, when he promises he breaks his promise, and when he is given a trust he behaves treacherously (with ifj In another narration it states. "j&i lilj ijle- jS\ s- tilj i Jj'jtS lit "When he speaks he lies, when he makes a covenant he breaks it, and when he argues he is abusive Concerning Allah's statement, 4And those who stand firm in their testimonies.} This means that they guard their testimonies. sinful.} (2:283) Then Allah says, iAnd those who are with their Salah, Yuhafizun.} meaning, they maintain its proper times, its pillars, its obligations and its recommended acts. So Allah begins this discussion (of the believers' attributes) with prayer and He concludes it with prayer. This proves the importance of it and the praise of its noble status, just as what preceded at the beginning of Surat Al-Mu'minun. It is exactly the same discussion. This is why Allah says there (in Al-Mu'minun), 111 Fath Al-Bari 1:111. 121 Fath Al-Bari 1:111.

The Rebuke of the Disbelievers and the Threat against Them Allah rebukes the disbelievers who, in the time of the Prophet saw him and the guidance Allah sent him with. They witnessed the magnificent miracles Allah aided him with. Then, after all of this they fled from him and separated themselves from him. They fled right and left, group by group and party by party. This is as Allah says, os& % pe iThen what is wrong with them that they run away from admonition? As if they were (frightened) wild donkeys. Fleeing from a beast ofprey.> (74:49-51) This is the example of disbeliever. And this Ayah is similar. As Allah says, iSo what is the matter with those disbelievers, before you Muhti'ln meaning, “what is wrong with these disbelievers who are with you, O Muhammad? Why are they Muhti'ln, meaning hastily running away from you?’ This is as Al-Hasan Al-Basri said, Muhti'ln means departing.” 4fee & iOn the right and on the left, 'Izln.} The singular of 'Izin is 'Izah, which means separating. meaning in their separating and their differing. he (Ibn 'Abbas) said, “Al-'l2m is a group among the people. On the right and on the left means they are turning away (right and left) from him (the Prophet 5g) and mocking him.” Jabir bin Samurah narrated that the Messenger of Allah came out to them while they were sitting in circles. So the Messenger of Allah said, “Why do I see you all 'Izin (in groups).^ Ahmad, Muslim, Abu Dawud, An-Nasal and Ibn Jarir all recorded this Hadith.^ Then, concerning Allah's statement. i'yt? 4*1 J*-- '. Are they hoping that they will be admitted into the Gardens of Delight? Nay, rather their abode is Hell. Then Allah affirms the occurrence of the Final Abode and the torment that will befall them that they are denying its existence and claiming it to be something farfetched. As a proof against them, Allah mentions the initiation of creation, and that repeating the process is something easier than performing it the first time. This is something that they themselves confess to. Allah says, 4Verily, We have created them out of that which they blow!} meaning, from despised semen. This is as Allah says, iDid We not create you from a despised water (semen)?} (77:20) Allah also says, At-Tabari 23:620. ,2) Ahmad 5:93, Muslim 1:322, Abu Dawud 1:561, An-Nas&l 3:4, and At-Tabari 23 :620

I swear by the Lord of the easts and the wests} meaning, the One Who created the heavens and the earth and made the east and the west. He is the One Who subjected the stars causing them to appear in the eastern parts of the sky and vanish in the western parts of it. The point of this statement is that the matter is not as the disbelievers claim: that there is no final return, no reckoning, no resurrection and no gathering. Rather all of this will occur and come to pass. There is no way of avoiding it. This is the reason that Allah has stated a negation at the beginning of this oath. This shows that He is swearing by a denial of their claim. This is a refutation of their false claim of rejecting the Day of Judgement. They already witnessed the greatness of Allah's power in what is more convincing than the Day of Judgement, that is the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the subjection of the creatures in them, the animals, the inanimate objects and the other types of creatures that exist. This is why Allah says, V cftftj eft- ft 03 Zi\ eftS} iThe creation of the heavens and the earth is indeed greater than the creation of mankind; yet, most of mankind know not.} (40:57) Allah also says, ftf~ ijl ft e>vft~ <ji ft ft ol L?y jbf} i'ft$ ft

Thus, it is recommended to recite this Surah in the prayer for rain due to this Ayah. This has been reported from the Commander of the faithful, Umar bin Al-Khattab. He ascended the Minbar to perform the prayer for rain, and he did not do more than seeking Allah's forgiveness and reciting the Ayat that mention seeking Allah's forgiveness. Allah has created the seven heavens in tiers and has made the moon a light therein, and made the sun a lamp?} meaning, He made a distinction between them (the sun and moon) in reference to their lighting. He made each one of them in a set manner with a distinct quality so that the night and day may be known. They (the night and day) are known by the rising and setting of the sun. He also determined fixed stations and positions for the moon, and He made its light vary so that sometimes it increases until it reaches a maximum, then it begins to decrease until it is completely veiled. This shows the passing of months and years. This is as Allah said, it is He Who made the sun a shining thing and the moon as a light and measured out for its stages that you might know the number of years and the reckoning. All of this is from what Nuh informed them of concerning Allah's power and His greatness in creating the heavens and the earth. It demonstrates the favor that He did for them by making both heavenly benefits and earthly benefits. For He is the Creator and the Sustainer Who made the heaven as a building and the earth as a bed, and He enlarged His provisions for His creatures. Therefore, He is the One Who it is obligatory to worship, and accept as One God. And they have said: 'You shall not leave your gods, nor shall you leave Wadd, nor Suwd', nor Yaghuth, and Ya'iiq and Nasr.}' These are the names of their idols which they used to worship besides Allah. Al-Bukh&ri recorded from Ibn 'Abbas that he said, "The idols that were among the people of NQh wound up among the Arabs afterwards. In reference to Wadd, it became the idol of the people of Kalb in the area of Dawmat Al-Jandal. Suwa' became the idol of the people of Hudhayl. Yaghuth became the idol of the people of Murad, then the people of Bani Ghutayf at Al-Juruf in the area of Saba' worshipped it after them. Ya'uq became the idol of the people of Hamdan. Nasr became the idol of the people of Himyar for the family of Dhu Kala'. These idols were all named after righteous men from the people of NQh. Then when these men died, Shaytan inspired his (NQh's) people to erect statues in honor of them at their gathering places where they used to come and sit, and to name these statues after these men (with their names). So they did this (as Shaytan suggested), but these statues were not worshipped until after those people (the ones who built them) had died and the knowledge was lost. Then, those statues were later worshipped." This has also been similarly reported from 'Ikrimah, Ad- Dahhak, Qatadah and Ibn Ishaq. 'Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from Ibn 'Abbas that he said, "These are statues that were worshipped in the time of NQh."*2 * Ibn Jarir recorded from Muhammad bin Qays that he said concerning YaghQth, Ya*Qq and Nasr, "They were righteous people between the time of Adam and NQh, and they had followers who used to adhere to their guidance. Then, when they died, their companions who Path Al-Bari 8 :535 * At-Jabari 23:640.

used to follow them said, "If we make images of them, it will increase our desire to perform worship when we remember them.' So they made images of them. Then, when those people died and other people came after them, Iblis approached them and said, They (your predecessors) used to worship these statues and they were granted rain by their worship of them.' Thus, they (the latter people) worshipped them." The Supplication of Nuh against His People and for whoever believed inHim Allah then says, 4U 4And indeed they have led many astray meaning, by the idols that they took for worship, they mislead a large number of people. For verily, the worship ofthose idols continued through- out many generations until our times today, among the Arabs, the non-Arabs and all the groups of the Children of Adam. Al- KhalU (Prophet Ibrahim) said in his supplication, s; <*r o&a Vk ojt&LM o' 4And keep me and my sons away from worshipping idols."O my Lord! They have indeed led astray many among mankind..." (14:35,36) Allah then says, 4;$&uk Sji^ jj%} 4Grant no increase to the wrongdoers save error.} This is a supplication from him (NOh) against his people due to their rebellion, disbelief and obstinacy. This is just as Musa supplicated against Fir'awn and his chiefs in his statement. 4 !a£ &- iAsji j-vjb & Tsldj J-djA JJA £j} 4Our Lord ! Destroy their wealth, and harden their hearts, so

This is a method of speaking that gives emphasis to the negation. Ad-Dahhak said, "Dayyar means one." As-Suddi said, "Dayyar is the one who stays in the home." So Allah answered his supplication and He destroyed all of those on the face of the earth who were disbelievers. He (Allah) even destroyed Nuh's (biological) son from his own loins, who separated himself from his father (Nuh). He (Nuh's son) said, i'-j J4 Y) Ort Y u ipt \%z 41 will betake myself to some mountain, it will save me from the ivater. This refers to those whom He will create after them. 41§-<M=> Yl &£

iarid they will beget none but wicked disbelievers meaning, wicked in their deeds and disbelieving in their hearts. He {Nuh} said this due to what he knew about them since he remained among them for nine hundred and fifty years. Then he said, 4My Lord! Forgive me, and my parents, and him who alters my home as a believer,> » Ad-Dahhak said, "This means, my Masjid." However, there is no harm in understanding the Ayah according to its apparent i meaning, which would be that he (Nuh) supplicated for every personwho entered his househowas a believer.Then he said, iand all the believing men and women. He supplicated for all of the believing men and women, and that includes those of them who were living and those of them who were dead. For this reason, it is recommended to supplicate like this, in following the example of NQh, and that which has been reported in the narrations and well-known, legislated supplications. Then, he said, iAnd to the wrongdoers, grant You no increase but destruction!$

As-Suddi said, “But destruction.” Mujahid said, “But loss.” This means in both this life and in the Hereafter.

It has been reported from Mujahid and "IkTimah that they said, "It (Jadd) is the magnificence of our Lord." Qatadah said, "Exalted is His magnificence. His greatness and His command." As-Suddi said, "Exalted is the command of our Lord.” It has been reported from Abu Ad-Darda’, Mujahid and Ibn Jurayj that they said, “Exalted is His remembrance (Dhikr)” The Jinns Affirmation that Allah does not have a Wife and Children Allah says, 4He has taken neither a wife nor a son.} meaning, far exalted is He above taking a mate and having children. This means that when the Jinns accepted Islam and believed in the Qur’an they professed Allah’s magnificence above having taken a spouse and a child (or a son). Then they said, t 'lli 4iil je Jji if JJj} 4And that the foolish among us used to utter against Allah that which was an enormity in falsehood.} Mujahid, ‘Ikrimah, Qatadah and As-Suddi, all said, 4thefoolish among us} “They were referring to Iblls.” 4&&} 111 At-Jabari 23:648.

Thus, Allah says, at&f»»vax&Jis iAnd verily, we thought that men and Jinn would not utter a lie against Allah.} meaning, “we did not think that humans and Jinns would join each other in lying about Allah by attributing a spouse and a son to Him. So when we heard this Qur’an we believed in it and we knew that they (Jinns and men) had been lying about Allah in this matter.’ Among the Causes of the Transgression of the Jinns were thatHumans sought Refuge withThem Allah says. oj^ oj£> O' o? $j} iAnd verily, there were men among mankind who took shelter with the males among the Jinn, but they increased them in Rahaq.} meaning, Sve used to think that we had some virtuous status over mankind because they used to seek refuge with us whenever they (men) would settle in a valley or any place in the wilderness, the open country steppes and other places.’ This was the custom of the Arabs in the pre-Islamic days of ignorance. They used to seek refuge with the greatest Jinn of a particular place so that no harm or evil would afflict them.

197Surah 72. Al-linn (1-7) (Part-29) Like one would do if he entered into the land of his enemies, in the vicinity of a great and powerful mem, he would seek the protection and guardianship of that man. So when the Jinns saw that the humans were seeking refuge with them due to their fear of them, they increased them in Rahaq which means fear, terror and fright. They did this so that the people would be more afraid of them and seek refuge with them even more. As Qatadah said concerning this Ayah, 'j ibut they increased them in Rahaq.$ “meaning, in sin, and that the Jinns become more bold and daring against them. Ath-Thawri said from Mansdr, from Ibrahim, concerning the Ayah ibut they increased them in Rahaq.} means, “the Jinns were courageous and increased in insolence against them.” As-Suddi said, “A man used to set out with his family (on a journey) until he came to a piece of land where he would settle. Then he would say, 1 seek refuge with the master {Jinn) of this valley from the Jinns, or that myself, my wealth, my child or my animals are harmed in it.’ ” Qatadah said, “When they sought refuge with them instead of Allah, the Jinns would overcome them with harm because of that.” Ibn Abi Hatim recorded from ‘Ikrimah that he said, “The Jinns used to fear humans just like humans fear them, or even worse. So whenever humans would come to a valley the Jinns would flee. So the leader of the people would say, We seek refuge with the leader of the inhabitants of this valley.’ So the Jinns said, We see these people fleeing from us just like we flee from them.’ Thus, the Jinns started coming near the humans and afflicting them with insanity and madness.” Thus, Allah said, (Ujib$ 0 iAnd verily, there

'And we know not whether evil is intended for those on the earth, or whether their Lord intends for them guidance.'} The Jinns stealing information from the sky before the Messenger was sent and striking them with flaming fire after His coming Allah informs about the Jinns when He sent His Messenger Muhammad and revealed the Qur'an to him. Among the ways He protected it (the Qur'an) was by filling sky with stern guards guarding it from all of its sides. The devils were then expelled from the places where they used to sit prior to that. This was so that they could not steal anything from the Qur'an and tell it to the soothsayers, thereby causing matters to be confused and mixed up. If this happened it would not be 199 Surah 72. Al-I'tim (8-10) (Part-29) known who was being truthful. Allah did this out of His kindness to His creation, His mercy upon His servants and His protection of His Mighty Book (the Qur'an). This is why the Jinns said, J&'&ZZK c# &Z2 Cj i3> 4^62 ife %4 '& iAnd we have sought to reach the heaven ; but found it filled with stern guards and flaming fires. And verily, we used to sit there in stations, to (steal) a hearing, but any who listens now will find a flaming fire watching him in ambush meaning, whoever would like to steal some information by listening, he will find a flaming fire waiting in ambush for him. It will not pass him or miss him, but it will wipe him out and destroy him completely. pFJ (r j!3 ^ j 44 tsjx V £1)^ iAnd we know not whether evil is intended for those on earth, or whether their Lord intends for them guidance meaning, "we do not know if this - the matter which has occurred in the sky - is intended for those who sire in the earth or if their Lord intends some guidance for them.' They stated this in such a manner out of their etiquette in phrasing their speech, because they did not attribute the doing of evil to anyone and they attributed the good to Allah. Verily, it has been recorded in the Sahih, •Jjdi - "And evil is not attributed to You (Allah) .n' 1 ' It used to be that shooting stars (meteors) occurred before this, however it did not happen much, rather only occasionally. As was reported in the Hadith of Ibn 'Abbas when he said, "While we were sitting with the Messenger of Allah 5&> a shooting star flashed in the sky. So the Prophet% said, «?!JU ofijjb 'pZf '-*8 111 Muslim 1 :535.

The Prophet and said, nUiJJ >S ^ \i\ 2.1 'JSj .ill& "This is not so, rather whenever Allah decrees a matter in the heaven..." and then he went on to narrate the rest of the Hadith) 1] which we have already mentioned in its entirety in Surah Saba'. 121 This is what caused them to seek the reason for this occurrence. So they set out searching in the east and the west. Then they found the Messenger of Allah reciting (the Qur'an) while leading his Companions in prayer. Thus, they knew that this Qur'an was the reason for the sky being guarded. Therefore, some among them believed in it and the others became more rebellious in their transgression. A discussion of this has preceded in a Hadith of Ibn 'Abbas concerning Allah's statement in Surat Al-Ahqaf, OjIjLj jjJi £ \Ju iAnd (remetnber) when We sent towards you (Muhammad) a group of the Jinn (quietly) listening to the Qur'an (46:29) There is no doubt that when so many shooting stars began appearing in the sky, it horrified humans and Jinns alike. They were very disturbed and alarmed by it. They thought that it was the destruction of the world. As-Suddi said, "The sky was never guarded except if there was a Prophet in the earth or the religion of Allah was victorious and dominant in the earth." So the devils before the time of Muhammad jg had taken sitting stations for themselves in the heaven of this world and they would listen to the matters that occurred in the heaven. Muslim 4 :1750. 121 See volume eight, the Tafsir of Surah Saba' (34 :22-23). The actual narration was removed from the abridged edition, but the discussion remains , along with a similar narration recorded by Al- Bukhari and others *31 Path Al-B&ri 8 :537 . See the explanation of (46 :29) in volume nine 201Surah 72. Al-Iinn (11-17) (Part-29) But when Allah sent Muhammad jg as a Prophet and Messenger, they were suddenly pelted one night (with the flaming, shooting stars). So the people of Ta'if were frightened because of this and they began to say, 'The dwellers of the sky have been destroyed.' This was because they saw the severe fires in the sky and the shooting flames. They began freeing their servants and abandoning their luxuries. So 'Abd Yalayl bin 'Amr bin TJmayr said to them - and he was referred to for judgement among them - "Woe to you O people of Ta'if! Hold on to your wealth and look at these guiding stars in the sky. If you see them remaining in their place, then the dwellers of the sky have not been destroyed, rather this has happened because of Ibn Abi Kabshah (- meaning Muhammad jg). And if you look and see that you can no longer see these stars, then verily the dwellers of the sky have been destroyed." So, they looked and saw that the stars still remained, and thus, they kept their wealth. The devils also were frightened during that night. They went to Iblls and informed him of what happened to them. So he (Iblls) said, "Bring me a handful of dirt from every land so that I may smell it." So they brought it and he smelled it and said, "It is your friend in Makkah." Then he sent a group of seven Jinns to Makkah, and they found the Prophet of Allah standing in prayer in Al-Masjid Al-Haram while reciting the Qur'an. They drew near to him eager to hear the Qur'an, until their chests almost pressed against him. Then they accepted Islam and Allah revealed their matter to His Messenger sg. It was also the view preferred by Ibn Jarir.12 ' This view seems to be the most apparent meaning of the Ayah due to Allah's statement which follows it, ^ i^a j) iSay : "I invoke only my Lord, and I associate none as partners along with Him."} meaning, when they harmed him, opposed him, denied him and stood against him in order to thwart the truth he came with, and to unite against him, the Messenger jg said to them ijftS ~fy} il invoke only my Lord,} meaning, 1 only worship my Lord alone, and He has no partners. In this noble Ayah is an evidence that the Hadith that many of the ignorant people often circulate, which says that the Prophet jg will not remain under the earth more than one thousand years (i.e., the Hour will be before that period) is a baseless lie. We have not seen it in any of the Books (of Hadith). Verily, the Messenger of Allah 3g was asked about the time of the Hour and he would not respond. When Jibril appeared to him in the form of a bedouin Arab, one of the questions he asked the Prophet was, "O Muhammad! Tell me about the Hour?" So the Prophet replied, tjsiijj^ ££ u» *The one questioned about it knows no more than the questioner .» On another occasion when a bedouin Arab called out to the Prophet H in a loud voice saying, "O Muhammad! Cj 'll i*J? H ^j} iAnd they will never compass any thing of His knowledge except that which He wills. (2:255) Similarly, Allah says here that He knows the unseen and the seen and that no one of His creation can attain any of His knowledge except that which Allah allows him to have. Thus, Allah says, iThe All-Knower of the Unseen, and He reveals to none His Unseen. Except to a Messenger whom He has chosen, This includes the angelic Messenger and the human Messenger. Then Allah says, J > s' a ' iand then He makes a band of watching guards to march before him and behind him.} meaning, He particularly gives him additional guardian angels who protect him by the command of Allah and they accompany him with that which is with him of Allah's revelation. Thus, Allah says, iTill he knows that they have conveyed the Messages of their Lord. And He surrounds all that which is with them, and He keeps count of all things.} The pronoun 'he' which my iTill he knows} refers to the Prophet jg. Ibn Jarir recorded from Said bin Jubayr that he said concerning the Ayah, & & vA>' .Y. • / *" iThe All-Knower of the Unseen, and He reveals to none His Unseen. And He surrounds all that which is with them, and He keeps count of all things.yW This was recorded by Ibn Abi Hatim. It has also been reported by Ad-Dahhak, As-Suddi and Yazid bin Abi Habib. 'Abdur-Razzaq reported from Ma'mar, from Qatadah, 4|*frj C-lll-J -»» J iTill he knows that they have conveyed the Messages of their Lord.) "So that the Prophet of Allah would know that the Messengers had conveyed their Messages from Allah and that the angels have protected them and defended them."121 This has also been reported by Said bin Abi 'Arubah from Qatadah, and Ibn Jarir preferred this interpretation.13' Al- Baghawi said, "Ya'qCb recited it as. (in order to be known) this means, so that the people may know that the Messengers had conveyed the Message."4 It also could carry the meaning that the pronoun refers to Allah (i.e., So that He (Allah) may know). This opinion has been mentioned by Ibn Al-Jawzi in Zdd Al-Masir. The meaning of this is that He protects His Messengers through His angels so that they will be able to convey His Messages. He protects what He reveals to them of revelation so that He will know that they have indeed conveyed the Messages of their Lord. 111 At-Tabari 23:673. ,2 ' 'Abdur-Razzaq 3:323. 13 ' At-Tabari 23 :673. '4 ' Al-Baghawi 4:406.

This is like His statement, <lf <j*i&& c~^' <&*!' I'-i.iL 4Am2 We made the Qiblah which you used to face, only that We know who followed the Messenger from those who would turn on their heels.) (2:143) Allah also said, iVerily, Allah knows those who believe, and that He knows the hypocrites.) (29:11) It should be added to these examples that from Allah's knowledge is that He knows all things before they occur, and this is something definite and certain. Therefore, He says after this, iAnd He surrounds all that which is with them, and He keeps count of all things.)

This is how the Prophet jg used to recite. 'A'ishah said, “He (the Prophet) used to recite the chapter slowly, so much so that it would be longer than chapters that were actually longer than it.” 111 In Sahih Al-Bukhari, it is recorded from Anas that he was asked about the recitation of the Messenger of Allah jg, so he replied, “He used to elongate the letters.” Then he (Anas) recited, in the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.} (1:1) and he elongated “In the Name of Allah,” in the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. All praise is Allah's, the Lord of all that exists. The Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. The Only Owner of the Day of Recompense.) (1:1-4) This was recorded by Ahmad, Abu Dawud and At-Tirmidhi. We have already mentioned the Hadiths which prove the recommendation of slow rhythmic recitation and beautification of the voice while reciting at the beginning of this Tafsir. For example, the Hadith which states, يا أيها الذين آمنوا زينوا القرآن بأصواتكم and the Hadith, “هو ليس منكم من لا يحسن تلاوة القرآن” and the Hadith, “يُجْلَى لِي جَوْشَنُ كَرِيمٌ”⁵¹ Verily, he has been given this windpipe from the windpipes of the family of Dawud.[^] Referring to Abu Musa. Abu Mitsa replied, “If I knew that you had been listening to my recitation, I would have truly beautified it for you.” It has been narrated from Ibn Mas‘ud that he said, “Do not scatter the (recitation of) Qur’an out like the scattering of sand, and do not rush through it like the hasty recitation of poetry. Stop at its amazing parts and make your heart move with it. None of you should let his concern be to reach the end of the chapter.” This has been recorded by Al-Baghawi.^{*51} Al-Bukhari recorded from Abi Wa’il that he said, “A man came to Ibn Mas‘ud and said, ‘I read the Mufassal chapters (from Qaf to An-Nas) last night in one unit of prayer.’ Ibn Mas‘ud said. This is rushing like the haste of reciting poetry. Verily, I know  Ahmad 6:302, Abu Dawud 4:294, and Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi 8 :241 ,> Fath Al-Bari 13:527. 131 Fath Al-Bari 13:510. the pairs (of chapters) that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to combine between them (in prayer).’ Then he mentioned twenty chapters from the Mufassal chapters, and said that the Prophet ﷺ used to recite two in each prayer unit.” The Magnificence of the Qur’an Allah then said, وإنا نزلناه في ليلة القدر. > Al-Hasan and Qatadah both said, “The actions with it.” It has also been said that it means it will be heavy at the time of its revelation due to its magnificence. This is similar to what Zayd bin Thabit said. He said, “The Messenger of Allah ﷺ received some revelation while his thigh was on top of my thigh, and my thigh was almost crushed due to it.”^{*21} Imam Ahmad recorded from ‘Abdullah bin ‘Amr that he said, “I asked the Prophet ‘O Messenger of Allah! Do you feel anything when revelation comes (to you)?’ The Messenger of Allah ﷺ replied. «I hear a ringing and then I remain quiet when that occurs. There has not been a single time that revelation has come to me except that I thought that my soul was about to be taken (death)»”¹³¹ Ahmad was alone in narrating this. In the beginning of Sahih Al-Bukhari, it is recorded from ‘A’ishah that Al-Harith bin Hisham asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, “How does the revelation come to you?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, ¹¹¹ Fath Al-Bari 2 :298 Fath Al-Bari 8:108. Zayd was sitting with the Prophet ﷺ writing down the revelation as the Prophet ﷺ was dictating it to him. See Al-Bukhari no. 4592. Ahmad 2 :222 . There are some deficiencies in its chain of narration Some scholars consider it authentic «يُعْطِي سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ جَلِيلًا كَمَا يُعْطِي» Sometimes it comes to me like the ringing of a bell, and it is most severe upon me. Then this state passes away from me after I have grasped what is inspired. Sometimes the angel comes to me in the form of a man and talks to me and I grasp whatever he says» ‘A’ishah added, “Verily, I saw him receiving revelation and I noticed the sweat dropping from his forehead on a very cold day as the revelation ended.” This is the wording recorded by Al-Bukhari. ’ Imam Ahmad recorded from ‘A’ishah that she said, “If the Messenger of Allah received any revelation while he was on his riding animal, it would begin moving its Jircin intensely.”*2 * The Jircin is the bottom of the neck. Ibn Jarir chose the interpretation that it (the revelation) is heavy in both ways simultaneously. This is as ‘Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam said, “Just as it is heavy in this world, it will also be heavy on the Day of Judgement in the Scales.” The Virtue of standing at Night for Prayer Allah says, fy’j ^ Jt$ &£ Vfr iVerily, rising (Ndshi’ah) at night is better for understanding and more suitable for speech (recitation).} ‘Umar, Ibn ‘Abbas and Ibn Zubayr, all said, “The entire night is Ndshi’ah.”^ Mujahid and others said the same.*4 ’ It is said “Nasha’a” when a person stands at night to pray. In one narration from Mujahid he said, “(It is) after ‘Isha’ (prayer).” *5’ This was also said by Abu Mijlaz, Qatadah, Salim, Abu Hazim and Muhammad bin Al-Munkadir.’6 The point is that Ndshi’ah of the night refers to its hours and its times, every 111 FathAl-Bari 1:25. ’ Ahmad 6:118. ’ At-Tabari 23:683. ’ At-Tabari 23 :682 ’ At-Tabari 23:682. ’ At-Tabari 23:683.

Thus, Allah says, 4% {> j-J 4is better for understanding and more suitable for speech (recitation).} meaning, more comprehensive for the matter of performing the recitation and better for understanding it than in the recitation of the day. This is because the daytime is the time for people to disperse and move about, to raise voices and be lively. Al-Hafiz Abu Yala Al-Mawsili said, “Ibrahim bin Said Al- Jawhari told us that Abu Usamah told us that Al-A’mash informed us that Anas bin Malik recited this Ayah as: (^J iij jdiJ LiU Sj) (Verily, rising at night is better for understanding and more correct for the speech. It may be that your Lord will raise you to Maqam Mahmud.^ (17:79) In fact, this is as true as what he (‘Abdur-Rahman) said, The proof for this view is what Imam Ahmad recorded in his Musnad, that Said bin Hisham divorced his wife and then traveled to Al-Madlnah in order to sell some property he had with her. He intended to use its money to buy an animal and a weapon and then go for Jihad against the Romans until he died. In the process of this he met a group of his people and they informed him that a group of six men from his people had intended that in the time of the Messenger of Allah upon which he said, AMabari 23:686. See the explanation in volume six

«Is there not for you all an excellent example in me?» So he forbade them from that and made them testify that they would take their wives back. Then he (Said) returned to us and informed us that he went to Ibn ‘Abbas and asked him about the Witr (prayer). Ibn ‘Abbas said, “Shall I not inform you of the person who is the most knowledgeable person on the earth about the Witr prayer of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ?” He said, “Yes.” Ibn ‘Abbas then said, “Go to ‘A’ishah and ask her, then return to me and inform me of what she tells you.” He said, “Then I went to Hakim bin Aflah and requested him to go with me to her. But he said, *I do not want to be near her. Verily, I forbade her from saying anything concerning these two parties (the parties of ‘Ali and Mu’awiyah), but she refused and continued being involved with them (in their conflict).’ So I adjured him by Allah, so he came with me and we entered upon her (in her house).” So she said, “Is this the Hakim that I know?” He (Hakim) said, “Yes.” Then she said, “Who is this that is with you?” He said, “Said bin Hisham.” She said, “Who is Hisham?” He said, “He is Ibn ‘Amir.” She then asked Allah to have mercy upon him (‘Amir). Then she said, “Yes, ‘Amir was a true man.” Then I (Said) said, “O Mother of the believers! Inform me about the character of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ.” She replied, “Have you not read the Qur’an?” I said, “Of course.” Then she said, “Verily, the character of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was the Qur’an.” I was about to stand and leave, but then I remembered to ask about the night prayer of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. I said, “O Mother of the believers! Inform me about the night prayer of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ.” She said, “Have you not read the Surah, 40 which is wrapped up.” I said, “Of course.” She then said, “Verily, Allah made standing at night (for prayer) obligatory at the beginning of this Surah, So the Messenger of Allah and his Companions stood for an entire year during the night (in prayer) until their feet swelled. Allah held back the revelation of the end of this Surah for twelve months. Then, Allah revealed the lightening of this burden at the end of this Surah. Then, the standing for night prayer became voluntary after it used to be obligatory.”

I was about to leave when I remembered to ask her about the Witr prayer of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. So I said, “O Mother of the believers! Inform me about the Witr prayer of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ.” She said, “We used to prepare his Siwak (toothstick) for him and his ablution water, and Allah would awaken him whenever He wished to awaken him during the night. Then, he would clean his teeth with the Siwak and perform ablution. Then, he would pray eight (Rak'ahs) units of prayer and he would not sit during them except at the end of the eighth one. At this point he would sit and remember his Lord the Most High, and supplicate to Him. Afterwards he would stand without saying the greeting of peace (Taslim). He would then pray a ninth unit of prayer and then sit. He would remember Allah Alone and then supplicate to Him (during this sitting). Then, he would say the greetings of peace (to conclude the prayer) making it audible to us. Then, he would pray two more units of prayer after this salutation of peace, while he would be sitting. So these are eleven units of prayer, O my son. Then, when he became older and heavier, he would perform Witr prayer with seven units of prayer, and then he would pray two extra units of prayer after them while sitting after the salutation of peace. So these are nine units of prayer, O my son. Whenever the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to pray a particular prayer, he liked to remain consistent in its performance. If he would ever be preoccupied from performing the night prayer by oversleeping, pain or illness, he would pray twelve units of supererogatory prayer during the day. I do not know of Allah's Prophet ever reciting the entire Qur'an in one night before morning nor did he fast an entire month other than the month of Ramadan." So I went to Ibn 'Abbas and told him what she had said. Ibn 'Abbas then said, "She has spoken truthfully and if I had went to her house I would have remained until she spoke directly to me and I could see her lips moving."¹¹ This is how Imam Ahmad recorded this narration in its entirety. Muslim also recorded similarly in his Sahib.¹² Ibn Jarir recorded from Abu 'Abdur-Rahman that he said, 111 Ahmad 6:53. 121 Muslim 1:512.

It could imply the meaning, 'how can you all attain piety if you disbelieve in the Day of Judgement and reject it.' Both of these meanings are good. An example of this is going on expeditions to fight in the way of Allah. This Ayah, rather, this entire Surah was revealed in Makkah even though fighting was not legislated until after it was revealed. Then Allah revealed, 40 you wrapped up! Arise and warn! And magnify your Lord. And purify your garments. And keep away from Ar-Rujz!} After this, the revelation started coming strongly and frequently in successionJ They both (Al-Bukhari and Muslim) recorded this Hadlth by way of Az-Zuhri.¹²¹ At-Tabarani recorded from Ibn ‘Abbas that he said, “Verily, Al-Walxd bin Al-Mughlah prepared some food for the Quraysh. So when they had eaten from it he said, “What do you have to say about this man?’ Some of them said, ‘Tie is a magician.’ Others said, ‘He is not a magician.’ Then some of them said, ‘He is a soothsayer.’ But others said, ‘Tie is not a soothsayer.’ Some of them said, ‘He is a poet.’ But others said, ‘He is not a poet.’ Some of them said, ‘This is magic from that of old.’ Thus, they eventually all agreed that it was magic from ancient times. The person who is mentioned in this discussion is Al-Walid bin Al-Mughlrah Al-Makhzumi. He was one of the chiefs of the Quraysh - may Allah curse him. Among the narrations about this is what was reported by Al-'Awfi from Ibn 'Abbas. He (Ibn 'Abbas) said, "Al-Walid bin Al-Mughlah entered the house of Abu Bakr bin Abi Quhafah and asked him about the Qur'an. When Abu Bakr informed him about it, he left and went to the Quraysh saying, "What a great thing this is that Ibn Abi Kabshah is saying. I swear by Allah that it is not poetry, nor magic, nor the prattling of insanity. Verily, his speech is from the Words of Allah!' So when a group of the Quraysh heard this they gathered and said, *By Allah, if Al-Walid converts (to Islam) all of the Quraysh will convert.' When Abu Jahl bin Hisham heard this he said, *By Allah, I will deal with him for you.' So he went to Al-Walid's house and entered upon him. He said to Al-Walid, 'Don't you see that your people are collecting charity for you?' Al-Walid replied, "Don't I have more wealth and children than they do?' Abu Jahl answered, They are saying that you only went to Ibn Abi Quhafah's house so that you can get some of his food.' Al-Walid then said, "Is this what my tribe is saying? Nay, by Allah, I am not seeking to be close to Ibn Abi Quhafah, nor Tjmar, nor Ibn Abi Kabshah. And his speech is only inherited magic of old.' So Allah revealed to His Messenger sg, }Leave me alone with whom I created lonely.} until His statement, m He meant the Prophet jg.

You defend me against two of them and I will defend you against seventeen of them.” He said this thinking himself to be very great. For they claimed that he achieved such strength that he would stand on a skin meaning, by way of examples like this, faith becomes firm in the hearts of some people and it is shaken with others. This has a profound wisdom and it is an irrefutable proof. None knows the Soldiers of Allah except Him Allah says, 4And none can know the hosts of your Lord but He. meaning, none knows their number and their count except Allah. This is so that one does not make the mistake of thinking that they are only nineteen in all. Opening 263 Surah 75. Al-Qiyamah (1-15) (Part-29) Allah said; 4Does man think that We shall not assemble his bones?} meaning, ‘on the Day of Judgement does he think that We are not able to return his bones and gather them from their various places?’ J iif 4Yes, We are able to put together in perfect order the tips of his fingers.} meaning, ‘does man think that We will not gather his bones? Surely, We will gather them and We are quite able to put together his fingertips. This means Our power is suitable to gather (and recreate) them, and if We wished We could surely resurrect him with more than what he originally had. We could make his fingers, which are the tips of his fingers, all equal (in length).’ Concerning Allah’s statement, +4& iNay! Man desires to break out ahead of himself.} Said reported from Ibn ‘Abbas that he said, “This means to proceed forward.” Mujahid said about, ito break out ahead of himself.} “This means that he wants to proceed ahead following his own whims.” ‘Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from Ibn ‘Abbas that he said, “This refers to the disbeliever who denies the Day of Reckoning.” Ibn Zayd said the same thing. Thus, Allah says after this, fk Js-4^ 4He asks: “When will be this Day of Resurrection?”} meaning, he says when will the Day of Judgement be? His question is only a question of denying its occurrence, and 111 At-Tabari 24:54. At-Jabari 24:54.

This is as Allah says, V jCS fj js ?*lczjx£> y-£L-< 4 ‘ill 4 they say: “When is this promise if you are truthful?” Say : “The appointment to you is for a Day, which you cannot put back for an Iwur nor put forward.”} (34:29-30) Here Allah says, 4So, when Bariqa the sight.} Abu ‘Amr bin Al-‘Ala’ recited this Ayah as Bariqa with a Kasrah under the letter J?d,m which means to be diminished. That which he (Abu ‘Amr) has said resembles the statement of Allah, iTheir gaze returning not towards them.} (14:43) meaning, they will be looking this way and that way in horror. Their gaze will not be able to rest upon anything due to the severity of the terror on that Day. Others recited it as Baraqa with a Fathah over the letter Ra, and its meaning is close to the first recitation (Bariqa). The intent here is that the eyes will be dazzled, humbled, diminished, and humiliated on the Day of Judgement due to the severity of the horrors and the greatness of the matters that they will witness on that Day. Concerning Allah’s statement, 4And the moon will be eclipsed.} meaning, its light will go away. 4And the sun and moon will be joined together.} Mujahid said, “They will be rolled up.”^ In explaining this Ayah, Ibn Zayd recited the following Ayat,  As is known from the recitation of Hafs. 121 At-Jabari 24:57.

them and the last of them, the small of them and the large of them. This is as Allah says, itL iJL U* iAnd they will find all that they did, placed before them, and your Lord treats no one with injustice.} (18:49) Likewise, Allah says here, }Nay! Man will be well informed about himself, though he may putforth his excuses.} meaning, he will be a witness against himself, knowing full well what he did, even though he will try to make excuses and deny it. This is as Allah says, 4®^ 4(11 will be said to him): "Read your book. You are sufficient as a reckoner against yourself this Day."} 'Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn 'Abbas said, 4Nay! 272 Surah 75. Al-Oiyamah (16-25) (Part-29) The Cause of rejecting the Day of Judgement is Love of the World and Heedlessness of the Hereafter Concerning Allah’s statement, iBut no! Rather you love the present life of this world. And neglect the Hereafter.} meaning, the only thing that has caused them to reject the Day of Judgement and oppose the true revelation and the Mighty Qur’an Allah revealed to His Messenger jg is that their only concern is the present worldly life. They are preoccupied and distracted from the Hereafter. Seeing Allah in the Hereafter Then Allah says, iSome faces that Day shall be Nadirah.} which comes from the word Nadarah, which means splendid, radiant, glowing, delighted with goodness. iLooking at their Lord.} meaning, they will see Him with their very eyes. This is just as was recorded by Al-Bukhari in his Sahih, •ft* byfz. fill 1 Verily you all will see your Lord with your own eyes.^ The believers seeing Allah in the abode of the Hereafter has been confirmed in the authentic Hadiths from numerous routes of transmission with the scholars of Hadith. It is not possible to deny this or refuse it. Examples would be the Hadiths of Abu Said and Abu Hurayrah, and they are both recorded in the Two Sahih. They both mentioned that some people said, “O Messenger of Allah! Will we see our Lord on the Day of Judgement?” The Prophet jg said. m Path Al-Bdri 13:430.

272 Tafslr Ibn Kathir ii}j J> djLi: J “Are yoM harmed by seeing the sun and the moon when there are no clouds beneath them? FathAl-Bari 13:429, and Muslim 1 :439.

273 Surah 75. Al-Oiudmah (16-25) (Part-29) 4For those who have done good is the best and extra (Ziyddah).} (10:26)m Also among the Hadiths, which Muslim was alone in recording, is the Hadith of Jabir in which the Prophet jg said, 3>i jl» « Verily, Allah will appear before the believers while He is laughing .»^{21} This will take place on the open plains of the Resurrection place. In some of these Hadiths, it mentions that the believers will be looking at their Lord on the open plains and some mention that this will occur in the Gardens of Paradise. If it were not due to fear of taking up a lot of space, we would present all of these Hadiths with their routes of transmission and wordings from those that are in the Sahih collections, the collections of good narrations, the Musnad collections and the Sunan collections. However, we have mentioned this in separate places in this Tafsir, and Allah is the Giver of success. This issue is something that the Companions, the Successors and the Salaf of this nation have agreed upon, and all praise is due to Allah. It is something that is agreed upon between the Imams of Islam and the guides of all mankind. Blackening of the Faces of the Disobedient People on the Day of Judgement Allah says, 4TO 0 4And some faces that Day will be Bdsirah. Thinking that some calamity is about to fall on them These are the faces of the sinners that will be Bdsirah on the Day of Judgement. Qatadah said, "This means gloomy. 276 Tafstr Ibn Kathir 440. Is it not so then, that He would be able to give life to the dead?) Certainty will occur at the Time ofDeath Allah informs of the condition at the time of death and what terrors it contains. May Allah make us firm at that time with the Firm Statement. Allah says, 4Nay, when it reaches to the collarbones.) If we make the word "Kalla." negative, then this Ayah means, 'O son of Adam! You are not able to deny that which I informed you of at that time (death). This will become something witnessed by you with your own eyes.' If we consider the word "Kalla." to be a word of affirmation, then this would be the most obvious meaning. In this case it would mean that it is certainly true when the soul reaches the collarbones - meaning, your soul will be pulled out of your body and it will reach your collarbones.' This is similar to Allah's statement, 4Then why do you not (intervene) when (the soul of the dying person) reaches the throat? And you at the moment are looking on, but We are nearer to him than you, but you see not, then why do you not if you are exempt from the reckoning and recompense, bring back the soul, if you are truthful?) (56:83-87) Thus, Allah similarly says here, S 0 ui it) 4Nay, when it reaches to the collarbones. And it will be said: "Who can cure him?) 'Ikrimah reported from Ibn 'Abbas that he said, "Meaning, who is the person who recites divine prayers of healing so that he may come and cure him?"* 11 Abu Qilabah made a similar statement when he said, (i| At-Tabari 24:75.

Jt I* ipueS^ iSo worship what you like besides Him.) (39:15) And like Allah's statement, 4£L C \p\)$Do what you will.) (41:40) There are other examples of this as well. Abu 'Abdur-Rahman An-Nasal recorded from Said bin Jubayr that he said, "I mentioned to Ibn 'Abbas, in dj! f Jiu iWoe to you! And then woe to you! Again, woe to you! And then woe to you!) He (Ibn 'Abbas) replied, The Messenger of Allah said this to Abu Jahl, then Allah, the Mighty and Sublime, revealed this Ayah.' "111 Ibn Abi Hatim recorded from Qatadah that he said concerning Allah's statement, iu dj! ? Jtf dj1> iWoe to you! And then woe to you! Again, woe to you! And then woe to you!) "It is a threat followed by a threat, just as you hear it. They claim that the Prophet of Allah grabbed the clothes of the enemy of Allah, Abu Jahl. The Prophet $>£3 then said to him, *Woe to you! And then (again) woe to you! Again woe to you! And then (again) woe to you!' At this the enemy of Allah, Abu Jahl, said, 'Are you threatening me, O Muhammad? By Allah! Neither you nor your Lord are able to do anything, and verily, I am the mightiest person walking between its (Makkah's) two mountains.' "21 Man will not be left neglected Allah says, An-NasST in Al-Kubrd 6 :504 ^ This is a Mursal narration, but its previous narration meaning is supported by the iDoes man think that he will be left neglected?} As-Suddi said, "Meaning not resurrected." Mujahid, Ash-Shafil and 'Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam, all said, "Meaning, he will not be commanded and prohibited." Apparently the Ayah includes both meanings. This means that he will not be left neglected in this worldly life, without being commanded and prohibited. He also will not be left neglected in his grave unattended to without being resurrected. Rather he will be commanded and prohibited in this life, and gathered back to Allah in the abode of the Hereafter. The intent here is to affirm the existence of the abode of the final return and to refute whoever rejects it from the people of deviance, ignorance and stubbornness. Thus, Allah uses the beginning of creation as a proof for the repetition of the creation in His saying, Jjr he not a Nutfah of semen emitted?} meaning, was not man a weak drop of sperm from a despised fluid known as semen, that is emitted from the loins into the wombs? AThen he became an 'Alaqah; then shaped and fashioned in due proportion .} meaning, he became a clot, then a lump of flesh, then he was formed and the soul was blown into him. Then he became a perfect creation with healthy limbs, as either a male or a female by the permission and decree of Allah. Thus, Allah says, 3i> AAnd made of him two sexes, male and female. Then Allah says, uA J# iA AIs it not so then, that He would be able to give life to the dead?} meaning, is not He Who made this perfect creation from this weak drop of sperm able to repeat that as He did originally?

282 Tafsir Ibn Kathir And "the ability to repeat that" either refers to the origination only, or to both that and the process of perfecting it, according to two different views, as in Allah's saying; /t // > "•• 'l' It \K .If f jVUJ' 'j-O y^Jr iAnd He it is Who originates the creation, then He will repeat it; this is easier for Hint.} (30:27) The first view is more popular, and Allah knows best. Supplication upon completing this Surah Abu Dawud recorded from Musa bin Abi 'A'ishah that he said, "A man used to pray on top of his house and whenever he recited, • ils it not so then, that He would be able to give life to the dead?} he would say, 'Glory to You, of course.' So the people asked him about that and he said, 'I heard it from the Messenger of Allah si.' "11 Abu Dawud was alone in transmitting this Hadlth and he did not mention who this Companion was, but there is no harm in that.

The Recitation of SuratAs-Sctfdah and Al-Insan in the Morning Prayer on Friday It has been mentioned previously that it is recorded in Sahih Muslim from Ibn ‘Abbas that the Messenger of Allah jg used to recite in the Morning prayer on Friday: iAlifLam Mtm. The revelation.. .^(32) and; iHas there not been over matt...} (76) [2 In the Name ofAllah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. ££ % jfi] 11 . Verily, We guided him to the way, whether he be grateful or ungrateful Allah created Man after He did not exist Allah informs that He brought man into existence after he was I 1 ' This Surah is also known as Surat Ad-Dahr. 121 Muslim 2 :599

284 Tafstr Ibn Kathir not even a thing worth mentioning, due to his lowliness and weakness. Allah says, iHas there not been over man a period of time, when he was not a thing worth mentioning?) Then Allah explains this by saying, iliS j iVerily, We have created manfrom Nutfah Amshaj,) meaning, mixed. The words Mashaj and Mashij mean something that is mixed together. Ibn ‘Abbas said concerning Allah’s statement, iiti #) ifrom Nutfah Amshaj,) “This means the fluid of the man and the fluid of the woman when they meet and mix.” Then man changes after this from stage to stage, condition to condition and color to color. Ikrimah, Mujahid, Al-Hasan and Ar-RabT bin Anas all made statements similar to this. They said, “Amshaj is the mixing of the man’s fluid with the woman’s fluid.”12, Concerning Allah’s statement, iin order to try him,) means, ‘We test him.’ It is similar to Allah’s statement, p] p‘£l) iThat He may test you which ofyou is best in deed.) (67:2) Then Allah says, iso, We made him hearer and seer.) meaning, We gave him the faculties of hearing and sight so that he would be able ,to use them for obedience and disobedience.’ 111 At-Tabari 24:89. At-Tabari 24:89,90.

Allah guidedHim to the Path, so Man is either Grateful or Ungrateful Allah says, 4X£jI& q} iVerily, We guided to him the way,} meaning, We explained it to him, made it clear to him and showed it to him.’ This is as Allah says, J i .f- 4And as for Thamud, I’ve guided them but they preferred blindness to guidance.} (41:17) Allah also said, 4And We guided him to the two ways.} (90:10) meaning, We explained to him the path of good and the path of evil.’ This is the statement of Ikrimah, ‘Atiyah, Ibn

Zayd and Mujahid from what is well-known from him and the majority. Allah then says, 406&% (fe ^Whether he be grateful or ungrateful.) This is his decree. Thus, with this he is either wretched or happy. This is like what has been recorded by Muslim in a Hadith from Abu Malik Al-Ash'ari. He said that the Messenger of Allah jgg said, # , I , i ^ 9 p+ p *r ^ * pi j tP *1 jl i kZJli jJo ^Ul All of mankind wakes up in the morning the merchant of his own soul. Sa'ir is the flame and fire of the Hell. This is as Allah says, 4 jL 4When iron collars will be rounded over their necks, and the chains, they shall be dragged along, in the boiling water, then they will be burned in the Fire.} (40:71,72) After mentioning the blazing Fire He has prepared for these wretched people, Allah goes on to say. 4 - fr. & ofr" at ojCA Jjn 4Verily, the Abrar (righteous believers) shall drink of a cup mixed with Kafir.} The properties of the Kafir (camphor) are well known; cooling, having a nice fragrance and in addition to this its taste will be delicious in Paradise. Al-Hasan said, "The coolness of the camphor will be in the pleasantness of ginger." Thus Allah said, 4A spring wherefrom the servants of Allah will drink, causing it to gush forth abundantly.} meaning, this (drink) that will be mixed for these righteous people will be taken from Kafur, which is a spring that Allah's close servants will drink directly from, without it being mixed with anything, and they will drink to their fill from it. The word Yashrabu (to drink) includes the meaning of Yarwa (to quench one's thirst). Allah then says, 4 (fry 4causing it to gush forth abundantly (Tajjir).} meaning, they will have control of it however and wherever they wish. They will have access to it from their castles, their homes, their sitting rooms and their residences. At-Tafjir means to cause to gush forth or flow out. This is as Allah says, >V .I,? " is ^ *4 ' *>Ss\ 4And they say: "We shall not believe in you until you cause a spring to gush forth from the earth for us.} (17:90) And Allah says, 4We caused a river to gush forth in the midst of them.} (18:33) Mujahid said, it causing it to gush forth abundantly.} "This means that they will divert it to wherever they wish." Ikrimah and Qatadah both made similar statements.121 Ath-Thawri said, "They will cause it to flow wherever they wish."*31 At-Tabari 24:94. 121 Ad-Durr Al-Manthur 8 : 369 (3 > At-Tabari 24:95.

The Deeds of these Righteous People Allah says, i(£ yr M& }They fulfill vows, and they fear a Day whose evil will be wide- spreading.} meaning, they devote to worship Allah using that which He made obligatory upon them from actions of obligatory obedience that is based on Islamic legislation. They also worship Him by fulfilling their vows. Imam Malik reported from Talhah bin ‘Abdul-Malik Al-Ayli, who reported from Al-Qasim bin Malik, from ‘A’ishah that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, *ji j«b iAuld) l jl j-k ^Whoever makes a vow to obey Allah, then he should obey Him. And whoever makes a vow to disobey Allah, then he should not disobey Him .111 Al-Bukhari also recorded this Hadith from Malik . These people also abandon those forbidden things which He (Allah) has prohibited for them, due to their fear of having an evil reckoning on the Day of Return. This is the Day when the evil will spread outamong all people except for those uponwhom Allah has had mercy. Ibn ‘Abbas said, “Spreading.”Qatadah said, “By Allah! The evil ofthat Day will spread until it fills the heavens and the earth.”131 Concerning Allah’s statement, 4•.!>- iAnd they givefood, inspite of their lovefor it,}* It has been said that this means the love of Allah, the Most High. In their view the pronoun refers to Allah. However, the most apparent meaning is that the pronoun refers to the food. This would mean, they give food while they themselves love it and desire it. This was stated by Mujahid and Muqatil, and it was the preferred opinion of Ibn Jarir. 141 This is similar to Muwatta’2 :476. 121 Fath Al-Bari 1 1 :589 ,3) At-Tabari 24:96. 141 At-Tabari 24:96.

Thus, Allah says, iAnd they givefood, inspite of their lovefor it, to the poor, the orphan and the captive,} Concerning the poor person and the orphan, an explanation of them and their characteristics has already preceded.*3 * In reference to the captive, Said bin Jubayr, Al-Hasan and Ad-Dahhak all said, “He is the captive among the people of the Qiblah (i.e., the Muslims).”*4 Ibn ‘Abbas said, “At that time (when this Ayah was revealed) their (the Muslims’) captives were idolaters.”*5 * Proof for this is that on the day of Badr the Messenger of Allah ﷺ commanded his Companions to treat the captives respectfully. They (the Companions) would give them preference over themselves when eating their meals. ‘Ikrimah said, “They (captives) are the slaves.”*6 * Ibn Jarir preferred this See volume two, the Tafsirof Surah At ‘Imran (3 :92). opinion since the Ayah generally refers to both the Muslim and the idolaters. ' Said bin Jubayr, ‘Ata’, Al-Hasan and Qatadah all made similar statements. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ advised treating servants well in more than one Hadith. This held such importance with him that the last statement of advice that he gave (before dying) was his saying, «77ie prayer (As-Saldh) and what your right hand possesses (slaves). «'2' Mujahid said, “He (the captive) is the prisoner.”13 ' This means that these (righteous) people give food to others even though they themselves desire it and love it, saying at the same time, *4j*f fLL 4Wefeed you seeking Allah's Face only$ meaning, hoping for the reward of Allah and His pleasure. %&&% 4We wish for no reward, nor thanksfrom you.$ meaning, “we do not seek any reward from you in return for it. We also are not seeking for you to thank us in front of the people.’* Mujahid and Said bin Jubayr both said, “By Allah! They do not say this with their tongues, but rather, Allah knows it in their hearts and He commends them for it. Every seeker should seek after this.”*4'

'Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from Ibn At-Tabari 24:98. * An-Nasal in Al-Kubra 4 :258 At-Jabari 24:98. ' At-Jabari 24:98.

291Surah 76. Al-Insan (4-12) (Part-29) 'Abbas, "'Abus means difficult and Qamtarir means long.'"! 'Ikrimah and others said from Ibn Abbas, 4a Day that is 'Abus and Qamtarir (hard and distressful, that will make the faces look horrible from extreme dislike to it.)) "The disbeliever will frown on that day until sweat will flow between his eyes like tar."12 ' Mujahid said, "Abus 'Abis means (frowning with) the two lips and Qamtarir means drawing up the face in a scowl." Said bin Jubayr and Qatadah said, "Faces will be made to frown due to dismay. Qamtarir is the contraction of the forehead and what is between the two eyes due to dismay." Ibn Zayd said, " 'Abus is the evil and Qamtarir is the severity." Some Details concerning the Reward of the Righteous in Paradise and what it contains of Delights Allah says, 4So, Allah saved them from the evil of that Day, and gave them Nadrah (a light of beauty) and joy.} This is used as a way of eloquence in stating similarity (i.e., two similar things). vii'i 'f. iai foj} 4So, Allah saved them from the evil of that Day,} meaning, He protects them from that which they fear of it. 4and gave them Nadrah (a light of beauty)} meaning, in their faces. 4And joy} in their hearts. Al-Hasan Al-Basri, Qatadah, Abu 'Aliyah and Ar-RabT bin Anas all stated this.13 * This is similar to Allah's statement, At-Tabari 24:100. 121 At-Tabari 24 :99 At-Tabari 24:101.

294 Tafslr Ibn Kathir favors that they will be given. Allah says, £q c*0} iReclining therein on raised couches.} This has already been discussed in Surat As-Saffat and the difference of opinion about the meaning of reclining. Is it lying down, reclining on the elbows, sitting down cross-legged, or being firmly seated? We have also mentioned that the Al-Ara'ik are couches beneath curtained canopies. Concerning Allah's statement, ithey will see there neither the excessive heat, nor the excessive bitter cold.} meaning, there will be no disturbing heat with them, nor any painful cold, rather there will only be one climate that will be always and eternal and they will not want it to be changed. The Shade and Fruit Clusters will be near iAnd the shade thereof is close upon them.} meaning, the branches will be close to them. sm;} }And the bunches of fruit thereof will hang low within their reach.} meaning, whenever he attempts to get any fruit, it will come nearer to him and come down from its highest branch as if it hears and obeys. This is as Allah says in another Ayah, iAnd fruits of the two gardens will be near at hand.} (55:54) Allah also says, iThe fruits in bunches whereof will be low and near at hand.} (69:23) Mujahid said, iAnd the bunches offruit thereof will hang low within their reach.} “If he stands it will rise with him an equal amount, if he sits it will lower itself for him so that he can reach it and if he lies down it will lower itself for him more so that he can reach it. So this is Allah’s statement, iwill hang low within their reach}.’ Qatadah said, “No thorn or distance will repel their hands away from it (the fruit).”² Vessels of Silver and DrinkingCups Allah says, j-*? Jt M'S iAnd among them will be passed round vessels of silver and cups of crystal} meaning, servants will go around them with containers of food made of silver and cups of drink. These are drinking vessels that do not have handles or spouts. Then Allah says, 4A? ^ Ws i(Qaiuarir) Crystal-clear, made of silver.} Ibn ‘Abbas, Mujahid, Al-Hasan Al-Basri and others have all said, “It (Qatuarir) is the whiteness of silver in the transparency of glass.”¹³¹ Qawarir is only made of glass. So these cups are made of silver, but due to their fine thinness, what is inside of them will be visible from outside of them (as

4They will determine the measure thereof.} meaning, according to the amount that will quench their thirst. It will not be more than that nor less than it, rather it will be prepared in an amount that is suitable for quenching the thirst of their drinkers. This is the meaning of the statement of Ibn ‘Abbas, Mujahid, Said bin Jubayr, Abu Salih, Qatadah, Ibn Abza, ‘Abdullah bin TJBayd bin OJmayr, Ash-Sha*bi and Ibn Zayd. This was stated by Ibn Jarir and others * This is the most excellent provision, distinction and honor. The Ginger Drink and the Drink of Salsabil Allah says, dr }And they will be given to drink there of a cup mixed with ZanjabTl (ginger),} meaning, they - the righteous - will also be given a drink from these cups. id?} ia cup} meaning, a drink of wine. imixed with Zanjabd (ginger),} So on one occasion they will be given a drink that is mixed with camphor, and it is cool. Then on another occasion they will be given a drink mixed with ginger, and it is hot. This is so that their affair will be balanced. However, those who are nearest to Allah, they will drink from all of it however they wish, as Qatadah and others have said. 121 The statement of Allah has already preceded which says, id\ ift ± td} iA spring wherefrom the servants of Allah will drink.} (76:6) And here Allah says, I 1 At-Jabari 24:106, 107, and Al-Qurtubi 19:141. Ikrimah said, “It (Salsabil) is the name of a spring in Paradise.” Mujahid said, “It is called this due to its continuous flowing and the severity of its current.” The Boys and Servants Allah says, 'r& \ A& 4And round about them will (serve) boys of everlasting youth. changing from, they will not increase in age. Those who have described them as wearing earrings in their ears have only interpreted the meaning in such a way because a child is befitting of this description and not an adult man. Concerning Allah's statement, Arif (•r'jj iffyou see them, you would think them scattered pearls.) meaning, when you see them dispersing to fulfill the needs of their masters, their great number, their beautiful faces, handsome colors, fine clothing and ornaments, you would think that they were scattered pearls. There is no better quality than this, nor is there anything nicer to look at than scattered pearls in a beautiful place. Allah says, And when you look meaning, "when you see it, O m At-Tabari 24 :108

You will see a delight, and a great dominion meaning, there will be a great kingdom that belongs to Allah and a dazzling, splendid dominion. It has been confirmed in the Sahth. that Allah will say to the last of the people of the Fire to be taken out of it, and the last of the people to enter into Paradise, Verily, you will have similar to the world and ten worlds like it (in addition to If this is what He will give to the least of those who will be in Paradise, then what do you think about the one who will have a higher status and will be favored even more by Allah? The Garments and Ornaments Allah says, Their garments will be of fine green silk, and Istabraq. meaning, among the garments of the people of Paradise is silk and Sundus, which is a high quality silk. These garments will be shirts and similar clothing from the undergarments. Concerning Istabraq (velvet), from it there is that which has a glitter and shimmer to it, and it is that which is worn as outer clothes, just as is well-known in clothing. & >$ 4They will be adorned with bracelets of silver This is a description of the righteous. In reference to those who will be near to Allah, then their description is as Allah m Muslim 1 :173.

says, Wherein they will be adorned with bracelets of gold and pearls and their garments therein will be of silk. (22:23) After Allah mentions the outward beautification with silk and ornaments, He then says, And We will give them a purifying drink. meaning, it will purify their insides of envy, despise, hatred, harm and the other reprehensible character traits. This is just as we have recorded from the Commander of the believers, 'Ali bin Abi Talib, that he said, "When the people of Paradise come to the Gate of Paradise, they will find two springs there. Then it will be as if they were inspired with what to do, so they will drink from one of them and Allah will remove whatever harmfulness there may be within them. Then they will bathe in the other spring and a glow of delight will run all over them. Thus, Allah informs of their outward condition and their inner beauty." 1 11 Allah then says, Verily, this is a reward for you, and your endeavor has been accepted. meaning, this will be said to them in honor of them and as a goodness towards them. This is as Allah says, Eat and drink at ease for that which you have sent forth before you in days past! (69:24) Allah also says. And it will be cried out to them : "This is the Paradise which you have inherited for what you used to do." (7:43) Then Allah says. 111 Al-Qurtubi 19:47.

Opening The Tafsir of Surat Al-Mursalat (Chapter - 77)

Which was revealed in Makkah

[Tafsir Ibn Kathir (Abridged), Darussalam English Edition, PDF pp. 6251–6266]

The Revelation of this Surat and its Recitation in the Maghrib Prayer Al-Bukhari recorded from ‘Abdullah - that is Ibn Mas‘ud - that he said, “While we were with the Messenger of Allah[^] in a cave at Mina, $By the Mursalat.} was revealed to him. He was reciting it and I was learning it from his mouth. Verily, his mouth was moist with it when a snake leaped out at us. The Prophet said, I Kill it/» So we quickly went after it, but it got away. il5. Woe that Day to the deniers (of the Day of Resurrection)!} Allah's swearing by Different Creatures about the Occurrence ofthe Hereafter Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Abu Hurayrah said, 4By the Mursaldt 'Urfa.} “The angels.” From Masruq, Abu Ad- Duha, Mujahid in one narrations from him, As-Suddi and Ar- RabT bin Anas, statements similar to this have been reported. It has been reported from Abu Salih that he said, “These are the Messenger.” In another narration from him (Abu Salih) he said that it means the angels. Abu Salih has also said the meaning of Al-'Asifat, An-Nashirat, Al-Fariqat and Al-Mulqiyat, that they all refer to the angels. Ath-Thawri narrated from Salamah bin Kuhayl, who reported from Muslim Al-Batin, who reported from Abu Al-TJbaydayn that he asked Ibn Mas'ud about the meaning of Al-Mursalat 'Urfa, and he (Ibn Mas'ud) said, "The wind." He said the same about Al-'Asifat 'Asfa and An-Nashirat Nashra, that they all refer to the wind.¹¹¹ Ibn 'Abbas, Mujahid and Qatadah all said the same.¹²¹ Ibn Jarir confidently affirmed that Al-'Asifat 'Asfa means the wind just as Ibn Mas'ud and those who followed him said. However, he (Ibn Jarir) did not affirm whether An-Nashirat Nashra are the angels or the wind as has preceded. It has been reported from Abu Salih that An-Nashirat Nashra is the rain. The most obvious meaning is as Allah says, }And we send the winds fertilizing.} (15:22) He also says, 1 U \ •> *j>t iAnd it is He Wlw sends the winds as heralds of glad tidings, going before His mercy (rain).} (7:57) At-Tabari 24:124, 125. ¹²¹ At-Tabari 24:123-126.

Similarly, Al-'Asifat are winds. It is said (in Arabic) that the winds 'Asifat when they make noise with their blowing. Likewise, An-Nashirat are the winds that scatter into clouds in the horizons of the sky according to the will of the Lord. Allah then says, ¥& *4^ iThe Fariqat that separate, the Mulqiydt that remind, excusing or warning. ^ meaning, the angels. This was said by Ibn Mas'ud, Ibn 'Abbas, Masruq, Mujahid, Qatadah, Ar-Rabi' bin Anas, As-Suddi and Ath-Thawri.¹¹¹ There is no difference of opinion here, because they (the angels) are the ones who descend with Allah's command to the Messengers, separating between the truth and falsehood, guidance and misguidance, and the lawful and the forbidden. They bring the revelation to the Messengers, which contains exemption or absolvment for the creatures and a warning for them of Allah's torment if they oppose His command. Allah said, iSurely, what you are promised will occur. This is the subject of these oaths. This means, what you all have been promised concerning the establishment of the Hour (Judgement Day), the blowing of the horn, the resurrection of the bodies, the gathering of those of old and those of latter times on one common ground and the rewarding of eveiy doer of a deed based upon his deed. If he did good, then his reward will be good, and if he did evil, then his reward will be evil. All of this will occur, meaning it will come to pass and there is no avoiding it. The driving ofthe Criminals to their FinalAbode in Hell and how it will be done Allah informs about the disbelievers who deny the final abode, the recompense. Paradise, and the Hellfire. On the Day of Judgement it will be said to them: iDepart you to that which you used to deny! Depart you to a shadow in three columns,} meaning, a flame of fire when it rises and ascends with smoke. So due to its severity and strength, it will have three columns. iNeither shady nor of any use against the fierce flame of the Fire.} meaning, shade of the smoke that comes from the flame - which itself will not have a shade, nor will it benefit against the flame. This means it will not protect them from the heat of the flame. Allah said, iVerily, it throws sparks as Al-Qasr,} meaning, its sparks will shoot out from its flame like huge castles. Ibn Mas*ud said, "Like forts."111 Ibn 'Abbas, Mujahid, Qatadah and Malik who reported from Zayd bin Aslam and others said, "This means the trunk of trees.",2, 4As if they were Sufr camels.} means, black camels. This is the view of Mujahid, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, and Ad-Dahhak, and Ibn Jarir favored this view. Ibn 'Abbas Mujahid, and Said bin Jubayr said about, iSufr camels.} "Meaning ropes of ships." 111 At-Tabari 24:163. AMabari 24:138.

iVerily, it (Hell) throws sparks as Al-Qasr.} Imam Al-Bukhari recorded from Ibn 'Abbas that he said: "We were directed to the timber a length of three cubits or more in order to use it for construction of buildings. We used to call it Al-Qasr. 4As if they were Sufr camels. These (Jimalaf) are ropes of ships that are bundled until they resemble the intestines of men." it iV\oe that Day to the deniers!} The Inability ofthe Criminals to speak, make Excuses, or step forward on the Day ofJudgement Then Allah says, iThat will be a Day when they shall not speak,^ meaning, they will not speak. Rather, the proof will be established against them, and they will be called upon to speak about the wrong that they did, but they will not be able to say anything. The courts of the Day of Judgement will occur in stages. Sometimes the Lord informs of this stage and sometimes He informs of that stage. This is to show the terrors and calamities of that Day. Thus, after all the details of this discussion, He says: it' m FathAl-Bdri8:556.

Khalid bin Ma'dan said, "This Ayah, and the Ayah, i$ its £ iexcept your Lord wills.} (11:107) both refer to the people of Tawhid.'^ Ibn Jarir recorded this statement. Ibn Jarir also recorded from Salim that he heard Al-Hasan being asked about Allah's statement, 4cpiid 'q hJ} iThey will abide therein Ahqab} "In reference to Ahqab, it has no specific amount of time other than its general meaning of eternity in the Hellfire. So they met these proofs with rejection and obstinance. His statement, iKidhdhaba} it means rejection, and it is considered a verbal noun that does not come from a verb. Allah said; iAnd all things We have recorded in a Book meaning, ‘surely We know the deeds of all of the creatures, and We have written these deeds for them. We will reward them based upon this.’ If their deeds were good then their reward will be good, and if their deeds were evil their reward will be evil. Allah then says, iSo taste you. No increase shall We give you, except in torment. This means that it will be said to the people of the Hellfire, “Taste that which you were in. We will never increase you in anything except torment according to its type (of sin), and something else similar to it.” Qatadah. reported from Abu Ayyub Al-Azdi, who reported from ‘Abdullah bin ‘Amr that he said, “Allah did not reveal any Ayah against the people of the Hellfire worse than this Ayah, iSo taste you. This will be when he sees the torment of Allah and he looks at his wicked deeds that will be written down against him by the noble righteous scribes among angels. It has been said that he will only wish for that when Allah passes judgement between all of the animals that were in the worldly life. He will rectify matters between them with His just wisdom that does not wrong anyone. Even the hornless sheep will be allowed to avenge itself against the sheep with horns. Then, when the judgement between them is finished, He (Allah) will say to them (the animals), “Be dust.” So they will all become dust. Upon witnessing this the disbeliever will say, iWould that I were dust!} meaning, 1 wish I was an animal so that I would be returned to dust.’ Something of similar meaning to this has been reported in the well-known Hadith about the Siir. There are also narrations recorded from Abu Hurayrah, ‘Abdullah bin ‘Amr, and others concerning this.

Swearing by Five Characteristics that the Day of Judgement will occur Ibn Mas'ud, Ibn 'Abbas, Mas'ud, Said bin Jubayr, Abu Salih, Abu Ad-Duha and As-Suddi all said, 4fiy those who pull out, drowning. “These are the angels who remove the souls from the Children of Adam.”¹¹¹ Among them are those whose souls are removed by the angels with difficulty, as if he is being drowned during its removal. There are those people whose souls the angels remove with ease, as if they were unraveling him (i.e., his soul from him) due to their briskness. This is the meaning of Allah's statement, 4By those who free briskly. This has been mentioned by Ibn 'Abbas. ' In reference to Allah's statement, 4And by the swimmers, swimming.) Ibn Mas'ud said, “They are the angels.”¹³ Similar statements have been reported from 'Ali, Mujahid, Said bin Jubayr, and Abu Salih.⁴ ' Concerning Allah's statement, 4And by the racers, racing.) It has been narrated from 'Ali, Mas'ud, Mujahid, Abu Salih, and Al-Hasan Al-Basri that this means the angels.⁵ ' Then Allah says, 4:>:0 4And by those who arrange affairs.) and what They will say Then Allah says, iOn the Day the Rajifah shakes, followed by the Radifah.} Ibn 'Abbas said, “These are the two blasts (of the Trumpet) - the first and the second.”*² * Mujahid, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, Ad- Dahhak and others have made similar statements.*³ * It has been reported from Mujahid that he said, “In reference to the first, it is the statement of Allah, On the Day the earth and the mountains shake.” This is similar to Allah’s statement, On the Day the earth and the mountains shake. (73:14) The second is Ar-Radifah, and it is like the Allah’s statement, And the earth and mountains shall be removed from their places, and crushed with a single crushing. (69: 14)”⁴ Concerning Allah’s statement, Hearts that Day will tremble. Ibn ‘Abbas said, “This means in At-Tabari 24:190, Al-Qurtubi 19:194, and Ad-Durr Al-Manthur 8:403-405.. ’ At-Tabari 24:191. ’ At-Tabari 24 :19 1 , 192 ’ At-Tabari 24:192.

afraid.” Mujahid and Qatadah also said this.² Their vision humiliated. meaning, the eyes of the people. It means that the eyes will be lowly and disgraced from what they will witness of terrors. Allah then says, They say : "Shall we indeed be brought back from Al-Hafirah?" meaning, the idolators of the Quraysh and whoever rejects the Hereafter as they did. They consider the occurrence of the resurrection after being placed in Al-Hafirah - which are the graves - as something farfetched. This has been said by Mujahid.³¹ They feel that this is something impossible after the destruction of their physical bodies and the disintegration of their bones and their decaying. Thus, Allah says, Even after we are bones Nakhirah? It has also been recited: (Nakhirah) Ibn ‘Abbas, Mujahid and Qatadah, all said, “This means decayed.”⁴¹ Ibn ‘Abbas said, “It is the bone when it has decayed and air enters into it.” Concerning their saying, It would in that case be a return with loss. (79:12) Muhammad bin Ka*b said that the Quraysh said, “If Allah brings us back to life after we die, then surely we will be losers.”¹⁵¹ Allah then says, At-Tabari 24:193. 121 At-Tabari 24 :193 , Al-Baghawi 4 :443 131 At-Tabari 24:195. |4> At-Tabari 24:195. |5) Al-Qurtubi 19:198.

³⁴³Surah 79. An-Nadzi'at (1-14) (Part-30) ⁴But it will be only a single Zajrah. When behold, they are at As-Sahirah .} meaning, this is a matter that is from Allah that will not occur twice, nor will there be any opportunity to affirm it or verify it. The people will be standing and looking. This will be when Allah commands the angel Israfil to blow into the Stir, which will be the blowing of the resurrection. At that time the first people and the last people will all be standing before their Lord looking. This is as Allah says, On the Day when He will call you, and you will answer with His praise and obedience, and you will think that you have stayed but a little while! (17:52) Allah has also said, And our commandment is but one as the twinkling of an eye. (54:50) Allah also says, And the matter of the Hour is not but as a twinkling of the eye, or even nearer. (16:77) Allah then says, When behold, they are at As-Sahirah. Ibn ‘Abbas said, “As- Sahirah means the entire earth.”¹¹¹ Said bin Jubayr, Qatadah and Abu Salih have all said this as well. Hcrimah, Al-Hasan, Ad-Dahhak, and Ibn Zayd have all said, “As-Sahirah means the face of the earth.”¹²¹ Mujahid said, “They will be at its (the earth’s) lowest part, and they will be brought out to highest part.”Then he said, “ As-Sahirah is a level place.”¹³¹ Ar-RabT bin Anas said, in At-Tabari 24:198. At-Tabari 24:198. 131 At-Tabari 24 :198 , and Ad-DurrAl-Manthur8 :408

In this is a lesson for whoever fears.) Mentioning the Story of Musa and that it is a Lesson for Those Who fear Allah informs His Messenger Muhammad about His Messenger Musa. He mentions that he sent Musa to Fir'awn and He aided him with miracles. Yet, even after this, Fir'awn continued in his disbelief and transgression until Allah seized him with a mighty and powerful punishment. Thus is the punishment of whoever opposes you (Muhammad jg) and rejects that which you have been sent with. This is why Allah says at the end of the story, 4In this is a Lesson for whoever fears.) Allah begins by saying, 4Has there come to you the story of Musa?) meaning, have you heard of his story? 4VWhen his Lord called him) meaning, He called out speaking to him. 4cr2ii fji) 4in the holy valley) meaning purified 4Tuwa) According to what is correct, it is the name of a valley.

So what happened with him was that his heart disbelieved, and Musa (i.e., his call) could not internally or externally affect it. Along with this, his knowledge that what Musa had come to him with was the truth, did not necessitate his being a believer in it. This is because recognition is the knowledge of the heart, and faith is its action. And it (faith) is to comply with the truth and submit to it. Concerning Allah's statement, it ^ 'b iAnd after that He spread the earth,} He explains this statement by the statement that follows it, iAnd brought forth therefrom its water and its pasture.} It already has been mentioned previously in Surat Ha Mim As- Sajdah111 that the earth was created before the heaven was created, but it was only spread out after the creation of the heaven. This means that He brought out what was in it with a forceful action. This is the meaning of what was said by Ibn 'Abbas and others, and it was the explanation preferred by Ibn Jarir.12 ! Allah then says, <&&&& 4As provision and benefitfor you and your cattle.} meaning, He spread out the earth, caused its springs to gush forth, brought forth its hidden benefits, caused its rivers to flow, and caused its vegetation, trees, and fruits to grow. He also made its mountains firm so that it (the earth) would be calmly settled with its dwellers, and He stabilized its dwelling places. All of this is a means of beneficial enjoyment for His creatures

Opening of Surah 'Abasa (Chapter - 80) Which was revealed in Makkah in the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. He frowned and turned away.} 42. In Records held in honor,} 54. Exalted, purified.} 55. In the hands of ambassadors (Safarah),} 56. Honorable and obedient.} The Prophet being reprimanded because He frowned at a Weak Man More than one of the scholars of Tafsir mentioned that one day the Messenger of Allah was addressing one of the great leaders of the Quraysh while hoping that he would accept Islam. While he was speaking in direct conversation with him, Ibn Umm Maktam came to him, and he was of those who had accepted Islam in its earliest days. He (Ibn Umm Maktam) then began asking the Messenger of Allah about something, urgently beseeching him. The Prophet hoped that the man would be guided, so he asked Ibn Umm Maktam to wait for a moment so he could complete his conversation. He frowned in the face of Ibn Umm Maktam and turned away from him in order to face the other man. Thus, Allah revealed, 'He frowned and turned away. Because there came to him the blind man. And how can you know that he might become pure?' meaning, he may attain purification and cleanliness in his soul. Or he might receive admonition, and the admonition might profit him?}

Surah 80. 'Abasa (1-16) (Part-30) meaning, he may receive admonition and abstain from the forbidden. 4-As for him who thinks himself self-sufficient. To him you attend meaning, "you face the rich person so that perhaps he may be guided." What does it matter to you if he will not become pure? meaning, "you are not responsible for him if he does not attain purification." But as for him who came to you running. And is afraid. meaning, he is seeking you and he comes to you so that he may be guided by what you say to him.' Of him you are neglectful and divert your attention to another. meaning, 'you are too busy.' Here Allah commands His Messenger to not single anyone out with the warning. Rather, he should equal warn the noble and the weak, the poor and the rich, the master and the slave, the men and the women, the young and the old. Then Allah will guide whomever He chooses to a path that is straight. He has the profound wisdom and the decisive proof. Abu Yala and Ibn Jarir both recorded from 'A'ishah that she said about, $He frowned and turned away "This was revealed about Ibn Umm Maktum, the blind man. He came to the Messenger of Allah 2g and began saying, 'Guide me.' At the time the Messenger of Allah jg had a man with him who was one of the great leaders of the idolators. 363Surah 80. ‘Abasa (17-32) (Part-30 }But he has not done what He commanded him.} Allah is saying that man has not fulfilled for his Lord the obligations that were imposed upon him.” What seems apparent to me of its actual meaning - and Allah knows best - is that the Ayah & *1 ft iThen when it is His will, He will resurrect him.} means, He will resurrect him. iNay! He has not done it (resurrected them) as of yet, until the time period has expired and the extent of the earthly life of humanity is complete, according to the lives of all whom Allah has written it to exist from the time they are brought into existence into the world. Verily, Allah has decreed the existence of mankind, and its duration, therefore, when that is finished with Allah, He resurrects the creatures and repeats their creation just as He initially created them. The Growth of the Seed and Other Things is a Proof of Life after Peath iThen let man look at his food} This is a call to reflect upon Allah’s favor. 365Surah 80. ‘Abasa (17-32) (Part-30 Abu TJbayd Al-Qasim bin Sallam reported from Ibrahim At-Taymi that he said, “Abu Bakr As-Siddlq was asked about Allah’s statement, 4And fruits (Fakihah) and herbage (Abb.) and he said, 'What sky would shade me and what earth would carry me if I said about the Book of Allah that which I did not have knowledge of.' "[1] In reference to what Ibn Jarir recorded from Anas, that he said, "Umar bin Al-Khattab recited 4Hefrowned and turned away.) then when he reached this Ayah 4And fruits (Fakihah) and herbage (Abb.) he said, 'We already know what Al-Fakihah is, but what is Al-Abb?' Then he said, "By your life, O Ibn Al-Khattab, this is something overburden- some (i.e., unnecessary to ask about).' "2) This report has an authentic chain of narration. More than one person has narrated it from Anas. The meaning of the narration is that 'Umar wanted to know how it looks, its type and its exact description, because he ('Umar) and everyone who reads this Ayah knows that it is one of the plants that grows from the earth. This is clear due to the Allah's saying, 4And We cause therein the Habb to grow. And grapes and Qadb, and olives and date palms. And Ghulb Hada'iq. And fruits (Fakihah) and herbage (Abb.) From it comes the folding of the turban (7mamah) and the folding of clothes together. Thus, the meaning of Allah’s statement, <45$> 4Kuwwirat} is that part of it will be folded up into another part of it. Then it will be rolled up and thrown away. When this is done to it, its light will go away. Al-Bukhari recorded from Abu Hurayrah that the Prophet jg said, * l > At-Tabari 24 :237 ' At-Tabari 24:238. ' At-Tabari 24:238.

Al-Maw'udah is the female infant that the people of the pre-Islamic time of ignorance would bury in the dirt due to their hatred of girls. Therefore, on the Day of Judgement, the female infant will be asked what sin she committed that caused her to be murdered. This will be a means of frightening her murderer. For verily, if the one who was wronged is questioned, what does the wrongdoer (the one who is guilty of the oppression) think then? ‘Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn ‘Abbas said, iAnd when the female infant (Al-Maw'udah) buried alive Su'ilat:} “This means that she will ask.” Abu Ad-Duha made a similar statement when he said, “She will ask, meaning she will demand restitution for her blood.”*21 The same has been reported from As-Suddi and Qatadah. Hadiths have been reported concerning the Maw'udah. Imam Ahmad recorded from ‘A’ishah, who reported from Judamah bint Wahb, the sister of Tjkkashah, that she said, “I was in the presence of the Messenger of Allah ^ when he was with some people, and he said, Jafi p-A ‘J-Aj fJA J> A cJLLk JVilB At-Tabari 24:245. The Explanation of the Words Al-Khunnas and Al- Kurinas Muslim recorded in his Sahuhi, and An-Nasal in his Book of Tafsir, in explaining this Ayah, from 'Amr bin Hurayth that he said, "I prayed the Morning prayer behind the Prophet sfe, and I heard him reciting, 4But nay! I swear by Al-Khunnas, Al-Jawar Al-Kunnas, and by the night when it 'As'as, and by the day when it Tanaffas .4^ Ibn Jarir recorded from Khalid bin 'Ar'arah that he heard 'Ali being asked about the Ayah; pf i) (Nay! I swear by Al-Khunnas, Al-Jawdr Al-Kunnas.) and he said, "These are the stars that withdraw (disappear) during the day and sweep across the sky (appear) at night."*21 Concerning Allah's statement, * l * Muslim 1 : 336, and An-Nasal in Al-Kubra 6 :507 At-Tabari 24:251.

<sj$} iAnd by the night when it 'As'as.} There are two opinions about this statement. One of them is that this refers to its advancing with its darkness. Mujahid said, "It means its darkening." Said bin Jubayr said, “When it begins.” Al-Hasan Al-Basri said, “When it covers the people.”¹¹¹ This was also said by ‘Atiyah Al- ‘Awfi¹²¹ ‘Ali bin Abi Talhah and Al-‘Awfi both reported from Ibn ‘Abbas: {fy} iwlten it 'As'as} “This means when it goes away.”¹³¹ Mujahid, Qatadah and Ad-Dahhak, all said the same.¹⁴¹ Zayd bin Aslam and his son ‘Abdur-Rahman also made a similar statement, when they said, iivhen it 'As'as} “This means when it leaves, and thus it turns away.”¹⁵¹ I believe that the intent in Allah’s saying, iwhen it ‘As'as} is when it approaches, even though it is correct to use this word for departing also. However, approachment is a more suitable usage here. It is as if Allah is swearing by the night and its darkness when it approaches, and by the morning and its light when it shines from the east. This is as Allah says, iBy the night as it envelops. By the day as it appears in brightness} (92: 1-2) and He also says, At-Jabari 24:256. At-Tabari 24:256. At-Tabari 24:255. At-Tabari 24:256. At-Tabari 24:256.

iBy the forenoon. By the night when it darkens. (93:1-2) Allah also says, iCleave of the daybreak. He has appointed night for resting.> (6:96) And there are other similar Ayat that mention this. Many of the scholars of the fundamentals of language have said that the word ‘As'as is used to mean advancing and retreating, with both meanings sharing the same word. Therefore, it is correct that the intent could be both of them, and Allah knows best. Concerning Allah’s statement, iAtid by the day when it Tanaffas.} Ad-Dahhak said, “When it rises.” Qatadah said, “When it brightens and advances.”¹¹¹ Jibril descended with the Qur’an and it is not the result of insanity Concerning Allah’s statement, 4Verily, this is the Word of a most honorable messenger.} meaning, indeed this Qur’an is being conveyed by a noble messenger, which is referring to an honorable angel, who has good character and a radiant appearance, and he is Jibril. It seems apparent - and Allah knows best - that this Surah (At-Takwir) was revealed before the Night Journey (Al-Isra), because nothing has been mentioned in it except this sighting (of Jibril), and it is the first sighting. The second sighting has been mentioned in Allah's statement, لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ يُصَوِّرُ مَا يَشَاءُ. And indeed he saw him (Jibril) at a second descent. Near Sidrah Al-Muntaha. meaning Muhammad ﷺ is not following false conjecture about what Allah revealed. Others have recited this Ayah with the ‘Dad’ in the word Danin, which means that he is not stingy, but rather he conveys it to everyone. Sufyan bin ‘Uyaynah said, “Zanin and Danin both have the same meaning. They mean that he is not a liar, nor is he a wicked, sinful person. The Zanin is one who follows false supposition, and the Danin is one who is stingy.”¹¹¹ Qatadah said, “The Qur’an was unseen and Allah revealed it to Muhammad ﷺ, and he did not withhold it from the people. Rather he announced it, conveyed it, and offered it to everyone who wanted it.” 'Ikrimah, Ibn Zayd and others have made similar statements. Ibn Jarir preferred the recitation Danin. [3] I say that both of recitations have been confirmed by numerous routes of transmission, and its meaning is correct either way, as we have mentioned earlier. And it is not the word of the outcast Shaytan.} meaning, this Qur’an is not the statement of an outcast Shaytan. This means that he is not able to produce it, nor is it befitting of him to do so. This is as Allah says, وَمَا يَنصُرُهُم فِيهِ إِلَّا اللَّهُ. And it is not the Shaydn who have brought it down. Neither would it suit them nor they can. They consider it as if the Most Generous is asking them so that they will say, “His honor deceived him (or made him careless of his Lord).” rather the meaning of this Ayah is, “O Son of Adam! Do they not think that they will be resurrected,} 45. On a Great Day?} 46. The Day when (all) mankind will stand before the Lord of all that exists?} Increasing and decreasing in the Measure and Weight will be a Cause for Regret and Loss An-Nasal and Ibn Majah both recorded from Ibn ‘Abbas that he said, “When the Prophet came to Al-Madinah, the people of Al-Madinah were the most terrible people in giving measurement (i.e., they used to cheat). Thus, Allah revealed, 4Woe to Al-Mutaffifin .} After this, they began to give good measure.”¹¹¹ The meaning of the word Taffif here is to be stingy An-Nasat in Al-Kubra 6 :508 , and Ibn Majah 2 :748 398 Tafsir Ibn Kathir with measurement and weight, either by increasing it if it is due from the others, or decreasing it if it is a debt. Thus, Allah explains that the Mutaffifin - those whom He has promised loss and destruction, whom are meant by “Woe” - are ij*$m 4 iThose who, when they have to receive by measure from men,} meaning, from among the people. 4demand full measure,} meaning, they take their right by demanding full measure and extra as well. 4And when they have to give by measure or weight to (other) men, give less than due.} meaning, they decrease. Verily, Allah commanded that the measure and weight should be given in full. 399 Surah 83. Al-Mutaffifin (1-6) (Part-30) Threatening the Mutaffifin with standing before the Lord of all that exists Then Allah says as a threat to them. 4Do they not think that they will be resurrected, on a Great Day?) meaning, do these people not fear the resurrection and standing before He Who knows the hidden matters and the innermost secrets, on a Day that contains great horror and tremendous fright? Whoever loses on this Day will be made to enter into a blazing fire. Then Allah says, 4The Day when (all) mankind will stand before the Lord of all that exists?) meaning, they will stand barefooted, naked and uncircumcised at a station that will be difficult, hard, and distressful for the criminals. They will be covered by the command from Allah, and it will be that, which the strength and the senses will not be able to bare. Imam Malik reported from Nafi* who reported from Ibn Umar that the Prophet jg said.

This will be the Day that mankind will stand before the Lord of all that exists, until one of them will sink up to the middle of his ears in sweat. Al-Bukhari recorded this Hadith from Malik and ‘Abdullah bin ‘Awn, both of whom reported it from Nafi*.111 Muslim also recorded it from two routes . Another Hadith: Imam Ahmad recorded from Al-Miqdad, who was Ibn Al-Aswad Al-Kindi, that he heard the Messenger of Allah[^] saying, Path Al-Bari8 :565 Muslim 4:2195, 2196.

Then the sun will bum them, and they will be submersed in sweat based upon the amount of their deeds. From among them there will be those whose sweat will come up to their two heels. From among them there will be those whose sweat will come up to their two knees. From among them there will be those whose sweat will come up to their groins. From among them there will be those who will be bridled in sweat (up to their necks). This Hadith was recorded by Muslim and At-Tirmidhi. In Sunan Abu Dawud it is recorded that the Messenger of Allah used to seek refuge with Allah from the hardship of standing on the Day of Judgement. 121 It has been reported from Ibn Mas'Qd that they will be standing for forty years with their heads raised toward the sky. No one will speak to them, and the righteous and wicked among them will all be bridled in sweat. 131 It has been reported from Ibn TJmar that they will be standing for one hundred years. Both of these statements have been recorded by Ibn Jarir . In the Sunans of Abu Dawud, An-Nasal, and Ibn Majah, it is recorded from ‘A'ishah that the Messenger of Allah jg used to begin his late night prayer by declaring Allah's greatness ten times, praising Allah ten times, glorifying Allah ten times, and seeking Allah's forgiveness ten times. The Prostration of Recitation in Surat Al-Inshiqaq It is reported from Abu Salamah that while leading them in prayer, Abu Hurayrah recited, {When the heaven is split asunder.} and he prostrated during its recitation. Then when he completed the prayer, he informed them that the Messenger of Allah prostrated during its recitation. This was recorded by Muslim and An-Nasab on the authority of Malik. 1 ' Al-Bukhari recorded from Abu Rafi' that he prayed the Night prayer with Abu Hurayrah, and he (Abu Hurayrah) recited, {When the heaven is split asunder.} then he prostrated. So Abu Rafi' said something to him about it (questioning it). Abu Hurayrah replied, "I prostrated behind Abul-Qasim (the Prophet M), and I will never cease prostrating during its recitation until I meet him." 2' In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. 3) £ tt tz% dj yt4 CH & Hi df) Z @44 %£ k ^ d 3fA @54& 4P @44£ 7$ 111 Muslim 1 :406, and An-Nasab in Al-Kubra 6 :510. The Recompense for Deeds is True Allah says, <0 man! Verily, you are returning towards your Lord with your deeds and actions, a sure rehtming,} meaning, Verily you are hastening to your Lord and working deeds.’ iand you will meet.} Then you will meet that which you did of good or evil.’ A proof for this is what Abu Dawud At-Tayalisi recorded from Jabir, that the Messenger ofAllah said, [y>] 4 c-L? There are some people who refer the pronoun back to the statement “your Lord.” Thus, they hold the Ayah to mean, “and you will meet your Lord.” This means that He will reward you for your work, and pay you for your efforts. Therefore, both of these two views are connected. Al-‘Awfi recorded from Ibn ‘Abbas that he said explaining, 40 matt! Imam Ahmad recorded from ‘A’ishah that the Messenger of Allah said, ' 1—>»J l aWhoever is interrogated during the reckoning, then he will be punished . ‘A’ishah then said, “But didn’t Allah say, 4He surely will receive an easy reckoning,}?” The Prophet jg replied, y ^ja t I \llii illi Jb At-Jabari 24 :312

So, when he went to the sorcerer, he passed by the monk and sat there with him; and on visiting the sorcerer the latter would thrash him. So, the boy complained about this to the monk. The king asked, "And what is that?" The boy said, "Gather the people in one elevated place and tie me to the trunk of a tree ; then take an arrow from my quiver and say: "In the Name ofAllah, the Lord of the boy.' If you do this, you will be able to kill me." So he did this, and 431Surah 85. Al-Buruj (1-10) (Part-30 placing an arrow in the bow, he shot it, saying, "In the Name of Allah, the Lord of the boy." The arrow hit the boy in the temple, and the boy placed his hand over the arrow wound and died. The people proclaimed, "We believe in the Lord of the boy!" Then it was said to the king, "Do you see what has happened? That which you feared has taken place. By Allah, all the people have believed (in the Lord of the boy)." So he ordered that ditches be dug at the entrances to the roads and it was done, and fires were kindled in them. Then the king said, "Whoever abandons his religion, let him go, and whoever does not, throw him into the fire." They were struggling and scuffling in the fire, until a woman and her baby whom she was breast feeding came and it was as if she was being somewhat hesitant offalling into the fire, so her baby said to her, "Be patient mother! For verily, you are following the truth!" Muslim also recorded this Hadith at the end of the SahihP^ Muhammad bin Ishaq bin Yasar related this story in his book of Sirah in another way that has some differences from that which has just been related. Then, after Ibn Ishaq explained that the people of Najran began following the religion of the boy after his murder, which was the religion of Christianity, he said, "Then (the king) DhU Nuwas came to them with his army and called them to Judaism. He gave them a choice to either accept Judaism or be killed, so they chose death. Thus, he had a ditch dug and burned (some of them) in the fire (in the ditch), while others he killed with the sword. He made an example of them (by slaughtering them) until he had killed almost twenty thousand of them. It was about Dhu Nuwas and his army that Allah revealed to His Messenger 3A c & # > Si lui % 4\ & U. iS % fc ^Cursed were the People of the Ditch. Offire fed with fuel. I 1 ' Ahmad 6:16. When they sat by it. And they witnessed what they were doing against the believers. And they had no fault except that they believed in Allah, the Almighty, Worthy of all praise! To Whom belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth! And Allah is Witness over everything (85 :4-9)" This is what Muhammad bin Ishaq said in his book of Sirah - that the one who killed the People of the Ditch was Dhu Nuwas, and his name was Zur'ah. In the time of his kingdom he was called Yusuf. He was the son of Tuban As'ad Abi Karib, who was the Tubba' who invaded Al-Madlnah and put the covering over the Ka'bah. [1 ^ He kept two rabbis with him from the Jews of Al-Madinah. After this some of the people of Yemen accepted Judaism at the hands of these two rabbis, as Ibn Ishaq mentions at length. So Dhu Nuwas killed twenty thousand people in one morning in the Ditch. Only one man among them escaped. He was known as Daws Dhu Thalaban. He escaped on a horse and they set out after him, but they were unable to catch him. He went to Caesar, the emperor of Ash-Sham. So, Caesar wrote to An-Najashi, the King of Abyssinia. So, he sent with him an army of Abyssinian Christians, who were lead by Aryat and Abrahah. They rescued Yemen from the hands of the Jews. Dhu Nuwas tried to flee but eventually fell into the sea and drowned. After this, the kingdom of Abyssinia remained under Christian power for seventy years. Then the power was divested from the Christians by Sayf bin Dhi Yazin Al-Himyari when Kisra, the king of Persia sent an army there (to Yemen). He (the king) sent with him (Sayf Al-Himyari) those people who were in the prisons, and they were close to seven hundred in number. So, he (Sayf Al-Himyari) conquered Yemen with them and returned the kingdom back to the people of Himyar (Yemenis). We will mention a portion of this - if Allah wills - when we discuss the Tafsir of die Surah: iHave you not seen how your Lord dealt with the Owners of the Elephant?^ (105:1) I 1 ' Ibn Hisham 1 : 36. *21 See volume nine, the Tafsir of SuratAd-Dukh&n (44 :37)

Opening 49. The Day when all the secrets will be examined.} 410. Then he will have no power, nor any helper.} Swearing by the Existence of Humanity surrounded by the Organized System of Allah Allah swears by the heaven and what He has placed in it of radiant stars. Thus, He says, 4By the heaven, and At-Tdriq;} Then He says, 4And what will make you to know what At-Tariq is?} Then He explains it by His saying, 4The star of Ath-Thaqib.} Qatadah and others have said, “The star has been named Tariq because it is only seen at night and it is hidden during the day.” * His view is supported by what has been mentioned in the authentic Hadith that prohibits a man to come to his family Taruq. This means that he comes to them unexpectedly at nighttimeJ2 Concerning Allah’s statement, i£&} 4Ath-Thdqib.} Ibn ‘Abbas said, “The illuminating. ”,31 ‘Ikrimah said, “It is illuminating and it bums the Shaytan.” Then Allah says. 4There is no human being but has a protector over him.} meaning, every soul has a guardian over it from Allah that protects it from the calamities. This is as Allah says, 4$ Cii -jit- £g. It » At-Tabari 24:351. 121 FathAl-Bari9:251 At-Tabari 24:352.

439Surah 86. At-Tariq (1-10) (Part-30) }For Him, there are angels in succession, before and behind him. They guard him by the command of Allah.} (13:1 1) HowMan iscreated isa ProofofAllah’s AbilitytoReturn Him toHim Allah says. iSo, let man seefrom what he is created!} This is alerting man to the weakness of his origin from which he was created. The intent of it is to guide man to accept (the reality of) the Hereafter, because whoever is able to begin the creation then he is also able to repeat it in the same way. This is as Allah says, i * >> > 2 jjEJT 4 \ Ji> 4And He it is Who originates the creation, then He will repeat it; and this is easierfor Him.} (30:27) Then Allah says, 4He is created from a water gushing forth.} meaning, the sexual fluid that comes out bursting forth from the man and the woman. Thus, the child is produced from both of them by the permission of Allah. Due to this Allah says, ^Proceedingfrom between the backbone and the ribs.} meaning, the backbone (or loins) of the man and the ribs of the woman, which is referring to her chest. Shabib bin Bishr reported from Ikrimahwho narrated from Ibn ‘Abbas that he said. ^Proceedingfrom between the backbone and the ribs.} “The backbone of the man and the ribs of the woman. It (the fluid) is yellow and fine in texture. The child will not be bom except from both of them (i.e., their sexual fluids).” 111 Ad-DurrAl-ManthOr 8 :475 .

Concerning Allah’s statement, -*“-j ii- £[] iVerily, He is Able to bring him back (to life)!} This means that He is able to return this man that is created from fluid gushed forth. In other words, He is able to repeat his creation and resurrect him to the final abode. This is clearly possible, because whoever is able to begin the creation then he surely is able to repeat it. Indeed Allah has mentioned this proof in more than one place in the Qur’an. On the Day ofJudgement, Man will have no Power or Assistance In this regard Allah says, #0 iThe Day when all the secrets will be examined.} meaning, on the Day of Judgement the secrets will be tested. This means that they will be exposed and made manifest. Opening The Tafsir of Surah Sabbih" (Chapter - 87) Which was revealed in Makkah The Virtues of Surat Al-Ala This Surah was revealed in Makkah before the migration to Al-Madinah. The proof of this is what Al-Bukhari recorded from Al-Bara' bin 'Azib, that he said, "The first people to come to us (in Al-Madinah) from the Companions of the Prophet were Mus'ab bin T'mayr and Ibn Umm Maktum, who taught us the Qur'an; then 'Ammar, Bilal and Sa'd came. Then T'mar bin Al-Khattab came with a group of twenty people, after which the Prophet ﷺ came. I have not seen the people of Al-Madinah happier with anything more than their happiness with his coming (to Al-Madinah). This was reached to such an extent that I saw the children and little ones saying, This is the Messenger of Allah who has come.' Thus, he came, but he did not come until after I had already recited (i.e., learned how to recite) ? r : "i" gs-) iGlorify the Name of your Lord, the Most High.} (87:1) as well as other Surahs similar to it." 2' It has been confirmed in the Two Sahths that the Messenger of Allah said to Mu'ddh, oWhy didn't you recite "Glorify the Name of your Lord, the Most High," ; "By the sun and its brightness," and "By the night when it envelopes."n|31 This Surah is more commonly called Surat Al-A'ld. 121 Fath Al-Bari8 :569 •3| Fath Al-Bari1 :234 , and Muslim 1 :340

Imam Ahmad recorded from An-Nu'man bin Bashir that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ recited Surat Al-Ala (chapter 87) and Surat Al-Ghashiyah (chapter 88) in the two 'Id prayers. If the 'Id prayer fell on Friday, he would recite them in both prayers { 'Id and Salat Al-Jumu'ah). ,X1 Muslim also recorded this in his Sahih, as well as Abu Dawud, At-Tirmidhi, An-Nasal and Ibn Majah. The Command to remind Allah then says, iTherefore remind in case the reminder profits.} meaning, remind where reminding is beneficial. From here we get the etiquette of spreading knowledge, that it should not be wasted upon those who are not suitable or worthy of it. The Commander of the believers, 'Ali said, "You do not tell people any statement that their intellects do not grasp except that it will be a Fitnah (trial) for some of them." He also said, "Tell people that which they know. Would you like for Allah and His Messenger to be rejected?" Instead, his life will be harmful to him, because it will be the cause of his feeling of

For indeed, this worldly life is lowly and temporal, whereas the Hereafter is noble and eternal. Thus, how can an intelligent person prefer that which is short-lived over that which is eternal. How can he give importance to that which will soon pass away from him, while ignoring the importance of the abode of eternity and infinity. He says. 4Do they not look at the camels, how they are created?} Indeed it is an amazing creation, and the way it has been fashioned is strange. For it is extremely powerful and strong, yet gentle, carrying heavy loads. It allows itself to be guided by a weak rider. It is eaten, benefit is derived from its hair, and its milk is drunk. They are reminded of this because the most common domestic animal of the Arabs was the camel. Shurayh Al-Qadi used to say, “Come out with us so that we may look at the camels and how they were created, and at the sky and how it has been raised.” Meaning, how Allah raised it in such magnificence above the ground. His camel that he rides upon, the sky that is above his head, the mountain that faces him, and the earth that is under him, all of this is proof of the power of the Creator and Maker of these things. These things should lead him to see that He is the Lord, the Most Great, the Creator, the Owner, and the Controller of everything. Therefore, He is the God other than Whom none deserves to be worshipped. The Story of Dimam bin Tha'labah These are the things Dimam swore by after questioning the Messenger of Allah jg. This can be seen in what Imam Ahmad recorded from Thabit, who reported that Anas said, “We were prohibited from asking the Messenger of Allah ^ anything. Thus, it used to amaze us when an intelligent man from the people of the desert (bedouin Arabs) would come and ask him about something while we were listening. Recitation of SuratAl-Fajrin the Prayer An-Nasal recorded a narration from Jabir that Mu'adh prayed a prayer and a man came and joined him in the prayer. Mu'adh made the prayer long, so the man went and prayed (alone) at the side of the Masjid, and then left. When Mu'adh was informed of this he said, “(He is) a hypocrite.” He (Mu'adh) then informed the Messenger of Allah of what happened. The Prophet then asked the young man (about it) and he replied, “O Messenger of Allah! I came to pray with him, but he made the prayer too long for me. So I left him and prayed at the side of the Masjid. Then I went to feed my she-camel.” The Messenger of Allah then said, 4'^^ 0^.$ ^} 'oi^ if) “Are you causing trouble Mu'adh? Verily, your Lord is Ever Watchful.} The Explanation ofAl-Fajrandwhat comes after it Concerning Al-Fajr, it is well known that it is the morning. This was said by 'Ali, Ibn 'Abbas, 'Ikrimah, Mujahid and As- Suddi.' It has been reported from Masraq and Muhammad bin Ka*b that Al-Fajr refers to the day of Sacrifice (An-Nahr) in particular, and it is the last of the ten nights.'21 The ten nights' refers to the (first) ten days of Dhul-Hijjah. This was said by Ibn 'Abbas, Ibn Zubayr, Mujahid and others among the Salaf and the latter generations.'3 ' It has been confirmed in Sahih Al-Bukhari from Ibn 'Abbas that the Prophet^ said, {jt rfct 4)1 JJ JaaJI j>UI {jA Ud “There are no days in which righteous deeds are more beloved to Allah than these daysj Af-Tabari 24 :395 , and Al-Baghawi 4 :481 [2' Al-Qurjubi 20:39. At-Tabari 24:396.

469 Surah 89. Al-Fair (1-14) (Part-30) meaning the ten days of Dhul-Hijjah. They said, “Not even fighting Jihad in the way of Allah?” He replied, iri ‘jlil Jtr- ^_>® •Not even Jihad in the way of Allah; except for a man who goes out (for Jihad) with his self and his wealth, and he does not return with any of that. Allah then says, mm > iAnd by the even and the odd.} It has been mentioned in a Hadith that Al-Watr (the odd) is the day of ‘Arafah because it falls on the ninth, and Ash-Shafi (the even) is the day of An-Nahr (sacrifice) because it falls on the tenth day.*21 This was also said by Ibn ‘Abbas, Ikrimah and Ad-Dahhak.*3 ' There are also other opinions about the explanation of these two words. Explanation of Night Concerning Allah’s statement, iAnd by the night when it departs.} Al-‘Awfi reported from Ibn ‘Abbas that he said, “When it goes away.”*4 ' ‘Abdullah bin Zubayr said, iAnd by the night when it departs.} “As some parts of it remove other parts of it.”*5 ' Mujahid, Abu Al-‘Aliyah, Qatadah, and Malik who reported it from Zayd bin Aslam and Ibn Zayd, they all said; 111 Fath Al-Bari2:530. The Hadith in question is unauthentic. At-Tabari 24 :397 , 398 ' Al-Tabari 24 :401 At-Tabari 24 :401 iAnd by the night when it departs. “When it moves along.”' Concerning Allah’s statement, p 4 iThere is indeed in them sufficient proofs for men with Hijr!} meaning, for he who possesses intellect, sound reasoning, understanding and religious discernment. The intellect has only been called Hijr because it prevents the person from doing that which is not befitting of him of actions and statement. From this we see the meaning of Hijr Al-BayP because it prevents the person performing Tawaffrom clinging the wall facing Ash-Sham. Also the term Hijr Al-Yamamah (the cage of the pigeon) is derived from this meaning (i.e. prevention). It is said, “Hajara Al-Hakim so-and-so (The judge passed a judgement preventing so-and-so),” when his judgement prevents the person from his liberty (i.e., of freely utilizing his wealth). Allah says, ft. iAnd they will say: "Hijr MahjSr."^ (25:22) All of these examples are different cases but their meanings are quite similar. The oath that is referred to here is about the times of worship and the acts of worship themselves, such as Hajj, Salah and other acts of worship that Allah’s pious, obedient, servants who fear Him and are humble before Him, seeking His Noble Face, perform in order to draw nearer to Him. Mentioning the Destruction of ‘Ad After mentioning these people, and their worship and obedience, Allah says, iSaw you not how your Lord dealt with 'Ad?} 'At-Tabari 24:401. ' The area on the northern side of the Ka'bah that is a walled-in precinct. ' Meaning, completely shunned.

472 Surah 89. Al-Fajr (1-14) (Part-30) These were people who were rebellious, disobedient, arrogant, outside of His obedience, deniers of His Messengers and rejectors of His Scriptures. Thus, Allah mentions how He destroyed them, annihilated them and made them legends to be spoken of and an exemplaiy lesson of warning. He says, 4Saw you not how your Lord dealt with ‘Ad? Iram of the pillars,} These were the first people of ‘Ad. They were the descendants of ‘Ad bin Iram bin ‘Aws bin Sam bin NUh. This was said by Ibn Ishaq.’ 11 They are those to whom Allah sent His Messenger Hdd. However, they rejected and opposed him. Therefore, Allah saved him and those who believed with him from among them, and He destroyed others with a furious, violent wind. Ji* it’lr* JtJ ‘jCj>CL.} 4Which Allah imposed on them for seven nights and eight days in succession, so that you could see men lying overthrown, as if they were hollow trunks of date palms! Do you see any remnants of them?} (69:7-8) Allah mentioned their story in the Qur’an in more than one place, so that the believers may learn a lesson from their demise. Allah then says, 4Iram of the pillars.} This is an additional explanation that adds clarification who they actually were. Concerning His saying, 4 of the pillars.} is because they used to live in trellised houses that were raised with firm pillars. They were the strongest people of their time in their physical stature, and they were the mightiest people in power. Thus, Hud reminded them of this m At-Tabari 24 :404 blessing, and he directed them to use this power in the obedience of their Lord Who had created them. He said, tfi; to: 4 -m it i And remember that He made you successors after the people of Niih and increased you amply in stature. So remember the graces from Allah so that you may be successful.^(7:69) Allah also said, it dSt !£ JJ i!. lit 4 As for 'Ad, they were arrogant in the land without right, and they said: "Who is mightier than us in strength?" See they not that Allah Who created them was mightier in strength than them.)(41:15} And Allah says here, 4 <3k£ ?& 4 The like of which were not created in the land?) meaning, there had been none created like them in their land, due to their strength, power and their great physical stature. Mujahid said, "Iram was an ancient nation who were the first people of 'Ad." Qatadah bin Di'amah and As-Suddi both said, "Verily, Iram refers to the House of the kingdom of 'Ad." This latter statement is good and strong. Concerning Allah's statement, 4 <Sk $ Jf) 4 The like of which were not created in the land?) Ibn Zayd considered the pronoun of discussion here to refer to the pillars, due to their loftiness. He said, "They built pillars among the hills, the likes of which had not been constructed in their land before." However, Qatadah and Ibn Jarir m At-Jabari 24 : 406 considered the pronoun of discussion to refer to the tribe (of 'Ad), meaning that there was no tribe that had been created like this tribe in the land - meaning during their time.' 11 And this latter view is the correct position. The saying of Ibn Zayd and those who follow his view is a weak one, because if He intended that, He would have said "The like of which were not produced in the land." But He said: iThe like of which were not created in the land.} Then Allah says, 4 tj 4$ jj i And Thamud, who hewed (Jabii) rocks in the valley?} meaning, they cut the rocks in the valley. Ibn 'Abbas said, "They carved them and they hewed them.",2) This was also said by Mujahid, Qatadah, Ad-Dahhak and Ibn Zayd.131 From this terminology it is said (in the Arabic language), "the hewing of leopard skin" when it is tom, and "The hewing of a garment" when it is opened. The word Jayb' (pocket or opening in a garment) also comes from Jdbu. Allah says, i And you hew in the mountains, houses with great skill } (26:149) A Mention of Fir'awn Allah then says, i And Fir'awn with Al-Awtdd?} Al-'Awfi reported from Ibn 'Abbas that he said, "Al-Awtdd are At-Tabari 24:406. A similar statement was made by Mujahid when he said, "He used to nail the people (up) on pegs."121 Sa'id bin Jubayr, Al-Hasan and As-Suddi all said the same thing.'3' Allah said, i Who did transgress beyond bounds in the lands. And made therein much mischief. meaning, they rebelled, were arrogant, and went about making corruption in the land, and harming the people. -by*" i So, your Lord poured on them different kinds of severe torment.} meaning, He sent down a torment upon them from the sky and caused them to be overcome by a punishment that could not be repelled from the people who were criminals. The Lord is Ever Watchful Concerning Allah's statement, 4 Verily, your Lord is Ever Watchful.} Ibn 'Abbas said, "He hears and He sees."14' This means that He watches over His creation in that which they do, and He will reward them in this life and in the Hereafter based upon what each of them strove for. He will bring all of the creation before Him and He will judge them with justice. He will requit each of them with that which he deserves, for He is far removed from injustice and tyranny. I1 ' At-Taoari 24:409. I2 ' At-Tabari 24:409. ' At-Tabari 24:409. ' At-Tabari 24:411.

But this is not the case, rather it is a trial and a test, as Allah says.

476 Tafsir Von Kathir 4Do they think that in wealth and children with which We enlarge them. We hasten unto them with good things. As Allah says, 4But no!} meaning, the matter is not as he claims, neither in this nor in that. For indeed Allah gives wealth to those whom He loves as well as those whom He does not love. Likewise, He withholds sustenance from those whom He loves and those whom He does not love. The point is that Allah should be obeyed in either circumstance. If one is wealthy, he should thank Allah for that, and if he is poor, he should exercise patience. From the Evil that the Servant does regarding Wealth Allah said, ^ J iBut you treat not the orphans with kindness and generosity!} This contains the command to honor him (the orphan). This is after they requested the best of the Sons of Adam - Muhammad jg - to intercede with Allah. This will occur only after they have requested the other great Messengers, one after another. Yet, all of them will say, "I cannot do that for you." This will continue until the beseech- ing of the men reaches Muhammad and he will say, "I will do it, I will do it." So he will go and seek to intercede with Allah as the session of Judgement will have come, and Allah will allow him to intercede for that (the Judgement).¹¹¹ This will be the first of the intercessions, and it is the praiseworthy station that has already been discussed in Surat Subhan (Al-Isra'). So Allah will come for the session of Judgement as He wills, and the angels will also come, lined up in rows upon rows before Him. This is similar to what Imam Ahmad bin Hanbal recorded from Muhammad bin Abi 'Amirah, who was one of the Companions of the Messenger of Allah jg. He said, "If a servant fell down on his face (in prostration) from the day that he was bom until the day he died as an old man, in obedience to Allah, he would scorn this act on the Day of Judgement. He would wish to be returned to this life so that he could earn more reward and compensation. Allah then says, 4So on that Day none will punish as He will punish.} meaning, there is no one more severely punished than those whom Allah punishes for disobeying Him. 4And none will bind as He will bind.} meaning, there is no one who is more severely punished and bound than those the Az- Zabaniyah punish¹² ' the disbelievers in their Lord. This is supported by the fact that Allah swears by the Mother of the Towns, which are dwellings. Then after it He swears by the dwellers therein, who is Adam, the father of mankind, and his children. Abu 'Imran Al-Jawni said, "It refers to Ibrahim and his progeny." Ibn Jarir recorded this statement131 as did Ibn Abi Hatim. Ibn Jarir preferred the view that it is general and it refers to every father and his children. This meaning is also acceptable. 141 Allah then says, j ££•3} iVerily, We have created man in Kabad.} Ibn Abi Najih and Jurayj reported from 'Ata, from Ibn 'Abbas concerning the phrase 'in Kabad', "He was created while in hardship. Ibn Zayd said, "He made its Fujur and its Taqwa inside of it." Ibn Jarir recorded from Abul-Aswad Ad-Dlli that he said, "Imran bin Husayn said to me, 'Do you think that what the people do, and what they strive for is a thing that is pre- ordained and predestined for them, or is it a thing which is only written after the Message comes to them from the Prophet 3g, when there will be an evidence against them?' I said, 'Rather it is something preordained upon them.' Then he said, Is that an injustice?' Then I became extremely frightened of him (due to what he was saying), and I said to him, There is nothing except that He (Allah) created it and possesses it in His Hand. He is not asked about what He does, while they (His creation) will be asked.' He (Imran) then said, 'May Allah guide you! 519 Surah 93. Ad-Duha (1-11) (Part-30) The Hereafter is Better Than This First Life 4 And indeed the Hereafter is better for you than the present meaning, the abode of the Hereafter is better for you than this current abode. For this reason the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to be the most abstinent of the people concerning the worldly things, and he was the greatest of them in his disregard for worldly matters. This is well known by necessity from his biography. When the Prophet ﷺ was given the choice at the end of his life between remaining in this life forever and then going to Paradise, or moving on to the company of Allah, he chose that which is with Allah over this lowly world. Imam Ahmad recorded that ‘Abdullah bin Mas‘ud said, “The Messenger of Allah ﷺ was lying down on a straw mat and it left marks on his side. Then when he woke up he began to rub his side. So I said, ‘O Messenger of Allah! Will you allow us to spread something soft over this straw mat?’ He replied, fīp cjjī t*ji i iiijjJj jtaD «/ have nothing to do with this world. The parable of me and this world is like a rider who rests in the shade of a tree, then he passes on and leaves if At-Tirmidhi and Ibn Majah both recorded this Hadith by way of Al-Mas‘udi. At-Tirmidhi said, “Hasan Sahih .’<2 ‘ The Numerous Bounties of the Hereafter are waiting for the Messenger of Allah ﷺ Then Allah says, 4 And verily, your Lord will give you so that you shall be well- pleased. meaning, in the final abode Allah will give him until He pleases him concerning his followers, and in that which He has prepared for him from His generosity. Imam Abu ‘Amr Al-Awzal recorded that Ibn ‘Abbas said, “The Messenger of Allah ﷺ was shown that which his Ummah would be blessed with after him, treasure upon treasure. So he was pleased with that. Then Allah revealed, 4 And verily, your Lord will give you so that you shall be well- pleased.’ So, Allah will give him in Paradise one million palaces, and each palace will contain whatever he wishes of wives and servants.” This was recorded by Ibn Jarir and Ibn Abi Hatim from his route of transmission. ‘ This chain of narration is authentic to Ibn ‘Abbas, and statements like this can only be said from that which is Tawqifi A Mention of some of Allah’s Favors upon the Messenger Enumerating His favors upon His Messenger, Muhammad ﷺ, Allah says; 4 jJU fi\} 4 Did He not find you an orphan and gave you a refuge?} This refers to the fact that his father died while his mother was still pregnant with him, and his mother, Aminah bint Wahb died when he was only six years old. After this he was under the guardianship of his grandfather, ‘Abdul-Muttalib, until he died when Muhammad was eight years old. Then his uncle, Abu Talib took responsibility for him and continued to protect him, assist him, elevate his status, honor him, and even restrain his people from harming him when he was forty years of age and Allah commissioned him with the prophethood. Even with this, Abu Talib continued to follow the religion of his people, worshipping idols. 111 At-Tabari 24:487. 121 Meaning information that the Prophet informed him of.

522 Surah 93. Ad-Duha (1-11) (Part-30 All of this took place by the divine decree of Allah and His decree is most excellent. Until Abu Talib died a short time before the Hijrah. After this (Abu Talib’s death) the foolish and ignorant people of the Quraysh began to attack him, so Allah chose for him to migrate away from them to the city of Al-Aws and Al-Khazraj among those who helped him (in Al-Madīnah). Allah caused his Sunnah to be spread in the most perfect and complete manner. Then, when he arrived at their city, they gave him shelter, supported him, defended him and fought before him (against the enemies of Islam) - may Allah be pleased with all of them. All of this was from Allah’s protection for him, guarding over him and caring for him. Then Allah says, And We found you unaware and guided you. } This is similar to Allah's saying, *And thus We have sent to you a Ruh from Our command, you knew not what is the Book, nor what is Faith. Thus, Allah combined for him the two positions: the one who is poor and patient, and the one who is wealthy and thankful. Opening The Tafsir of Surah Iqra (Surat Al-‘Alaq) (Chapter - 96)

Which was revealed in Makkah

This was the first of the Qur'an revealed in the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. V-ly I 4? . Read! In the Name of your Lord Who created. 42. He has created man from a clot.} 43. Read! And your Lord is the Most Generous. 44. Who has taught by the pen .} 45. He has taught man that which he knew not.} The Beginning of the Prophethood of Muhammadi and the First of the Qur'an revealed Imam Ahmad recorded that 'A'ishah said: The first thing that began happening with the Messenger of Allah jg from the revelation was dreams that he would see in his sleep that would come true. He would not see any dream except that it would come true just like the (clearness of) the daybreak in the morning. Then seclusion became beloved to him. So, he used to go to the cave of Hira' and devote himself to worship there for a number of nights, and he would bring provisions for that. Then he would return to Khadljah and replenish his provisions for a similar number of nights. This continued until the revelation suddenly came to him while he was in the cave of Hira'.

533 Surah 96. Al-'Alac (1-5) (Part-30 The angel came to him while he was in the cave and said, "Read!" The Messenger of Allah jg said, «/ replied: "I am not one who reads. Then he said, "So he (the angel) seized me and pressed me until I could no longer bear it. Then he released me and said: 'Read!' So I replied: "I am not one who reads.' So, he pressed me a second time until I could no longer bear it. Then he released me and said: 'Read!' So I replied: I am not one who reads.' So, he pressed me a third time until I could no longer bear it. Then he released me and said: iRead in the Name of your Lord who has created.} until he reached the Ayah, iThat which he knew not.}" So he returned with them (those At/dt) and with his heart trembling until he came (home) to Khadljah, and he said, «Wrap me up, wrap me up!» So they wrapped him up until his fear went away. After that Jr t)s BT MU rmm 'i.it -t MI tasn&s.

535 Surah 96. Al-'Alaq (1-5) (Part-30) settled and he would return (down from the mountain). Then, when the revelation did not come again for a long time, he set out as he had done before. So when he reached the peak of the mountain, Jibril appeared to him again and said to him the same as he had said before." This Hadlth has been recorded in the Two Sahihs by way of Az-Zuhri.*2 * We have already discussed this Hadith's chain of narration, its text and its meanings at length in the beginning of our explanation of Sahih Al-Bukhari. Therefore, whoever would like to read it, it is researched there, and all praise and blessings are due to Allah. So the first thing that was revealed of the Qur'an were these noble and blessed Ayat. They are the first mercy that Allah bestowed upon His servants and the first bounty that Allah favored them with. The Honor and Nobility of Man is in His Knowledge These Ayat inform of the beginning of man's creation from a dangling clot, and that out of Allah's generosity He taught man that which he did not know. Thus, Allah exalted him and honored him by giving him knowledge, and it is the dignity that the Father of Humanity, Adam, was distinguished with over the angels. Knowledge sometimes is in the mind, sometimes on the tongue, and sometimes in writing with the fingers. Thus, it may be intellectual, spoken and written. And while the last (written) necessitates the first two (intellectual and spoken), the reverse is not true. For this reason Allah says, Read! And your Lord is the Most Generous. Who has taught by the pen. He has taught man that which he knew not.} There is a narration that states, "Record knowledge by writing." *3 * There is also a saying which states, "Whoever acts Ahmad 6:232. * Fath Al-Bari 12:368, and Muslim 1 :139. * This "narration" is an unauthentic Hadith. See Al-Hakim 1 :106. It is also attributed to a saying of Umar with a weak chain of narration with Ibn Abi Shaybah (26418) and others.

537 Surah 96. Al-'Alaa (6-19) (Part-30 Surely, unto your Lord is the return.) meaning, "unto Allah is the final destination and return, and He will hold you accountable for your wealth, as to where you obtained it from and how did you spend it." Scolding of Abu Jahl and the Threat of seizing Him Then Allah says, Cu. ! Have you seen him who prevents. A servant when he prays?} This was revealed about Abu Jahl, may Allah curse him. He threatened the Prophet for performing Salah at the Ka'bah. Thus, Allah firstly admonished him with that which was better by saying, ji Have you seen if he is on the guidance.} meaning, 'do you think this man whom you are preventing is upon the straight path in his action, or 'A& <£Or enjoins Taqwa?' in his statements? Yet, you rebuke him and threaten him due to his prayer.' Thus, Allah says, S' % f. $} iKtows he not that Allah sees?} meaning, doesn't this person who is preventing this man who is following correct guidance know that Allah sees him and hears his words, and He will compensate him in full for what he has done? Then Allah says by way of warning and threatening, *•) j } iNay! Ifhe ceases not,} meaning, if he does not recant from his discord and obstinacy, iWc zuill scorch his forehead.} meaning, 'indeed We will make it extremely black on the Day of Judgement.' Then He says,

4A lying, sinful forehead!} meaning, the forehead of Abu Jahl is lying in its statements and sinful in its actions. 4>: $$} iThen let him call upon his council.} meaning, his people and his tribe. In other words, let him call them in order to seek help from them. 4We will call out the guards of Hell!} 'And they are the angels of torment. This is so that he may know who will win - Our group or his group?' Al-Bukhari recorded that Ibn 'Abbas said, "Abu Jahl said, "If I see Muhammad praying at the Ka'bah, I will stomp on his neck.' So this reached the Prophet sg, who said, ulfhe does, he will be seized by the angels"} 1 ' 1 This Hadith was also recorded by At-Tirmidhi and An-Nasal in their Books of Ta'sfir. 12* Likewise, it has been recorded by Ibn Jarir.*3 Ahmad, At-Tirmidhi, An-Nasal and Ibn Jarir, all recorded it from Ibn 'Abbas with the following wording: "The Messenger of Allah was praying at the Maqam (prayer station of Ibrahim) when Abu Jahl bin Hisham passed by him and said, 'O Muhammad! Haven't I prevented you from this?' He threatened the Prophet yg and thus, the Messenger of Allah yg became angry with him and reprimanded him. Then he said, 'O Muhammad! What can you threaten me with? By Allah, 1 have the most kinsmen of this valley with me in the large.' Then Allah revealed, 4Then let him call upon his council. We will call out the guards of Hell!}” I 1 * Fath Al-Bari 8 :595 * TuhfatAl-Ahwadhi9 :277 , and An-Nasal in Al-Kubra 6 :518 131 At-Tabari 12:649.

539Surah 96. Al-'Alaq (6-19) (Part-30 Ibn 'Abbas then said, “If he had called his people, the angels of torment would have seized him at that very instant.” At- Tirmidhi said, “Hasan Sahth . Ibn Jarir recorded from Abu Hurayrah that Abu Jahl said, “Does Muhammad cover his face with dust (i.e., from prostration) while he is among you all?” They (the people) replied, “Yes.” Then he said, “By Al-Lat and Al-'Uzza, if I see him praying like this, I will stomp on his neck, and I will certainly put his face in the dust.” So the Messenger of Allah jg came and he began praying, which made it possible for Abu Jahl to stomp on his neck. Then the people became surprised at him (Abu Jahl) because he began retreating on his heels and covering himself with his hands. Then it was said to him, “What’s the matter with you?” He replied, “Verily, between me and him is a ditch of fire, monsters and wings.” Then the Messenger of Allah jg said. *If he had come near me, the angels would have snatched him limb by limb .» The narrator added; “Allah revealed an Ayah, but I do not know whether it is concerning the Hadith of Abu Hurayrah or not: iNay! The angels descend with the descending of blessings and mercy, just as they descend when the Qur'an is recited, they surround the circles of Dhikr (remembrance of Allah) and they lower their wings with true respect for the student of knowledge. In reference to Ar-Ruh, it is said that here it means the angel Jibril. Therefore, the wording of the Ayah is a method of adding the name of the distinct object (in this case Jibril) separate from the general group (in this case the angels). with it (the sun) on that day .n 1 * 1 This chain of narration is good. In its text there is some oddities and in some of its wordings there are things that are objectionable. Abu Dawud mentioned a section in his Sunan that he titled, “Chapter: Clarification that the Night of Al-Qadr occurs during every Ramadan.” Then he recorded that ‘Abdullah bin Umar said, “The Messenger of Allah jg was asked about the Night of Al-Qadr while I was listening and he said, ajlij JSJ ilt occurs during every Ramadan .»”,2, The men of this chain of narration are all reliable, but Abu Dawud said that Shuhah and Sufyan both narrated it from Ishaq and they both considered it to be a statement of the Companion (Ibn ‘Umar, and thus not the statement of the Prophet s£). It has been reported that Abu Said Al-Khudri said, “The Messenger of Allah jg performed Vtikaf during the first ten nights of Ramadan and we performed Vtikaf with him. So the Prophet jg lead us in prayer until we saw the traces of mud and water on the forehead of the Messenger of Allah gjg, which confirmed his dream.” In one narration it adds that this occurred on the morning of the twenty-first night (meaning the next morning). They both (Al-Bukhari and Muslim) recorded it in the Two SahiTis. Ash-Shafi‘i said, “This Hadith is the most authentic of what has been reported.” It has also been said that it is on the twenty-third night due to a Hadith narrated from ‘Abdullah bin Unays in Sahih Muslim , It has also been said that it is on the twenty-fifth night due to what Al-Bukhari recorded from Ibn ‘Abbas that the Messenger of Allah jg said, ,j, ij. '1& ij. ja ^ “Seek it in the last ten (nights) of Ramadan. In the ninth it still remains, in the seventh it still remains, in the fifth it still remains^{V31} Many have explained this Hadith to refer to the odd nights, and this is the most apparent and most popular explanation. It has also been said that it occurs on the twenty-seventh night because of what Muslim recorded in his Sahih from Ubay bin Ka*b that the Messenger of Allah mentioned that it was on the twenty-seventh night.⁴ Imam Ahmad recorded from Zirr that he asked Ubayy bin Ka*b, “O Abu Al-Mundhir! Verily, your brother Ibn Mas*ud says whoever stands for prayer (at night) the entire year, will catch the Night of Al-Qadr.” He (Ubayy) said, “May Allah have mercy upon him. Indeed he knows that it is during the month of Ramadan and that it is the twenty-seventh night.” Then he swore by Allah. Zirr then said, “How do you know that?” (I FathAl-Bari 4:329, 318, and Muslim 2:824. * Muslim 2:827. * FathAl-Bari 4:306. Muslim 2:828.

Ubayy replied, “By a sign or an indication that he (the Prophet jg) informed us of. It rises that next day having no rays on it - meaning the sun.”¹² Muslim has also recorded it.¹² It has been said that it is the night of the twenty-ninth. Imam Ahmad bin Hanbal recorded from TJbadah bin As-Samit that he asked the Messenger of Allah jg about the Night of Decree and he replied, ji j' ^4 j' <4~ ji 4-^ «Seek it in Ramadan in the last ten nights. For verily, it is during the odd nights, the twenty-first, or the twenty-third, or the twenty-fifth, or the twenty-seventh, or the twenty-ninth, or during the last night . [31 Imam Ahmad also recorded from Abu Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allah said about the Night of Al-QacLr, ji J iUJi ill; %>Lii Uj ijijitj ji-l; j\ iZL. in «Verily , it is during the twenty-seventh or the twenty-ninth night. And verily, the angels who are on the earth during that night are more numerous than the number of pebbles.^ Ahmad was alone in recording this Hadith and there is nothing wrong with its chain of narration. At-Tirmidhi recorded from Abu Qilabah that he said, “The Night of Al-Qadr moves around (i.e., from year to year) throughout the last ten nights.” This view that At-Tirmidhi mentions from Abu Qilabah has also been recorded by Malik, Ath-Thawri, Ahmad bin Hanbal, Ishfiq bin Rahuyah, Abu Thawr, Al-Muzani, Abu Bakr bin Khuzaymah and others. It has also been related from Ash-Shafil, and Al-Qadi reported it m Ahmad 5:130. I2 ' Muslim 2 :828 Ahmad 5:318. There is a deficiency in its chain of narration, but the meanings are found with others 141 Ahmad 2:519.

from him, and this is most likely. And Allah knows best. Supplication during the Night ofDecree It is recommended to supplicate often during all times, especially during the month of Ramadan, in the last ten nights, and during the odd nights of it even more so. It is recommended that one say the following supplication a lot: “O Allah! Verily, You are the Oft-Pardoning, You love to pardon, so pardon me.” This is due to what Imam Ahmad recorded from ‘A’ishah, that she said, “O Messenger of Allah! If I find the Night of Al- Qadrwhat should I say?” He replied, iSay: "O Allah! Verily, You are the Oft-Pardoning, You love to pardon, so pardon me."#111 At-Tirmidhi, An-Nasal and Ibn Majah have all recorded this Hadith. At-Tirmidhi said, “This Hadith is Hasan Sahth.”¹²¹ Al- Hakim recorded it in his Mustadrak (with a different chain of narration) and he said that it is authentic according to the criteria of the two Shaykhs (Al-Bukhari and Muslim). ¹³¹ An- Nasal also recorded it .

(Chapter - 101) Which was revealed in Makkah In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. Al-Qari'ah is one of the names of the Day of Judgement, like Al-Haqqah, At-Tammah, As-Sakhhah, Al-Ghashiyah and other names. Then Allah intensifies concern and fright for it by saying, And what will make you know what Al-Qari'ah is?

Surah 101 . Al-Qari'ah (1-11) (Part-30) Then He explains this by saying, It is a Day whereon mankind will be like moths scattered about. meaning, in their scattering, their dividing, their coming and their going, all due to being bewildered at what is happening to them, they will be like scattered moths. This is like Allah's statement, (If they were locusts spread abroad.) (54:7) Allah said, And the mountains will be like wool, carded. meaning, they will become like carded wool that has begun to wear out (fade away) and be torn apart. Mujahid, 'Ikrimah, Said bin Jubayr, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, 'Ata' Al-Khurasani, Ad-Dahhak and As-Suddi have all said, like wool ('Ihn). "Woolen." Then Allah informs about the results received by those who performed the deeds, and the honor and disgrace they will experience based upon their deeds. He says, Then as for him whose Balance will be heavy. meaning, his good deeds are more than his bad deeds. He will live a pleasant life. meaning, in Paradise. But as for him whose Balance will be light. meaning, his bad deeds are more than his good deeds. Then Allah says, At-Jabari 24:574.

Tafsir Ibn Kathir His mother will be Hawiyah. It has been said that this means he will be falling and tumbling headfirst into the fire of Hell, and the expression 'His mother' has been used to refer to his brain (as it is the mother of his head). A statement similar to this has been reported from Ibn 'Abbas, 'Ikrimah, Abu Salih and Qatadah. Qatadah said, "He will fall into the Hellfire on his head."¹²¹ Abu Salih made a similar statement when he said, "They will fall into the Fire on their heads."¹³¹ It has also been said that it means his mother that he will return to and end up with in the Hereafter will be Hawiyah, which is one of the names of the Hellfire. Ibn Jarir said, "Al-Hawiyah is only called his mother because he will have no other abode except for it."¹⁴¹ Ibn Zayd said, "Al-Hawiyah is the Fire, and it will be his mother and his abode to which he will return, and where he will be settled." Then he recited the Ayah, Their abode will be the Fire. (3:151) ^{5!} Ibn Abi Hatim said that it has been narrated from Qatadah that he said, "It is the Fire, and it is their abode." 161 Thus, Allah says in explaining the meaning of Al-Hawiyah, b %>j} iAnd what will make you know what it is?}. This delays you until death comes to you and you visit the graves, thus becoming its inhabitants. In Sahlh Al-Bukhari, it is recorded in the Book of Ar-Riqaq (Narrations that soften the Heart) from Anas bin Malik, who reported that Ubayy bin Ka*b said, “We used to think that this was a part of the Qur’an until the Ayah was revealed which says;

Ibn Jarir recorded that Al-Husayn bin 'Ali As-Suda'i narrated to him from Al-Walid bin Al-Qasim, who reported from Yazid bin Kaysan, who reported from Abi Hazim, who reported from Abu Hurayrah that he said, "Once while Abu Bakr and 'Umar were sitting, the Prophet s& came to them and said, 'What has caused you two to sit here? How ‘Amr bin Al-‘As was aware of the Qur'an’s Miracle due to this Surah They have mentioned that ‘Amr bin Al-‘As went to visit Musaylimah Al-Kadhdhab after the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was commissioned (as a Prophet) and before ‘Amr had accepted Islam. Upon his arrival, Musaylimah said to him, “What has been revealed to your friend (Muhammad ﷺ) during this time?” ‘Amr said, “A short and concise Surah has been revealed to him.” Musaylimah then said, “What is it?” ‘Amr replied; 4By Al-‘Asr. Verily, man is in loss. Except those who believe and do righteous deeds, and recommend one another to the truth, and recommend one another to patience. So Musaylimah thought for a while. Then he said, “Indeed something similar has also been revealed to me.” ‘Amr asked him, “What is it?” He replied, “O Wabr (a small, furry mammal; hyrax), O Wabr! You are only two ears and a chest, and the rest of you is digging and burrowing.” Then he said, “What do you think, O ‘Amr?” So ‘Amr said to him, “By Allah! Verily, you know that I know you are lying.” 11 ‘I saw that Abu Bakr Al-Kharrā’ī mentioned a chain of narration for part of this story, or what was close to its meaning, in volume two of his famous book Masawī’ ul- Akhldq. The Wabr is a small animal that resembles a cat, and HI He also mentioned it in Al-Bidayah wan-Nihayah 6:320, and Al- Hafiz mentioned similar to it in Al-Isabah 3 : 225

Musayli- mah intended by the composition of these nonsensical verses to produce something which would oppose the Qur’an. Yet, it was not even convin- cing to the idol wor- shipper of that time. At-Tabarani recor- ded from ‘Abdullah bin Hisn Abi Madlnah that he said, “Whenever two men from the Companions of the Messenger of Allah used to meet, they would not part until one of them had recited Surat Al-‘Asr in its entirety to the other, and one of them had given the greetings of peace to the other.” Ash-Shafil said, “If the people were to ponder on this Surah, it would be sufficient for them.” V \ Hr T§ + s'+ K ffl HU w asai%£ 31 ^p\AjJliJjSyj3\ , x /"» ^ // / /•^ > *•' . j— Cp JrtW 1 ' Cp <j SM In the Natne ofAllah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. ly-*L c^jJI “jl j o[4 p 'j— 41. Striking them with stones of Sijjtl.) 45. And He made them like ' Asf', Ma'kul.) This is one of the favors Allah did for the Quraysh. He saved them from the People of the Elephant who had tried to tear down the KaTxah and wipe out all traces of its existence. Allah destroyed them, defeated them, thwarted their plans, made their efforts in vain and sent them back routed. They were people who were Christians, and thus, their religion was closer to the True Religion (Islam) than the idolatry of the Quraysh. However, this was a means of giving a sign and preparing the way for the coming of the Messenger of Allah 5^5. For verily, he was bom during that same year according to the most popular opinion. So the tongue of destiny was saying, “We will not help you, O people of Quraysh, because of any status you may have over the Ethiopians (Abyssinians). We are only helping you in order to defend the Ancient House (the Katah), which We will honor, magnify, and venerate by sending the unlettered Prophet, Muhammad the Finality of all Prophets.”

ASummary ofthe Story ofthe People ofthe Elephant This is the story of the people of the Elephant, in brief, and summarized. It has already been mentioned in the story of the People of the Ditch that Dhu NuWas, the last king of Himyar, a polytheist - was the one who ordered killing the People of the Ditch. They were Christians and their number was approximately twenty thousand. None of them except a man named Daws Dhu Thalaban escaped. He fled to Ash-Sham where he sought protection from Caesar, the emperor of Ash- Sham, who was also a Christian. Caesar wrote to An-Najashi, the king of Ethiopia (Abyssinia), who was closer to the home of the man. An-Najashi sent two governors with him: Ary&t and Abrahah bin As-Sabah Abu Yaksum, along with a great army. The army entered Yemen and began searching the houses and looting in search of the king of Himyar (Dhu Nuwas). Dhu Nuwas was eventually killed by drowning in the sea. Thus, the Ethiopians were free to rule Yemen, with Aryat and Abrahah as its governors. However, they continually disagreed about matters, attacked each other, fought each other and warred against each other, until one of them said to the other, “There is no need for our two armies to fight. Instead let us fight each other (in a duel) and the one who kills the other will be the ruler of Yemen.” So the other accepted the challenge and they held a duel. Behind each man was a channel of water (to keep either from fleeing). Aryat gained the upper hand and struck Abrahah with his sword, splitting his nose and mouth, and slashing his face. But ‘Atawdah, Abrahah’s guard, attacked

Aryat and killed him. Thus, Abrahah returned wounded to Yemen where he was treated for his injuries and recovered. He thus became the commander of the Abyssinian army in Yemen. Then the king of Abyssinia, An-Najashi wrote to him, blaming him for what had happened (between him and Aryat) and threatened him, saying that he swore to tread on the soil of Yemen and cut off his forelock. Therefore, Abrahah sent a messenger with gifts and precious objects to An-Najashi to appease him and flatter him, and a sack containing soil from Yemen and a piece of hair cut from his forelock. He said in his letter to the king, "Let the king walk upon this soil and thus fulfill his oath, and this is my forelock hair that I send to you." When An-Najashi received this, he was pleased with Abrahah and gave him his approval. Then Abrahah wrote to An-Najashi saying that he would build a church for him in Yemen the like of which had never been built before. Thus, he began to build a huge church in San'a', tall and beautifully crafted and decorated on all sides. The Arabs called it Al-Qullays because of its great height, and because if one looked at it, his cap would be in danger of falling off as he tilted his head back. Then Abrahah Al-Ashram decided to force the Arabs to make their pilgrimage to this magnificent church, just as they had performed pilgrimage to the Ka'bah in Makkah. He announced this in his kingdom (Yemen), but it was rejected by the Arab tribes of 'Adnan and Qahtan. The Quraysh were infuriated by it, so much so that one of them journeyed to the church and entered it one night. He then relieved himself in the church and ran away (escaping the people). When its custodians saw what he had done, they reported it to their king, Abrahah, saying; "One of the Quraysh has done this in anger over their House in whose place you have appointed this church." Upon hearing this, Abrahah swore to march to the House of Makkah (the Ka'bah and destroy it stone by stone. Muqatil bin Sulayman mentioned that a group of young men from the Quraysh entered the church and started a fire in it on an extremely windy day. So the church caught on fire and collapsed to the ground. Due to this Abrahah prepared himself and set out with a huge and powerful army so that none might prevent him from carrying out his mission. He took along a great, powerful elephant that had a huge body the like of which had never been seen before. This elephant was called Mahmfid and it was sent to Abrahah from An-Najashi, the king of Abyssinia, particularly for this expedition. It has also been said that he had eight other elephants with him; their number was also reported to be twelve, plus the large one, MahmQd - and Allah knows best. Their intention was to use this big elephant to demolish the Ka'bah. They planned to do this by fastening chains to the pillars of the Ka'bah and placing the other ends around the neck of the elephant. Then they would make the elephant pull on them in order to tear down the walls of the Ka'bah all at one time. When the Arabs heard of Abrahah's expedition, they considered it an extremely grave matter. They held it to be an obligation upon them to defend the Sacred House and repel whoever intended a plot against it. Thus, the noblest man of the people of Yemen and the greatest of their chiefs set out to face him (Abrahah). His name was Dhu Nafr. He called his people, and whoever would respond to his call among the Arabs, to go to war against Abrahah and fight in defense of the Sacred House. He called the people to stop Abrahah's plan to demolish and tear down the Ka'bah. So the people responded to him and they entered into battle with Abrahah, but he defeated them. This was due to Allah's will and His intent to honor and venerate the Ka'bah. Dhu Nafr was captured and taken along with the army of Abrahah. The army continued on its way until it came to the land of Khath'am where it was confronted by Nufayl bin Habib Al-Kath'ami along with his people, the Shahrani and Nahis tribes. They fought Abrahah but he defeated them and captured Nufayl bin Habib. Initially he wanted to kill him, but he forgave him and took him as his guide to show him the way to Al-Hijaz. When they approached the area of At-Ta'if, its people - the people of Thaqlf - went out to Abrahah. They wanted to appease him because they were fearful for their place of worship, which they called Al-Lat. Abrahah was kind to them and they sent a man named Abu Righal with him as a guide. When they reached a place known as Al-Mughammas, which is near Makkah, they settled there. Then he sent his troops on a foray to capture the camels and other grazing animals of the Makkans, which they did, including about two hundred camels belonging to 'Abdul-Muttalib. The leader of this particular expedition was a man named Al-Aswad bin Mafsud. According to what Ibn Ishaq mentioned, some of the Arabs used to satirize him (because of the part he played in this historical incident). Then Abrahah sent an emissary named Hanatah Al-Himyari to enter Makkah, commanding him to bring the head of the Quraysh to him. He also commanded him to inform him that the king will not fight the people of Makkah unless they try to prevent him from the destruction of the Ka'bah. Hanatah went to the city and he was directed to 'Abdul-Muttalib bin Hashim, to whom he relayed Abrahah's message. 'Abdul-Muttalib replied, "By Allah! We have no wish to fight him, nor are we in any position to do so. This is the Sacred House of Allah, and the house of His KhaM, Ibrahim, and if He wishes to prevent him (Abrahah) from (destroying) it, it is His House and His Sacred Place (to do so). And if He lets him approach it, by Allah, We have no means to defend it from him." So Hanatah told him, "Come with me to him (Abrahah)." And so 'Abdul-Muttalib went with him. When Abrahah saw him, he was impressed by him, because 'Abdul-Muttalib was a large and handsome man. So Abrahah descended from his seat and sat with him on a carpet on the ground. Then he asked his translator to say to him, "What do you need?" 'Abdul-Muttalib replied to the translator, "I want the king to return my camels which he has taken from me which are two hundred in number." Abrahah then told his translator to tell him, "I was impressed by you when I first saw you, but now I withdraw from you after you have spoken to me. You are asking me about two hundred camels which I have taken from you and you leave the matter of a house which is (the foundation of) your religion and the religion of your fathers, which I have come to destroy and you do not speak to me about it?" 'Abdul-Muttalib said to him, "Verily, I am the lord of the camels. As for the House, it has its Lord Who will defend it." Abrahah said, "I cannot be prevented (from destroying it)." 'Abdul-Muttalib answered, "Then do so." It is said that a number of the chiefs of the Arabs accompanied 'Abdul-Muttalib and offered Abrahah a third of the wealth of the tribe of Tihamah if he would withdraw from the House, but he refused and returned 'Abdul-Muttalib's camels to him. 'Abdul-Muttalib then returned to his people and ordered them to leave Makkah and seek shelter at the top of the mountains, fearful of the excesses which might be committed by the army against them. Then he took hold of the metal ring of the door of the Ka'bah, and along with a number of Quraysh, he called upon Allah to give them victory over Abrahah and his army. 'Abdul-Muttalib said, while hanging on 593 Surah 105. Al-Fil (1-5) (Part-30) to the ring of the Ka'bah's door, "There is no matter more important to any man right now than the defense of his livestock and property. So, O my Lord! Defend Your property. Their cross and their cunning will not be victorious over your cunning by the time morning comes." According to Ibn Ishaq, then 'Abdul-Muttalib let go of the metal ring of the door of the Ka'bah, and they left Makkah and ascended to the mountains tops. Muqatil bin Sulayman mentioned that they left one hundred animals (camels) tied near the Ka'bah hoping that some of the army would take some of them without a right to do so, and thus bring about the vengeance of Allah upon themselves. When morning came, Abrahah prepared to enter the sacred city of Makkah. He prepared the elephant named Mahmud. He mobilized his army, and they turned the elephant towards the Ka'bah. At that moment Nufayl bin Habib approached it and stood next to it, and taking it by its ear, he said, "Kneel, Mahmud! Then turn around and return directly to whence you came. For verily, you are in the Sacred City of Allah." Then he released the elephant's ear and it knelt, after which Nufayl bin Habib left and hastened to the mountains. Abrahah's men beat the elephant in an attempt to make it rise, but it refused. They beat it on its head with axes and used hooked staffs to pull it out of its resistance and make it stand, but it refused. So they turned him towards Yemen, and he rose and walked quickly. Then they turned him towards Ash-Sham and he did likewise. Then they turned him towards the east and he did the same thing. Then they turned him towards Makkah and he knelt down again. Then Allah sent against them the birds from the sea, like swallows and herons. Each bird carried three stones the size of chickpeas and lentils, one in each claw and one in its beak: Everyone who was hit by them was destroyed, though not all of them were hit. They fled in panic along the road asking about the whereabouts of Nufayl that he might point out to them the way home. Nufayl, however, was at the top of the mountain with the Quraysh and the Arabs of the Hijaz observing the wrath which Allah had caused to descend on the people of the elephant. Nufayl then began to say, "Where will they flee when the One True God is the Pursuer? For Al-

Ashram is defeated and not the victor." Ibn Ishaq reported that Nufayl said these lines of poetry at that time, "Didn't you live with continued support? We favored you all with a revolving eye in the morning (i.e., a guide along the way). If you saw, but you did not see it at the side of the rock covered mountain that which we saw. Then you will excuse me and praise my affair, and do not grieve over what is lost between us. I praised Allah when I saw the birds, and I feared that the stones might be thrown down upon us. So all the people are asking about the whereabouts of Nufayl, as if I have some debt that I owe the Abyssinians." 'Ata' bin Yasar and others have said that all of them were not struck by the torment at this hour of retribution. Rather some of them were destroyed immediately, while others were gradually broken down limb by limb while trying to escape. Abrahah was of those who was broken down limb by limb until he eventually died in the land of Khath'am. Ibn Ishaq said that they left (Makkah) being struck down and destroyed along every path and at every water spring. Abrahah's body was afflicted by the pestilence of the stones and his army carried him away with them as he was falling apart piece by piece, until they arrived back in San'a\ When they arrived there he was but like the baby chick of a bird. And he did not die until his heart fell out of his chest. So they claim. Ibn Ishaq said that when Allah sent Muhammad with the prophethood, among the things that he used to recount to the Quraysh as blessings that Allah had favored them with of His bounties, was His defending them from the attack of the Abyssinians. Due to this they (the Quraysh) were allowed to remain (safely in Makkah) for a period of time. Thus, Allah said, iHaoe you not seen how your Lord dealt with the Owners of the Elephant? Did He not make their plot go astray? And He

their situation because Allah wanted good for them if they accepted Him. Ibn Hisham said, “Al-AbabU are the groups, as the Arabs do not speak of just one (bird).” He also said, “As for As-SijjU, Yunus An-Nahwi and Abu TJbaydah have informed me that according to the Arabs, it means something hard and solid.” He then said, “Some of the commentators have mentioned that it is actually two Persian words that the Arabs have made into one word. The two words are Sanj and JiZ, Sanj meaning stones, and Jil meaning clay. The rocks are of these two types: stone and clay.” He continued saying, aAl-'Asfare the leaves of the crops that are not gathered. One of them is called ‘As/ah.” 11 ’ This is the end of what he mentioned. Hammad bin Salamah narrated from ‘Asim, who related from Zirr, who related from ‘Abdullah and Abu Salamah bin ‘Abdur- Rahman that they said, ibirds Abdbil “In groups.” Ibn ‘Abbas and Ad-Dahhak both said, “Abdbil means some of them following after others.” Al- Hasan Al-Basri and Qatadah both said, “Abdbil means many.” Mujahid said, “Abdbil means in various, successive groups.” Ibn Zayd said, “Abdbil means different, coming from here and there. bin Nawfal that he said concerning Allah’s statement, iAnd He sent against them birds, Ababil.i • “This means in divisions just as camels march in divisions (in their herds).” It is reported that Ibn ‘Abbas said, iAnd He sent against them birds, Abdbil “They had snouts like the beaks of birds and paws like the paws of dogs.”*2 * It has been reported that ‘Ikrimah said commenting on Allah’s state- ment, ibirds, Abdbil. “They were green birds that came out of the sea and they had heads like the heads of predatory animals.”*3 ’ It has been reported from Ubayd bin TJmayr that he commented: ik0 (M - ibirds, Abdbil. “They were black birds of the sea that had stones in their beaks and claws.”*4 ’ And the chains of narration (for these statements) are all authentic. It is reported from TJbayd bin TJmayr that he said, “When Allah wanted to destroy the People of the Elephant, he sent birds upon them that came from sea swallows. Each of the birds was carrying three small stones - two stones with its feet and one stone in its beak. They came until they gathered in rows over their heads. Then they gave a loud cry and threw what was in their claws and beaks. Thus, no stone fell upon the head of any man except that it came out of his behind (i.e., it went through him), and it did not fall on any part of his body except that it came out from the opposite side. Then Allah sent a severe wind that struck the stones and increased them in force. Thus, they were all destroyed.” Concerning Allah’s statement, I 1 ’ At-Tabari 24:606. * At-Tabari 24:607. iAnd He made them like ‘Asf, Ma’kul.) Said bin Jubayr said, “This means straw, which the common people call Habbur.” In a report from Said he said, “The leaves of wheat.” 1 11 He also said, “Al-'Asfis straw, and Al-MaTad refers to the fodder that is cut for animals.” Al-Hasan Al-Basri said the same thing. Ibn ‘Abbas said, uAl-‘Asf is the shell of the grain, just like the covering of wheat.”*2 * Ibn Zayd said, “Al-'Asf are the leaves of vegetation and produce. When the cattle eat it they defecate it out and it becomes dung.”*3 annihilated them and repelled them in their plan and their anger. They did not achieve any good. He made a mass destruction of them, and not one of them returned (to their land) to relate what happened except that he was wounded. This is just like what happened to their king, Abrahah. For indeed he was split open, exposing his heart when he reached his land of San'a. He informed the people of what happened to them and then he died. His son Yaqm became the king after him, and then Yaqm's brother, Masruq bin Abrahah succeeded him. Then Sayf bin Dhi Yazan Al-Himyari went to Kisra (the king of Persia) and sought his help against the Abyssinians. Therefore, Kisra dispatched some of his army with Sayf Al-Himyari to fight with him against the Abyssinians. Thus, Allah returned their kingdom to them (i.e., the Arabs of Yemen) along with all the sovereignty their fathers possessed. Then large delegations of Arabs came to him (Sayf Al-Himyari) to congratulate him for their victory.*4 We have mentioned previously in the Tafsir of Surat Al-Fath that when the Messenger of Allah[^] approached the mountain pass that would lead him to the Quraysh on the Day of Al-Hudaybiyyah, his she-camel knelt down. Then the people attempted to make her get up but she refused. So, the people said, "Al-Qaswa has become stubborn." Who has fed them against hunger, and has made them safe from fear.} This Surah has been separated from the one that preceded it in the primary Mushaf (the original copy of Tlthman). They (the Companions) wrote "In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful" on the line (i.e., the space) between these two Surahs. They did this even though this Surah is directly related to the one which precedes it, as Muhammad bin Ishaq and 'Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin 0 0ZF&Z&Kk o'

The meaning of this is that Allah destroyed them,

Aslam have both clarified. This is because the meaning of both of them is, "We have prevented the Elephant from entering Makkah and We have destroyed its people in order to gather (ilaf) the Quraysh, which means to unite them and bring them together safely in their city." It has also been said that the meaning of this {hajj} is what they would gather during their journey in the winter to Yemen and in the summer to Ash-Sham through trade and other than that. Then they would return to their city in safety during their journeys due to the respect that the people had for them because they were the residents of Allah's sanctuary. Therefore, whoever knew them would honor them. Even those who came to them and traveled with them, would be safe because of them. This was their situation during their journeys and travels during their winter and summer. In reference to their living in the city, then it is as Allah said, osS® &££ 8 ! iHave they not seen that We have made it a secure sanctuary, while men are being snatched away from all around them?} (29 :67) Thus, Allah says, ih? iFor the hafof the Quraysh. Thus, Allah says, iTheir Ilaf caravans, in winter and in summer.} Ibn Jarir said, "The correct opinion is that the letter Lam is a prefix that shows amazement. It is as though He (Allah) is saying. You should be amazed at the uniting (or taming) of the Quraysh and My favor upon them in that.' " He went on to say, "This is due to the consensus of the Muslims that they are two separate and independent Surahs." Then Allah directs them to be grateful for this magnificent favor in His saying, iSo, let them worship the Lord of this House .> meaning, then let them single Him out for worship, just as He has given them a safe sanctuary and a Sacred House. This may either be referring to its act entirely, as Ibn 'Abbas said, or it may be referring to performing it in its stipulated time that has been legislated Islamically. This means that the person prays it completely outside of its time. This was said by Masruq and Abu Ad-Duha. 121 'Ata' bin Dinar said, "All praise is due to Allah, the One Who said, i with their Salah are Sahun. } and He did not say, those who are absent minded in their prayer.' It could also mean the first time of the prayer, which means they always delay it until the end of its time, or they usually do so. It may also refer to not fulfilling its pillars and conditions, and in the required manner. It could also mean performing it with humility and contemplation of its meanings. The wording of the Ayah comprises all of these meanings. However, whoever has any characteristic of this that we have mentioned then a portion of this Ayah applies to him And whoever has all of these characteristics, then he has completed his share of this Ayah, and the hypocrisy of actions is fulfilled in him. This is just as is confirmed in the Two At-Tabari 24:632. At-Tabari 24:631. 131 Al-Qurpibi 20:212.

Allah, but the people come to know about it, and he is pleased with that, then this is not considered showing off. Allah said: iAnd withhold Al-Ma'un.) This means that they do not worship their Lord well, nor do they treat His creation well. They do not even lend that which others may benefit from and be helped by, even though the object will remain intact and be returned to them. These people are even stingier when it comes to giving Zakdh and different types of charity that bring one closer to Allah. Al-Masfadi narrated from Salamah bin Kuhayl who reported from Abu Al-TJbaydln that he asked Ibn Masfad about Al- Ma'un and he said, "It is what the people give to each other, like an axe, a pot, a bucket and similar items."*2

It commands a complete disavowal of that. Allah's statement, 4Say: "O disbelievers!"} includes every disbeliever on the face of the earth, however, this statement is particularly directed towards the disbelievers of the Quraysh. It has been said that in their ignorance they invited the Messenger of Allah jg to worship their idols for a year and they would (in turn) worship his God for a year. Therefore, Allah revealed this Surah and in it He commanded His Messenger sg to disavow himself from their religion completely. Allah said, 41 worship not that which you worship.} meaning, statues and rival gods. 4Nor will you worship whom I worship.} and He is Allah Alone, Who has no partner. So the word Ma (what) here means Man (who). Then Allah says. S VJ t jf 0%} 4And I shall not worship that which you are worshipping. Rather, you have invented something out of the promptings of your own souls.’ This is as Allah says, 4They follow but a guess and that which they themselves desire, whereas there has surely come to them the guidance from their Lord!} (53:23) Therefore, the disavowal is from all of what they are involved. For certainly the worshipper must have a god whom he worships and set acts of worship that he follows to get to him. So the Messenger jg and his followers worship Allah according to what He has legislated. This is why the statement of Islam is “There is no God worthy of being worshipped except Allah, and Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah.” This means that there is no (true) object of worship except Allah and there is no path to Him (i.e., way of worshipping Him) other than that which the Messenger came with. The idolators worship other than Allah, with acts of worship that Allah has not allowed. This is why the Messenger jg said to them, 'S3} 4To you be your religion, and to me my religion.} This is similar to Allah’s statement, *4 &} 4And if they belie you, say: “For me are my deeds and for you are your deeds! ' Ahmad was alone in recording this Hadith. Al-Bukhari recorded that 'A'ishah said, "The Messenger of Allah jg used to say often in his bowing and prostrating, «Glory to You, O Allah, our Lord, and praise be to You. O Allah, forgive me.»'2' He did this as his interpretation of the Qur'an (i.e., showing its implementation).” The rest of the group has also recorded this Hadith except for At-Tirmidhi.¹³ Imam Ahmad recorded from Masrviq that ‘A’ishah said, “The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to often say towards the end of his life, «Glory to Allah, and praise be unto Him. I seek Allah’s forgiveness and I repent to Him.» And he said, «Verily, my Lord has informed me that I will see a sign in my Ummah and He has commanded me that when I see it, I should glorify His praises and seek His forgiveness, for He is the One Who accepts repentance. And indeed I have seen it (i.e., the sign). When there comes the help of Allah and the Conquest (Al-Fath). And you see that the people enter Allah’s religion in crowds. So glorify the praises of your Lord, and ask His forgiveness. Verily, He is the One Who accepts the repentance and Who forgives.» Muslim also recorded this HadithP

there is only one view concerning it. For indeed the different areas of the Arabs were waiting for the conquest of Makkah before they would accept Islam. They said, “If he (Muhammad ﷺ) is victorious over his people, then he is a (true) Prophet.” So when Allah gave him victory over Makkah, they entered into the religion of Allah (Islam) in crowds. Thus, two years did not pass (after the conquest of Makkah) before the peninsula of the Arabs was laden with faith. And there did not remain any of the tribes of the Arabs except that they professed (their acceptance) of Islam. And all praise and blessings are due to Allah. Al-Bukhari recorded in his SahO that ‘Amr bin Salamah said, “When Makkah was conquered, all of the people rushed to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ to profess their Islam. The various regions were delaying their acceptance of Islam until Makkah was conquered. The people used to say, “Leave him and his people alone. If he is victorious over them he is a (true) Prophet.’ ”¹³ We have researched the war expedition for conquest of Makkah in our book As-Sirah. Therefore, whoever wishes he may review it there. And all praise and blessings are due to Allah. Imam Ahmad recorded from Abu ‘Ammar that a neighbor of Jabir bin ‘Abdullah told him, “I returned from a journey and Jabir bin ‘Abdullah came and greeted me. So I began to talk 111 Ahmad 6:35. |a| Muslim 1 :351 131 FathAl-B&ri 7:616.

with him about the divisions among the people and what they had started doing. Thus, Jabir began to cry and he said, I heard the Messenger of Allah saying, * <&> ja Jt i oi» iVerily, the people have entered into the religion of Allah in crowds and they will also leave it in crowds.*’’

His surname was Abu TJtaybah and he was only called Abu Lahab because of the brightness of his face. He used to often cause harm to the Messenger of Allah 3g. He hated and scorned him and his religion. Imam Ahmad recorded from Abu Az-Zinad that a man called RabPah bin ‘Abbad from the tribe of Bani Ad-Dll, who was a man of pre-Islamic ignorance who accepted Islam, said to him, “I saw the Prophet 3^5 in the time of pre-Islamic ignorance in the market of Dhul-Majaz and he was saying, «l 5il 3j i : I)) 1# i;» “O people! they (the people) said, “This is his uncle, Abu Lahab.” Ahmad also recorded this narration from Surayj, who reported it from Ibn Abu Az-Zinad, who reported it from his father (Abu Zinad) who mentioned this same narration. However in this report, Abu Zinad said, “I said to Rabl'ah, ‘Were you a child at that time?’ He replied, ‘No. By Allah, that day I was most intelligent, and I was the strongest blower of the flute (for music).’”² Ahmad was alone in recording this Hadlth. Virtues Imam Ahmad recorded from Ubayy bin Ka'b that the idolaters said to the Prophet ﷺ, "O Muhammad! Tell us the lineage of your Lord." So Allah revealed in the Qur'an: "He is Allah, One. Allah He begets not, nor was He begotten. And there is none comparable to Him." [1] Similar was recorded by At-Tirmidhi and Ibn Jarir and they added in their narration that he said. "As-Samad is One Who does not give birth, nor was He born, because there is nothing that is born except that it will die, and there is nothing that dies except that it leaves behind inheritance, and indeed Allah does not die and He does not leave behind any inheritance. And there is none comparable to Him." [2] This means that there is none similar to Him, none equal to Him and there is nothing at all like Him." [3] Ibn Abi Hatim also recorded it and At-Tirmidhi mentioned it as a Mursal narration. Then At-Tirmidhi said, "And this is the Ahmad 5:133. TuhfatAl-Ahwadhi 9 :299 , and Af-Tabari 24 :691

629 Surah 112. Al-Ikhlās (1-4) (Part-30 most correct." A Hadith on its Virtues Al-Bukhari reported from 'Amrah bint 'Abdur-Rahman, who used to stay in the apartment of 'A'ishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, that 'A'ishah said, "The Prophet sent me as the commander of a war expedition and he used to lead his companions in prayer with recitation (of the Qur'an). And he would complete his recitation with the recitation of 'Say: He is Allah, One.' So when they returned they mentioned that to the Prophet ﷺ and he said, 'Ask him why does he do that.' So they asked him and he said, 'Because it is the description of Ar-Rahman and I love to recite it. So the Prophet said, 'Inform him that Allah the Most High loves him.' This is how Al-Bukhari recorded this Hadith in his Book of Tawhid [4] * Muslim and An-Nasai also recorded it. In his Book of Salawat, Al-Bukhari recorded that Anas said, "A man from the Ansar used to lead the people in prayer in the Masjid of Quba'. Whenever he began a Surah in the recitation of the prayer that he was leading them, he would start by reciting 'Say: He is Allah, One' until he completed the entire Surah. Then he would recite another Surah along with it (after it). And used to do this in every Rak'ah. So his companions spoke to him about this saying; Verily, you begin the prayer with this Surah. Then you think that it is not sufficient for you unless you recite another Surah as well. So you should either recite it or leave it and recite another Surah instead.' The man replied, 'I will not leave it off. If you want me to continue leading you (in prayer), I will do this; and if you all do not like it, I will leave you (i.e., I will stop leading you).’  That is, the narration that is Mursal. TuhfatAl-Ahwadhi9 :301 121 Path Al-B&ri 13 :360 * Muslim 1 :557, and An-NasS! in Al-Kubra 6:177.

At-Tirmidhi and An-Nasal also recorded it by way of Malik, and At-Tirmidhi said, “Hasan Sahih Gharib. "From the evil of the whisperer who withdraws."} 45. "Who whispers in the breasts ofAn-Nas."} 46. "OfJinn and An-Nas."} These are three attributes from the attributes of the Lord, the Mighty and Majestic. They are lordship, sovereignty and divinity. Thus, He is the Lord of everything, the King of everything and the God of everything. All things are created by Him, owned by Him, and subservient to Him. Therefore, He commands whoever is seeking protection to seek refuge with the One Who has these attributes from the evil of the whisperer who withdraws. This (the whisperer) is the devil that is assigned to man. For verily, there is not any of the Children of Adam except that he has a companion that beautifies wicked deeds for him. This devil will go to any lengths to confuse and confound him. The only person who is safe is He Whom Allah protects. It is confirmed in the Sahih that he (the Prophet ig§) said, Ji ^1B In ^D "There is not a single one of you except that his companion (a devil) has been assigned to him. They (the Companions) said, "What about you, O Messenger of Allah?" He replied, V)pfk 2)1 c)t ^1 •Yes. However, Allah has helped me against him and he has Thus, he only commands me to do good.^ It is also confirmed in the Two Sahihs from Anas, who reported the story of Safiyyah when she came to visit the Prophet #5 while he was performing 1'tikaf, that he went out with her during the night to walk her back to her house. So, two men from the Ansar met him (on the way). When they saw the Prophet j£, they began walking swiftly. So, the Messenger of Allah jg said, "Slow down! This is Safiyyah bint Huyayh They said, "Gloi y be to Allah, O Messenger of Allah!" He said, jf t fSI ^ oikin oi» «l'J- :Jli "Verily, Shaytan runs in the Son ofAdam like the running of the blood. And verily, I feared that he might cast something into your hearts - or he said - evil.™ Said bin Jubayr reported that Ibn 'Abbas said concerning Allah's statement. iThe whisperer (Al-Waswds) who withdraws.> "The devil who is squatting (perched) upon the heart of the Son of Adam. So when he becomes absentminded and heedless he whispers. Then, when he remembers Allah he withdraws."*31 Mujahid and Qatadah also said this .*41 Al-Mulamir bin Sulayman reported that his father said, "It has been mentioned to me that Shaytan is Al-Waswds. He blows into the heart of the Son of Adam when he is sad andwhen he is happy. But when he (man) remembers Allah, Shaytan withdraws."*51 Al-'Awfi reported from Ibn 'Abbas; * l * Muslim no. 2167. 121 Fath Al-Bari4 :326 *31 At-Tabari 24:709. At-Tabari 24:710. iThe whisperer.) "He is Shaytan. He whispers and then when he is obeyed, he withdraws." As for Allah's saying; 4Who whispers in the breasts of An-Nas. Is this specific for the Children ofAdam as is apparent, or is it general, including both mankind and Jinns? There are two views concerning this. This is because they (the Jinns) are also included in the usage of the word An-Nas (the people) in most cases. Ibn Jarir said, “The phrase Rijalun min Al-Jinn*2 * (Men from the Jinns) has been used in reference to them, so it is not strange for the word An-Nas to be applied to them also.”3 Then Allah says, iOfJinn and An-Nas.) Is this explanatory of Allah’s statement,)Who whispers in the breasts ofAn-Nas.)? Then, Allah explains this by saying, iOf Jinn and An-Nas.) This is supportive of the second view. It has also been said that Allah’s saying, iOf Jinn and An-Nas) is an explanation of who is it that whispers into the breasts of mankind from the devils of mankind and Jinns. This is similar to Allah’s saying, JjiJl of. <3) j?j> CfiMj ofi^ £e? '<£4 *4^5^ * 1 * At-Tabari 24:710. * He is referring to SuratAl-Jinn 72 :6. * AMabari 24:711.

iAnd so We have appointed for every Prophet enemies - Shayatin among mankind and jinn, inspiring one another with adorned speech as a delusion .> (6: 1 12) Imam Ahmad recorded that Ibn ‘Abbas said, “A man came to the Prophet jjg and said, ‘O Messenger of Allah! Sometimes I say things to myself that I would rather fall from the sky than say (aloud openly).’ The Prophet Hg said, ‘i—j— i^jji «u ju>ji \ <ut jin ’‘Allah is Most Great! Allah is Most Great! All praise is due to Allah Who sent his (Shaytan’s) plot back as only a whisper Abu Dawud and An-Nasal also recorded this HadlthW This is the end of the Tafsir. All praise and thanks are due to Allah, the Lord of all that exists.
