Allah will question the nations, on the Day of Resurrection, how they responded to His Messengers and the Messages He sent them with. He will also question the Messengers if they conveyed His Messages. So, Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from

Ibn Abbas, who said commenting on the Ayah *i*Thai surely, We shall question those (people) to whom it (the Book) was sent and verily, We shall question the Messengers. He said; About what they conveyed. Ibn Abbas commented on Allah s statement, *i*Then surely, We shall narrate unto them (their whole story) with knowledge, and indeed We have not been absent The Book'21 will be brought forth on the Day of Resurrection and it will speak, disclosing what they used to do. |3 &&& iand indeed We have not been absent meaning, On the Day of Resurrection, Allah will inform His servants about what they said and did, whether substantial or minor. {Then, when the Trumpet is blown, there will be no kinship among them that Day, nor will they ask of one another. Then, those whose scales (of good deeds) are heavy, they are the successful. And those whose scales (of good deeds) are light, they are those who lose themselves, in Hell will they abide (23:101-103). As for what will be placed on the Balance on the Day of Resurrection, it has been said that the deeds will be placed on it, even though they are not material objects. Allah will give these deeds physical weight on the Day of Resurrection. Al- Baghawi said that this was reported from Ibn Abbas. 111 It is recorded in the Sahib that Al-Baqarah (chapter 2) and Al Imran (chapter 3) will come on the Day of Resurrection in the shape of two clouds, or two objects that provide shade, or two lined groups of birds. 121 It is also recorded in the Sahth that the Qur'an will come to its companion (who used to recite and preserve it) in the shape of a pale-faced young man. He will ask (the young man), Who are you? He will reply, I am the Qur'an, who made you stay up sleeplessly at night and caused you thirst in the day. 131 The Hadith that Al-Bara narrated about the questioning in the grave states. IUULip tlf :J^ " if '-djQ gifa ir-*" ifW^ A young man with fair color and good scent will come to the believer, who will ask, 'Who are you? He will reply, 'I am your good deeds' . The Prophet ^ mentioned the opposite in the case of the disbeliever and the hypocrite. It was also said that the Book of Records that contains the deeds will be weighed. A Hadith states that a man will be brought forth and ninety-nine scrolls containing errors and sins will be placed on one side of the balance each as long as the sight can reach. He will then be brought a card on which 111 Al-Baghawi 2:149. 1 :553. 131 Ibn Majah 2:1242. 4 :287 created the ways and means of earnings, commercial activities and other professions. Yet, most of them give little thanks for this. So they should beware of him and not follow in his footsteps. Allah said, a '{ -JZj} 4And surely, We created you and then gave you shape ; then We told the angels, Prostrate yourselves to Adam, and they prostrated,}

After Allah created Adam with His Hands from dried clay of altered mud and made him in the shape of a human being, He blew life into him and ordered the angels to prostrate before him, honoring Allah s glory and magnificence. The angels all heard, obeyed and prostrated, but Iblis did not prostrate. We explained this subject in the beginning of Surat Al-Baqarah. Therefore, the Ayah (7:11) refers to Adam, although Allah used the plural in this case, because Adam is the father of all mankind. Similarly, Allah said to the Children of Israel who lived during the time of the Prophet ig, j tfjj ' fOi(iAnd We shaded you with clouds and sent down on you manna and the quail,}[2:57] This refers to their forefathers who lived during the time of 28 Tafsir Ibri Kathir Moses. But, since that was a favor given to the forefathers, and they are their very source, then the offspring have also been favored by it. This is not the case in: 4And indeed We created man out of an extract of clay (water and earth.))[23:12\ For this merely means that Adam was created from clay. His children were created from Nutfah (mixed male and female sexual discharge). This last Ayah is thus talking about the origin of mankind, not that they were all created from clay, and Allah knows best. 4; .; yd * S 3.U& ft} 412. (Allah) said: What prevented you (O Iblis) that you did not prostrate, when I commanded you?" Iblis said: "I am better than him (Adam), You created me from fire, and him You created from clay."} Allah said, iWhat prevented you (O Iblis) that you did not prostrate} (7:12) meaning, what stopped and hindered you from prostrating after I ordered you to do so, according to Ibn Jarir. This meaning is sound, and Allah knows best. Iblis, may Allah curse him, said, 4/ am better than him (Adam)}, and this excuse is worse than the crime itself! Shaytan said that he did not obey Allah because he who is better cannot prostrate to he who is less. Shaytan, may Allah curse him, meant that he is better than Adam, So how can You order me to prostrate before him? Shaytan said that he is better than Adam because-he was created from fire while, You created him from clay, and fire is better. The cursed one looked at the origin of creation not at the honor bestowed, that is, Allah creating Adam with His Hand and blowing life into him. Shaytan made a false comparison when confronted by Allah s command,

4"Then you fall dawn prostrate to /ii'm">[38:72]. Therefore, Shaytan alone contradicted the angels, because he refused to prostrate. He, thus, became Ablasa from the mercy, meaning, lost hope in acquiring Allah's mercy. He committed this error, may Allah curse him, due to his false comparison. His claim that the fire is more honored than mud was also false, because mud has the qualities of wisdom, for - bearance, patience and assurance, mud is where plants grow, flourish, increase, and provide good. To the contraiy, fire has the qualities of burning, recklessness and hastiness. Therefore, the origin of creation directed Shaytan to failure, while the origin of Adam led him to return to Allah with repentance, humbleness, obedience and submission to His command, admitting his error and seeking Allah s forgiveness and pardon for it.

He said, i'fdpx p 528 ts} i"Because You have Aghwaytani , surely, I will sit in wait against them (human beings) on Your straight path."} meaning, as You have sent me astray. Ibn Abbas said that Aghwaytani means, Misguided me. 111 Others said, As You caused my ruin, I will sit in wait for Your servants whom You will create from the offspring of the one you expelled me for. He went on, iYour straight path}, the path of truth and the way of safety. I (Iblis) will misguide them from this path so that they do not worship You Alone, because You sent me astray. Warning against the Lures ofShaytan

Allah warns the Children of Adam against Iblis and his followers, by explaining about his ancient enmity for the father of mankind, Adam peace be upon him. Iblis plotted to have Adam expelled from Paradise, which is the dwelling of comfort, to the dwelling of hardship and fatigue (this life) and caused him to have his private part uncovered, after it had been hidden from him. This, indeed, is indicative of deep hatred (from Shaytan towards Adam and mankind). Allah said in a similar Ayah, 05-s^iiU J-L jit | iij (jjj Oi Cijj1 ^ iWill you then take him (Iblis) and his offspring as protectors and helpers rather than Me, while they are enemies to you? What an evil is the exchangefor the wrongdoers.} [18:50].Tabari 12:364.Tabari 12:368.

Disbelievers commit Sins and claim that Allah commandedThem to do so! Mujahid said, The idolaters used to go around the House {Ka'bah) in Tawafwhile naked, saying, *We perform fawdfas our mothers gave birth to us. The woman would cover her sexual organ with something saying, Today, some or all of it will appear, but whatever appears from it, I do not allow it (it is not for adulteiy or for men to enjoy looking at!). And whoever wore a new garment, would discard it and none would wear it after him on completion of Tawaf. Those who did not have a new garment, or were not given one by Al-Hums, then they would perform Taw&f while naked. Even women would go around in Taw&f while naked, and one of them would cover her sexual organ with something and proclaim, Today, a part or all of it will appear, but whatever appears from it I do not allow it. Women used to perform Taw&f while naked usually at night. This was a practice that the idolators invented on their own, following only their forefathers in this regard. They falsely claimed that what their forefathers did was in fact following the order and legislation of Allah. Allah then refuted them, Allah said, iijtj tJwj ijli iAnd when they commit a Fdhishah, they say : "Wefound our fathers doing it, and Allah has commanded itfor us."} Allah does not order Fahsha , but orders Justice and Sincerity Allah replied to this false claim, $Say}, O Muhammad, to those who claimed this, at <,[} i"Nay, Allah never commands Fahsha'..."} meaning, the practice you indulge in is a despicable sin, and Allah does not command such a thing. i"Do you say about Allah what you know not? } that is, do you attribute to Allah statements that you are not certain are true? He also commands sincerity in worshipping Him, for He, Exalted He is, does not accept a good deed until it satisfies these two conditions: being correct and in conformity with His Law, and being free of Shirk.

The Meaning of being brought into Being in the Beginning and brought back again Allah's saying 4* ZpZ cr" 4^s He brought you in the beginning, so shall you be brought into being again> [7:29]. Until; ierror.^ There is some difference over the meaning of: fi'Z l2> 4-As He brought you in the beginning, so shall you be brought into being again .4 Ibn Abi Najlh said that Mujahid said that it means, He will bring you back to life after you die. l Al-Hasan Al-Basri commented, As He made you begin in this life. He will bring you back to life on the Day of Resurrection. |21 Qatadah commented on: 4<>/iyupZ L 4As He brought you in the beginning, so shall you be brought into being again .4 At-Tabari 12:385. At-Tabari 12:385.

He started their creation after they were nothing, and they perished later on, and He shall bring them back again. Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam said, As He created you in the beginning, He will bring you back in the end. 121 This last explanation was preferred by Abu Ja'far Ibn Jarir and he supported it with what he reported from Ibn Abbas, The Messenger of Allah sg stood up and gave us a speech, saying, iliA 4il JI \ \ U 45'1' U) lld e 'lij tfS. 3 di: (Z) ri "0 people! You will be gathered to Allah while barefooted, naked and uncircumcised, 4As We began the first creation, We shall repeat it. (It is) a promise binding upon Us. Truly, We shall do 1:104] This Hadith was collected in the Two Sahihs . [41 Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas commented on the Ayah, pi) 4As He brought you in the beginning, so shall you be brought into being again. A group He has guided, and a group deserved to be in error;) Allah, the Exalted, began the creation of the Sons of Adam, some believers and some disbelievers, just as He said. 4He it is Who created you, then some of you are disbelievers and some of you are believers) [64:2]. He will then return them on the Day of Resurrection as He started them, some believers and some disbelievers.151 I say, what supports this meaning, is the Hadith from Ibn Mas*ud that 46 Tafsir Ibtt Kathtr: "By He, other than Whom there is no god, one of you might perform the deeds of the people of Paradise until only the length of an arm or a forearm would separate him from it. However, that which was written in the Book takes precedence, and he commits the work of the people of the Fire and thus enters it. And one of you might perform the deeds of the people of the Fire until only the length of an arm or a forearm separates between him and the Fire. However, that which was written in the Book takes precedence, and he performs the work of the people of Paradise and thus enters Paradise. We should combine this meaning - if it is held to be the correct meaning for the Ayah - with Allah's statement: 4So set you your face towards the religion, Hanifan. Allah's Fitrah loith which He has created mankind $> [30:30], and what is recorded in the Two Sahlhs from Abu Hurayrah who said that the Messenger of Allah jg said: jJl\j2aiiJ o\jj(i jJjJ (JS8 *Every child is bom upon the Fitrah, it is only his parents who turn him into a Jew, a Christian or a Zoroastrian."

Al-A'rdf (28 - 30) (Part-8) lAllah said, 7 created My servants Hunafa' (monotheists), but the devils came to them and deviated them from their religion ."(11 The collective meaning here is, Allah created His creatures so that some of them later turn believers and some turn disbelievers. Allah has originally created all of His servants able to recognize Him, to single Him out in worship, and know that there is no deity worthy of worship except Him. He also took their covenant to fulfill the implications of this knowledge, which He placed in their consciousness and souls. He has decided that some of them will be miserable and some will be happy, io'S1 Jft 4He it is Who created you, then some of you are

Also, a Hadith states, jA*j ^ull JS iAll people go out in the morning and sell themselves, and some of them free themselves while some others destroy themselves. "12) Allah's decree will certainly come to pass in His creation. Verily, He it is 3 4ft iWho has measured (everything); and then guided [87:3], and, 4He Who gave to each thing its form and nature, then guided it aright (20:50). As for those among you who are among the people of happiness, they will be facilitated to perform the deeds of the people of happiness. Ibn Jarir said, This is one of the clearest arguments proving the mistake of those who claim that Allah does not punish anyone for disobedient acts he commits of deviations he believes in until after knowledge of what is correct reaches him, then he were to obstinately avoid it anyway. If this were true, then there would be no difference between the deviations of the misguided group - their belief that they are guided - and the group that is in fact guided. Yet Allah has differentiated between the two in this noble Ayah, doing so in both name and judgement. 121  At-Tabari 12:388. Allah seiid in another Ayah, p JU \jkfC !A & it jLc iAnd as for 'Ad, they were destroyed by a furious violent wind! This is why Allah said, ias if they were holloiu trunks ofodate palms!} [69:7] Muhammad bin Ishaq said that Ad used to live in Yemen between Oman and Hadramawt. They also spread throughout the land and defeated various peoples, because of the strength that Allah gave them. They used to worship idols instead of Allah, and Allah sent to them Prophet Hud, peace be upon him. He was from their most common lineage and was the best among them in status. HQd commanded them to worship Allah Alone and associate none with him. He also ordered them to stop committing injustice against the people. But they rejected him and ignored his call. They said, Who is stronger than us? Some of them, however, followed HQd, although they were few and had to conceal their faith. When Ad defied the command of Allah, rejected His Prophet, committed mischief in the earth, became arrogant and built high palaces on every high place - without real benefit to them - Hud spoke to them, saying,

Al-A'rdf (70 - 72) (Part-8)  \ ' > Zf i.i: "Do you build high palaces on every high place, while you do not live in them? And do you get for yourselves palaces (fine buildings) as if you will live therein

98 Tafsir Ibtisam Kathir take me to him? So I took her along with me to Al-Madina and found the Masjid full of people. I also found a black flag raised high, while Bilal was holding a sword before the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. I asked, What is the matter with the people? They said, The Prophet ﷺ intends to send Amr bin Al- As (on a military expedition) somewhere. So I sat down. When the Prophet ﷺ went to his house, I asked for permission to see him, and he gave me permission. I entered and greeted him. He said, Was there a dispute between you and Bani Tamim? I said, Yes. And we had been victorious over them. I passed by an old woman from Bani Tamim, who was alone, and she asked me to bring her to you, and she is at the door. So he allowed her in and I said, O Allah's Messenger! What if you make a barrier between us and (the tribe of) Bani Tamim, such as Ad-Dahna (Desert)? The old woman became angry and opposed me. So I said, My example is the example of a sheep that carried its own destruction. I carried this woman and did not know that she was an opponent. I seek refuge with Allah and His Messenger that I become like the emissary of Ad. So the Prophet ﷺ asked me about the emissary of Ad, having better knowledge in it, but he liked to hear the story again. I said, Once, Ad suffered from a famine and they sent an emissary [to get relief], whose name was Qayl. Qayl passed by Mu'awiyah bin Bakr and stayed with him for a month. Mu'awiyah supplied him with alcoholic drinks, and two female singers were singing for him. When a month ended, Qayl went to the mountains of Muhrah and said, O Allah! You know that I did not come here to cure an ill person or to ransom a prisoner. O Allah! Give Ad water as You used to. So black clouds came and he was called, Choose which one of them you wish (to go to Ad)! So he pointed to one of the black clouds and he heard someone proclaiming from it. Take it, as ashes that will leave none in Ad. And it has been conveyed to me that the wind sent to them was no more than what would pass through this ring of mine, but it destroyed them. Abu Wa'il said, That is true. When a man or a woman would send an emissary, they would tell him, Do not be like the emissary of Ad (bringing disaster and utter destruction to them instead of relief)., Imam Ahmad collected this story in the Musnad At- tirmidhi 3 :482

Thamudasked that aCamel appear from a Stone, and it did Prophet Salih said, 4. Indeed there has come to you a clear sign from your Lord. This she-camel ofAllah is a sign unto you;" } meaning, a miracle has come to you from Allah testifying to the truth ofwhat I came to you with. Salih s people asked him to produce a miracle and suggested a certain solid rock that they chose, which stood lonely in the area of Hijr, and which was called Al-Katibah. They asked him to bring a pregnant camel out of that stone. Salih took their covenant and promises that if Allah answers their challenge, they would believe and follow him. When they gave him their oaths and promises to that, Salih started praying and invoked Allah (to produce that miracle). All of a sudden, the stone moved and broke apart, producing a she-camel with thick wool. It was pregnant and its fetus was visibly moving in its belly, exactly as Salih s people asked. This is when their chief, Jundu bin Amr, and several who followed him believed. The rest of the noblemen ofThamud wanted to believe as well, but Dhu ab bin Amr bin Labld, Al-Habbab, who tended their idols, and Rabbab bin Sum ar bin Jilhis stopped them. One of the cousins of Jundu* bin Amr, whose name was Shihab bin Khalifah bin Mikhlal bin Labld bin Jawwas, was one of the leaders ofThamud, and he also wanted to accept the message. However, the chiefs whom we mentioned prevented him, and he conceded to their promptings. The camel remained in Thamud, as well as, its offspring

Al-A'rdf (73 - 78) (Part-8)_ after she delivered it before them. The camel used to drink from its well on one day and leave the well for Thamud the next day. They also used to drink its milk, for on the days she drank water, they used to milk her and fill their containers from its milk. Allah said in other Ayat, fr*. sDI iAtid inform thetn that the water is to be shared between (her and) them , each one's right to drink being established (by turns)} [54:28] and, fS. Ziri ZiA ^^ iHere is a she-camel : it has a right to drink (water), and you have a right to drink (water) (each) on a day, known} [26:155] The camel used to graze in some of their valleys, going through a pass and coming out through another pass. She did that so as to be able to move easily, because she used to drink a lot of water. She was a tremendous animal that had a strikingly beautiful appearance. When she used to pass by their cattle, the cattle would be afraid of her. When this matter continued for a long time and Thamud s rejection of Salih became intense, they intended to kill her so that they could take the water for themselves every day. It was said that all of them (the disbelievers of Thamud) conspired to kill the camel. Qatadah said that he was told that, The designated killer of the camel approached them all, including women in their rooms and children, and found out that all of them agreed to kill her. 111 This fact is apparent from the wording of the Ayat, iThen they denied him and they killed it. So their Lord destroyed them because of their sin, and made them equal in destruction!} [91:14], and, [foiii \re? iitl' ifo iAnd YJe sent the she-camel to Tltamud as a clear sign, but they did her wrong.} [17:59]Tabari 12:537.

104 Tafsir Ibtt Kathir Allah said here, iSo they killed the she-camel} Therefore, these Ayat stated that the entire tribe shared in agreeing to this crime, and Allah knows best. Thamud kills the She-Camel Imam Abu Ja*far Ibn Jarir and other scholars of Tafsir said that the reason behind killing the camel was that a disbelieving old woman among them named Umm Ghanm TJnayzah, the daughter of Ghanm bin Mijlaz, had the severest enmity among ThamUd towards Salih, peace be upon him. She had beautiful daughters and she was wealthy, and Dhu ab bin Amr, one of the leaders of Thamud, was her husband. There was another noblewoman whose name was Saduf bint Al-Muliayya bin Dahr bin Al-Muhayya, who was of noble family, wealthy and beautiful. She was married to a Muslim man from Thamud, but she left him. These two women offered a prize for those who swore to them that they would kill the camel. Once, Saduf summoned a man called Al-Habbab and offered herself to him if he would kill the camel, but he refused. So she called a cousin of hers whose name was Musaddi* bin Mihraj bin Al-Muhayya, and he agreed. As for TJnayzah bint Ghanm, she called Qudar bin Salif bin Jundu, a short person with red-blue skin, a bastard, according to them. Qudar was not the son of his claimed father, Salif, but the son of another man called, Suhyad. However, he was born on Salif's bed (and thus named after him). TJnayzah said to Qudar, I will give you any of my daughters you wish, if you kill the camel. Qudar bin Salif and Musaddi* bin Mihraj went along and recruited several mischievous persons from Thamud to kill the camel. Seven more from Thamud agreed, and the group became nine, as Allah described, when He said, 4And there were in the city nine men, who made mischief in the land, and would not reform. These nine men were chiefs of their people, and they lured the entire tribe into agreeing to kill the camel. So they waited they perceived not.} [27:49-50] When they conspired to kill Salih and gathered at night to carry out their plot, Allah, to Whom belongs all might and Who protects His Messengers, rained down stones that smashed the heads of these nine people before the rest of the tribe. On Thursday, the first of the three days of respite, the people woke up and their faces were pale (yellow), just as Prophet Salih had promised them. On the second day of respite, Friday, they woke up and found their faces had turned red. On the third day of the respite, Saturday, they woke up with their faces black. On Sunday, they wore the fragrance of Hanut [the perfume for enshrouding the dead before burial] and awaited Allah's torment and revenge, we seek refuge with Allah from it. They did not know what will be done to them or how and from where the torment would come. When the sun rose, the Sayhah (loud cry) came from the sky and a severe tremor overtook them from below; the souls were captured and the bodies became lifeless, fell in an hour. 4And they lay (dead), prostrate in their homes.} They became dead and lifeless and none among them, whether young, old, male or female, escaped the torment. 1 The scholars of Tafsir said that none from the offspring of Thamud remained, except Prophet Salih and those who believed in him. A disbelieving man called Abu Righal was in the Sacred Area at the time and the torment that befell his people did not touch him. When he went out of the Sacred Area one day, a stone fell from the sky and killed him. Abdur- Razzaq narrated that Ma'mar said that Ismail bin Umayyah said that the Prophet (ﷺ) passed by the gravesite of Abu Righal and asked the Companions if they knew whose grave it was. They said, Allah and His Messenger know better. He said, ji Ji U 4Li! Uii i4il Olip 4)1 ^'ji- _Li 4)1 jI Tabari 12:534.

avoiding guidance, and preferring misguidance instead. Salih said these words of admonishment and criticism to them after they perished, and they heard him (as a miracle for Prophet Salih from Allah). Similarly, it is recorded in the Two Sahihs that after the Messenger of Allah sg defeated the disbelievers in the battle of Badr, he remained in that area for three days, and then rode his camel, which was prepared for him during the latter part of the night. He went on until he stood by the well of Badr (where the corpses of the disbelievers were thrown) and said, $\text{u Uj}^{} \text{j-}^{\wedge} \text{If-} \dots - 1 - \text{uv} \dots \text{nX}^{\sim} \text{V ft} \text{, r x' !}^{*}$ iLut, when he said to his people.. Lut (Lot) is the son of Haran the son of Azar (Terah), and he was the nephew of Ibrahim, peace be upon them both. Lut had believed in Ibrahim and migrated with him to the Sham area. Allah then sent Lut to the people of Sadum (Sodom) and the surrounding villages, to call them to Allah, enjoin righteousness and forbid them from their evil practices, their sin, and wickedness. In this area, they did things that none of the children of Adam or any other creatures ever did before them. They used to have sexual intercourse with males instead of females. This evil practice was not known among the Children of Adam before, nor did it even cross their minds, so they were unfamiliar with it before the people of Sodom invented it, may Allah's curse be on them. Amr bin Dinar commented on; 4". $\dots$ as none preceding you has committed in all of the nations." $\}$ Never before the people of Lut did a male have sex with another male. ' This is why Lut said to them. 4"Do you commit lewdness such as none preceding you has committed in all of the nations? Verily, you practice your lusts on men instead of women meaning, you left women whom Allah created for you and instead had sex with men? Indeed, this behavior is evil and ignorant because you have placed things in their improper places. Lot, peace be upon him, said to them: $\text{i'crlfi } 4 \text{ U}^{>} \text{' } 4^{\text{"these (the girls of the nation) are my daughters (to marry lawfully), if you must act (so)."} \}$ [15:71] So he reminded them of their women, and they replied that they do not desire women!, Tabari 12:548.

Only his wife (from his family) did not believe, remaining on the religion of her people. She used to conspire with them against Lot and inform them of who came to visit him, using certain signals that they agreed on. This is why when Lut was commanded to leave by night with his family, he was ordered not to inform his wife or take her with him. Some said that she followed them, and when the torment struck her people, she looked back and suffered the same punishment as them. However, it appears that she did not leave the town and that Lot did not tell her that they would depart. So she remained with her people, as apparent from Allah s statement, iexcept his wife; she was of the Ghdbirin meaning, of those who remained, or they say: of those who were destroyed, and this is the more obvious explanation. ll At-Jabari 12 :550. This Ayah means, We found most of them to be rebellious, deviating away from obedience and compliance. The covenant mentioned here is the Fitrah that Allah instilled in them while still in their fathers' loins, and taking their covenant, that He is their Lord, King, and that there is no deity worthy of worship except Him,. They affirmed this covenant and testified against themselves to this fact. However, they defied this covenant, threw it behind their backs and worshipped others besides Allah, having no proof or plea, nor support from rationality or by divine law. Surely, the pure Fitrah defies these actions, while all the honorable Messengers, from beginning to end, forbade them.

MujeLhid said it is water that carries the plague every where. As for the locust, it is the well- known insect, which is permissible to eat. It is recorded in the Two Sahihs, that Abu Ya ftlr said that he asked Abdullah bin Abi Awfa about locust. He said, We participated in seven battles with the Messenger of All&h jg, and we used to eat locusts. 111 Ash-Shafit,

But, Fir'awn did not comply; and Allah sent the Tufan, and that is a rain which continued until they feared that it was a form of torment. They said to Musa, Invoke your Lord to release us from this rain, and we will believe in you and send the Children of Israel with you. Musa invoked his Lord and He removed the affliction from them. However, they did not believe, nor did they send the Children of Israel with him. In that year, Allah allowed (the earth) to grow various types of produce, fruits and grass for them as never before. They said, This is what we hoped for. So Allah sent the locusts, and the locusts started to feed on the grass. When they saw the effect the locusts had on the grass, they knew that no vegetation would be saved from devastation. They said, O Musa! Invoke your Lord so that He will remove the locusts from us, and we will believe in you and release the Children of Israel to you. Musa invoked his Lord, and He removed the locusts. Still, they did not believe and did not send the Children of Israel with him. They collected grains and kept them in their homes. They said, We saved our crops. However, Allah sent the Qummal, grain bugs, and one of them would take ten bags of grains to the mill, but only reap three small bags of grain. They said, O Musa! Ask your Lord to remove the Qummal (weevil) from us and we will believe in you and send the Children of Israel with you. Musa invoked his Lord, and Allah removed the Qummal from them. Musa stood up crying, invoking Allah, O Lord! What should I tell the Children of Israel, when I go back to them after You destroyed their best men? 4"0 my Lord, if it had been Your will. You could have destroyed them and me before Muhammad bin Ishaq said, Musa chose seventy of the best men from the Children of Israel. He said to them, Go to the meeting with Allah and repent for what you committed. Beg His forgiveness for those of your people whom you left behind. Fast, purify yourselves and clean your clothes. So, he went with them to Mount Tur in Sinai for the meeting place and time designated by his Lord. He went there only with the leave and knowledge of Allah. According to what has been mentioned to me, when the seventy did what he ordered them to do, and went with him to the meeting of Musa with his Lord, they said, Request that we may also hear the words of m At-Tabari 13:140.

Al-A'rdf (155 - 156) (Part-9)_ our Lord. So he replied, 1 shall. When Musa approached the mountain it became completely covered with columns of clouds, Musa approached it and entered in them. He said to the people, Approach. But when Allah spoke to Musa, his cloak was surrounded by a brilliant light which no human could bear to look at, so below him a barrier was placed and the people approached. When they entered the cloud they fell prostrate and they heard Him while he was speaking to Musa, commanding him and forbidding him, saying what to do and what not to do. When He completed commanding him, and removed the cloud from Musa, he faced the people and they said, O Musa! We will not believe in you unless we see Allah directly. So the thunder shook them, their souls were captured and they all died. Musa stood up invoking, begging and supplicating to his Lord, i"0 my Lord, if it had beat Your will. [9:17] This Ayah means that their disbelief testifies against them, not that they actually testify against themselves here. Another Ayah of this type is Allah's statement. 4And to that he bears witness (by his deeds).$ [100:7] The same is the case with asking, sometimes takes the form of words and sometimes a situation or circumstance. Al-A'raf (175 - 177) (Part-9) said, He is Sayfi, son of Ar-Rahib. Qatadah commented that Ka*b said, He was a man from Al-Balqla (a province of Jordan) who knew Allah's Greatest Name. He used to live in Bayt Al-Maqdis with the tyrants. Al-A'wfi reported that Ibn Abbas said, He is BaTam bin Ba'ura, a man from Yemen whom Allah had given the knowledge of His Ayat, but he abandoned them. Malik bin

Dinar said, He was one of the scholars of the Children of Israel whose supplication was acceptable. They used to seek his lead in supplication in times of difficulty. Allah's Prophet Musa sent him to the King of Madyan to call him to Allah. That king appeased him and gave him land and gifts, and he reverted from the religion of Musa and followed the king's religion. Imran bin Tjyaynah narrated that Husayn said that Imran bin Al-Harith said that Ibn Abbas said, He is BaTam son of Ba'ura . 2, Similar was said by Mujahid and Ikrimah. Therefore, it is well-known that this honorable Ayah was revealed about a man from the Children of Israel in ancient times, according to Ibn MasTid and several others among the Salaf. Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas said, He is a man from the city of the tyrants (Jerusalem) whose name was BaTam and who knew Allah's Greatest Name. 151 Ali bin Abi Talhah also reported that Ibn Abbas that he said, When Musa and those with him went to the city of the tyrants (Jerusalem), the cousins of BaTam and his people came to him and said, Musa is a strong man, and he has many soldiers. If he gains the upper hand over us, we will be destroyed. Therefore, supplicate to Allah that He prevents Musa and those with him from prevailing over us. BaTam said, If I supplicate to Allah that He turns back Musa and those with him, I will lose in this life and the Hereafter. They kept luring him until he supplicated against Musa and his people, and Allah took away what he bestowed on him (of knowledge). Hence Allah's statement, At-Tabari 13:261. At-Tabari 13:253. He indulged in the lusts of life and its joys and was deceived by it, just as life deceived others like him, without sound comprehension or a good mind. Muhammad bin Ishaq bin Yasar narrated from Salim, from Abu An-Nadr that when Musa entered the land of Bani Canaan in the area of Ash-Sham (Greater Syria), the people of Bal'am came to him, saying, This is Musa, son of Imran with the Children of Israel. He wants to drive us out from our land, kill us and replace us with the Children of Israel. We are your people and have no other dwelling area. You are a person whose supplication is acceptable (to Allah), so go out and supplicate to Allah against them. He said, Woe to you! Here is Allah's Prophet (Musa) with whom the angels and believers are! How can I supplicate against them when I know from Allah what I know? They said, We have no other dwelling area. So they kept luring and begging him until he was tempted by the trial and went on his donkey towards Mount Husban, which was behind the Israelite military barracks. When he proceeded At-Tabari 13:260.

Al-A'raf(175 - 177) (Part-9) on the Mount for a while, the donkey sat down and refused to proceed. He got off the donkey and struck it until it stood up again and he rode it. The donkey did the same after a little while, and he struck it again until it stood up... So he proceeded and tried to supplicate against Musa and his people. However, Allah made his tongue mention his people with evil and the Children of Israel with good instead of his people, who protested, O Bal'am! What are you doing? You are supplicating for them and against us! He said, It is against my will. This is a matter that Allah has decided. He then said to them, as his tongue was made to loll out of his mouth, Now I have lost this life and the Hereafter. This Ayah was revealed about the story of BaTam son of BaTira 4 jiliu ilyX zsM b

Allah said next, So his parable is the parable of a dog : if you drive him away, he pants, or if you leave him alone, he (still) pants.} Scholars of Tafsir have conflicting opinions regarding the meaning of this Ayah. Some scholars said that it refers to the end of Bal'am's tongue which flickered out of his mouth, as in the story narrated from Ibn Ishaq, from Salim, from Abu An-Nadr. Therefore, his example is the example of the dog, its tongue pants regardless of whether it is driven away or not. It was also said that the meaning here is a parable of this man - and his like - concerning their misguidance, persisting the wrong path and not being able to benefit from faith or comprehend what they are being called to. So his example is that of a dog which pants whether it was driven away or left alone. The person described here does not benefit from the m At-Tabari 13:265.

Allah said, 4&4L Ijllr o=gSt iEvil is the parable of the people who rejected Our Ayat> Allah says, evil is the example of the people who deny Our Ayat in that they are equated with dogs that have no interest but to collect food and satisfy lusts. Therefore, whoever goes out of the area of knowledge and guidance, and seeks satisfaction for his lusts and vain desires, is just like a dog; what an evil example. The Sahih recorded that the Messenger of Allah jg said, iThe evil example is not suitable for us: he who goes back on his gift is just like the dog that eats its vomit. s' 11 Allah's statement, 0&& \jt iand they used to wrong themselves.} means, Allah did not wrong them, but they wronged themselves by rejecting guidance, not obeying the Lord, being content with this life that will soon end, all the while seeking to fulfill desires and obey lusts. 4178. So they were attacking the idols of the idolators at night, breaking, disfiguring them and using them as fuel for needy widows. They sought to give a lesson to their people to make them aware of their error. Amr bin Al-Jamuh, who was one of the chiefs of his people, had an idol that he used to worship and perfume. The two Mu'adhs used to go to that idol, turn it on its head and tarnish it with animal waste. When Amr bin Al-Jamuh would see what happened to his idol, he would clean it, perfume it and leave a sword next to it, saying, Defend yourself. However, the two young men would repeat their actions, and he would do the same as before. Once, they took the idol, tied it to a dead dog and threw it in a well while tied to a rope! When Amr bin Al-JamQh saw this, he knew that his religion was false and said, By Allah! Had you been a god who has might, you would not end up tied to a dog on a rope! Amr bin Al-Jamuh embraced Islam, and he was strong in his Islam. Opening The Tafsir of Surat Al-Anfal (Chapter - 8)

Which was revealed in Al-Madinah

Al-Anfal is the eighth Surah of the Quran. It was revealed in Al-Madinah. The word count of this Surah is one thousand, six hundred and thirty-one words and its letters number five thousand, two hundred and ninety-four. In the Name of Allah the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. Say: "Al-Anfal are for Allah and the Messenger. So have Taqwa of Allah and settle all matters of difference among you, and obey Allah and His Messenger, if you are believers." Meaning of Anfal the battle of Badr. When the two armies met, Allah defeated the enemy and some of us pursued them inflicting utter defeat and casualties. Another group of us came to the battlefield collecting the spoils of war. Another group surrounded the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, so that the enemy could not attack him suddenly. When it was night and the various army groups went back to our camp, some of those who collected the spoils said, "We collected it, so none else will have a share in it. Those who went in pursuit of the enemy said, "No, you have no more right to it than us. We kept the enemy away from the war spoils and defeated them. Those who surrounded the Messenger of Allah 1:178. 121 Abu Dawud 3:177, Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi 8:466, An-Nasal in Al-Kubra 6:348 5:322

254 Tafsir Ibn Kathir M to protect him said, "You have no more right to it than us, we surrounded the Messenger of Allah ﷺ for fear that the enemy might conduct a surprise attack against him, so we were busy. The Ayah, 4:24 "They ask you about Al-Anfal (the spoils of war). Say: Al-Anfal are for Allah and the Messenger. So fear Allah and settle all matters of difference among you." was revealed and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ divided the Anfal equally between Muslims. "Allah's Messenger would give a fourth for Anfal when there was a surprise attack in the land of the enemy, and when there was a confrontation then a third to the people who returned". The Prophet ﷺ used to dislike the Anfal and encouraged strong fighters to give some of their share to weak Muslim fighters. At-Tirmidhi and Ibn Majah collected a similar narration for this Hadith, and At-Tirmidhi said, "uHasan". Allah said, "So have Taqwa of Allah and settle all matters of difference among you," The Ayah commands, have Taqwa of Allah in all your affairs, settle matters of differences between you, do not wrong each other, do not dispute, and do not differ. Certainly, the guidance and knowledge that

Allah has granted you is better than what you are disputing about [such as Al-Anfal\, at \fS\j} 4.and obey Allah and His Messenger,} in the division that the Messenger makes according to Allah s Ahmad 5:323. TuhfatAl-Ahwadhi8 :468 and Ibn Majah 2 :95 1

Al-Anfdl (2 - 4) (Part-9) iBut as for him who feared standing before his Lord, and restrained himselffrom vain desires. Verily, Paradise will be his abode.$ (79:40-41] Sufyan Ath-Thawri narrated that As-Suddi commented, <!>&$ 'C\} iThe believers are only those who, when Allah is mentioned, feel afear in their hearts> A man might be thinking of committing injustice or a sin. But he abstains when he is told, Have Taqwa of Allah , and his heart becomes fearful. As for those who believe, it has increased their faith, and they rejoice} [9:124]. Al-Bukhari and other scholars relied on this Ayah (8:2) and those similar, as evidence that faith increases and varies in strength from heart to heart. This is also the view of the majority of the scholars of Islam, prompting some scholars, such as Ash-Shafil, Ahmad bin Hanbal and Abu Ubayd to declare that this is the consensus of the Ummah, as we mentioned in the beginning of the explanation of Sahih. Al- Bukhari. All the thanks and praises are due to Allah. The Reality of Tawakkul Allah said,

}And they put their trust in their Lord.} Therefore, the believers hope in none except Allah, direct their dedication to Him alone, seek refuge with Him alone, invoke Him alone for their various needs and supplicate to Him alone. They know that whatever He wills, occurs and that whatever He does not will never occurs, that He alone is the One Who has the decision in His kingdom, without partners; none can avert the decision of Allah and He is swift in reckoning. Hence the statement of SaTd bin Jubayr, Tawakkul of Allah is the essence of faith. Deeds of Faithful Believers Allah said next, -t. * " li iWho perform the Saldh and spend out of what We have provided them.} Allah describes the actions of the believers after He mentioned their faith. The acts mentioned here include all types of righteous acts, such as establishing prayer, which is Allah s right. Qatadah said, Establishing the prayer requires preserving its times, making ablution for it, bowing down and prostrating. (1 ' Muqatil bin Hayyan said, Establishing the prayer means to preserve its times, perform perfect purity for it, perform perfect bowings and prostrations, recite the Qur an during it, sitting for Tashahhud and reciting the Saldh (invoking Allah s blessings) for the benefit of the Prophet. Muhammad bin Ishaq reported that Abdullah bin Abbas said, When the Messenger of Allah ^ heard that Abu Sufyan had left the Sham area (headed towards Makkah with Quraysh s caravan), he encouraged the Muslims to march forth to intercept them, saying. " Lit jf 4)1 Jil I lj_j j oji iThis is the caravan of Quraysh carrying their property, so march forth to intercept it, Allah might make it as war spoils for you.D The people started mobilizing Muslims, although some of them did not mobilize, thinking that the Prophet 5g$ would not have to fight. Abu Sufyan was cautiously gathering information on the latest news spying on travelers he met, out of fear for the caravan, especially upon entering the area of Hijaz (Western Arabia). Some travelers told him that Muhammad had mobilized his companions for his caravan. He was anxious and hired Damdam bin Amr Al-Ghifari to go to Makkah and mobilize the Quraysh to protect their caravan, informing them that Muhammad jg had mobilized his Companions to intercept the caravan. Damdam bin Amr went in a hurry to Makkah. Meanwhile, the Messenger of Allah jg marched with his companions until he reached a valley called Dhafirah. When he left the valley, he camped and was informed that the Quraysh had marched to protect their caravan. The Messenger of Allah consulted the people for advice and conveyed the news about Quraysh to them. Abu Bakr stood up and said something good, and so did Umar. Al-Miqdad bin Amr stood up and said, O Allah s Messenger! March to what Allah has commanded you, for we are with you. By Allah! We will not say to you what the Children of Israel said to Musa, i" So go you and your Lord and fight you two, we are sitting right here" ^ [5:24].

Al-Anfal (5 - 8) (Part-9) Rather, go you and Your Lord and fight, we will be fighting along with you both. By He Who has sent you with Truth! If you decide to take us to Birk-ul-Ghimad, we will fight along with you until you reach it. The Messenger of Allah soid good words to Al-Miqdad and invoked Allah for his benefit. The Messenger of Allah again said. tGive me your opinion, O people wanting to hear from the Ansar. This is because the majority of the people with him then were the Ansar. When the Ansar gave the Prophet Sg their pledge of obedience at Al- Aqabah, they proclaimed, O Allah s

Messenger! We are not bound by this pledge unless, and until, you arrive in our land. When you have arrived in our area, you are under our protection, and we shall protect you in the same manner we protect our children and wives. The Messenger of Allah ^ﷺ feared that the Ansar might think that they are not obliged to support him except from his enemies who attack Al-Madinah, not to march with him to an enemy in other areas. When the Prophet said this, Sa'd bin Mu'adh asked him, O Allah's Messenger! Is it us whom you meant? The Prophet answered in the positive. Sa'd said, We have faith and believed in you, testified that what you brought is the truth, and gave you our pledges and promises of allegiance and obedience. Therefore, march, O Allah's Messenger, for what Allah has commanded you. Verily, by He Who has sent you in Truth, if you decided to cross this sea (the Red Sea), we will follow you in it, and none among us would stay behind. We do not dislike that we meet our enemy tomorrow. Verily, we are patient in war, fierce in battle. May Allah make you witness what makes your eyes pleased with us. And Allah likes not the wrongdoers. And that Allah may test (or purify) the believers (from sins) and destroy the disbelievers. [3:140-141] These are points of wisdom for which Allah has legislated performing Jihad, by the hands of the believers against the disbelievers. Allah used to destroy the previous nations that denied the Prophets, using various disasters that encompassed these rebellious nations. For instance, Allah destroyed the people of Nuh with the flood, Ad with the wind, Thamud with the scream, the people of Lut with an earthquake and the people of Shu'ayb by the Day of the Shadow. After Allah sent Musa and destroyed his enemy Fir'aun and his soldiers by drowning, He sent down the Tawrah to him in which He legislated fighting against the disbelievers, and this legislation remained in the successive Laws. Allah said, 'And indeed We gave Musa - after We had destroyed the generations of old - the Scripture as an enlightenment.' [28:43] It is more humiliating for the disbeliever and more comforting to the hearts of the faithful that the believers kill the disbelievers by their own hands. Allah said to the believers of this Ummah, 'That is, they will recognize their places, as they did in the worldly life'

Al-Anfal (9 - 10) (Part-9) Fight against them so that Allah will punish them by your hands, and disgrace them, and give you victory over them, and heal the breasts of a believing people. [9: 14] This is why killing the disbelievers of Quraysh by the hand of their enemies, whom they used to despise, was more humiliating to the disbelievers and comforting to the hearts of the party of faith. Abu Jahl, for instance, was killed in battle and this was more humiliating for him than dying in his bed, or from lightning, wind, or similar afflictions. Also, Abu Lahab died from a terrible disease [that caused him to stink] and none of his relatives could bear approaching him. They had to wash him with water by sprinkling it from a distance, then threw stones over his corpse, until it was buried under them! Allah said next, 'Verily, Allah is All-Mighty the might is His, His Messengers and the believers, both in this life and the Hereafter. Allah said in another Ayah, 'We will indeed make victorious Our Messengers and those who believe, in this world's life and on the Day when the witnesses will stand forth (Day of Resurrection).' [40:51] Allah said next, 'All-Wise . in that He legislated fighting the disbeliever, even though He is able to destroy them and bring their demise by His will and power, all praise and honor is due to Him. (Remember) when He covered you with a slumber as a security from Him, and He caused water (rain) to descend on

Al-Anfal (11 - 14) (Part-9) heart. Slumber overcame the believers on the day of Uhud, and this incident is very well-known. As for this Ayah (8:11), it is describing the battle of Badr, indicating that slumber also overcame the believers during Badr. Therefore, it appears that this will occur for the believers, whenever they are in distress, so that their hearts feel safe and sure of Allah's aid, rewards, favor and mercy from Allah with them. Allah said in another Ayah, 'Verily, along with every hardship is relief. Verily, along with every hardship is relief.' (94:5-6) In the Sahih, it is recorded that on the day of Badr, while he was in the bunker with Abu Bakr, the Messenger and Abu Bakr were invoking Allah. Suddenly, slumber overcame the Messenger and he woke up smiling and declared, 'Good news, O Abu Bakr! This is Jibril with dust on his shoulders.' He left the shade while reciting Allah's statement, iTheir multitude will be put to flight, and they will show their backs.} [54:45] Rain fall on the Eve of Badr Allah said next, iand He caused rain to descend on you from the sky.} Ali bin Abi Jahlah reported that Ibn Abbas said, When the Prophet arrived at Badr, he made camp. frustration into their hearts. He whispered to them, You claim that you are Allah s supporters and that His Messenger is among you! However, the idolaters have taken over the water resource from you, while you pray needing purity. Allah sent down heavy rain, allowing the Muslims to drink and use it for purity. Allah also removed Shaytan s whisper and made the sand firm when rain fell on it, and the Muslims walked on the sand along with their animals, until they reached the enemy. Allah supported His Prophet and the believers with a thousand angels on one side, five hundred under the command of Jibril and another five hundred under the command of Mikail on another side. An even a better narration is that collected by Imam Muhammad bin Ishaq bin Yasar, author of Al-Maghazi, may Allah have mercy upon him. Ibn Ishaq narrated that, Yazid bin Ruwman narrated to him that, Thawab bin Az-Zubayr said, Allah sent rain down from the sky on a sandy valley. That rain made the area where the Messenger of Allah jg and his Companions camped firmer so that it did not hinder their movement. Meanwhile, the part that the Quraysh were camping on became difficult to move in. Mujahid said, Allah sent down the rain on the believers before slumber overtook them, and the rain settled the dust, made the ground firmer, made them feel at ease and their feet firmer. Allah said next, iTo clean you thereby} using it after answering the call of nature or needing to wash oneself, and this involves cleansing what is on the outside. }and to remove from you the filth of Shaytan,} such as his whispers and evil thoughts, this involves sinner purification, whereas Allah s statement about the residents of Paradise, 1,1 At-Tabari 13:423. This is the inner purity. Next, Allah said, iand to strengthen your hearts,} with patience and to encourage you to fight the enemies, and this is inner courage, iand make your feet firm thereby}, this involves outer courage. Allah knows best. Allah commands the Angels to fight and support the Believers Allah said next, iIf you (Remember) when your Lord revealed to the angels, "Verily, I am with you, so keep firm those who have believed."} This is a hidden favor that Allah has made known to the believers, so that they thank Him and are grateful to Him for it. Allah, glorified, exalted, blessed and praised be He, has revealed to the angels -whom He sent to support His Prophet, religion and believing group - to make the believers firmer. Allah s statement, iWe will cast terror into the hearts of those who have disbelieved.} means, you - angels - support the believers, strengthen their (battle) front against their enemies, thus, implementing My command to you. I will cast fear, disgrace and humiliation over those who defied My command and denied My Messenger, iWe will strike them over the necks, and smite over all their fingers and toes,} strike them on their foreheads to tear them apart and over the necks to cut them off, and cut off their limbs, hands and feet. It was said that, iover the necks refers to striking the forehead, or the neck, according to

Ad-Dahhak and Atiyyah Al- Awfi. In support of the latter, Allah commanded the believers, * >'V-Mel (il& Pfi \tP P} 4So, when you meet (in fight Jihad in Allah's cause) those who disbelieve, smite (their) necks till when you have killed and wounded many of them, then bind a bond firmly (on them, take them as captives).} [47:4] Ar-Rabl bin Anas said, In the aftermath of Badr, the people used to recognize whomever the angels killed from those whom they killed, by the wounds over their necks, fingers and toes, because those parts had a mark as if they were branded by fire. Allah said, ip p iand smite over all their fingers and toes.} Ibn Jarir commented that this Ayah commands, O believers! Strike every limb and finger on the hands and feet of your (disbelieving) enemies. Al- Awfi reported, that Ibn Abbas said about the battle of Badr that Abu Jahl said, Do not kill them (the Muslims), but capture them so that you make known to them what they did, their ridiculing your religion and shunning Al-Lat and Al-'Uzza (two idols). So that is allowed for him, or even during the battle if he flees from his brigade to the commander. Or going to the grand Imam, would also fall under this permission. There are Hadiths that warn against Fitnah in general, thus providing the correctness of this explanation. Similarly there will be a separate book in which this subject will be discussed, Allah willing, as also is the case with the Imams, there being a number of writings about this. you might be grateful. Reminding Muslims of Their previous State of Weakness and Subjugation which changed into Might and Triumph Allah, the Exalted, reminds His believing servants of His blessings and favors on them. They were few and He made them many, weak and fearful and He provided them with strength and victory. They were meek and poor, and He granted them sustenance and livelihood. He ordered them to be grateful to Him, and they obeyed Him and implemented what He commanded. When the believers were still in Makkah they were few, practicing their religion in secret, oppressed, fearing that pagans, fire worshippers or Romans might kidnap them from the various parts of Allah's earth, for they were all enemies of the Muslims, especially since Muslims were few and weak. Later on, Allah permitted the believers to migrate to Al-Madīnah, where He allowed them to settle in a safe resort. Allah made the people of Al-Madīnah their allies, giving them refuge and support during Badr and other battles. They helped the Migrants with their wealth and gave up their lives in obedience of Allah and His Messenger Qatadah bin Di'amah As-Sadusi commented, / A . \ i And remember when you were few and were reckoned weak in the land,} Arabs were the weakest of the weak, had the toughest life, the emptiest stomachs, the barest skin and the most obvious misguidance. Those who lived among them lived in misery; those who died went to the Fire. They were being eaten up, but unable to eat up others! By Allah! We do not know of a people on the face of the earth at that time who had a worse life than them. When Allah brought Islam, He made it dominant on the earth, thus bringing provisions and leadership for them over the necks of people. It is through Islam that Allah granted all what you see, so thank Him for His favors, for your Lord is One Who bestows favors and likes praise. Verily, those who thank Allah enjoy even more bounties

In the year of the victory of Makkah he wrote to the Quraysh alerting them that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) intended to march towards them. Allah informed His Messenger of this, and he sent a Companion to retrieve the letter that Hatib sent, and then he summoned him. He admitted to what he did. Thumar bin al-Khattab stood up and said, O Allah's Messenger! Should I cut off his head, for he has betrayed Allah, His Messenger and the believers? Certainly, among the wealth and children there might be enemies for you and much of them avail nothing. This last explanation from Ibn Ishaq is more general than the rest that we mentioned, and it also includes the other meanings. Certainly, those who have Taqwa of Allah by obeying what He ordained and abstaining from what he forbade, will be guided to differentiate between the truth and the falsehood. This will be a triumph, safety and a way out for them from the affairs of this life, all the while acquiring happiness in the Hereafter. When they saw him, they asked, Who are you? He said, An old man from Najd. I heard that you are having a meeting, and I wished to attend your meeting. You will benefit from my opinion and advice. They said, Agreed, come in. He entered with them. Iblls said, You have to think about this man (Muhammad)! By Allah, he will soon overwhelm you with his matter (religion). One of them said, Imprison him, restrained in chains, until he dies just like the poets before him all died, such as Zuhayr and An-Nabighah! Verily, he is a poet like they were. The old man from Najd, the enemy of Allah, commented, By Allah! This is not a good idea. His Lord will release him from his prison to his companions, who will liberate him from your hands. They will protect him from you and they might expel you from your land. They said. This old man said the truth. Therefore, seek an opinion other than this one. Another one of them said, Expel him from your land, so that you are free from his trouble! If he leaves your land, you will not be bothered by what he does or where he goes, as long as he is not among you to bring you troubles, he will be with someone else. The old man from Najd replied, *By Allah! This At-Tabari 13:492. (2) At-Tabari 13:491.

Al-Anfal (30) (Part-9) is not a good opinion. Have you forgotten his sweet talk and eloquency, as well as, how his speech captures the hearts? By Allah! This way, he will collect even more followers among Arabs, who will gather against you and attack you in your own land, expel you and kill your chiefs. They said, He has said the truth, by Allah! Therefore, seek an opinion other than this one. Abu Jahl, may Allah curse him, spoke next, *By Allah! I have an idea that no one else has suggested yet, and I see no better opinion for you. Choose a strong, socially elevated young man from each tribe, and give each one of them a sharp sword. Then they would all strike Muhammad at the same time with their swords and kill him. Hence, his blood would be shed by all tribes. This way, his tribe, Banu Hashim, would realize that they cannot wage war against all of the Quraysh tribes and would be forced to agree to accept the blood money; we would have brought comfort to ourselves and stopped him from bothering us. The old man from Najd commented, *By Allah! This man has expressed the best opinion, and I do not support any other opinion. They quickly ended their meeting and started preparing for the implementation of this plan. Jibril came to the Prophet ﷺ and commanded him not to sleep in his bed that night and conveyed to him the news of their plot. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ did not sleep in his house that night, and Allah gave him permission to migrate. After the Messenger migrated to Al-Madinah, Allah revealed to him Surat Al-Anfal reminding him of His favors and the bounties He gave him, ﴿وَإِذْ يُفَصِّلُ الْآيَاتِ لَكُمْ إِذْ يُضَارِبُ الصَّيْحَ بِالسَّحَابِ﴾ (remember) when the disbelievers plotted against you to imprison you, or to kill you, or to expel you (from Makkah); they were plotting and Allah too was plotting; and Allah is the best of plotters. This is when Abdullah bin Abi Rabl'ah, Ikninah bin Abi Jahl, Safwan bin Umayyah and other men from Quraysh who lost their fathers, sons or brothers in Badr, went to Abu Sufyan bin Harb. They said to him, and to those among the Quraysh who had wealth in that caravan, O people of Quraysh! Muhammad has grieved you and killed the chiefs among you. Therefore, help us with this wealth so that we can fight him, it may be that we will avenge our losses. They agreed. 310 Tafsir Ibt Kathir Hakam bin TJaynah, Qatadah, As-Suddi and Ibn Abza said that this Ayah was revealed about Abu Sufyan and his spending money in Uhud to fight the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. Ad-Dahhak said that this Ayah was revealed about the idolaters of Badr. In any case, the Ayah is general, even though there was a specific incident that accompanied its revelation. Allah states here that the disbelievers spend their wealth to hinder from the path of truth. However, by doing that, their money will be spent and then will become a source of grief and anguish for them, availing them nothing in the least. They seek to extinguish the Light of Allah and make their word higher than the word of truth. However, Allah will complete His Light, even though the disbelievers hate it. He will give aid to His religion, make His Word dominant, and His religion will prevail above all religions. This is the disgrace that the disbelievers will taste in this life; and in the Hereafter, they will taste the torment of the Fire. Whoever among them lives long, will witness with his eyes and hear with his ears what causes grief to him. Those among them who are killed or die will be returned to eternal disgrace and the everlasting punishment. This is why Allah said, It is so that they will continue to spend it; but in the end it will become an anguish for them. Then they will be overcome. And those who disbelieve will be gathered unto Hell. Allah said, in order that Allah may distinguish the wicked from the good., meaning recognize the difference between the people of happiness and the people of misery, according to Ibn Abbas, as Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from him. Al-Anfal (37 - 40) (Part-9) distinguishes between those believers who obey Him and fight His disbelieving enemies and those who disobey Him. Allah also affirmed the faith of the believers, just as mentioned in the beginning of this Surah, and that He will reward them with forgiveness and by erasing their sins, if they have any. He also promised them honorable provisions that are abundant, pure, everlasting and eternal; provisions that never end or run out, nor will they ever cause boredom, for they are delightful and come in great varieties. Allah then mentioned that those who follow the path of the believers in faith and performing good deeds, will be with them in the Hereafter. According to Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Ikrimah, Al-Hasan, Qatadah and several others,13* this Ayah abrogated inheriting from those with whom one had ties of treaties or brotherhood, as was the case in the beginning of Islam. So it applies to all relatives, and as for those who do not inherit, then this is supported by the Hadith, . . Al- Bukhari recorded that Abu Hurayrah said, Abu Bakr sent me during that Hajj with those dispatched on the day of Sacrifice to declare in Mina that no Mushrik will be allowed to attend Hajj after that year, nor will a naked person be allowed to perform Tawaf." Humayd said, The Prophet then sent Ali bin Abi Talib and commanded him to announce Bara'ah. Abu Hurayrah said, Ali publicized Bara'ah with us to the gathering in Mina on the day of Sacrifice, declaring that no Mushrik shall perform Hajj after that year, nor shall a naked person perform Tawaf around the House. 1 11

Ali rode the camel of Allah s Messenger % named Al- Adba until he caught up with Abu Bakr in route. When Abu Bakr saw him he said, Are you here as a commander or a follower. Ali replied, A follower. They continued on. Abu Bakr lead the people in Hajj while the Arabs were camping in their normal locations from Jahiliyyah. On the day of Sacrifice, 'Ali bin Abi Talib stood and proclaimed, O people! No disbeliever will be admitted into Paradise, no idolator will be permitted to perform Hajj next year, there shall be no Tawaf while naked, and whoever has a covenant with Allah s Messenger gg, then it shall be valid until its time of expiration. So no idolator performed Hajj after that year, Tawaf around the House while naked ceased. Then they returned to Allah s Messenger jg. So this was the declaration of innocence, whoever among the idolators had no treaty, then he had a treaty of peace for one year, if he had a particular treaty, then it was valid until its date of expiration. ,11 1$ C2p ! & $ ifcs j fc; j* f zgzst & pi# 44. Abu Bakr As-Siddiq used this and other honorable Ayat as proof for fighting those who refrained from paying the Zakdh. These Ayat allowed fighting people unless, and until, they embrace Islam and implement its rulings and obligations. Allah mentioned the most important aspects of Islam here, including what is less important. Surely, the highest elements of Islam after the Two Testimonials, are the prayer, which is the right of Allah, the Exalted and Ever High, then the Zakdh, which benefits the poor and needy. Then Allah did send down His Sakinah (tranquillity) on His Messenger, and on the believers, and sent down farces (angels) which you saw not, and punished the disbelievers. Such is the recompense of disbelievers}. . Then after that Allah will accept the repentance of whom He wills. And Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful .} The Outcome of Victory by Way of the Unseen Aid Ibn Jurayj reported from Mujahid that this was the first Ayah of Bara ah in which Allah, the Exalted, reminds the believers how He favored and blessed them by giving them victory in many battles with His Messenger Allah mentioned that victoiy comes from Him, by His aid and decree, not because of their numbers or adequate supplies, whether the triumphs are few or many. On the day of Hunayn, the Muslims were proud because of their large number, which did not avail them in the least; they retreated and fled from battle. Only a few of them remained with the Messenger of Allah jgAllah then sent down His aid and support to His Messenger jgand the believers who remained with him, so that they were aware that victory is from Allah alone and through His aid, even if the victorious were few. Many a small group overcame a larger opposition by Allah s leave, and Allah is ever with those who are patient. We will explain this subject in detail below, Allah willing. The Battle of Hunayn

The battle of Hunayn occurred after the victoiy of Makkah,

in the month of Shawwal of the eighth year of Hijrah. After the Prophet m conquered Makkah and things settled, most of its people embraced Islam and he set them free. News came to the Messenger of Allah that the tribe of Hawazin were gathering their forces to fight him, under the command of Malik bin Awf An-Nadri, as well as, the entire tribe of Thaqlf, the tribes of Banu Jusham, Banu Sa d bin Bakr, a few people of Awza from Banu Hilal and some people from Bani Amr bin Amir and Awf bin Amir. They brought their women, children, sheep and camels along, in addition to their armed forces and adequate supplies. The Messenger of Allah 3g marched to meet them with the army that he brought to conquer Makkah, ten thousand from the Muhajirin, the Ansar and various Arab tribes. Along with them came the Tulaqa numbering two thousand men. The Messenger ^ took them along to meet the enemy. The two armies met in Humayn, a valley between Makkah and At-Ta if. The battle started in the early part of the morning, when the Huwazin forces, who were lying in ambush, descended on the valley when the Muslims entered. Muslims were suddenly struck by the ambush, the arrows descended on them and the swords struck them. The Huwazin commander ordered them to descend and attack the Muslims as one block, and when they did that, the Muslims retreated in haste, just as Allah described them. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ remained firm in

At-Tawbah (25 - 27) (Part-10) his position while riding his mule, Ash-Shahba . He was leading his mule towards the enemy, while his uncle Al- Abbas was holding its right-hand rope and (his cousin) Abu Sufyan bin Al- Harith bin Abdul-Muttalib was holding the left rope. They tried to hold the mule back so it would not run faster toward the enemy. Meanwhile, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was declaring his name aloud and saying, *O servants of Allah! Come back to me! I am the Messenger of Allah! He repeated these words, O Allah! I am the Prophet, not lying! I am the son of Abdul-Muttalib! There remained between a hundred and eighty Companions with the Prophet ﷺ. These included Abu Bakr, Umar, Al- Abbas, Ali, Al-Fadl bin Abbas, Abu Sufyan bin Al-Harith, Ayman the son of Umm Ayman and Usamah bin Zayd. There were many other Companions, may Allah be pleased with them. The Prophet ﷺ commanded his uncle Al- Abbas, whose voice was rather loud, to call at the top of his voice, O Companions of the Samurah (tree) referring to the Muhajirin and Ansar who gave their pledge under the tree during the pledge of Ridwan, not to run away and retreat. He also called, O Companions of Surat Al-Baqarah. Upon hearing that, those heralded started saying, Here we are! Here we are! Muslims started returning in the direction of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. If the camel of one of them did not obey him (as the people were rushing to the other direction in flight) he would wear his shield and descend from his camel and rush to the side of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ on foot. When a large crowd gathered around the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, he commanded them to fight in sincerity and took a handful of sand and threw it in the faces of the disbelievers, after supplicating to Allah, *O Allah! Fulfill Your promise to me! Then he threw that handful of sand which entered the eyes and mouth of all the disbelievers, thus distracting them from fighting, and they retreated in defeat. The Muslims pursued the enemy, killing and capturing them. The rest of the

remained on the believers who remained with him, and sent down forces which you saw not, $ this refers to angels. Imam Abu Ja'far bin Jarir (At-Tabari) said that Al-Qasim narrated to them, that Al-Hasan bin Arafah said that Al- Mutamir bin Sulayman said from Awf bin Abi Jamillah Al- Arabi who said that he heard Abdur-Rahman, the freed slave of Ibn Barathan saying, A man who participated in Hunayn with the idolaters narrated to me, When we met the Messenger of Allah and his Companions on the day of Hunayn, they did not remain in battle more than the time it takes to milk a sheep! When we defeated them, we pursued them until we ended at the rider of the white mule, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. At that time, men with white handsome faces intercepted us and said: Disgraced be the faces! Go back. So we ran away, but they followed us. That was the end for us. 11 Ulah said, Then after that Allah will accept the repentance of whom He wills. And Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.> Allah forgave the rest of Huwazin when they embraced Islam and went to the Prophet ﷺ, before he arrived at Makkah in the Ji'ranah area. This occurred twenty days after the battle of Hunayn. The Messenger gave them the choice between taking those who were prisoner or the war spoils they lost, and they chose the former. The Prophet ﷺ released six thousand prisoners to them, but divided the war spoils between the victors, such as some of the Tulaqa , so that their hearts would be inclined towards Islam. He gave each of them a hundred camels, and the same to Malik bin Awf An-Nasri whom he appointed chief of his people (Huwazin) as he was before. Malik bin Awf said a poem in which he praised the Messenger of Allah { for his generosity and extraordinary courage. Tabari 14:186.

After the revelation of this Ayah, idolators were no longer allowed to go near the Masjid. This Ayah was revealed in the ninth year of Hijrah. The Messenger of Allah sent Ali in the company of Abu Bakr that year to publicize to the idolators that no Mushrik will be allowed to perform Hajj after that year, nor a naked person allowed to perform Tawaf around the House. Allah completed this decree, made it a legislative ruling, as well as, a fact of reality. Abdur-Razzaq recorded that Jabir bin Abdullah commented on the Ayah, VJt \%Z% Z* SJSJf >{} 40 you who believe! Verily, the Mushrikin are impure. Ata said, All of the Sacred Area [the Haram] is considered a Masjid, for Allah said, $So let them not come near Al-Masjid Al-Haram (at Makkah) after this year.} This Ayah indicates that idolators are impure and that the believers are pure. In the Sahth is the following, "The believer does not become impure.^ Allah said, ift "->>-" AY > - iand if you fear poverty, Allah will enrich you, out of His bounty. Muhammad bin Ishaq commented, The people said, Our markets will be closed, our commerce disrupted, and what we earned will vanish. closed markets that you feared would result. Therefore, Allah compensated them for the losses they incurred because they severed ties with idolators, by the Jizyah they earned from the People of the Book. 1 11 Similar statements were reported from Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Ikrimah, Said bin Jubayr, Qatadah and Ad-Dahhak and others. Allah said, 4'(& si! 6$ 4Surely, Allah is All-Knowing}, in what benefits you, 4All-Wise}, in His orders and prohibitions, for He is All-Perfect in His actions and statements, All-Just in His creations and decisions, Blessed and Hallowed be He. This is why Allah compensated Muslims for their losses by the amount of Jizyah that they took from the people of Dhimmah. The Order to fight People of the Scriptures until They give the Jizyah Allah said, ii' Vj "3j Jit . o* +&$ LhJl 02 Ue. dty-Jt 4fKS- 4Fighl against those who believe not in Allah, nor in the Last Day, nor forbid that which has been forbidden by Allah and His Messenger, and those who acknowledge not the religion of truth among the People of the Scripture, until they pay the Jizyah with willing submission, and feel themselves subdued.} Therefore, when People of the Scriptures disbelieved in Muhammad jg, they had no beneficial faith in any Messenger or what the Messengers

At-Tawbah (28 - 29) (Part-10) religion. Had they been true believers in their religions, that faith would have directed them to believe in Muhammad (ﷺ), because all Prophets gave the good news of Muhammad's advent and commanded them to obey and follow him. Yet when he was sent, they disbelieved in him, even though he is the mightiest of all Messengers. Therefore, they do not follow the religion of earlier Prophets because these religions came from Allah, but because these suit their desires and lusts. Therefore, their claimed faith in an earlier Prophet will not benefit them because they disbelieved in the master, the mightiest, the last and most perfect of all Prophets. Hence Allah's statement, ﴿فَاحْشِرُوا﴾ Fight against those who believe not in Allah, nor in the Last Day, nor forbid that which has been forbidden by Allah and His Messenger, and those who acknowledge not the religion of truth among the People of the Scripture,} This honorable Ayah was revealed with the order to fight the People of the Book, after the pagans were defeated, the people entered Allah's religion in large numbers, and the Arabian Peninsula was secured under the Muslims' control. Allah commanded His Messenger (ﷺ) to fight the People of the Scriptures, Jews and Christians, on the ninth year of Hijrah, and he prepared his army to fight the Romans and called the people to Jihad announcing his intent and destination. The Messenger (ﷺ) sent his intent to various Arab areas around Al-Madīnah to gather forces, and he collected an army of thirty thousand. Some people from Al-Madīnah and some hypocrites, in and around it, lagged behind, for that year was a year of drought and intense heat. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) marched, heading towards Ash-Sham to fight the Romans until he reached Tabuk, where he set camp for about twenty days next to its water resources. He then prayed to Allah for a decision and went back to Al-Madīnah because it was a hard year and the people were weak, as we will mention, Allah willing. Paying Jizyah is a Sign of Kufr and Disgrace Allah said, ﴿وَمَا كُنْزُ الْيَزْيَٰهِ إِلَّا فِي يَدَيْهِمْ﴾ until they pay the Jizyah), if they do not choose to embrace Islam, ﴿وَمَا كُنْزُ الْيَزْيَٰهِ إِلَّا فِي يَدَيْهِمْ﴾ with willing submission in defeat and subservience. ﴿وَمَا كُنْزُ الْيَزْيَٰهِ إِلَّا فِي يَدَيْهِمْ﴾ and feel themselves subdued.), disgraced, humiliated and belittled. For instance, the Jews were respected by the people of Jahiliyyah and collected gifts, taxes and presents from them. When Allah sent His Messenger sg, the Jews persisted in their misguidance, disbelief and rebellion, hoping to keep their status and position. However, Allah extinguished all this and took it away from them with the light of Prophethood and instead gave them disgrace and degradation, and they incurred the anger of Allah, the Exalted. Allah said next, 4and hinder (them) from the way of Allah.} Therefore, they illegally devour people's property and hinder them from following the truth. They also confuse truth with falsehood and pretend before their ignorant followers that they call to righteousness. The true reality is that they call to the Fire and will not find any helpers on the Day of Resurrection. Torment of Those Who hoard Gold and Silver Allah said, iAnd those who hoard [Kanz] gold and silver and spend them not in the way of Allah, announce unto them a painful torment.} [9 :34). This is the third category of leaders, for people rely on their scholars, worshippers and the wealthy among them. When these categories of people become corrupt, the society in general becomes corrupt. Ibn Al-Mubarak once said, What corrupted the religion, except kings and wicked Ahbar and Ruhban." As for Kanz, it refers to the wealth on which Zakah has not been paid, according to Malik, who narrated this from Abdullah bin Dinar from Ibn Umar. 111

Taste you (this)! Verily, you were (pretending to be) the mighty, the generous! } [44:48-49]. There is a saying that goes, He who covets a thing and prefers it to Allah's obedience, will be punished with it. Because hoarding money was better to these people than Allah's pleasure, they were punished with it. For instance, Abu Lahab, may Allah curse him, was especially active in defying the Messenger of Allah and his wife was helping him in this regard. Therefore, on the Day of Resurrection, she will help in punishing him, for there will be a twisted rope of palm fiber on her neck. She will be gathering wood from the Fire and throwing it on him so that his torment is made harder by the hand of someone whom he used to care for in this life. Likewise, money was precious to those who hoarded it in this life. Therefore, money will produce the worst harm for them in the Hereafter, when it will be heated in the Fire of Jahannam, whose heat is quiet sufficient, and their forehead, sides and back will be branded with it. To me, it was so named to emphasize its sacredness. This is because the Arabs would switch it around. One year they would say it was a sacred month, the following year they would say that it was not. The author said, ...and Safar is so named because they used to leave their homes during that month for fighting and traveling. When saying Safar a place, it means to leave it... RabT Al-Awwal is called that because they used to do Irtibd in it, that is to maintain one s property... and Rabi' Al-Akhir, was so named for the same reasons. Jumada is called that because the water would dry up (Jamud) then....They say Jumada Al-Uwla and Al- Awwal, or Jumada Al-Akhar or Al-Akhirah. Rajab comes from Tarfib, meaning to honor. Shaban because the tribes would separate and return to their homes. Ramadan was so named because of the severity of the Ramda - that is - the heat, and they say that the branch Ramadat when it is thirsty...And the 5:37. 121 Path Al-Bari 8 :175 , 6 :338 and 10:10 and Muslim 3 :1305 saying that it is a Name of Allah is a mistake, for there is no proof or support for that... The Sacred Months Allah said, iof them four are sacred The Arabs used to consider these months sacred during the time of JahUiyyah, except for a group of them called Al-Basl, who held eight months of the year to be sacred as way ofexaggeration in religion. The Prophet sg said, jLOj Three are in succession; Dhul-Qa'dah, Dhul-Hijjah and Multarram, and (the fourth is) Rajah [of (the tribe of) Mudar which comes between Jumada (Ath-Thdni)] and Sha'bdm.

The Prophet jg said Rajab ofMudar to attest to the custom of Mudar, in saying that Rajab is the month that is between Jumada and ShaTaan, not as the tribe of Rabi'ah thought, that it is between ShaTaan and Shawwal, which is Ramadan in the present calendar. The four Sacred Months were made four, three in succession and one alone, so that the Hajj and Umrah are performed with ease. Dhul-Qa dah, the month before the Hajj month, was made sacred because they refrained from fighting during that month. Dhul-Hijjah, the next month, was made sacred because it is the month of Hajj, during which they performed Hajj rituals. Muharram, which comes next, was made sacred so that they are able to go back to their areas in safety [after performing Hajj\]. Rajab, in the middle of the lunar year, was made sacred so that those coming from the farthest areas ofArabia are able to perform Umrah and visit the House and then go back to their areas safely. Allah said next, iThat is the right religion that is the Straight Law, requiring implementing Allah s order concerning the months that He made sacred and their true count as it was originally written by Allah. Allah said, i'^sC* Irtf, iA iso wrong not yourselves therein) during these Sacred Months, for sin in them is worse than sin in other months. Sacred Months is worse and graver than injustice in other months. Verily, injustice is always wrong, but Allah makes things graver than others as He will. He also said, Allah has chosen some of His creation above others. He chose Messengers from angels and from men. He also chose His Speech above all speech, the Masajid above other areas of the earth, Ramadan and the Sacred Months above all months, Friday above the other days and Laylatul-Qadr (The Night of Decree) above all nights. As for the Messenger of Allah 36 laying siege to At-Ta if until the Sacred Month started, it was a continuation of the battle against Hawazin and their allies from Thaqif. They started the fighting and gathered then-men for the purpose of conducting war. The Messenger of Allah 3g marched to meet them and when they took refuge in At-Ta if, the Prophet jg laid siege to them so that they descend from their forts, but they inflicted casualties on Muslims. The siege continued for about forty days, during which a Sacred Month began, and the siege continued for several days in that month. The Messenger jg broke the siege and went back (to Makkah). So fighting that carries over into it [the Sacred Month] is not the same as initiating warfare during it, Allah knows best. %%% ifc T 4 i< 3&-JI 4 ifj-ii 't ii() > i ^ pj^- !* lit pj"- U li.

437. The postponing (of a Sacred Month) is indeed an addition to disbelief: thereby the disbelievers are led astray, for they make it lawful one year and forbid it another year in order to adjust the number ofmonthsforbidden by Allah, and make such forbidden ones lawful. The evil of their deeds is made fair-seeming to them. And Allah guides not the people who disbelieve.} Admonishing the Preference of Opinion in a Religious Matter Allah admonishes the idolators for choosing their wicked opinions over Allah s Law. They changed Allah s legislation based upon their vain desires, allowing what Allah prohibited and prohibiting what Allah allowed. They thought that three consecutive sacred months were rather long for them to remain without fighting, for they were full of anger and rage. This is why before Islam they innovated a change in the Sacred Month of Muharram, delaying it to the month of Safari

Therefore, they allowed fighting in the Sacred Month and made the non-sacred month sacred, to make the Sacred Months in a year four, as Allah decided! Ali bin Abi Talhah said that Ibn Abbas commented on Allah's statement, {The postponing (of a Sacred Month) is indeed an addition to disbelief}, Junadah bin Awf bin Umayyah Al-Kinani, known as Abu Thumamah, used to attend the Hajj season every year and declare, Abu Thumamah is never rejected nor refuted!, and he used to treat Safar as sacred for people one year [and un-sanctify Muharram] and treat Muharram as sacred another year [and un-sanctify Safar in that year]. This is why Allah said, {The postponing (of a Sacred Month) is indeed an addition to disbelief.} Allah says, They allow Muharram one year and make it sacred another year. ' Al-'Awfi narrated a similar statement from Ibn Abbas.¹² Layth bin Abi Sulaym narrated that Mujahid said, There was a man from Bani Kinanah who would attend the Hajj season every year riding his donkey. He would proclaim, O people! I am never rejected, denied or refuted in what I say. We made this coming Muharram sacred, and Safar not! The following year he would come again and declare the same words then say, *We made this coming Safar sacred and delayed Muharram (revoked its sanctity). This is the meaning of Allah's statement, in order to adjust the number of months forbidden by Allah, to four months. Allah says, They allow what Allah disallowed by delaying the Sacred Month. ¹³ The idolators used to allow Muharram one year and sanctify Safar in its place. They would continue the months of the year according to their normal count and names. The next year they would sanctify Muharram and continue the year, Safar, Rabi', until the end of the year. They make it lawful one year and forbid it another year in order to adjust the number of months forbidden by Allah, and make such forbidden ones lawful.) Therefore, they would still sanctify four months every year, but would one year sanctify the third from the three consecutive Sacred Months, Muharram, and postpone and delay it another year to Safar. In his book of Sirah, Imam Muhammad bin Ishaq presented a very useful beneficial discussion on this matter. He said; The first to start the practice of overlooking the sanctity of months for the Arabs, thus allowing what Allah sanctified of them and sanctifying what Allah allowed of them, was Al-Qalammas. He was Hudhayfah bin Abd Fuqaym bin Adi bin At-Tabari 14:245. ' At-Tabari 14:246. ' At-Tabari 14:246.

At-Tawbah (37) (Part-10 Amr bin Thalabah bin Al-Harith bin Malik bin Kinanah bin Khuzaymah bin Mudrikah bin Ilyas bin Mudar bin Nizar bin Ma'dd bin Adnan. His son Abbad maintained this practice, then after him his son Qala bin Abbad did the same, Then his son Umayyah bin Qala', then his son Awf bin Umayyah, then his son Abu Thumamah Junadah bin Awf. He was the last one of his sons (to continue this practice) before Islam. The Arabs used to gather around him when Haft finished, and he would stand and give them a speech in which he sanctifies Rajab, Dhul-Qadah and Dhul-Hijjah. He would defer the sanctity of Muharram to Safar one year and uphold its sanctity another year, so as to appear upholding the number (of Sacred Months) Allah made sacred. Therefore, he would allow what Allah prohibited and prohibit what Allah allowed. , Allah knows best. Ijfl JI ZZ& ft i H$ C IP'. 'Il - jgi\ 4 TgSt qlf ^ iLiCP \j. O you who believe! Allah mentioned the expenditures of Zakah in this Ayah, starting with the Fuqara' (the poor) because they have more need than the other categories, since their need is pressing and precarious. It was reported that Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Al-Hasan Al-Basri, Ibn Zayd and several others said that the Fatpr is a graceful person who does not ask anyone for anything, while the Miskin is the one who follows after people, begging. Qatadah said, The Fatpr is the ill person, while the Miskin. is physically fit. ' We will now mention theTabari 14:305-306. At-Tabari 14:306.

At-Tawbah (60) (Part-10) discard Al-Mu allafatu Quffibuhum There are several types of Al-Mu allafatu Qulubuhum. There are those who are given alms to embrace Islam. For instance, the Prophet of Allah gave something to Safwan bin Umayyah from the war spoils of Hunayn, even though he attended it while a Mushrik. Safwan said, He kept giving me until he became the dearest person to me after he had been the most hated person to me. '21 Imam some of his peers might embrace Islam, while others are given to collect alms from surrounding areas, or to defend Muslim outposts. Allah knows best. TheRiqab Al-Hasan Al-Basri, Muqatil bin Hayyan, Umar bin Abdul- Aziz, Said bin Jubayr, An-Nakhal, Az-Zuhri and Ibn Zayd said Riqab means those slaves who make an agreement with the master to pay a certain ransom for their freedom. 111 Similar was reported from Abu Musa Al-Ash ari . Ibn Abbas and Al-Hasan said, It is allowed to use Zakah funds to buy the freedom of slaves, indicating that Riqab has more general meanings than merely giving money to slaves to buy their freedom or one s buying a slave and freeing him on an individual basis. A Hadith states that for every limb [of the servant) freed, Allah frees a limb of the one who freed him from slavery, even a sexual organ for a sexual organ, for the reward is equitable to the deed, 'ply iAtid you will be requited nothing except Jbr what you used to do.) [Tafsir Ibn Kathir (Abridged), Darussalam English Edition, PDF pp. 2385–2397]

before the Messenger of Allah jg migrated to Al-Madlnah, there was a man from Al-Khazraj called Abu Amir Ar-Rahib (the Monk). This man embraced Christianity before Islam and read the Scriptures. During the time of Jahiliyyah, Abu Amir was known for being a worshipper and being a notable person among Al-Khazraj. When the Messenger of Allah jgg arrived at Al-Madlnah after the Hijrah, the Muslims gathered around him and the word of Islam was triumphant on the day of Badr, causing Abu Amir, the cursed one, to choke on his own saliva and announce his enmity to Islam. He fled from Al-Madlnah to the idolators of Quraysh in Makkah to support them in the war against the Messenger of Allah jgj. The Quraysh united their forces and the bedouins who joined them for the battle of Uhud, during which Allah tested the Muslims, but the good end is always for the pious and righteous people. The rebellious Abu Amir dug many holes in the ground between the two camps, into one of which the Messenger sg fell, injuring his face and breaking one of his right lower teeth. He also sustained a head injury. Before the fighting started, Abu Amir approached his people among the Ansar and tried to convince them to support and agree with him. When they recognized him, they said, "May Allah never burden an eye by seeing you, O Fasiq one, O enemy of Allah! They cursed him and he went back declaring, By Allah! Evil has touched my people after I left. The Messenger of Allah called Abu Amir to Allah and recited the Qur'an to him before his flight to Makkah, but he refused to embrace Islam and rebelled. The Messenger jg invoked Allah

At-Taivbah (107 - 108) (Part-11 that Abu Amir die as an outcast in an alien land, and his invocation came true. After the battle of Uhud was finished, Abu Amir realized that the Messenger's call was still rising and gaining momentum, so he went to Heraclius, the emperor of Rome, asking for his aid against the Prophet jg. Heraclius gave him promises and Abu Amir remained with him. He also wrote to several of his people in Al-Madlnah, who embraced hypocrisy, promising and insinuating to them that he will lead an army to fight the Messenger of Allah sg to defeat him and his call. He ordered them to establish a stronghold where he could send his emissaries and to serve as an outpost when he joins them later on. These hypocrites built a Masjid next to the Masjid in Quba, and they finished building it before the Messenger jg went to Tabuk. They went to the Messenger g inviting him to pray in their Masjid so that it would be a proof that the Messenger jg approved of their Masjid. They told him that they built the Masjid for the weak and ill persons on rainy nights. However, Allah prevented His Messenger jg from praying in that Masjid. He jg said to them, "4 (jl j IS) IfZlj Jct tjs- U|D "/" we come back from our travel, Allah willing." When the Messenger of Allah jg came back from Tabuk and was approximately one or two days away from Al-Madlnah, Jibril came down to him with the news about Masjid Ad-Dirar and the disbelief and division between the believers, who were in Masjid Quba (which was built on piety from the first day), that Masjid Ad-Dirar was meant to achieve. Therefore, the Messenger of Allah sent some people to Masjid Ad-Dirar to bring it down before he reached Al-Madlnah. Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas said about this Ayah (9:107), They are some people of the Ansar to whom Abu Amir said, Build a Masjid and prepare whatever you can of power and weapons, for I am headed towards Caesar, emperor of Rome, to bring Roman soldiers with whom I will expel Muhammad and his companions. When they built their Masjid, they went to the Prophet jg and said to him, We finished building our Masjid and we would like you pray in it and invoke Allah for us for His blessings. Allah revealed this verse, iNever stand you therein}, until, 4 . . . wrongdoers} (11 Allah said next, 4they will indeed swearK those who built it, 4iP"" ! They made it an outpost for those who warred against Allah and His Messenger 3jg, such as Abu Amir the Fasiq who used to be called Ar- Rahib, may Allah curse him! Allah said, 4Never stand you therein}, prohibiting His Prophet and his Ummah from ever standing in it in prayer. Virtues of Masjid Quba Allah encouraged His Prophet 5gl to pray in Masjid Quba which, from the first day, was built on Taqwa, obedience to Allah and His Messenger jg, for gathering the word of the believers and as an outpost and a fort for Islam and its people. the battle of Tabuk with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. Ka*b bin

Malik said, I did not remain behind Allah's Messenger ﷺ in any battle that he fought except the battle of Tabuk. I failed to take part in the battle of Badr, but Allah did not admonish anyone who did not participate in it, for in fact, Allah's Messenger ﷺ had gone out in search of the caravan of Quraysh, until Allah made the Muslims and their enemies meet without any appointment. I witnessed the night of Al-Aqabah pledge with Allah's Messenger ﷺ when we pledged for Islam, and I would not exchange it for the Badr Battle, even though the Badr Battle is more popular among the people than the Aqabah pledge. As for my news of this battle of Tabuk, I was never stronger or wealthier than I was when I remained behind Allah's Messenger in that battle. By Allah, never had I two she-camels before, but I did at the time of that battle. Whenever Allah's Messenger > , wanted to go to a battle, he used to hide his intention by referring to different battles, until it was the time of that battle (of Tabuk) which Allah's Messenger ﷺ fought in intense heat, facing a long journey, the desert, and the great number of enemy soldiers. So the Prophet ﷺ clearly announced the destination to the Muslims, so that they could prepare for their battle, and he told them about his intent. Allah's Messenger ﷺ was accompanied by such a large number of Muslims that they could not be listed in a book by name, nor registered. Ka*b added,

Any man who intended not to attend the battle would think that the matter would remain hidden, unless Allah revealed it through divine revelation. Allah's Messenger fought that battle at a time when the fruits had ripened and the shade was pleasant, and I found myself inclined towards that. Allah's Messenger and his Companions prepared for the battle and I started to go out in order to get myself ready along with them, but I returned without doing anything. I would say to myself, can I do that if I want. So I kept on delaying it every now and then until the people were prepared, and Allah's Messenger and the Muslims along with him, departed. But I had not prepared anything for my departure. I said, I will prepare myself (for departure) one or two days after him, and then join them. In the morning following their departure, I went out to get myself ready but returned having done nothing. Then again, the next morning, I went out to get ready but returned without doing anything. Such was the case with me until they hurried away and I missed the battle. Even then I intended to depart to catch up to them. I wish I had done so! But such was not the case. So, after the departure of Allah's Messenger, whenever I went out and walked among the people (who remained behind), it grieved me that I could see none around me, but one accused of hypocrisy or one of those weak men whom Allah had excused. Allah's Messenger did not remember me until he reached Tabuk. So while he was sitting among the people in Tabuk, he said, "What did Ka'b bin Malik do?" A man from Banu Salimah said, O Allah's Messenger! He has been stopped by his two Burdah (garments) and looking at his own flanks with pride. Mu'adh bin Jabal said, What a bad thing you have said! By Allah! O Allah's Messenger! We know nothing about him but that which is good. Allah's Messenger kept silent. Ka'b bin Malik added, When I heard that Allah's Messenger was on his way back to Al-Madina, I was overcome by concern and began to think of false excuses. I said to myself, How can I escape from his anger tomorrow? I started looking for advice from wise members of my family in this matter. When it was said that Allah's Messenger had approached (Al-Madina) all evil and false excuses abandoned my mind and I knew well that I could never come out of this problem by forging a false statement. Then I decided firmly to speak the truth. Allah's Messenger arrived in the morning, and whenever he returned from a journey, he used to visit the Masjid first, and offer a two Rak'ah prayer, then sit for the people. So when he had done all that (this time), those who failed to join the battle came and started offering (false) excuses and taking oaths before him. They were over eighty men. Allah's Messenger accepted the excuses they expressed outwardly, asked for Allah's forgiveness for them and left the secrets of their hearts for Allah to judge. Then I came to him, and when I greeted him, he smiled a smile of an angry person and then said,

Come so I came walking until I sat before him. He said to me, "Did I stop you from joining us? Had you not purchased an animal for carrying you?" I answered, Yes, O Allah's Messenger! By Allah, if I were sitting before any person from among the people of the world other than you, I would have escaped from his anger with an excuse. By Allah, I have been bestowed with the power of speaking fluently and eloquently, but by Allah, I knew well that if I tell you a lie today to seek your favor, Allah would surely make you angry with me in the near future. But if I tell you the truth, though you will get angry because of it, I hope for Allah's forgiveness. By Allah, I had never been stronger or wealthier than I was when I remained behind you. Allah's Messenger said, "As regards to this man, he has surely told the truth. So get up until Allah decides your case. I got up, and many men of Banu Salimah followed me and said to me, *By Allah, we never witnessed you commit any sin before this! Surely, you failed to offer an excuse to Allah's Messenger ﷺ like the others who did not join him. The invocation of Allah's Messenger to Allah to forgive you would have been sufficient for your sin. By Allah, they continued blaming me so much that I intended to return (to the Prophet ﷺ) and accuse myself of having told a lie, but I said to them, Is there anybody else who has met the same end as I have? They replied, Yes, there are two men who have said the same thing as you have, and to both of them was given the same order as given to you. I said, Who are they? They replied, Murarah bin Ar-Rabf Al- Amiri and Hilal bin Umayyah Al-Waqifi. They mentioned to me two pious men who had attended the battle of Badr and in whom there was an example for me. So I did not change my mind when they mentioned them to me. Allah's Messenger ﷺ forbade all the Muslims from talking to us, the three aforesaid persons, out of all those who remained behind for that battle. So we kept away from the people and they changed their attitude towards us until the very land (where I 534 Tafsir Ibtt Kathir lived) appeared strange to me as if I did not know it. We remained in that condition for fifty nights. As for my two companions, they remained in their houses and kept on weeping, but I was the youngest and the firmest of them. So I would go out and attend the prayer along with the Muslims and roam the markets, but none would talk to me. I would come to Allah's Messenger ﷺ and greet him while he was sitting in his gathering after the prayer, and I would wonder whether he even moved his lips in return of my greeting or not. Then I would offer my prayer near him and look at him carefully. When I was busy with my prayer, he would turn his face towards me, but when I turned my face to him, he would turn his face away from me. When this harsh attitude and boycott of the people continued for a long time, I walked until I scaled the wall of the garden of Abu Qatadah who was my cousin and the dearest person to me. I offered my greeting to him. By Allah, he did not return my greetings. I said, O Abu Qatadah! I beseech you by Allah! Do you know that I love Allah and His Messenger? He kept quiet. I asked him again, beseeching him by Allah, but he remained silent. I asked him again in the Name of Allah and he said, Allah and His Messenger know better. Thereupon my eyes flowed with tears and I returned and jumped over the wall. While I was walking in the market of Al-Madlnah, suddenly I saw that a Nabatean from Ash-Sham came to sell his grains in Al-Madlnah, saying, Who will lead me to Ka*b bin Malik? The people began to point (me) out for him, until he came to me and handed me a letter from the king of Ghassan (who ruled Syria for Caesar), for I knew how to read and write. In that letter, the following was written: To proceed, I have been informed that your friend (the Prophet) has treated you harshly. Anyhow, Allah does not make you live in a place where you feel inferior and your right is lost. So, join us, and we will console you. When I read it, I said to myself, This is also a sort of test. I took the letter to the oven and made a fire burning it. When forty out of the fifty nights elapsed, behold! There came to me a messenger of Allah's Messenger ﷺ saying Allah's Messenger orders you to keep away from your wife. I said, Should I divorce her; or else what should I do? He said, No, only keep aloof from her and do not mingle with her.

At-Tawbah (118 - 119) (Part-11) The Prophet ﷺ sent the same message to my two fellows. I said to my wife, Go to your parents and remain with them until Allah gives His verdict in this matter. Ka*b added, The wife of Hilal bin Umayyah came to Allah's Messenger ﷺ and said, O Allah's Messenger! Hildl bin Umayyah is a helpless old man who has no servant to attend on him. Do you dislike that I should serve him? He said, v'] jfij 'No (you can serve him), but he should not come near you [sexually. She said, *By Allah! He has no desire for anything. By Allah, he has never ceased weeping since his case began until this day of his. On that, some of my family members said to me, Will you also ask Allah's Messenger to permit your wife (to serve you) as he has permitted the wife of Hilal bin Umayyah to serve him? I said, *By Allah, I will not ask permission of Allah's Messenger ^ regarding her, for I do not know what Allah's Messenger jg would say if I asked him to permit her (to serve me) while I am a young man. We remained in that state for ten more nights, until the period of fifty nights was completed, starting from the time when Allah's Messenger jg prohibited the people from talking to us. When I had finished the Fajr prayer on the fiftieth morning on the roof of one of four houses, while sitting in the condition in which Allah described (in the Qur'an): my very soul seemed straitened to me and even the earth seemed narrow to me for all its spaciousness. There I heard the voice of a man who had ascended the mountain of Sal' calling with his loudest voice, O Kah bin Malik! Be happy (by receiving good tidings). I fell down in prostration before Allah, realizing that relief has come with His forgiveness for us. Allah's Messenger jg announced the acceptance of our repentance by Allah after Fajr prayer. The people went out to congratulate us. Some bearers of good news went to my two companions, a horseman came to me in haste, while a man from Banu Aslam came running and ascended the mountain and his voice was swifter than the horse. When the man whose voice I had heard, came to me conveying the good news, I took off my garments and dressed him with them; and by Allah, I owned no other than them on that day. Then I borrowed two

538 Tafsir Ibtt Kathir gave us His judgement about it. As for that Allah said, "!"#. m > iAnd (He did forgive also) the three who stayed behind...}

What Allah said does not discuss our failure to take part in the battle, but to the deferment of making a decision by the Prophet about our case, in contrast to the case of those who had taken an oath before him, and he excused them by accepting their excuses. This is an authentic Hadith collected in the Two Sahls (Al- Bukhari and Muslim) and as such, its authenticity is agreed upon. ' This Hadith contains the explanation of this honorable Ayah in the best, most comprehensive way. Similar explanation was given by several among the Salaf. For instance, Al-A mash narrated from Abu Sufyan, from Jabir bin Abdullah about Allah s statement, ityr iAnd (He didforgive also) the three who stayed behind...} They are Ka b bin Malik, Hilal bin Umayyah and Murarah bin Ar-Rabl , all of them from the Ansar. The Order to speak the Truth Allah sent His relief from the distress and grief that struck these three men, because Muslims ignored them for fifty days and nights, until they themselves, and the earth - vast as it is - were straitened for them. As vast as the earth is, its ways and paths were closed for them, and they did not know what action to take. They were patient for Allah s sake and awaited humbly for His decree. They remained firm, until Allah sent His relief to them since they told the Messenger of Allah 3g the truth about why they remained behind, declaring that they did not have an excuse for doing so. They were requited for this period, then Allah forgave them. Therefore, the consequence of being truthful was better for them, for they gained forgiveness. Hence Allah s statement next, *x * Ahmad 3:456. * Fath Al-Bari 8 :193 and Muslim 4 :2121Tabaii 14:544.

Allah the Exalted here explains His order to Muslims to march forth with the Messenger of Allah sg for the battle of Tabuk. We should first mention that a group of the Salaf said that marching along with the Messenger jg, when he went to battle, was at first obliged on all Muslims, because, as they say, Allah said, 4'^ : i) iMarch forth, whether you are light or heavy> [9:41], and, 4It was not becoming of the people of Al-Madinah and the bedouins of the neighborhood...} [9:120]. However, they said, Allah abrogated this ruling (9:41 and 9:120) when He revealed this Ayah, [9:122]. However, we could say that this Ayah explains Allah s order to participate in battle on all Arab neighborhoods, that at least a group of every tribe should march for Jihad. Those who went with the Messenger sg would gain instructions and studies in the revelation that came down to him, and warn their people about that battle when they returned to them. This way, the group that went with the Prophet jg will achieve both goals [Jihad and learning the revelation from the Prophet jg]. After the Prophet 5g, a group of every tribe or neighborhood should seek religious knowledge or perform Jihad, for in this case, Jihad is required from at least a part of each Muslim community. Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from Ibn Abbas about the Ayah, 4And it is not (proper) for the believers to go out (to fight - Jihad) all together.} The believers should not all go to battle and leave the Prophet g alone, 40/every troop of them, a party only should go forth in the expeditions that the Prophet sg sent. When these armies returned to the Prophet, jg who in the meantime received 544 Tafstr Ibn Kathir revealed parts of the Qur an from Allah, the group who remained with the Prophet sg would have learned that revelation from him. They would say, Allah has revealed some parts of the Qur an to your Prophet and we learned it. Qatadah said about this Ayah, It is about when the Messenger of Allah jg sent an army; Allah commanded them to go into battle, while another group remained with the Messenger of Allah sg to gain instructions in the religion. Another group returns to its own people to call them (to Allah) and warn them against Allah s punishment of those who were before them. It was also said that this verse, ^ Kb 4And it is not (proper) for the believers to go out all together.} is not about joining Jihad. They say that the Messenger of Allah invoked Allah against Mudar to try them with years of famine, and their lands were struck by famine. The various tribes among them started to come, entire tribes at a time, to Al-Madlnah, because of the hardship they faced and they would falsely claim that they are Muslims. This caused hardship for the Companions of the Messenger jg and Allah revealed to him that they are not believers. The Messenger of Allah jg sent them back to their tribes and warned their people not to repeat what they did. Fight those of the disbelievers who are close to you, and let them find harshness in you; and know that Allah is with those who have Taqwd.} The Order for Jihad against the Disbelievers, the Closest, then the Farthest Areas Allah commands the believers to fight the disbelievers, the closest in area to the Islamic state, then the farthest. This is why the Messenger of Allah started fighting the idolaters in the Arabian Peninsula. When he finished with them and Allah gave him control over Makkah, Al-Madlnah, At-Ta if, Yemen, Yamamah, Hajar, Khaybar, Hadramawt and other Arab provinces, and the various Arab tribes entered Islam in large crowds, he then started fighting the People of the Scriptures. He began preparations to fight the Romans who were the closest in area to the Arabian Peninsula, and as such, had the most right to be called to Islam, especially since they were from the People of the Scriptures. The Prophet ﷺ marched until he reached Tabuk and went back because of the extreme hardship, little rain and little supplies. This battle occurred on the ninth year after his Hijrah. In the tenth year, the Messenger of Allah was busy with the Farewell Hajj. The Messenger died eighty-one days after he returned from that Hajj, Allah chose him for what He had prepared for him [in Paradise]. After his death, his executor, friend, and Khalifah, Abu Bakr As-Siddiq, may Allah be pleased with him, became the leader. At that time, the religion came under attack and would have been defeated, if it had not been for the fact that Allah gave the religion firmness through Abu Bakr, who established its basis and made its foundations firm. He brought those who strayed from the religion back to it, and made those who reverted from Islam return. He took the Zakah from the evil people who did not want to pay it, and explained the truth to those who were unaware of it. On behalf of the

At-Tawbah (123) (Part-11) Prophet ﷺ, Abu Bakr delivered what he was entrusted with. Then, he started preparing the Islamic armies to fight the Roman cross worshippers, and the Persian fire worshippers. By the blessing of his mission, Allah opened the lands for him and brought down Caesar and Kisra and those who obeyed them among the servants. Abu Bakr spent their treasures in the cause of Allah, just as the Messenger of Allah ﷺ had foretold would happen. This mission continued after Abu Bakr at the hands of the one whom Abu Bakr chose to be his successor, Al-Farooq, the Martyr of the Mihrab} 1 ^ Abu Hafs, Umar bin Al-Khattab, may Allah be pleased with him. With Umar, Allah humiliated the disbelievers, suppressed the tyrants and hypocrites, and opened the eastern and western parts of the world. The treasures of various countries were brought to Umar from near and far provinces, and he divided them according to the legitimate and accepted method. Umar then died as a martyr after he lived a praise worthy life. Then, the Companions among the Muhajirin and Ansar agreed to choose after Umar, Uthman bin Affan, Leader of the faithful and Martyr of the House, may Allah be pleased with him. During Uthman's reign, Islam wore its widest garment and Allah's unequivocal proof was established in various parts of the world over the necks of the servants. Islam appeared in the eastern and western parts of the world and Allah's Word was elevated and His religion apparent. The pure religion reached its deepest aims against Allah's enemies, and whenever Muslims overcame an Ummah, they moved to the next one, and then the next one, crushing the tyrannical evil doers. They did this in reverence to Allah's statement, "O you who believe! Fight those of the disbelievers who are close to you," Allah said next, "Place of worship, where a Zoroastrian disbeliever assassinated Umar while he was leading the Muslims in prayer.

548 Tafsir Ibn Kathir 4 and let them find harshness in you}, meaning, let the disbelievers find harshness in you against them in battle. The complete believer is he who is kind to his believing brother, and harsh with his disbelieving enemy. Allah said in other Ayah, "Allah will bring a people whom He will love and they will love Him; humble towards the believers, stern towards the disbelievers . . . [5:54], Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah . And those who are with him are severe against the disbelievers, and merciful among themselves ."[48:29], and, "Prophet! Strive hard against the disbelievers and the hypocrites, and be harsh against them." [9:73] Allah said, "And know that Allah is with those who have Taqwa}, meaning, fight the disbelievers and trust in Allah knowing that Allah is with you if you fear and obey Him. This was the case in the first three blessed generations of Islam, the best members of this Ummah. Since they were firm on the religion and reached an unsurpassed level of obedience to Allah, they consistently prevailed over their enemies. During that era, victories were abundant, and enemies were ever more in a state of utter loss and degradation. However, after the turmoil began, desires and divisions became prevalent between various Muslim kings, the enemies were eager to attack the outposts of Islam and marched into its territory without much opposition. Then, the Muslim kings were too busy with their enmity for each other. The disbelievers then marched to the capital cities of the Islamic states, after gaining control over many of its areas, in addition to entire Islamic lands. Verily, ownership of all affairs is with Allah in the beginning and in the end. Whenever a just Muslim king stood up and obeyed Allah's orders, all the while trusting in Allah, Allah helped him regain control over some Muslim lands and took back from the enemy what was compatible to his obedience and support to Allah. We ask Allah to help the Muslims gain control over the forelocks of His disbeliever enemies and to raise high the word of Muslims over all lands. Verily, Allah is Most Generous, Most Giving. ip\:/Jl uti ui[JjiS Vyt t tyj} Qj $ % 4124.* And whenever there comes down a Surah, some of them (hypocrites) say: "Which of you has had his faith increased by it? Allah said next, iBut as for those in whose hearts is a disease, it will add Rijs to their Rijs the Surah increases them in doubt, and brings more suspicion on top of the doubts and suspicion that they had before. 4And angels shall enter unto them from every gate (saying): "Salamun 'Alaykum (peace be upon you)! 4 [13:23-24) In Allah s statement, 4And the close of their request will be: All praise is due to Allah, the Lord ofall that exists."4 There is an indication that Allah Almighty is the Praised One always, the Worshipped at all times. This is why He praised Himself at the beginning and the duration of His creation. He also praised Himself in the beginning of His Book and the beginning of its revelation.

Allah said: 4AU the praises and thanks be to Allah, Who has sent down to His servant the Book (the Qur'an).> [18:1], oy1 - J ifjii aL ai Xl 4AU praise is due to Allah, Who (alone) created the heavens and the earth, [6:1], and many other citations with this meaning. The Ayah also indicates that Allah is the Praised One in this world and in the Hereafter and in all situations. In a Hadith recorded by Muslim: L US iUjI Jjif jit The people of Paradise will be inspired to glorify Allah and praise Him as they instinctively breath . ill. And were Allah to hasten for mankind the evil as He hastens for them the good then they would have been ruined. So We leave those who expect not their meeting with Us, in their trespasses, wandering blindly in distraction.} Allah does not respond to the Requests for Evil like He does with the Requests for Good Allah tells us about His Forbearance and Benevolence with His servants. He does not respond to them when they pray with evil intentions against themselves, their wealth or their children during times of grief or anger. He knows that they do not truly intend evil for themselves so He doesn't respond to them. This is in reality kindness and mercy. On the other hand. He responds to them when they pray for themselves, wealth and money, with good, blessing and growth. Allah has said, iAnd were Allah to hasten for mankind the evil as He hastens for them the good then they would have been ruined.} This means that if He had responded to all of their evil requests, He would have destroyed them. However, people should avoid praying for evil as much as they can. Abu Bakr Al-Bazzar recorded in his Musnad that Jabir said, Allah's Messenger^ said: "Do not pray against yourselves, do not pray against your children, do not pray against your wealth, for your prayer may coincide with a time of response from Allah and Allah will respond to you. This Hadlth was also recorded by Abu Dawud.111 This is giinilflr to what is understood from the following Ayah: ij&i Abu Dawud 2 :185.

Have you then no sense?'ft Obstinacy of the Chiefs of the Quraysh Allah tells us about the obstinacy of the disbelievers of the Quraysh, who were opposed to the message and denied Allah. When the Messenger $g read to them from the Book of Allah and His clear evidence they said to him: Bring a Qur'an other than this. They wanted the Prophet jg to take back this Book and bring them another book of a different style or change it to a different form. So Allah said to His Prophet jg: 4Say : It is not for me to change it on my own accordft This means that it is not up to me to do such a thing. I am but a servant who receives commands. him to do so. The proof of this was that he had not fabricated it himself and that they were incapable of refuting it, and that they should be fully aware of his truthfulness and honesty since he grew up among them, until Allah sent the Message to him. The Prophet was never criticized for anything or held in contempt. So he said.

576 Tafsir Ibn Kathir iVerily, I have stayed among you a lifetime before this. Have you then no sense?} Which meant don t you have brains with which you may distinguish the truth from falsehood? When Heraclius, the Roman king, asked Abu Sufyan and those who were in his company about the Prophet jg, he said: Have you ever accused him of telling lies before his claim? Abu Sufyan replied: No. Abu Sufyan was then the head of the disbelievers and the leader of the idolators, but he still admitted the truth. This is a clear and irrefutable testimony since it came from the enemy. Heraclius then said: I wondered how a person who does not tell a lie about others could ever tell a lie about Allah. Ja'far bin Abu Talib said to An-Najashi, the king of Ethiopia: Allah has sent to us a Messenger that we know his truthfulness, ancestral lineage, and honesty. He stayed among us before the prophethood for forty years. 417. So who does more wrong than he who forges a lie against Allah or denies His Ayat? Surely, the criminals will never be successful'.} Allah says that no one is more wrong, unjust and arrogant than he who invented a lie against Allah, forged claims about Allah, or claimed that Allah has sent a message to him but his claim was not true. No one is more of a criminal or has committed greater wrong than such a person. Liars cannot be confused with Prophets. Anyone who claims such a thing, whether lying or telling the truth, will necessarily be supported by Allah with proofs and signs of his falsehood or truthfulness. The difference between Muhammad jg and Musaylamah the liar, was clearer to those who met both of them than the difference between forenoon and midnight when it is extremely dark. What do the Idolators believe about Their Gods? Allah reproaches the idolators that worshipped others beside Allah, thinking that those gods would intercede for them before Allah. Allah states that these gods do not harm or benefit. They don t have any authority over anything, nor do they own anything. These gods can never do what the idolators had claimed about them. What Allah has given you is lawful. Allah's Forearm is stronger than your forearm, and Allah's knife is sharper than your knife And he mentioned the Hadith in its complete form, and the chain for this Hadith is a strong, good chain. Allah criticized those who make lawful what Allah has made unlawful or vice versa. This is because they are based on mere desires and false opinions that are not supported with evidence or proof. Allah then warned them with a promise of the Day of Resurrection. He asked:

{And what think those who invent a lie against Allah, on the Day of Resurrection?} What do they think will happen to them when they return Us on the Day of Resurrection? Ibn Jarir said that Ally's statement: {Truly, Allah is full of bounty to mankind,} indicated that the bounty is in postponing their Punishment in this world. 121 I (Ibn Kathir) say, the meaning could be that the Grace for people is in the good benefits that He made permissible for them in this world or in their r^jjgjon also has not prohibited them except what is haj^il to them in their world and the Hereafter. i&z J {but most of them are ungrateful.} So they/prohibited what Allah has bestowed upon them and made it ^ narrow upon themselves. So this day We shall deliver your (dead) body (out from the sea) that you may be a sign to those who come after you! And verily, many among mankind are heedless of Our Aydt.} The Children of Israel were saved and Fir'awn's People drowned Allah tells us how He caused Fir'awn and his soldiers to drown. The Children of Israel left Egypt in the company of Musa. It was said that there were six hundred thousand soldiers, plus offspring. They borrowed a lot of ornaments from the Coptics and took that with them. Fir'awn became very angry with them. So he sent heralds to all the cities to send their soldiers. He embarked, following behind them, filled with great pride and with massive armies. Allah wanted this to happen for He had a plan for them. No one that had any authority or power remained behind in Fir'awn s kingdom. They were all together and caught the Children of Israel at sunrise. iijsv^ ju gcyi iga} AAnd when the two hosts met each other, the companions of Musa said: "We are sure to be overtaken."} (26:61) They said that because when they got to the seashore Fir'awn was behind them. The two groups met face to face. The people with Musa kept asking, How can we be saved today? Musa replied, I have been commanded to come this way. MQsa said: Oit~- tp '&} iNay, verily, with me is my Lord. He will guide me.} (26:62) It had been so difficult, but it suddenly became easy. Allah commanded him to strike the ocean with his staff. He did and the sea was cleft asunder, each part stood like a mighty mountain. The sea was split into twelve paths, each route for each Israelite tribe. Allah then commanded the wind and the path was dry for them.

1 4 4^* jii 4And strike a dry path for them in the sea, fearing neither to be overtaken [by Fir'awn] nor being afraid (of drowning in the sea).>(20:77) The water in between the paths appeared as windows and every tribe was able to see the other so they would not think that others were destroyed. The Children of Israel crossed the sea. When the last one crossed, Fir'awn and his soldiers had arrived at the edge of the other shore. They were one hundred thousand black horses in addition to horsemen of other colors. When Fir'awn saw the sea he was frightened. He wanted to turn back, but it was too late. Allah s decree prevailed and the prayer of Musa was answered. Jibril came on a war stallion. He passed by Fir'awn s horse. Jibril's horse whinnied at Fir'awn's and then Jibril rushed into the sea, and Fir'awn did the same behind him. Fir'awn no longer had any control over matters. He wanted to sound strong before his chiefs, so he said: The Children of Israel do not have more right in the sea. So they rushed into the sea. Mulkall was behind their army pushing them all to join. When they all were in the sea and the first of them was about to emerge on the other side, Allah, the All-Powerful, commanded the sea to strand them. The sea closed over them and none was saved. The waves took them up and down. The waves accumulated above Fir'awn and he was overwhelmed by the stupors of death. While in this state, he said: أنا وعبادتي believe that none has the right to be worshipped but He (Allah) in Whom the Children of Israel believe, and I am one of the Muslims He believed at a time when he couldn't benefit from his faith. وأنزلنا السيل فجاءهم فغرقهم So when they saw Our punishment, they said: "We believe in Allah Alone and reject (all) that we used to associate with Him

That also stood as a proof that Allah is All-Powerful, in Whose control are all the creatures. Nothing can bear His anger. Fir'awn and his people were destroyed on the day of 'Ashura , as recorded by Al-Bukhari, Ibn Abbas said, When the Prophet ﷺ arrived at Al-Madinah, the Jews fasted the day of Ashura . And they only believed because they feared that the torment from which their Messenger warned them, might strike them. They actually witnessed its signs. So they cried to Allah and asked for help. They engaged in humility in invoking Him. They brought their children and cattle and asked Allah to lift the torment from which their Prophet had warned them. Concerning the statement, &m iwhich ofyou is the best in deeds.) It is important to note here that Allah did not say, Which of you has done the most deeds. Rather, He said, Best in deeds. A deed cannot be considered a good deed until it is done sincerely for Allah, the Mighty and Sublime, and it must be in accordance with the legislation of the Messenger of Allah Hud (7-8) (Part-12) Whenever a deed lacks one of these conditions, then it is null and void. The Polytheists hasten their Torment by arguing against Resurrection after Death Concerning Allah s statement, iBut if you were to say to them: "You shall indeed be raised up after death. } Allah, the Exalted, is saying, O Muhammad, if you were to inform these polytheists that Allah is going to resurrect them after their death, just as He created them originally (they would still reject). Even though they know that Allah, the Exalted, is the One Who created the heavens and the earth, just as He said, 0m iAtid ifyou ask them who created them, they will surely say: "Allah.' >(43:87) Allah says, oyliiri iAnd if you were to ask them : "Who has created the heavens and the earth and subjected the sun and the moon?" They will surely reply: "Allah."} [29:61] Even after their awareness of this (Allah s creating), they still reject the resurrection and the promised return on the Day of Judgement. Yet, in reference to ability, the resurrection is easier (for Allah to perform) than the original creation. As Allah said, j c s,' > cm? xi'*' iAnd He it is Who originates the creation, then He will repeat it (after it has

They say, We do not believe your claim that resurrection will occur. They also say, He (Muhammad) only says this (resurrection of the dead) because he is bewitched, and he wants you to follow him in what his bewitchment tells him. Concerning Allah's statement, 3.1 yZR 1 4And if We delay the torment for them till a determined term,} Allah, the Exalted, is saying If We delay the torment and the destruction of these polytheists until a appointed time and a period determined, and We promise them a specific time period (of life), they would still say, in rejection and haste; iWhat keeps it back?} They mean by this, What delays this torment from overtaking us? Both rejection and doubt are their very nature. Therefore, they have no escape or refuge from the torment. The Meanings of the Word Ummah The word Ummah is used in the Qur'an and Sunnah with a number of different meanings. Sometimes when it is used it means a specified period of time. In this way they are the inheritors of Gardens (of Paradise), which contain lofty rooms and seats arranged in rows. Therein they will find bunches of fruit near to them, elevated couches, fair and beautiful wives, various types of fruit, desired kinds of food and delicious drinks. The likeness of the two parties This refers to those disbelievers whom Allah first described as wretched, and then those believers whom He described with delightfulness. The first group is like one who is blind and deaf, while the second group is like he who sees and hears. Thus, the disbeliever is blind from the truth in this life and in the Hereafter. He is not guided to goodness, nor does he recognize it. He is deaf from hearing the proofs, thus he does not hear that which would benefit him. As Allah says, 4^+ -^ ! pfi iHad Allah known of any good in them, He would indeed have made them listen . $[8:23] The believer is smart, bright and clever. in the Hereafter. Then Allah says, Al-Mala'u here means the leaders and the heads of the disbelievers. They said, Al-Mala'u 4We see you but a man like ourselves,} This means, You are not an angel. You are only a human being, so how can revelation come to you over us? We do not see anyone following you except the lowliest people among us, like the merchants, weavers and similar people. No people of nobility, or rulers among us follow you. These people who follow you are not known for their intelligence, wit, or sharp thinking. Rather, you merely invited them (to this Islam) and they responded to your call and followed you (ignorantly). This is the meaning of their statement, Al-Mala'u 4We see you but a man like ourselves,}

Hud (25-27) (Part-12) inor do we see any follow you but the meanest among us and they (too) followed you without thinking. The statement, without thinking, means that they merely followed the first thing that came to their minds. Concerning the statement, Al-Mala'u 4And we do not see in you any merit above us, in fact we think you are liars. In this they are saying, We do not see that you [and your followers] have any virtuous status above us in your physical appearance, your character, your provisions, or your condition, since you accepted this (new) religion of yours. in fact we think you are liars.} This means, We think you are lying about that which you are claiming for yourselves of righteousness, piety, worship and happiness in the abode of the Hereafter when you arrive there. This was the response of the disbelievers to Nuh and his followers. This is a proof of their ignorance and their deficiency in knowledge and intelligence. For verily, the truth is not to be rejected because of the lowly status of those who follow it. Verily, the truth is correct in itself, regardless of whether its followers are of low status, or nobility. Actually, the reality concerning which there is no doubt, is that the followers of the truth are the noble ones, even though they may be poor. On the other hand, those who reject the truth are the lowly wretches, even though they may be wealthy. Thus, we see that usually the weakest of people are the ones who follow the truth, while the nobility and high-class people usually are opposed to the truth. This is as Allah says, Al-Mala'u 4And similarly, We sent not a wamer before you to any town (people) but the luxurious ones among them said: We found our fathers following a cerain way and religion, and we will indeedfollow theirfootsteps."}[43:23] When Heraclius, the emperor of Rome, asked Abu Sufyan Sakhr bin Harb about the qualities of the Prophet jg, he said to him, Are his followers the noble people, or the weak? Abu Sufyan said, They are the weakest of them. Then Heraclius said, They (weak ones) are the followers of the Messengers. Concerning their statement, (ifi) iwithout thinking.) In reality this is not objectionable, or something derogatory, because the truth when it is made clear, does not leave room for second-guessing, or excessive thinking. Rather, it is mandatory that it should be followed and this is the condition of every pious, intelligent person. No one continues doubtfully pondering the truth (after it is made clear) except one who is ignorant and excessively critical. The Messengers - Allah s peace and blessings be upon them all - only delivered what was obvious and clear. Concerning Allah s statement, 4And we do not see in you any merit above us,) They did not see this (the virtue of accepting Islam) because they were blind from the truth. They could not see, nor could they hear. Rather, they were wavering in their skepticism. They were wandering blindly in the darkneses of their ignorance. They, in reality, were the slanderers and liars, lowly and despicable. Therefore, in the Hereafter they will be the greatest losers. (Jj Cj* C-3 oj Jbp & 2k")28. He said: O my people! This alludes to the fact that they (the disbelievers) requested Nuh to disassociate himself from the believers, because they were averse to them and felt themselves too important to sit with them. This is similar to the request of disbelievers to the seal of the Messengers sjg to disassociate himself from a group of the people who were considered weak in their social status. Allah then commanded him to coat its interior and exterior with tar and to make it with a slanted bow to part the water (as it sailed). Its height was thirty cubits into the sky. It had three levels and each level was ten cubits high. The lowest level was for the animals, both tame and wild, the second level was for the human beings and the highest level was for the birds. Its door was in the center of it and it had a cover on top of it that covered the entire ship. 111 Concerning Allah s statement, iAnd as he was constructing the ship , whenever the chiefs of his people passed by him, they mocked at him.} This means that they teased him and rejected his threat that they would drown (in the forthcoming flood). iHe said: If you mock at us, so do we mock at you likewise..."} This is a severe threat and a serious warning. t j-} 111 This narration is clearly from the Isra Uiyat (stories of the Jews and Christians) and thus cannot be relied upon totally unless there is support for it from the authentic Hadiths of the Prophet jg.

This continued until the water gushed forth from the Tananir, which are places of fire. Therefore, water even gushed from the places where fire normally would be. This is the opinion of the majority of the Salaf (predecessors) and the scholars of the Khalaf (later generations). At this point, Allah commanded Nuh to select one pair from every kind of creature possessing a soul, and load them on the ship. Some said that this included other creatures as well, such as pairs of plants, male and female. It has also been said that the first of the birds to enter the ship was the parrot, and the last of the animals to enter was the donkey. And waves came in between them, so he (the son) was among the drowned.} The riding upon the Ship and Its sailing through the huge Waves Allah, the Exalted, says concerning Nuh, that he said to those whom he was commanded to carry them with him in the ship, 4Embark therein: in the Name, of Allah will be its (moving) course and its (resting) anchorage.} This means that its sailing upon the surface of the water, the Tabari 15:326.

Hud (41-43) (Part-12) end of its journeying and its anchoring, would all be with the Name of Allah. Abu Raja Al-Tjaridi recited it, In the Name of Allah, Who will be the One Who moves its course, and rests its anchor. 111 Allah, the Exalted, said. Jr csl"J, 4And when you have embarked on the ship, you and whoever is with you, then say: ",All the praises and thanks are to Allah, Who has saved us from the people who are wrongdoers. And say: My Lord! Cause me to land at a blessed landing place, for You are the Best of those who bring to land."^[23:28-29] For this reason, it is preferred to mention the Name of Allah (Bismillah) at the beginning of all affairs. The Name of Allah should be mentioned when boarding a ship, or when mounting an animal. This is as Allah, the Exalted, says, 3 40 * % 3%, <$ 4And Who has created all the pairs and has appointed for you ships and cattle on which you ride, in order that you may mount on their backs.^[43:12-13] This practice (mentioning Allah's Name) has been encouraged in the Sunnah and is considered a preferred act. A discussion concerning this is forthcoming in the explanation of Surat Az- Zukhruf (43), if Allah wills. In reference to Allah's statement, iSurely, my Lord is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful> Such statement is suitable while mentioning (His) vengeance upon the disbelievers by drowning all of them. Therefore, he (Nuh) mentions that His Lord is Oft Forgiving, Most Merciful. (i| At-Jabari 15:328.

And verily, your Lord is (also) severe in punishment.} [13:6] Likewise, there are many other verses that combine Allah's mercy and His vengeance. Concerning Allah's statement, 4j| ^J? g? 4 At ajf 4So it sailed with them amidst waves like mountains,} This means that the ship sailed with them upon the surface of the water, which had completely covered the earth until it encompassed the tops of the mountains and even rose over them by a height of fifteen cubits. It was also said that the waves rose over the mountains by a height of eighty miles. Yet, this ship continued to move upon the water, sailing by the permission of Allah. It moved under His shade, His help, His protection and His blessing. This is as Allah, the Exalted, said, i{ }3# S3x& '<<& a6& iVerily, when the water rose beyond its limits, We carried you in the ship. That We might make it an admonition for you and it might be retained by the retaining ears.}[69:1 1-12] Allah also said, 4And We carried him on a (ship) made of planks and nails, floating under Our Eyes: a reward for him who had been rejected! And indeed, We have left this as a sign . Then is there any that will remember (or receive admonition)?}[54:13-15]

The End of the Flood Allah, the Exalted, informs that when the people of the earth were all drowned, except for the people on the ship, He commanded the earth to swallow its water, which had sprang from it and gathered upon it. Then He commanded the sky to cease raining. And the water was made to subside. This means that it (the water) began to decrease. And the decree was fulfilled. This means that all of those who disbelieved in Allah were removed from the people of the earth. Not a single one of them remained upon the earth. And it (the ship) rested. This is referring to the ship and those who were in it. 'Pf ion (Mount) Judi Mujahid said, Judi is a mountain in Al-Jazirah (Northwest Mesopotamia) where the mountains sought to tower above each other on the day of the drowning. On that day of destruction, all the mountains sought to be higher (to avoid being overcome by the water). However, this mountain (Judi) humbled itself for Allah, the Mighty and Sublime, and therefore it was not drowned. This is why Nuh's ship anchored upon it. 111 Qatadah said, The ship rested upon it (Mount Judi) for a month before they (the people) came down from it. Qatadah also said, Allah made Nuh's ship remain on Mount Judi in the land of Al-Jazirah, as a lesson and a sign. 12 ' Even the early generations of this Ummah saw it. How many ships are there that have come after it and have been destroyed and became dust? At-Tabari 15:337. Tabari 15:338.

Surah VL Hud (45-47) (Part-12 and it was said: Away with the people who are wrongdoing!) means destruction and loss for them. The term away with here implies being far away from the mercy of Allah. [11:44] Thus, the water began decreasing and subsiding until the ship settled on Mount Judi. The People of the Tawrah (the Jews) claim that this occurred during the seventh month (of the year) and it lasted for seventeen nights. Then, on the first day of the tenth month, he (Nuh) saw the mountain tops. Then after forty more days, Nuh opened the small window in the roof of the ship and he sent a raven out to see what the water had done. However, the raven did not return to him Then, he sent a pigeon out but it returned to him without finding any place (land) to put its two feet down. He extended his hand out of the ship and the pigeon grabbed his hand so that Nuh could pull it back into the ship. Then, after seven more days passed, he sent the pigeon out again to investigate for him. The pigeon returned in the evening with a leaf from an olive tree in its mouth. From this, Nuh knew that the water had decreased from the face of the earth. He remained in the ship for seven more days before he sent the pigeon out again. This time the pigeon did not return to him, so he knew that the earth had appeared. Thus, a year was completed from the time that Allah sent the flood, until the time of Nuh sending the pigeon. The Story of the People of Madyan and the Call of Shu'ayb Allah, the Exalted, says, We sent a Messenger to the people of Madyan. He commanded them to give just measure and weight whether they were giving or receiving (in transactions). He also forbade them from causing mischief and corruption in the land. This was due to their practice of highway robbery along the roads. Abu Ja'far bin Jarir said, ip iThat which is left by Allah (after giving the rights of the people) is better for you,} This means what you gain from your successful business dealings in which you have given just measure, is better for you than wrongfully taking the wealth of the people. This is similar to Allah s statement, 4And We shall gather them all together so as to leave not one of them behind [18:47] iand that is a Day when all will be present.} This means a day that is great. The angels will be present, the Messengers will gather and all of the creation will be gathered with their families. The humans, Jinns, birds, wild beasts and domesticated riding animals will all be gathered. Then the Most Just, Who does not wrong anyone even an atom's weight, will judge between them and He will increase their good deeds in reward. Concerning the statement, And We delay it only for a term (already) fixed. This means for a fixed period of time that cannot be increased or decreased. Then He says, On the Day when it comes, no person shall speak except by His (Allah's) leave. This means that on the Day of Judgement no one will speak except with the permission of Allah. This is similar to another verse, which says,

Some among them will be wretched and (others) blessed. This means that from the people of the gathering (on Judgement Day), some will be miserable and some will be happy. This is as Allah said, When a party will be in Paradise and a party in the blazing Fire [42:7] Al-Hafiz Abu Yala recorded in his Musnad on the authority of Ibn Umar that Umar said, When this verse was revealed, Some among them will be wretched and (others) blessed. I asked the Prophet, O Messenger of Allah, will there be a sign for us to know (which party we are from)? Will it be because of something that a person did, or something that he did not do? He said, No

Umar, it will be due to something that he did and the pens wrote it down. But every easy deed was created for its purpose (to be carried out). Then Allah explains the situation of the wretched people and the happy people. He, the Exalted, says, As for those who are wretched, they will be in the Fire, in it they will experience Zafir and Shahiq .. They will dwell therein for all the time that the heavens and the earth endure, except as your Lord wills. Verily, your Lord is the doer of whatsoever He intends (or wills). The Condition of the Wretched People and their Destination Allah, the Exalted, says, in it they will experience Zafir and Shahiq. Ibn Abbas said, Az-Zafir is a sound in the throat and Ash-Shahiq is a sound in the chest. This means that their exhaling will be Zafir and their inhaling will be Shahiq. * This will be due to the torment that they will be experiencing. We seek refuge with Allah from such evil. They will dwell therein for all the time that the heavens and the earth endure, Imam Abu Jafar bin Jarir said, It was from the customs of the Arabs that when they wanted to describe something that would last forever, they would say, This is as enduring as the heavens and the earth. Or, It will last as until the night and day separate. They would say, As long as talkers at night continue to chat. They meant by these statements the 1 * At-Tirmidhi no. 3111 Af-Tabari 15:480.

Hud (106-107) (Part-12) condition of eternity. Therefore, Allah addressed them in a manner that they were familiar with among themselves. Thus, He said, They will dwell therein for all the time that the heavens and the earth endure The literal meaning is also intended with; for all the time that the heavens and the earth endure. This is due to the fact that there will be heavens and earth in the life of the next world, just as Allah said, On the Day when the earth will be changed to another earth and so will be the heavens [14:48] For this reason, Al-Hasan Al-Basri said concerning the statement of Allah, the heavens and the earth endure. Allah is referring to a heaven other than this heaven (which we see now) and an earth other than this earth. That (new) heaven and earth will be eternal. Concerning Allah's statement, except as your Lord wills. Verily, your Lord is the doer of whatsoever He intends. This is similar to His statement, The Fire be your dwelling place, you will dwell therein forever, except as Allah may will. Certainly your Lord is All-Wise, All-Knowing. [6:128] It has been of the interceders. Those who will be allowed to intercede are the angels, the Prophets and the believers. They will intercede even on behalf of those who committed major sins. Then, the generous mercy of Allah will remove from the Fire those who have never done any good, except for saying La ilaha illatldh one day of their life. This has been mentioned in numerous authentic reports from the Messenger of Allah including narrations from Anas bin Malik, Jabir bin Abdullah, Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri, Abu Hurayrah and other Companions. No one remains in the Fire after this fined intercession, except those who will remain there forever without escape. This is the opinion held by many of the scholars, both past and present, concerning the explanation of this verse. Hit U V) U IJj cyji aZ)S Jp ojji 4 J il08. The meaning of the exception that is made here is that the condition of eternal pleasure that they will experience therein is something that is not mandatory by itself. Rather, it is something that is dependent upon the will of Allah. Unto Him belongs the favor of immortality upon them. For this reason they are inspired to glorify and praise Him, just as they are inspired to breathe. 1 11 Ad-Dahhak and Al-Hasan Al-Basri both said, It is about the right of the disobedient people of Tawhid who were in the Fire and then brought out of it. ' This has been mentioned so that the suspicious person will not doubt after the mention of the will of Allah. Someone may think that the mention of Allah s will here means that the pleasure of Paradise may end or change. To the contrary, it has been decreed that this pleasure will truly be forever and will never end. Likewise, Allah has clarified here that the eternal torment of the people of the Fire in Hell also is due to His will. He explains that He punishes them due to His justness and wisdom. This is why He says, ^Verily, your Lord is the doer ofwhatsoever He intends.} Similarly, Allah says, il (Uj ji? ft 4He cannot be questioned as to what He does, while they will be questioned.>[21 :23] Here, Allah soothes the hearts and affirms the intent, by His saying, 4/ft? ivLft 4a gift without an end.} It has been recorded in the Two Sahihs that the Messenger ofAllah jg said. 4:2181. They would be subjugated to Yusuf's authority to such an extent that they would prostrate before him in respect, honor and appreciation. Ya'qub feared that if Yusuf narrated his vision to any of his brothers, they would envy him and conspire evil plots against him. This is why Ya'qub said to Yusuf, 4'^T 4'Relate not your vision to your brothers, lest they should arrange a plot against you.} This Ayah means, They might arrange a plot against you that causes your demise. However, their plot to kill Yusuf would not have succeeded, because Allah the Exalted willed that Yusuf fulfill a mission that must be fulfilled and complete; he would receive Allah's revelation and become His Prophet. Allah willed Yusuf to be a powerful man in Egypt and govern it. Consequently, Allah did not allow them to persist in their intent against Yusuf, through Rubll's words and his advice to them that if they must do something, they should throw him down to the bottom of a well, 4he will be picked up by some caravan} of travelers passing by. Ya'qub's Answer to Their Request Allah narrates to us that His Prophet Ya'qub said to his children, in response to their request that he send Yusuf with them to the desert to tend their cattle, (Truly, it saddens me that you should take him away.) He said that it was hard on him that he be separated from Yusuf for the duration of their trip, until they came back. This demonstrates the deep love that Ya'qub had for his son, because he saw in Yusuf great goodness and exalted qualities with regards to conduct and physical attractiveness associated with the rank of prophethood. May Allah's peace and blessings be on him. Prophet Ya'qub's statement next, Tabari 15:570. Tabari 15:571.

This was their intent, yet when they took him from his father, they pretended otherwise, so that his father sends him with a good heart and feeling at ease and comfortable with his decision. It was reported that Ya'qub, peace be upon him, embraced Yusuf, kissed him and supplicated to Allah for him when he sent him with his brothers. When he tried to hold to the sides of the well, they struck his hand and then cut the rope when he was only half the distance from the bottom of the well. He fell into the water and was submerged. However, he was able to ascend a stone that was in the well and stood on it.' Allah said next, and We revealed to him : "Indeed, you shall (one day) inform them of this their affair, when they know (you) not."} In this Ayah, Allah mentions His mercy and compassion and His compensation and relief that He sends in times of distress. Allah revealed to Yusuf, during that distressful time, in order to comfort his heart and strengthen his resolve, TDo not be saddened by what you have suffered. Surely, you will have a way out of this distress and a good end, for Allah will aid you against them, elevate your rank and raise your grade. They went back to their father, during the darkness of the night, crying and showing sorrow and grief for losing Yusuf. They started giving excuses to their father for what happened to Yusuf, falsely claiming that, "We went racing with one another", or had a shooting competition, "and left Yusuf by our belongings", guarding our clothes and luggage, "and a wolf devoured him", which is exactly what their father told them he feared for Yusuf and warned against. They said next, "but you will never believe us even when we speak the truth." They tried to lessen the impact of the grave news they were delivering. They said, "We know that you will not believe this news, even if you consider us truthful. So what about when you suspect that we are not truthful, especially since you feared that the wolf might devour Yusuf and that is what happened? Therefore, they said, 'You have reason not to believe us because of the strange coincidence and the amazing occurrence that happened to us. & "and they brought his shirt stained with false blood."

' They claimed that this was the shirt Yusuf was wearing when the wolf devoured him, being stained with his blood. But, they forgot to tear the shirt, and this is why Allah's Prophet Ya'qub did not believe them. Rather, he told them what he felt about what they said to him, thus refusing their false claim, "Nay, but your own selves have made up a tale. So (for me) patience is most fitting. Ya'qub said, I will firmly observe patience for this plot on which you agreed, until Allah relieves the distress with His aid and compassion, & "and it is Allah (alone) Whose help can be sought against that which you describe." When the king had this dream, he was astonished and fearful and sought its interpretation. Yusuf's Interpretation of the King's Dream This is when Yusuf, peace be upon him, told the interpretation of the dream, without criticizing the man for forgetting his request that he had made to him. Neither did he make a precondition that he be released before explaining the meaning. Rather, he said, 4Q> Jyt&} 4For seven consecutive years, you shall sow as usual} you will receive the usual amount of rain and fertility for seven consecutive years. He interpreted the cows to be years, es, ext because cows till the land that produce fruits and vegetables; which represent the green ears of corn in the dream. He realized the virtue of Prophet Yusuf, recognized his knowledge in the interpretation of dreams and valued his good conduct with his subjects in his country. The king said, iBring him to me.} Release him from prison and bring him to me. When the king's emissary came to Yusuf and conveyed the news of his imminent release, Yusuf refused to leave the prison until the king and his subjects declare his innocence and the integrity of his honor, denouncing the false accusation that the wife of the Aziz made against him. the reason why YQusuf's brothers went to Egypt, is that after

Yusuf became minister of Egypt and the seven years of abundance passed, then came the seven years of drought that struck all areas of Egypt. The drought also reached the area of Kana'an (Canaan), where Prophet Ya'qub, peace be upon him, and his children resided. Prophet YQusuf efficiently guarded the people's harvest and collected it, and what he collected became a great fortune for the people. This also permitted Yusuf to give gifts to the people who sought his aid from various areas who came to buy food and provisions for their families. Yusuf would not give a family man more than whatever a camel could carry, as annual provisions for them. YQusuf himself did not fill his stomach from this food, nor did the king and his aids eat except one meal a day. By doing so, the people could sustain themselves with what they had for the remainder of the seven years. Indeed, YQusuf was a mercy from Allah sent to the people of Egypt. YOsuf's brothers were among those who came to Egypt to buy food supplies, by the order of their father: They knew that the Aziz of Egypt was selling food to people who need it for a low price, so they took some merchandise from their land with them to exchange it for food. They were ten, because Ya'qOb peace be upon him kept his son and YQsuFs brother Binyamin with him. Binyamin was the dearest of his sons to him after YQsuf. When Prophet YusuFs brothers entered on him in his court and the center of his authority, he knew them the minute he saw them. However, they did not recognize him because they got rid of him when he was still young, and sold him to a caravan of travelers while unaware of their destination. They could not have imagined that YQsuf would end up being a minister, and this is why they did not recognize him, while he did recognize them. As-Suddi said that Yusuf started talking to his brothers and asked them, What brought you to my land? They said, O, Aziz, we came to buy provisions. He asked them, You might be spies. They said, Allah forbids. He asked them, Where are you from? They said, From the area of Kana'an, and our father is Allah s Prophet Ya'qub. He asked them, Does he have other children besides you? They said, Yes, we were twelve brothers. Our youngest died in the desert, and he used to be the dearest to his father. His full brother is alive and his father kept him, so that his closeness compensates him for losing our youngest brother (who died). YQsuf ordered that his brothers be honored and allowed to remain, i<e &j} 4And when he furnished them with their provisions,} according to their needs and gave them what they wanted to buy, he said to them, Bring me your brother from your father s side whom you mentioned, so that I know that jrou have told me the truth. There are many plots of fertile land next to each other on earth, and gardens, solid mountains, lively oceans, with their waves smashing against each other, and spacious deserts. There are many live creatures and others that have died; and animals, plants and fruits that are similar in shape, but different in taste, scent, color and attributes. All praise is due to Allah the One and Only, Who created all types of creations, Who Alone will remain and last forever. It is He Who is unique in His Names and Attributes. Allah said next, i.e. And most of them believe not in Allah except that they attribute partners unto Him.} Ibn Abbas commented,

They have a part of faith, for when they are asked, Who created the heavens? Who created the earth? Who created the mountains? They say, Allah did. Yet, they associate others with Him in worship. 111 Similar is said by Mujahid, Ata, Ikrimah, Ash-Sha'bi, Qatadah, Ad-Dahhak and Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam.¹²¹ In the Sahih, it is recorded that during the Hajj season, the idolaters used to say in their Talbiyah: Here we rush to Your service. You have no partners with You, except a partner with You whom You own but he owns not! Allah said in another Ayah, At-Tabari 16:292. Ibid. Muslim 2:843.

Verily, joining others in worship with Allah is a great Zultn (wrong) indeed.> [31:131 This indeed is the greatest type of Shirk, associating others with Allah in worship. It is recorded in the Two Sahihs that Abdullah bin Mas'ad said, I said, O Allah's Messenger! What is the greatest sin? He said, if "That you call a rival to Allah while He alone created you." 11 Al-Hasan Al-Basri commented on Allah's statement, "And most of them believe not in Allah except that they attribute partners unto Him." This is the hypocrite; if he performs good deeds, he does so to show off with the people, and he is an idolator while doing this. Al-Hasan was referring to Allah's statement, 4:142, "Verily, the hypocrites seek to deceive Allah, but it is He Who deceives them. And when they stand up for As-Salah, they stand with laziness and to be seen of men, and they do not remember Allah but little." [4:142] There is another type of hidden Shirk that most people are unaware of. Hammad bin Salamah narrated that Asim bin Abi An-Najfi said that Urwah said, Hudhayfah visited an ill man and saw a rope tied around his arm, so he ripped it off while reciting, / V > if \ > i And most of them believe not in Allah except that they attribute partners unto Him." In a Hadith, from Ibn Umar collected by At-Tirmidhi who said Al-BQri 8:350, Muslim 1 :90.

it was Hasan, the Prophet's son said, "He who swears by other than Allah, commits Shirk." 11 Imam Ahmad, Abu Dawud and other scholars of Hadith narrated that Abdullah bin Mas'ad said that the Messenger of Allah's son said, "Verily, Ar-Ruq'd, At-Tama'im and At-Tiwaiah are all acts of Shirk." In another narration collected by Ahmad and Abu Dawud, the Prophet said, "Verily, At-Tiyarah [omen] is Shirk; everyone might feel a glimpse of it, but Allah dissipates it with Tawakkul." Allah said next, "Do they then feel secure from the coming against them of the covering veil of the torment of Allah?" Allah asks, "Do these idolaters who associate others with Allah in the worship, feel secure from the coming of an encompassing torment from where they perceive not?" Allah said in other Ayat, "Verily, the act of reciting incantations, charm etc., the lawful type is done with Qur'an. At-Tamam is the act of putting an amulet around the necks of children to save them from the effects of evil eye. At-Tiwalah is a kind of bewitchment done by those who claim they can cause a woman to be more loved by her husband or vice versa. Reliance on and trust in Him * Ahmad 1 :389, Abu Dawud 4:230.

Do then those who devise evil plots feel secure that Allah will not sink them into the earth, or that the torment will not seize them from directions they perceive not? Or that He may catch them in the midst of their going to and from, so that there be no escape for them (from Allah's punishment)? Or that He may catch them with gradual roasting (of their wealth and health)? Truly, Your Lord is indeed full of kindness, Most Merciful. [16:45-47] and, "The people of the towns then feel secure against the coming of Our punishment by night while they were

Do you not then understand All ofthe Prophets are Humans andMen Allah states that He only sent Prophets and Messengers from among men and not from among women, as this Ayah clearly states. Allah did not reveal religious and legislative laws to any woman from among the daughters of Adam. This is the belief of Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jama'ah. Shaykh Abu Al-Hasan, Ali bin Isma'il Al-Ash ari mentioned that it is the view of Ahlus Sunnah wal-Jama ah, that there were no female Prophets, bu there were truthful believers from among women. Allah mentions the most honorable of the truthful female believers Maryam, the daughter of Imran, when He said, U = Vj ^Jj\^ n Z2?^

This is why Allah said, y%} $And verily, the home of the Hereafter is the bestfor those who have Taqiva.} Allah says, Just as We saved the faithful in this life, We also wrote safety for them in the Hereafter, which is far better for them than the life of the present world. She said, Nothing that Allah has promised Muhammad, peace be upon him, but Muhammad knew for certainty that it shall come, until he died. However, the Messengers were tried with trials until they thought that those believers, who were with them, did not fully support them. Ibn Abi Mulaykah said that Urwah narrated that Aishah recited this Ayah this way, jj f+S and they thought that they were betrayed. Therefore, there is another way of reciting this word, and there is a difference of opinion about its meaning. We narrated the meaning that Ibn Abbas gave. Ibn Mas'ud said, as Sufyan Ath-Thawri narrated from him, that he read the Ayah this way, iu titil, when the Messengers gave up hope and thought that they were denied. Abdullah commented that this is the recitation that you dislike. Ibn Abbas also commented on the Ayah, iuntil, when the Messengers gave up hope and thought that they were denied^ When the Messengers gave up hope that their people would accept their messages, and their people thought that their Messengers had not said the truth to them, Allah's victory came then, and whomsoever We willed were rescued. Ibn Jarir At-Tabari narrated that Ibrahim bin Abi Hamzah [Hurrah] Al-Jazari said, A young man from Quraysh asked [Ibn At-Tabari 16:307.

Said bin Jubayr O, Abu Abdullah! How do you read this word, for when I pass by it, I wish I had not read this Surah, until, when the Messengers gave up hope and thought that they were denied. . . } He said, Yes, it means, when the Messengers gave up hope that their people will believe in them and those to whom the Messengers were sent thought that the Messengers were not truthful. Ad-Dahhak bin Muzahim commented, I have not seen someone who is called to knowledge and is lazy accepting the invitation, until today! If you traveled to Yemen just to get this explanation, it will still be worth it. Ibn Jarir At-Tabari narrated that Muslim bin Yasar asked Said bin Jubayr about the same Ayah and he gave the same response. Muslim stood up and embraced Said bin Jubayr, saying, May Allah relieve a distress from you as you relieved a distress from me! This was reported from Said bin Jubayr through various chains of narration. This is also the Tafsir that Mujahid bin Jabr and several other Salaf scholars gave for this Ayah. However, some scholars said that the Ayah, and thought that they were denied}, is in reference to the believers who followed the Messengers, while some said it is in reference to the disbelievers among the Messengers nation. In the latter case, the meaning becomes: and the disbelievers thought that the Messengers were not given a true promise of victory. Ibn Jarir At-Tabari narrated that Tamim bin Hadhlam said, I heard Abdullah bin Mas'ud comment on this Ayah, until, when the Messengers gave up hope} that their people will believe in them, and their people thought when the respite was long, that the Messengers were not given a true promise. The Qur'an tells us about the Lord, the Exalted and Most Honored, and about His Names

He, by His leave, order and power, has elevated the heavens high above the earth, distant and far away from reach. The heaven nearest to the present world encompasses the earth from all directions, and is also high above it from every direction. The distance between the first heaven and the earth is five hundred years from every direction, and its thickness is also five hundred years. The second heaven surrounds the first heaven from every direction, encompassing everything that the latter carries, with a thickness also of five hundred years and a distance between them of five hundred years. The same is also true about the third, the fourth, the fifth, the sixth and the seventh heavens. Allah said, it is Allah who has created seven heavens and of the earth the like thereof [65 :12 Allah said next, i..without any pillars that you can see.$ meaning, there are pillars, but you cannot see them, according to Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, and several other scholars. Iyas bin Mu'awiyah said, The heaven is like a dome over the earth, meaning, without pillars. Similar was reported from Qatadah, and this meaning is better for this part of the Ayah,¹⁴ especially since Allah said in another Ayah, o' 4H; withholds the heaven from falling on the earth except by His permission.[^][22 :65] Therefore, Allah s statement,  This comes from an authentic narration from Ibn Mas*ud. See Al- 'Ulu (Mukhtasir) p. 103. and Al-Majma' 1 :86. There is also a weak narration attributed to the Prophet saying the same. It was recorded by At-Tirmidhi 2:525, as well as others. i..that you can see}, affirms that there are no pillars. Rather, the heaven is elevated (above the earth) without pillars, as you see. This meaning best affirms Allah s ability and power. Al-Istawa", Rising above the Throne Allah said next, iThen, He rose above (Istawa) the Throne.} We explained the meaning of the Istawa in Surat Al-A'raf (7:54), and stated that it should be accepted as it is without altering, equating, annulling its meaning, or attempts to explain its true nature. Allah is glorified and praised from all that they attribute to Him. Allah subjected the Sun and the Moon to rotate continuously Allah said, ifei '$ $He has subjected the sun and the moon, each running (its course) for a term appointed.} It was said that the sun and the moon continue their course until they cease doing so upon the commencement of the Final Hour, as Allah stated, 'J {And the sun runs on its fixed course for a term (appointed) .}[36:38] It was also said that the meaning is: until they settle under the Throne of Allah after passing the other side of the earth. So when they, and the rest of the planetary bodies reach there, they are at the furthest distance from the Throne. Because according to the correct view, which the texts prove, it is shaped like a domb, under which is all of the creation. It is not circular like the celestial bodies, because it has pillars by which it is carried. 111 This fact is clear to those who I 1 ! See Surat Gh&fir40 :7.

Then we will give them the blood money. Arbad said, I will do that, and they went back to the Messenger ﷺ. Amir said, O Muhammad! Stand next to me so that I can talk to you. The Messenger stood up, and they both stood next to a wall talking to each other. Arbad wanted to grab his sword, but his hand froze when it touched the sword's handle and he could not take the sword out of its sheath. Arbad did not strike the Messenger ﷺ as Amir suggested, and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ looked at Arbad and realized what he was doing, so he departed. When Arbad and Amir left the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and arrived at Al-Harrah of Waqim area, they dismounted from their horses. However, Sa'd bin Mu'adh and Usayd bin Hudayr came out saying, Come, O enemies of Allah! May Allah curse you. Amir asked, Who is this with you, O Sa'd? Sa'd said, This is Usayd bin Hudayr. They fled until they reached the Riqm area, where Allah struck Arbad with a bolt of lightning and he met his demise. As for Amir, he went on until he reached the Kharim area, where Allah sent an open ulcer that struck him. During that night, Amir took refuge in a woman's house, from Banu Salul. Amir kept touching his open ulcer and saying, An ulcer as big as a camel's hump, while I am at the house of a woman from Bani Salul, seeking to bring my death in her house! Then, as for thefoam it passes away as scum upon the banks, while that which is for the good of mankind remains in the earth. Thus Allah setsforth parables.} Two ParablesprovingthatTruthremainsandFalsehood perishes This honorable Ayah contains two parables which affirm that truth remains and increases, while falsehood diminishes and perishes. Allah said, 4iu tU' j* Jjfy 4He sends down waterfrom the sky,} He sends rain, 4WjSi cJCj} iand the valleysflow according to their measure,} each valley taking its share according to its capacity, for some valleys are wider and can retain more water than others which are small and thus retain smaller measures of water. This Ayah indicates that hearts differ, for some of them can retain substantial knowledge while others cannot entertain knowledge, but rather sire bothered by knowledge, 4tj; ^

{but the flood bears away the foam that mounts up to the surface of the water that ran down the valleys; this is the first parable. Allah said next, {and (also) from that (ore) which they heat in the fire in order to make ornaments or utensils...} This is the second parable, whereas gold and silver ore is heated with fire to make adornments with it, and iron and copper ore are heated to make pots and the like with it. Foam also rises to the surface of these ores, just as in the case with water, thus does Allah (by parables) show forth truth and falsehood.} when they both exist, falsehood does not remain, just as foam does not remain with the water or the gold and silver ores which are heated in fire. Rather, foam dissipates and vanishes, {Then, as for the foam it passes away as scum upon the banks,} for it carries no benefit and dissipates and scatters on the banks of the valley. The foam also sticks to trees or is dissipated by wind, just as the case with the scum that rises on the surface of gold, silver, iron and copper ores; it all goes away and never returns. However, water, gold and silver remain and are used to man's benefit. This is why Allah said next, {while that which is for the good of mankind remains in the earth. Thus Allah sets forth parables.} Allah said in a similar Ayah, {And these similitudes We put forward for mankind; but none will understand them except those who have knowledge.} [29:43]

Some of the Salaf (rightly guided ancestors) said, When I would read a parable in the Qur'an that I could not comprehend, I would cry for myself because Allah the Exalted says, {But none will understand them except those who have knowledge.} [29:43] Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Abdullah bin Abbas commented on Allah's statement, {He sends down water from the sky, and the valleys flow according to their measure,} This is a parable that Allah has set; the hearts carry knowledge from Him, and certainty according to the amount of doubt. As for doubt, working good deeds does not benefit while it exists. As for certainty, Allah benefits its people by it, hence Allah's statement, {Then, as for the foam}, which refers to doubt, {it passes away as scum upon the banks, while that which is for the good of mankind remains in the earth.} in reference to certainty. And just as when jewelry is heated in fire and is rid of its impurity, which remains in the fire, similarly Allah accepts certainty and discards doubt. The Qur'an and the Sunnah contain Parables that use Water and Fire Allah has set two examples in the beginning of Surat Al-Baqarah (chapter 2) about the hypocrites, one using fire and another using water. Allah said, {U istf ES fit' sffJA rfjlf JS3 m At-Tabari 16:410.

The example of guidance and knowledge with which Allah has sent me is like abundant rain falling on the earth, some of which was fertile soil that absorbed the rain water and brought forth vegetation and grass in abundance. And another portion of it was hard, it held the rain water and Allah benefited the people with it and they utilized it for drinking, grazing, making their animals drink from it and for irrigation purposes. And another portion of it fell on barren land, which could neither hold the water nor bring forth vegetation. The first is the example of the person who comprehends Allah's religion and gets benefit, as well as benefiting others (from the knowledge and guidance) which Allah has revealed through me and learns and then teaches others. The last example is that of a person who does not care for it and does not embrace Allah's guidance revealed through me. This parable uses water in it. In another Hadith that Imam Ahmad collected, Abu Hurayrah narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, J

Then he tied each eagle's leg to a wooden box with ropes and left them go hungry. He and another man sat inside the wooden box and raised a staff with a piece of meat on its tip. So, the two eagles started flying. The king asked his companion to tell him what he was seeing, and he described the scenes to him, until he said that he saw the earth as a fly. So, the king brought the staff closer to the eagles and they started landing slowly. This is why Allah said, Jjj3pp SIS jp) though their plot was hardly one to remove the mountains from their places. Mujahid also mentioned that this story was about Nebuchadnezzar, and that when the king's sight was far away from earth and its people, he was called, O tyrant one! Where are you headed to? He became afraid and brought the staff closer to the eagles, which flew faster with such haste that the mountains almost shook from the noise they made. The mountains were almost moved from their places, so Allah said, 4though their plot was not such as to remove the mountains from their places Ibn Jurayj narrated that Mujahid recited this Ayah in a way that means, though their plot was such as to remove the mountains from their places. However, Al- Awfi reported that Ibn Abbas said that, 4J1^' ii* jff} ithough their plot was not such as to remove the mountains from their places.} indicates that their plot was not such as to remove the mountains from their places. Ibn Jarir reported that Ibn Abbas and Anas bin Malik explained that this Ayah refers to the Day when Allah will detain the sinful Muslims in Hell along with the idolaters. And in it We have provided means of living, for you and for those whom you provide not.} The Power of Allah and His Signs in the Heavens and on Earth To those who ponder, and look repeatedly at the dazzling signs and wonders that are to be seen in the creation, Allah mentions His creation of the heavens, with their immense height, and both the fixed and moving heavenly bodies with which He has adorned it. Here, Mujahid and Qatadah said that Buruj [big stars] refers to the heavenly bodies . 1 11 (I say): This is like the Ayah : 4Blessed be He Who has placed the big stars in the heavens . [25:61] Atiyah Al- Awfi said: Buruj here refers to sentinel fortresses. 121 He made the shooting stars to guard it against the evil devils who try to listen to information conveyed at the highest heights. If any devil breaches it and advances hoping to listen, a clear shooting star comes to him and destroys him. He may already have passed on whatever he heard before the fire hit him, to another devil below him; the latter will then take it to his friends [among humans], as is stated in the Sahlh. Explaining this Ayah, Al-Bukhari reported from Abu Hurayrah that the Prophet sg said: $\text{c2jJ} > \text{jLUL J''}$ $\text{yS I ill I bln 'yue JLLJL}$. "When Allah decrees any matter in heaven, the angels beat their wings in submission to His Word, [with a sound like] a chain [beating] on a smooth rock." (Ali and other subnarrators said, The sound reaches them.) When the fright leaves their (angels) hearts, they (angels) are asked: What did your Lord say? They respond: The truth. And He is the Most High, the Most Great. So those who hope to hear something listen, and they are standing one above the other. Sufyan [the narrator] described them with a gesture, spreading the fingers of his right hand and holding it in such a way that the fingers were above one another. Sometimes the flaming fire hits one of these listeners before he is able to convey what he has heard to the one who is beneath him, and he is burned up, or sometimes the fire does not hit him until he has pit on to the one beneath him, At-Tabari 17:77. Al-Baghawi 3 :45

so he brings it to the earth. Perhaps Sufyan said: ...until it reaches the earth and he puts it into the mouth of the sorcerer or fortune-teller, so that after telling a hundred lies he gets something right, and the people say, T)id he not tell us that on such and such a day such and such would happen, and we found it to be the truth among the statements which were heard from heaven. 111 Then Allah mentions His creation of the earth and how He spread it out, and the firm mountains, valleys, lands and sands that he has placed in it, and the plants and fruits that He causes to grow in their appropriate locations. t'y yfr tall kinds of things in due proportion.> Ibn Abbas said that this means with their predetermined proportions. This was also the opinion of Said bin Jubayr, Ikrimah, Abu Malik, Mujahid, Al-Hakim bin Utaybah, Al-Hasan bin Muhammad, Abu Salih and Qatadah . Ijj j 3 $And We have provided therein means of living, for you$ Here Allah mentions that He created the earth with different means of provisions and livelihood of all kinds. 4andfor those whom you provide not.$ Mujahid said, This refers to the riding animals and the cattle. 131 Ibn Jarir said, They are slaves, men and women, as well as the animals and the cattle. The meaning is that Allah, may He be exalted, is reminding them of the ways of earning provision that He has made easy for them, and of the animals that He has subjugated for them to ride and to eat, and the slaves from whom they benefit, but the provision of all of these comes from Allah alone. 141 Al-Bari8 :23 1Tabari 17:79-81.Tabari 17:82.Tabari 17:82.

388 Tafsir Ibn Kathir Reported by Ibn Jarir.111 Benefits of the Winds 4And We send the winds fertilizing i.e., fertilizing the clouds so that they give rain, and fertilizing the trees so that they open their leaves and blossoms. These winds are mentioned here in the plural form because they give results, unlike the barren wind (Ar-Rih Al- Aqim, see Adh- Dhariyat 51:41), which is mentioned in the singular and described as barren since it does not produce anything; because results can only be produced when there are two or more things. iAnd We sent the winds fertilizing. Abdullah bin Mas'ud said, The wind is sent bearing water from the sky, then it fertilizes the clouds until rain begins to generously fall, just as the milk of the pregnant camel flows generously. 121 This was also the opinion of Ibn Abbas, Ibrahim An-Nakha'i and Qatadah.13' Ad-Dahhak said: Allah sends it to the clouds and it gets fertilized and becomes full of water. 141 TJayd bin TJayr Al-Laythi said: Allah sends the wind which stirs up the earth, then Allah sends the wind which raises clouds, then Allah sends the wind which forms clouds, then Allah sends the fertilizing wind which pollinates the trees. Then he recited, cf9' {And We sent the winds fertilizing, At-Tabari 17:84.Tabari 17-86.Tabari 17:87-88.Tabari 17:88 151 Ibid.

There were some differences among the scholars over the meaning of seven of the Mathani . Ibn Mas'ud, Ibn Umar, Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Said bin Jubayr, Ad-Dahhak and others said that they are the seven long (Surahs), meaning Al-Baqarah, Al- Imran, An-Nisa , Al-Ma idah, Al-An am, Al-A raf and Yunus. There are texts to this effect reported from Ibn Abbas and Said bin Jubayr. Said said: In them, Allah explains the obligations, the Hudud (legal limits), stories and rulings. Ibn Abbas said, He explains the parables, stories and lessons. 111 The second opinion is that they (the seven of the Mathani) are Al-Fatihah, which is composed of seven Ayat. This was reported from Ali, Umar, Ibn Mas'ud and Ibn Abbas. Ibn Abbas said: The Bismillah, is completing seven Ayat, which Allah has given exclusively to you (

Others did not believe him and stayed where they were until the next morning when the [invading] army overtook them and destroyed them, wiping them out. This is the parable of the one who obeys me and follows what I have brought, and the example of the one who disobeys me and rejects the truth that I have brought. Explanation of Al-Muqtasimin 4the Muqtasimm} refers to those who had made a pact to oppose, deny, and insult the Prophets. Similarly, Allah tells us about the people of Salih: $\text{^ JcOjj ait ts yu^ I 1 * FathAl-Bari 13:264, Muslim 4:1788.}$

iThey said, Swear to one another [Taqdsamu] by Allah that we shall make a secret night attack on him and his household [27:49] i.e., they plotted to kill him at night. Al-Bukhari reported that Ibn Abbas said, $\text{4'-^~tt 4Who have made the Qur'an into parts.}$ They are the People of the Book, who divided the Book into parts, believing in some of it, and rejecting some of it. 111 Some have said that Al-Mutaqasimin refers to the Quraysh, that the Qur'an means this Qur'an [as opposed to the Scriptures of the People of the Book], and that made it into parts referred to what Ata said that some of them said that he (the Prophet ﷺ) was a sorcerer, some said he was crazy, or a soothsayer. These various allegations were the parts. This Fath Al-Bari 8 :233

420 Tafslr Ibn Kathlr opinion was also reported from Ad-Dahhak and others. Muhammad bin Ishaq reported from Ibn Abbas that Al- Walid bin Al-Mughlah - holding a noble position among the people - rallied a group of Quraysh behind him when Al- Mawsim (the time for pilgrims to meet in Makkah for Hajj) had come. He said to them, O people of Quraysh! The time of Al- Mawsim has come, and delegations of Arabs will come to you during this time. They will have heard some things about this companion of yours (meaning the Prophet ﷺ), so agree on one opinion, let there be no contradicting or denials of each other's sayings. They said, And you, O Abu Abd Shams, give us an opinion and we will say that. He said, No, you make the suggestions and I will listen. They said, We say he is a soothsayer. He said, He is not a soothsayer. They said, We say he is crazy. He said, He is not crazy. They said, We say he is a poet. He said, He is not a poet. They said, We say he is a sorcerer. He said, He is not a sorcerer. They said, So what should we say? He said, By Allah, what he says is as palatable (to the average person) as something sweet, so you cannot say anything against it without it being obviously false. Therefore the most appropriate thing you can say is that he is a sorcerer. So they left having agreed upon that, and Allah revealed concerning them: iWho have made the Qur'an into parts> meaning, of different types, and 4So, by your Lord, We shall certainly call all of them to account. Al-Hijr (94-99) (Part-14) as some of the Sufis do. According to them, when one of them attains the level of Ma'rifah, they consider him to be free of these obligations. This is disbelief, misguidance and ignorance. The Prophets - peace be upon them - and their companions, were the most knowledgeable of people about Allah, about His rights. His attributes, and the glorification that He deserves. But at the same time, they were the people who worshipped Him the most, continuing in good deeds until the time they died. Therefore, what is meant by Vdqm here is death, as we have stated above. To Allah be praise and thanks. Praise be to Allah for His guidance. It is to Him that we turn for help and it is in Him that we put our trust. He is the One Whom we ask to help us to reach the best of circumstances, for He is the Most Generous and Kind. This is the end of the Tafsir of Surat Al-Hijr. Praise be to Allah, the Lord of all that exists.

Warning about the approach of the Hour

Allah is informing about the approach of the Hour in the past tense [in Arabic] in order to confirm that it will undoubtedly come to pass. This is like the following Ayat, in which the verbs appear in the past tense in Arabic: 4SY ' * .. . i', ' iMankind's reckoning has drawn near them, while they turn away in heedlessness.^[21:1] 4The Hour has drawn near, and the moon has been cleft.} [54:1] $} 4so do not seek to hasten it.} means, what was far is now near, so do not try to rush it. And you find (many other) benefits in them; you may reach by their means a desire that is in your breasts (i.e. carry your goods, loads), and on them and on ships you are carried. And He shows you His Ayat. Which, then of the Ayat of Allah do you deny?) (40:79-81). Thus here Allah says, after enumerating these blessings, (40:79-81) Truly, your Lord is full of kindness, Most Merciful.) meaning, your Lord is the One Who has subjugated the An'am (cattle) to you. This is like the Ayat: 'We created the An'am (cattle) for them, so that they may own them, and We subdued them so that they may ride some and they may eat some.' (36:71-72).

And He made mounts for you out of ships and cattle. In order that you may ride on their backs, and may then remember the favor of your Lord when you mount upon them, and say: "Glory be to the One Who subjected this to us, and we could never have it (by our efforts). And verily, to Our Lord we indeed are to return!" (43:12-14) Ibn Abbas said, 'In them there is warmth refers to clothing; and numerous benefits' refers to the ways in which they derive the benefits of food and drink from them. (48:14) And (He has created) horses, mules and donkeys for you to ride, and as an adornment. And He creates (other) things of which you have no knowledge.' This refers to another category of animals that Allah has created as a blessing for His servants; horses, mules and donkeys, all of which He made for riding and adornment. This is the main purpose for which these animals were created. It was reported in the Two Sahihahs that Jabir bin Abdullah said: The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) forbade us to eat the meat of domestic donkeys, but he allowed us to eat the meat of horses. Imam Ahmad and Abu Dawud reported with two chains of narration, each of which meet the conditions of Muslim, that Jabir said: On the day of Khaybar we slaughtered horses, mules and donkeys. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) forbade us from eating the mules and donkeys, but he did not forbid us from eating the horses. According to Sahih Muslim, Asma bint Abi Bakr (may Allah be pleased with them both) said: At the time of the Messenger (ﷺ) At-Jabari 17:168. Fath Al-Bari 9 :570 , Muslim 3 :1541 ' Ahmad 3:356,362, Abu Dawud 4:149, 151.

Verily, in this there is indeed an evident proof and a manifest sign for people who give thought.} The Blessings of Rain, and explaining how it is one of the Signs When Allah mentions the blessings of cattle and other animals that He has granted mankind, He then mentions how He has blessed them by sending rain down from the sky above, which has been fulfilling the needs and bringing joy to people and their cattle. Allah says: 4 i j3> ifrom it you drink} meaning, He made it fresh and pure so that they can drink it, not salty and undrinkable. iand from it (grows) the vegetation on which you send your cattle to pasture.}

An-Nahl (12-13) (Part-14) Signs in the Subjection of Night and Day, the Sun and the Moon, and in that which grows on Earth Allah mentions the mighty signs and immense blessings to be found in His subjection of night and day, which follow one another; the sun and moon, which revolve; the stars, both fixed and moving through the skies, offering light by which people may find their way in the darkness. Each of (these heavenly bodies) travels in its own orbit, which Allah has ordained for it, and travels in the manner prescribed for it, without deviating in any way. All of them are under His subjugation, His control and His decree, as Allah says: JiV'j jSi a J $c 34 yJei' ii' Qfj ^Indeed, your Lord is Allah, Who created the heavens and the earth in Six Days, and then He rose (Istawa) over the Throne. He brings the night as a cover over the day, seeking it rapidly, and (He created) the sun, the moon, the stars (all) subjected to His command. Surely, His is the creation and commandment. Blessed is Allah, the Lord of all that exists!} (7:54) Thus Allah says; iStirely, in this are proofs for people who understand . meaning, they are indications of His immense power and might, for those who think about Allah and understand His signs. ft 4And whatsoever He has created of varying colors on the earth for you.} When Allah points out the features of the skies, He also points out the wondrous things that He has created on earth, the variety of its animals, minerals, plants and inanimate features, all having different colors and shapes, benefits and qualities. 4a. *-$

4Verily, in this is a sign for people who reflect. meaning (those who remember) the blessings of Allah and give thanks to Him for them. 424. And He it is Who subjected the sea (to you), that you may eat from the fresh tender meat, and that you bring forth out of it ornaments to wear. And you see the ships plowing through it, that you may seek from His bounty and that you may perhaps be grateful . $ 415. And He has driven firm standing mountains into the earth, lest it should shake with you; and rivers and roads, that you may guide yourselves. 416. And (by the) landmarks; and by the stars, they guide themselves. 417. Is then He Who creates the same as one who creates, not? Will you not then reflect? $ 418. And if you would try to count the favors of Allah, you would never be able to count them. Truly, Allah is Forgiving, Most Merciful Signs in the Oceans, Mountains, Rivers, Roads and Stars Allah tells us how He has subjected the seas, with their waves lapping the shores, and how He blesses His servants by subjecting the seas for them so that they may travel on them, and by putting fish and whales in them, by making their flesh permissible to eat - whether they are caught alive or dead - at all times, including when people are in a state of Ihram. He has created pearls and precious jewels in the oceans, and made it easy for His servants to recover ornaments that they can wear from the ocean floor. He made the sea such that it carries the ships which plow through it. He is the One Who taught mankind to make ships, which is the inheritance of

An-Nahl (14-18) (Part-14) their forefather Nuh. He was the first one to travel by ship, he was taught how to make them, then people took this knowledge from him and passed it down from generation to generation through the centuries, so that they could travel from country to country and from place to place, bringing goods from here to there and from there to here. Thus Allah says: {that you may seek from His bounty and that you may perhaps be grateful.} - for His bounty and blessings. Then Allah mentions the earth and how He placed in it mountains standing firm, which make it stable and keep it from shaking in such a manner that the creatures dwelling on it would not be able to live. Hence Allah says, {And the mountains He has fixed firmly.} (79:32). {and rivers and roads} meaning He has made rivers which flow from one place to another, bringing provision for His servants. The rivers arise in one place, and bring provision to people living in another place. They flow through lands and fields and wildernesses, through mountains and hills, until they reach the land whose people they are meant to benefit. They meander across the land, left and right, north and south, east and west - rivers great and small - flowing sometimes and ceasing sometimes, flowing from their sources to the places where the water gathers, flowing rapidly or moving slowly, as decreed by Allah. There is no god besides Him and no Lord except Him. He also made roads or routes along which people travel from one land or city to another, and He even made gaps in the mountains so that there would be routes between them, as He says: 4And We placed broad highways for them to pass through.} (21:31]

4And landmarks meaning, signs like great mountains and small hills, and so on, things that land and sea travelers use to find their way if they get lost. > Sif 'V 4^~r. (" {and by the stars (during the night), they (mankind) guide themselves.} meaning, in the darkness of the night. This was the opinion of Ibn Abbas. Then He shows His servants some of the many blessings He granted for them, and the many kinds of things that He has done for them. He says; 4And if you would try to count the favors of Allah, you would never be able to count them. Truly, Allah is Forgiving, Most Merciful.} (16:18) meaning that He pardons and forgives them. If He were to ask you to thank Him for all of His blessings, you would not be able to do so, and if He were to command you to do so, you would be incapable of it. If He punishes you. He is never unjust in His punishment, but He is Forgiving and Most Merciful, He forgives much and rewards for little. Ibn Jarir said: It means that Allah is Forgiving when you fail to thank Him properly, if you repent and turn to Him in obedience, and strive to do that which pleases Him. [43:71] "Thus Allah rewards those who have Taqwa." meaning, this is how Allah rewards everyone who believes in Him, fears Him, and does good deeds. Then Allah tells us about their condition when death approaches them in a good state, i.e., free from Shirk, impurity and all evil. The angels greet them and give them the good news of Paradise, as Allah says: "Verily, those who say: Our Lord is Allah (alone)," and then behave righteously, on them the angels will descend (at the time of their death) (saying) : "Fear not, nor grieve! 437. [Even] if you desire that they be guided, then verily, Allah does not guide those whom He allowed to stray, and they will have no helpers.} The Idolaters Argument that their Shirk was Divinely decreed, and the Refutation of thin Claim Allah tells us about the idolaters delusion over their Shirk, and the excuse they claimed for it based on the idea that it is ordained by divine decree. He says: Cti X, tjtl. 'jj jVi l> lai $} Hi 4(They say:) "If Allah had so willed, neither we nor our fathers would have worshipped any but Him, nor would we have forbidden anything without (a command from) Him."} They had superstitious customs dealing with certain animals, e.g. the Bahirahlll] the Sa ibah and the WasQah and other things that they had invented and innovated by themselves, with no revealed authority. The essence of what they said was: If Allah hated what we did, He would have stopped by punishing us, and He would not have enabled us to do it. Rejecting their confusing ideas, Allah says: 4k $&} 4Are the

Messengers charged with anything but to clearly convey the Message?} meaning, the matter is not as you claim. It is not the case that Allah did not rebuke your behavior; rather, He did rebuke you, and in the strongest possible terms, and He emphatically !i| See the Tafsir of Surah Yunus nos . 59-60

An-Nahl (35-37) (Part-14) forbade you from such behavior. To every nation - that is, to every generation, to every community of people - He sent a Messenger. All of the Messengers called their people to worship Allah (Alone) as well as forbidding them from worshipping anything or anybody except for Him. lilt 'jilt' ^Worship Allah (Alone), and shun the Tdghiit (all false deities).} Allah continued sending Messengers to mankind with this Message, from the first incidence of Shirk that appeared among the Children of Adam, in the people to whom NQh was sent - the first Messenger sent by Allah to the people of this earth - until He sent the final Messenger, Muhammad jg|, whose call was addressed to both men and Jinn, in the east and in the west. 462 Tafsir Ibrt Kathir The legislative will of Allah is clear and cannot be taken as an excuse by them, because He had forbidden them to do that upon the tongue of His Messengers, but by His universal will [i.e., by which He allows things to occur even though they do not please Him] He allowed them to do that as it was decreed for them. So there is no argument in that for them. Allah created Hell and its people both the Shayatin (devils) and disbelievers, but He does not like His servants to disbelieve. And this point constitutes the strongest proof and the most unquestionable wisdom. Then Allah informs us that He rebuked them with punishment in this world, after the Messengers issued their warning, thus He says: O* (v4~y iSJL* a iThen among them were some whom Allah guided, and among them were some who deserved to be left to stray. (They are) those who remained patient, and put their trust in their Lord. } The Reward of the Muhajirin Allah tells us about the reward of those who migrated for His sake, seeking His pleasure, those who left their homeland behind, brothers and friends, hoping for the reward of Allah. This may have been revealed concerning those who migrated to Ethiopia, those whose persecution at the hands of their own people in Makkah was so extreme that they left them and went to Ethiopia so that they would be able to worship their Lord. Among the most prominent of these migrants were Thuman bin Affan and his wife Ruqayyah, the daughter of the Messenger of Allah Ja'far bin Abi Talib, the cousin of the Messenger , and Abu Salamah bin Abdul-Asad, among a group of almost eighty sincere and faithful men and women, may Allah be pleased with them. An-Nahl (43-44) (Part-14) Ibn Abbas, Ash-Sha'bi and Qatadah said: (this means) Al- Madinah." It was also said that it meant good provision . This was the opinion of Mujahid.^{12*} There is no contradiction between these two opinions, for they left their homes and wealth, but Allah compensated them with something better in this world. Whoever gives up something for the sake of Allah, Allah compensates him with something that is better for him than that, and this is what happened. He gave them power throughout the land and caused them to rule over the people, so they became governors and rulers, and each of them became a leader of the pious. Allah tells us that His reward for the Muhajirin in the Hereafter is greater than that which He gave them in this world, as He says: & 'M> 4but indeed the reward of the Hereafter will be greater} meaning, greater than that which We have given you in this world. 4if they but knew! } means, if those who stayed behind and did not migrate with them only knew what Allah prepared for those who obeyed Him and followed His Messenger . Among the Behavior of the Idolators was vowing to Things that Allah had provided for Them to their gods Allah tells us about some of the heinous deeds of those who used to perform baseless worship of other gods besides Him, such as idols and statues, with no grounds for doing so. They gave their idols a share of that which Allah had provided for them, 4 .H, L ^ 'j[j ji 477iei/ say: "This is for Allah," according to their claim, "and this is for our partners." But the share of their "partners" is not directed to Allah, while the share of Allah is directed to their "partners"! How evil is that with which they judged (6:136) That is they assigned a share for their idols as well as Allah, but they gave preference to their gods over Him, so Allah swore by His Almighty Self to question them about these lies and fabrications. He will most certainly call them to account for it and give them the unrelenting punishment in the fire of Hell. So He says, 4By Allah, you shall certainly be questioned about (all) that you used to fabricate.} Then Allah tells us how they used to regard the angels, who are servants of the Most Merciful, as being female, and that they considered them to be Allah's daughters, and they worshipped them with Him. In all of the above, they made very serious errors. Then Allah decrees that the bee will have permission to eat from all fruits and to follow the ways which Allah has made easy for it, wherever it wants to go in the vast spaces of the wilderness, valleys and high mountains. Then each bee comes back to its hive without swerving to the right or left, it comes straight back to its home where its offspring and honey are. Ibn Jarir said that both opinions are correct. iThere comes forth from their bellies, a drink of varying colors, wherein is healing for men.} [meaning, honey, that is] white, yellow, red, or of other good colors, depending on the different things that the bees eat. iM tin which there is a cure for men.} meaning there is a cure in honey for diseases that people suffer from. Some of those who spoke about the study of Prophetic medicine said that if [Allah] had said, in which there is the cure for men, then it would be the remedy for all diseases, but He said, in which there is a cure for men, meaning that it is the right treatment for every cold disease, because it is hot, and a disease should be treated with its opposite.

It is reported in the Two Sahdis from A'ishah, may Allah be pleased with her, that the Messenger of Allah used to like sweet things and honey. This is the wording of Al-Bukhari, who also reported in his Sahih from Ibn 'Abbas that the Messenger of Allah said: p) * p'i - Jt uJ "Healing is to be found in three things: the cut made by the copper, or drinking honey, or in branding with fire (cauterizing), but I have forbidden my Ummah to use branding. djpCd; d# l) (j\} iThere is indeed a sign in that for people who reflect.} meaning in the fact that Allah inspires this weak little creature to travel through the vast

Thus Al-Bukhari, when commenting on this Ayah, reported a narration from Anas bin Malik that the Messenger of Allah sg used to pray: oLLU \j Lpv-kJl Oj I seek refuge with You from miserliness, laziness, old age, senility, the punishment of the grave, the Fitnah of the Dajjdl and the trials of life and deathM*' Zuhayr bin Abi Sulma said, in his famous Mu allaqah:i2] I became exhausted from the responsibilities of life. An-Nahl (71) (Part-14) There is a Sign and a Blessing in Matters of People's Livelihood Allah explains to the idolaters the ignorance and disbelief involved in their claim that Allah has partners while also admitting that these partners are His servants. In their Talbiyah111 for Hajj, they used to say, Here I am, there are no partners for You except Your own partner, You own him and everything he owns. Allah says, denouncing them: You would not accept for your servant to have an equal share in your wealth, so how is it that Allah would accept His servant to be His equal in divinity and glory? As Allah says elsewhere: '-f-i "7" *>.V 4He sets forth a parable for you from yourselves : Do you have partners among those whom your right hands possess (i.e. your servant) to share as equals in the wealth We have granted you, those whom you fear as you fear each other?} (30 :28) Al- Awfi reported that Ibn Abbas mentioned this Ayah, saying, Allah is saying - If they did not want their servant to have a share with them in their wealth and wives, how can My servant have a share with Me in My power? And Allah has made for you mates of your own kind, and has made for you, from your mates, sons and grandsons, and has granted you good provisions. Do they then believe in false deities and deny favor of Allah?} Among His Blessings and Signs are Mates, Children and Grandchildren Allah mentions the blessing He has bestowed upon His servant by giving them mates from among themselves, mates of their own kind. If He had given them mates of another kind, there would be no harmony, love and mercy between them. But out of His mercy He has made the Children of Adam male and female, and has made the females wives or mates for the males. Then Allah mentions that from these wives He creates children and grandchildren, one's children's children. This was the opinion of Ibn Abbas, Ikrimah, Al-Hasan, Ad-Dahhak and Ibn Zayd. Shu'bah said, narrating from Abu Bishr from Said bin Jubayr from Ibn Abbas: Children and grandchildren, who are one's children and one's children's children. * It was also said that this means servants and helpers, or it means sons-in-law or in-laws. Ibn Abi Najih reported that Mujahid said: This is an example given of the idol and the True God - can they be the same? 14 ' Once the difference between them is so clear and so obvious, no one can be unaware of it except the one who is foolish. Meaning that the idol is dumb and cannot speak or say anything, good or otherwise. It cannot do anything at all, no words, no action, it is dependent and is a burden on its master. 111 Al-Tabari 17:261. 121 Al-Tabari 17:261. Al-Tabari 17:263. Al-Tabari 17:263.

His complete power, which no one can oppose or resist, means that when He wants a thing, He only has to say to it Be! and it is, as Allah says: 4And Our commandment is but one as the twinkling of an eye.$ (54 :50) meaning, whatever He wills happens in blinking. Thus Allah says here: 4And the matter of the Hour is not but as a twinkling of the eye, or even nearer. Truly, Allah is Able to do all things. Elsewhere, Allah says: ipz%pa 4The processes of creating you all and resurrecting you all are but like that of (the creation and resurrection of) a single person> (31 :28) Among the Favors Allah has granted People are Hearing, Sight and the Heart Then Allah mentions His blessings to His servants in that He brought them from their mothers wombs not knowing a thing, then He gives them hearing to recognize voices, sight to see visible things and hearts - meaning reason - whose seat, according to the correct view, is the heart, although it was also said that its seat is the brain. With his reason, a person can distinguish between what is harmful and what is beneficial. These abilities and senses develop gradually in man. The more he grows, the more his hearing, vision and reason increase, until they reach their peak. Allah has created these faculties in man to enable him to worship his Lord, so he uses all these organs, abilities and strengths to obey his Master. Al-Bukhari reported in his Sahih from Abu Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allah said: tCs . c)\ *r'S55 Juj^.^

And when I love him, I am his hearing with which he hears, his vision with which he sees, his hand with which he strikes and his foot with which he walks. Were he to ask Me for anything, I would give it to him, if he were to call on Me, I would respond, if he were to seek Me for refuge I would surely grant him it. I do not hesitate to do anything as I hesitate to take the soul of My believing servant, because he hates death and I hate to upset him, but it is inevitable."t 1

Thus in some versions of the Hadith, narrated outside the Sahih, after the phrase his foot with which he walks, there is added: * I - - " > ' * ' " - "So through Me he hears, through Me he sees, through Me he strikes and through Me he walks. .z| Thus Allah says: p2 iAnd He gave you hearing, sight, and hearts that you might Al-Bari 1 1 :348 Fath Al-Bari 1 1 :352

518 Tafstr Ibn Kathir iand do not break the oatltis after you have confirmed them} because these are the kinds of oaths that have to do with covenants and promises, not the kind that have to do with urging oneself to do something or preventing him from doing something. Therefore Mujahid said concerning this Ayah: 4&+SZ %} iand do not break the oaths after you have confirmed them The oath here refers to oaths made during Jahiliyyahfi 1] This supports the Hadth recorded by Imam Ahmad from Jubayr bin Mut'im, who said that the Messenger of Allah jg said: iijJ 'i UUjl J SiS jL- U:V| ^ 'jt sli "There is no oath in Islam, and any oath made during the Jahiliyyah is only reinforced by Islam, This was also reported by MuslimJ3 The meaning is that Islam does not need oaths as they were used by the people of the Jahiliyyah-, adherence to Islam is sufficient to do away with any need for what they used to customarily give oaths for. In the Two Sahihs it was reported that Anas said: The Messenger of Allah (^) swore the treaty of allegiance between the Muhajirin (emigrants) and the Ansar (helpers) in our house. ' This means that he established brotherhood between them, and they used to inherit from one another, until Allah abrogated that. And Allah knows best. &&U SjZ iAnd do not be like the one who undoes the thread which she has spun, after it has become strong, Abdullah bin Kathlr and As-Suddi said: This was a foolish woman in Makkah. Eveiytime she spun thread and made it strong, she would undo it again. 111 Mujahid, Qatadah and Ibn Zayd said: This is like the one who breaks a covenant after confirming it. 121 This view is more correct and more apparent, whether or not there was a woman in Makkah who undid her thread after spinning it. The word Ankathan could be referring back to the word translated as undoes , reinforcing the meaning, or it could be the predicate of the verb to be , meaning, do not be Ankathan, the plural of Nakth (breach, violation), from the word Nakith (perfidious). Hence after this, Allah says: 4.by taking your oaths as a means of deception among yourselves^ meaning for the purposes of cheating and tricking one another. 0U$ Jt& & iwhen one group is more numerous than another group.} meaning, you swear an oath with some people if they are more in number than you, so that they can trust you, but when you are able to betray them you do so. Allah forbids that, by showing a case where treachery might be expected or excused, but He forbids it. If treachery is forbidden in such a case, then in cases where one is in a position of strength it is forbidden more emphatically. Mujahid said: They used to enter into alliances and covenants, then find other parties who were more powerful and more numerous, so they would cancel the alliance with the first group and make an alliance with the second who were more powerful and more numerous. This is what they were forbidden to do." Ad-Dahhak, Qatadah and Ibn Zayd said something similar. At-Tabari 17:285. At-Tabari 17:285.

The Prohibition on taking an Oath for Purposes of Treachery Then Allah warns His servant against taking oaths as means of deception, i.e., using them for treacherous purposes, lest a foot should slip after being firmly planted. This is an analogy describing one who was on the right path but then deviated and slipped from the path of guidance because of an unfulfilled oath that involved hindering people from the path of Allah. This is because if a disbeliever were to find that after having agreed to a covenant, then the believer betrayed him, then the believer will have hindered him from entering Islam. Thus Allah says: JC- tL \jjZj} iand you taste the evil of having hindered from the path of Allah, and you will suffer a terrible punishment.> Do not break Oaths for the sake of Worldly Gain Then Allah says: iAnd do not use an oath by Allah for the purchase of little value.} meaning, do not neglect an oath sworn in the Name of Allah for the sake of this world and its attractions, for they are few, and even if the son of Adam were to gain this world and all that is in it, that which is with Allah is better for him, i.e., the reward of Allah is better for the one who puts his hope in Him, believes in Him, seeks Him and fulfills his oaths in the hope of that which Allah has promised. This is why Allah says:

An-Nahl (97) (Part-14) iif you only knew. Allah promises that He will give them a good life in this world and that He will, reward them according to the best of their deeds in the Hereafter. The good life includes feeling tranquillity in all aspects of life. It has been reported that Ibn Abbas and a group (of scholars) interpreted it to mean good, lawful provisions. The tongue of the man they refer to is foreign , while this (the Qur'an) is (in) a clear Arabic tongue.} The Idolaters Claim that the Qur'an was taught by a Human, and the Refutation of their Claim Allah tells us about the idolators lies, allegations, and slander when they claimed that this Qur'an which Muhammad (ﷺ) had recited for them, was actually taught to him by a human. They referred to a foreign (i.e., non-Arab) man who lived among them as the servant of some of the clans of Quraysh and who used to sell goods by As-Safa. Maybe the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) used to sit with him sometimes and talk to him a little, but he was a foreigner who did not know much Arabic, only enough simple phrases to answer questions when he had to. So in refutation of their claims of fabrication, Allah said: 4S4 JLpz la, iLij > jjfo s J \}

The tongue of the man they refer to is foreign, while this (the Qur'an) is a (in) clear Arabic tongue. meaning, how could it be that this Qur'an with its eloquent style and perfect meanings, which is more perfect than any Book revealed to any previously sent Prophet, have been learnt from a foreigner who hardly speaks the language? No one with the slightest amount of common sense would say such a thing. Gl %\ ^ \} 4104. Verily, those who do not believe in Allah's Ayat (signs, or revelation), Allah will not guide them, and theirs will be a painful punishment. 4105. It is only those who do not believe in Allah's Ayat who fabricate the falsehood, and it is they who are liars.} Allah tells us that He does not guide those who turn away from remembering Him and who are heedless of that which He revealed to His Messenger (ﷺ), those who have no intention of believing in that which he has brought from Allah. This kind of people will never be guided to faith by the signs of Allah and the Message which He sent His Messengers in this world, and they will suffer a painful and severe punishment in the Hereafter. Then Allah informs us that His Messenger (ﷺ) is not a forger nor a liar, because the one who fabricates falsehood about Allah and His Messenger is the most evil of creatures. 4$ 4Verily, those who do not believe in Allah's Ayat,} Allah will not guide them, and theirs will be a painful punishment, meaning, the disbelievers and heretics who are known to the people as liars. The Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ), on the other hand, was the most honest and righteous of people, the most perfect in knowledge, deeds, faith and conviction. He was known among his people for his truthfulness and no one among them had any doubts about that - to such an extent that they always addressed him as Al- Amin (the Trustworthy) Muhammad. Thus when Heraclius, the king of the Romans, asked Abu Sufyan about the attributes of the Messenger of Allah one of the things he said to him was.

They will suffer severe punishment in the Hereafter, because they preferred this life to the Hereafter, and they left the faith for the sake of this world and Allah did not guide their hearts and help them to stand firm in the true religion. The scholars agreed that if a person is forced into disbelief, it is permissible for him to either go along with them in the interests of self-preservation, or to refuse, as Bilal did when they were inflicting all sorts of torture on him, even placing a huge rock on his chest in the intense heat and telling him to admit others as partners with Allah. He refused, saying, Alone, Alone. And he said, By Allah, if I knew any word more annoying to you than this, I would say it. May Allah be pleased with him. Similarly, when the Liar MQsaylimah asked Habib bin Zayd Al- Ansari, Do you bear witness that Muhammad is the Messenger ofAllah? He said, Yes. Then Musaylimah asked, Do you bear witness that Iam the messenger ofAllah? Habib said, I do not hear you. Musaylimah kept cutting him, piece by piece, but he remained steadfast insisting on his words. It is better and preferable for the Muslim to remain steadfast in his religion, even if that leads to him being killed, as was mentioned by Al-Hafiz Ibn Asakir in his biography of Abdullah bin Hudhafah Al-Sahmi, one of the Companions. He said that he was taken prisoner by the Romans, who brought him to their king. The king said, Become a Christian, and I will give you a share of my kingdom and my daughter in m Asad Al-Ghabah 1049.

An-Nahl (106- 109) (Part-14 marriage. Abdullah said: If you were to give me all that you possess and all that Arabs possess to make me give up the religion of Muhammad jg even for an instant, I would not do it. The king said, Then I will kill you. Abdullah said, It is up to you. The king gave orders that he should be crucified, and commanded his archers to shoot near his hands and feet while ordering him to become a Christian, but he still refused. Then the king gave orders that he should be brought down, and that a big vessel made of copper be brought and heated up. Then, while Abdullah was watching, one of the Muslim prisoners was brought out and thrown into it, until all that was left of him was scorched bones. The king ordered him to become a Christian, but he still refused. Then he ordered that Abdullah be thrown into the vessel, and he was brought back to the pulley to be thrown in. Abdullah wept, and the king hoped that he would respond to him, so he called him, but Abdullah said, I only weep because I have only one soul with which to be thrown into this vessel at this moment for the sake of Allah; I wish that I had as many souls as there are hairs on my body with which I could undergo this torture for the sake of Allah. According to some reports, the king imprisoned him and deprived him of food and drink for several days, then he sent him wine and pork, and he did not come near them. Then the king called him and asked him, What stopped you from eating? Abdullah said, It is permissible for me (under these circumstances), but I did not want to give you the opportunity to gloat. The king said to him, Kiss my head and I will let you go. Abdullah said, And will you release all the Muslim prisoners with me? The king said, Yes. So Abdullah kissed his head and he released him and all the other Muslim prisoners he was holding. When he came back, TJmar bin Al- Khattab said, Every Muslim should kiss the head of Abdullah bin Hudhafah, and I will be the first to do so. And he stood up and kissed his head. The Sabbath was only prescribed for those who differed concerning it, and verily, your Lord will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection about what they differed over.$ The Prescription of the Sabbath for the Jews There is no doubt that for every nation, Allah prescribed one day of the week for people to gather to worship Him. For this Ummah He prescribed Friday, because it is the sixth day, on which Allah completed and perfected His creation. On this day He gathered and completed His blessings for His servants. It was said that Allah prescribed this day for the Children of Israel through His Prophet Musa, but they changed it and chose Saturday because it was the day on which the Creator did not create anything, as He had completed His creation on Friday. Allah made observance of the Sabbath obligatory for them in the laws of the Tawrah (Torah), telling them to keep the Sabbath. At the same time, He told them to follow Muhammad jg| when he was sent, and took their promises and covenant to that effect. Hence Allah says: iThe Sabbath was only prescribed Jbr those who differed concerning it,$ Mujahid said: They observed the Sabbath (Saturday) and ignored Friday. 1 11 Then they continued to observe Saturday until Allah sent Isa bin Maryam. It was said that he told them m At-Tabari 17:320.

to change it to Sunday, and it was also said that he did not forsake the laws of the Tawrah except for a few rulings which were abrogated, and he continued to observe the Sabbath until he was taken up (into heaven). Afterwards, the Christians at the time of Constantine were the ones who changed it to Sunday in order to be different from the Jews, and they started to pray towards the east instead of facing the Dome (i.e., Jerusalem). I rode on it and it took me to Bayt Al-Maqdis (Jerusalem), where I tethered it at the hitching post of the Prophets. Then I entered and prayed two Rak'ahs there, and came out. Jibril brought me a vessel of wine and a vessel of milk, and I chose the milk. Jibril said: 'You have chosen the Fitrah (natural instinct).' Then I was taken up to the first heaven and Jibril asked for it to be opened. It was said, 'Who are you?' He said, 'Jibril.' It was said, 'Who is with you?' He said, 'Muhammad.' It was asked, 'Has his Mission started?' He said, 'His Mission has started.' So it was opened for us, and there I saw Adam, who welcomed me and prayed for good for me. Then I was taken up to the second heaven and Jibril asked for it to be opened. It was said, 'Who are you?' He said, 'Jibril.' It was said, 'Who is with you?' He said, 'Muhammad.' It was asked, 'Has his Mission started?' He said, 'His Mission has started.' So it was opened for us, and there I saw the two maternal cousins, Yahya and Isa, who welcomed me and prayed for good for me. This is Bilal, the Mu adhdhin. When the Prophet jg came back to the people, he said, IjS j C-jfj JjD tBilal has succeeded, I saw that he will have such and such . He [the Prophet jg] was met by Musa, who welcomed him and said, 'Welcome to the Unlettered Prophet. He was a tall, dark man with lank hair coming down to his ears or above his ears. He said, Who is this, O Jibril? He said, This is Musa. Then he went on and met a venerable, distinguished old man, who welcomed him and greeted him with Salam, and all of them were greeting him. He said, Who is this, O Jibril? He said, This is your father Ibrahim. Then he looked into Hell and saw some people eating rotten meat. He said, Who are these people, O Jibril? He said. They are those who used to eat the flesh of the people [i.e., backbiting]. He saw a man who was very red and dark blue, and said, Who is this, O Jibril? He said, This is the one who slaughtered the she-camel (of Salih). When the Messenger of Allah sg came to Al-Masjid Al-Aqsa, he stood up to pray, and all the Prophets gathered and prayed with him. When he finished, he was brought two cups, one on his right and one on his left, one containing milk and one containing honey. He took the milk and drank it, and the one who was carrying the cup said, 'You have chosen the Fitrah (natural instinct). The chain of narrators is Sahih, although they (Al-Bukhari and Muslim) did not record it. Imam Ahmad reported that Ibn Abbas said: The Messenger of Allah jg was taken on the Night Journey to Bayt Al-Maqdis, then he came back and told them about his journey and the features of Bayt Al-Maqdis and the caravan (of Quraysh). Some people said, We do not believe what Muhammad is saying, and they left Islam and became disbelievers. Allah destroyed them when He destroyed Abu Jahl. Abu Jahl said: Muhammad is trying to scare us with the tree of Zaqqum.l bring some dates and butter and let us have some Zaqqum.l The Prophet also saw the Dajjal in his true form, in real life, not in a dream, and he saw Isa, Musa and 1:257.

572 Tafsir IbtI Kathir The Time that Isra* took place, and the Fact that it included both Body and Soul, when the Propheti was awake, not in aDream Musa bin TJqbah said, narrating from Az-Zuhri: The Isrd happened one year before the Hijrah This was also the opinion of TJrwah . As-Suddi said: It happened sixteen months before the Hijrah. The truth is that the Prophet was taken on the Night Journeywhen he was awake, not in a dream, and he went from Makkah to Bayt Al-Maqdis riding on Al-Buraq. When he reached the door of the sanctuary, he tied up his animal by the door and entered, where he prayed two Rak'ahs to greet the Masjid . Then the Mi raj was brought to him, which is a ladder with steps which one climbs up. So he went up on it to the first heaven, then he went up to the rest of the seven heavens. In each heaven he was welcomed by the most pious' of its inhabitants, and he greeted the Prophets who were in the various heavens according to their positions and status. He passed by MQsa, the one who spoke with Allah, if* the sixth heaven, and Ibrahim, the close friend (Khalil) of Allah in the seventh heaven. Then he surpassed them and all the Prophets in status and reached a level where he could hear the creaking of the pens, i.e., the pens of destiny which write down what is decreed to happen. He saw Sidrat Al-Muntahd, covered by the command of Allah, and its greatness, its butterflies of gold and various colours, surrounded by the angels. There he saw Jibril in his real form, with six hundred wings. He saw green cushions blocking the horizon. He saw Al-Bayt Al-Ma'mur, and Ibrahim Al-Khalil, the builder ofthe earthly Ka bah, leaningback against it, the heavenly Ka bah, every day, seventy thousand angels enter and worship therein, then they do not return to it until the Day of Resurrection. He saw Paradise and Hell, and Allah enjoined upon him fifty prayers, then reduced it to five, as an act ofmercy and kindness towards His servants. In this is a strongindication ofthe greatnessand virtueofthe prayers. Dala UAn-Nubuwwah 2:355. Dala UAn-Nubuwwah 2 :354 131 Al-Qurtubi, 10:210.

) (Part-15) 573 Then he came back down to Bayt Al-Maqdis, and the Prophets came down with him and he led them in prayer there when the time for prayer came. It may have been the dawn prayer of that day. Some people claim that he led them in prayer in heaven, but the reports seem to say that it was in Bayt Al-Maqdis. In some reports it says that it happened when he first entered (i.e., before ascending into the heavens), but it is more likely that it was after he came back, because when he passed by them in the places in the heavens, he asked Jibril about them, one by one, and Jibril told him about them. This is more appropriate, because he was first required to come before the Divine Presence, so that what Allah willed could be enjoined upon him and his Ummah. When the matter for which he was required had been dealt with, he and his brother-Prophets gathered, and his virtue and high position in relation to them became apparent when he was asked to come forward to lead them, which was when Jibril indicated to him that he should do so. Then he came out of Bayt Al-Maqdis and rode on Al-BurQq back to Makkah in the darkness of the night. And Allah knows best. As for his being presented with the vessels containing milk and honey, or milk and wine, or milk and water, or all of these, some reports say that this happened [n Bayt Al-Maqdis, and others say that it happened in the heavens. It is possible that it happened in both placejs, because it is like offering food or drink to a guest when he arrives, and Allah knows best. The Prophet 3 was taken on the Night Journey with body and soul, he was awake, not asleep. The evidence for this is tne Ayah jgft ji 3 ." "i xsii' <&- ^Glorified (and Exalted) be He (Allah) Who took His servantfor a Journey by Nightfrom Al-Masjid Al-Hardm to Al-Masjid Al- Aqsa, the neighborhood whereofWe have blessed,} The words Subhan Allah (Glorified and exalted be Allah) are spoken in the case of serious matters. Then I told him about the night on which he was taken on the Night Journey. I said: O King, shall I not tell you of something from which you will know that he is lying? He said, What is it? I said: He claims that he went out of our land, the land of Al-Haram, in one night, and came to your sanctuary in Jerusalem, then came back to us the same night, before morning came. The Patriarch of Jerusalem was there, standing next to Caesar. The Patriarch of Jerusalem said: I know that night. Caesar looked at him and said, How do you know about this? He said, I never used to sleep at night until I closed the doors of the sanctuary. On that night I closed all the doors except for one, which I could not manage to close. I asked my workers and others who were with me to help me deal with it, but we could not move it. It was like trying to move a mountain. So 1 called the carpenters, and they looked at it and said: The lintel and some part of the structure has fallen onto it. We cannot move it until morning, when we will tie able to see what the problem is. So I went back and left tho^e two doors open. The next morning I went back, and saw that the stone at the comer of the sanctuary had a hole in it, and there were traces of an animal having been tethered there. I said to my companions: This door has not been closed last night except for a Prophet, who prayed last night in sanctuary. And he mentioned the rest of the Hadith. In his book At-Tanwir fi Mawlid As-Siraj Al-Munir, Al-Hafiz Abu Al-Khattab TJmar bin Dihyah mentioned the Hadith of the /srd* narrated from Anas, and spoke well about it, then he said: The reports of the Hadith of the Isra reach the level) of Mutawatir. Prohibition ofkilling Children This Ayah indicates that Allah is more compassionate towards His servants than a father to his child, because He forbids killing children just as He enjoins parents to take care of their children in matters of inheritance. Allah forbade that and said: 4& zii pi %} 4And kill not your children forfear ofpoverty.} meaning, lest they may make you poor in the future. This is Important Guidelines About the Authenticity of the Reports and Quotations in the Tafsir of Ibn Kathir Reports from the Companions of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) Reports that are attributed to the companions of Allah s Messenger are commonly used for additional explanation of the meanings of the Qur an. As for those quotes that Ibn Kathir mentions in passing, these quotes may, or may not be authentically attributed to them. Wherever it is mentioned that one of them said something, and that statement contradicts other clearly authentic texts, then such statements can not be held as an evidence against what is known to be authentic. Additional information in this regard is found in the Introduction of Ibn Kathir. Incomplete Chains of Narration The following is a list of common incomplete chains of narrations that Al-Hafiz Ibn Kathir often quotes. - Ali bin Abi Talhah (Al-Walibi) reported that Ibn Abbas said... - (Atiyah) Al-Awfi reported that Ibn Abbas said... - Ad-Dahhak from Ibn Abbas. - As-Suddi reported from Abu Malik and Abu Salih from Ibn Abbas, Ibn Mas'ud and [or] some men among the companions. - Al-Hasan Al-Basri reporting from or about the Prophet ﷺ. - Qatadah reporting from or about the Prophet All narrations coming from these chains are unauthentic according to the Sciences of Hadith. Their meanings, however, may be correct as understood by authentic texts, and for this reason they are commonly referenced. Reports from the Followers of the Companions and those who Followthem The following is a list of those who did not see the Prophet 5Ss, but they report from companions of the Prophet jg, while often they themselves are quoted for Tafsir. Reports that are attributed to them are used as additional support in understanding certain issues by Ibn Kathlr. Such quotes may, or may not be authentically attributed to them. Wherever it is mentioned that one of them said something, and thatstatement contradicts other clearly authentic texts, then such statements can not be held as evidence against the authentic evidence. Abu Al- Aliyah, Said bin Jubayr, Said bin Al-Musayib, Ata (bin Abi Rabah), Ata Al-Khurrasani, Muqatil bin Hayyan, Ar-Rabl bin Anas, Ash-ShaTjbi, Qatadah, Mujahid, Ikrimah, Ad-Dahhak, Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam (Ibn Zayd) Ibn Jurayj. Other Scholars After the Companions The following are some scholars that Ibn Kathlr often quotes from. Since these scholars are not well known to the average English reader, one should beware that their own statements about the Prophet 5^, his companions, or circumstances surrounding the Qur an s revelation, are not to be considered as important as authentically narrated texts. Waki , Sufyan Ath-Thawri, Muhammad bin Ishaq, Ibn Atiyyah, Ibn Abi Hatim, Ibn Jarir (At-Tabari).

This second suggestion does not sound correct, because what they meant here was that he was under the influence of Sihr (magic) which made him see dreams in which he learned these words that he recited. Messenger of Allah when he was praying at night in his house. Each one of them took up a position for listening, and none of them knew that the others were also there. They stayed listening to him all night until dawn came. When they left, they met up on the read, each of them blaming the others, saying to one another, Do not come back again, lest you give the wrong impression (i.e., that you like what you hear]. Then they went away until the second night came, when each of them came back to his place and spent the night listening. When dawn came they left, then when they met up on the road, each of them blamed the others, saying the same as they had said the previous night. Then they went away until the third night came, when each of them came back to his place and spent the night listening. When dawn came they left, then when they met up on the road, they said to one another, Let us not leave until we promise not to come back, so they made a promise to that effect, and went their separate ways. In the morning, Al-Akhnas bin Shurayq took his stick and went to the house of Abu Sufyan bin Harb, where he said, Tell me, O Abu Hanzalah [i.e., Abu Sufyan], what do you think of what you have heard from Muhammad? Abu Sufyan said, O Abu Thalabah [i.e., Al-Akhnas], by Allah, I have heard something I understand and I know what is meant by it, and I have heard things I do not understand and do not know what is meant by it. Al-Akhnas said: Me too, by the One by Whom you swore. Then he left and went to Abu Jahl, and entered his house. He said, O Abu Al-Hakam [i.e., Abu Jahl], what do you think of what you have heard from Muhammad? He said, What did you hear? He said, *We and Banu Abd Manaf competed for honor and position: they fed people so we fed people, they engaged in battle so we engaged in battle, they gave so we gave, until we were neck and neck, like race horses. Then they said, we have a Prophet among us who receives revelation from heaven. How could we compete with that? By Allah we will never believe in him. So Allah issued a warning to them in this Ayah, telling them that if they expelled him, they would not stay in Makkah for very long after that. And this is what happened after he migrated from them when their persecution became so intense. Only a year and a half after that, Allah brought him and them together on the battlefield of Badr, without any pre-arranged appointment, and He caused him to prevail over them and defeat them, so he killed their leaders and took their families as captives. Hence Allah said: 40:3 SS^ZX} 4A Sunnah with iwhich We sent}

62 Tafsir Ibn Kathir The Command to pray Tahajjud iAnd in some parts of the night (also) offer the Salah with it as an additional prayerfor you.} Here Allah commands him (the Prophet ﷺ) to offer further prayers at night after the prescribed prayers. It was reported in Sahih Muslim from Abu Hurayrah that when the Messenger of Allah was asked which prayer is best after the prescribed prayers, he said, ajdli aThe Night prayerd ' * Allah commanded His Messenger to pray the Night prayer after offering the prescribed prayers, and the term Tahajjud refers to prayer that is offered after sleeping. This was the view of Alqamah, Al-Aswad, Ibrahim An-Nakha i and others. It is also well-known from the Arabic language itself. A number ofHddiths report that the Messenger ofAllah jg used to pray Tahajjud after he had slept. These include reports from Ibn Abbas, [3] A isha and other Companions, may Allah be pleased with them. This has been discussed in detail in the appropriate place, praise be to Allah. Al-Hasan Al-Basri said, This is what comes after 7sha , or it  could mean what comes after sleeping. ,S| iati additional prayer (Nawafil)} means the Night prayer has been made an extra prayer specifically for the Prophet sg, because all his previous and future sins had been forgiven. But for other members of his Ummah, offering optional prayers may expiate for whatever sins they may commit. This was the view of Mujahid, 61 and it was reported in Al-Musnad from Abu Muslim 2:821.Jabari 17:524. FathAl-Bari8:83. [41 FathAl-Bari 3:39. At-Jabari 17:524. At-Tabari 17:525.

Ibn Jarir said, Most of the commentators said, This is the position to which Muhammad will be raised on the Day of Resurrection, to intercede for the people so that their Lord will relieve them of some of the hardships they are facing on that Day. ' It was reported that Hudhayfah said, Mankind will be gathered in one arena, where they will all hear the call and will all be seen. They will be standing barefoot and naked as they were created, and no person shall speak except by the leave of Allah. May You be blessed and exalted, Glory be to You, Lord of the House (the Ka'bah) ." This is the position of praise and honor {Maqam Mahmud) which was mentioned by Allah. Ibn Abbas said, The position of praise and honor is the position of intercession. '4 ' Ibn Abi Najih reported something 5:255.Tabari 17:526. ' At-Tabari 17:526.Tabari 17:527.

similar from Mujahid, and this was also the view of Al-Hasan Al-Basri. 1 Qatadah said, He is the first one for whom the earth will be opened on the Day of Resurrection, and he will be the first one to intercede. ,2! So the scholars consider this the position of praise and glory to which Allah referred in the Ayah: ilt may be that your Lord will raise you to Maqam Mahmud. I, Ibn Kathir, say: the Messenger of Allah sg will have honors in the Day of Resurrection in which no one else will have a share, honors which will not be matched by anyone else. He is the first one for whom the earth will be opened and he will come forth riding to the gathering place. He will have a banner under which Adam and anyone else will gather, and he will have the Hawd (Lake) to which no one else will have more access than he. He will have the right of the Grand Intercession with Allah when He comes to judge between His creation. This will be after the people ask Adam, then Nuh, then Ibrahim, then Mfisa, then Isa to intercede, and each of them will say, I am not able for that. Then they will come to Muhammad sg, and he will say, oLiJ u! gj uf" "/ can do that, I can do that . We will mention this in more detail shortly, If Allah wills. Part of that will be that he will intercede for some people who had been commanded to be taken to Hell, and they will be brought back. He is the first Prophet whose Ummah will be judged, and the first to take them across the Bridge over the Fire, and the first to intercede in Paradise, as was reported in Sahih MuslimJ3^ In the Hadith about the Trumpet, it says that none of the believers will enter Paradise except raised for people whose deeds could not get them there. He is the one who will reach Al-Wasilah, which is the highest position in Paradise, which befits no one but him. When Allah gives permission for intercession on behalf of sinners, the angels, Prophets and believers will intercede, and he will intercede for people whose number is known only to Allah. No one will intercede like him and no one will match him in intercession . 1,1 This has been explained in comprehensive detail at the end of the Book of Sirah, in the chapter on the specific qualities. Praise be to Allah. Now with the help of Allah we will mention the Hadiths that were reported concerning Al-Maqam Al-Mahmud.

The Qur'an is a Cure and a Mercy Allah tells us that His Book, which He has revealed to His Messenger Muhammad sg, the Qur'an to which falsehood cannot come, from before it or behind it, (it is) sent down by the All-Wise, Worthy of all praise, is a cure and a mercy for the believers, meaning that it takes away whatever is in their hearts of doubt, hypocrisy, Shirk, confusion and inclination towards falsehood. The Qur'an cures all of that. It is also a mercy through which one attains faith and wisdom and seeks goodness. This is only for those who believe in it and accept it as truthful, it is a cure and a mercy only for such people. As for the disbeliever who is wronging himself by his disbelief, when he hears the Qur'an, it only makes him further from the truth and increases him in his disbelief. The problem lies with the disbeliever himself, not with the Qur'an, as Allah says: ^ tj v Ok > 3^ iSay: It is for those who believe, a guide and a cure. Then Allah revealed: a&&\$6% Jiis ffm \$ iSaij: "Whoever is an enemy to Jibril (let him die in his fitry), for indeed he has brought it (this Qur'an) down to your heart by Allah's permission, confirming what came before it fe m [2:97] The Ruh and the Nafs As-Suhayili mentioned the dispute among the scholars over whether the Ruh is the same as the Nafs, or something different. He stated that it is light and soft, like air, flowing through the body like water through the veins of a tree. He states that the Ruh which the angel breathes into the fetus is the Nafs, provided that it joins the body and acquires certain qualities because of it, whether good or bad. So then it is either a soul in (complete) rest and satisfaction (89:27) or inclined to evil (12:53), just as water is the life of the tree, then by mixing with it, it produces something else, so that if it mixes with grapes and the grapes are then squeezed, it becomes juice or wine. Then it is no longer called water, except in a metaphorical sense. Thus we should understand the connection between Nafs and Ruh; the Ruh is not called Nafs except when it joins the body and is affected by it. So in conclusion we may say: the Ruh is the origin and essence, and the Nafs consists of the Ruh and its connection to the body. So they are the same in one sense but not in another. This is a good explanation, and Allah knows best. 121 I say: people speak about the essence of the Ruh and its rulings, and many books have been written on this topic. One of the best of those who spoke of this was Al-Hafiz Ibn Mandah in a book which we have heard about the Ruh. y ^ Jd i isil oCijj GLi At-Tabari 17:543. There are many narrations about this. [59:24] Makhul reported that one of the idolators heard the Prophet ﷺ saying when he was prostrating: O Most Gracious, O Most Merciful. The idolator said, he claims to pray to One, but he is praying to two! Then Allah revealed this Ayah. This was also narrated from Ibn 'Abbas, and by Ibn Jarir. The Command to recite neither loudly nor softly $\text{JfU \%}$ iAnd offer your Salah neither aloud} Imam Ahmad reported that Ibn Abbas said: This Ayah was revealed when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was preaching underground in Makkah. $\text{\$And offer your Salah neither aloud nor in a low voice,}$ Ibn Abbas said: When he prayed with his Companions, he would recite Qur'an loudly, and when the idolators heard that, they insulted the Qur'an, and the One Who had revealed it and the one who had brought it. When he migrated to Al-Madina, this no longer applied, and he recited as he wished. Muhammad bin Ishaq said that Ibn Abbas said, When the Messenger of Allah ﷺ recited Qur'an quietly while he was praying, the (idolators) would disperse and refuse to listen to him; if one of them wanted to hear some of what he was reciting in his prayer, he would try to listen without anyone seeing him, because he was afraid of them. If he realized that anybody knew he was listening, he would go away lest they harm him, so he would stop listening. If the Prophet ﷺ lowered his voice, those who wanted to listen to his recitation could not hear anything, so Allah revealed, $\text{4And offer your Salah neither aloud}^$ meaning, do not recite aloud, lest those who want to listen disperse for fear of attracting unwelcome attention, $\text{4C? oik inor in a low voice,}$ but do not make your voice so soft that the one who is trying to listen without being seen cannot hear anything at all.
