Opening

[Tafsir Ibn Kathir (Abridged), Darussalam English Edition, PDF pp. 42–44]

The Meaning of Al-Fatihah and its Various Names This Surah is called Al-Fatihah, that is, the Opener of the Book, the Surah with which prayers are begun. It is also called, Umm Al-Kitab (the Mother of the Book), according to the majority of the scholars. In an authentic Hadith recorded by At-Tirmidhi, who graded it Sahih, Abu Hurayrah said that the Messenger of Allah said, "Al-Hamdu lillahi Rabbil-'Alamin is the Mother of the Qur'an, the Mother of the Book, and the seven repeated Ayat of the Glorious Qur'an." It is also called Al-Hamd and As-Salah, because the Prophet said that his Lord said,

'The prayer (i.e. Al-Fatihah) is divided into two halves between Me and My servants.' When the servant says, 'All praise is due to Allah, the Lord of existence, Allah says, 'My servant has praised Me.' Al-Fatihah was called the Salah, because reciting it is a condition for the correctness of Salah - the prayer. Al-Fatihah was also called Ash-Shifa (the Cure). It is also called Ar-Ruqyah (remedy), since in the Sahih, there is the narration of Abu Said telling the story of the Companion who used Al-Fatihah as a remedy for the tribal chief who was poisoned. Later, the Messenger of Allah said to a Companion, "How did you know that it is a Ruqyah?" Al-Fatihah was revealed in Makkah as Ibn Abbas, Qatadah and Abu Aliyah stated. Allah said, "And indeed, We have bestowed upon you the seven Mathany (seven repeatedly recited verses), (i.e. Surat Al-Fatihah) (15:87). 'Allah knows best. How many Ayat does Al-Fatihah contain? There is no disagreement over the view that Al-Fatihah contains seven Ayat. According to the majority of the reciters of Al-Kufah, a group of the Companions, the Tdibi'in, and a number of scholars from the successive generations, the BismiUah is a separate Ayah in its beginning. We will mention this subject again soon, if Allah wills, and in Him we trust. The Number of Words and Letters in Al-Fatihah The scholars say that Al-Fatihah consists of twenty-five words, and that it contains one hundred and thirteen letters. Tirmidhi, Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi 8 :283 . Al-Bari 4 :529 . [31 That is, because this Ayah, which refers to Al-Fatihah, was itself revealed in Makkah

The Reason it is called Umm Al-Kitab

[Tafsir Ibn Kathir (Abridged), Darussalam English Edition, PDF pp. 44–57]

In the beginning of the Book of Tafsir, in his Sahih, Al-Bukhari said; It is called Umm Al-Kitab, because the Qur'an starts with it and because the prayer is started by reciting it. 111 It was also said that it is called Umm Al-Kitab, because it contains the meanings of the entire Qur'an. Ibn Jarir said, The Arabs call every comprehensive matter that contains several specific areas an Umm. For instance, they call the skin that surrounds the brain, Umm Ar-Ras. They also call the flag that gathers the ranks of the army an Umm. He also said, Makkah was called Umm Al-Qura, (the Mother of the Villages) because it is the grandest and the leader of all villages. It was also said that the earth was made starting from Makkah. 121 Further, Imam Explaining this Hadith The last Hadith used the word Salah] prayer in reference to reciting the Qur an, (Al-Fatihah in this case) just as Allah said in another Ayah, iAnd offer your Salah (prayer) neither aloud nor in a low voice, but jbloiv a way betioeen.} meaning, with your recitation of the Qur an, as the Sahih. related from Ibn Abbas. 121 Also, in the last Hadith, Allah said, I have divided the prayer between Myself and My servant into two halves, a half for Me and a half for My servant. My servant shall have what he asked for. Allah next explained the division that involves reciting Al-Fatihah, demonstrating the importance of reciting the Qur an during the prayer, which is one of the prayer s greatest pillars. Hence, the word prayer was used here although only a part of it was actually being referred to, that is, reciting the Qur an. Similarly, the word recite was used where prayer is meant, as demonstrated by Allah s statement, iAnd recite the Qur'an in the early dawn . Verily, the recitation of the Qur an in the early dawn is ever witnessed. in reference to the Fajr prayer. The Two Sahlhs recorded that the angels of the night and the day attend this prayer.13 Reciting Al-Fatihah is required in Every Rak ah ofthe Prayer All of these facts testify to the requirement that reciting the Qur an (Al-Fatihah) in the prayer is required, and there is a consensus between the scholars on this ruling. The Hadith that we mentioned also testifies to this fact, for the Prophet said, Muslim 1 :296 , and An-Nasa i in Al-Kubra 5:11,12. Fath Al-Bari 8 :257 ,3' Fath Al-Bari 8:251 and Muslim 1 :439.

There is no prayer for whoever does not recite the Opening of the Book. Also, the Sahih of Ibn Khuzaymah and Ibn Hibban recorded that Abu Hurayrah said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "The prayer during which Umm Al-Qur'an is not recited is invalid." There are many other Hadiths on this subject. Therefore, reciting the Opening of the Book, during the prayer by the Imam and those praying behind him, is required in every prayer, and in every Rak'ah. The Tafsir of Istislah (seeking Refuge) Allah said, "I seek refuge in Allah from the punishment of Allah."

Al-Fdtihah (Part-1) zvith things they utter. And say: "My Lord! Allah commanded that we be lenient human enemy, so that his soft nature might make him an ally and a supporter. He also commanded that we seek refuge from the Satanic enemy, because the devil does not relent in his enmity if we treat him with kindness and leniency. The devil only seeks the destruction of the Son of Adam due to the vicious enmity and hatred he has always had towards man s father, Adam. Allah said, A # 3 tr V Sc a Children of Adam! Let not Shaytdn deceive you, as he got your parents [Adam and Hazvwd (Eve)] out of Paradise} (7:27), iSurely, Shaytdn is an enemy to you, so take (treat) him as an enemy. He only invites his Hizb (fbllowers) that they may become the dwellers of the blazing Fire (35:6) and, JXj jji djJ at "YCYf ilojji

Will you then take him (Iblis) and his offspring as protectors and helpers rather than Me while they are enemies to you? What an evil is the exchange for the Zalimun (polytheists, and wrongdoers, etc)} (18:50). The devil assured Adam that he wanted to advise him, but he was lying. Hence, how would he treat us after he had vowed, "By Your might, then I will surely, mislead them all. Except Your chosen servants among them (i.e. faithful, obedient, true believers of Islamic Monotheism)." (38:82-83) Also, Allah said, "So when you [want to] recite the Qur'an, seek refuge with Allah from Shaytan, the outcast (the cursed one). Verily, he has no power over those who believe and put their trust only in their Lord (Allah) . His power is only over those who obey and follow him (Satan), and those who join partners with Him." (16:98-100). Seeking Refuge before reciting the Qur'an Allah said, "When you intend to offer As-Salah (the prayer), wash your faces and your hands (forearms)} (5:6) meaning, before you stand in prayer, as evident by the Hadiths that we mentioned. Imam

Blessed be Your Name, Exalted be Your sovereignty, and there is no deity worthy of worship except You ." He would then say thrice, "Ilâhî Vî V" "There is no deity worthy of worship except Allah, He would then say, Yâ A'zîz Cri 3j -t seek refuge with Allah, the Hearing, the Knowing, from the cursed Satan, from his coercion, lures to arrogance and poems J. The four collectors of the Sunan recorded this Hadith, which

There are many other Hadiths about seeking refuge with Allah. One can find this subject in the books on supplication and the virtues of righteous, good deeds. Is the Isti'adhah (seeking Refuge) required? The majority of the scholars state that reciting the Isti'adhah (in the prayer and when reciting the Qur'an) is recommended and not required, and therefore, not reciting it does not constitute a sin. However, Ar-Razi recorded that Ata bin Abi Rabah said that the Isti'adhah is required in the prayer and when one reads the Qur'an. In support of Ata's statement, Ar-Razi relied upon the apparent meaning of the Ayah, Then seek refuge. He said that the Ayah contains a command that requires implementation. Also, the Prophet (ﷺ) always said the Isti'adhah. In addition, the Isti'adhah wards off the evil of Satan, which is necessary, the rule is that the means needed to implement a requirement of the religion is itself also required. And when one says, I seek refuge with Allah from the cursed devil. Then this will suffice. Virtues of the Isti'adhah The Isti'adhah cleanses the mouth from the foul speech that it has indulged in. It also purifies the mouth and prepares it to recite the speech of Allah. Further, the Isti'adhah entails seeking Allah's help and acknowledging His ability to do everything. The Isti'adhah also affirms the servant's meekness, weakness and inability to face the enemy of his inner evil, whom Allah alone. Who created this enemy, is able to repel and defeat. This enemy does not accept kindness, unlike the human enemy. There are three Ayat in the Qur'an that affirm this fact. Also, Allah said, Verily, My servants (i.e. the true believers of Islamic Monotheism) you have no authority over them. And sufficient is your Lord as a Guardian. (17:65). We should state here that the believers, whom the human enemies kill, become martyrs, while those who fall victim to the inner enemy - Satan - become bandits. Further, the believers who are defeated by the apparent enemy - disbelievers - gain a reward, while those defeated by the inner enemy earn a sin and become misguided. Since Satan sees man where man cannot see him, it is befitting that the believers seek refuge from Satan with Whom Satan cannot see. The Isti'adhah is a form of drawing closer to Allah and seeking refuge with Him from the evil of every evil creature.

What does Isti'adhah mean?

Isti'adhah means, I seek refuge with Allah from the cursed Satan so that he is prevented from affecting my religious or worldly affairs, or hindering me from adhering to what I was commanded, or luring me into what I was prohibited from. Indeed, only Allah is able to prevent the evil of Satan from touching the son of Adam. This is why Allah allowed us to be lenient and kind with the human devil, so that his soft nature might cause him to refrain from the evil he is indulging in. However, Allah required us to seek refuge with Him from the evil of Satan, because he neither accepts bribes nor does kindness affect him, for he is pure evil. Thus, only He Who created Satan is able to stop his evil. This meaning is reiterated in only three Ayat in the Qur'an. Allah said in Surat Al-Araf, iShoio forgiveness, enjoin what is good, and turn away from the foolish (i.e. don't punish them).} (7:199) This is about dealing with human beings. He then said in the same Surah, t* Si iAnd if an evil whisper comes to you from Shaytan, then seek refuge with Allah. Verily, He is Hearing, Knowing (7: 200).} Allah also said in Surat Al-Mu minun, f" - < > >' . . - > " ,/ / ^ >> " t - " < ? -; } .y I /if (23 :96-98).$ Further, Allah said in Surat As-Sajdah, jX tj'Jx. fZj IjU u? 11 Vj j> Cj "iff 4 .T" , .>-4*! jit AThe good deed and the evil deed cannot be equal. And if an evil whisper from Shaytdn tries to turn you away (from doing good), then seek refuge in Allah. Verily, He is the Hearing, the Knowing (41:34-36).

Why the Devil is called Shaytan

[Tafsir Ibn Kathir (Abridged), Darussalam English Edition, PDF pp. 58–67]

In the Arabic language, Shaytdn is derived from Shatana, which means the far thing. Hence, the Shaytdn has a different nature than mankind, and his sinful ways are far away from every type of righteousness. It was also said that Shaytdn is derived from Shata, (literally burned), because it was created from fire. Some scholars said that both meanings are correct, although they state that the first meaning is more plausible. Further, Siybawayh (the renowned Arab linguistic) said, The Arabs say, So-and-so has Tashaytan, when he commits the act of the devils. If Shaytdn was derived from Shata, they would have said, Tashayyata (rather than Tashaytan). Hence, Shaytdn is derived from the word that means, far away. This is why they call those who are rebellious (or mischievous) from among the Jinns and mankind a Shaytan . Allah said, i-vv -

$And so We have appointed for every Prophet enemies - Shayatin (devils) among mankind and Jinn, inspiring one another with adorned speech as a delusion (or by way of deception)} (6:112). In addition, the Musnad by Imam 4And indeed We have adorned the nearest heaven with lamps, and We have made such lamps Rujuman (as missiles) to drive away the Shayatin (devils)} (67:5). Allah also said, "3l V gC \kL-j gfi, Gjili tJ}\ ft) $? ijfjlrfrf irt Zyjjp #Vf ft iVerily, We have adorned the near heaven with the stars (for beauty). And to guard against every rebellious devil. They cannot listen to the higher group (angels) for they are pelted from every side. Outcast, and theirs is a constant (or painful) torment. Except such as snatch away something by stealing, and they are pursued by a flaming fire of piercing brightness} (37:6-10). Further, Allah said. f in u iAnd indeed, We have put the big stars in the heaven and We beautified it for the beholders. And We have guarded it (near heaven) from every Shaytan Rajim (outcast Shaytdn).

Except him (devil) wlv steals the hearing then he is pursued by a clear flaming fire>(15:16-18). There are several similar Ayat. It was also said that Rajim means, the person who throws or bombards things, because the devil throws doubts and evil thoughts in people's hearts. The first meaning is more popular and accurate. Bismillah is the First Ayah of Al-Fatihah. The Companions started the Book of Allah with Bismillah: 4,1. In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.} The scholars also agree that Bismillah is a part of an Ayah in Surat An-Naml {chapter 27}. They disagree over whether it is a separate Ayah before every Surah, or if it is an Ayah, or a part of an Ayah, included in every Surah where the Bismillah appears in its beginning. Ad-Daraqutni also recorded a Hadith from Abu Hurayrah from the Prophet (ﷺ) that supports this Hadith by Ibn Khuzaymah. Also, similar statements were attributed to Ali, Ibn Abbas and others. The opinion that Bismillah is an Ayah of every Surah, except Al-Bara'ah (chapter 9), was attributed to (the Companions) Ibn Abbas, Ibn Umar, Ibn Az-Zubayr, Abu Hurayrah and Ali. This opinion was also attributed to the Tabi'in: Ata, Tawus, Said bin Jubayr, Makhul and Az-Zuhri. This is also the view of Abdullah bin Al-Mubarak, Ash-Shafil, Ahmad bin Hanbal, (in one report from him) Ishaq bin Rahwayh and Abu Ubayd Al-Qasim bin Salam. On the other hand, Malik, Abu Hanifah and their followers said that Bismillah is not an Ayah in Al-Fatihah or any other Surah. Dawud said that it is a separate Ayah in the beginning of every Surah, not part of the Surah itself, and this opinion was also attributed to Ahmad bin Hanbal. Basmalah aloud in the Prayer As for Basmalah aloud during the prayer, those who did not agree that it is a part of Al-Fatihah, state that the Basmalah should not be aloud. The scholars who stated that Bismillah is a part of every Surah (except chapter 9) had different opinions; some of them, such as Ash-Shafil, said that one should recite Bismillah with Al-Fatihah aloud. This is also the opinion of many among the Companions, the Tabi'in and the Imams of Muslims from the Salaf and the later generations. For instance, this is the opinion of Abu Hurayrah, Ibn Umar, Ibn Abbas, Mu'awiyah, *Umar and Ali - according to Ibn Abdul-Barr and Al-Bayhaqi. Also, the Four Khalifahs - as Al-Khatib reported - were said to have held this view although the report from them is contradicted. The Tabi'in scholars who gave this Tafsir include Said bin Jubayr, Ikrimah, Abu Qilabah, Az-Zuhri, Ali bin Al-Hasan, his son Muhammad, Said bin Al-Musayyib, Ata, Tawq, Mujahid, Salim, Muhammad bin Kali' Ad-Daraqutni 1 :303 and 306

Al-Qurazi, Abu Bakr bin Muhammad bin Amr bin Hazm, Abu Wa'il, Ibn Sirin, Muhammad bin Al-Munkadir, Ali bin Abdullah bin Abbas, his son Muhammad, Nafi the freed slave of Ibn Umar, Zayd bin Aslam, Umar bin Abdul-Aziz, Al-Azraq bin Qays, Habib bin Abi Thabit, Abu Ash-Sha'tha, Makhul and Abdullah bin Ma'qil bin Muqarrin. Also, Al-Bayhaqi added Abdullah bin Safwan, and Muhammad bin Al-Hanafiyyah to this list. In addition, Ibn Abdul-Barr added Amr bin Dinar. The proof that these scholars relied on is that, since Bismillah is a part of Al-Fatihah, it should be recited aloud like the rest of Al-Fatihah. Also,

Sahth^ Furthermore, Imam Abu Abdullah Ash-Shafil and Al-Hakim in his Mustadrak, recorded that Mu'awiyah led the prayer in Al-Madinah and did not recite the Bismillah. The Muhajirin who were present at that prayer criticized that. When Mu'awiyah led the following prayer, he recited the Bismillah aloud. The Hadiths mentioned above provide sufficient proof for the opinion that the Bismillah is recited aloud. As for the opposing evidences and the scientific analysis of the narrations mentioned their weaknesses or otherwise it is not our desire to discuss this subject at this time. Other scholars stated that the Bismillah should not be recited aloud in the prayer, and this is the established practice of the Four Khalifahs, as well as Abdullah bin Mughaffal and several scholars among the Tdibi'in and later generations. It is also the Madhhab (view) of Abu Hanifah, Ath-Thawri and

63 Surah 1, Al-Fatihah (Part-1) whether in the beginning or the end of the recitation. Similar is recorded in the Sunan books from Abdullah bin Mughaffal, may Allah be pleased with him.¹² These are the opinions held by the respected Imams, and their statements are similar in that they agree that the prayer of those who recite Al-Fatihah aloud or in secret is correct. All the favor is from Allah. The Virtue of Al-Fatihah Imam

The Meaning of Allah Allah is the Name of the Lord, the Exalted. It is said that Allah is the Greatest Name of Allah, because it is referred to when describing Allah by the various attributes. The Meaning of Ar-Rahman Ar-Rahim - the Most

Gracious, the Most Merciful Ar-Rahman and Ar-Rahim are two names derived from Ar-Rahmah (the mercy), but Rahman has more meanings that pertain to mercy than Ar-Rahim. There is a statement by Ibn Jarir that indicates that there is a consensus on this meaning. Further, Al-Qurtubi said, The proof that these names are derived (from Ar-Rahmah), is what Al-Fatihah (Part-1) and Nadim, as Abu Ubayd has stated. Abu Ali Al-Farisi said, Ar-Rahman, which is exclusively for Allah, is a name that encompasses every type of mercy that Allah has. Ar-Rahim is what effects the believers, for Allah said, {And He is ever Rahim (merciful) to the believers.} (33:43) Also, Ibn Abbas said - about Ar-Rahman and Ar-Rahim, They are two soft names, one of them is softer than the other (meaning it carries more implications of mercy). Ibn Jarir said; As-Surri bin Yahya At-Tamimi narrated to me that Uthman bin Zufar related that Al-Azrami said about Ar-Rahman and Ar-Rahim, He is Ar-Rahman with all creation and Ar-Rahim with the believers. '2' Hence. Allah's statements, {Then He rose over (Istawa) the Throne (in a manner that suits His majesty), Ar-Rahman (25:59),^ and, {Ar-Rahman (Allah) rose over (Istawa) the (Mighty) Throne (in a manner that suits His majesty).} (20:5) Allah thus mentioned the Istawa - rising over the Throne - along with His Name Ar-Rahman, to indicate that His mercy encompasses all of His creation. Allah also said, {^fj} {And He is ever Rahim (merciful) to the believers}, thus encompassing the believers with His Name Ar-Rahim. They said, This testifies to the fact that Ar-Rahman carries a broader scope of meanings pertaining to the mercy of Allah with His creation in both lives. Meanwhile, Ar-Rahim is exclusively for the believers. Yet, we should mention that there is a supplication that reads, "The Rahman and the Rahim of this life and the Hereafter" 111 Tafsir Al-Qurtubi 1:105. [2] At-Tabari 1:127.

Al-Fatihah (Part-1) (merciful)} (9:128). Allah has also described some of His creation using some of His other Names. For instance, Allah said, {Verily, We have created man from Nutfah (drops) of mixed semen (sexual discharge of man and woman), in order to try him, so We made him hearer (Sami') and seer (Basir) (76:2). In conclusion, there are several of Allah's Names that are used as names for others besides Allah. Further, some of Allah's Names are exclusive for Allah alone, such as Allah, Ar-Rahman, Al-Khaliq (the Creator), Ar-Raziq (the Sustainer), and so forth. Hence, Allah started the Tasmiyah (meaning, In the Name of Allah, Most Gracious Most Merciful) with His Name, Allah, and described Himself as Ar-Rahman, (Most Gracious) which is softer and more general than Ar-Rahim. The most honorable Names are mentioned first, just as Allah did here. A Hadith narrated by Umm Salamah stated that the recitation of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was slow and clear, letter by letter, $\text{y j f j i s g f i . p * \sim^{\wedge}}\}$ i. . / . u i l n the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. All the praises and thanks be to Allah, the Lord of all that exists. The Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. The Owner of the Day of Recompense} (1:1-4). And this is how a group of scholars recite it. Others connected the recitation of the Tasmiyah to Al-Hamd. {l o l a J h i j i < _ " j f u j 1^{\wedge} S \} 42. Al-Hamd be to Allah, the Lord of all that exists.} The Meaning of Al-Hamd Abu Jafar bin Jarir said, The meaning of {f a 1^{\wedge}} iAl-Hamdu Lilldh (all praise and thanks be to Allah) is: all thanks are due purely to Allah, alone, not any of the objects that are being worshipped instead of Him, nor any of His creation. These thanks are due to Allah's innumerable favors and bounties, that only He knows the amount of. Allah's bounties include creating the tools that help the creation worship Him, the physical bodies with which they are able to implement His commands, the sustenance that He provides them in this life, and the comfortable life He has granted them, without anything or anyone compelling Him to do so. Allah also warned His creation and alerted them about the means and methods with which they can earn eternal dwelling in the residence of everlasting happiness. All thanks and praise are due to Allah for these favors from beginning to end. Further, Ibn Jarir commented on the Ayah, Al-Hamdu Lillah, that it means, A praise that Allah praised Himself with, indicating to His servants that they too should praise Him, as if Allah had said, Say: All thanks and praise is due to Allah. It was said that the statement, All praise and thanks be to Allah, entails praising Allah by mentioning His most beautiful Names and most honorable Attributes. When one proclaims, All thanks are due to Allah, he will be thanking Him for His favors and bounties. 12 The Difference between Praise and Thanks Hamd is more general, in that it is a statement of praise for one's characteristics, or for what he has done. Thanks are given for what was done, not merely for characteristics. The Statements of the Salaf about Al-Hamd Hafs mentioned that Umar said to Ali, We know La ilaha illallah, Subhan Allah and Allahu Akbar. What about Al-Hamdu Lillah? Ali said, A statement that Allah liked for At-Tabari 1:135. At-Tabari 1 :137.

Himself, was pleased with for Himself and He likes that it be repeated. 111 Also, Ibn Abbas said, Al-Hamdu Lillah is the statement of appreciation. When the servant says Al-Hamdu Lillah, Allah says, My servant has praised Me. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded this Hadith. The Virtues of Al-Hamd Imam Allah said while having more knowledge in what His servant has said, What did My servant say? They said, 'He said, 'O Allah! Yours is the Hamd that is suitable for the grace of Your Face and the greatness of Your Supreme Authority.' Allah said to them, Write it as My servant has said it, until he meets Me and then I shall reward him for it.) Al before Hamd encompasses all Types of Thanks and Appreciation for Allah The letters Alif and Lam before the word Hamd serve to encompass all types of thanks and appreciation for Allah, the Exalted. All of Al-Hamd is due to You, You own all the ownership, all types of good are in Your Hand and all affairs belong to You. 111 Ibn Majah 2:1249. Targhib wat-Tarhib 2 :253

Al-Fatihah (Part-1) The Meaning of Ar-Rabb, the Lord Ar-Rabb is the owner who has full authority over his property. Ar-Rabb, linguistically means, the master or the one who has the authority to lead. All of these meanings are correct for Allah. When it is alone, the word Rabb is used only for Allah. As for other than Allah, it can be used to say Rabb Ad-Dar, the master of such and such object. Further, it was reported that Ar-Rabb is Allah's Greatest Name. The Meaning of Al-'Alamin Al-Alamin is plural for Alam, which encompasses everything in existence except Allah. The word Alam is itself a plural word, having no singular form. The Alamin are different creations that exist in the heavens and the earth, on land and at sea. Every generation of creation is called an Alam. Al- Farra' and Abu T'Jayd said, Alam includes all that has a mind, the Jinns, mankind, the angels and the devils, but not the animals. Also, Zayd bin Aslam and Abu Muhaysin said, Alam includes all that Allah has created with a soul. Further, Qatadah said about, iThe Lord of the 'Alamin}, Every type of creation is an Alam. Az-Zajaj also said, Alam encompasses everything that Allah created, in this life and in the Hereafter. Al-Qurtubi commented, This is the correct meaning, that the Alam encompasses everything that Allah created in both worlds. Similarly, Allah said, o' iFir'awn (Pharaoh) said: "And what is the Lord of the 'Alamin?" Musa (Moses) said: "The Lord of the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them, if you seek to be convinced with certainty"} (26 :23-24). Why is the Creation called Alam? Alam is derived from Alamah, that is because it is a sign testifying to the existence of its Creator and to His Oneness. m Al-Qurtubi 1 :139

-4 >' 43. Ar-Rahman (the Most Gracious), Ar-Rahim (the Most Merciful)}. Allah said next, 4Ar-Rahmdn (the Most Gracious), Ar-Raliim (the Most Merciful)} We explained these Names in the Basmalah. Al-Qurtubi said, Allah has described Himself by Ar-Rahman, Ar-Rahim after saying the Lord of the Alamin , so His statement here includes a warning, and then an encouragement. Similarly, Allah said, jVj ,if.l Gi tji li^} iDeclare (O Muhammad unto My servants, that truly, I am the Oft-Forgiving, the Most Merciful. And that My torment is indeed the most painful torment.) (15:49-50)* Allah said, iSurely, your Lord is swift in retribution, and certainly He is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.} (6:165) Hence, Rabb contains a warning while Ar-Rahman Ar-Rahim encourages. Further,

Al-Fdtihah (Part-1 but this does not negate His sovereignty over all other things. For Allah mentioned that He is the Lord of existence, including this earthly life and the Hereafter. Allah only mentioned the Day of Recompense here because on that Day, no one except Him will be able to claim ownership of anything whatsoever. On that Day, no one will be allowed to speak without His permission. Similarly, Allah said, rA . J'b j 4 U~" iSoiU'j [ji: fj.} iThe Day that Ar-Ruh (Jibril (Gabriel) or another angel) and the angels ivill stand forth in rows, they will not speak except him whom the Most Gracious (Allah) allows, and he will speak what is right.} (78:38), 4) ^} iAnd all voices will be humbled far the Most Gracious (Allah), and nothing shall you hear but the Imo voice of their footsteps.}(20:108), and, - x> s' ".! > ' J- ot } iOti the Day when it comes, no person shall speak except by His (Allah s) leave. Some among them will be wretched and (others) blessed} (11:105). Ad-Dahhak said that Ibn Abbas commented, Allah says, On that Day, no one owns anything that they used to own in the world. The Meaning ofYawmAd-Din Ibn Abbas said, Yawm Ad-Din is the Day of Recompense for the creatures, meaning the Day ofJudgment. On that Day, Allah will reckon the creation for their deeds, evil for evil, good for good, except for thosewhom He pardons. In addition, several other Companions, Tabi'in and scholars of the Salaf, said similarly, for this meaning is apparent and clear from the Ayah. Allah is Al-Malik (King or Owner) Allah is the True Owner (Malik) (of everything and everyone). Allah said, 111 IbnAbi Hfitim 1:19.

J./M QX>^% 4He is Allah, beside Whom Ld ildha ilia Huwa, the King, the Holy, the One freefrom all defects> (59:23). Also, the Two Sahihs recorded Abu Hurayrah saying that

A Hadith stated. The wise person is he who reckons himselfand works for (his life) after death. d meaning, he holds himself accountable. Also, Umar said, Hold yourself accountable before you are held accountable, weigh yourselves before you are weighed, and be prepared for the biggest gathering before He Whose knowledge encompasses your deeds, jy'j} iThat Day shall you be brought to Judgement, not a secret of yours will be hidden} (69:18). j){ te\} 45. For instance, a road * Fath Al-Bari 6 :89 and Muslim 3:1518. 121 Ibn Majah 2:1423.

78 Tafsir Ibtt Kathir is described as Mu'abbadah, meaning, paved . In religious terminology, Ibadah implies the utmost love, humility and fear. The Merit ofstating the Object ofthe Action before the Doer ofthe Act, and the Merit ofthese Negations You... , means, we worship You alone and none else, and rely on You alone and none else. This is the perfect form of obedience and the entire religion is implied by these two ideas. Some of the Salaf said, Al-Fatihah is the secret of the Qur an, while these words are the secret of Al-Fatihah, JO 45. You we zoorship, and You we askfor helpfrom.} The first part is a declaration of innocence from Shirk (polytheism), while the second negates having any power or strength, displaying the recognition that all affairs are controlled by Allah alone. This meaning is reiterated in various instances in the Qur an. For instance, Allah said, / / C // //y 4So loorship Him (O Muliammad sg) and put your trust in Him. And your Lord is not unaware ofwhat you (people) do.} (11:123), i&f . iL'i: &J\ $ ji> iSay: "He is the Most Gracious (Allah), in Him we believe, and in Him we put our trust."} (67:29), 4(He alone is) the Lord of the east and the west; Ld ildha ilia Huwa (none has the right to be worshipped but He). So take Him alone as Wakil (Disposer ofyour affairs)}, (73:9), and. i jjujj jLo 4You we worship, and You we askfor helpfrom}. We should mention that in this Ayah, the type of speech here changes from the third person to direct speech by using the Kaf in the statement Iyyaka (You). This is because after the servant praised and thanked Allah, he stands before Him, addressing Him directly; }You we worship, and You we askfor helpfrom}. Al-Fatihah indicates the Necessity of praising Allah. It is required in every Prayer.

Himself by His most beautiful Attributes and indicates to His servants that, they too, should praise Him in the same manner. Hence, the prayer is not valid unless one recites Al-Fatihah, if he is able. The Two Sahihs recorded that Tjbadah bin As-Samit said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, <<_ JI iALL "There is no valid prayer for whoever does not recite Al-Fatihah of the Book. Also, it is recorded in Sahih Muslim that Abu Hurayrah said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, 'If you recite Al-Fatihah in your prayer, it is as if you have said, 'Jil Jli ^>:Jli lip JtM*- jJblj x-j JilJ : Jli lj3 i^Jup :ii)l Jli _> liUx tjti.Jli lili tjLi U fjsSij ^jj IJL : Jli . % ^k. 0 Cx/jj' OsfL\\ jli U Iju : Jli iAllah said, 'I divided the prayer into two halves between Myself and My servant, one half is for Me and one half for My servant. The Meaning of As-Sirat Al-Mustaqim, the Straight

Path. As for the meaning of As-Sirat Al-Mustaqim, Imam Abu Ja far

Al-Fdthah (Part-1) The Faithful ask for and abide by Guidance If someone asks, Why does the believer ask Allah for guidance during every prayer and at other times, while he is already properly guided? Has he not already acquired guidance? The answer to these questions is that if it were not a fact that the believer needs to keep asking for guidance day and night, Allah would not have directed him to invoke Him to acquire the guidance. The servant needs Allah the Exalted every hour of his life to help him remain firm on the path of guidance and to make him even more firm and persistent on it. The servant does not have the power to benefit or harm himself, except by Allah s permission. Therefore, Allah directed the servant to invoke Him constantly, so that He provides him with His aid and with firmness and success. Indeed, the happy person is he whom Allah guides to ask of Him. This is especially the case if a person urgently needs Allah s help day or night. Allah said, IS ^ jit (jLjli i gftjj I {) } 43? u;& 40 you who believe! Believe in Allah, and His Messenger (Muhammad %g), and the Book (the Qur'an) which He has sent down to His Messenger, and the Scripture which He sent down to those before (him)) (4:16). Therefore, in this Ayah Allah commanded the believers to believe, and this command is not redundant since what is sought here is firmness and continuity of performing the deeds that help one remain on the path of faith. Also, Allah commanded His believing servants to proclaim, 4; 4. iiA he k'JM Q Aj h * * < } iOur Lord! Let not our hearts deviate (from the truth) after You have guided us, and grant us mercy from You. Truly, You are the Bestower.} (3:8). Hence, iGuide us to the straight way} means, Make us firm on the path of guidance and do not allow us to deviate from it.

V) p+sc j*. jv^Ac e-jit Cjl/jj"" 47. 77ie way 0/ those upon whom You have bestowed Your grace, not (that) of those who earned Your anger, nor of those who went astray}. We mentioned the Hadith in which the servant proclaims, iGuide us to the straight way and Allah says, This is for My servant, and My servant shall acquire what he asks for. Allah s statement. iThe way of those upon whom You have bestowed Your grace defines the path. Those upon whom Allah has bestowed His grace are those mentioned in Surat An-Nisa (chapter 4), when Allah said, / .'- 7 * /V * i iAnd whoever obeys Allah and the Messenger (Muhammad $&), then they will be in the company of those on whom Allah has bestowed His grace, the Prophets, the Siddiqin (the truly faithful), the martyrs, and the righteous. Allah's statement, Not (the way) of those who earned Your anger, nor of those who went astray } meaning guide us to the straight path, the path of those upon whom you have bestowed Your grace, that is, the people of guidance, sincerity and obedience to Allah and His Messengers. They are the people who adhere to Allah's commandments and refrain from committing what He has prohibited. But, help us to avoid the path of those whom Allah is angry with, whose intentions are corrupt, who know the truth, yet deviate from it. Also, help us avoid the path of those

Al-Fdihah (Part-1) who were led astray, who lost the true knowledge and, as a result, are wandering in misguidance, unable to find the correct path. Allah asserted that the two paths He described here are both misguided when He repeated the negation not. These two paths are the paths of the Christians and Jews, a fact that the believer should beware of so that he avoids them. The path of the believers is knowledge of the truth and abiding by it. In comparison, the Jews abandoned practicing the religion, while the Christians lost the true knowledge. This is why anger descended upon the Jews, while being described as led astray is more appropriate of the Christians. Those who know, but avoid implementing the truth, deserve the anger, unlike those who are ignorant. The Christians want to seek the true knowledge, but are unable to find it because they did not seek it from its proper resources. This is why they were led astray. We should also mention that both the Christians and the Jews have earned the anger and are led astray, but the anger is one of the attributes more particular of the Jews. Allah said about the Jews, Those (Jews) who incurred the curse of Allah and His wrath (5:60). The attribute that the Christians deserve most is that of being led astray, just as Allah said about them, Who wait astray before and who misled many, and strayed (themselves) from the right path (5:77). There are several Hadiths and reports from the Salaf on this subject. Imam

Prophet ﷺ came back, there was a man next to him, I think that he was Ali, who said to her, Ask him for a means of transportation. She asked the Prophet ﷺ, and he ordered that she be given an animal. Adi then said, Later on, she came to me and said, He (Muhammad ﷺ) has done a favor that your father (who was a generous man) would never have done. So and-so person came to him and he granted him his favor, and so-and-so came to him and he granted him his favor. So I went to the Prophet ﷺ and found that some women and children were gathering with him, so close that I knew that he was not a king like Kisra (King of Persia) or Caesar. He said, O Adi! What made you run away, so that La ilaha illallah is not proclaimed? Is there a deity worthy of worship except Allah? What made you run away, so that Allahu Akbar (Allah is the Greater) is not proclaimed? Is there anything Greater than Allah? I proclaimed my Islam and I saw his face radiate with pleasure and he said: Those who have earned the anger are the Jews and those who are led astray are the Christians This Hadith was also collected by At-Tirmidhi who said that it is Hasan Gharib. (1 Also, when Zayd bin Amr bin Nufayl went with some of his friends - before Islam - to Ash-Sham seeking the true religion, the Jews said to him, You will not become a Jew unless you carry a share of the anger of Allah that we have earned. He said, I am seeking to escape Allah's anger. Also, the Christians said to him, If you become one of us you will carry a share in Allah's discontent. He said, I cannot bear it. So he remained in his pure nature and avoided worshipping the idols and the polytheistic practices. He became neither a Jew, nor Christian. As for his companions, they became Christians because they found it more pure than Judaism. Waraqah bin Nawfal was among these people until Allah guided him by the hand of His

Prophet g, when he was sent as Prophet, and Waraqah believed in the revelation that was sent to the Prophet may Allah be pleased with him.  Ahmad 4:378, and Tuhfat At-Ahwardhi 8:289.

The Summary of Al-Fatihah The honorable Surah Al-Fatihah contains seven Ayat including the praise and thanks of Allah, glorifying Him and praising Him by mentioning His most Beautiful Names and most high Attributes. It also mentions the Hereafter, which is the Day of Resurrection, and directs Allah's servants to ask of Him, invoking Him and declaring that all power and strength comes from Him. It also calls to the sincerity of the worship of Allah alone, singling Him out in His divinity, believing in His perfection, being free from the need of any partners, having no rivals nor equals. Al-Fatihah directs the believers to invoke Allah to guide them to the straight path, which is the true religion, and to help them remain on that path in this life, and to pass over the actual Sirat (bridge over hell that everyone must pass over) on the Day of Judgment. On that Day, the believers will be directed to the gardens of comfort in the company of the Prophets, the truthful ones, the martyrs and the righteous. Al-Fatihah also encourages performing good deeds, so that the believers will be in the company of the good-doers on the Day of Resurrection. The Surah also warns against following the paths of misguidance, so that one does not end up being gathered with those who indulge in sin, on the Day of Resurrection, including those who have earned the anger and those who were led astray. The Bounties are because of Allah, not the Deviations Allah said, iThe way of those upon whom you have bestowed Your grace>, when He mentioned His favor. On mentioning anger, Allah said, Jl iNot (that) of those who earned Your anger without mentioning the subject, although it is He Who has sent down the anger on them, just as Allah stated in another Ayah, 'if 9% Jl j $ 4Have you (O Muhammad jg) not seen those (hypocrites) who take as friends a people upon whom is the wrath of Allah (i.e.

90 Tafsir Ibt Kathtr Jews?)} (58:14). Also, Allah relates the misguidance of those who indulged in it, although they were justly misguided according to Allah's appointed destiny. For instance, Allah said, tb (J J-4 -Sj T&f-J' J+ -i-t. 4He whom Allah guides, he is the rightly-guided ; but he whom He sends astray, for him you will find no Waif (guiding friend) to lead him (to the right path)} (18:17) and, ^Whomsoever Allah sends astray, none can guide him ; and He lets them wander blindly in their transgression} (7:186). These and several other Ayat testify to the fact that Allah alone is the One Who guides and misguides, contrary to the belief of the Qadariyyah sect, who claimed that the servants choose and create their own destiny. They rely on some unclear Ayat avoiding what is clear and contradicts their desires. Theirs, is the method of the people who follow their lust, desire and wickedness. An authentic Hadith narrated,)1 (jo-i jjJJI au aJLIj U Jl pjlj lil zWhcn you see those who follow what is not so clear in it (the Qur'an), then they are those whom Allah has mentioned (refer to 3:7). Verily, no innovator in the religion could ever rely on any authentic evidence in the Qur'an that testifies to his innovation. The Qur'an came to distinguish between truth and falsehood, and guidance and misguidance. The Qur'an does Al-Bdri8:57.

Al-Fatihah (Part-1) not contain any discrepancies or contradictions, because it is a revelation from the Most Wise, Worthy of all praise. The Virtues of SuratAl-Baqarah In Musnad

Ibn Mas'ud said, Shaytan departs the house where Surat Al-Baqarah is being recited, and as he leaves, he passes gas. Ad-Darimi also recorded that Ash-Shahi said that Abdullah bin Mas'ud said, Whoever recites ten Ayat from Surat Al-Baqarah in a night, then Shaytan will not enter his house that night. (These ten Ayat are) four from the beginning, Ayat Al-Kursi (255), the following two Ayat (256-257) and the last three Ayat. In another narration, Ibn Mas'ud said, Then Shaytan will not come near him or his family, nor will he be touched by anything that he dislikes. Also, if these Ayat were to be recited over a senile person, they would wake him up. 121 Further, Sahl bin Sa'd said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, Ulyl jZ Jp jUzr J \ >- u 1 utL.^ ou "Everything has a hump (or, high peek), and Al-Baqarah is the high peek of the Qur'an. Whoever recites Al-Baqarah at night in his house, that Shaytan will not enter that house for three nights. Whoever recites it during a day in his house, then Shaytan will not enter that house for three days." This Hadith was collected by Abu Al-Qasim At-Tabarani, Abu Hatim Ibn Hibban in his Sahih and Ibn Mafduwwah.¹³

Al-Baqarah (1 - 24) (Part-1) the Qur'an. Some of the scholars said that it contains a thousand news incidents, a thousand commands and a thousand prohibitions. Those who count said that the number of Al-Baqarah's Ayat is two hundred and eighty-seven, and its words are six thousand two hundred and twenty-one words. Further, its letters are twenty-five thousand five hundred. Allah knows best. Ibn Jurayj narrated that Ata said that Ibn Abbas said, Surat Al-Baqarah was revealed in Al-Madinah. 111 Also, Khasif said from Mujahid that Abdullah bin Az-Zubayr said; Surat Al-Baqarah was revealed in Al-Madinah. 12* Several Imams and scholars of Tafsir issued similar statements, and there is no difference of opinion over this as we have stated. The Two Sahih recorded that Ibn Mas'ud kept the Ka'bah on his left side and Mina on his right side and threw seven pebbles (at the Jamrah) and said, The one to whom Surat Al-Baqarah was revealed (i.e. the Prophet performed Rami (the Hajj rite of throwing pebbles) similarly. The Two Sahih recorded this Hadith³ Further, Ibn Marduyah reported a Hadith of Shu'bah from Aqil bin Talhah from Thabit bin Marthad; The Prophet saw that his Companions were not in the first lines and he said, "O Companions of Surat Al-Baqarah . " I think that this incident occurred during the battle of Hunayn when the Companions retreated. Then, the Prophet commanded Al- Abbas (his uncle) to yell out, O Companions of the tree/" meaning the Companions who participated in the pledge of Ar-Ridwan (under the tree). In another narration, Al- Abbas cried, O Companions of Surat Al-Baqarah⁴ encouraging them to come back, so they returned from every direction. Also, during the battle of Al-Yamamah, against the army of Musaylimah the Liar, the Companions * Ad-DurrAl-Manthur 1 :47. 121 Ibid. Al-Baqarah :678 , Muslim 2 :942

first retreated because of the huge number of soldiers in Musaylimah's army. The Muhajirun and the Ansar called out for each other, saying; O people of Surat Al-Baqarah\ Allah then gave them victory over their enemy, may Allah be pleased with all of the companions of all the Messengers of Allah 41 & p 4 i . ilti the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful 41. AlifLam Mim}. The Discussion of the Individual Letters The individual letters in the beginning of some Surahs are among those things whose knowledge Allah has kept only for Himself. This was reported from Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthman, Ali and Ibn Mas'ud. It was said that these letters are the names of some of the Surahs. It was also said that they are the beginnings that Allah chose to start the Surahs of the Qur'an with. Khasif stated that

Mujahid said, The beginnings of the Surahs, such as Qaf, Sad, Ta Sin Mim and AlifLam Ra, are just some letters of the alphabet. Some linguists also stated that they are letters of the alphabet and that Allah simply did not cite the entire alphabet of twenty-eight letters. For instance, they said, one might say, My son recites Alif, Ba, Ta, Tha... he means the entire alphabet although he stops before mentioning the rest of it. This opinion was mentioned by Ibn Jarir. The Letters at the Beginning of Surahs If one removes the repetitive letters, then the number of letters mentioned at the beginning of the Surahs is fourteen: Alif, Lam, Mim, Sad, Ra, Kaf, Ha, Yod, Ayn, Ta, Sin, Ha, Qaf, Nun. So glorious is He Who made everything subtly reflect His wisdom. Moreover, the scholars said, There is no doubt that Allah did not reveal these letters for jest and play. Some ignorant 111 Al-Majma' 6:180. Tabari 1 : 208

Al-Baqarah (1 - 24) (Part-1) people said that some of the Qur'an does not mean anything, (meaning, such as these letters) thus committing a major mistake. On the contrary, these letters carry a specific meaning. Further, if we find an authentic narration leading to the Prophet (ﷺ) that explains these letters, we will embrace the Prophet's statement. Otherwise, we will stop where we were made to stop and will proclaim, "We believe in it; all of it (clear and unclear verses) is from our Lord" (3 :7). The scholars did not agree on one opinion or explanation regarding this subject. Therefore, whoever thinks that one scholar's opinion is correct, he is obliged to follow it, otherwise it is better to refrain from making any judgment on this matter. Allah knows best. These Letters testify to the Miraculous Qur'an. The wisdom behind mentioning these letters in the beginning of the Surahs, regardless of the exact meanings of these letters, is that they testify to the miracle of the Qur'an. Indeed, the servants are unable to produce something like the Qur'an, although it is comprised of the same letters with which they speak to each other. This opinion was mentioned by Ar-Razi in his Tafsir who related it to Al-Mubarrid and several other scholars. Al-Qurtubi also related this opinion to Al-Farra and Qutrub. Az-Zamakhshari agreed with this opinion in his book, Al-Kashshaf. In addition, the Imam and scholar Abu Al- Abbas Ibn Taymiyyah and our Shaykh Al-Hafiz Abu Al-Hajjaj Al-Mizzi agreed with this opinion. Al-Mizzi told me that it is also the opinion of Shaykh Al-Islam Ibn Taymiyyah. Az-Zamakhshari said that these letters, Were not all mentioned once in the beginning of the Qur'an. Rather, they were repeated so that the challenge (against the creation) is more daring. Similarly, several stories were mentioned repeatedly in the Qur'an, and also the challenge was repeated in various areas (i.e., to produce something like the Qur'an). Sometimes, one letter at a time was mentioned, such as Sad, Nun and Qaf. Sometimes two letters were mentioned, such as

Tafsir Ibn Kathir 4Ha Mutt} (44:1) Sometimes, three letters were mentioned, such as, {AlifLam Mim (2 :1)} and four letters, such as, {AlifLam Mim Ra} (13:1), and {AlifLam Mim Sad} (7:1). Sometimes, five letters were mentioned, such as, {KafHa Yod Ayn Sad} (19:1), and; 4Ha Mutt. 'Ayn Sin Qaf} (42:1-2). This is because the words that are used in speech are usually comprised of one, two, three, four, or five letters. Every Surah that begins with these letters demonstrates the Qur'an's miracle and magnificence, and this fact is known by those well-versed in such matters. The count of these

Surahs is twenty-nine. For instance, Allah said, U t * *+ S iAlif Lam Mim} This is the Book (the Qur'an), wherein there is no doubt (2:1-2), 4&Q&2 *JS 4 '4 v 'if iAlifLam Mim. Allah! There are several other Ayat that testify to what we have mentioned above, and Allah knows best. i2. That is Book in which there is no Rayb, guidance for the Muttaqin}. There is no Doubt in the Qur'an The Book, is the Qur'an, and Rayb means doubt. As-Suddi said that Abu Malik and Abu Salih narrated from Ibn Abbas, and Murrah Al-Hamadani narrated from Ibn Mas'ud and several other Companions of the Messenger of Allah that, i*i Cfj ^} Hn which there is no Rayb}, means about which there is no doubt. 111 Abu Ad-Darda, Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Said bin Jubayr, Abu Malik, Nail' Ata, Abu Al-Aliyah, Ar-Rabl bin Anas, Muqatil bin Hayyan, As-Suddi, Qatadah and Ismail bin Abi Khalid said similarly. In addition, Ibn Abi Hatim said, I do not know of any disagreement over this explanation. [2i The meaning of this is that the Book, the Qur'an, is without a doubt revealed from Allah. Similarly, Allah said in Surat As- Sajdah, iAlif Lam Mm}. The revelation of the Book (this Qur'an) in which there is no doubt, is from the Lord of all that exists) (32:1-2). Some scholars stated that this Ayah - 2:2 - contains a prohibition meaning, Do not doubt the Qur'an. Furthermore, some of the reciters of the Qur'an pause upon reading, 4there is no doubt} and they then continue; iin which there is guidance far the Muttaqin (the pious and righteous persons)}. However, it is better to pause at, ill iin which there is no doubt} because in this case, i-e>} i guidance} becomes an attribute of the Qur'an and carries a better meaning than, / A ' i(SJL.t, jj} iin which there is guidance}. Guidance is granted to Those Who have Taqwa. Hidayah - correct guidance - is only granted to those who have Taqwa - fear of Allah. Allah said, At-Tabari 1 :228. Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :3 1

This is a sample of the numerous Ayat indicating that the believers, in particular, benefit from the Qur'an. That is because the Qur'an is itself a form of guidance, but the guidance in it is only granted to the righteous, just as Allah said, Cj Ski j j* i-WjA fS^CC- J3 J-U)' ($k) iO mankind! There has come to you a good advice from your Lord (i.e. the Qur'an, enjoining all that is good and forbidding all that is evil), and a healing for that (disease of ignorance, doubt, hypocrisy and differences) which is in your breasts, - a guidance and a mercy (explaining lawful and unlawful things) for the believers) (10:57). Ibn Abbas and Ibn Mas'ud and other Companions of the Messenger of Allah jg said, guidance for the Muttaqin (the pious and righteous persons), means, a light for those who have Taqwa. The Meaning of Al-Muttaqin Ibn Abbas said about.

^guidance for the Muttaqin} that it means, They are the believers who avoid Shirk with Allah and who work in His obedience. Ibn Abbas also said that Al-Muttaqin means, Those who fear Allah's punishment, which would result if they abandoned the true guidance that they recognize and know. They also hope in Allah's mercy by believing in what He revealed. Further, Qatadah said that, iAl-Muttaqin}, are those whom Allah has described in His statement; cgjity iWho believe in the Ghayb and perform the Salah (2:3), and the following Ayat. Ibn Jarir stated that the Ayat (2:2) includes all of these meanings that the scholars have mentioned, and this is the correct view. Also, At-Tirmidhi and Ibn Majah narrated that Atiyah As-Sadi said that the Messenger of Allah jg said, *The servant will not acquire the status of the Muttaqin until he abandons what is harmless out of fear of falling into that which is harmful. At-Tirmidhi then said Hasan Gharib. There are Two Types of Hidayah (Guidance) Huda here means the faith that resides in the heart, and only Allah is able to create it in the heart of the servants. Allah said, If vA} 4Verily, you (O Muhammad jfe) guide not whom you like} (28:56), 4Not upon you (Muhammad jg) is their guidance (2:272), m Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi 7 :147 , and Ibn Majah 2 : 1409

Al-Baqarah (1 - 24) (Part-1 4/S (ill* iit } ^Whomsoever Allah sends astray, none can guide him} (7:186), and, /, / * /*" K ' < t. > " ' cHr^ . v^ -J Hi &T } He whom Allah guides, he is the rightly guided; but he whom He sends astray, for him you will find no Walt (guiding friend) to lead him (to the right path)) (18:17). Huda also means to explain the truth, give direction and lead to it. Allah, the Exalted, said, d\ ^- 5 (Off} iAttd verily, you (O Muhammad sfe) are indeed guiding (mankind) to the straight path (i.e. Allah's religion of Islamic Monotheism)) (42:52), iYou are only a wamer, and to every people there is a guide} (13:7), and, itOi $& %} } And as for Thamiid, We showed and made clear to them the path of truth (Islamic Monotheism) through Our Messenger (i.e. showed them the way of success), but they preferred blindness to guidance} (41:17). testifying to this meaning. Also, Allah said, iAnd shown him the two ways (good and evil).} (90:10) This is the view of the scholars who said that the two ways refer to the paths of righteousness and evil, which is also the correct explanation. And Allah knows best. Meaning of Taqwa The root meaning of Taqwa is to avoid what one dislikes. It was reported that Umar bin Al-Khattab asked Ubayy bin Ka*b about Taqwa. Ubayy said, Have you ever walked on a path no Tafsir Ibn Kathir that has thorns on it? Umar said, Yes. Ubayy said, What did you do then? He said, I rolled up my sleeves and struggled. Ubayy said, That is Taqwa." 43. Those Who have faith in the Ghayb}. The Meaning of iman Abu Ja'far Ar-Razi said that Al-Ala bin Al-Musayyib bin Rafi narrated from Abu Ishaq that Abu Al-Ahwas said that Abdullah said, Iman is to trust. . 1 11 Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas said, iivho have faith means they trust.121 Also, Ma mar said that Az-Zuhri said, Iman is the deeds. 131 In addition, Abu Ja'far Ar-Razi said that Ar-RabT bin Anas said that, They have faith, means, they fear (Allah).,4) Ibn Jarir (At-Tabari) commented, The preferred view is that they be described as having faith in the Unseen by the tongue, deed and creed. In this case, fear of Allah is included in the general meaning of /iman, which necessitates following deeds of the tongue by implementation. Hence, Iman is a general term that includes affirming and believing in Allah, His Books and His Messengers, and realizing this affirmation through adhering to the implications of what the tongue utters and affirms. Linguistically, in the absolute sense, Iman merely means trust, and it is used to mean that sometimes in the Qur'an, for instance, Allah the Exalted said, 4&p} it 4He trusts (yu'minu) in Allah, and trusts (yu mittu) in the believers.} (9:61) Prophet Yusuf's brothers said to their father, At-Tabari 1 :235. Ibid. (31 Ibid. 4| Ibid.

4Buf yot/ u/ never believe us even when we speak the truth> (12:17). Further, the word Iman is sometimes mentioned along with deeds, such as Allah said, 4o i ii \JlSj ip: IM 4\} iSave those who believe (in Islamic Monotheism) and do righteous deeds (95:6). However, when iman is used in an unrestricted manner, it includes beliefs, deeds, and statements of the tongue. We should state here that Iman increases and decreases. There are many narrations and Hadiths on this subject, and we discussed them in the beginning of our explanation of Sahih Al-Bukhari, all favors are from Allah. Some scholars explained that iman means Khashyah (fear of Allah). For instance, Allah said; 4Verily, those who fear their Lord unseen (i.e. they do not see Him, nor His punishment in the Hereafter)} (67:12), and, iWho feared the Most Gracious (Allah) in the Ghayb (unseen) and brought a heart turned in repentance (to Him and absolutely free from every kind of polytheism)} (50:33). Fear is the core of Iman and knowledge, just as Allah the Exalted said, it is only those who have knowledge among His servants that fear Allah} (35:28). The Meaning of Al-Ghayb As for the meaning of Ghayb here, the Salaf have different explanations of it, all of which are correct, indicating the same '*' See the Tafstroi Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :35 general meaning. For instance, Abu Ja'far Ar-Razi quoted Ar- Rabi bin Anas, reporting from Abu Al-Aliyah about Allah's statement, i(Those who) have faith in the Ghayb}, They believe in Allah, His angels, Books, Messengers, the Last Day, His Paradise, Fire and in the meeting with Him. They also believe in life after death and in Resurrection. All of this is the Ghayb. Qatadah bin Di'amah said similarly. Said bin Mansur reported from Abdur-Rahman bin Yazid who said, We were sitting with Abdullah bin Mas'ud when we mentioned the Companions of the Prophet jg and their deeds being superior to our deeds. Abdullah said, The matter of Muhammad was clear for those who saw him. By He other than Whom there is no God, no person will ever acquire a better type of faith than believing in Al-Ghayb.' He then recited, iAlif Lam Man. This is the Book, wherein there is no doubt, a guidance for the Muttaqin. Those who believe in the Ghayb}, until. 4the successful}. Ibn Abi Hatim, Ibn Marduyah and Al- Hakim, in his Mustadrak, [3] recorded this Hadith.

This Hadith has another route collected by Abu Bakr bin Marduyah in his Tafsir, from Salih bin Jubayr who said: Abu Jumu'ah Al-Ansari, the Companion of the Messenger of Allah jg, came to Bayt Al-Maqdis (Jerusalem) to perform the prayer. Raja bin Haywah was with us, so when Abu Jumu'ah finished, we went out to greet him. When he was about to leave, he said, You have a gift and a right. I will narrate a Hadith for you that I heard from the Messenger of Allah. We said, Do so, and may Allah grant you mercy. He said, We were with the Messenger of Allah, ten people including Mu'adh bin Jabal. We said, "O Messenger of Allah! Are there people who will acquire greater rewards than us? We believed in Allah and followed you. He said, "What prevents you from doing so, while the Messenger of Allah is among you, bringing you the revelation from heaven? There are people who will come after you and who will be given a book between two covers (the Qur'an), and they will believe in it and implement its commands. They have a greater reward than you, even twice as much." 4 And perform Salah, and spend out of what we have provided for them} Meaning of Iqamat As-Salah Ibn Abbas said that, 4:106. And perform the Salah$, means, Perform the prayer with all of the obligations that accompany it. 11 Ad-Dahhak said that Ibn Abbas said, Iqamat As-Saldh means to complete the bowings, prostrations, recitation, humbleness and attendance for the prayer. ' Qatadah said, Iqamat As-Saldh means to preserve punctuality, and the ablution, bowings, and prostrations of the prayer. '3 Muqatil bin Hayyan said Iqamat As-Saldh means "To preserve punctuality for it, as well as completing ones purity for it, and completing the bowings, prostrations, recitation of the Qur'an, Tashahhud and blessings for the Prophet jg. The Meaning of "Spending" in this Ayah

Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas said, I- 'V 4 And spend out of what We have provided for them means, The Zakat due on their wealth. '5 As-Suddi said that Abu Malik and Abu Salih narrated from Ibn Abbas, as well as Murrah from Ibn Mas'ud and other Companions of the Messenger of Allah sg, that, i And spend out of what We have provided for them means, A man s spending on his family. This was before the obligation of Zakat was revealed. '6 ' Juwaybir narrated from Ad-Dahhak, General spending (in charity) was a means of drawing nearer to Allah, according to one s discretion and capability. Until the obligation of charity was revealed in the seven Ayat of Surat Bara ah (chapter 9), were revealed. These abrogated the previous case. '7' At-Tabari 1 :241 Ibid. ' Ibn Abi Hstim 1:37. ' Ibid. Al-Baqarah (1 - 24) (Part-1) In many instances, Allah mentioned prayer and spending wealth together. Prayer is a right of Allah as well as a form of worshipping Him. It includes singling Him out for one s devotion, praising Him, glorifying Him, supplicating to Him, invoking Him, and it displays one s dependence upon Him. Spending is form of kindness towards creatures by giving them what will benefit them, and those people most deserving of this charity are the relatives, the wife, the servants and then the rest of the people. So all types of required charity and required spending are included in Allah s saying, i And spend out of ivhat we have provided for them}. There are many other Hadiths on this subject. The Meaning of Salah In the Arabic language, the basic meaning of Salah is supplication. In religious terminology, Salah is used to refer to the acts of bowing and prostration, the remaining specified acts associated with it, specified at certain times, with those known conditions, and the characteristics, and requirements that are well-known about it. j {j* Uj jIJJ L } 44 . Attributes of the Believers The people described here (2:4) are those whom Allah described in the preceding Ayah, 4Those who have faith in the Ghayb and perform the Satdh, and spend out of what we have provided for them .) Mujahid once stated, Four Ayat at the beginning of Surat Al-Baqarah describe the believers, two describe the disbelievers, and thirteen describe the hypocrites. * The four Ayat mentioned in this statement are general and include every believer, whether an Arab, non-Arab, or a person of a previous Scripture, whether they are Jinns or humans. All of these attributes complement each other and require the existence of the other attributes. For instance, it is not possible that one believes in the Unseen, performs the prayer and gives Zakdh without believing in what the Messenger of Allah and the previous Messengers were sent with. This is a sample of the Ayat that indicate that the true believers all believe in Allah, His Messengers and His Books. The faithful among the People of the Book, have a special significance here, since they believe in their Books and in all of the details related to that, so when such people embrace Islam and sincerely believe in the details of the religion, then they will get two rewards. As for the others, they can only believe in the previous religious teachings in a general way. For instance, the Prophet stated. Jit

lil" yOl Jjifj 01 Jjif the People of the Book narrate to you, neither reject nor affirm what they say. Rather, say, We believe in what was revealed to ns and what was revealed to i/om.) However, the faith that many Arabs have in the religion of Islam as it was revealed to Muhammad sjfcj might be more complete, encompassing and firmer than the faith of the People of the Book who embraced Islam. Therefore, if the believers in Islam among the People of the Book gain two rewards, other Muslims who have firmer Islamic faith might gain an equal reward that compares to the two the People of the Book gain (upon embracing Islam). And Allah knows best. 45. They are on guidance from their Lord, and they are the successful. they do not see."I 1 ' The Hypocrites We mentioned that four Ayat in the beginning of Surat Al- Baqarah described the believers. The two last Ayat (2:6-7) describe the disbelievers. Afterwards, Allah begins to describe the hypocrites who show belief and hide disbelief. Since the matter of the hypocrites is vague and many people do not realize their true reality, Allah mentioned their description in detail. Each of the characteristics that Allah used to described them with is a type of hypocrisy itself. Allah revealed Surat Bara ah (chapter 9) and Surat Al-Munafiqun (chapter 63) about the hypocrites. He also mentioned the hypocrites in Surat An- Nur (24) and other Surahs, so that their description would be known and their ways and errors could be avoided. Allah said, Al"b djAj & &JT is&& 13 \pa 48. And of mankind, there are some who say: "We believe in Allah and the Last Day" while in fact they do not believe}. 49. They try to deceive Allah and those who believe, while they only deceive themselves, and perceive (it) not!} Meaning of Nifaq Nifaq means to show conformity - or agreement - and to conceal evil. Nifaq has several types: Nifaq in the creed that causes its people to reside in Hell for eternity, and Nifaq in deed, which is one of the major sins, as we will explain soon, Allah willing. Ibn Jurayj said of the hypocrite that, His actual deeds are different from what he publicizes, what he conceals is different from what he utters, his entrance and presence are not the same as his exit and absence. The Beginning of Hypocrisy The revelations about the characteristics of the hypocrites were revealed in Al-Madlnah, this is because there were no A(1 :266.Tabari 1 :270.

hypocrites in Makkah. Rather the opposite was the situation in Makkah, since some people were forced to pretend that they were disbelievers, while their hearts concealed their faith. Afterwards, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ migrated to Al-Madinah, where the Ansar from the tribes of Aws and Khazraj resided. They used to worship idols during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, just as the rest of the Arab idolators. Three Jewish tribes resided in Al-Madinah, Banu Qaynuqa'-allies of Al-Khazraj, Banu An-Nadlr and Banu Qurayzah-allies of the Aws. Many members of the Aws and Khazraj tribes embraced Islam. However, only a few Jews embraced Islam, such as Abdullah bin Salam. During the early stage in Al-Madinah, there weren't any hypocrites because the Muslims were not strong enough to be feared yet. On the contrary, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ conducted peace treaties with the Jews and several other Arab tribes around Al-Madinah. Soon after, the battle of Badr occurred and Allah gave victory to Islam and its people. Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salul was a leader in Al-Madinah. He was Al-Khazraj's chief, and during the period of Jahiliyyah he was the master of both tribes - Aws and Khazraj. They were about to appoint him their king when the Message reached Al-Madinah, and many in Al-Madinah embraced Islam. Ibn Salul's heart was filled with hatred against Islam and its people. When the battle of Badr took place, he said, “Allah’s religion has become apparent. So he pretended to be Muslim, along with many of those who were just like him, as well as many among the People of the Book. It was then that hypocrisy began in Al-Madinah and among the surrounding nomad tribes. As for the Emigrants, none of them were hypocrites, since they emigrated willingly (seeking the pleasure of Allah). Rather, when a Muslim would emigrate from Makkah, he would be forced to abandon all of his wealth, offspring and land; he would do so seeking Allah's reward in the Hereafter. The Tafsir of Ayah 2:8 Muhammad bin Ishaq narrated that Ibn Abbas said that, ⁴ “And of mankind, there are some who say: “We believe in Allah and the Last Day” while in fact they do not believe.”

126 Tafsir Ibt Kathir This refers to the hypocrites among the Aws and Khazraj and those who behaved as they did. This is how Abu Aliyah, Al-Hasan, Qatadah and As-Suddi explained this Ayah. Allah revealed the characteristics of the hypocrites, so that the believers would not be deceived by their outer appearance, thus saving the believers from a great evil. Otherwise, the believers might think that the hypocrites were believers, when in reality they are disbelievers. To consider the sinners as righteous people is extremely dangerous, Allah said, ⁴ “And of mankind, there are some who say : “We believe in Allah and the Last Day” while in fact they do not believe” meaning, they utter these false statements only with their tongues, just as Allah said, ⁴ “When the hypocrites come to you (O Muhammad ﷺ), they say: “We bear witness that you are indeed the Messenger of Allah.” Allah knows that you are indeed His Messenger” (63:1). This Ayah means that the hypocrites utter these statements only when they meet you, not because they actually believe what they are saying. The hypocrites emphasize their belief in Allah and the Last Day with their words, when that is not the case in reality. Therefore, Allah stated that the hypocrites lie in their testimony of creed, when He said, ³ “And Allah bears witness that the hypocrites are indeed liars.” (63:1), and, ¹ “While in fact they believe not” Allah said, ¹ At-Tabari 1 :269

Al-Baqarah (1 - 24) (Part-1) iThey try to deceive Allah and those who believe}. The hypocrites show belief outwardly while concealing disbelief. They think that by doing this, they will mislead Allah, or that the statements they utter will help them with Allah, and this is an indication of their total ignorance. They think that such behavior will deceive Allah, just as it might deceive some of the believers. Similarly, Allah said, iOn the Day when Allah will resurrect them all together; then they will swear to Him as they swear to you. And they think that they have something (to stand upon). Verily, they are liars!} (58:18). Hence, Allah refuted their way by saying, iWhile they only deceive themselves, and perceive (it) not!} Allah stated that the hypocrites only deceive themselves by this behavior, although they are unaware of this fact. Allah also said, X >> ji* * > v 41)1 J;;': .U jly iVerily, the hypocrites try to deceive Allah, but it is He Who deceives them} (4:142). Also, Ibn Abi Hatim narrated that Ibn Jurayj commented on Allah s statement, iVerily, the hypocrites seek to deceive Allah, but it is He Who deceives them}, The hypocrites pronounce, There is no deity worthy of worship except Allah seeking to ensure the sanctity of their blood and money, all the while concealing disbelief. 128 Tafsir Ibn Kathir 4And of mankind, there are some who say : "We believe in Allah and the Last Day" while in fact they believe not. They try to deceive Allah and those who believe, while they only deceive themselves, and perceive (it) not! } This is the description of a hypocrite. He is devious, he says the truth with his tongue and defies it with his heart and deeds. He wakes up in a condition other than the one he goes to sleep in, and goes to sleep in a different condition than the one he wakes up in. He changes his mind just like a ship that moves about whenever a wind blows. 11 410. In their hearts is a disease and Allah luis increased their disease. But as for those in zohose hearts is a disease, it will add disgrace to their disgrace.} (9:124-125) and commented, Evil to their evil and deviation to their deviation. This statement by Abdur-Rahman is true, and it constitutes a punishment that is compatible to the sin, just as the earlier scholars stated. Similarly, Allah said, \ ^ iWhile as for those who accept guidance. He increases their guidance and grants them their piety} (47:17). Allah said next, 4Because they used to tell lies}. The hypocrites have two characteristics, they lie and they deny the Unseen. The scholars who stated that the Prophet knew the hypocrites of his time have only the Hadith of Hudhayfah bin Al-Yaman as evidence. In it the Prophet ﷺ gave him the names of fourteen hypocrites during the battle of Tabuk. These hypocrites plotted to assassinate the Prophet ﷺ during the night on a hill in that area. They planned to excite the Prophet's camel, so that she would throw him down the hill. Allah informed the Prophet ﷺ about their plot, and the Prophet ﷺ told Hudhayfah their names. As for the other hypocrites, Allah said about them, >\ .I .."if i * > ':/ , " " ^ > / " /.< Tabari 1 :280.

Their mischief is disobeying Allah, because whoever Al-Bari 8 :184, Muslim 4 :2141Tabari 1 :288.

disobeys Allah on the earth, or commands that Allah be disobeyed, he has committed mischief on the earth. Peace on both the earth and in the heavens is ensured (and earned) through obedience (to Allah). 1,(11 Ar-Rabl bin Anas and Qatadah said similarly 2(Types of Mischief that the Hypocrites commit Ibn Jarir said, The hypocrites commit mischief on earth by disobeying their Lord on it and continuing in the prohibited acts. They also abandon what Allah made obligatory and doubt His religion, even though He does not accept a deed from anyone except with faith in His religion and certainty of its truth. The hypocrites also lie to the believers by saying contrary to the doubt and hesitation their hearts harbor. They give as much aid as they can, against Allah s loyal friends, and support those who deny Allah, His Books and His Messengers. This is how the hypocrites commit mischief on earth, while thinking that they are doing righteous work on earth. 131 The statement by Ibn Jarir is true, taking the disbelievers as friends is one of the categories of mischief on the earth. Allah said, Jf\ ^ tUi jz Mjl iAnd those who disbelieve are allies of one another, if you do not do this (help each other), there will be turmoil and oppression on the earth, and great mischief.> (8:73), In this way Allah severed the loyalty between the believers and the disbelievers. Similarly, Allah said, Pi 40 you who believe! Do not take disbelievers as Awliyid' (protectors or helpers or friends) instead of believers. Do you (1(Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :50. (2(Ibn Abi Hatim 1:51. 3| At-Tabari 1 :289

Al-Baqarah (1 - 24) (Part-1) wish to offer Allah a manifest proof against yourselves?) (4:144). Allah then said, iVerily, the hypocrites will be in the lowest depth of the Fire; no helper will you find for them) (4:145). Since the outward appearance of the hypocrite displays belief, he confuses the true believers. Hence, the deceitful behavior of the hypocrites is an act of mischief, because they deceive the believers by claiming what they do not believe in, and because they give support and loyalty to the disbelievers against the believers. If the hypocrite remains a disbeliever (rather than pretending to be Muslim), the evil that results from him would be less. Even better, if the hypocrite becomes sincere with Allah and makes the statements that he utters conform to his deeds, he will gain success. Allah said, 4And when it is said to them : "Do not make mischief on the earth, they say: ,r \Ne are only peacemakers.) meaning, We seek to be friends with both parties, the believers and the disbelievers, and to have peace with both parties. Similarly, Muhammad bin Ishaq reported that Ibn Abbas said, 4And when it is said to them: "Do not make mischief on the earth, they say: "Wc are only peacemakers") means, We seek to make amends between the believers and the People of the Book. Allah said, ^ jU$W) iVerily, they are the ones who make mischief, but they perceive not.). This Ayah means that the hypocrites behavior, and their claim that it is for peace, is itself mischief, although in their ignorance, they do not see it to be mischief. m Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :52.

They do this to misdirect, mislead and deceive the believers. The hypocrites also want to have a share of the benefits and gains that the believers might possibly acquire. Yet, 4 ii!> 4But when they are alone with their Shayatin}, meaning, if they are alone with their devils, such as their leaders and masters among the rabbis of the Jews, hypocrites and idolaters. Human and Jinn Devils Ibn Jarir said, The devils of every creation are the mischievous among them. There are both human devils and Jinn devils. Allah said, 136 Tafsir Ibtī Kathīr 4 And so We have appointed for every Prophet enemies - Shayṭfīn (devils) among mankind and Jinn, inspiring one another with adorned speech as a delusion (or by way of deception)} (6:1 12).

The Meaning of Mocking Allah said, iThey say: "Truly, we are with you". Muhammad bin Ishaq reported that Ibn Abbas said that the Ayah means, We are with you, as} iVerily, we were but mocking}, meaning, we only mock people (the believers) and deceive them."111 Ad-Dahhak said that Ibn Abbas said that the Ayah, ic,s.^ a\} iVerily, we were but mocking}, means, We (meaning the hypocrites) were mocking the Companions of Muhammad. 121 Also, Ar-Rabi bin Anas and Qatadah said similarly. 131 Allah s statement. 4 4 re iifrA &} iAllah mocks at them and leaves them increasing in their deviation to wander blindly} answers the hypocrites and punishes them for their behavior. Ibn Jarir commented, Allah mentioned what He will do to them on the Day of Resurrection, when He said, 40n the Day when the hypocrites - men and women - will say to the believers: "Wait for us! Let us get something from your light!" It will be said: "Go back to your rear! Then seek a At-Jabari 1 :300. Ibid. Ibid.

Al-Baqarah (1 - 24) (Part-1) light!" So a wall will be put up between them, with a gate therein. Inside it will be mercy, and outside it toill be torment.$ (57:13), and, iAnd let not the disbelievers think that Our postponing of their punishment is goodfor them. We postpone the punishment only so that they may increase in sinfulness.} (3:178). He then said, This, and its like, is Allah s mockery of the hypocrites and the people of Shirk. The Hypocrites suffering for their Plots Allah stated that He will punish the hypocrites for their mockery, using the same terms to describe both the deed and its punishment, although the meaning is different. Similarly, Allah said, iTIie recompense for an offense is an offense equal to it; but whoever forgives and makes reconciliation, his reward is with Allah} (42:40), and, iThen whoever transgresses (the prohibition) against you, transgress likewise against him} (2:194). The first act is an act of injustice, while the second act is an act of justice. So both actions carry the same name, while being different in reality. This is how the scholars explain deceit, cunning and mocking when attributed to Allah in the Qur an. Surely, Allah exacts revenge for certain evil acts with a punishment that is similar in nature to the act itself. We should affirm here that Allah does not do these things out of joyful play, according to the consensus of the scholars, but as a just form of punishment for certain evil acts. Meaningof Leavesthemincreasingintheirdeviationto wander blindly Allah said, iAlldh mocks at them and leaves them increasing in their deviation to wander blindly). As-Suddi reported that Ibn Abbas, Ibn Mas*ud and several other Companions of the Messenger of Allah jg said that. iand leaves them increasing^ means, He gives them respite. 111 Also, Mujahid said, He (causes their deviation) to increase. 12 Allah said; V i 4 pi $& 1 \ jff) 4Do they think that by the wealth and the children with which We augment them. (That) We hasten to give them with good things. Nay, but they perceive not.) (23:55-56). Ibn Jarir commented, The correct meaning of this Ayah is We give them increase from the view of giving them respite and leaving them in their deviation and rebellion. Similarly, Allah said, $And We shall turn their hearts and their eyes away (from guidance), as they refused to believe in it thefirst time, and We shall leave them in their trespass to wander blindly). (6:1 10). Tughyan used in this Ayah means to transgress the limits, just as Allah said in another Ayah, j jSK-ii& 6 iVerily, when the water Taghd (rose) beyond its limits, We carried you in the ship) (69:1 1). Also,

Ibn Jarir said that the term Amah, in the Ayah means, deviation . He also said about Allah's statement, Tabari 1:311. 121 IbnAbiyatim 1:57. Tabari 1 :307

4in their deviation to wander In the misguidance and disbelief that has encompassed them, causing them to be confused and unable to find a way out of it. In summary, the statements that we have mentioned from the scholars of Tafsir indicate that the hypocrites deviate from the true guidance and prefer misguidance, substituting wickedness in place of righteousness. This meaning explains Allah's statement, iis$imm& y iThese are they who have purchased error with guidance}, meaning, they exchanged guidance to buy misguidance. This meaning includes those who first believed, then later disbelieved, whom Allah described, IM Al-Tabari 1 :309.

They are deaf, dumb, and blind, so they return not (to the right path).} The Example of the Hypocrites Allah likened the hypocrites when they bought deviation with guidance, thus acquiring utter blindness, to the example of a person who started a fire. When the fire was lit, and illuminitated the surrounding area, the person benefited from it and felt safe. Then the fire was suddenly extinguished. Therefore, total darkness covered this person, and he became unable to see anything or find his way out of it. Further, this person could not hear or speak and became so blind that even if there were light, he would not be able to see. This is why he cannot return to the state that he was in before this happened to him. Such is the case with the hypocrites who preferred misguidance over guidance, deviation over righteousness. This parable indicates that the hypocrites first believed, then disbelieved, just as Allah stated in other parts of the Qur'an. Allah's statement, 4Allah removed their light} means, Allah removed what benefits them, and this is the light, and He left them with what harms them, that is, the darkness and smoke. Allah said, 4And left them in darkness}, that is their doubts, disbelief and hypocrisy. 4(So) they could not see} meaning, they are unable to find the correct path or find its direction. In addition, they are, 4deaf} and thus cannot hear the guidance, 4dumb} and cannot utter the words that might benefit them, iand blind in total darkness and deviation. Similarly, Allah said, iVerily, it is not the eyes that grow blind, but it is the hearts which are in the breasts that grow blind (22:46) and this why they cannot get back to the state of guidance that they were in, since they sold it for misguidance. *ijs" iX" <!) * * ^>\ 4~&Jd iat JLi jJJ |i,i j^Lfci 429. And ifAllah willed. He could have taken away their hearing and their sight. Certainly, Allah has pmoer over all things.} Another Parable ofthe Hypocrites This is another parable which Allah gave about the hypocrites who sometimes know the truth and doubt it at other times. When they suffer from doubt, confusion and disbelief, their hearts are, 4Like a Sayyib}, meaning, "The rain , as Ibn Mas ud, Ibn Abbas, and several other Companions have confirmed l| as well as m At-Tabari 1 :334.

Al-Baqarah (1 - 24) (Part-1) Abu Al- Aliyah, Mujahid, Said bin Jubayr, Ata , Al-Hasan Al- Basri, Qatadah, Atiyah Al- Awfi, Ata Al-Khurasani, As-Suddi and Ar-Rabl bin Anas. Ad-Dahhak said It is the clouds. However, the most accepted opinion is that it means the rain that comes down during, idarkness meaning, here, the doubts, disbeliefand hypocrisy. ithunder that shocks the hearts with fear. The hypocrites are usually full of fear and anxiety, just as Allah described them, iThey think that every cry is against them^ (63:4), and, 4 (Uj) tyj) j' iLi'jLk iThey szvear by Allah that they are truly of you while they are not of you, but they are a people who are afraid. But Allah ever encompasses the disbelievers}, meaning, their cautiousness does not benefit them because they are bound by Allah s all-encompassing will and decision. Al-Baqarah (1 - 24) (Part-1) obvious and most correct view, and Allah knows best. Consequently, on the Day of Judgment, the believers will be given a light according to the degree of their faith. Some of them will gain light that illuminates over a distance of several miles, some more, some less. Some people s light will glow sometimes and be extinguished at other times. They will, therefore, walk on the Sirat (the bridge over the Fire) in the light, stopping when it is extinguished. Some people will have no light at all, these are the hypocrites whom Allah described when He said, 'j Jj fjj ut iyil 35 & > 40/1 the Day whett the hypocrites - men and ivomen - will say to the believers : "Wait for us! Let us get something from your light! It will be said to them; "Go back to you rear! Then seek a light!) (57: 13). Allah described the believers, V? 'fjf |"J> oo"jS isj iOn the Day you shall see the believing men and the believing women - their light running forward before them and by their right hands. Glad tidings for you this Day! Gardens under which riversflow (Paradise)} (57:12), and, i f /"*" lA' 4-*y" fjr 4-^=& ^ u j"-j1 4The Day that Allah will not disgrace the Prophet (Muhammad Sg) and those who believe with

Keep perfect our Light for us [and do not put it off till we cross over the Sirdt (a slippery bridge over the Hell) safely] and grant us forgiveness. Verily, You are Able to do all things } (66:8). Ibn Abi Hatim narrated that Abdullah bin Mas'ud 111 Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :75.

commented on, iTheir Light will run forward before them}, They will pass on the Sirat. according to their deeds. The light that some people have will be as big as a mountain, while the light of others will be as big as a date tree. The people who will have the least light are those whose index fingers will sometimes be lit and extinguished at other times. 1 11 Ibn Abi Hatim also reported that Ibn Abbas said, Every person among the people of Tawhid (Islamic Monotheism) will gain a light on the Day of Resurrection. As for the hypocrite, his light will be extinguished. When the believers witness the hypocrite s light being extinguished, they will feel anxious. Hence, they will supplicate, iOur Lord! Keep perfect our Light for us^. 12 * Ad-Dahhak bin Muzahim said, On the Day of Resurrection, everyone who has embraced the faith will be given a light. When they arrive at the Sirat, the light of the hypocrites will be extinguished. When the believers see this, they will feel anxious and supplicate, iOur Lord! Keep perfect our Light for us$. Types of Believers and Types of Disbelievers Consequently, there are several types of people. There are the believers whom the first four Ayat (2:2-5) in Surat Al-Baqarah describe. There are the disbelievers who were described in the next two Ayat. And there are two categories of hypocrites: the complete hypocrites who were mentioned in the parable of the fire, and the hesitant hypocrites, whose light of faith is sometimes lit and sometimes extinguished. The parable of the rain was revealed about this category, which is not as evil as the first category. Jabari 23:3179. 121 Al-Hakim 2:495.

Al-Baqarah (1 - 24) (Part-1) lamp, a sealed heart with a knot tied around its seal, a heart that is turned upside down and a wrapped heart. As for the polished heart, it is the heart of the believer and the lamp is the light offaith. The sealed heart is the heart of the disbeliever. The heart that is turned upside down is the heart of the pure hypocrite, because he had knowledge but denied it. As for the wrapped heart, it is a heart that contains belief and hypocrisy. The example offaith in this heart, is the example of the herb that is sustained by pure water. The example ofhypocrisy in it, is the example of an ulcer that thrives on puss and blood. Whichever of the two substances has the upper hand, it will have the upper hand on that heart*. This Hadith has a Jayid Hasan (good) chain of narration. Allah said, if' He  * > jl iif sti iAnd if Allah willed, He would have taken away their hearing and their sight. Certainly, Allah has power over all things}. Muhammad bin Ishaq reported that Ibn Abbas commented on Allah s statement, ^^& i*i> iAnd if Allah willed. He would have taken away their hearing and their sight}, Because they abandoned the truth after they had knowledge in it. & if iCertainly, Allah has power over all things}. Ibn Abbas said, Allah is able to punish or pardon His servants as He wills. Ibn Jarir commented, Allah only described Himself with the ability to do everything in this Ayah as a warning to the hypocrites of His control over everything, and to inform them that His ability completely encompasses them and that He is able to take away their hearing and sight. Ibn Jarir and several other scholars of Tafsir stated that these two parables are about the same kind of hypocrite. So [1 Ahmad 3:17. Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :76 At-Jabari 1 :361

the or mentioned in, 40r like a rainstorm froth ' rky} means and , just as the Ayah, 4 < ^ g %f 4And obey neither a c>- : isbeliever among them}. Therefore, or in the Ayah inclu.i-)ice of using either example for the hypocrites. Also, M Qv. i said that or means, To show compatibility of the two ch res, just as when one says, Sit with Al-Hasai. or Ibn Sirin. According to the view of Az- Zamakhshai i, 'so it means each of these persons is the same as the other, so you may sit with either one of them. The meaning of or thus becomes either. Allah gave these two examples of the hypocrites, because they both perfectly describe them. I (Ibn Kathir) say, these descriptions are related to the type of hypocrite, because there is a difit r< nee between them as we stated. For instance, Allah mentioned these types in Surat Bara ah (chapter 9) when He repealed the statement, And among them three times, describing their types, characteristics, statements and deeds. So the two examples mentioned here describe two types of hypocrites whose characteristics are similar. For instance Allah gave two examples in Surat An-Nur, one for the advocates of disbelief and one for the followers of disbelief, He said, 4As for those who disbelieved, their deeds are like a mirage in a desert} (24:39), until, '}} 4Or (the state of a disbeliever) is like the darkness in a vast deep sea} (24:40). The first example is of the advocates of disbelief who have complex ignorance, while the second is about the followers who have simple ignorance. Allah knows best. &4 * j. -Si P&4 pz

WJw has made the earth a resting place for you, and the sky as a canopy, and sent down water (rain) from the sky and brought forth therewith fruits as a provision for you. Then do not set up rivals unto Allah (in worship) while you know (that He alone has the right to be worshipped) Tawhid Al-Uluhiyyah Allah next mentioned His Oneness in divinity and stated that He has favored His servants by bringing them to life after they did not exist. He also surrounded them with blessings, both hidden and apparent. He made the earth a resting place for them, just like the bed, stable with the firm mountains. iAnd the sky as a canopy^ meaning, a ceiling . Similarly, Allah said in another Ayah, iAnd We have made the heaven a roof, safe and well-guarded. Yet they turn away from its signs (i.e. sun, moon, winds, clouds)i (21:32). i'&> "IU' iAnd sends down for you water (rain) from the sky> meaning, through the clouds, when they need the rain. Hence, Allah caused the various types of vegetation and fruits to grow as a means of sustenance for people and their cattle. Allah reiterated this bounty in various parts of the Qur an. There is another Ayah that is similar to this Ayah (2:22), that is, Allah s statement, psz i&fr^ " J&5 ^6 ^ n -jU. 'AS4JC3 p=45a 'ig ilt is He Wlw has made for you the earth as a dwelling place and the sky as a canopy, and has given you shape and made your shapes good (looking) and has provided you with good things. That is Allah, your Lord, so Blessed be Allah, the Lord of all that exists (40:64). The meaning that is reiterated here is that Allah is the Creator, the Sustainer, the Owner and Provider of this life, all that is in and on it. Hence, He alone deserves to be worshipped, and no one and nothing is to be associated with Him. This is why Allah said next, iThen do not set up rivals unto Allah (in worship) while you know (that He alone has the right to be worshipped (2:22). The Two Sahihs record that Ibn Mashid said, I said to the Messenger of Allah 3&, Which evil deed is the worst with Allah? He said, "To take an equal with Allah, while He alone created you." 111 Also, Mu'adh narrated the Prophet s statement, Aj IjS ojJUu ji 1a iSjOsU "Do you know Allah's right on His servants? I fear that ifyou do it before me, I will be punished or the earth will be shaken under my feet. Hence, Yahya bin Zakariya called the Otildren of Israel to Bayt Al-Maqdis (Jerusalem), until they filled the Masjid. He sat on the balcony, thanked Allah and praised him and then said, 'Allah ordered me to implement five commandments and that I should order you to adhere to than. The first is that you worship Allah alone and not associate any ivith Him. The example of this command is the example of a man who bought a servant from his money with paper or gold. The servant started to work for the master, but was paying the profits to another person. lA^io among you would like his servant to do that? Allah created you and sustains you. Therefore, worship Him alone and do not associate anything with Him. 1 also command you to pray, for Allah directs His Face towards His servant's face, as long as the servant does not turn away. So when you pray, do not turn your heads to and fro. I also command you to fast. The example of it is the example of a man in a group of men and he has some musk wrapped in a piece ofcloth, and consequently, all of the group smells the scent of the wrapped musk. Verily, the odor of the mouth ofa fasting person is better before Allah than the scent of musk. I also command you to give charity. The example of this is the example of a man who was captured by the enemy. They tied his hands to his neck and brought him forth to cut off his neck. He said to them, 'Can 1 pay a ransom for myselfo' He kept ransoming himself with small and large amounts until he liberated himself. I also command you to always remember Allah. The example of this deed is that of a man who the enemy is tirelessly pursuing. He takes refiige in a fortified fort. When the servant remembers Allah, he will be resorting to the best refugefrom Satan . Al-Harith then narrated that the Messenger of Allah jg said, j apUoJlj ip a&p Ij* gfo- is j~Z jJ ipli j* -"ul ill dfoj li yi* ^ Ifij ^ l^piU ijt pj (C""j jp" :Jlii jl ill SUP 'fo ill \j> (_ And / order you with five commandments that Allah has ordered me. slogans of Jahiliyah (the pre-Islamic period of ignorance) he will be among those kneeling in (Hellfire). "They said, O Messenger of Allah! If he prays and fasts? He said, "Even if he prays, fasts and claims to be Muslim. So call the Muslims with their ihsan that Allah has called them: "The Muslims, the believing slaves of Allah. This is a Hasan Hadith, it contains the statement, Allah has created and sustains you, so worship Him and do not associate anything with Him in worship. This statement is relevant in the Ayat (2:2-22) we are discussing here and supports singling Allah in worship, without partners. Signs of Allah's Existence Several scholars of Tafsir, like Ar-Razi and others, used these Ayat as an argument for the existence of the Creator, and it is a most worthy method of argument. Indeed, whoever ponders over the things that exist, the higher and lower creatures, their various shapes, colors, behavior, benefits and ecological roles, then he will realize the ability, wisdom, knowledge, perfection and majesty of their Creator. Once a bedouin was asked about the evidence to Allah's existence, he responded, All praise is due to Allah! The camel's dung testifies to the existence of the camel, and the track testifies to the fact that someone was walking. A sky that holds the giant stars, a land that has fairways and a sea that has waves, does not all of this testify that the Most Kind, Most Knowledgeable exists? 121 Hence, whoever gazes at the sky in its immensity, its expanse, and the various kinds of planets in it, some of which appear stationary in the sky - whoever gazes at the seas that surround the land from all sides, and the mountains that were placed on the earth to stabilize it, so that whoever lives on land, whatever their shape and color, are able to live and thrive - whoever reads Allah's statement, you will realize the truth. Ahmad 4:130. 121 Ar-Razi 2:91.

Al-Baqarah (1 - 24) (Part-1) Our servant's meaning, Muhammad (ﷺ), then produce a Surah (chapter) meaning, similar to what he brought to you. Hence, if you claim that what he was sent with did not come from Allah, then produce something similar to what he has brought to you, using the help of anyone you wish instead of Allah. However, you will not be able to succeed in this quest. Ibn Abbas said that, your witnesses means Aids. 111 Also, As-Suddi reported that Abu Malik said the Ayah means, Your partners, meaning, some other people to help you in that. Meaning then go and seek the help of your deities to support and aid you. 121 Also, Mujahid said that, and call your witnesses means, People, meaning, wise and eloquent men who will provide the testimony that you seek. The Challenge Allah challenged the disbelievers in various parts of the Quran. For instance, Allah said in Surat Al-Qasas (28:49), We will give you a sign (O Muhammad): "Then bring a Book from Allah, which is a better guide than these two (the Tawrah (Torah) and the Qur'an), that I may follow it, if you are truthful". Also, Allah said in Surat Al-Isra (17:88), If mankind and the Jinn were together to produce the like of this Qur'an, they could not produce the like thereof, even At-Tabari 1:376. 121 Ibn Abi Hatim 1:84 Ibn Abi Hatim 1:85

Al-Baqarah (1 - 24) (Part-1) is the Tafsir of Umar, Ibn Mas'ud, Ibn Abbas, Al-Hasan Al-Basri and the majority of the scholars. And he gave preference to this view and mentioned the fact that Allah has challenged the disbelievers as individuals and as groups, whether literate or illiterate, thus making the challenge truly complete. This type of challenge is more daring than simply challenging the disbelievers who might not be literate or knowledgeable. This is why Allah said, Bring you then ten forged Surahs (chapters) like it (11:13), and, They could not produce the like thereof (17:88). Therefore, this is a general challenge to the Arab disbelievers, the most eloquent among all nations. Allah challenged the Arab disbelievers both in Makkah and Al-Madinah several times, especially since they had tremendous hatred and enmity for the Prophet and his religion. Yet, they were unable to succeed in answering the challenge, and this is why Allah said, But if you do it not, and you can never do it), indicating that they will never be able to answer the challenge. This is another miracle, in that, Allah clearly stated without doubt that the Qur'an will never be opposed or challenged by anything similar to it, for eternity. This is a true statement that has not been changed until the present and shall never change. How can anyone be able to produce something like the Qur'an, when the Qur'an is the Word of Allah Who created everything? How can the words of the created ever be similar to the Words of the Creator? Examples of the Miracle of the Qur'an: Whoever reads through the Qur'an will realize that it contains various levels of superiority through both the apparent and hidden meanings that it mentions. Allah said, And We have made the Qur'an a sign for those who are mindful (2:185):

Alif Lam Ra. (This is) a Book, the verses whereof are perfect (in every sphere of knowledge, etc.), and then explained in detail from One (Allah), Who is Wise and well-acquainted (with all things) (11:1) So the expressions in the Qur'an are perfect and its meanings are explained. Further, every word and meaning in the Qur'an is eloquent and cannot be surpassed. The Qur'an also mentioned the stories of the people of the past; and these accounts and stories occurred exactly as the Qur'an stated. Also, the Qur'an commanded every type of righteousness and forbade every type of evil, just as Allah stated, And the Word of your Lord has been fulfilled in truth and in justice (6:115). meaning, true in the stories it narrates and just in its Laws. The Qur'an is true, just and full of guidance. It does not contain exaggerations, lies or falsehood, unlike Arabic and other types of poems that contained lies. These poems, conform with the popular statement, The most eloquent speech is the one that contains the most lies! Sometimes, one would find a long poem that mainly contains descriptions of women, horses or alcohol. Or, the poem might contain praise or the description of a certain person, horse, camel, war, incident, fear, lion, or other types of items and objects. Such praise or descriptions do not bring any benefit, except shed light on the poet's ability to clearly and eloquently describe such items. Yet, one will only be able to find one or two sentences in many long poems that elaborate on the main theme of the poem, while the rest of the poem contains insignificant descriptions and repetitions. As for the Qur'an, it is entirely eloquent in the most perfect manner, as those who have knowledge in such matters and understand Arabic methods of speech and expressions concur. When one reads through the stories in the Qur'an, he will find them fruitful, whether they were in extended or short forms, repeated or not. The more these stories are repeated, the more fruitful and beautiful they become. The Qur'an does not become old when one repeats reciting it, nor do the scholars ever get bored with it. When the Qur'an mentions the subject

Al-Baqarah (1 - 24) (Part-1) of warning and promises, it presents truths that would make solid, firm mountains shake, so what about the comprehending, understanding hearts? When the Qur'an promises, it opens the hearts and the ears, making them eager to attain the abode of peace - Paradise - and to be the neighbors of the Throne of the Most Beneficent. For instance, on the subject of promises and encouragement, the Qur'an said, What is kept hidden for them of joy as a reward for what they used to do (32:17), and, There will be therein all that inner selves could desire, and all that eyes could delight in and you will abide therein forever (43:71). On the subject of warning and discouragement; Do you then feel secure that He will not cause a side of the land to swallow you up (17:68), and, Do you feel secure that He, Who is over the heaven (Allah), will not cause the earth to sink with you, and then it should quake?

Or do you feel secure that He, Who is over the heaven (Allah), will not send against you a violent whirlwind? Then you shall know how (terrible) has been My warning} (67:16-17). On the subject of threats, the Qur'an said, 4So We punished each (of them) for his sins} (29:40). Also, on the subject of soft advice, the Qur'an said, iTell Me, (even) if We do let them enjoy for years. And afterwards comes to them that (punishment) - which they had been promised. All that with which they used to enjoy shall not avail them (26:205-207). There are many other examples of the eloquence, beauty, and benefits of the Qur'an. When the Qur'an is discussing Laws, commandments and prohibitions, it commands every type of righteous, good, pleasing and beneficial act. It also forbids every type of evil, disliked and amoral act. Ibn Mas'ud and other scholars of the Salaf said, When you hear what Allah said in the Qur'an, such as, i\p\pS iO you who believe!}, then listen with full attention, for it either contains a type of righteousness that Allah is enjoining, or an evil that He is forbidding. For instance, Allah said, iHe (Muhammad s&) commands them for Al-Ma'ruf (i.e. Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam has ordained); and forbids them from Al-Munkar (i.e. disbelief, polytheism of all kinds, and all that Islam has forbidden); he allows them as lawful At-Tayyibdt (i.e. all good and laivfil things), and prohibits them as unlawful Al-Khaba ith (i.e. all evil and unlawful things), he releases them from their heavy burdens and from the fetters (bindings) that were upon them} (7:157). When the Ayat mention Resurrection and the horrors that will occur on that Day, and Paradise and the Fire and the joys and safe refuge that Allah prepared for His loyal friends, or torment and Hell for His enemies, these Ayat contain glad tidings or warnings. The Ayat then call to perform good deeds and avoid evil deeds, making the life of this world less favorable and the Hereafter more favorable. They also establish the correct methods and guide to Allah's straight path and just legislation, all the while ridding the hearts of the evil of the cursed devil.

I Al-Baqarah (1 - 24) (Part-1) The Qur'an is the Greatest Miracle given to the Prophet The Two Sahih records that Abu Hurayrah said that the Prophet said, L^jly JI d-? ^ ^IjVI yt -Jj VI frll-jS/ j* to <*Uxl I IajU fs ,j I jl 4ul oL>-jl I ^JU I 0\ S "Even/ Prophet was given a miracle, the type of which brings mankind to faith. What I was given is a revelation that Alldh sent dmvn to me. Yet, I hope that I zwill have the most folioiuing on the Day of Resurrection This is the wording narrated by Muslim. The Prophet stated that among the Prophets he was given a revelation, meaning, he was especially entrusted with the miraculous Qur'an that challenged mankind to produce something similar to it. As for the rest of the divinely revealed Books, they were not miraculous according to many scholars. Allah knows best. The Prophet jg was also aided with innumerable signs and indications that testify to the truth of his prophethood and what he was sent with, all thanks and praise is due to Allah. Meaning of Stones Allah said, iThen fear the Fire (Hell) whose fuel is men aind stones, prepared for the disbelievers> (2:24). Fuel is wood, or similar substances, used to start and feed a fire. Similarly, Allah said, 'y^j iAnd as for the Qdsitun (disbelievers wlv deviated hum the right path), they shall be firewood for Hell^ (72:15), and, y.AS. a~f"- s oi \aj +Z=K>f Ijj t U cifi Al-Bari 8 :619 and Muslim 1 :134

164 Tafstr Ibn Kathir {Certainly you (disbelievers) and that which you are worshipping nmo besides Allah, are (but) fuel for Hell! (Surely) you enter it. Had these (idols) been dliah (gods), they would not have entered there (Hell), and all of them will abide therein" (21:98-99). The stones mentioned here are the giant, rotten, black, sulfuric stones that become the hottest when heated, may Allah save us from this evil end. It was also reported that the stones mentioned here are the idols and rivals that were worshipped instead of Allah, just as Allah said, 'y ' y ' s 4 oi Vj 4 Certainly you (disbelievers) and that which you are worshipping now besides Allah, are (but) fuel for Hell!' (21:28). Allah's statement, 'prepared for the disbelievers' It appears most obvious that it refers to the Fire that is fueled by men and stones, and it also may refer to the stones themselves. There is no contradiction between these two views, because they are dependent upon each other. Prepared means, it is kept and will surely touch those who disbelieve in Allah and His Messenger. Ibn Ishaq narrated that Muhammad said that 'Ikrimah or Said bin Jubayr said that Ibn Abbas said, 'prepared for the disbelievers', For those who embrace the disbelief that you (disbelievers) have embraced. 'Jahannam (Hellfire) exists now. Many of the Imams of the Sunnah used this Ayah to prove that the Fire exists now. This is because Allah said, Tabari 1:383.

4prepared^ meaning, prepared and kept. There are many Hadiths on this subject. For instance, the Prophet (ﷺ) said. Paradise and the Fire had an argument. Also, the Prophet (ﷺ) said, 'The Fire sought the permission of her Lord. She said, 'O my Lord! Some parts of me consumed the other parts.' And Allah allowed her two periods to exhale, one in winter and one in summer. " Also, there is a Hadith recorded from Ibn Mas'ud that the Companions heard the sound of a falling object. When they asked about it, the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said, "Uy j sfl -k* j ~ Crt ii This is a stone that was thrown from the top of Jahannam seventy years ago, but only now reached its bottom." This Hadith is in Sahih Muslim. 131 There are many Hadiths that are Mutawatir (narrated by many different chains of narrations) on this subject, such as the Hadiths about the eclipse prayer, the night of /srd etc. Allah's statements, 'Then produce a Surah (chapter) of the like thereof' (2:23), and, '4 i& 4A Surah (chapter) like ify (10:38) this includes the short and long Surahs of the Qur'an. Al-Baqarah (25 - 49) (Part-1) resemblance (i.e. in the same form but different in taste) and they shall have therein Azwajun Mutahharatun (purified mates or wives), and they will abide therein forever Rewards of Righteous Believers After mentioning the torment that Allah has prepared for His miserable enemies who disbelieve in Him and in His Messengers, He mentions the condition of His happy, loyal friends who believe in Him and in His Messengers, adhere to the faith and perform the good deeds.

This is the reason why the Qur'an was called Mathani, based on the correct opinion of the scholars. We will elaborate upon this subject later. Mathani means to mention faith and then disbelief, or vice versa. Or, Allah mentions the miserable and then the happy, or vice versa. As for mentioning similar things, it is called Tashabbuh, as we will come to know, Allah willing. Allah said, "And give glad tidings to those who believe and do righteous good deeds, that for them will be Gardens under which rivers flow (Paradise)". Consequently, Allah stated that Paradise has rivers that run beneath it, meaning, underneath its trees and rooms. From Hadiths it is learned that the rivers of Paradise do not run in valleys, and that the banks of Al-Kawthar (the Prophet's lake in Paradise) are made of domes of hollow pearls, the sand of Paradise is made of scented musk while its stones are made from pearls and jewels. We ask Allah to grant Paradise to us, for verily, He is the Most Beneficent, Most Gracious. Ibn Abi Hatim reported that Abu Hurayrah said that the Messenger of Allah said, "The rivers of Paradise spring from beneath hills, or mountains of musk." He also reported from Masruq that Abdullah said, "The rivers of Paradise spring from beneath mountains of musk." Ibn Abi Hatim 1:87. Ibn Abi Hatim 1:88

Al-Baqarah (25 - 49) (Part-1) The Wives of the People of Paradise are Pure Allah said, "and they shall have therein Azwajun Mutahharatun". Ibn Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas said, "Purified from filth and impurity." Also, Mujahid said, "From menstruation, relieving the call of nature, urine, spit, semen and pregnancies." Also, Qatadah said, "Purified from impurity and sin." In another narration, he said, "From menstruation and pregnancies." Further, Ata, Al-Hasan, Ad-Dahhak, Abu Salih, Atiyah and As-Suddi were reported to have said similarly. Allah's statement, "and they will abide therein forever" meaning ultimate happiness, for the believers will enjoy everlasting delight, safe from death and disruption of their bliss, for it never ends or ceases. We ask Allah to make us among these believers, for He is the Most Generous, Most Kind and Most merciful. "IXfj iii i'j' 'iC iri ^ jiilf oyiajc, jiy "Aj iif Vi jyJaOJ -A.j.'j .4 JILu 426 . In his Tafsir, As-Suddi reported that Ibn Abbas, Ibn Mas'ud, and some Companions said; "When Allah gave these two examples of the hypocrites meaning Allah's statements, "Their likeness is as the likeness of one who kindled a fire", and "Or like a rainstorm from the sky", The hypocrites said, "Allah is far more exalted than for Him to make such examples. So Allah revealed these Ayat (2:26-27) up to: 'Who are the losers'". Said said that Qatadah said, "Allah does not shy away from the truth when He mentions a matter as a parable, whether this matter is significant or not. When Allah mentioned the flies and the spider in His Book, the people of misguidance said, 'Why did Allah mention these things. So Allah revealed; 4Verily, Allah is not ashamed to set forth a parable even of a mosquito or so much more when it is bigger (or less when it is smaller) than A Parable about the Life of This World Abu Ja'far Ar-Razi reported that Ar-Rabi bin Anas commented on this Ayah (2:26); This is an example that Allah has given for the life of this world. Allah's statement, iOr so much more when it is bigger than it) Fama fawqaha means, something bigger than the mosquito, which is one of the most insignificant and tiniest of creatures. Muslim narrated that Aishah said that the Messenger of Allah jg said, il & i VI ui isfo ill: -ill *No Muslim is harmed by a thorn, Fama fawqaha (or something larger), but a good deed will be written for him and an evil deed will be erased from his record ."[2] So Allah has informed us that there is no matter that is too small that is exempt from being used as an example, even if it was as insignificant as a mosquito or a spider. In his Tafsir, As-

Suddi reported that Ibn Abbas, Ibn Mas'ud and other people among the Companions said, 'By it He misleads many', Meaning the hypocrites. Allah guides the believers with these parables, and the straying of the hypocrites increases when they reject the parables that Allah mentioned for them which they know are true. This is how Allah misleads them. '21 4 i-t iAtid He guides thereby' meaning, with the parables, 'S^} irnany' from among the people of faith and conviction. This covenant was reiterated in Allah's Books and by the words of His Messengers. Ignoring this covenant constitutes breaking it. It was said that the Ayah (2:27) is about the disbelievers and the hypocrites among the People of the Book. In this case, the covenant that they broke is the pledge that Allah took from them in the Tawrah to follow Muhammad jg when he is sent as a Prophet, and to believe in him, and in what he was sent with. Breaking Allah's covenant in this case occurred when the People of the Book rejected the Prophet after they knew the truth about him, and they hid this truth from people, even though they swore to Allah that they would do otherwise. Allah informed us that they threw the covenant behind their backs and sold it for a miserable price. It was also reported that the Ayah (2:27) refers to all disbelievers, idol worshippers and hypocrites. Allah took their pledge to believe in His Oneness, showing them the signs that testify to His Lordship. He also took a covenant from them to obey His commands and refrain from His prohibitions, 176 Tafsir Ibn Kathir knowing that His Messengers would bring proofs and miracles that none among the creation could ever produce. These miracles testified to the truth of Allah's Messengers. The covenant was broken when the disbelievers denied what was proven to them to be authentic and rejected Allah's Prophets and Books, although they knew that they were the truth. This Tafsir was reported from Muqatil bin Hayyan, and it is very good. It is also the view that Az-Zamakhshari held. Allah's statement next, And sever what Allah has ordered to be joined is in reference to keeping the relations with the relatives, as Qatadah asserted. This Ayah is similar to Allah's statement, Would you then, if you were given the authority, do mischief in the land, and sever your ties of kinship? (47:22) Ibn Jarir At-Tabari preferred this opinion. However, it has been said that the meaning of the Ayah (2:27) here is more general. Hence, everything that Allah has commanded to nurture, and the people severed, is included in its meaning.

The Meaning of Loss Muqatil bin Hayyan commented on Allah's statement, It is they who are the losers In the Hereafter. 121 Similarly, Allah said, On them is the curse (i.e. they will be far away from Allah's mercy), and for them is the unhappy (evil) home (i.e. Hell) (13:25). Also, Ad-Dahhak said that Ibn Abbas said, Every characteristic that Allah describes those other than the people of Islam - such as being losers - then it refers to disbelief. m At-Tabari 1 :416. I2* Ibn Abi Hatim 1:101

Al-Baqarah (25 -49) (Part-1) However, when they are attributed to the people of Islam, then these terms refer to sin. Ibn Jarir commented on Allah's statement, is they who are the losers, Losers is plural for loser, this word refers to whoever decreased his own share of Allah's mercy by disobeying Him, just as the merchant loses in his trade by sustaining capital loss. Such is the case with the hypocrite and the disbeliever who lose their share of the mercy that Allah has in store for His servants on the Day of Resurrection. And that is when the disbeliever and the hypocrite most desperately need Allah's mercy. / > JxS) i] TA 428. Hmv can you disbelieve in Allah seeing that you were dead and He gave you life? How can anyone deny Allah's existence or worship others with Him while; 4You were dead and He gave you life) meaning, He brought them from the state of non-existence to life. Similarly, Allah said, Tabari 1 : 417. 121 Ibid.

Al-Baqarah (25 - 49) (Part-1) towards the heaven, 4And made them^ meaning, that He made the heaven, seven heavens. Allah said, 4And made them seven heavens and He is the Knower ofeverything^ meaning, His knowledge encompasses all His creation, just as He said in another Ayah, iShould not He Who has created know? } (67:14). The Beginning ofthe Creation This Ayah (2:29) is explained in detail in Surat As-Sajdah where Allah said; z iii'i wJ ,i! jj&j jUy' j yjVi ju jjji 'r* -> > fey ui ^ ife bls jl WjL uii jiybj a Jli oU-j J'k ^ if Gjji zLlii (Ijj U^ .d jf j uyjj ^ yld* r-> ^ ,.f , j '.n'^ 'i/ (O Muhammad jg) : "Do you verily disbelieve in Him Wlto created the earth in two Days? And you set up rivals (in worship) ivith Him? That is the Lord of all that exists. He placed therein (i.e. the earth) firm mountainsfrom above it, and He blessed it, and measured therein its sustenance (for its dwellers) in four Days equal (i.e. all these four days' were equal in the length of time) for all those who ask (about its creation). Then He Istawd ild the heaven when it ivas smoke, and said to it and to the earth : "Come both ofyou willingly or unwillingly." They both said: We come willingly. Then He finished them (as) seven heavens in two Days and He made in each heaven its affair. And We adorned the nearest (lowest) heaven with lamps (stars) to be an adornment as well as to guard (from the devils by using them as missiles against the devils). Such is the decree of the Almighty, the Knower (41:9- 12).

180 Tafsir Ibn Kathir These Ayat indicate that Allah started creation by creating earth, then He made heaven into seven heavens. This is how building usually starts, with the lower floors first and then the top floors, as the scholars of Tafsir reiterated, as we will come to know, Allah willing. Allah also said, 3Cif; Tv ,1^ .r)\ UU> Ail ^ ,n UIU iiU j jai iAre you more difficult to create or is the heaven that He constructed? He raised its height, and has perfected it. Its night He covers with darkness and its forenoon He brings out (with light). And the earth, after that, He spread it out. And brought forth therefrom its water and its pasture. And the mountains He has fixedfirmly. (To be) a provision and benefitfor you and your cattle} (79:27-33). It is said that Then in the Ayah (2:29) relates only to the order of reciting the information being given, it does not relate to the order that the events being mentioned took place, this was reported from Ibn Abbas by Ali bin Abi Talhah. The Earth was created before Heaven Mujahid commented on Allah's statement, Jfj'il 4 U p. jjfo ' } 4He it is Who createdfor you all that is on earth Allah created the earth before heaven, and when He created the earth, smoke burst out of it. This is why Allah said, 4 -> () fIA 2Sj?-'* ^} iThen He Istawa ild (turned towards) the heaven when it was smoke.} (41:11) jj- iAnd made them seven heavens} means, one above the other, while the seven earths means, one below the other. At-Tabari 1 :437.Tabari 1 :436.

Al-Baqarah (25 - 49) (Part-1 This Ayah testifies to the fact that the earth was created before heaven, as Allah has indicated in the Ayat in Surat As- Sajdah. Spreading the Earth out after the Heavens were created Sahih Al-Bukhari records that when Ibn Abbas was questioned about this matter, he said that the earth was created before heaven, and the earth was spread out only after the creation of the heaven. Several Tafsir scholars of old and recent times also said similarly, as we have elaborated on in the Tafsir of Surat An-Nazi'at (chapter 79). The result of that discussion is that the word Daha (translated above as spread) is mentioned and explained in Allah's statement, "وَالْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ دَحَاهُ" (79:30-32). Therefore, Daha means that the earth's treasures were brought to its surface after finishing the job of creating FathAl-Bari 8:417.

And (remember) when your Lord said to the angels: "Verily, I am going to place (mankind) generations after generations on earth." They said: "Will You place therein those who will make mischief therein and shed blood, while we glorify You with praises and thanks and sanctify You." He (Allah) said: "I know that which you do not know. } Adam and His Children inhabited the Earth, Generation after Generation Allah reiterated His favor on the Children of Adam when He stated that He mentioned them in the highest of heights before He created them. Allah said, "وَالْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ دَحَاهُ" (79:30-32). (remember) when your Lord said to the angels.} This Ayah means, O Muhammad (ﷺ) Mention to your people what Allah said to the angels, "وَالْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ دَحَاهُ" (79:30-32). Meaning people reproducing generation after generation, century after century, just as Allah said, "وَالْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ دَحَاهُ" (79:30-32). And it is He Who has made you (Khalifah) generations coming after generations, replacing each other on the earth" (6:165), "وَالْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ دَحَاهُ" (79:30-32). And makes you (Khulafah) inheritors of the earth" (27:62), "وَالْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ دَحَاهُ" (79:30-32).

Surah 2. Al-Baqarah (25 - 49) (Part-1) "And if it were Our will, We would have (destroyed you (mankind all, and) made angels to replace you (Yakhlufun) on the earth" (43:60) and, "وَالْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ دَحَاهُ" (79:30-32). It appears that Allah was not referring to Adam specifically as Khalifah, otherwise he would not have allowed the angels statement, "وَالْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ دَحَاهُ" (79:30-32). The angels meant that this type of creature usually commits the atrocities they mentioned. The angels knew of this fact, according to their understanding of human nature, for Allah stated that He would create man from clay. Or, the angels understood this fact from the word Khalifah, which also means the person who judges disputes that occur between people, forbidding them from injustice and sin, as Al-Qurtubi said. The statement the angels uttered was not a form of disputing with Allah's, nor out of envy for the Children of Adam, as some mistakenly thought. Allah has described them as those who do not precede Him in speaking, meaning that they do not ask Allah anything without His permission. When Allah informed them that He was going to create a creation on the earth, and they had knowledge that this creation would commit mischief on it, as Qatadah mentioned, they said, "وَالْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ دَحَاهُ" (79:30-32). This is only a question for the sake of learning about the wisdom of that, as if they said, Our Lord! What is the wisdom of creating such creatures since they will cause trouble in the earth and spill blood? ^ If the wisdom behind this action is m At-Tabari 1 :464.

that You be worshipped, we praise and glorify You (meaning we pray to You) we never indulge in mischief, so why create other creatures? Allah said to the angels in answer to their inquiry, 41 know that which you do not know> meaning, I know that the benefit of creating this type of creature outweighs the harm that you mentioned, that which you have no knowledge of. I will create among them Prophets and send Messengers. I will also create among them truthful, martyrs, righteous believers, worshippers, the modest, the pious, the scholars who implement their knowledge, humble people and those who love Allah and follow His Messengers. The Sahih recorded that when the angels ascend to Allah with the records of the servant s deeds, Allah asks them, while having better knowledge, How did you leave My servants? They will say, We came to them while they were praying and left them while they were praying. This is because the angels work in shifts with mankind, and they change shifts during the Fajr and Asr prayers. The angels who descended will remain with us, while the angels who have remained with us ascend with our deeds. The Messenger of Allah jfe said, jyj'#&1 "77ie deeds of the night are elevated to Allah before the morning, and the deeds of the morning before the night falls . So Allah said to them, 41 know that which you do not know} if your inhabiting the heavens is better, or worse for you. Ar-Razi as well as others said this. Allah knows best. The Obligation of appointing a Khalifah and some related Issues Al-Qurtubi, as well as other scholars, said that this Ayah (2:30) proves the obligation of appointing a Khalifah to pass judgements on matters of dispute between people, to aid the oppressed against the oppressor, to implement the Islamic penal code and to forbid evil. There are many other tasks that can only be fulfilled by appointing the Imam, and what is necessary in performing an obligation, is an obligation itself. We should state here that Imamah occurs by either naming a successor, as a group among Ahl As-Sunnah scholars said occurred - by the Prophet ^ - in the case of Abu Bakr, or hinting to a successor. Or, the current Khalifah names a certain person as Khalifah after him, as Abu Bakr did with Umar. Or, the Khalifah might leave the matter in the hands of

and what you have been concealing?"} The Virtue of Adam over the Angels Allah stated the virtue of Adam above the angels, because He taught Adam, rather than them, the names of everything. This occurred after they prostrated to him. This discussion precedes that event here, only to show the importance of his position, and the absence of the angels knowledge about creating the Khalifah when they asked about it. So Allah informed the angels that He knows what they do not know, and then He mentioned this to show them Adam's superiority over them in knowledge. Allah said, 4+ ' p; } iAnd He taught Adam all the names (of everything)}. Ad-Dahhak said that Ibn Abbas commented on the Ayah; 4^ t V' pi (fej} iAnd He taught Adam all the names (of everything)} Meaning, the names that people use, such as human, animal, sky, earth, land, sea, horse, donkey, and so forth, including the names of the other species. They will go to Ibrahim and he will also say, 7 cannot do what you have asked. He will say, Go to Musa, a servant to whom Allah spoke directly and gave the Tawrdh.' Musa will say, 7 cannot do what you have asked. He zoill remember that he killed a person without justification and will be embarrassed before his Lord. He will say, 'Go to Tsa, Allah's servant and Messenger and His Word and a spirit of His.' They will go to 'Isa and he will say, 7 will not do what you asked. Go to Muhammad, a servant whose previous and latter errors were forgiven.' They will come to me, and I will go to Allah and seek His permission and He will give me His pertnission. When I gaze at my Lord, I will prostrate myself and Allah will allow me to remain like that as much as He will. Then I will be addressed, 'O Muhammad! Raise your head; ask, for you will be given what you ask, and intercede, for your intercession will be accepted.' I will raise my head and thank and praise Allah with such praise as He will inspire me. I will intercede and He will grant me a quantity of people that He will admit into Paradise. I will go back to Hitn, and when I see my Lord, I will intercede and He will allow me a quantity that He will admit into Paradise. I will do that for a third and then a fourth time. I will say, There are no more people left in Hell except those vohom the Qur'an has incarcerated and have thus acquired eternity in Hell This Hadxth was collected by Muslim, An- I 1 * Allah's Word and spirit; the meaning here is that Allah created him with a word, "Be" and he was, and that he is a spirit from the spirits that Allah created, as Ibn Kathlr discusses later. The reason why we mentioned this Hadith here is the Prophet's statement, -: "They will go to Adam and say, 'O Adam! You are the father of all mankind, and Allah created you with His Own Hand, ordered the angels to prostrate for you, and taught you the names of everything'}2} This part of the Hadith testifies to the fact that Allah taught Adam the names of all creatures. This is why Allah said, $ 'ffff '{ } iThen He showed them to the angels} meaning, the objects or creations. Here the angels are praising Allah s holiness, and perfection above every kind of deficiency, affirming that no creature could ever acquire any part of Allah s knowledge, except by His permission, nor could anyone know anything except what Allah teaches them. This is why they said, 4:<\ cS\ ^ u " } 4"Glory is to You, we have no knowledge except what you have taught us. Verily You are the Knower, the Wise^ meaning, Allah is knowledgeable of everything, Most Wise about His creation, and He makes the wisest decisions, and He teaches and deprives whom He wills from knowledge. It is reported from Ad-Dahhak that Ibn Abbas said that, 4And I know what you reveal and what you have been concealing^ means, I know the secrets, just as I know the apparent things, such as, what Iblls concealed in his heart of arrogance and pride. Allah commanded the angels to prostrate before Adam, as this Ayah and many Hadiths testify, such as the Hadith about the intercession that we discussed. There is a Hadith about the supplication of Musa, O my Lord! Show me Adam who caused us and himself to be thrown out of Paradise. 194 Tajsir Ibt Kathfr Iblis was among Those ordered to prostrate before Adam, although He was not an Angel When Allah commanded the angels to prostrate before Adam, Iblis was included in this command. Although Iblis was not an angel, he was trying - and pretending - to imitate the angels behavior and deeds, and this is why he was also included in the command to the angels to prostrate before Adam. Satan was criticized for defying that command, as we will explain with detail, Allah willing, when we mention the Tafsir of Allah's statement, & J-4 4Except Iblis (Satan). He was one of the Jinn; he disobeyed the command of his Lord> (18:50) Similarly, Muhammad bin Ishaq reported that Ibn Abbas said, Before he undertook the path of sin, Iblis was with the angels and was called Azazil. He was among the residents of the earth and was one of the most active worshippers and knowledgeable persons among the angels. This fact caused him to be arrogant. Iblis was from a genus called Jinn. The Prostration was before Adam but the Obedience was to Allah Qatadah commented on Allah's statement, Gii iAnd (remember) when We said to the angels: "Prostrate yourselves before Adam .")> The obedience was for Allah and the prostration was before Adam. Allah honored Adam and commanded the angels to prostrate before him. 121 Some people said that this prostration was just a prostration of greeting, peace and honor, hence Allah's statement, Cji (ri j V-K jlij iir~J it JJ 1,1 At-Tabari 1 :502. There are conflicting opinions over the nature of the tree mentioned here. Some said that it was the grape tree, barley, date tree, fig tree, and so forth. Some said that it was a certain tree, and whoever eats from it will be relieved of the call of nature. It was also said that it was a tree from which the angels eat so that they live for eternity. Imam Abu JaTar bin Jarir said, The correct opinion is that Allah forbade Adam and his wife from eating from a certain tree in Paradise, but they ate from it. Yet, this is knowledge that does not bring any benefit, just as being ignorant in its nature does no harm. Allah knows best. 206 Tafstr Ibn Kathir Reminding the Children of Israel of Allah's Covenant with Them Allah's statement, And fulfill (your obligations to) My covenant (with you) so that I fulfill (My obligations to) your covenant (with Me), means, My covenant that I took from you concerning Prophet Muhammad s, when he is sent to you, so that I grant you what I promised you if you believe in him and follow him. I will then remove the chains and restrictions that were placed around your necks, because of the errors that you committed. 111 Also, Al-Hasan Al-Basri²¹ said, The covenant is in reference to Allah's statement, And I took the covenant from the Children of Israel (Jews), and We appointed twelve leaders among them. And Allah said: I am with you if you perform As-Salath and give Zakath and believe in My Messengers; honor and assist them, and lend a good loan to Allah, verily, I will expiate your sins and admit you to Gardens under which rivers flow (in Paradise) (5:12). Other scholars said, The covenant is what Allah took from them in the Tawrah, in that. He will send a great Prophet - meaning Muhammad aS - from among the offspring of Ismail, who will be obeyed by all peoples. Therefore, whoever obeys him, then Allah will forgive his sins, enter him into Paradise and award him two rewards. We should mention here that Ar-Razi mentioned several cases of information brought by the earlier Prophets regarding the coming of Muhammad Further, Abu Al- Aliyah said that, m At-Jabari 1 : 555& 557. At-Jabari 1 :109.

Al-Baqarah (25 - 49) (Part-1) And fulfill (your obligations to) My covenant (with you) means, His covenant with His servants is to embrace Islam and to adhere to it. Ad-Dahhak said that Ibn Abbas said, I fulfill My obligations to you means, I (Allah) will be pleased with you and admit you into Paradise. 121 As-Suddi, Ad- Dahhak, Abu Al- Aliyah and Ar-Rabl' bin Anas said similarly. Ibn Abbas said that Allah's statement, And fear Me and Me alone. means, Fear the torment that I might exert on you, just as I did with your fathers, like the mutation, etc. !31 This Ayah contains encouragement, followed by warning. Allah first called the Children of Israel, using encouragement, then He warned them, so that they might return to the Truth, follow the Messenger jg, heed the Qur'an's prohibitions and commands and believe in its content. Surely, Allah guides whom He wills to the straight path. Allah said next, And believe in what I have sent down, confirming that which is with you (the Tawrah and the Injil) meaning, the Qur'an that Allah sent down to Muhammad ag, the unlettered Arab Prophet, as bringer of glad tidings, a wamer and a light. The Qur'an contains the Truth from Allah and affirms what was revealed beforehand in the Tawrah and the Injil (the Gospel). Abu Al- Aliyah said that Allah's statement, And believe in what I have sent down (this Qur'an), confirming that which is with you (the Tawrah and the Injil) means, O People of the Book! Believe in what I sent down that conforms to what you have. This is because they find the description of Muhammad jg recorded in the Tawrah and the At-Jabari 1 :558. 121 Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :143. !3 * Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :144.

2M Tafstr Ibn Kathir Injil. Similar statements were attributed to Mujahid, Ar-Rabl bin Anas and Qatadah. Allah said, And do not be the first to disbelieve therein. Ibn Abbas commented, Do not become the first to disbelieve in the Qur'an (or Muhammad jg), while you have more knowledge in it than other people. 121 Abu Al- Aliyah commented, Do not become the first to disbelieve in Muhammad, meaning from among the People of the Book, after you hear that he was sent as a Prophet. * Similar statements were attributed to Al-Hasan, As-Suddi and Ar-Rabl bin Anas. * Ibn Jarir stated that the Ayah (disbelieve therein 2:41) refers to the Qur'an, mentioned earlier in the Ayah, in what I have sent down (this Qur'an),} Both statements are correct because they are inter-related. For instance, whoever disbelieves in the Qur'an will have disbelieved in Muhammad, and whoever disbelieves in Muhammad will have disbelieved in the Qur'an. Allah's statement, ft Jjfa 4thefirst to disbelieve therein means, do not become the first among the Children of Israel to disbelieve in it, for there were people from Quraysh and the Arabs in general who rejected Muhammad before the People of the Book disbelieved in him. We should state here that the Ayah is talking about the Children of Israel in specific, because the Jews in Al-Madīnah were the first among the Children of Israel to be addressed by the Qur'an. Hence, their disbelief in the Qur'an means that they were the first among the People of the Book to disbelieve in it.  Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :145. 121 Ibid. Ibid. 141 Ibid.

Al-Baqarah (25 - 49) (Part-1) Allah's statement, 04 O' iand buy not with My verses a small price, means, Do not substitute faith in My Ayat and belief in My Prophet with the life of this world and its lusts which are minute and bound to end. Allah said, iand have Taqwa of Me and Me alone. Ibn Abi Hatim reported that Talq bin Habib said, Taqwa is to work in Allah's obedience, on a light from Allah, hoping in Allah's mercy, and to avoid Allah's disobedience, on a light from Allah, fearing Allah's punishment. 11 Allah's statement, OPi (fj} iandfear Me and Me alone means, that Allah warns the People of the Book against intentionally hiding the truth and spreading the opposite of it, as well as, against defying the Messenger jg. ijyi iyiv> iji-jVj yj 442. The Condemnation of commanding Others to observe Righteousness while ignoring Righteousness Allah said, How is it, O People of the Book, that you command people to perform Al-Birr, which encompasses all types of righteousness, yet forget yourselves and do not heed what you call others to? And you read Allah s Book (the m Al-Kashaf 1 :133.

Tawrah) and know what it promises to those who do not fulfill Allah s commandments. iHave you then no sense?} of what you are doing to yourselves, so that you might become aware ofyour slumber and restore your sight from blindness? Abdur-Razzdq said that Ma'mar stated that Qatadah commented on Allah s statement, iEnjoin you Al-Birr (piety and righteousness and every act of obedience to Allah) on the people and you forget (to practise it) yourselves,} The Children of Israel used to command people to obey Allah, fear Him and perform Al-Birr. Yet, they contradicted these orders, so Allah reminded them of this fact. As-Suddi said similarly. Ibn Jurayj said that the Ayah iEnjoin you Al-Birr on the people Is about the People of the Book and the hypocrites. They used to command people to pray and fast. However, they did not practice what they commanded others. Allah reminded them of this behavior. So whoever commands people to do righteousness, let him be among the first ofthem to implement that command. 121 Also, Muhammad bin Ishaq narrated that Ibn Abbas said that, j} 4And you forget yourselves,} means, You forget to practice it yourselves, iWhile you recite the Scripture (Tawrah)! Have you then no sense?} You forbid the people from rejecting the prophethood and the 111 Abdur-Razzaq 1 :44.Tabari 2 :8

covenant that you have mentioned with you in the Tawrah, while you yourselves have forgotten it, meaning that you have forgotten the covenant that I made with you that you will accept My Messenger. You have breeched My covenant, and rejected what you know is in My Book. Therefore, Allah admonished the Jews for this behavior and alerted them to the wrongs that they were perpetrating against themselves by ordering righteousness, yet refraining themselves from righteousness. We should state that Allah is not criticizing the People of the Book for ordering righteousness, because enjoining good is a part of righteousness and is an obligation for the scholars. However, the scholar is himself required to heed, and adhere to, what he invites others to. For instance, Prophet Shu'ayb said, Cj i&J c - W it Z j; 3 '4 %} 41 wish not, in contradiction to you, to do that which I forbid you. I only desire reform to the best of my power. And my guidance cannot come except from Allah, in Him I trust and unto Him I repent} (11:88). Therefore, enjoining righteousness and performing righteousness are both required. Neither category is rendered not necessary by the practice of the other, according to the most correct view of the scholars among the Salaf (predecessors) and the Khalaf.²¹ Imam Ahmad reported that Abu Wa'il said, While I was riding behind Usamah, he was asked, Why not advise Uthman? He said, *Do you think that if I advise him I should allow you to hear it? I advise him in secret, and I will not start something that I would hate to be the first to start. And seek help in patience and As-Saldt (the prayer) and truly, it is extremely heavy and hard except for Al-Khdshi'in .} (They are those) who are certain that they are going to meet their Lord, and that unto Him they are going to return .} The Support that comes with Patience and Prayer Allah commanded His servants to use patience and prayer to acquire the good of this life and the Hereafter. Muqatil bin Hayyan said that this Ayah means, Utilize patience and the obligatory prayer in seeking the Hereafter. As for patience (here), they say that it means fasting. 111 There are similar texts reported from Mujahid. Al-Qurtubi and other scholars commented, This is why Ramadan is called the month of patience,"¹²¹ as is mentioned in the Hadith literature. It was also said that patience in the Ayah means, refraining from evil, and this is why patience was mentioned along with practicing acts of worship, especially and foremost, the prayer. Also, Ibn Abi Hatim narrated that Umar bin Al-Khattab said, There are two types of patience: good patience when the disaster strikes, and a better patience while avoiding the prohibitions of Allah. Ibn Abi Hatim said that Al-Hasan Al-Basri was reported to have said similarly.¹³¹ Allah then said, iAnd As-Salah (the prayer).} The prayer is one of the best means of assistance for firmly adhering to Allah's orders, just as Allah said; 2 ykiJi J T\ j) Z 111 Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :154. Al-Qurtubi 1 :372 Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :155.

iRecite (O Muhammad jgj what has been revealed to you of the Book (the Qur'an), and perform As-Saldh. Verily, As-Saldh (the prayer) prevents from Al-Fahshd' (i.e. great sins of every kind), and Al-Munkar and the remembrance of (praising) of (you by) Allah is greater indeed (29:45). The personal pronoun in the Ayah, 4 1P 4And truly, it is extremely heavy and hard^ refers to prayer, as Mujahid is reported to have said, and it was also the choice of Ibn Jarir. It is possible that the pronoun might be referring to the advice - to observe patience and the prayer - mentioned in the same Ayah. Similarly, Allah said about Qarun (Korah), Vj jj J*. Jif L>y pji iBut those who had been given (religious) knowledge said: "Woe to you! The reward of Allah (in the Hereafter) is better for those who believe and do righteous good deeds, and this, none shall attain except As-Sabirun (the patient)."> (28:80). Also, Allah said, /CK ij'Jc ifjJ' Ijji J is jS Sy-'i jp. vi \ % iThe good deed and the evil deed cannot be equal. Repel (the evil) with one which is better than verily he, between whom and you there was enmity, (will become) as though he was a close friend. But none is granted it (the above quality) except those who are patient - and none is granted it except the owner of the great portion (of happiness in the Hereafter and) in this world. (41:34-35) meaning, this advice is only implemented by those who are patient and the fortunate. In any case, Allah's statement here means, prayer is heavy and burdensome, except for Al-Khashi'in .>

Al-Baqarah (25 - 49) (Part-1) Ibn Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas commented on this Ayah, They (Al-Khashi'in) are those who believe in what Allah has revealed. ' Allah's statement, iThey are those who are certain that they are going to meet their Lord, and that unto Him they are going to return . continues the subject that was started in the previous Ayah. Therefore, the prayer, or the advice to observe it is heavy, except for Al-Khashi'in. (They are those) who are certain (Yazunnuna) that they are going to meet their Lord,} meaning, they know that they will be gathered and face their Lord on the Day of Resurrection, and that unto Him they are going to return .} meaning, their affairs are all subject to His will and He justly decides what He wills. Since they are certain that they will be returned to Allah and be reckoned, it is easy for them to perform the acts of obedience and refrain from the prohibitions. Ibn Jarir commented on Allah's statement; Yazunnuna that they are going to meet their Lord} Ibn Jarir said; The Arabs call certainty as well as doubt, Zann. There are similar instances in the Arabic language where a subject as well as its opposite share the same name. For instance, Allah said, i&sQy jL)' \1jf} iAnd the Mujrimiin (criminals, polytheists, sinners), shall see the Fire and Zannu (apprehend) that they have to fall therein}:53). It is recorded in the Sahih that on the Day of Resurrection, IM At-Tabari 2:16.

He will say, No. Allah will say, This Day, I will forget you, just as you forgot Me. ^ If Allah wills, we will further elaborate on this subject when we explain Allah's statement, ijiiey have forgotten Allah, so He has forgotten them (9:67). 447. Al-Baqarah (25 - 49) (Part-1) Abu Al- Aliyah said that Allah s statement, iand that l preferred you over the 'Alamin> means, The kingship, Messengers and Books that were granted to them, instead of granting such to the other kingdoms that existed during their time, for every period there is a nation.)1 ' It was also reported that Mujahid, Ar-Rabl bin Anas, Qatadah and Ismail bin Abi Khalid said similarly. 121 The Ummah of Muhammad jg is Better than the Children of Israel This is the only way the Ayah can be understood, because this Ummah is better than theirs, as Allah said; j j3 &xl jjj 4You are the best of people ever raised up for mankind; you enjoin good and forbid evil, and you believe in Allah. And fear a Day (of Judgement) when a person shall not avail another, nor will intercession be accepted from him, nor will compensation be taken from him, nor will they be helped.} After Allah reminded the Children of Israel of the favors that He has granted them, He warned them about the duration of the torment which He will punish them with on the Day of Resurrection. This indeed should serve as a great warning that both the father and the son will not be of help to each other on that Day. Neither Intercession, Ransom, or Assistance will be acceptedon behalf ofthe Disbelievers Allah said,

Al-Baqarah (25 - 49) (Part-1) inor will intercession be acceptedfrom him} meaning, from the disbelievers. Allah stated that if the people do not believe in His Messenger and follow what He sent him with, then when they meet Him on the Day of Resurrection, after remaining on the path of disbelief, their family lineage and/or the intercession of their masters will not help them at all. It will not be accepted of them, even if they paid the earth's fill of gold as ransom. Similarly, Allah said, \ * _ ij-? * a*T 4Before a Day comes when there will be no bargaining, nor friendship, twr intercession} (2:254) and, 40n which there will be neither mutual bargaining nor befriending (19:31). As stated earlier on that Day, neither the relative, nor persons of authority will feel pity for the disbelievers, nor will any ransom be accepted for them. Consequently, they will receive no help from others and they will be helpless themselves. Allah said, 4 vj %} iWhile He (Allah) grants refuge (or protection), but none grants refuge from Him} (23:88) 4So on that Day none will punish as He will punish. No repeal or ransom will be accepted for them, all courtesy towards them will have ceased, along with any helpful intercession. No type of help or cooperation will be available for them on that Day. The judgment will, on that Day, be up to the Most Great, the Most Just, against whom no intercessor or helper can ever assist. He will then award the evil deed its kind and will multiply the good deeds. This is similar to Allah's statement, IM At-Tabari 2 :36

This favor came after the cursed Pharaoh had a dream in which he saw a fire emerge from Bayt Al-Maqdis (Jerusalem), and then the fire entered the houses of the Coptics in Egypt, with the exception of the Children of Israel. Its purport was that his kingship would be toppled by a man among the Children of Israel. It was also said that some of Pharaoh's entourage said that the Children of Israel were expecting a man among them to arise who would establish a state for them. We will mention the Hadith on this subject [il At-Tabari 2 :35

Al-Baqarah (50 - 74) (Part-1) when we explain Surat Ta Ha (20), Allah willing. After the dream, Pharaoh ordered that every newborn male among the Children of Israel be killed and that the girls be left alone. He also commanded that the Children of Israel be given tasks of hard labor and assigned the most humiliating jobs. The torment here refers to killing the male infants. In Surat Ibrahim (14) this meaning is clearly mentioned, jppj ppAP> iWho were afflicting you with horrible torment, and were slaughtering your sons and letting your women live.} (14:6). Also, Khosrau (Kisra) is the title of the kings who ruled Persia, while Tubb'a is the title of the kings of Yemen, and the kings of Abyssinia (Ethiopia) were called Negus (An-Najashi). Then he (Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd) recited Allah's statement, JS&& iWe shall never believe in you until we see Allah plainly> and said, So Allah's wrath fell upon them, a thunderbolt struck them, and they all died. Then Allah brought them back to life after He killed them. Then he (Abdur-Rahman) recited Allah's statement, {Then We raised you up after your death, so that you might be grateful}, and said, Musa said to them, Take the Book of Allah. They said, No. He said, What is the matter with you? They said, The problem is that we died and came back to life. He said, Take the Book of Allah. They said, No. So Allah sent some angels who made the mountain topple over them. 131 This shows that the Children of Israel were required to fulfill the commandments after they were brought back to life. However, Al-Mawardi said that there are two opinions about this matter. The first opinion is that since the Children of Ibn Abi Hatim 1:173. Ibn Abi Hatim 1:173. At-Jabari 2 :88

Israel witnessed these miracles, they were compelled to believe, so they did not have to fulfill the commandments. The second opinion states that they were required to adhere to the commandments, so that no responsible adult is free of such responsibilities. Al-Qurtubi said that this is what is correct, because, he said, although the Children of Israel witnessed these tremendous calamities and incidents, that did not mean that they were not responsible for fulfilling the commandments any more. Rather they are responsible for that, and this is clear. Allah knows best. (i u oi [fX* cSjtill) cP! Uj [di\ V?& i57. And We shaded you with clouds and sent down on you Al-Manna and the quail, (saying): "Eat of the good lawful things We have provided for you, (but they rebelled). And they did not wrong Us but they wronged themselves. The Shade, the Manna and the Quail After Allah mentioned the calamities that He saved the Children of Israel from, He mentioned the favors that He granted them, saying, {And We shaded you with clouds}. This Ayah mentions the white clouds that provided shade for the Children of Israel, protecting them from the sun's heat during their years of wandering. In the Hadith about the trials, sun. 1 11 Ibn Jarir said that several scholars said that the type of cloud the Ayah mentioned, was cooler and better than the type we know. 121 Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas commented on Allah's statement, {And sent down on you Al-Manna}, The manna used to descend to them to the trees, and they used to eat whatever they wished of it. Also, Qatadah said, The manna, which was whiter than milk and sweeter than honey, used to rain down on the Children of Israel, just as the snow falls, from dawn until sunrise. One of them would collect enough for that particular day, for if it remained more than that, it would spoil. On the sixth day, Friday, one would collect enough for the sixth and the seventh day, which was the Sabbath during which one would not leave home to seek his livelihood, or for anything else. All this occurred in the wilderness. 131 The type of manna that we know provides sufficient food when eaten alone, because it is nutritious and sweet. When manna is mixed with water, it becomes a sweet drink. It also changes composition when mixed with other types of food. However, this is not the only type. The evidence to this fact is that

Al-Baqarah (50 - 74) (Part-1) Allah jg said, ,j* j*^Jl ^ja "lLi t$jj & lj* o^AJUIt The 'Ajwah (pressed, dried date) is from Paradise and it cures poison, Al-Kam'ah (truffles) is a form of manna, and its liquid heals the eye."*

4 Eat of the provision of your Lord, and be grateful to Him (34 :15). Yet, the Children of Israel rebelled, disbelieved and committed injustice against themselves, even though they saw the clear signs, tremendous miracles and extraordinary events.

The Virtue of Muhammad's Companions over the Companions of all Other Prophets Here it is important to point out the virtue of Muhammad's Companions over the companions of the other Prophets. This includes firmness in the religion, patience and the lack of arrogance, may Allah be pleased with them. Although the Companions accompanied the Prophet ﷺ in his travels and battles, such as during the battle of Tabuk, in intense heat and hardship, they did not ask for a miracle, though this was easy for the Prophet ﷺ by Allah's leave. And when the Companions became hungry, they merely asked the Prophet ﷺ - to invoke Allah - for an increase in the amount of food. They collected whatever food they had and brought it to the Prophet ﷺ, and he asked Allah to bless it, told each of them to take some food, and they filled every pot they had. Also, when they needed rain, the Prophet ﷺ asked Allah to send down rain, and a rain cloud came. They drank, gave water to their camels and filled their water skins. When they looked around, they found that the cloud had only rained on their camp. This is the best example of those who were willing to accept Allah's decision and follow the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. Ijlijj lijkL ijijij Ijly j&Li Gii sjfc ji- Jjk-j j 4L. 4 iyLf VLj !i-W b-' 458.* And (remember) when We said: "Enter this town (Jerusalem) and eat bountifully therein with pleasure and delight wherever you wish, and enter the gate in prostration (or bowing with humility) and say: 'Forgive us,' and We shall forgive you your sins and shall increase (reward) for the good-doers 459. But those who did wrong changed the word from Hurt which had been told to them for another, so We sent upon the wrongdoers Rijz (a punishment) from the heaven because of

Al-Baqarah (50 - 74) (Part-1) their rebellion.} The Jews were Rebellious instead of Appreciative when They gained Victory Allah admonished the Jews for avoiding Jihad and not entering the holy land as they had been ordered to do when they came from Egypt with MOsa. They were also commanded to fight the disbelieving Amallq (Canaanites) dwelling in the holy land at that time. But they did not want to fight, because they were weak and exhausted. Allah punished them by causing them to become lost, and to continue wandering, as Allah has stated in Surat Al-Ma'idah (5). The correct opinion about the meaning of, the holy land mentioned here is that it was Bayt Al-Maqdis (Jerusalem), as As-Suddi, Ar-Rabl bin Anas, 1 Qatadah and Abu Muslim Al-Asfahani, as well as others have stated. Musa said, *(Jcl J jlt jrjj? yi. * ' r JyLLii yicrS iiiUu SU i JitoiSiL>{^piSsj J [y\ ="j ' liU i 4l4y jft& Jf s^saf AVr t 3 iO* people! (Ariha) and this opinion was mentioned from Ibn Abbas and Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd. After the years of wandering ended forty years later, in the company of Yuwsha* (Joshua) bin Nun, Allah allowed the Children of Israel to conquer the holy land on the eve of a Friday. On that day, the sun was kept from setting for a little more time, until victory was achieved. When the Children of Israel conquered the holy land, they were commanded to enter its gate while, 4prostrating^ in appreciation to Allah for making them victorious, triumphant, returning them to their land and saving them from being lost and wandering. Al- Awfi said that Ibn Abbas said that, iattd enter the gate Sujjadan} means, While bowing . 11 ' Ibn Jarir reported Ibn Abbas saying, iand enter the gate in prostration} means, Through a small door while bowing. Al-Hakim narrated it, and Ibn Abi Hatim added, And they went through the door backwards! Al-Hasan Al- Basri said that they were ordered to prostrate on their faces when they entered the city, but Ar-Razi discounted this explanation. It was also said that the Sujud mentioned here means, submissiveness , for actually entering while prostrating is not possible. Khaslf said that Ikrimah said that Ibn Abbas said, The door mentioned here was facing the Qiblah. Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, As-Suddi, Qatadah and Ad-Dahhak said that the door is the door of Hittah in Ilyya , which is Jerusalem. Ar-Razi also reported that some of them said that it was a door in the direction of the Qiblah . Khaslf said that Ikrimah said that Ibn Abbas said that the Children of Israel entered the door sideways. As-Suddi said that Abu Said Al-Azdy said that Abu Al-Kanud said that Abdullah bin Mas*ud said that they were (i At-Tabari 2:113.

This Ayah means, If you implement what We commanded you, We will forgive your sins and multiply your good deeds. In summai, upon achieving victory, the Children of Israel were commanded to submit to Allah in tongue and deed and, to admit to their sins and seek forgiveness for them, to be grateful to Allah for the blessings He gave them, hastening to do the deeds that Allah loves, as He said, {4 4 u-UJ' iWhen there comes the help ofAllah (to you, O Muhammad jfe against your enemies) and the conquest (of Makkahj. I made the water available for you, making it gush out through a stone. Twelve springs burst out of that stone, a designated spring for each of your tribes. So worship the One Who did this for you. 44-*^ UiVi .) 4And do not act corruptly, making mischief on the earth) meaning, Do not return the favor by committing acts of disobedience that cause favors to disappear. Ibn Abbas said that the Children of Israel, Had a square stone that MQsa was commanded to strike with his staff and, as a result, twelve springs burst out of that stone, three on each side. Each tribe was, therefore, designated a certain spring, and they used to drink from their springs. They never had to travel from their area, they would find the same bounty in the same manner they had in the first area. 111 This narration is part of the long Hadith that Al-Baqarah (50 - 74) (Part-1 iAttd there gushed forth out of it twelve springs} (7:160), describing what first occurred when the water begins to gush out. In the Ayah in Surat Al-Baqarah, Allah described what happened later on, meaning when the water burst out in full force. Allah knows best. G U & jf*i J ui-jL rii ji' JVi C+U; 461 . And remember your ungratefulness for what We granted you. Remember how you asked Musa to exchange this type of food for an inferior type that consists of vegetation, and so forth. Al-Hasan Al-Basri said about the Children of Israel, They were bored and impatient with the type of food they were provided. They also remembered the life they used to live, when their diet consisted of lentils, onions, garlic and herbs." They said, 40 Musa ! We cannot endure one kind offood. So invoke your Lordfor us to bringforthfor us ofwlmnt the earth grows, its herbs, its cucumbers, its Film, its lentils and its onions}. They said, -i&Z &} 40tie kind of food} meaning, the manna and quails, because they ate the same food day after day. The Ayah mentioned lentils, onions and herbs, which are all known types of foods. As for the Fum, Ibn Mas ud read it, Thum (garlic). Also, Ibn Abi Hatim narrated that Al-Hasan said about the Ayah, 4Its Fum}, Ibn Abbas said that Fum means, garlic. He also said that the expression, Fumu-lanna means, bake for us , according to the languages of old. Ibn Jarir commented, If this is true, then Fum is one of the words whose pronunciation were altered, the letter fa was replaced by the letter tha , since they are similar in sound. * And Allah knows best. Others said that Fum is wheat, the kind used for bread. Al-Bukhari said, Some of them said that Fum includes all grains or seeds that are eaten. Allah s statement, 4% > 24 4He said, "Would you exchange that which is betterfor that which is lower?"} criticized the Jews for asking for inferior foods, although they were living an easy life, eating tasty, beneficial and pure food. Allah s statement, 4Go you down to any Misr} means, any city , as Ibn Abbas said. ' Ibn Jarir also reported that Abu Al- Aliyah and Ar-Rabl bin Anas said that the Ayah refers to Misr, the Egypt of Fir'awn. * The truth is that the Ayah means any city, as Ibn Abbas and other scholars stated. Therefore, the meaning of Musa s statement to the Children of Israel becomes, What you are asking for is easy, for it is available in abundance in any city that you might enter. So since what you asked for is available in all of the villages and cities, 1 will not ask Allah to provide us with it, especially when it is an inferior type of food. That was because they used to disbelieve in the Ayat (proofs, evidence) of Allah and killed the Prophets wrongfully. That was because they disobeyed and used to transgress the bounds (in their disobedience to Allah, i.e. comtnit crimes and sins.)) (2:61) Covering the Jews in Humiliation and Misery Allah said, 4^^::i!, iljsi > ^ iAnd they were covered with humiliation and misery). This Ayah indicates that the Children of Israel were plagued with humiliation, and that this will continue, meaning that it will never cease. They will continue to suffer humiliation at the hands of all who interact with them, along with the disgrace that they feel inwardly. Al-Hasan commented, Allah humiliated them, and they shall have no protector. Allah put them under the feet of the Muslims, who appeared at a time when the MajQs (Zoroastrians) were taking the Jizyah (tax) from the Jews. 1 11 Also, Abu Al- Aliyah, Ar-Rabl bin Anas and As-Suddi said that misery used in the Ayah means, poverty. Atiyah Al- Awfi said that misery means, paying the tilth (tax). In addition, Ad-Dahhak commented on Allah s statement, Ibn Abi H&tim 1:195, 196. 121 Ibn Abi HStim 1 :196. 3 * Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :196.

Allah s anger that descended on the Children of Israel was a part of the humiliation they earned, because of their defiance of the truth, disbelief in Allah s Ayat and belittling the carriers of Allah s Law i.e. the Prophets and their following. The Children of Israel rejected the Messengers and even killed them. Surely, there is no form of disbeliefworse than disbelieving in Allah s Ayat and murdering the Prophets of Allah. Meaning ofKibr Similarly, in a Hadith recorded in the Two Sahihs the Messenger of Allah jgg said, v'Kibr, is refusing the truth and degrading (belittling) people .

This statement by Ibn Abbas indicates that Allah does not accept any deed or work from anyone, unless it conforms to the Law of Muhammad jg that is, after Allah sent Muhammad Sfe. Before that, every person who followed the guidance of his own Prophet was on the correct path, following the correct guidance and was saved.

Why the Jews were called ‘Yahud’

[Tafsir Ibn Kathir (Abridged), Darussalam English Edition, PDF p. 249]

The Jews are the followers of Prophet Musa, who used to refer to the Tawrah for judgment. Yahud is a word that means, repenting , just as Musa said, Certainly we have Hudna to You> meaning, we repent to You. This indicates that they were first called Yahud, because they repented and, because they were kind to each other. It was also said that they were called Yahud in reference to Yahuda (Judah) the eldest son of Prophet Ya'qub. Abu Amr bin Al- Ala said that they were called Yahud, because they swayed when they read the Tawrah.

Why the Christians were called 'Nasara'

[Tafsir Ibn Kathir (Abridged), Darussalam English Edition, PDF pp. 249–261]

When Isa was sent, the Children of Israel were required to follow and obey him. The followers of Isa and his companions are called An-Nasdra, because they gave aid and support to each other. They are also called Ansar (helpers), as Isa said, -iJli jii 4"Who will be my helpers in Allah's cause?" Al-Haivariyyun said : "We are the helpers ofAllah.">(61:14) It was said that they were called Nasara , because they inhabited a land called An-Nasirah (Nazareth), as Qatadah, Ibn

250 Tafstr Ibn Kathir Jurayj and Ibn Abbas were reported to have said , 11 Allah knows best. Nasara is certainly plural for Nasran. When Allah sent Muhammad as the Last and Final Prophet and Messenger to all of the Children of Adam, mankind was required to believe in him, obey him and refrain from what he prohibited them; those who do this are true believers. The Ummah of Muhammad was called Mu minin (believers), because of the depth of their faith and certainty, and because they believe in all of the previous Prophets and matters of the Unseen. The Sabi un or Sabians There is a difference of opinion over the identity of the Sabians. Sufyan Ath-Thawri said that Layth bin Abu Sulaym said that Mujahid said that, The Sabians are between the Majus, the Jews and the Christians. They do not have a specific religion. Similar is reported from Ibn Abi Najlh . Similar statements were attributed to Ata and Said bin Jubayr. They (others) say that the Sabians are a sect among the People of the Book who used to read the Zabur (Psalms), others say that they are a people who worshipped the angels or the stars. It appears that the closest opinion to the truth, and Allah knows best, is Mujahid s statement and those who agree with him like Wahb bin Munabbih, that the Sabians are neither Jews nor Christians nor MajOs nor polytheists. Rather, they did not have a specific religion that they followed and enforced, because they remained living according to their Fitrah (instinctual nature). This is why the idolators used .to call whoever embraced Islam a Sabi , meaning, that he abandoned all religions that existed on the earth. Some scholars stated that the Sabians are those who never received a message by any Prophet. Remember that Allah sent His torment on the village that disobeyed Him and broke their pledge and their covenant to observe the sanctity of the Sabbath. They began using deceitful means to avoid honoring the Sabbath by placing nets, ropes and artificial pools of water for the purpose of fishing before the Sabbath. When the fish came in abundance on Saturday as usual, they were caught in the ropes and nets for the rest of Saturday. During the night, the Jews collected the fish after the Sabbath ended. When they did that, Allah changed them from humans into monkeys, the animals having the form closest to humans. Their evil deeds and deceit appeared lawful on the surface, but they were in reality wicked. This is why their punishment was compatible with their crime. This story is explained in detail in Surat Al-A'raf, where Allah said (7:163), H V-V if 4 "/"; " "< 'jib iSIJL iAnd ask them (O Muhammad about the town that was by the sea; when they transgressed in the matter of the Sabbath (i.e. Saturday): when their fish came to them openly on the Sabbath day, and did not come to them on the day they had no Sabbath. monkeys, then they perished without offspring. 12' Ad-Dahhak said that Ibn Abbas said, Allah turned them into monkeys because of their sins. They only lived on the earth for three days, for no transformed person ever lives more than three days. They did not eat, drink or have offspring. Allah transformed their shapes into monkeys, and He does what He wills, with whom He wills and He changes the shape of whomever He wills. On the other hand, Allah created the monkeys, swines and the rest of the creation in the six days (of creation) that He mentioned in His Book. '3 ' Allah s statement, <$ } ^So We made this punishment an example} means, Allah made the people of this village, who violated the sanctity of the Sabbath, ii&} ian example} via the way they were punished. Stubbornness of the Jews regarding the Cow; Allah made the Matter difficult for Them Allah mentioned the stubbornness of the Children of Israel and the many unnecessary questions they asked their Messengers. This is why when they were stubborn, Allah made the decisions difficult for them. Had they slaughtered a cow, any cow, it would have been sufficient for them, as Ibn Abbas and Ubaydah have said. Instead, they made the matter difficult, and this is why Allah made it even more difficult for them. They said, Call upon your Lord for us that He may make plain to us what it is!}, meaning, What is this cow and what is its description? Musa said, He says, 'Verily, it is a cow neither too old nor too young }, meaning, that it is neither old nor below the age of breeding. This is the opinion of Abu Al- Aliyah, As-Suddi, Mujahid, Ikrimah, Atiyah Al- Awfi, Ata , Al-Khurasani, Wahb bin Munabbih, Ad-Dahhak, Al-Hasan, Qatadah and Ibn Abbas. Ad-Dahhak reported that Ibn Abbas said that, But (it is) between the two conditions} means, Neither old nor young. Rather, she was at the age when the cow is strongest and fittest. ¹²¹ In his Tafsir Al- Awfi reported from Ibn Abbas that, bright in its colour} A deep yellowish white. ¹³¹ ¹¹¹ Ibn Abi Hatim 1:216. ¹²¹ Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :217. ¹³¹ Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :22 1

This is also the opinion of Abu Al- Aliyah, Qatadah and Ar-Rabl bin Anas. ² Furthermore, Wahb bin Munabbih said, If you look at the cow's skin, you will think that the sun's rays radiate through its skin. ³ ' The modern version of the Tawrah mentions that the cow in the Ayah was red, but this is an error. Or, it might be that the cow was so yellow that it appeared blackish or reddish in color. Rather, it is honorable and fair looking. Abdur- Razzaq said that Ma mar said that Qatadah said that, isound} means, The cow does not suffer from any defects. This is also the opinion of Abu Al- Aliyah and Ar-Rabl . Mujahid also said that the Ayah means the cow is free from defects. Further, Ata Al-Khurasani said that the Ayah means that its legs and body are free of physical defects. ⁶ " Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :222. Ibid. At-Tabari 2 :202 At-Tabari 2:214. At-Tabari 2 :225. At-Tabari 2:226.

Also, Ad-Dahhak said that Ibn 'Abbas said that the Ayah, And they were near to not doing it} means, They did not want to slaughter it. This means that even after all the questions and answers about the cow's description, the Jews were still reluctant to slaughter the cow. This part of the Qur'an criticized the Jews for their behavior, because their only goal was to be stubborn, and this is why they nearly did not slaughter the cow. Also, Ubaydah, Mujahid, Wahb bin Munabbih, Abu Al- Aliyah and Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam said, The Jews bought the cow with a large amount of money. There is a difference of opinion over this. U l i i yT'.i 4ff?jyili JjJi iit t/J 472. And (remember) when you killed a man and disagreed among yourselves as to the crime. said that, 4'oJ&p M 4But Allah brought forth that which you were Taktumun means, what you were hiding. 131 Allah said, 4So We said: "Strike him (the dead man) with a piece of it (the cow)" meaning, any part of the cow will produce the miracle (if they struck the dead man with it). We were not told which part of the cow they used, as this matter does not benefit us either in matters of life or religion. Otherwise, Allah would have made it clear for us. Instead, Allah made this matter vague, so this is why we should leave it vague. Allah s statement, iTltus Allah brings the dead to life^ means, They struck him with it, and he came back to life. This Ayah demonstrates Allah s ability in bringing the dead back to life. Allah made this incident proof against the Jews that the Resurrection shall occur, and ended their disputing and stubbornness over the dead person. Allah mentioned His bringing the dead back to life in five instances in Surat Al-Baqarah. First Allah said, 4j ? 4Then We raised you up after your death}- He then mentioned the story about the cow. Allah also mentioned the story of those who escaped death in their land, while they were numbering inTabari 2 :225 At-Tabari 2:225. 131 Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :229

All these incidents and stories alert us to the fact that bodies shall again become whole, after they were rotten. The proof of Resurrection is also reiterated in Allah s statement, eft L"j ft ftftj ft % n a* Hf, Jt 9:$&i dS $3 kJfl 4And a sign for them is the dead land We give it life, and We bring forth from it grains, so that they eat thereof. In his Tafsir, Al- Awfi said that Ibn Abbas said, When the dead man was struck with a part of the cow, he stood up and became more alive than he ever was. He was asked, Who killed you? He said, My nephews killed me. He then died again. His nephews said, after Allah took his life away, By Allah! We did not kill him and denied the truth while they knew it. Allah said, Vj j% iAnd became as stones or even worse in hardness And by the passage of time, the hearts of the Children of Israel were unlikely to accept any admonishment, even after the miracles and signs they witnessed. Their hearts became harder than stones, with no hope of ever softening. Sometimes, springs and rivers burst out of stones, some stones split and water comes out of them, even if there are no springs or rivers around them, sometimes stones fall down from mountaintops out of their fear of Allah. However, Ar-Razi, Al-Qurtubi and other Imams said that there is no need for this explanation, because Allah creates this characteristic - humbleness - in stones. For instance, Allah said, iTruly, We did offer Al-Amnah (the trust) to the heavens and the earth, and the mountains, but they declined to bear it and were afraid of it (i.e. afraid of Allah's torment)} (33:72), 4ti iThe seven heavens and the earth and all that is therein, glorify Him (17:44), iAnd the stars and the trees both prostrate themselves (to Allah)} (55:6), 4Have they not observed things that Allah has created: (how) their shadows incline} (16:48), iThey both said: We come willingly."} (41:11), iHad We sent down this Qur'an on a mountain} (59:21), and. m Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :233

Some other scholars said that this Ayah means their hearts are only of two types, as hard as stone or harder than stone. Further, Ibn Jarir commented that this Tafsir means that some of their hearts are as hard as stone and some hearts are harder than stone.111 Ibn Jarir said that he favored this last Tafsir, although the others are plausible. I - Ibn Kathir - say that the last Tafsir is similar to Allah's statement, s&L \ 2 iTheir likeness is as the likeness of one who kindled a fire (2:17), and then His statement, ll oi jr4 iOr like a rainstorm from the sky} (2:19). It is also similar to Allah's statement, And for those who disbelieved, their deeds are like a mirage in a desert (24:39), and then His statement, And for those who disbelieved, their deeds are like a mirage in a desert (24:39), and then His statement, And for those who disbelieved, their deeds are like a mirage in a desert (24:39).

Al-Baqarah (75 - 100) (Part-1) Or (the state of a disbeliever) is like the darkness in a vast deep sea (24:40). This then means that some of them are like the first example, and some others are like the second example. There was little Hope that the Jews Who lived during the Time of the Prophet could have believed Allah said, 'Do you covet O believers, that they will believe in your religion' meaning, that these people would obey you? They are the deviant sect of Jews whose fathers witnessed the clear signs but their hearts became hard afterwards. Allah said next,

In spite of the fact that a party of them (Jewish rabbis) used to hear the Word of Allah (the Tawrah), then they used to change it meaning, distort its meaning, after they understood it. They understood well, yet they used to defy the truth, knowingly, being fully aware of their erroneous interpretations and corruption. This statement is similar to Allah's statement, 'So, because of their violation of their covenant, We cursed them and made their hearts grow hard. They change the words from their (right) places (5:13). Qatadah commented that Allah's statement; 'Then they used to change it knowingly after they understood it' They are the Jews who used to hear Allah's Words and then alter them after they understood and comprehended them. The Meaning of UmmV Allah said, iAnd there are among them Ummyyun people} meaning, among the People of the Book, as Mujahid stated. Ummyyun, is plural for Ummi, that is, a person who does not write, as Abu Al- Aliyah, Ar-RabT, Qatadah, Ibrahim An-Nakhal and others said. This meaning is clarified by Allah s statement, 111 Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :240. 121 Ibid.

$Who know not the Booty meaning, are they not aware ofwhat is in it.' Ummi was one of the descriptions of the Prophet because he was unlettered. For instance, Allah said, 4Neither did you (O Muhammad read any book before it (this Qur an) nor did you write any book (whatsoever) with your right hand. This is another category of people among the Jews who called to misguidance with falsehood and lies about Allah, thriving on unjustly amassing people s property. Waylun (woe) carries meanings of destruction and perishing, and it is a well- known word in the Arabic language. Az-Zuhri said that TJbadydullah bin Abdullah narrated that Ibn Abbas said, O Muslims! How could you ask the People of the Book about anything, while the Book of Allah (Qur an) that He revealed to His Prophet jfc is the most recent Book from Him and you still read it fresh and young? They then said, This book is from Allah, so that they acquired a small profit by it. Hasn t the knowledge that came to you prohibited you from asking them? By Allah! Al-Baqarah (75 - 100) (Part-1) The Terms of the Covenant and their Breach of It Allah criticized the Jews who lived in Al-Madlnah during the time of the Messenger of Allah jg. They used to suffer, because of the armed conflicts between the tribes of Al-Madlnah, Aws and Khazraj. Before Islam, the Aws and Khazraj worshipped idols, and many battles took place between them. There were three Jewish tribes in Al-Madlnah at that time, Banu Qaynuqa and Banu An-Nadlr, the allies of the Khazraj, and Banu Qurayzah, who used to be the allies of the Aws. When war erupted between Aws and Khazraj, their Jewish allies would assist them. The Jew would kill his Arab enemy, and sometimes they also killed Jews who were the allies of the other Arab tribe, although the Jews were prohibited from killing each other according to clear religious texts in their Books. They would also drive each other from their homes and loot whatever furniture and money they could. When the war ended, the victorious Jews would release the prisoners from the defeated party, according to the rulings of the Tawrah. This is why Allah said, iThen do you believe in a part of the Scripture and reject the rest?} Allah said, ipfci oi tip P&i 1 j&LL. G53 iAnd (remember) when We took your covenant (saying) : Shed not the blood of your (people), nor turn out your own people from their dwellings.} meaning, Do not kill each other, nor expel one another from their homes, nor participate in fighting against them. Allah mentioned the word *your own here, just as He said in another Ayah. yC ii iSo turn in repentance to your Creator and kill yourselves, that will be better for you with your Creator (2:54) because the followers of one religion are just like one soul. Also, the Messenger of Allah Sg said,

Now they were divided into two camps in Al-Madlnah, Banu Qaynuqa*, who were the allies of the Khazraj, and

An-Nadir and Qurayzah, who were the allies of the Aws. When fighting erupted between Aws and Khazraj, Banu Qaynuqa* would fight along with the Khazraj, while Banu An-Nadir and Qurayzah would fight along with the Aws. Each Jewish camp would fight against their Jewish brethren from the other camp. They would shed each other's blood, although they had the Tawrah with them, and they knew their rights and dues. Meanwhile, the Aws and Khazraj were polytheists who worshipped idols. They did not know about Paradise, the Fire, Resurrection, Divine Books the lawful and prohibited. When the war would end, the Jews would ransom their prisoners and implement 4:1999. 121 Ibn Abi H&tim 1 :261

the Tawrah. Consequently, Banu Qaynuqa' would ransom their prisoners who were captured by the Aws, while Banu An-Nadir and Qurayzah would ransom their prisoners who were captured by the Khazraj. They would also ask for blood money. During these wars, they would kill whomever (Jews or Arabs) they could, while helping the polytheists against their brethren. Therefore, Allah reminded them of this when He said, iThen do you believe in a part of the Scripture and reject the rest? ^ This Ayah means, Do you ransom them according to the rulings of the Tawrah, yet kill them while the Tawrah forbade you from killing them and from expelling them from their homes? The Tawrah also commanded that you should not aid the polytheists and those who associate with Allah in the worship against your brethren. You do all this to acquire the life of this world. revealing these Ayat. These noble Ayat criticized the Jews for implementing the Tawrah sometimes and defying it at other times, although they believed in the Tawrah and knew what they were doing was wrong. This is why they should not be trusted to preserve or convey the Tawrah. Further, they should not be believed when it comes to the description of the Messenger of Allah jg, his coming, his expulsion from his land, and his Hijrah, and the rest of the information that the previous Prophets informed them about him, all of which they hid. The Jews, may they suffer the curse of Allah, hid all of these facts among themselves, and this is why Allah said. iThen what is the recompense of those who do so among you, except disgrace in the life of this world}, because they defied Allah's Law and commandments, 44>i*R$ d! ilia' '{ >} iAnd on the Day of Resurrection tthey shall be consigned to the most grievous torment} as punishment for defying the Book of Allah

Both meanings are plausible, since Allah said, l J (Cj ?) iThen We sent Our Messengers in succession} (23:44). Thereafter, Allah sent the last Prophet among the Children of Israel, Isa the son of Mary, who was sent with some laws that differed with some in the Tawrah. This is why Allah also sent miracles to support Isa. These included bringing the dead back to life, forming the shape of birds from clay and blowing into them, after which they became living birds by Allah's leave, healing the sick and foretelling the Unseen, as Ibn Abbas stated. 121 Allah also aided him with Rah Al-Qudus, and that refers to Jibril. All of these signs testified to the truthfulness of Isa and what he was sent with. Al-Bagarah (75 - 100) (Part-1) and prolong his deviation. We will mention this subject later, Allah willing. The Mubalahah (invocation to Allah to destroy the liars) was called a wish here, because every just person wishes that Allah destroy the unjust opponent who is debating with him, especially when the just person has a clear, apparent proof for the truth he is calling to. Also, the Mubalahah involves invoking Allah for death of the unjust group, because to disbelievers, life is the biggest prize, especially when they know the evil destination they will meet after death. Disbelievers wish They could live longer This is why Allah said next, iBut they will never long for it because of wlwt their hands have salt before them (i.e.what they have done). And Allah is Aware of the Zdlimin. And verily, you will find than (the jews) the greediest of mankind for life meaning, greedy to live longer, because they know their evil end, and the only reward they will have with Allah is total loss. This life is a prison for the believer and Paradise for the disbeliever. Therefore, the People of the Book wish they could delay the Hereafter, as much as possible. However, they shall certainly meet what they are trying to avoid, even if they are more eager to delay the Hereafter than the polytheists who do not have a divine book. Muhammad bin Ishaq narrated that Ibn Abbas commented on, 4^~4 St 4 But the grant of such life will not save him even a little from (due) punishment. $ Long life shall not save them from torment. Certainly, the polytheists do not believe in resurrection after death, and they would love to enjoy a long life. The Jews know the humiliation they will suffer in the Hereafter for knowingly ignoring the truth. 111 Also, Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam said, The Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :288.

Jews are most eager for this life. They wish they could live for a thousand years. However, living for a thousand years will not save them from torment, just as Iblls - Satan - long life did not benefit him, due to being a disbeliever. Al-Baqarah (101 - 124) (Part-1) Proofs of Muhammad's Prophethood Imam Abu Ja'far bin Jarir said that Allah's statement, Wa indeed We have sent down to you manifest Ayat means, We have sent to you, O Muhammad, clear signs that testify to your prophethood. These Ayat are contained in the Book of Allah (Qur'an) which narrates the secrets of the knowledge that the Jews possess, which they hid, and the stories of their earlier generations. The Book of Allah also mentions the texts in the Books of the Jews that are known to only the rabbis and scholars, and the sections where they altered and distorted the rulings of the Tawrah. Since Allah mentioned all of this in His Book revealed to His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), then this fact alone should be enough evidence for those who are truthful with themselves and who wish to avoid bringing themselves to destruction due to envy and transgression. Further human instinct testifies to the truth that Muhammad (ﷺ) was sent with and the clear signs that he brought which he did not learn or acquire from mankind. Ad-Dahhak said that Ibn Abbas said that, Wa indeed We have sent down to you manifest Ayat means, You recite and convey this Book to them day and night, although you are an Ummi (unlettered) who never read a book. Yet, you inform them of what they have (in their own Books). Allah stated that this fact should serve as an example, a clear sign and a proof against them, if they but knew. The Jews break Their Covenants When the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) was sent and Allah reminded the Jews of the covenant that they had with Him, especially concerning Muhammad (ﷺ), Malik bin As-Sayf said, By Allah! Allah never made a covenant with us about Muhammad, nor did He take a pledge from us at all. Allah then revealed, At-Tabari 2 : 397

would convey this news to the soothsayers, and the soothsayers would in turn convey the news to the people. The people would believe what the soothsayers told them as being true. When the soothsayers trusted the devils, the devils started to lie to them and added other words to the true news that they heard, to the extent of adding seventy false words to each true word. The people recorded these words in some books. Soon after, the Children of Israel said that the Jinns know matters of the Unseen. When Solomon was sent as a Prophet, he collected these books in a box and buried it under his throne; any devil that dared get near the box was burned. Solomon said, will not hear of anyone who says that the devils know the Unseen, but I will cut off his head. When Solomon died and the scholars who knew the truth about Solomon perished, there came another generation. To them, the devil materialized in the shape of a human and said to some of the Children of Israel, Should I lead you to a treasure that you will never be able to use up? They said. Yes. He said, Dig under this throne, and he went with them and showed them Solomon's throne. They said to him, Come closer. He said, No. I will wait for you here, and if you do not find the treasure then kill me. They dug and found the buried books, and Satan said to them, Solomon only controlled the humans, devils and birds with this magic. Thereafter, the news that Solomon was a sorcerer spread among the people, and the Children of Israel adopted these books. When Muhammad came, they disputed with him relying on these books. Hence Allah's statement, "Lidi Uj"

It was said that this Ayah denies that anything was sent down to the two angels, as Al-Qurtubi stated and then referred to the Ayah, isulayman did not disbelieve} saying, The negation applies in both cases. Allah then said, 4cf =dl)' Jc Jjli tj iBut the Shaydtin (devils) disbelieved, teaching men magic and such things fluff came down at Babylon to the two angels}. (> jjii tj)> si/c/i things that came down to the two angels>, Allah did not send magic down to them. 1 11 Ibn Janr commented, This is the correct explanation for this Ayah. {They followed what the Shaydtin (devils) gave out (falsely) in the lifetime of Sulayman. $ meaning, magic. However, neither did Solomon disbelieve nor did Allah send magic with the two angels. The devils, on the other hand, disbelieved and taught magic to the people of the Babylon of Harut and Marut. Ibn Janr continued; If someone asks about explaining this Ayah in this manner, we say that, vilii& iThey followed what the Slstaydtiti (devils) gave out (falsely) in the lifetime of Sulayman means, magic. Solomon neither disbelieved nor did Allah send magic with the two angels. However, the devils disbelieved and taught magic to the people in the Babylon of Harut and Marut, meaning Gabriel and Michael, for Jewish sorcerers claimed that Allah sent magic by the words of Gabriel and Michael to Solomon, son of David.

Allah denied this false claim and stated to His Prophet Muhammad ﷺ that Gabriel and Michael were not sent with magic. Allah also exonerated Solomon from practicing magic, which the devils taught to the people of Babylon by the hands of two men, Harut and Marut. Hence, Harut and Marut were two ordinary men (not angels or Gabriel or Michael). 121 These were the words of At-Tabari, and this explanation is not plausible. Many among the Salaf, said that Harut and Marut were angels who came down from heaven to earth and did what they did as the Ayah stated. To conform this opinion with the fact that the angels are immune from error, we say that Allah had eternal knowledge what these angels would do, just as He At-Tabari 2:419. 121 Ibid.

And they prostrated except Iblis (Satan), he refused[^] (20 :116) and so forth. However, what Harut and Marut did was less evil than what Iblis, may Allah curse him, did. Al-Qurtubi reported this opinion from Ali, Ibn Mas'ud, Ibn Abbas, Ibn Umar, Ka'b Al-Ahbar, As-Suddi and Al-Kalbi. Learning Magic is Kufr Allah said, [^] Vili (ft CII Vyj aJ iBut neither of these two (angels) taught anyone (such things) till they had said, "We are for trial, so disbelieve not (by learning this magic from us).} Abu Ja'far Ar-Razi said that Ar-Rabi bin Anas said that Qays bin Abbad said that Ibn Abbas said, When someone came to the angels to learn magic, they would discourage him and say to him, *We are only a test, so do not fall into disbelief. They had knowledge of what is good and evil and what constitutes belief or disbelief, and they thus knew that magic is a form of disbelief. When the person who came to learn magic still insisted on learning it, they commanded him to go to such and such place, where if he went, Satan would meet him and teach him magic. When this man would learn magic, the light (of faith) would depart him, and he would see it shining (and flying away) in the sky. He would then proclaim, O my sorrow! Woe unto me! What should I do?. ' Al-Hasan Al-Basri said that this Ayah means, The angels were sent with magic, so that the people whom Allah willed would be tried and tested. Allah made them promise that they would not teach anyone until first proclaiming, We are a test * * Al-Qurtubi 2 :51 ' Ibn Abi Hatim 1:312.

Surah 2, Al-Baqarah (101 - 124) (Part-1) 317 for you, do not fall into disbelief.)1 ' It was recorded by Ibn Abi Hatim. Also, Qatadah said, Allah took their covenant to not teach anyone magic until they said, We are a test. Therefore, do not fall in disbelief. 121 Also, As-Suddi said, When a man would come to the two angels they would advise him, Do not fall into disbelief. We are a test. When the man would ignore their advice, they would say, Go to that pile of ashes and urinate on it. When he would urinate on the ashes, a light, meaning the light of faith, would depart from him and would shine until it entered heaven. Then something black that appeared to be smoke would descend and enter his ears and the rest of his body, and this is Allah's anger. When he told the angels what happened, they would teach him magic. So Allah's statement, iBut neither of these two (angels) taught anyone (such things) till they had said, "We are for trial, so disbelieve not (by learning this magic from us) ,[^]3 Sunayd said that Hajjaj said that Ibn Jurayj commented on this Ayah (2:102), No one dares practice magic except a disbeliever. As for the Fitnah, it involves trials and freedom of choice. 14 ' The scholars who stated that learning magic is disbelief relied on this Ayah for evidence. They also mentioned the Hadith that Abu Bakr Al-Bazzar recorded from Abdullah, which states, 1Whoever came to a soothsayer or a sorcerer and believed in what he said, will have disbelieved in what Allah revealed to Muhammad This Hadith has

327Siirah 2. Al-Bacjarah (101 - 124) (Part-1) Wall (protector or guardian) nor any helper Allah directed His servants to the fact that He alone is the Owner of His creatures and that He does with them as He wills. Indeed, His is the supreme authority and all creation is His, and just as He created them as He wills, He brings happiness to whom He wills, misery to whom He wills, health to whom He wills and ailment to whom He wills. He also brings success to whom He wills and failure to whom He wills. He judges between His servants as He wills, allows what He wills and disallows what He wills. He decides what He wills, there is no opponent for His judgment, and no one can question Him about what He does, while they shall be questioned. He tests His servants and their obedience to His Messengers by the Naskh. He commands a matter containing a benefit which He knows of, and then He out of His wisdom, prohibits it. Hence, perfect obedience is realized by adhering to His commands, following His Messengers, believing in what ever they convey, implementing their commands and avoiding what they prohibit. The statements of Allah here contain tremendous benefit, prove that the Jews are disbelievers and refute their claim that Naskh does not occur, may Allah curse the Jews. In ignorance and arrogance they claimed that the sound mind stipulates that Naskh does not occur. Some of them falsely claimed that there are divine texts that dismiss the possibility that Naskh occurred. Imam Abu JaTar bin Jarir said, The Ayah means, Do you not know, O Muhammad, that I alone own the heavens and the earth and that I decide whatever I will in them? I forbid whatever I will, change and repeal whatever I will of My previous rulings, whenever I will. I also uphold whatever I will. Ibn Jarir then said, Although Allah directed His statement indicating His greatness towards His Prophet ﷺ He also rejected the lies of the Jews who denied that the rulings of the Torah could undergo Naskh. The Jews also denied the prophethood of Jesus and Muhammad, because of their dislike for what they brought from Allah, such as changing some rulings of the Torah, as Allah commanded. Allah thus proclaimed to the Jews that He owns the heavens and earth 328 Tafsir Ibtt Kathir and also all authority in them. Further, the subjects in Allah's kingdom are His creation, and they are required to hear and obey His commands and prohibitions. Allah has full authority to command the creation as He wills, forbidding them from what He wills, abrogate what He wills, uphold what He wills, and decide whatever commandments and prohibitions He wills. 111 I (Ibn Kathir) say that the Jews dismissal of the occurrence of the Naskh is only a case of their disbelief and rebellion. The sound mind does not deny that there could be a Naskh in Allah's commandments, for He decides what He wills, just as He does what He wills. Further, Naskh occurred in previous Books and Law. For instance, Allah allowed Adam to marry his daughters to his sons and then later forbade this practice. Allah also allowed Nuh to eat from all kinds of animals after they left the ark, then prohibited eating some types of foods. Further, marrying two sisters to one man was allowed for Israel and his children, but Allah prohibited this practice later in the Torah. Allah commanded Abraham to slaughter his son, then repealed that command before it was implemented. Also, Allah commanded the Children of Israel to kill those who worshipped the calf and then repealed that command, so that the Children of Israel were not all exterminated. There are many other instances that the Jews admit have occurred, yet they ignore them. Also, it is a well-known fact that their Books foretold about Muhammad ﷺ and contained the command to follow him. These texts, in their Books, indicate that the Jews were required to follow the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ and that no good deed would be accepted from them, unless it conformed to Muhammad's Law. The Prophet ﷺ brought another Book, - the Qur'an -, which is the last revelation from Allah. s X4 at i3~' (S 3 Oil 4108. The Prohibition of following the Ways of the People of the Book Allah warned His believing servants against following the ways of the People of Book, who publicly and secretly harbor enmity and hatred for the believers, and who envy the believers, while they recognize the virtue of the believers and their Prophet ig. Allah also commanded His believing servants to forgive them and to be patient with them, until Allah delivers His aid and victory to them. Allah commanded the believers to perform the prayer perfectly, to pay the Zakah and He encouraged them to preserve the practice of these righteous deeds. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Abdullah bin Ka*b bin Malik said that Ka*b bin Al-Ashraf, who was a Jew and a poet, used to criticize the Prophet jg in his poems, so Allah revealed, iMany of the People of the Scripture (Jews and Christians) wish that they could turn you away..} regarding his matter. 11 Also, Ad-Dahhak said that Ibn Abbas said, An unlettered Messenger came to the People of the Scriptures confirming what they have in their own Books about the Messengers and the Ayat of Allah. The Messenger of Allah jfe said, Whoever performs a deed that does not conform with our matter (religion), then it will be rejected ." This Hadith was recorded by Muslim. 121 Therefore, the good deeds of the priests and rabbis will not be accepted, even if they are sincerely for Allah alone, because these deeds do not conform with the method of the Messenger who was sent for all mankind. Allah said regarding such cases, And We shall turn to whatever deeds they (disbelievers, polytheists, sinners) did, and We shall make such deeds as scattered floating particles of dust. (25:23) *As for those who disbelieved, their deeds are like a mirage in a desert. When the deed conforms to the Shari'ah outwardly, but the person did not perform it sincerely for Allah alone, the deed will also be rejected, as in the case of the hypocrites and those who do their deeds to show off. Similarly, Allah said, *O you who believe, the hypocrites seek to deceive Allah, but it is He Who deceives them. Moreover, Said bin Jubayr said, in At-Tirmidhi There shall be no fear on them} in the Hereafter, and nor shall they grieve} about their imminent death. The Jews and Christians dispute among themselves out of Disbelief and Stubbornness Allah said, And the Jews said that the Christians follow nothing (i.e. are not on the right religion); and the Christians said that the Jews follow nothing (i.e. are not on the right religion); though they both recite the Scripture. Allah explained the disputes, hatred and stubbornness that the People of the Book have towards each other. Muhammad bin Ishaq reported that Ibn Abbas said, When a delegation of Christians from Najran came to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, the Jewish rabbis came and began arguing with them before the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. Rafi bin Huraymilah said, You do not follow anything, and he reiterated his disbelief in Jesus and the Injil. Then a Christian man from Najran's delegation said to the Jews, Rather, you do not follow anything, and he reiterated his rejection of Musa's prophethood and his disbelief in the Torah. So Allah revealed the Ayah, m Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :338

The Jews said that the Christians follow nothing (i.e. are not on the right religion); and the Christians said that the Jews follow nothing (i.e. are not on the right religion); though they both recite the Scripture. Allah made it clear that each party read the affirmation of what they claimed to reject in their Book. Consequently, the Jews disbelieve in Jesus, even though they have the Torah in which Allah took their Covenant by the tongue of Moses to believe in Jesus. Also, the Gospel contains Jesus' assertion that Moses' prophethood and the Torah came from Allah. Yet, each party disbelieved in what the other party had. Allah said, Y 4 Like unto their word, said those who know not} thus exposing the ignorance displayed by the Jews and the Christians concerning their statements that we mentioned. There is a difference of opinion regarding the meaning of Allah's statement, i who know not} For instance, Ar-Rabi bin Anas and Qatadah said that, i&t, V IS jli i Like unto their word, said those who know not means, The Christians said similar statements to the Jews. 121 Ibn Jurayj asked Ata Who are those who know not? Mujahid said that, 4So wherever you turn (yourselves or your faces) there is the Face of Allah (and He is High above, over His Throne)) means, Wherever you may be, you have a Qiblah to face, that is, Al-Ka bah. ^ However, it was said that Allah sent down this Ayah before the order to face the Ka'bah. Ibn Jarir said, Others said that this Ayah was revealed to the Messenger of Allah si permitting the one praying voluntary prayers to face wherever they wish in the east or west, while traveling, when in fear and when facing the enemy. Allah accepted his supplication, but told him that there will be unjust people among his offspring and they will not benefit from Allah's promise. Thus, they will neither become Imams nor be imitated (for they will not be righteous). The proof that Ibrahim's supplication to Allah was accepted is that Allah said in Surat Al-Ankabut (29:27), Fath Al-Bari 10:347 and Muslim 1 :222. ^ Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :360.

Ibn Abi Hatim reported that Jabir, describing the Hajj (pilgrimage) of the Prophet jg said, When the Prophet jfe performed Tawaf Umar asked him, Is this the Maqam of our father? He said, Yes. This Hadith was collected by Al-Bukhari and Muslim.¹¹¹ After this, there is no contradiction between the Hadiths that stated that Allah made Makkah a sanctuary when He created the heavens and earth and the Hadiths that Ibrahim made it a sanctuary, since Ibrahim conveyed Allah's decree that Makkah is a sanctuary, before he built the House. Similarly, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was written as the Final Prophet when Adam was still clay. Yet, Ibrahim said, O Our Lord! Send amongst them a Messenger of their own (2:129). Allah accepted Ibrahim's supplication, although He had full knowledge beforehand that it will occur by His decree. To further elaborate on this subject, we should mention the Hadith about what the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said when he was asked, O Messenger of Allah! Tell us about how your prophethood started. He said, >^ j\J iy-il Al-Bari 4 :50, and Muslim 2 :987.

(14:35) as here, Ibrahim supplicated a second time after the House was built and its people lived around it, after Ishaq who was thirteen years Ismail's junior was born. This is why at the end of his supplication, Ibrahim said here, &^ , i' iAll the praises and thanks be to Allah, Who has given me in old age Isma'il (Ishmael) and Ishaq (Isaac). 388 Tafeir Ibn KatHir afraid that these good deeds might not be accepted of them. There is an authentic Hadith narrated by A ishaH on this subject, which we will mention later, Allah willing.

Al-Baqarah (125 - 149) (Part-1) of Allah jg said, This is why the people make the trip between As-Safa and Al-Marwah (during Hajjand Umrah)." When she reached Al-Marwah, she heard a voice and said, Shush, to herself. She tried to hear the voice again and when she did, she said, 1 have heard you. Do you have relief? She found the angel digging with his heel (or his wing) where Zamzam now exists, and the water gushed out. Ismail s mother was astonished and started digging, using her hand to transfer water to the water-skin. Ibn Abbas said that the Prophet jg then said, May Allah grant His mercy to the mother of Ismail, had she left the water, (flow naturally without her intervention), it would have been flowing on the surface of the earth. Ismail s mother started drinking the water and her milk increased for her child. The angel (Gabriel) said to her, Do not fear abandonment. There shall be a House for Allah built here by this boy and his father. Allah does not abandon His people. During that time, the area of the House was raised above ground level and the floods used to reach its right and left sides. Afterwards some people of the tribe of Jurhum, passing through Kada , made camp at the bottom of the valley. They saw some birds, they were astonished, and said, Birds can only be found at a place where there is water. We did not notice before that this valley had water. They sent a scout or two who searched the area, found the water, and returned to inform them about it. Then they all went to Ismail s mother, next to the water, and said, O Mother of Ismail! Will you allow us to be with you (or dwell with you)? She said, Yes. But you will have no exclusive right to the water here. They said, We agree. Ibn Abbas said that the Prophet sg said, At that time, Ismail's mother liked to have human company. And thus they stayed there and sent for their relatives to join them. Later on, her boy reached the age of puberty and married a lady from them, for Ismail learned Arabic from them, and they liked the way he was raised. Ismail s mother died after that. Then an idea occurred to Abraham to visit his dependents. So he left (to Makkah). When he arrived, he did not find Ismail, so he asked his wife about him. She said, *He has

390 Tafsir Urn Kathir gone out hunting. When he asked her about their living conditions, she complained to him that they live in misery and poverty. Abraham said (to her), When your husband comes, convey my greeting and tell him to change the threshold of his gate. When Ismail came, he sensed that they had a visitor and asked his wife, Did we have a visitor? She said, Yes. An old man came to visit us and asked me about you, and I told him where you were. He also asked about our condition, and I told him that we live in hardship and poverty. Ismail said, Did he ask you to do anything? She said, Yes. He asked me to convey his greeting and that you should change the threshold of your gate. Ismail said to her, He was my father and you are the threshold, so go to your family (i.e. you are divorced). So he divorced her and married another woman. Again Ibrahim thought of visiting his dependents whom he had left (at Makkah). Ibrahim came to Ismail's house, but did not find Ismail and asked his wife, Where is Ismail? Ismail's wife replied, He has gone out hunting. He asked her about their condition, and she said that they have a good life and praised Allah. Ibrahim asked, What is your food and what is your drink? She replied, Our food is meat and our drink is water. He said, O Allah! Bless their meat and their drink. The Prophet (Muhammad jfe) said, They did not have crops then, otherwise Ibrahim would have invoked Allah to bless that too. Those who do not live in Makkah cannot bear eating a diet only containing meat and water. Ibrahim said, When Ismail comes back, convey my greeting to him and ask him to keep the threshold of his gate. When Ismail came back, he asked, Has anyone visited us. She said, Yes. A good looking old man, and she praised Ibrahim, And he asked me about our livelihood and I told him that we live in good conditions. He asked, Did he ask you to convey any message? She said, 'Yes. He conveyed his greeting to you and said that you should keep the threshold of your gate. Ismail said, That was my father, and you are the threshold; he commanded me to keep you. Ibrahim then came back visiting and found Ismail behind the Zamzam well, next to a tree, mending his arrows. When he saw Ibrahim, he stood up and they greeted each other, just as

Al-Baqarah (125 - 149) (Part-1) the father and son greet each other. Ibrahim said, O Ismail, Your Lord has ordered me to do something. He said, Obey your Lord. He asked Ismail, Will you help me? He said, Yes, I will help you. Ibrahim said, Allah has commanded me to build a house for Him there, and he pointed to an area that was above ground level. So, both of them rose and started to raise the foundations of the House. Abraham started building (the Ka'bah), while Ismail continued handing him the stones. Both of them were saying, O our Lord ! Accept (this service) from us, Verily, You are the Hearing, the Knowing. (2.127). m Hence, they were building the House, part by part, going around it and saying, ijMii % j% # iOur Lord! Verily, You are the Hearer, the Ktmver The StoryofrebuildingtheHousebyQurayshbefore the Messenger ofAllahg was sent as Prophet In his Sirah, Muhammad bin Ishaq bin Yasar said, When the Messenger of Allah m reached thirty-five years of age, the Quraysh gathered to rebuild the Ka'bah, this included covering it with a roof. However, they were weary of demolishing it. During that time, the Ka'bah was barely above a man's shoulder, so they wanted to raise its height and build a ceiling on top. Some people had stolen the Ka'bah's treasure beforehand, which used to be in a well in the middle of the Ka'bah. The treasure was later found with a man called, Duwayk, a freed servant of Bani Mulayh bin Amr, from the tribe of Khuza'ah. The Quraysh cut off his hand as punishment. Some people claimed that those who actually stole the treasure left it with Duwayk. Afterwards, the sea brought a ship that belonged to a Roman merchant to the shores of Jeddah, where it washed-up. So they collected the ship's wood to use it for the Ka'bah's ceiling; a Coptic carpenter in Makkah prepared what they needed for the job. When they decided to begin the demolition process to rebuildAl-Bari 6:456.

392 Tafstr Ibn Katlnr the House, Abu Wahb bin Amr bin A idh bin Abd bin Imran bin Makhzum took a stone from the Ka'bah, the stone slipped from his hand and went back to where it had been. He said, O people of Quraysh! Do not spend on rebuilding the House, except from what was earned from pure sources. No money earned from a prostitute, usury or injustice should be included. Ibn Ishaq commented here that the people also attribute these words to Al-Walid bin Al-Mughirah bin Abdullah bin Amr bin Makhzum. Ibn Ishaq continued, The Quraysh began to organize their efforts to rebuild the Ka'bah, each subtribe taking the responsibility of rebuilding a designated part of it. However, they were still weary about bringing down the Ka'bah. Al-Walid bin Al-Mughirah said, will start to bring it down. He held an ax and stood by the Ka'bah and said, O Allah! No harm is meant. O Allah! We only seek to do a good service. He then started to chop the House's stones. The people waited that night and said, *We will wait and see. If something strikes him, we will not bring it down and instead rebuild it the way it was. If nothing happens to him, then Allah will have agreed to what we are doing. The next morning, Al-Walid went to work on the Ka'bah, and the people started bringing the Ka'bah down with him. When they reached the foundations that Ibrahim built, they uncovered green stones that were above each other, just like a pile of spears. Ibn Ishaq then said that some people told him, A man from Quraysh, who was helping rebuild the Ka'bah, placed the shovel between two of these stones to pull them up; when one of the stones was moved, all of Makkah shook, so they did not dig up these stones.

12 The Dispute regarding Who should place the Black Stone in Its Place Ibn Ishaq said, The tribes of Quraysh collected stones to rebuild the House, each tribe collecting on their own. They started rebuilding it, until the rebuilding of the Ka'bah reached the point where the Black Stone was to be placed in  Ibn Hisham 1 :204. * Ibn Hisham 1 :207

Al-Baqarah (125 - 149) (Part-1) its designated site. A dispute erupted between the various tribes of Quraysh, each seeking the honor of placing the Black Stone for their own tribe. The dispute almost led to violence between the leaders of Quraysh in the area of the Sacred House. Banu Abd Ad-Dar and Banu Adi bin Ka'b bin Lu'ay, gave their mutual pledge to fight until death. However, five or four days later, Abu Umayyah bin Al-Mughirah bin Abdullah bin Amr bin Makhzum, the oldest man from Quraysh then intervened at the right moment. Abu Umayyah suggested that Quraysh should appoint the first man to enter the House from its entrance to be a mediator between them. They agreed. The Messenger - Muhammad (ﷺ) - was the first person to enter the House. When the various leaders of Quraysh realized who the first one was, they all proclaimed, This is Al-Amin (the Honest one). We all accept him; This is Muhammad. When the Prophet (ﷺ) reached the area where the leaders were gathering and they informed him about their dispute, he asked them to bring a garment and place it on the ground. He placed the Black Stone on it. He then requested that each of the leaders of Quraysh hold the garment from one side and all participate in lifting the Black Stone, moving it to its designated area. Next, the Prophet (ﷺ) carried the Black Stone by himself and placed it in its designated position and built around it. The Quraysh used to call the Messenger of Allah Al-Amin even before the revelation came to him. Ibn Az-Zubayr rebuilds Al-Ka'bah the way the Prophet (ﷺ) wished Ibn Ishaq said, During the time of the Prophet (ﷺ), the Ka'bah was eighteen cubits high and was covered with Egyptian linen, and they with a striped garment. Al-Hajjaj bin Yusuf was the first person to cover it with silk. The Ka'bah remained the same way the Quraysh rebuilt it, until it was burned during the reign of Abdullah bin Az-Zubayr, after the year 60 H, at the end of the reign of Yazid bin Mu'awiyah. During that time, Ibn Az-Zubayr was besieged at Makkah. When it was burned, Ibn Az-Zubayr brought the Ka'bah down and built it upon the foundations of Ibrahim, including the Hijr m Ibn Hisham 1 :21 1 in it. He also made an eastern door and a western door in the Ka'bah and placed them on ground level. He had heard his aunt A'ishah, the Mother of the believers, narrate that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) had wished that. The Ka'bah remained like this throughout his reign, until Al-Hajjaj killed Ibn Az- Zubayr and then rebuilt it the way it was before, by the order of Abdul-Malik bin Marwan.

from Al-Hijr and would have made a door for it that people could enter from, and another door that they could exit from. Ibn Az-Zubayr said, can spend on this job, and I do not fear the people. So he added five cubits from the Hijr, which looked like a rear part for the House that people could clearly see. He then built the House and made it eighteen cubits high. He thought that the House was still short and added ten cubits in the front and built two doors in it, one as an entrance and another as an exit. When Ibn Az-Zubayr was killed, Al-Hajjaj wrote to Abdul- Malik bin Marwan asking him about the House and told him that Ibn Az-Zubayr made a rear section for the House. Abdul- Malik wrote back, *We do not agree with Ibn Az-Zubayr's actions. As for the Ka'bah's height, leave it as it is. As for what he added from the Hijr, bring it down, and build the House as it was before and close the door. Therefore, Al-Hajjaj brought down the House and rebuilt it as it was. * In his Sunan,

Your people rebuilt the House smaller. Had it not been for the fact that your people are not far from the time of Shirk, I would add what was left outside of it. If your people afterwards think about rebuilding it, let me show you what they left out of it. He showed her around seven cubits. One of the narrators of the Hadith, Al-Walid bin Ata, added that the Prophet said, :JU .f :iii :cJU \j j Slj "/ would have made two doors for the House on ground level, one eastern and one western. Do you know why your people raised its door above ground level?" She said, No. He said, To allow only those whom they wanted to enter it. This supplication by Ibrahim and Ismail is similar to what Allah informed us of about His believing servants, 4;v.:CC\ iAnd those who say : 'Our Lord! Bestow on us from our wives and our offspring the comfort of our eyes, and make us leaders of the Muttaqin} (25:74). This type of supplication is allowed, because loving to have offspring who worship Allah alone without partners is a sign of complete love of Allah. This is why when Allah said to Ibrahim, JtttC ^} iVerily, I am going to make you an Imam (a leader) for mankind (to follow you)} Ibrahim said, JC 1 JU tjffj* Lrt-j} i And of my offspring (to make leaders)." Ibrahim raised the House's foundations and completed the building. Jibril held Ibrahim's hand, led him to As-Safa and said, This is among the rituals of Allah. He then took him to Al-Marwah and said, And this is among the rituals of Allah. He then took him to Mina until when they reached the Aqabah, they found Iblls standing next to a tree. Jibril said, Say Takbir (Allah is the Great) and throw (pebbles) at him. Ibrahim said the Takbir and threw (pebbles at) Iblls. Iblls moved to the middle Jamrah, and when Jibril and Ibrahim passed by him, Jibril said to Ibrahim, Say Takbir and throw at him. Ibrahim threw at him and said Takbir. The devious Iblls sought to add some evil acts to the rituals of Hajj, but he was unable to succeed. Jibril took Ibrahim's hand and led him to Al-Mash'ar al-Haram and Arafat and said to him, Have you Arafta (known, learned) what I showed you? thrice. Ibrahim always singled out Allah in worship, with sincerity, and he did not call upon others besides Allah. He did not commit Shirk, even for an instant. He disowned every other deity that was being worshipped instead of Allah and defied all his people in this regard. Prophet Ibrahim said, s + } * " 31 "iXp> uj 4^-i} 4%\^ ft Zj 40 my people! He said, "I have submitted myself (as a Muslim) to the Lord of the Alamin (mankind, Jinn and all that exists). } This Ayah indicates that Allah commanded Ibrahim to be sincere with Him and to abide and submit to Him; Ibrahim perfectly adhered to Allah s command. Allah s statement, 4And this (submission to Allah, Islam) xvas enjoined by Ibrahim upon his sons and by Ya'qub} means, Ibrahim commanded his offspring to follow this religion, that is, Islam, for Allah. Or, the Ayah might be referring to Ibrahim s words, 4I have submitted myself (as a Muslim) to the Lord of the 'Alamitt (mankind, Jinn and all that exists)}. This means that these Prophets loved these words so much that they preserved them until the time of death and advised their children to adhere to them after them. Similarly, Allah said, ^ Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :392.

Al-Baqarah (125 - 149) Part-1) 4And he (Ibrahim) made it [i.e. La ildha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah alone)] a Word lasting among his offspring, (true Monotheism)} (43:28). It might be that Ibrahim advised his children, including Jacob, Isaac s son, who were present. It appears, and Allah knows best, that Isaac was endowed with Jacob, during the lifetime of Ibrahim and Sarah, for the good news includes both of them in Allah s statement, J*"-l Ao jtJ -I }But We gave her (Sarah) glad tidings of Islidq (Isaac), and after Ishaq, of Ya'qub (Jacob)} (11:71). Also, if Jacob was not alive then, there would be no use here in mentioning him specifically among Isaac s children. Also, Allah said in Surat Al- Ankabut, iro* j liLiy JjyUjj S-0(^rkt)} 4And We bestowed on him (Ibrahim), Ishaq and Ya'qub, and We ordained among his offspring prophethood and the Book.} (29:27), and, ^ &a^} }And We bestowed upon him Ishaq, and (a grandson) Ya'qub} (21:72), thus, indicating that this occurred during Ibrahim s lifetime. Also, Jacob built Bayt Al-Maqdis, as earlier books testified. The Two Sahihs recorded that Abu Dharr said, I said, O Messenger of Allah! Which Masjid was built first? He said, uAl-Masjid Al-Haram (Al-Ka'bah) ." I said, Then? He said, iBayt Al- MaqdisJ I said, How many years later? He said, uForty yearsy Further, the advice that Jacob gave to his children, which we will soon mention, testifies that Jacob was among those who received the advice mentioned in Ayat above (2:ISO- 132). They said, We shall worship your Ildh (God - Allah) the Ildh of your fathers, Ibrahim, Ismd'il, Isfiah," } Mentioning Ismail here is a figure of speech, because Ismail is Jacob s uncle. An-Nahas said that the Arabs call the uncle a father, as Al-Qurtubi mentioned^ This Ayah is used as evidence that the grandfather is called a father and inherits, rather than the brothers (i.e. when his son dies), as Abu Bakr asserted, according to Al-Bukhari who narrated Abu Bakr s statement from Ibn Abbas and Ibn Az- Zubayr. Al-Bukhari then commented that there are no opposing opinions regarding this subject.¹²¹ This is also the opinion of A ishah the Mother of the believers, Al-Hasan Al- Basri, Tawus and Ata , Malik, Ash-Shafi and Ahmad said that ¹¹¹ Al-Qurtubi 2:138. ¹²¹ PathAl-B&ri 12:19.

408 Tafstr Ibn Kathtr the inheritance is divided between the grandfather and the brothers. In summary, Allah's Messenger sg was commanded to face Bayt Al-Maqdis (during the prayer) and he used to offer prayer towards it in Makkah between the two corners (of Ka'bah), so that the Ka'bah would be between him and Bayt Al-Maqdis⁸. When the Prophet jg migrated to Al-Madinah, this practice was no longer possible; then Allah commanded him to offer prayer towards Bayt Al-Maqdis, as Ibn Abbas and the majority of the scholars have stated. Al-Bukhari reported in his Sahih that the news (of the change of Qiblah) was conveyed to some of the Ansar while they were performing the Asr (Afternoon) prayer towards Bayt Al-Maqdis, upon hearing that, they immediately changed their direction and faced the Ka'bah. It is reported in the Sahihayn (Al-Bukhari & Muslim) that Ibn Umar narrated: While the people were in Quba (Mosque) performing the Fajr (Dawn) prayer, a man came and said, A (part of the) Qur'an was revealed tonight to Allah's Messenger jg and he was commanded to face the Ka'bah. Therefore, face the Ka'bah. They were facing Ash-Sham, so they turned towards the Ka'bah^P These Hadiths prove that the Nasikh (a Text that abrogates a previous Text) only applies after one acquires knowledge of it, even if the Nasikh had already been revealed and announced. This is why the Companions mentioned above were not commanded to repeat the previous Asr, Maghrib and Isha prayers (although they had prayed them towards Jerusalem after Allah had changed the Qiblah). Allah knows best. When the change of Qiblah (to Ka'bah in Makkah) occurred, those inflicted with hypocrisy and mistrust, and the disbelieving Jews, both were led astray from the right guidance and fell into confusion. They said: 9?&* & u 3:138. I2 ' Al-Bukhari no. 399. These people were from the tribe of Banu Salamah Fath Al-B&ri 8 :24 , and Muslim 1 :375

Allah answered their questions when He stated: iSay (O Muliammad jg); "To Allah belong both, east and the west meaning, the command, the decision and the authority are for Allah Alone. Hence: 4 ...so wherever you turn (yourselves or your faces) there is the Face of Allah (and He is High above, over His Throne).} (2:115), and: 4?^* J ie jf l$ j \jy o' 'Jf Jj 4 4 It is not Al-Birr (piety, righteousness) that you turn your faces towards east and (or) west (in prayers); but Al-Birr is the one who believes in Allah.} (2:177) This statement means, the best act is to adhere to Allah s commands. Hence, wherever He commands us to face, we should face. Also, since obedience requires implementing Allah s commands, if He commands us every day to face different places, we are His servants and under His disposal, and we face whatever He orders us to face. Certainly, Allah s care and kindness towards His servant and Messenger, Muhammad sg, and certainly, his Ummah (Muslim nation) is profoundly great. Allah has guided them to the Qiblah of (Prophet) Ibrahim - Allah s Khalil (intimate friend). He has commanded them to face the Ka'bah, the most honorable house (of worship) on the face of the earth, which was built by Ibrahim Al-Khalil in the Name of Allah, the One without a partner. This is why Allah said afterwards:

iSay (O Muhammad jg) : "To Allah belong both, east and the west. Allah stated that He has changed our Qiblah to the Qiblah of Ibrahim and chose it for us so that He makes us the best nation ever. Hence, we will be the witnesses over the nations on the Day of Resurrection, for all of them will then agree concerning our virtue. The word Wasat in the Ayah means the best and the most honored. Therefore, saying that (the Prophet s tribe) Quraysh is in the Wasat regarding Arab tribes and their areas, means the best. Similarly, saying that Allah s Messenger was in the Wasat of his people, means he was from the best subtribe. Also, 'Asr, the prayer that is described as Wusfa (a variation of the word Wasat), means the best prayer, as the authentic collections of Ahadith reported. Since Allah made this Ummah (Muslim nation) the Wasaf, He has endowed her with the most complete legislation, the best m Ahmad 6 :134.

It is they who believe that Allah does what He wills, decides what He wills, commands His servants with what He wills, abrogates any of His commands that He wills, and that He has the perfect wisdom and the unequivocal proof in all this. (The attitude of the believers in this respect is) unlike those who have a disease in their hearts, to whom whenever a matter occurs, it causes doubts, just as this same matter adds faith and certainty to the believers. Similarly, Allah said: I & kj Ztj plaS jjj J di pT ,!> 4 }And whenever there comes down a Surah (chapter from the Qur'an), some of them (hypocrites) say: Which of you has had his faith increased by it?" Some scholars stated that the Early Migrants 427Siirah 2. Al-Baqarah (125 - 149) (Part-2) (who migrated with the Prophet sis from Makkah to Al-Madlnah) and Ansar (the residents of Al-Madlnah who gave aid and refuge to both the Prophet s and

And Allah would never make your faith to be lost entails: Your (prayer towards) the first Qiblah and your believing your Prophet and obeying him by facing the second Qiblah; He will grant you the rewards for all these acts. Indeed, could it not be truly, Allah is full of kindness, the Most Merciful towards mankind. Furthermore, it is reported in the Sahih that Allah's Messenger saw a woman among the captives who was separated from her child. Whenever she found a boy (infant) among the captives, she would hold him close to her chest, as she was looking for her boy. When she found her child, she embraced him and gave him her breast to nurse. Allah's Messenger said: "Do you think that this woman would willingly throw her son in the fire?" They said, No, O Messenger of Allah! He said, By Allah! Allah is more merciful with His servants than this woman with her son." (21 j y * "" Jjt I4 . And wheresoever you people are, turn your faces (in prayer) in that direction. Certainly, the people who were given the Scripture (i.e., Jews 111 Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :99. Muslim 4:2109.

Al-Baqarah (125 - 149) (Part-2) and Christians) know well that, that (your turning towards the direction of the Ka'bah at Makkah in prayers) is the truth from their Lord. And Allah is not unaware of what they do. The First Abrogation in the Qur'an was about the Qiblah. Ali bin Abu Talhah related that Ibn Abbas narrated: The first abrogated part in the Qur'an was about the Qiblah. When Allah's Messenger migrated to Al-Madinah, the majority of its people were Jews, and Allah commanded him to face Bayt Al-Maqdis. The Jews were delighted then. Allah's Messenger faced it for ten and some months, but he liked to face the Qiblah of Ibrahim (Ka'bah in Makkah). He used to supplicate to Allah and look up to the sky (awaiting Allah's command). Allah then revealed: "Verily, We have seen the turning of your (Muhammad's) face towards the heaven, until, itum your faces (in prayer) in that direction. } The Jews did not like this ruling and said: 'What has turned them (Muslims) from their Qiblah (prayer direction) to which they used to face in prayer.' Say (O Muhammad), 'To Allah belong both, east and the west.'" (2: 142) Allah said: '...so wherever you turn (yourselves or your faces) there is the Face of Allah' (2:115), and: 'And We made the Qiblah (prayer direction towards Jerusalem) 111 Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :103.

only you used to face, only to test those who followed the Messenger (Muhammad) from those who would turn on their heels (i.e., disobey the Messenger). } (2:143) Is the Qiblah the Ka'bah itself for its General Direction? Al-Hakim related that Ali bin Abu Talib said: "...so turn your face in the direction of Al-Masjid Al-Haram (at Makkah). } means its direction. 11 ' Al-Hakim then commented that the chain of this narration is authentic and that they (i.e., Al-Bukhari and Muslim) did not include it in their collections. This ruling concerning the Qiblah is also the opinion of Abu Al- Aliyah, Mujahid, Ikrimah, Said bin Jubayr, Qatadah, Ar- Rabl bin Anas and others.' 2' Allah's Statement: "And wheresoever you people are, turn your faces (in prayer) in that direction" is a command from Allah to face the Ka'bah from wherever one is on the earth: the east, west, north or south. The exception is of the voluntary prayer {Nafl) while one is traveling, for one is allowed to offer it in any direction his body is facing, while his heart is intending the Ka'bah. Also, when the battle is raging, one is allowed to offer prayer, however he is able. Also, included are those who are not sure of the direction and offer prayer in the wrong direction, thinking that it is the direction of the Qiblah, because Allah does not burden a soul beyond what it can bear. The Jews had Knowledge that the (Muslim) Qiblah would later be changed Allah stated that: " Al-Mustadrak 2 :269 IbnAbiHatim 1:107-109.

The Jews read in their Books their Prophets' description of Allah s Messenger and his Ummah, and that Allah has endowed and honored him with the complete and honorable legislation. Yet, the People of the Book deny these facts because of their envy, disbelief and rebellion. This is why Allah threatened them when He said: ui jii j} " }And Allah is not unaware of what they do.} Lj ctiSlj [)A^j U ij" uf |"LJ' 4 lii "f &Sj Ja ijj gjj. 4245. And they will not follow each other's Qiblah. Verily, if you follow their desires after that which you have received of knowledge (from Allah), then indeed you will be one of the wrongdoers.} The Stubbornness and Disbelief of the Jews Allah describes the Jews disbelief, stubbornness and defiance of what they know of the truth of Allah s Messenger jg, that if the Prophet jg brought forward every proof to the truth of what he was sent with, they will never obey him or abandon following their desires. In another instance, Allah said:

iTruhj, those, against whom the Word (wrath) of your Lord has been justified, will not believe. Even if every sign should come to them, until they see the painful torment.} (10:96, 97) This is why Allah said here: iyji hf& ia&i yS u 4And even if you were to bring to the People of the Scripture (Jews and Christians) all the Ayat (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.), they would not follow your Qiblah (prayer direction)}. Allah s statement: 4 . . .nor are you going to follow their Qiblah $>, indicates the vigor with which Allah s Messenger jg implements what Allah commanded him. Allah s statement also indicates that as much as the Jews adhere to their opinions and desires, the Prophet sg adheres by Allah s commands, obeying Him and following what pleases Him, and that he would never adhere to their desires in any case. Hence, praying towards Bayt Al-Maqdis was not because it was the Qiblah of the Jews, but because Allah had commanded it. Allah then warns those who knowingly defy the truth, because the proof against those who know is stronger than against other people. This is why Allah said to His Messenger jg and his Ummah: ^ ms& Tr * m* * - \+ t .0)1 CJ&.jLP&ss^XmjpkasaiSyj

Why was changing the Qiblah mentioned thrice?

[Tafsir Ibn Kathir (Abridged), Darussalam English Edition, PDF pp. 436–447]

This is a third command from Allah to face Al-Masjid Al- Haram (the Sacred Mosque) from every part of the world (during prayer). It was said that Allah mentioned this ruling again here because it is connected to whatever is before and whatever is after it. Hence, Allah first said: y^ / / // # J ^ # t ^ v i Verily, We have seen the turning of your (Muhammad's) face to wards the heaven. Surely, We shall turn you to a Qiblah (prayer direction) that shall please you) (2:144), until: *(lie. Jiytf Uj p-fcd OylLd wACii iCertainly, the people who were given the Scripture (i.e., feius and the Christians) knozv well that, that (your turning towards the direction of the Ka'bah at Makkah in prayers) is the truth from their Lord. And Allah is not unaware of what they do.) (2:144) Allah mentioned in these Ayat His fulfillment of the Prophet s wish and ordered him to face the Qiblah that he liked and is pleased with. In the second command, Allah said: And from wheresoever you start forth (for prayers), turn your face in the direction of Al-Masid Al-Haram that is indeed the truth from your Lord. And Allah is not unaware of what you do.) Therefore, Allah states here that changing the Qiblah is also the truth from Him, thus upgrading the subject more than in the first Ayah, in which Allah agreed to what His Prophet had wished for. Thus Allah states that this is also the truth from Him that He likes and is pleased with. In the third command, Allah refutes the Jewish assertion that the Prophet M faced their Qiblah, as they knew in their Books that the Prophet gg will later on be commanded to face the Qiblah of Ibrahim, the Ka'bah. The Arab disbelievers had no more argument concerning the Prophet s Qiblah after Allah commanded the Prophet gg to face the Qiblah of Ibrahim, which is more respected and honored, rather than the Qiblah of the Jews. The Arabs used to honor the Ka'bah and liked the fact that the Messenger gs was commanded to face it. The Wisdom behind abrogating the Previous Qiblah Allah said: ...so that men may have no argument against you ^ Therefore, the People of the Book knew from the description of the Muslim Ummah that they would be ordered to face the Ka'bah. If the Muslims did not fit this description, the Jews would have used this fact against the Muslims. If the Muslims had remained on the Qiblah of Bayt Al-Maqdis, which was also the Qiblah of the Jews, this fact could have been used as the basis of argument by the Jews against other people. Allah s Statement: ...except those of them that are wrongdoers, indicates the Mushrikin (polytheists) of Quraysh. The reasoning of these unjust persons was the unsound statement: This man (Muhammad) claims that he follows the religion of Ibrahim! Hence, if his facing Bayt Al-Maqdis was a part of the religion of Ibrahim, why did he change it? The answer to this question is that Allah has chosen His Prophet gg to face Bayt Al-Maqdis first for certain wisdom, and he obeyed Allah regarding this command. Then, Allah changed the Qiblah to the Qiblah of Ibrahim, which is the Ka'bah, and he also obeyed Allah in this command. He, obeys Allah in all cases and never engages in the defiance of Allah even for an instant, and his Ummah imitates him in this.

Allah said: 4...sofear them not, butfear Me!} meaning: Do not fear the doubts that the unjust, stubborn persons raise and fear Me Alone. Indeed, Allah Alone deserves to be feared. Allah said: 4&&& 4...so that I may completeMy blessings on you.} This Ayah relates to Allah s statement: j & jjUjj, h,} .so that men may have no argument against you}, meaning: I will perfect My bounty on you by legislating for you to face the Ka bah, so that the (Islamic) Shari ah (law) is complete in every respect. Muhammad's Prophecy is a Great Bounty from Allah Allah reminds His believing servants withwhatHe has endowed them with by sending Muhammad as a Messenger to them, reciting to them Allah s clear Ayat and purifying and cleansing them from the worst types of behavior, the ills of the souls and the acts of JdhUiyyah (pre-Islamic era). The Messenger 3 also takes them away from the darkness (of disbelief) to the light (of faith) and teaches them the Book, the Qur an, and the Hikmah (i.e., the wisdom), which is his Sunnah. He also teaches them what they knew not. During the time of JdhUiyyah, they used to utter foolish statements. Later on, and with the blessing of the Prophet s Message and the goodness of his prophecy, they were elevated to the status of the Awliya (loyal friends of Allah) and the rank of the scholars. Hence, they acquired the deepest knowledge among the people, the most pious hearts, and the most truthful tongues. Allah said: 'aM i j >' * f. - Scuiifi .U ill ilndeed, Allah conferred a greatfavor on the believers when He sent among them a Messenger (Muhammad from among themselves, reciting unto them His verses (the Qur an), and purifying them (from sins).} (3:164) Allah also criticized those who did not give this bounty its due consideration, when He said: 4 r J,* $ illi ijlje j) J fi\} iHave you not seen those who have changed thefavors ofAllah into disbelief (by denying Prophet Muhammad and his Message ofIslam), and caused their people to dwell in the house ofdestruction?} (14:28) Ibn Abbas commented, Allah s favor means Muhammad. The Virtue of Patience and Prayer After Allah commanded that He be appreciated, He ordained patience and prayer. Earlier we mentioned Allah's statement: "And seek help in patience and As-Saldh (the prayer) and tndy, it is extremely heavy and hard except for Al-Khdshi'in [i.e., the true believers in Allah] (2:45) There are several types of Sabr (patience): one for avoiding the prohibitions and sins, one for acts of worship and obedience. The second type carries more rewards than the first (1:1) * Ahmad 4:438. > Muslim 4:2292.

Al-Baqarah (150 - 174) (Part-2) type. There is a third type of patience required in the face of the afflictions and hardships, which is mandatory, like repentance. Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam said, Sabr has two parts: patience for the sake of Allah concerning what He is pleased with (i.e., acts of worship and obedience), even if it is hard on the heart and the body, and patience when avoiding what He dislikes, even if it is desired. Those who acquire these qualities will be among the patient persons whom Allah shall greet (when they meet Him in the Hereafter; refer to Surat Al-Ahzab 33:44), Allah willing. 111 The Life enjoyed by Martyrs Allah's statement: "And say not of those who are killed in the way of Allah, "They are dead. Nay, they are living indicates that the martyrs are alive and receiving their sustenance. Muslim reported in his Sahih (C) (tj) (a) (Jb) (il) (jj) (jl) (li) (U) (JU) (i) (Aijj) (e) (Jj) (Jl) (Si) (JL) (ia) (J) (U) (Ll) (ix) (P) (I) (j) (Sj) (J) (li) (j) (I) (f) (li) (j) (y) (w) (I) (j) (U) (l) (Jia) (I) (j) (I) (o) (js) (tij) (s) (Ais) (jii) (ji) (L) (i) (j) (21) (ui) (jii) (jijji) (J) (L) (a) (J) (L) (fs) (Jyl) (S1) (1) (tj) (ji) "T7ie sow/s O/ f/ie martyrs are inside green birds and move about in Paradise wherever they wish. (47:31) Hence, He tests them with the bounty sometimes and sometimes with the afflictions of fear and hunger. Allah said in another Ayah (J-Q) (111) (4) So Allah made it taste extreme of hunger (famine) and fear. (16:112) The frightened and the hungry persons show the effects of the affliction outwardly and this is why Allah has used here the word Libas (cover or clothes) of fear and hunger. In the Ayat above, Allah used the words: iwith something offear, hunger,} meaning, a little of each. Then (Allah said), Sj oftj} iloss ofwealth, } meaning, some of the wealth will be destroyed, ij*%} Olives} meaning, losing friends, relatives and loved ones to death, iattd fruits,} meaning, the gardens and the farms will not produce the usual or expected amounts. This is why Allah said next: ^j} 4but give glad tidings to As-Sdbirfn (the patient). } He then explained whom He meant by the patient whom He praised:

446 Tafstr Ibt Kathir 5 4 j&} 4W7io, when afflicted with calamity, say: "Truly, to Allah we belong and truly, to Him we shall return . They also know that nothing and no deed, even if it was the weight of an atom, will be lost with Allah on the Day of Resurrection. These facts thus compel them to admit that they are Allah s servants and that their return will be to Him in the Hereafter. This is why Allah said: ... y . A* ", A_r-i\ Lit iThey are those on whom are the Salawat (i.e., who are blessed and will be forgiven) from their Lord, and (they are those who) receive His mercy,> meaning, Allah s praise and mercy will be with them. during Afflictions There are several Ahadith that mention the rewards of admitting that the return is to Allah by saying: #21 fyj k fy) i"Truly, to Allah we belong and truly, to Him we shall return.'y when afflictions strike. For instance, Imam Ahmad reported that Umm Salamah narrated: Once, Abu Salamah came back after he was with Allah s Messenger jg and said: I heard Allah s Messenger jg recite a statement that made me delighted. He said: \j^-\ Aj iIlJS Jii Slj 1 1$-; ij\ es? 4No Muslim is struck with an affliction and then says Istirja when the affliction strikes, and then says : 'O Allah! Rezoard me for my loss and give me what is better than it/ but Allah will do just that. Umm Salamah said: So I memorized these words. When Abu Salamah died I said Istitja.' and said: O Allah! Compensate me for my loss and give me what is better than it. I then thought about it and said, Who is better than Abu Salamah? When my Iddah (the period of time before the widow or divorced woman can remarry) finished, Allah s Messenger sg asked for permission to see me while I was dyeing a skin that I had. I washed my hands, gave him permission to enter and handed him a pillow, and he sat on it. He then asked me for marriage and when he finished his speech, I said, O Messenger of Allah! It is not because I do not want you, but I am very jealous and I fear that you might experience some wrong mannerism from me for which Allah would punish me. I am old and have children. The Meaning of “it is not a sin” in the Ayah

Imam Ahmad reported that Urwah said that he asked A'ishah about what Allah stated: Verily, As-Safa and Al-Marwah (two mountains in Makkah) are of the symbols of Allah. So it is not a sin on him who performs Hajj or 'Umrah (pilgrimage) of the House (the Ka'bah at Makkah) to perform the going (Tawaf) between them (As-Safa and Al-Marwah). By Allah! It is not a sin if someone did not perform Tawaf around them. A'ishah said, Worst is that which you said, O my nephew! If this is the meaning of it, it should have read, It is not a sin! Ahmad 4:27, 2:633. The names of the two small mountains that the pilgrims walk and run between during the rites of 'Umrah.

Al-Baqarah (150 - 174) (Part-2) is not a sin if one did not perform Tawaf around them. Rather, the Ayah was revealed regarding the Ansar, who before Islam, used to assume Ihlal (or Ihram for Hajj) in the area of Mushallal for their idol Manat that they used to worship. Those who assumed Ihlal for Manat, used to hesitate to perform Tawaf (going) between Mounts As-Safa and Al-Marwah. So they (during the Islamic era) asked Allah's Messenger about it, saying, O Messenger of Allah! During the time of Jahiliyyah, we used to hesitate to perform Tawaf between As-Safa and Al-Marwah. Allah then revealed: Verily, As-Safa and Al-Marwah are of the symbols of Allah. So it is not a sin on him who performs Hajj or 'Umrah of the House to perform the going (Tawaf) between them. A'ishah then said, Allah's Messenger has made it the Sunnah to perform Tawaf between them (As-Safa and Al-Marwah), and thus, no one should abandon performing Tawaf between them. This Hadith is reported in the Sahihayn. In another narration, Imam Az-Zuhri reported that Urwah said: Later on I (Urwah) told Abu Bakr bin Abdur-Rahman bin Al-Harith bin Hisham (of A'ishah's statement) and he said, I have not heard of such information. However, I heard learned men saying that all the people, except those whom A'ishah mentioned, said, Our Tawaf between these two hills is a practice of Jahiliyyah. Some others among the Ansar said, We were commanded to perform Tawaf of the Ka'bah, but not between As-Safa and Al-Marwah. So Allah revealed: Verily, As-Safa and Al-Marwah are of the symbols of Allah. Abu Bakr bin Abdur-Rahman then said, It seems that this verse was revealed concerning the two groups. Al-Bukhari collected a similar narration by Anas. Ash-Shahi said, Isaf (an idol) was on As-Safa while Nailah (an idol) was on Al-Marwah, and they used to touch (or kiss) them. After Islam came, they were hesitant about performing Tawaf between them. Thereafter, the Ayah (2:158 above) was revealed. The Wisdom behind legislating Sa'at between As-Safa and Al-Marwah

(an idol) was on Al-Marwah, and they used to touch (or kiss) them. After Islam came, they were hesitant about performing Tawaf between them. Thereafter, the Ayah (2:158 above) was revealed. The Wisdom behind legislating Sa'at between As-Safa and Al-Marwah

Al-Baqarah (150 - 374) (Part-2) Damm. 1 1 Allah has stated that Tawaf between As-Safa and Al-Marwah is among the symbols of Allah, meaning, among the acts that Allah legislated during the Hajj for Prophet Ibrahim. Earlier we mentioned the Hadith by Ibn Abbas that the origin of Tawaf comes from the Tawaf of Hajar (Prophet Ibrahim's wife), between As-Safa and Al-Marwah seeking water for her son (Isma'il) Ibrahim had left them in Makkah, where there was no habitation for her. When Hajar feared that her son would die, she stood up and begged Allah for His help and kept going back and forth in that blessed area between As-Safa and Al-Marwah. She was humble, fearful, frightened and meek before Allah. Allah answered her prayers, relieved her of her loneliness, ended her dilemma and made the well of Zamzam bring forth its water for her, which is: OaJij . -"As "A tasty (or nutritional) food and a remedy for the illness ." Therefore, whoever performs Sa't between As-Safa and Al-Marwah should remember his meekness, humbleness and need for Allah to guide his heart, lead his affairs to success and forgive his sins. He should also want Allah to eliminate his shortcomings and errors and to guide him to the straight path. He should ask Allah to keep him firm on this path until he meets death, and to change his situation from that of sin and errors to that of perfection and being forgiven, the same providence which was provided to Hajar. Allah then states: fcp&& 4And whoever does good voluntarily. $ It was said that the Ayah describes performing Tawaf more than seven times, it was also said that it refers to voluntary Umrah or Hajj. It was also said that it means volunteering to do good works in general, as Ar-Razi has stated. The third opinion was attributed to Al-Hasan Al-Basri.^ Allah knows best. A form of expiation in which an animal is slaughtered in Makkah and distributed among the poor Ar-Razi 4 :146.

Allah states: ^iJc $12 if6...then verily, Allah is All-Recognizer, All-Knower.) meaning, Allah's reward is immense for the little deed, and He knows about the sufficiency of the reward. They will abide therein (under the curse in Hell), their punishment will neither be lightened nor will they be reprieved). The Eternal Curse for Those Who hide Religious Commandments These Ayat sternly warn against those who hide the clear signs that the Messengers were sent with which guide to the correct path and beneficial guidance for the hearts, after Allah Al-Baqarah (150 - 174) (Part-2) has made such aspects clear for His servants through the Books that He revealed to His Messengers. Abu Al-'Aliyah said that these Ayat, were revealed about the People of the Scripture who hid the description of Muhammad jg. Allah then states that everything curses such people for this evil act. Certainly, just as everything asks for forgiveness for the scholar, even the fish in the sea and the bird in the air, then those who hide knowledge are cursed by Allah and by the cursers. A Hadith in the Musnad, narrated through several chains of narrators, that strengthens the overall judgment of the Hadith, states that Abu Hurayrah narrated that Allah's Messenger jg said: IrJ pi* If Jr- "Whoever was asked about knowledge that one has, but he hid it, then a bridle made of fire will be tied around his mouth on the Day of Resurrection It is also recorded by Al-Bukhari that Abu Hurayrah said, If it was not for an Ayah in Allah's Book, I would not have narrated a Hadith for anyone: iVerily, those who conceal the clear proofs, evidences and the guidance, which We have sent down,} {3} Mujahid said, When the earth is struck by drought, the animals say, This is because of the sinners among the Children of Adam. May Allah curse the sinners among the Children of Adam. Abu Al- Aliyah, Ar-Rabl bin Anas and Qatadah said that iand cursed by the cursers} means that the angels and the believers will curse them. 5 ' Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :170. 2:495. Al-Bari 1 :258. 4| Ibn Abi Hatim 1:175. ' Ibn Abi Hatim 1:174.

Moreover, a Hadith states that everything, including the fish in the sea, asks for forgiveness for the scholars. The Ayah (2:159 above) states that those who hide the knowledge will be cursed, (in this life and) on the Day of Resurrection, by Allah, the angels, all humanity, and those who curse (including the animals) each in its own distinct way. Allah knows best. From this punishment, Allah excluded all who repent to Him: ijtf ^Except those who repent and do righteous deeds, and openly declare (the truth which they concealed). This Ayah refers to those who regret what they have been doing and correct their behavior and, thus, explain to the people what they have been hiding. 4.Art)' 4$' tits iThese, I will accept their repentance. And I am the One Wlw accepts repentance, the Most Merciful. $ This Ayah also indicates that those who used to call to innovation, or even disbelief, and repent to Allah, then Allah will forgive them. Allah afterwards states that those who disbelieve in Him and remain in this state until they die, then: iit is they on whom is the curse ofAllah and of the angels and of mankind, combined. They will abide therein (under the curse in Hell). Therefore, they will suffer the eternal curse until the Day of Resurrection and after that in the fire of Jahannam, where, itheir punishment ivill neither be lightened Hence, the torment will not be decreased for them, i will they be reprieved. ^ The torment will not be changed or tempered for even an hour. Rather, it is continuous and eternal. We seek refuge with Allah from this evil end. Cursing the Disbelievers is allowed There is no disagreement that it is lawful to curse the disbelievers. Umar bin Al-Khattab and the Imams after him used to curse the disbelievers in their Qunut (a type of supplication) during the prayer and otherwise. As for cursing a specific disbeliever, some scholars stated that it is not allowed to curse him, because we do not know how Allah will make his end. Others said that it is allowed to curse individual disbelievers. For proof, they mention the story about the man who was brought to be punished repeatedly for drinking (alcohol), a man said, May Allah curse him! He is being brought repeatedly (to be flogged for drinking). Allah's Messenger jg said: Do not curse him, for he loves Allah and His Messengers. 111 This Hadith indicates that it is allowed to curse those who do not love Allah and His Messenger sg. Allah knows best. 244 V is4 4163. And your Hah (Cod) is One Halt (God - Allah), La ildha ilia Huiua (there is none who has the right to be worshipped but He), the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.) In this Ayah, Allah mentions that He is the only deity, and that He has no partners or equals. He is Allah, the One and Only, the Sustainer, and there is no deity worthy of worship except Him. He is the Most Gracious Ar-Rahman, the Most Merciful Ar-Rahlm. We explained the meanings of these two Names in the beginning of Surat Al-Fatihah. Shahr bin Hawshab reported that Asma bint Yazid bin As-Sakan narrated that Allah's Messenger jg said: jzy*&&j 4*^'^^ |s "Allah's Greatest Name is contained in these tzvo Ayah: f'nV; &&$44V is4 Abdur-Razzdq 7 :381 , similar with Al-Bukhari, no. 6780.

However, Allah is the only deity worthy of worship, Who has neither rival nor opponent nor partner. It is reported in the Sahihayn that Abdullah bin Mas'ud said: I said, O Messenger of Allah! Issue: According to Ash-Shafit and other scholars, milk and eggs that are inside dead unslaughtered animals are not pure, because they are part of the dead animal. In one narration from him, Malik said that they are pure themselves, but become impure because of their location. Similarly, there is a difference of opinion over the cheeses (made with the milk) of dead animals. The popular view of the scholars is that it is impure, although they mentioned the fact that the Companions ate from the cheeses made by the Magians (fire worshippers). Hence, Al-Qurtubi commented: Since only a small part of the dead animal is mixed with it, then it is permissible, because a minute amount of impurity does not matter if it is mixed with a large amount of liquid. ,3) Ibn Majah reported that Salman said that Allah's Messenger was asked about butter, cheese and fur. Al-Qurtubi mentioned that A ishah was asked about what non-Muslims slaughter for their feasts and then offer some of it as gifts for Muslims. She said, Do not eat from what has been slaughtered for that day, (or feast) but eat from their vegetables. The Prohibited is Allowed in Cases of Emergency Then Allah permitted eating these things when needed for survival or when there are no permissible types of food available. Allah said: iBut if one is forced by necessity without willful disobedience nor transgressing due limits meaning, without transgression or overstepping the limits, i...then there is no sin on him.)> meaning, if one eats such items, for, *"" iTruly, Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful. Mujahid said, If one is forced by necessity without willful disobedience nor transgressing the set limits. For example, if he didn't, then he would have to resort to highway robbery, rising against the rulers, or some other kinds of disobedience to Allah, then the permission applies to him. If one does so transgressing the limits, or continually, or out of disobedience to Allah, then the permission does not apply to him even if he is in dire need. The same was reported from Said bin Jubayr. Said and Muqatil bin Hayyan are reported to have said that without willful disobedience means, Without believing that it 1,1 Al-Qurtubi 2:224.

Al-Baqarah (150 - 174) (Part-2 is permissible. 11 ' It was reported that Ibn Abbas commented on the Ayah: 4 ...without willful disobedience nor transgressing^ saying, Without willful disobedience means eating the dead animal and not continuing to do so. Qatadah said: 4without willful disobedience^ Without transgressing by eating from the dead animals, that is when the lawful is available. '2' Issue: When one in dire straits finds both dead animals, and foods belong to other people which he could get without risking the loss of his hands or causing harm, then it is not allowed for him to eat the dead animals. Ibn Majah reported that Abbad bin Shurahbil Al-Ghubari said, One year we suffered from famine. I came to Al-Madlnah and entered a garden. I took some grain that I cleaned, and ate, then I left some of it in my garment. The owner of the garden came, roughed me up and took possession of my garment. I then went to Allah's Messenger and told him what had happened. He said to the man: "Yom have not fed him when he was hungry - or he said starving - nor have you taught him if he was ignorant . The Prophet jg commanded him to return Abbad's garment to him, and to offer him a Wasq (around 180 kilograms) - or a half Wasq - of food'3' This has a sufficiently strong chain of narrators and there are many other witnessing narrations to support it, such as the Hadith that Amr bin Shu'ayb narrated from his father that his grandfather said: Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) was asked about the hanging clusters of dates. He said: 111 Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :236. Tabari 3:324. '3| Ibn Majah 2:770.

Criticizing the Jews for concealing what Allah revealed Allah said: t t[] iVerily, those who conceal what Allah has sent down of the Book.} Meaning the Jews who concealed their Book's descriptions of Muhammad (ﷺ), all of which testify to his truth as a Messenger and a Prophet. They concealed this information so that they would not lose authority and the position that they had with the Arabs, where they would bring them gifts, and honor them. The cursed Jews feared that if they announced what they know about Muhammad (ﷺ), then the people would abandon them and follow him. So they hid the truth so that they may retain the little that they were getting, and they sold their souls for this little profit. They preferred the little that they gained over guidance and following the truth, believing in the Messenger (ﷺ) and having faith in what Allah was sent him with. Therefore, they have profited failure and loss in this life and the Hereafter. As for this world, Allah made the truth about His Messenger (ﷺ) known anyway, by the clear signs and the unequivocal proofs. Thereafter, those whom the Jews feared would follow the Prophet (ﷺ), believed in him and followed him anyway, and so they became his supporters against them. Thus, the Jews earned anger on top of the wrath that they already had earned before, and Allah criticized them again many times in His Book. For instance, Allah said in this Ayah (2:174 above): Q . A J. jir iVerily, those who conceal what Allah has sent down of the Book, and purchase a small gain therewith (of worldly things).} meaning, the joys and delights of this earthly life. They thus deserve Allah's anger, so Allah will not look at them or purify them, meaning that He will not praise them but will cause them to taste a severe torment. Then, Allah said about them: US)'& BM {Those are they who have purchased error for guidance.} Hence, they opposed the guidance, that is, not announcing the Prophet's description they find in their Books, the news about his prophecy and the good news of his coming which the previous Prophets proclaimed, as well as following and believing in him. Such are the people of the truth and they are Al-Muttaqun (the pious).} Al-Birr (Piety, Righteousness) This Ayah contains many great wisdoms, encompassing rulings and correct beliefs. As for the explanation of this Ayah, Allah first commanded the believers to face Bayt Al-Maqdis, and then to face the Ka'bah during the prayer. This change was difficult for some of the People of the Book, and even for some Muslims. Then Allah sent revelation which clarified the wisdom behind this command, that is, obedience to Allah, adhering to His commands, facing wherever He commands facing, and implementing whatever He legislates, that is the objective. This is Birr, Taqwa and complete faith. Facing the east or the west does not necessitate righteousness or obedience, unless it is legislated by Allah. This is why Allah said:

,>'* o* jj' !$> Ar &i bb> o' </f is not Birr that you h/m your faces towards east and (or) west (in prayers); but Birr is the one who believes in Allah and the Last Day,} Similarly, Allah said about the sacrifices: 4It is neither their meat nor their blood that reaches Allah, but it is the piety from you that reaches Him.} (22:37) Abu Al- Aliyah said, The Jews used to face the west for their Qiblah, while the Christians used to face the east for their Qiblah. So Allah said: Jj \jy o' jii 411 is not Birr that you turn your faces towards east and (or) west (in prayers)} (2:177) meaning, this is faith, and its essence requires implementation. Similar was reported from Al-Hasan and Ar- Rabi bin AnasJ Ath-Thawri recited: ibut Birr is the one who believes in Alldlt,} and said that what follows are the types of Birr. He has said the truth. and to set servants free} These are the servants who seek to free themselves, but cannot find enough money to buy their freedom. We will mention several of these categories and types under the Tafsir of the Ayah on Sadaqah in Surat Bara'ah [chapter 9 in the Qur'an], In sha Allah. Allah's statement: Al-Muttaqin As-Salah (Iqdamat-As-Salikh) means those who pray on time and give the prayer its due right; the bowing, prostration, and the necessary attention and humbleness required by Allah. Allah's statement: and gives the Zakah means the required charity {Zakah} due on one's money, as Said bin Jubayr and Muqatil bin Hayyan have stated.¹³ ' Allah's statement: and who fulfill their covenant when they make it, 111 Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :259. ' Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :260 ' Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :264

Al-Baqarah (175 - 200) (Part-2) is similar to: '...and who fulfill the covenant of Allah and break not the Mithq (bond, treaty, covenant).' (13:20) The opposite of this characteristic is hypocrisy. As found in a Hadith: ...and who are patient in extreme poverty and ailment (disease) and at the time of fighting (during the battles). means, during the time of meekness and ailment. ...and at the time of fighting (during the battles). means on the battlefield while facing the enemy, as Ibn Mas'ud, Ibn Abbas, Abu Al- Aliyah, Murrah Al-Hamdani, Mujahid, Said bin Jubayr, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, Ar-Rabi bin Anas, As-Suddi, Muqatil bin Hayyan, Abu Malik¹³ ' Ad-Dahhak and others have stated. 141 And calling them the patient here, is a form of praise, because of the importance of patience in these circumstances, and the suffering and difficulties that accompany them. And in Muslim 1 :78. 121 Ibid. [3] Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :270-271 Tabari 3:355.

Allah knows best, it is He Whom help is sought from, and upon Him we rely. Allah's statement: Such are the people of the truth means, whoever acquires these qualities, these are truthful in their faith. This is because they have achieved faith in the heart and realized it in deed and upon the tongue. So they are the truthful, i.e. they are Al-Muttaqin (the pious). because they avoided the prohibitions and performed the acts of obedience. ...and who are patient in extreme poverty and ailment (disease) and at the time of fighting (during the battles). means, during the time of meekness and ailment. ...and at the time of fighting (during the battles). means on the battlefield while facing the enemy, as Ibn Mas'ud, Ibn Abbas, Abu Al- Aliyah, Murrah Al-Hamdani, Mujahid, Said bin Jubayr, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, Ar-Rabi bin Anas, As-Suddi, Muqatil bin Hayyan, Abu Malik¹³ ' Ad-Dahhak and others have stated. 141 And calling them the patient here, is a form of praise, because of the importance of patience in these circumstances, and the suffering and difficulties that accompany them. Al-Baqarah (175 - 200) (Part-2) not transgress the set limits, as others before you transgressed them, and thus changed what Allah has ordained for them.

The reason behind this statement is that (the Jewish tribe of)

Banu An-Nadlr invaded Qurayzah (another Jewish tribe) during the time of JahUiyyah (before Islam) and defeated them. Hence, (they made it a law that) when a person from Nadir kills a person from Quraizah, he is not killed in retaliation, but only pays a hundred IVasq of dates. However, when a person from Quraizah kills a Nadir man, he would be killed for him. If Nadir wanted (to forfeit the execution of the murderer and instead require him) to pay a ransom, the Quraizah man pays two hundred Wasq of dates [double the amount Nadir pays in Diyah (blood money)]. So Allah commanded that justice be observed regarding the penal code, and that the path of the misguided and mischievous persons be avoided, who in disbelief and transgression, defy and alter what Allah has commanded them. Allah said: Al-Qisds (the Law of equality in punishment) is prescribed for you in case of murder: the free for the free, the slave for the slave, and the female for the female. Allah's statement: the free for the free, the slave for the slave, and the female for the female. was abrogated by the statement {life for life} (5:45). However, the majority of scholars agree that the Muslim is not killed for a disbeliever whom he kills. Al-Bukhari reported that Ali narrated that Allah's Messenger said: *The Muslim is not killed for the disbeliever (whom he kills),*²¹ No opinion that opposes this ruling could stand correct, nor is there an authentic Hadith to contradict it. However, Abu I 1 * A camel load, sixty Sa, approximately 165 liters. ^ SahO Al-Bukharino . 111.

Hanifah thought that the Muslim could be killed for a disbeliever, following the general meaning of the Ayah (5:45) in Surat Al-Ma'idah (chapter 5 in the Qur'an). The Four Imams (Abu Hanifah, Malik, Shafil and Ahmad) and the majority of scholars stated that the group is killed for one person whom they murder. Umar said, about a boy who was killed by seven men, If all the residents of San'a (capital of Yemen today) collaborated on killing him, I would kill them all. No opposing opinion was known by the Companions during that time which constitutes a near Ijma' (consensus). There is an opinion attributed to Imam Ahmad that a group of people is not killed for one person whom they kill, and that only one person is killed for one person. Ibn Al-Mundhir also attributed this opinion to Mu'adh, Ibn Az-Zubayr, Abdul-Malik bin Marwan, Az-Zuhri, Ibn Sirin and Habib bin Abu Thabit. Allah's statement: But if the killer is forgiven by the brother (or the relatives) of the killed (against blood money), then it should be sought in a good manner, and paid to him respectfully refers to accepting blood money (by the relatives of the victim in return for pardoning the killer) in cases of intentional murder. This opinion is attributed to Abu Al-Aliyah, Abu Sha'tha, Mujahid, Sa'Id bin Jubayr, Ata Al-Hasan, 11 Qatadah¹² and Muqatil bin Hayyan.¹³¹ Ad-Dahhak said that Ibn Abbas said: But if the killer is forgiven by the brother (or the relatives) of the killed (against blood money) means the killer is pardoned by his brother (i.e., the relative of the victim) and accepting the Diyah after capital punishment becomes due (against the killer), this is the Afw (pardon mentioned in the Ayah). ¹⁴¹ Allah's statement: *111 Ibn Abi flatim 1 : 278-279. 4 ...then it should be sought in a good manner, means, when the relative agrees to take the blood money, he should collect his rightful dues with kindness: di 4 and paid to him respectfully. means, the killer should accept the terms of settlement without causing further harm or resisting the payment. Allah's statement: 4This is an alleviation and a mercy from your Lord. means the legislation that allows you to accept the blood money for intentional murder is an alleviation and a mercy from your Lord. It lightens what was required from those who were before you, either applying capital punishment or forgiving. Sa'id bin Mansur reported that Ibn Abbas said, The Children of Israel were required to apply the Law of equality in murder cases and were not allowed to offer pardons (in return for blood money). Allah said to this Ummah (the

This is an alleviation from your Lord^ Allah had mercy on this Ummah by giving them the Diah which was not allowed for any nation before it. The People of the Torah (Jews) were allowed to either apply the penal code (for murder, i.e., execution) or to pardon the killer, but they were not allowed to take blood money. The People of the Injil (the Gospel - the Christians) were required to pardon (the killer, but no Diah was legislated). This Ummah (Muslims) is allowed to apply the penal code (execution) or to pardon and accept the blood money. Similar was reported from Said bin Jubayr, Muqatil bin Hayyan and Ar-Rabi' bin Anas. Allah's statement: 4.*-^ Jjo i!(jCii j, 4S0 after this lohever transgresses the limits, he shall have a painful torment.} means, those who kill in retaliation after taking the Diah or accepting it, they will suffer a painful and severe torment from Allah. The same was reported from Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Ata Ikrimah, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, Ar-Rabi' bin Anas, As-Suddi and Muqatil bin Hayyan.' The Benefits and Wisdom of the Law of Equality Allah's statement: 4And there is life for you in Al-Qisas legislating the Law of equality, i.e., killing the murderer, carries great benefits for you. This way, the sanctity of life will be preserved because the killer will refrain from killing, as he will be certain that if he kills, he would be killed. Hence life will be preserved. In previous Books, there is a statement that killing stops further killing! This meaning came in much clearer and eloquent terms in the Qur'an: iw- 4P& [1! Or, the testator might include his daughter's son in the legacy to increase his daughter's share in the inheritance, and so forth. Such errors might occur out of the kindness of the heart without thinking about the consequences of these actions, or by sinful intention. In such cases, the executive of the will and testament is allowed to correct the errors and to replace the unjust items in the will with a better solution, so that both the Islamic law and what the dead person had wished for are respected and observed. This act would not constitute an alteration in the will and this is why Allah mentioned it specifically, so that it is excluded from the prohibition (that prohibits altering the will and testament) mentioned in the m At-Tabari 3:397. 121 Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :310-31 1 whoever does good of his own accord, it is better for him. And that you fast is better. Abdur-Razzaq 9 : 88.

Al-Ba'arah (175 - 200) (Part-2) far you if only you know the Order to Fast In an address to the believers of this Ummah, Allah ordered them to fast, that is, to abstain from food, drink and sexual activity with the intention of doing so sincerely for Allah the Exalted alone. This is because fasting purifies the souls and cleanses them from the evil that might mix with them and their ill behavior. Allah mentioned that He has ordained fasting for Al-Baqarah (175 - 200) (Part-2) (for every day).} It means those who find it difficult (to fast). Formerly, those who wished, fasted and those who wished, did not but fed a poor person instead. Allah then said: iBut whoever does good of his own accord} meaning whoever fed an extra poor person, u'j fi it is better for him. And that you fast is better for you} Later the Ayah: 'j i\ feL whoever of you sights (the crescent on the first night of) the month (of Ramadan, i.e., is present at his home), he must observe Sawm (fasting) that month} (2:185) was revealed and this abrogated the previous Ayah (2:184). The Fidyah (Expiation) for breaking the Fast is for the Old and the Ailing Al-Bukhari reported that Ata heard Ibn Abbas recite: /kjjLlu 4And as for those who can fast with difficulty, (e.g., an old man), they have (a choice either to fast or) to feed a Miskin (poor person) (for every day).} Ibn Abbas then commented, (This Ayah) was not abrogated, it is for the old man and the old woman who are able to fast with difficulty, but choose instead to feed a poor person for every day (they do not fast). '2 ' Others reported that Said bin Jubayr mentioned this from Ibn Abbas. So the abrogation here applies to the healthy person, who is not traveling and who has to fast, as Allah said: 4*!^i Al-Bari 8 :28 Al-Bari 8:28.

498 Tafsir Ibn Kathir 4So whoever of you sights (the crescent on the first night of) the month (of Ramadan, i.e., is present at his home), he must observe Sawm (fasting) that month> (2:185) As for the old man (and woman) who cannot fast, he is allowed to abstain from fasting and does not have to fast another day instead, because he is not likely to improve and be able to fast other days. So he is required to pay a Fidyah for every day missed. This is the opinion of Ibn Abbas and several others among the Salaf who read the Ayah: 4And as for those who can fast with difficulty, (e.g., an old man)} to mean those who find it difficult to fast' * as Ibn Mas'ud stated. This is also the opinion of Al-Bukhari who said, As for the old man (person) who cannot fast, (he should do like) Anas who, for one or two years after he became old fed some bread and meat to a poor person for each day he did not fast. This point, which Al-Bukhari attributed to Anas without a chain of narrators, was collected with a continuous chain of narrators by Abu Ya'la Mawsuli in his Musnad, that Ayyub bin Abu Tamimah said; Anas could no longer fast. So he made a plate of Thand (broth, bread and meat) and invited thirty poor persons and fed them. * The same ruling applies for the pregnant and breast-feeding women if they fear for themselves or their children or fetuses. In this case, they pay the Fidyah and do not have to fast other days in place of the days that they missed. J "Ij J* CTJ jLJClj Xji c: # ^j; -;ij: ^ lj, %^ =" a 4185. Al-Baqarah (175 - 200) (Part-2) guidance and the criterion (between right and wrong). So whoever of you sights (the crescent on the first night of) the month (of Ramadan, i.e., is present at his home), he must observe Sazom (fasting) that month, and whoever is ill or on a journey, the same number [of days which one did not observe Sawm (fasting) must be made up] from other days. Allah intends for you ease, and He does not want to make things difficult for you. (He wants that you) must complete the same number (of days), and that you must magnify Allah [i.e., to say Takbir (Allahu Akbar: Allah is the Most Great)] for having guided you so that you may be grateful to Him.} The Virtue of Ramadan and the Revelation of the Qur'an in it. Allah praised the month of Ramadan out of the other months by choosing it to send down the Glorious Qur'an, just as He did for all of the Divine Books He revealed to the Prophets. Imam Ahmad reported Wathilah bin Al-Asqa that Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said: "The Suhuf (Pages) of Ibrahim were revealed during the first night of Ramadan. The Torah was revealed during the sixth night of Ramadan. The Injil was revealed during the thirteenth night of Ramadan. Allah revealed the Qur'an on the twenty-fourth night of Ramadan." The Virtues of the Qur'an Allah said: 4...a guidance for mankind and clear proof for the guidance and the criterion (between right and wrong).} Here Allah praised the Qur'an, which He revealed as Ahmad 4:107.

guidance for the hearts of those who believe in it and adhere to its commands. Allah said: 4and clear proofs meaning, as clear and unambiguous signs and unequivocal proof for those who understand them. These proofs testify to the truth of the Qur'an, its guidance, the opposite of misguidance, and how it guides to the straight path, the opposite of the wrong path, and the distinction between the truth and falsehood, and the permissible and the prohibited. The Obligation of Fasting Ramadan Allah said: 4So whoever of you sights (the crescent on the first night of) the month (of Ramadan, i.e., is present at his home), he must observe Sawm (fasting) that month.)> This Ayah requires the healthy persons who witness the beginning of the month, while residing in their land, to fast the month. This Ayah abrogated the Ayah that allows a choice of fasting or paying the Fidyah. When Allah ordered fasting, He again mentioned the permission for the ill person and the traveler to break the fast and to fast other days instead as compensation. Allah said: 4...and whoever is ill or on a journey, the same number [of days which one did not observe Sawm (fasting) must be made up] from other days.} This Ayah indicates that ill persons who are unable to fast or fear harm by fasting, and the traveler, are all allowed to break the fast. When one does not fast in this case, he is obliged to fast other days instead. Allah said: 4S ^ j ^="J - irij lit 4Allah intends for you ease, and He does not want to make things difficult for you

Al-Baqarah (175 - 200) (Part-2) This Ayah indicates that Allah allowed such persons, out of His mercy and to make matters easy for them, to break the fast when they are ill or traveling, while the fast is still obligatory on the healthy persons who are not traveling. Several Rulings concerning the Fast The authentic Sunnah states that Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) traveled during the month of Ramadan for the battle for Makkah. The Prophet (ﷺ) marched until he reached the area of Kadid and then broke his fast and ordered those who were with him to do likewise. This was recorded in the Two Sahibs.¹¹¹ Breaking the fast mentioned in this Hadith was not required, for the Companions used to go out with Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) during the month of Ramadan, then, some of them would fast while some of them would not fast and neither category would criticize the others. If the command mentioned in the Hadith required breaking the fast, the Prophet (ﷺ) would have criticized those who fasted. Allah's Messenger himself sometimes fasted while traveling. For instance, it is reported in the Two Sahibs that Abu Ad-Darda said, We once went with Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) during Ramadan while the heat was intense. One of us would place his hand on his head because of the intense heat. Only Allah's Messenger and Abdullah bin Rawahah were fasting at that time. We should state that observing the permission to break the fast while traveling is better, as Allah's Messenger said about fasting while traveling: "Those who did not fast have done good, and there is no harm for those who fasted."141 Fath Al-Bari 3:213, Muslim 2:784 Al-Bari 4:215, and Muslim 2:790 2:790. 2:786.

Some scholars say that the two actions are the same, as A'ishah narrated that Hamzah bin Amr Al-Aslami said, O Messenger of Allah! I fast a lot, should I fast while traveling?

Hi j p ijUiuHi j l" Fast if you wish or do not fast if you wish. This Hadith is in the Two Sahibs. It was reported that if the fast becomes difficult (while traveling), then breaking the fast is better. Jabir said that Allah's Messenger saw a man who was being shaded (by other people while traveling). The Prophet s ; asked about him and he was told that man was fasting. The Prophet said: ." fCJl 'J\ " "It is not a part of Birr (piety) to fast while traveling. # This was recorded by Al-Bukhari and Muslim.121 As for those who ignore the Sunnah and believe in their hearts that breaking the fast while traveling is disliked, they are required to break the fast and are not allowed to fast. As for making up for missed fasting days, it is not required to be consecutive. One may do so consecutively or not consecutively. There are ample proofs to this fact. We should mention that fasting consecutive days is only required exclusively during Ramadan. After the month of Ramadan, what is required then is to merely make up for missed days.

Ibn Abbas said, We used to know that Allah's Messenger jfe has finished the prayer by the Takbir. 01 Similarly, several scholars have stated that reciting Takbir the during Id-ul-Fitr was specified by the Ayah that states: isi ljuj =cJj jLjll (He wants that you) must complete the same number (of days), and that you must magnify Allah [i.e., to say Takbir (Allahu Akbar: Allah is the Most Great)] for having guided m Sahih Al-Bukharino . 842

Those who slept before Isha or offered the Isha prayer, were not allowed to drink, eat or sexual intercourse until the next night. The Muslims found that to be difficult for them. It is reported in the Two Sahihs that Safiyyah, the daughter of Huyal, went to Allah s Messenger si to visit him in the mosque while he was in I'tikaf. She had a talk with him for a while, then she got up in order to return home. The Prophet $g accompanied her back home, as it was night. Her house was at Usamah bin Zayd s house on the edge of Al-Madlnah. While they were walking, two Ansari men met them and passed by them in a hurry, for they were shy to bother the Prophet jg while he was walking with his wife. He told them: J? The Prophet sg said (to them): : JIS j\ *Shaytan reaches everywhere in the human body, that the blood reaches. I was afraid lest Shaytan might suggest an evil thought in your minds .o' 11 Imam Ash-Shafit commented, Allah s Messenger jg sought to teach his Ummah to instantly eliminate any evil thought, so that they do not fall into the prohibited. They (the two Ansari men) had more fear of Allah than to think evil of the Prophet 3g. Allah knows best. The Ayah (2:187) prohibits sexual intercourse and anything like kissing or embracing that might lead to it during I'tikaf. As for having the wife helping the husband, it is allowed. Al-Baqarah (175 - 200) (Part-2 this Ayah (2:195) better, for it was revealed about us, the Companions of Allah's Messenger sg who participated in Jihad with him and aided and supported him. When Islam became strong, we, the Ansar, met and said to each other, Allah has honored us by being the Companions of His Prophet yg and in supporting him until Islam became victorious and its following increased. Later on, a huge column of Roman (Byzantine) soldiers departed the city, and we stood in lines against them. A Muslim man raided the Roman lines until he broke through them and came back to us. The people shouted, All praise is due to Allah! He is sending himself to certain demise. Abu Ayyub said, O people! You explain this Ayah the wrong way. It was revealed about us, the Ansar when Allah gave victory to His religion and its following increased. We said to each other, It would be better for us now if we return to our estates and attend to them. Then m Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi 8:311, An-Nasal in Al-Kubra 6:299, Ibn Abi Hatim 1:424, At-Tabari 3:590, Ibn Hibban 7:105, and Al-Hakim ' That is, almost the level of Sahih.

Allah revealed this Ayah (2:195) ."111 Abu Bakr bin Aiyash reported that Abu Ishaq As-Subai'y related that a man said to Al-Bara bin Azib, If I raided the enemy lines alone and they kill me, would I be throwing myself to certain demise? If One is prevented while in Route, He slaughters the Sacrifice, shaves his Head and ends Ihram Allah's statement: iBut if you are prevented, sacrifice a Hady (animals for sacrifice) such as you can afford,} was revealed in the sixth year of Hijrah, the year of the treaty of Al-Hudaybiyyah when the polytheists prevented Allah's

They had seventy camels with them for that purpose. They were also permitted to shave their heads and end their Ihram. When the Prophet jg commanded them to shave their heads and end the state of Ihram, they did not obey him, as they were awaiting that order to be abrogated. When they saw that the Prophet jg went out after shaving his head, they imitated him. Some of them did not shave, but only shortened their hair. This is why the Prophet jg said: "i)l May Allah award His mercy to those who shaved They said, What about those who shortened the hair? He said in the third time, And to those who shortened. |2) Every seven among them shared one camel for their sacrifice. They were one thousand and four hundred Companions and were camping in the area of Al-Hudaybiyyah, outside the Sacred Area. Al-Baqarah (175 - 200) (Part-2) Abdur-Razzaq reported that Ibn Abbas said about what Allah said: i&ii G" .sacrifice a Hady such as you can afford As much as one could afford. Al- Awfi said that Ibn Abbas said, If one can afford it, then camels, otherwise cows, or sheep. * Hisham bin Urwah quoted his father: v, 4^' Si Gp 4...sacrifice a Hady (animal, i.e., a sheep, a cow, or a camel) such as you can afford} Depending on the price. The proof that sacrificing only a sheep is allowed in the case of being prevented from continuing the rites, is that Allah has required sacrificing whatever is available as a Hady, and the Hady is any type of cattle; be it camels, cows or sheep. This is the opinion of Ibn Abbas the cousin of Allah's Messenger gg and the scholar of Tafsir. It is reported in the Two Sahihs that A'ishah, the Mother of the believers, said, The Prophet gg once offered some sheep as Hady. Allah's statement: i'U \j 4...and do not shave your heads until the Hady reaches the place of sacrifice. is a continuation of His statement: 4.A */ *$> ji' 4And complete, the Hajj and Umrah for Allah. and is not dependent upon: 4t0su'j&t fad 4But if you are prevented, then sacrifice a Hady  Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :451 At-Tabari 4 :30 Ibn Abi Hatim 1 :452 * Path Al-Bari 3 :639 and Muslim 2 :958

544 Tafsir Ibn Katir as Ibn Jarir has erroneously claimed. When the Prophet jg and his Companions were prevented from entering the Sacred House during the Al-Hudaybiyyah year by the polytheists from Quraysh, they shaved their heads and sacrificed their Hady outside the Haram (Sacred) area. In normal circumstances, and when one can safely reach the House, he is not allowed to shave his head until: 4 ...and do not shave your heads until the Hady reaches the place of sacrifice.4 and then he ends the rituals of Hajj or Umrah, or both if he had assumed Ihram for both. It is recorded in the Two Sahihs that Hafsa said, O Allah's Messenger! What is wrong with the people, they have finished their Ihram for Umrah but you have not? The Prophet jg said, "/ matted my hair and I have garlanded my Hady (animals for sacrifice), so I will not finish my Ihram till I offer the sacrifice ." [11 Whoever shaved his Head during Ihram, will have to pay the Fidyah Allah said: 4And whosoever of you is ill or has an ailment on his scalp (necessitating shaving), he must pay a Fidyah> Al-Bukhari reported that Abdur-Rahman bin Asbahani said that he heard Abdullah bin Ma'qil saying that he sat with Ka'b bin T'Jrah in the mosque of Kufah (in Iraq). He then asked him about the Fidyah of the fasting. Ka'b said, This was

So Allah said, G gfJ jl p ty} iThen if you are in safety and whosoever performs the 'Umrah (in the months of Hajj), before (performing) the Hajj (i.e., Hajj At-Tamattu and Al-Qiran), he must slaughter a Hady such as he can afford,} means let him sacrifice whatever Hady is available to him, the least of which is a sheep. One is also allowed to sacrifice a cow because the Prophet (ﷺ) slaughtered cows on behalf of his wives. Al-Awza! reported that Abu Hurayrah narrated that Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) slaughtered cows on behalf of his wives when they were performing Tamattu') 1 ^ This was reported by Abu Bakr bin Marduyah. This last Hadith proves that Tamattu' is legislated. It is reported in the Two Sahdhs that Imran bin Husayn said, We performed Hajj At-Tamattu' in the lifetime of Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) and then the Qur'an was revealed (regarding Hajj At- Tamattu). Nothing was revealed to forbid it, nor did he (the Prophet) forbid it until he died. And somebody said what he wished (regarding Hajj At-Tamattu) according to his own opinion. "I

Al-Bagharalt (175 - 200) (Part-2) Umar. It is reported in an authentic narration that Umar used to discourage the people from performing Tamattu . He used to say, If we refer to Allah's Book, we should complete it, meaning: iU * a& Ji p& 4 .. whosoever performs the 'Umralt (in the months of Hajj), before (performing) the Hajj, he must slaughter a Hady such as he can afford,$ However Umar did not say that Tamattu' is unlawful. He only prevented them so that the people would increase their trips to the House for Hajj (during the months of Hajj) and Vmrah (throughout the year), as he himself has stated. Whoever performs Tamattu should fast Ten Days if He does not have a Hady Allah said: 4 '(/u. Jij; iji p 4 4.. but if he cannot (afford it), he should fast three days during the Hajj and seven days after his return (to his home), making ten days in all> This Ayah means: Those who do not find a Hady, let them fast three days during the Hajj season. Al- Awfi said that Ibn Abbas said, If one does not have a Hady, he should fast three days during Hajj, before 'Arafah day. If the day of Arafah was the third day, then his fast is complete. He should also fast seven days when he gets back home. 1 ' 1 Abu Ishaq reported from Wabarrah from Ibn Umar who said, One fasts one day before the day of Tarwiyah, the day of Tarwiyah (eighth day of Dhul-Hijjah) and then Arafah day (the ninth day of the month of Dhul-Hijjah). The same statement was reported by Ja'far bin Muhammad from his father from Ali.¹³ If one did not fast these three days or at least some of them before Id day (the tenth day of Dhul-Hijjah), he is allowed to At-Tabari 4 :97Tabari 4:95. fast during the Tashriq days (11-12-13th day of Dhul-Hijjah). Aishah and Ibn Umar said, Fasting the days of Tashriq was only allowed for those who did not find the Hady as Al- Bukhari has reported. Sufyan related that Ja'far bin Muhammad narrated that his father said that Ali said, Whoever did not fast the three days during the Hajj, should fast them during the days of Tashriq." This is also the position taken by TJBayd bin TJmayr Al-Laythi, Ikrimah, Al-Hasan Al- Basri and TJrwah bin Az-Zubayr, referring to the general meaning of Allah's statement: 4$ 1 . . .fast three days during the Hajj . As for what Muslim reported that Qutaybah Al-Hudhali said that Allah's Messenger said: p hj AS\ id Jijlls I ;d" ' * * " - ' days of Tashriq are days of eating and drinking and remembering Allah the Exalted ." This narration is general in meaning while what Aishah and Ibn Umar narrated is specific. Allah said: .and seven days after his return .} There are two opinions regarding the meaning of this Ayah. First, it means when you return to the camping areas . The second, upon going back home. Abdur-Razzaq reported that Salim narrated that he heard Ibn Umar saying: i...but if he cannot (afford it), he should fast three days during the Hajj and seven days after his return,} means when he goes back to his family. ,31 The same opinion was reported from Said bin Jubayr, Abu Al- Aliyah, Mujahid, Ata , Ikrimah, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, Imam Az-Zuhri and Ar- At-Tabari 4 :98-99 2:800. ,3 I Tafsir Abdur-Razzaq 1 :76.

Then, he should shave or cut his hair short and finish his Ihram, and should later assume Ihram far Hajj; [but he must offer a Hady (sacrifice)]. And if anyone cannot afford a Hady, he should fast far three days during the Hajj and seven days when he returns home." He then mentioned the rest of the Hadith, which is reported in the Two SahXhsP1 Allah said: it# Xju- 4 ...making ten days in all> to emphasize the ruling we mentioned above. This method is common in the Arabic language, for they would say, I have seen with my eyes, heard with my ears and written with my hand, to emphasize such facts. (7:142) It was also said that the meaning of ten days in all emphasizes the order to fast for ten days, not less than that. The Residents of Makkah do not perform Tamattu Allah said: 4^/^- jW iThis is for him

Tltis Ayah concerns the residents of the area of the Haram, for they do not perform Tamattu Abdur-Razzaq reported that Tawus said, Tamattu is for the people, those whose families are not residing in the Haram area (Makkah), not for the residents of Makkah. Hence Allah's Statement: i/jti iThis is for him whose family is not present at Al-Masjid Al-Hardm (i.e., non-resident of Makkah) Abdur-Razzaq then said, I was also told that Ibn Abbas said similar to Tawus. 552 Tlfebr Ibn Kathir statement that Hajj occurs during known, specific months, which indicates that Hajj is not allowed before that, just as the prayer has a fixed time (before which one's prayer is not accepted). Ash-Shafil recorded that Ibn Abbas said, No person should assume Ihram for Hajj before the months of the Hajj, for Allah said: $The Hajj is (in) the well-known months Ibn Khuzaymah reported that Ibn Abbas said, No Ihram for Hajj should be assumed, except during the months of Hajj for among the Sunnah of Hajj is that one assume Ihram for it during the Hajj months. This is an authentic narration and the Companion's statement that such and such is among the Sunnah is considered as a Hadith of the Prophet jg, according to the majority of the scholars. This is especially the case when it is Ibn Abbas who issued this statement, as he is the Tarjuman (translator, interpreter, explainer) of the Qur'an. There is a Hadith about this subject too. Ibn Marduwyah related that Jabir narrated that the Prophet jg said: Jt V) fj oi aNo one should assume Ihram for Hajj, but during the months of Hajj.* The chain of narrators for this Hadith is reasonable. Ash-Shafil and Al-Bayhaqi recorded this Hadith from Ibn Jurayj who related that Abu Az-Zubayr said that he heard Jabir bin Abdullah being asked, Does one assume Ihram for Hajj before the months of the Hajj He said, No. This narration is more reliable than the narration that we mentioned from the Prophet jg. In short, this statement is the opinion of the Companion, supported by Ibn Abbas statement that it is a part of the Sunnah not to assume Ihram for Hajj before the Al-Umm 2 :132 . assuming the Ihram requires a Hajj, for the person is required to complete the rituals of Hajj after assuming Ihram. Ibn Jarir said that Al- Awfi said, The scholars agree that (Farada) intends mentioned in the Ayah means it is a requirement and an obligation. 111 Ali bin Abu Talhah said that Ibn Abbas said: iSo whosoever intends to perform Hajj therein (by assuming Ihram), refers to those who assume Ihram for Hajj and Umrah . Ata said, 'Intends', means, assumes the Ihram." Similar statements were attributed to Ibrahim, Ad-Dahhak and others. 2 ^ Prohibition of Rafath (Sexual Intercourse) during Hajj Allah said: iHe should not have Rafath^ This Ayah means that those who assume the Ihram for Hajj or Umrah are required to avoid the Rafath, meaning, sexual intercourse. Allah s statement here is similar to His statement: ilt is made lawful for you to have Rafath (sexual relations) with your wives on the night of the fast.> (2:187) Whatever might lead to sexual intercourse, such as embracing, kissing and talking to women about similar Tabari 4:120-121. At-Tabari 4:123.

Al-Baqarah (175 - 200) (Part-2) subjects, is not allowed. Ibn Jarir reported that Nafi narrated that Abdullah bin Umar said, Rafath means sexual intercourse or mentioning this subject with the tongue, by either men or women. 111 Ata bin Abu Rabah said that Rafath means sexual intercourse and foul speech.121 This is also the opinion of Amr bin Dinar. Ata also said that they used to even prevent talking (or hinting) about this subject.131 Tawtis said that Rafath includes one s saying, When I end the Ihram I will have sex with you. This is also the same explanation offered by Abu Al- Aliyah regarding Rafath. Ali bin Abu Talhah said that Ibn Abbas said, Rafath means having sex with the wife, kissing, fondling and saying foul words to her, and similar acts. 151 Ibn Abbas and Ibn Umar said that Rafath means to have sex with women. 161 This is also the opinion of Said bin Jubayr, Ikrimah, Mujahid, Ibrahim An-Nakhal, Abu Al- Aliyah who narrated it from Ata and MakhQL, Ata Al- Khurasani, Ata bin Yasar, Atiyah, Ibrahim, Ar-Rabi , Az- Zuhri, As-Suddi, Malik bin Anas, Muqatil bin Hayyan, Abdul-Karim bin Malik, Al-Hasan, Qatadah and Ad-Dahhak, and others. This Hadith was collected by Imam Ahmad and the compilers of the Sunan, and At-Tirmidhi graded it Sahib. ' It was reported that the mount was called Arafat because, as Abdur- Razzaq reported that Ali bin Abu Talib said, Allah sent Jibril to Prophet Ibrahim and he performed Hajj for him (to teach him its rituals). When Ibrahim reached Arafat he said, I have Arafatu (I know this place). He had come to that area before. Thereafter, it was called Arafat. '2 ' Ibn Al-Mubarak said that Ata said, It was called Arafat because Jibril used to teach Ibrahim the rituals of Hajj. Ibrahim would say, I have Arafatu, I have Arafatu. It was thereafter called Arafat. Similar statements were attributed to Ibn Abbas '3 ' , Ibn Tjmar and Abu Mijlaz. '4 ' Allah knows best. Arafat is also called Al-Mash ar Al-Haram, Al-Mash ar Al- Aqsa and Ilal, while the mount that is in the middle of Arafat is called Jabal Ar-Rahmah (Mount of Mercy). The Time to leave Arafat and Al-Muzdalifah Ibn Abu Hatim reported that Ibn Abbas said, During the time of JahUyyah, the people used to stand at Arafat. When the sun would be on top of the mountains, just as the turban is on top of a man s head, they would move on. Allah s Messenger jg delayed moving from Arafat until sunset. '5 ' Ibn Marduwyah related this Hadith and added, He then stood at Al-Muzdalifah and offered the Fajr (Dawn) prayer at an early time. When the light of dawn broke, he moved on. This Hadith has a Hasan chain of narrators. The long Hadith that Jabir bin Abdullah narrated, which Muslim collected, stated, The Prophet jg kept standing there (meaning at Arafat) until sunset, when the yeUow light had somewhat gone and the disc of the sun had disappeared. Then, the Prophet $g made Usamah sit behind him, and in order to keep her under control, puUed the nose string of Al-Qaswa so hard, that its head touched the saddle. Al-Baqarah C175 - 200) (Part-2) said, "Proceed calmly people, calmly!" Whenever he happened to pass over an elevated tract of sand, he lightly loosened the nose string of his camel till she climbed up and this is how they reached Al-Muzdalifah. There, he led the Maghrib (Evening) and Isha (Night) prayers with one Adhan and two Iqamah (which announces the imminent start of the acts of the prayer) and did not glorify Allah in between them (i.e., he did not perform voluntary Rak'ah). Allah s Messenger jg then laid down till dawn and offered the Fajr (Dawn) prayer with Adhan and Iqamah, when the morning light was clear. He again mounted Al-Qaswa , and when he came to Al-Mash ar Al-Haram, he faced towards Qiblah, supplicated to Allah, glorifying Him and saying, La ilaha illalldh, and he continued standing until the daylight was very clear. He then went quickly before the sun rose. It is reported in the Two Sahihis that Usamah bin Zayd was asked, How was the Prophet s pace when he moved? He said, Slow, unless he found space, then he would go a little faster. 2' Al-Mash arAl-Haram Abdur-Razzaq reported that Ibn Umar said that all of Al- Muzdalifah is Al-Mash'ar Al-Haram.13 It was reported that Ibn Umar was asked about Allah s statement: i* at 4...remember Allah (by glorifying His praises, i.e., prayers and invocations) at the Mash ar-il-Haram . $ He said, It is the Mount and the surrounding area. It was reported that Al-Mash ar Al-Haram is what is between the two Mounts (refer to the following Hadith), as Ibn Abbas, Said bin Jubayr, Ikrimah, Mujahid, As-Suddi, Ar-Rabl bin Anas, Al- Hasan and Qatadah have stated. 5 Imam

Remember Allah's favor to you when He made the Hajj obligatory upon you, so that you may be grateful.' This Ayah reminds Muslims of Allah's bounty on them that He has directed and taught them the rituals of Hajj according to the guidance of Prophet Ibrahim Al-Khalil. This is why Allah said: '...and verily, you were, before, of those who were astray.' It was said that this Ayah refers to the condition before the guidance or the Qur'an or the Messenger all of which are correct meanings. 4199. Then depart from the place whence all the people depart and ask Allah for His forgiveness. Truly, Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most-Merciful. The Order to stand on Arafat and to depart from it 4 This Ayah contains Allah's order to those who stand at Arafat to also move on to Al-Muzdalifah, so that they remember Allah at Al-Mash ar Al-Haram. Allah commands the Muslim to stand with the rest of the pilgrims at Arafat, unlike Quraysh who (before Islam) used to remain in the sanctuary, near Al- Muzdalifah, saying that they are the people of Allah's Town and in Ahmad 4 :82

Al-Baqarali (175 - 200) (Part-2) the servants of His House. Al-Bukhari reported that A'ishah said, Quraysh and their allies, who used to be called Al- Humayy, used to stay in Al-Muzdalifah while the rest of the Arabs would stand at Arafat. When Islam came, Allah commanded His Prophet ﷺ to stand at Arafat and then proceed from there. Hence Allah's statement: '...from the place whence all the people depart. This was also said by Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Ata , Qatadah and As-Suddi and others. 131 Ibn Jarir chose this opinion and said that there is Ijma (a consensus among the scholars) for it. Imam Ahmad reported that Jubayr bin Mut'im said, My camel was lost and I went out in search of it on the day of Arafah, and I saw the Prophet ﷺ standing in Arafat. I said to myself, 'By Allah he is from the Hums. What has brought him here?' 14 This Hadith is also reported in the Sahih al-Bukhari. Al-Bukhari reported that Ibn Abbas said that depart mentioned in the Ayah refers to proceeding from Al-Muzdalifah to Mina to stone the pillars. Allah knows best. Asking Allah for His Forgiveness Allah said: '...and ask Allah for His forgiveness. Truly, Allah is Oft-Forgiving , Most-Merciful .' Allah frequently orders remembrance of Him after acts of worship are finished. Muslim reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ used to ask Allah for His forgiveness thrice after the prayer . This opinion was also reported of Ibn Umar, Ibn Az-Zubayr, Abu Musa, Ata , Mujahid, Ikrimah, Said bin Jubayr, Abu Malik, Ibrahim An-Nakhal, Yahya bin Abu Kathir, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, As-Suddi, Az-Zuhri, Ar-Rabi bin Anas, Ad-Dahhak, Mujahid, Ar-Rabl bin Anas and several others, and it is correct. Ibn Jarir related that Al-Qurazi said that Nawf Al-Bikali, who used to read (previous Divine) Books said, I find the description of some members of this Ummah in the previously revealed Books of Allah: they (hypocrites) are people who use the religion to gain material benefit. Their tongues are sweeter than honey, but their hearts are more bitter than Sabir (a bitter plant, aloe). They show the people the appearance of sheep while their hearts hide the viciousness of wolves. Allah said, They dare challenge Me, but they are deceived by Me. I swear by Myself that I will send a Fitnah (trial, calamity) on them that will make the wise man bewildered. I contemplated about these statements and found them in the Qur an describing the hypocrites: iAtid of mankind there is he whose speech may please you (O Muhammad j&), in this worldly life, and he calls Allah to witness as to that which is in his heart,[^] This statement by Al-Qurazi is Hasan Sahih. Allah said: 4 . . .and he calls Allah to witness as to that which is in his heart,} This Ayah indicates that such people pretend to be Muslims, but defy Allah by the disbelief and hypocrisy that their hearts conceal. Similarly Allah said: Si J.Q1 Si iThey may hide (their crimes) from men, but they cannot hide (them)from Allah.} (4:108) This Tafsir was reported from Ibn Abbas * by Ibn Ishaq. It was also said that the Ayah means that when such people announce their Islam, they swear by Allah that what is in their hearts is the same of what their tongues areTabari 4:232.Tabari 4:230.

Al-Baqarah (201 - 224) (Part-2) pronouncing. This is also a correct meaning for the Ayah that was chosen by Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam. It is also the choice of Ibn Jarir who related it to Ibn 'Abbas and Mujahid. Allah knows best. Allah said: jit iYet he is the most Aladd of the opponents.} (2:204) The Ayah used the word Aladd here, which literally means wicked (here it means quarrelsome). A variation of the word Ludda was also used in another Ayah: iSo that you (Muhammad) warn with it (the Qur'an) a Ludda people.} (19:97) Hence, a hypocrite lies, alters the truth when he quarrels and does not care for the truth. Rather, he deviates from the truth, deceives and becomes most quarrelsome. It is reported in Sahih that Allah s Messenger said: lilj t jjj- juU- lijj iCjYS tAi- IS) jSILJl SSL "77ie signs of a hypocrite are three : Whenever he speaks, he tells a lie. Whenever he promises, he always breaks it (his promise). Al-B&ri 8:36.

AAnd when he turns away (from you O Muhammad), he struggles in the land to make mischief therein and to destroy the crops and the cattle, and Allah likes not mischief. ^ This Ayah indicates that such persons are deviant in the tongue, evil in the deeds, their words are fabricated, their belief is wicked and their works are immoral. The Ayah used the (Arabic word) Sa a (literally. Tries or intends). This word was also used to describe Pharaoh: if# a" pijj L"1 JUi rr 4 - ^A 4 AThen he turned his back, Yas'a (striving hard against Allah) Then he gathered Ohs people) and cried aloud saying, T am your lord, most high. So Allah, seized him with a punishing examplefor his last and first transgression . Verily, in this is an instructive admonition for whosoeverJears Allah. (79:22-26) [Sa'a was also used in the Ayah]: 4^ S' J' ot 'H you who believe (Muslims)! When the call is proclaimedfor the Salah (prayer) on the day of Friday (Jumu'ah prayer), As'aiu come to the remembrance ofAllah.} (62:9) This Ayah means, (when the call to the Friday prayer is announced) intend and then proceed to attend the Friday prayer. We should mention that hastening to the mosque is condemned by the Sunnah (as this is another meaning for the word Sa'a): Ujjlj jUib UjJt ISLsji iii" iWhen you come to attend the prayer, do not come in a Sa't (haste). Rather, come to it while walking at ease and in peace (or grace). |1 The hypocrite has no motive in this life but to cause mischief and to destroy the crops and the offspring, including what the animals produce and what the people depend on for their livelihood. Mujahid said, If the hypocrite strives for mischief m Muslim 1 :420

Al-Baqarah (201 - 224) (Part-2) in the land, Allah prevents the rain from falling and thus the crops and the offspring perish. The Ayah continues: it 44 v &f} i...and Allah likes not mischief. that is, Allah does not like those who possess these characteristics, or those who act like this. Rejecting Advice is Characteristic of the Hypocrites Allah said: {And when it is said to him, "Fear Allah", he is led by arrogance to (more) crime.} This Ayah indicates that when the hypocrite, who deviates in his speech and deeds, is advised and commanded to fear Allah, refrain from his evil deeds and adhere to the truth, he refuses and becomes angry and outraged, as he is used to doing evil. This Ayah is similar to what Allah said: {And when Our clear verses are recited to them, you will notice a denial on the faces of the disbelievers! They are nearly ready to attack with violence those who recite Our verses to them. Say: "Shall I tell you of something worse than that? The Fire (of Hell) which Allah has promised to those who disbelieved, and indeed is that destination!"} (22:72) This is why in this Ayah, Allah said: {Hell is enough for him, and worst indeed is that place to rest} meaning, the Fire is enough punishment for the hypocrite. The Sincere Believer prefers pleasing Allah Allah said:

{And of mankind is he who would sell himself, seeking the pleasure of Allah.} After Allah described the evil characteristics of the hypocrites, He mentioned the good qualities of the believers. Allah said: {And of mankind is he who would sell himself, seeking the pleasure of Allah.} Ibn Abbas, Anas, Said bin Musayyib, Abu Uthman An-Nahdi, Ikrimah and several other scholars said that this Ayah was revealed about Suhayb bin Sinan Ar-Rumi. When Suhayb became a Muslim in Makkah and intended to migrate (to Al-Madinah), the people (Quraysh) prevented him from migrating with his money. They said that if he forfeits his property, he is free to migrate. He abandoned his money and preferred to migrate, and Allah revealed this Ayah about him. Umar bin al-Khattab and several other Companions met Suhayb close to the outskirts of Al-Madinah at Al-Harrah (flat lands with black stones). They said to him, The trade has indeed been successful. He answered them, You too, may Allah never allow your trade to fail. What is the matter? Umar told him that Allah has revealed this Ayah (2:207) about him. It was also reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, The trade has been successful, O Suhayb! 1 ^

The meaning of the Ayah (2:207) includes every Mujahid in the way of Allah. Allah said in another Ayah: {Verily, Allah has purchased of the believers their lives and their properties for (the price) that theirs shall be the Paradise. They fight in Allah's cause, so they kill (others) and are killed. It is a promise in truth which is binding on Him in the Torah and the Injil and the Qur'an. And who is truer to his covenant than Allah? Then rejoice in the bargain which you have concluded. That is the supreme success.} (9:11)

When Hisham bin Amr penetrated the lines of the enemy, some people criticized him. Umar bin al-Khattab and Abu Hurayrah refuted them and recited this Ayah: {And of mankind is he who would sell himself, seeking the pleasure of Allah. And Allah is full of kindness to (His) servants.} {O you who believe! Enter Islam perfectly, and follow not the footsteps of Shaytan (Satan). Verily, he is to you a plain enemy.} 4209. Then if you slide back after the clear signs (Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, and this Qur'an and Islam) have come to you, then know that Allah is All-Mighty, All-Wise. Entering Islam in its entirety is obligated Allah commands His servants who believe in Him and have faith in His Messenger to implement all of Islam's legislation and law, to adhere to all of its commandments, as much as they can, and to refrain from all of its prohibitions. Al-Awfi said that Ibn Abbas said, and also Mujahid, Tawtis, Ad-Dahhak, Ikrimah, Qatadah, As-Suddi and Ibn Zayd said that Allah's statement: {Enter Islam} means Islam. 111 Allah's statement: {perfectly} means, in its entirety. This is the Tafsir of Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Abu al-Aliyah, Ikrimah, Ar-RabT bin Anas, As-Suddi, Muqatil bin Hayyan, Qatadah and Ad-Dahhak.12 At-Jabari 4 : 252 , Ibn Abi Hatim 2 :584-585 121 Ibn Abi Hatim 2 :586-588.

Instead, they ridicule the believers who ignore this life and who spend whatever they earn on what pleases their Lord. The believers spend seeking Allah's Face, and this is why they have gained the ultimate happiness and the best share on the Day of the Return. Therefore, they will be exalted above the disbelievers at the Gathering Place, when they are gathered, during the resurrection and in their final destination. The believers will reside in the highest grades in the utmost highs, while the disbelievers will reside in the lowest of lows (in the Fire). When he was about to march, he started crying for the thought of missing Allah s Messenger j . Consequently, the Messenger jg relieved Abu Ubaydah from command, appointed Abdullah bin Jahsh instead, gave him some written instructions and commanded him not to read the instructions until he reached such and such area. He also said to Abdullah: "Do not compel any of your men to continue marching with you thereafter . When Abdullah read the instructions, he recited Istitjd [saying, Trulyl to Allah we belong and truly, to Him we shall

The Prophet sent eight people with him, all from among the Muhajirun and none from the Ansar. He also gave him some written instructions and ordered him not to read them until he marched for two days. Abdullah should then read the instructions and march to implement them, but should not force any of those who were with him to accompany him. The companions of Abdullah bin Jahsh were all from the Muhajirun, from the tribe of Banu Abd Shams bin Abd Manaf, there was Abu Hudhayfah bin TJtbah bin Rabi'ah bin Abd Shams bin Abd Manaf. From their allies, there was Abdullah bin Jahsh, who was the commander of the army unit, and TJkkashah bin Mihsan from the tribe of Banu Asad bin Khuzaymah. From the tribe of Banu Nawfal bin Abd Manaf, there was TJtbah bin Ghazwan bin Jabir, one of their allies. From the tribe of Banu Zuhrah bin Kilab, there was Sa d bin Abu Waqqas. From Banu KaTa, there were their allies: Adi bin Amr bin Ar-RabPah not from the tribe of Ibn Wa il; Wfiqid bin Abdullah bin Abd Manaf bin Ann bin Thalabah bin Yarbu' from Banu Tamlm; and Khalid bin Bukair from the tribe of Banu Sa d bin Layth, Suhayl bin Bayda from Banu Al-Harith bin Fihri was also among them. When Abdullah bin Jahsh marched for two days, he opened and read the I 1 * Ibn Abi H tim 2 :628.

600 Tafsir Ibtisami Kathir (Prophet s) instructions, When you read these instructions, march until you set camp at Nakhlah between Makkah and At-Ta'if. There, watch the movements of the caravan of Quraysh and collect news about them for us. When Abdullah bin Jahsh read the document, he said, I hear and obey. He then said to his companions, Allah s Messenger % has commanded me to march forth to Nakhlah to watch the movements of the caravan of Quraysh and to inform him about their news. He has prohibited me from forcing any of you (to go with me). So, those who seek martyrdom, they should march with me. Those who dislike the idea of martyrdom, let them turn back. Surely, I will implement the command of Allah s Messenger s&. He and his companions continued without any of them turning back. Abdullah entered the Hijaz area (western Arabia) until he reached an area called Buhran, close to Furu'. There, Sa d bin Abu Waqqas and Utbah bin Ghazwan lost the camel that they were riding in turns, and they went back to search for it while Abdullah bin Jahsh and the rest of his companions continued until they reached Nakhlah. Then, a caravan belonging to the Quraysh passed by carrying raisins, food stuff and some trade items for the Quraysh. Amr bin Hadrami, whose name was Abdullah bin Abbas, was in the caravan, as well as Uthman bin Abdullah bin Al-Mughirah and his brother Nawfal bin Abdullah from the tribe of Makhzum, and Al-Hakam bin Kaysan, a freed slave of Hisham bin Al-Mughirah. When they saw the Companions they were frightened, but when they saw Ukkashah bin Mihsan their fears subsided, since his head was shaved. They said, These people seek the Umrah, so there is no need to fear them. The Companions conferred among themselves. That day was the last day in the (sacred) month of Rajab. They said to each other, By Allah! If you let them pass, they will soon enter the Sacred Area and take refuge in it from you. If you kill them, you will kill them during the Sacred Month. They at first hesitated and did not like to attack them. They then began encouraging themselves and decided to kill whomever they could among the disbelievers and to confiscate whatever they had. Hence, Waqid bin Abdullah At-Tamimi shot an arrow at Amr bin Al-Hadrami and killed him. Uthman bin Abdullah

Al-Baqarah (201 - 224) (Part-2) and Al-Hakam bin Kaysan gave themselves up, while Nawfal bin Abdullah was able to outrun them in flight. Later on, Abdullah bin Jahsh and his companions went back to Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) in Al-Madinah with the caravan and the two prisoners. Ibn Ishaq went on: I was told that some members of the family of Abdullah bin Jahsh said that Abdullah said to his companions: Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) will have one-fifth of what we have confiscated. This occurred before Allah required one-fifth for His Messenger from the war booty. So, Abdullah designated one-fifth of the caravan for Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) and divided the rest among his companions. Ibn Ishaq also stated that at first, when the Sariyah came back to Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) he said to them: Jill ja' Li J have not commanded you to conduct warfare during the Sacred Month. He left the caravan and the two prisoners alone and did not take any share of the war booty. When Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) did that, the soldiers from the attack were concerned and felt that they were destroyed, and their Muslim brethren criticized them for what they did. The Quraysh said that Muhammad (ﷺ) and his Companions violated the sanctity of the Sacred Month and shed blood, confiscated property and took prisoners during it. Those who refuted them among the Muslims who remained in Makkah replied that the Muslims had done that during the month of Shalsan (which is not a sacred month). Meanwhile, the Jews were pleased about what happened to Allah's Messenger (ﷺ). They said, Amr bin Hadrami was killed by Waqid bin Abdullah: 'Amr, means the war has started, Hadrami means the war has come, as for Waqid (bin Abdullah): the war has raged (using some of the literal meanings of these names to support their fortune-telling!). But, Allah made all that turn against them. The people continued talking about this matter, then Allah revealed to His Messenger (ﷺ): ip\ tejM ^ c!&&

Also, (their benefit includes) earnings through gambling that one uses to spend on his family and on himself. Yet, these benefits are outweighed by the clear harm that they cause which affects the mind and the religion. This is why Allah said: 4...but the sin of them is greater than their benefit. This Ayah was the beginning of the process of prohibiting Khamr, not explicitly, but it only implied this meaning. So when this Ayah was recited to Umar, he still said, O Allah! He wrote back, Do you claim that she is not allowed for me so that I divorce her? He said, No. But, I fear that you might marry the whores from among them. Ibn Jarir related that Zayd bin Wahb said that TJmar bin Khattab said, The Muslim man marries the Christian woman, but the Christian man does not marry the Muslim woman. This Hadith has a stronger, authentic chain of narrators than the previous Hadith. Tabari 4:362. * Ibn Abi Hatim 2 :669-67 1 * At-Tabari 4 :366 * See Al-Tabari 4 :366

616 Tafsir Ibtidhi Kathir Muslim also reported this Hadith. Allah said: 4 'Alili 4 .. therefore, keep away from women during menses meaning, avoid the sexual organ. The Prophet said: 'Do anything you wish except having sexual intercourse.' This is why most of the scholars said that it is allowed to fondle the wife, except for having sexual intercourse (when she is having her menses). Abu Dawud reported that Umar bin al-Khattab related to one of the Prophet's wives that she said that whenever the Prophet wanted to fondle (one of his wives) during her menses, he would cover her sexual organ with something.'²¹ Abu Ja'far bin Jarir related that Masruq went to A'ishah and greeted her, and A'ishah greeted him in return. Masruq said, I wish to ask you about a matter, but I am shy. She replied, I am your mother and you are my son. He said, What can the man enjoy of his wife when she is having her menses? She said, Everything except her sexual organ. ¹³ This is also the opinion of Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Al-Hasan and Ikrimah. One is allowed to sleep next to his wife and to eat with her (when she is having her menses). A'ishah said, Allah's Messenger used to ask me to wash his hair while I was having the menses. He would lay on my lap and read the Qur'an while I was having the period. ⁴ It is also reported in the Sahih that A'ishah said, While having the menses, I used to eat from a piece of meat and give it to the Prophet who would eat from the same place I ate from. I used to have sips of a drink and would then give the cup to the Prophet who would place his mouth where I placed my mouth. ⁵ It is also reported in the Two Sahih's that Maymunah bint Muslim 1 :246. ' Abu Dawud 1 :286. Tabari 4:378. Al-Bari 1 :479 ' Muslim 1 :245.

Al-Baarah (201 - 224) (Part-2) Al-Harith Al-Hilaliyah said, Whenever the Prophet wanted to fondle any of his wives during the periods (menses), he used to ask her to wear an Izar (a sheet covering the lower-half of the body). These are the wordings collected by Al-Bukhari. Similar was reported from A'ishah. In addition, Imam Ahmad, Abu Dawud, At-Tirmidhi and Ibn Majah reported that Abdullah bin Sa'd Al-Ansari asked Allah's Messenger, What am I allowed of my wife while she is having her menses? He said, What is above the Izar (a sheet covering the lower-half of the body). ¹³¹ Hence, Allah's statement: 4...and go not in unto them till they are purified. explains His statement: 4...therefore, keep away from women during menses> Allah prohibited having sexual intercourse with the wife during menstruation, indicating that sexual intercourse is allowed otherwise. Allah's statement: 4And when they have purified themselves, then go in unto them as Allah has ordained for you indicates that men should have sexual intercourse with their wives after they take a bath. The scholars agree that the woman is obliged to take a bath, or to perform Tayammum with sand, if she is unable to use water, before she is allowed to have sexual intercourse with her husband, after the monthly period ends. Ibn Abbas said: "till they are purified" means from blood, and, ¹¹¹ Path Al-Bari 1 :483 .Muslim 1 :243. ^ Fath Al-Bari 1 :480.Muslim 1 :242. ³¹ Ahmad 4:342, Abu Dawud 1 :145,Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi 1:415, Ibn Majah 1 :213.

He said, They have said a lie about me. But let me tell you what really happened. Ibn Umar was once reciting the Qur an while 1 was with him and he reached the Ayah: ^pi \%p P t/ iYour wives are a tilth for you, so go to your tilth, when or Itoio you will,} He then said, O Nafi ! Do you know the story behind this Ayah? I said, No. He said, We, the people of Quraysh, used to have sexual intercourse with our wives from the back (in the vagina). When we migrated to Al-Madlnah and married some Ansari women, we wanted to do the same with them. They disliked it and made a big issue out of it. The Ansari women had followed the practice of the Jews who have sex with their women while they lay on their sides. Then, Allah revealed: $pl$P iYour wives are a tilth for you, so go to your tilth, when or hmo you will This has an authentic chain of narrators. Imam Ahmad reported that Khuzaymah bin Thabit Al- Khatami narrated that Allah s Messenger jfe said: J iUJl 'i - lS% - Jijl^ iSil V "Allah does not shy from the truth - he said it thrice-, do not have anal sex with women . This Hadith was collected by An-Nasal and Ibn Majah. Abu Isa At-Tirmidhi and An-Nasal reported that Ibn Abbas narrated that Allah s Messenger jfe said: "^\jJi si^t j\ y*. Jii Jtii &Allah does not look at a man who had anal sex with another man or a woman ."[2 At-Tirmidhi said, Hasan Gharib. This is also the narration that Ibn Hibban collected in his Sahih, while Ibn Hazm stated that this is an authentic Hadith. In addition, Imam Ahmad reported that Ali bin Talaq said, Allah s Messenger ?, forbade anal sex with women, for Allah does not shy away from truth. 13 Abu Isa At-Tirmidhi also reported this Hadith and said, Hasan . 4 Abu Muhammad Abdullah bin Abdur-Rahman Darimi reported in his Musnad that Said bin Yasar Abu Hubab said: I said to Ibn Umar, What do you say about having sex with women in the rear? He said, What does it mean? I said, Anal sex. He said, Does a Muslim do that? 5 ' This Hadith has an authentic chain of narrators and is an explicit rejection of anal sex from Ibn Umar. Abu Bakr bin Ziyad Naysaburi reported that Ismail bin Ruh said that he asked Malik bin Anas, What do you say about having sex with women in the anus? He said, You are not an Arab? Does sex occur but in the place of pregnancy? Do it only in the Farj (vagina). I said, O Abu Abdullah! They say that you allow that practice. He said, They utter a lie about me, they lie about me. This is Malik's firm stance on this subject. It is also the view of Said bin Musayyib, Abu Salamah, Ikrimah, Tawus, Ata , Said bin Jubayr, Urwah bin Az-Zubayr, Mujahid bin Jabr, Al-Hasan and other scholars of the Salaf (the Companions and the following two generations An-Nasal in Al-Kubra 5:316, Ibn Majah 1 :619. For instance, it is reported in the Two Sahihs that Abu Hurayrah narrated that Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said: "Jil V V JJ li o'&L jil*- ^ Jlii "Whoever swore and (unintentionally) mentioned Al-Lat and Al-'Uzza (two idols) in his vow, should then say, 'There is no deity worthy of worship except Allah The Messenger (ﷺ) said this statement to some new Muslims whose tongues were, before Islam, used to vowing by their idol Al-Lat. Therefore, the Prophet ordered them to intentionally recite the slogan of Ikhlas, just as they mentioned these words by mistake, so that it (the word of Ikhlas) may eradicate the word (of Shirk). She has to be patient and she cannot ask her husband, in this case, to end his vcw before the end of its term. It is reported in the Two Sahih.r that A ishaah said that Allah s Messenger swore he would stay away from with his wives for a month. What testifies to this is the Hadith that Abu Dawud and An-Nasal reported that Fatimah bint Abu Hubaiysh said that Allah s Messenger jg said to her: "Do not pray during your Aqrd' (pi. for Quru , the menstruation period). If this Hadith was authentic, it would have been a clear proof that the Quru is the menstruation period. Thereafter, Allah revealed the following Ayah (2:229) that made the divorce only thrice. So there was now a reversible divorce and an irreversible final divorce. The Rights the Spouses have over Each Other Allah said: iAnd they (women) have rights (over their husbands as regards living expenses) similar (to those of their husbands) over them (as regards obedience and respect) to what is reasonable, This Ayah indicates that the wife has certain rights on her husband, just as he has certain rights on her, and each is obliged to give the other spouse his due rights. reason behind this marriage (if it was Tahiti) is announced in the contract, it would make the contract invalid according to the majority of the scholars. Imam Ahmad reported that Abdullah bin Mas'ud said, Allah's Messenger ﷺ cursed the one who does Tahiti, the one in whose favor it is done, those who eat Ribā (usury) and those who feed it (pay the usury). Umar, Uthman and Ibn Umar. It was also the saying of the scholars of Fiqh among the Tabi'in (second generation of Islam). And it has been reported from Ali, Ibn Mas'ud and Ibn Abbas. In his Mustadrak, Al-Hakim reported that Nafi said: A man came to Ibn Umar and asked him about a man who divorced his wife three times. Then, his brother married her to make Tahiti for his brother, without the brother knowing this fact. He then asked, Is she allowed for the first (husband)? He said, No, unless it is a marriage that involves desire. We used to consider this an act of adultery during the time of Allah's Messenger ﷺ. Al-Hakim said, This Hadith has a Sahih chain although they (Al-Bukhari and Muslim) did not record it. The wording of this Hadith indicates that the ruling came from the Prophet Abu Bakr bin Abu Shaybah, Al-Jawzjani, Harb al-Kirmani and Abu Bakr al-Athram said that Qabalah bin Jabir said that Umar said, If the participants to Tahiti are brought to me, I will have them stoned. And fear Allah, and know that Allah is All-Aware of everything}. Being Kind to the Divorced Wife This is a command from Allah to men that when one of them divorces his wife with a reversible divorce, he should

Al-Baqarah (225 - 252) (Part-2) treat her kindly. So when her term of Iddah (waiting period) nears its end, he either takes her back in a way that is better, including having witnesses that he has taken her back, and he lives with her with kindness. Or, he should release her after her Iddah finishes and then kindly asks her to depart from his house, without disputing, fighting with her or using foul words. Allah then said: But do not take them back to hurt them, Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Masruq, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, Ad-Dahhak, Ar-Rabi and Muqatil bin Hayyan said that a man used to divorce his wife, and when her Iddah came near its end, he would take her back to harm her and to stop her from marrying someone else. He then divorced her and she would begin her Iddah and when her Iddah term neared its end, he would take her back again, so that the term of Iddah would be prolonged for her. After that, Allah prohibited this practice. 'Allah has also threatened those who indulge in such practices, when He said: and whoever does that, then he has wronged himself. meaning, by defying Allah's commandments. Allah then said: And treat not the verses (Laws) of Allah in a jest, Ibn Jarir said that Abu Musa (Al-Ash'ari) narrated that Allah's Messenger *once became angry at the Ash'ari tribe. Abu Musa went to him and said, O Messenger of Allah! Are you angry with the Ash'ariyyin? The Prophet *once said: One of you says, 'I divorced her' -then says- 'I took her back!' This is not the appropriate way Muslims conduct divorce. 1,1 Ibn Abi Hatim 2:772-774.

Al-Baqarah (22 - 252) (Part-2) none of your secret or public affairs ever escapes His knowledge, and He will treat you accordingly. And when you have divorced women and they have fulfilled the term of their prescribed period, do not prevent them from marrying their (former) husbands, if they mutually agree on reasonable basis. Allah knows and you know not. The Wall (Guardian) of the Divorced Woman should not prevent Her from going back to Her Husband Ali bin Abu Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas said, This Ayah was revealed about the man who divorces his wife once or twice and her Iddah finishes. He later thinks about taking her back in marriage and the woman also wishes that, yet, her family prevents her from remarrying him. Hence, Allah prohibited her family from preventing her. And to remit is nearer to At-Taqlwa (piety, righteousness). And do not forget liberality between yourselves . Truly, Allah is All-Seer ofwhat you do.} The Wife gets half of Her Mahr if She is divorced before the Marriage is consummated This honorable Ayah is not a continuation of the Mut'ah (gift) that was mentioned in the previous Ayah (i.e., divorce before the marriage is consummated). This Ayah (2:237) requires the husband to relinquish half of the appointed Mahr if he divorces his wife before the marriage is consummated. If it was discussing any other type of gift, then it would have been mentioned that way, especially when this Ayah follows the previous Ayah related to this subject. Allah knows best. Giving away half of the bridal-money in this case is the agreed practice according to the scholars. So, the husband pays half of the appointed Mahr if he divorces his wife before consummating the marriage. Allah then said: 4unless they (the women) agree to remit it,} meaning, the wife forfeits the dowry and relieves the husband from further financial responsibility. As-Suddi said that Abu Salih mentioned that Ibn 'Abbas commented on Allah s statement: J%} iunless they (the women) agree to remit it,} Unless the wife forfeits her right. 11 ' Furthermore, Imam Abu 111 Ibn Abi Hatim 2 :839

it was reported that Shurayh, Said bin Musayyib, Ikrimah, Mujahid, Ash-ShaTsi, Al-Hasan, Nafi , Qatadah, Jabir bin Zayd, Ata Al-Khurasani, Ad-Dahhak, Az-Zuhri, Muqatil bin Hayyan, Ibn Sinn, Ar-Rabl' bin Anas and As-Suddi said similarly. Ibn Abu Hatim reported that Amr bin Shu ayb said that his grandfather narrated that the Prophet sg said: siie- *The husband is he wlw has the marriage he."121

Ibn Marduwyah also reported this Hadith, and it is the view chosen by Ibn Jarir. The Hadith states that the husband is the person who really holds the marriage tie in his hand, as it is up to him to go on with the marriage or end it. On the other hand, the Wali of the wife is not allowed to give away any of her rightful dues without her permission, especially the dowry. Allah then stated: 1 -4-i^)And to remit it is nearer to At-Taqiya (piety, righteousness).) Ibn Jarir said, Some scholars said that this statement is directed at both men and women. Ibn Abbas said: iAnd to remit it is nearer to At-Taqwa (piety, righteousness).) indicates that the one who forgives, is nearer to At-Taqwa (piety). A similar statement was made by Ash-Sha'bi and several other scholars. Mujahid, An-Nakha'i, Ad-Dahhak, Muqatil bin Hayyan, Ar- 111 Ibn Abi Hatim 2 :840-842 Ibn Abi Hatim 2 :842 Jabari 5:162.

Rabi bin Anas and Thawri stated that liberality mentioned in the Ayah refers to the woman giving away her half Mahr, or the man giving away the full Afahr. This is why Allah said here: & ipi 1; } iAnd do not forget liberality between yourselves.} meaning, kindness (or generosity), as Said has stated. 121 Allah said: iTruly, Allah is All- Seer of what you do.} meaning, none of your affairs ever escapes His perfect Watch, and He will reward each according to his deeds. v rn'vA  mm JJ y*fiy \ J ^Aijltpi==d jC-AAij ?fj} jSL^sat jJ-U! Al-Qadi Al-Mawardi added that the majority of the scholars of the Tabi'in also held this view. Al-Hafiz Abu Tjmar bin Abdul-Barr said that this is also the opinion of the majority of the scholars of the Athar (i.e., the Hadith and the statements of the Salaf). In addition, Abu Muhammad bin Atiyah said that this is the Tafsir (of the Middle prayer) of the majority of scholars. Al-Hafiz Abu Muhammad Abdul-Mu min bin Khalaf Ad-Dumyati stated in his book on the Middle prayer that it is the Asr prayer and mentioned that this is the Tafsir of Umar, Ali, Ibn Mas'ud, Abu Ayyub, Abdullah bin Amr, Samurah bin Jundub, Abu Hurayrah, Abu Said, Hafsa, Umm Habibah, Umm Salamah, Ibn Abbas and A'ishah. The Prohibition of speaking during the Prayer

Allah said: A 'ysSt iAnd stand before Allah with obedience. meaning, with humbleness and humility before Him (i.e., during the prayer). This command indicates that it is not allowed to speak during the prayer, as speaking contradicts the nature of the prayer. This is why the Prophet jg refused to answer Ibn Mas'ud when he greeted him while he was praying and said afterwards: "&ij J Ip aThe prayer makes one sufficiently f?"st/."|31 (i.e., by the various actions of the body, tongue and heart involved during the prayer.) Muslim reported that the Prophet said to Mu'awiyah bin Hakam As-Sulami when he spoke during the prayer: rr~^ i tfj 'j t^Lkl ejtft oj "jiil jSij The ordinary speech people indulge in is not appropriate during the prayer. Allah said: iAnd if you fear (an enemy), perform Saldh on foot or riding.} meaning, pray in the appropriate manner under these circumstances, whether on foot or riding and whether facing the Qiblah or otherwise. Imam Malik reported that Nafi related that Ibn Tjmar used to describe the Fear prayer when he was asked about it and would then add, If there is intense fear, pray on foot, riding, facing the Qiblah and otherwise. Al-Baqarah (223 - 252) (Part-2) Al-Bukhari and Muslim reported the HadithP^ Muslim, Abu Dawud, An-Nasal, ibn Majah and Ibn Jarir reported that Ibn Abbas said, Allah has ordained the prayer by the words of your Prophet four (Rak'ah) while residing, two oh while traveling and one Rak'ah during times of fear. 1 This is also the view of Al-Hasan Al-Basri, Qatadah, Ad-Dahhak, and others . In addition, Al-Bukhari has entitled a Chapter: Prayer while confronting the Forts and facing the Enemy . Al-Awzal said, If the victory seems near and the Muslims are unable to perform the prayer (in the normal manner), they should pray by nodding each by himself. If they are unable to nod, they should delay the prayer until fighting is finished. When they feel safe, they should pray two Rak'ah. If they are unable, they should then pray one Rak'ah that includes two prostrations. If they are unable, then Takbir alone does not suffice, so they should delay the prayer until they are safe. This is the same view that Makhul held. Anas bin Malik said, I participated in the attack on the fort of Tastar, when the light of dawn started to become clear. Suddenly, the fighting raged and the Muslims were unable to pray until the fight of day spread. We then prayed (the Dawn prayer) with Abu MUsa and we became victorious. I would not have been pleased if I were to gain in the life f this world and whatever is in it instead of that prayer. 1 This is the wording of Al-Bukhari. Prayer during the Times of Peace is performed normally Allah said: iArui when you are in safety, then remember Allah (pray)) meaning, Perform the prayer as I have commanded you by completing its bowing, prostration, standing, sitting, and with the required attention (in the heart) and supplication. Thus Allah makes clear His Aydt (Laws) to you, in order that you may understand>

Ayah (2:240) was abrogated The majority of the scholars said that this Ayah (2:240) was abrogated by the Ayah (2:234), what Allah said: 4 . . .they (the wives) shall wait (as regards their marriage) for four months and ten days.) (2:234) For instance, Al-Bukhari reported that Ibn Az-Zubayr said: I said to Tjthman bin Affan: jjiy iAnd those of you who die and leave wives behind them) was abrogated by the other Ayah (2:234). Therefore, why did you collect it (meaning, in the Qur an)? He said, O mynephew! I shall not change any part of the Qur an from its place. The question that Ibn Az-Zubayr asked Tjthman means: If the ruling of the Ayah (2:240) was abrogated to four months (the 'Iddah of the widow, and refer to 2:234), then what is the wisdom behind including it in the Qur an, although its ruling has been abrogated? If the Ayah (2:240) remains (in the Qur an) after the Ayah that abrogated it (2:234), this might imply that its ruling is still valid. Tjthman, the Leader of the faithful, answered him by stating that this is a matter of the revelation, which mentioned these Ayat in this order. Therefore, I shall leave the Ayah where I found it in the Qur an. Ibn Abu Hatim reported that Ibn Abbas said about what Allah said: iAnd those of you who die and leave behind wives should bequeath for their wives a year's maintenance (and residence) without turning them out,) The widow used to reside, and have her provisions provided in Fath Al-Bari 8:48.

used to be the Iddah, and the widow had to remain with her (deceased) husband's family (during that period, i.e., four months and ten days). Then, Allah revealed: I*!-'- "!" - 4And those of you who die and leave behind wives should bequeath for their wives a year's maintenance (and residence) without turning them out, but if they (wives) leave, there is no sin on you for that which they do of themselves, provided it is honorable (e.g., lawful marriage). So, Allah made the rest of the year, which is seven months and twenty days, as a will and testament for her. Consequently, if she wants, she could use her right in this will and remain in the residence (for the rest of the year). Or, if she wants, she could leave the (deceased husband's) house after the four months and ten days have passed. This is the meaning of what Allah said: i...without turning them out, but if they (wives) leave, there is no sin on you.} Therefore, the required term of 'Iddah is still unchanged (refer to 2:234). Ata quoted Ibn Abbas, This Ayah (2:240) has abrogated (the requirement that) the widow spends the Iddah with his (i.e., her deceased husband's) family. So, she spends her Iddah wherever she wants. This is the meaning of what Allah said: 4 iwithout turning them out,}." Ata also said: If she wants, she spends the Iddah with his family and resides there according to the will (meaning the rest of the year). If she wants, she is allowed to leave, for Allah said: LLj ithere is no sin on you for that which they do of themselves,}.

Ata then said: Then (the Ayah on) the inheritance (refer to 4:12) came and abrogated the residence. Hence, the widow spends her Iddah wherever she wants and does not have the right to residence any more. The statement of Ata and those who held the view that the Ayah (2:240) was abrogated by the Ayah on the inheritance (4:12), is only valid for more than the four months and ten days (required in 2:234). However, if they mean that the four months and ten days are not required from the deceased husband's estate, then this opinion is the subject of disagreement among the scholars. As proof, they said that the widow is required to remain in her (deceased) husband's house (for four months and ten days) according to what Malik reported from Zaynab bint Ka*b bin TjJrah. She said that Fari'ah bint Malik bin Sinan, the sister of Abu Said Al-Khudri, told her that she came to Allah's Messenger^ asking him to return to her family's residence with Banu Khudrah. Her husband had pursued some of his servants who ran away, but when he reached the area of Al-Qadum, they killed him. She said, So 1 asked Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) if I should stay with my family in Banu Khudrah, for my (deceased) husband did not leave me a residence that he owns or Nafaqah (maintenance). Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) answered in the positive. While I was in the room, Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) summoned me or had someone summon me and said: „, zWliat did you say? I repeated the story to him about my (deceased) husband. He said: "ijjA 4.GS3I^ JU 4^J Stay at your home until the term reaches its end. So I remained through the Iddah term for four months and ten days in my (deceased husband's) house. Thereafter, Uthman bin Allan sent for me during his reign and asked me about this matter and I told him what happened. He made a judgment to the same effect. This Hadlth was also collected 111 Al-Bukhari 4531,5344. 121 Al-Muwatta 2:591.

Al-Baqarah (225 - 252) (Part-2) by Abu Dawud, At-Tirmidhi, An-Nasal and Ibn Majah.m At- Tirmidhi said, "Hasan Sahih". TheNecessityoftheMut'ah (Gift) attheTime ofDivorce Allah said: iAndfor divorced women, maintenance (should be provided) on reasonable (scale). This is a duty on Al-Muttaqin (the pious) .} Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam said that when Allah's statement: i...a gift of reasonable amount is a duty on the doers ofgood} (2:236) was revealed, a man said, If I want, I will be excellent and if I do not, I will not. Thereafter, Allah revealed this Ayah: iAndfor divorced women, maintenance (should be provided) on reasonable (scale). This is a duty on Al-Muttaqin (the pious). The scholars who ruled that the Mut'ah (reasonable gift) at the time of divorce is required for eveiy divorced woman, whether she had a bridal-money appointed for her or not, and whether the marriage was consummated or not, relied on this Ayah (2:241) when they issued their ruling. This is the view taken on this subject by Said bin Jubayr and several others among the Salaf and also Ibn Jarir. So, Allah stated: 4y' Ojli L/& j) J-" f&} iDid you (O Muhammad not think of those who went forth from their homes in the thousands, fearing death?} Furthermore, several scholars among the Salaf said that these people were the residents of a city during the time of the Children of Israel. The weather in their land did not suit them and an epidemic broke out. They fled their land fearing death and took refuge in the wilderness. They later arrived at a fertile valley and they filled what is between its two sides. Then Allah sent two angels to them, one from the lower side and the other from the upper side of the valley. The angels screamed once and all the people died instantly, just as the death of one man. They were later moved to a different place, where walls and graves were built around them. They all perished, and their bodies rotted and disintegrated. Long afterwards, one of the Prophets of the Children of Israel, whose name was Hizqll (Ezekiel), passed by them and asked Allah to bring them back to life by his hand. Allah accepted his supplication and commanded him to say, O rotted bones, Allah commands you to come together. The bones of every body were brought together. Allah then commanded him to 682 Tafstr Ibn Kathir say, O bones, Allah commands you to be covered with flesh, nerves and skin. That also happened while Hizqll was watching. Allah then commanded him to say, O souls, Allah commands you to return, each to the body that it used to inhabit. They all came back to life, looked around and proclaimed, All praise is due to You (O Allah!) and there is no deity worthy of worship except You." Allah brought them back to life after they had perished long ago. We should state that bringing these people back to life is a clear proof that physical resurrection shall occur on the Day of Resurrection. This is why Allah said: iTruly, Allah is full of bounty to mankind,} meaning, in that He shows them His great signs, sound proofs and clear evidences. The Story of the Jews Who sought a King to be appointed overThem Mujahid said that the Prophet (mentioned in the Ayah 2:246 above) is Shamwil (Samuel).' Wahb bin Munabbih said: The Children of Israel remained on the straight path for a period of time after Moses. They then innovated in the religion and some of them even worshipped the idols. Yet, there were always Prophets sent among them who would command them to work righteous deeds, refrain from doing evil and who would rule them according to the commands of the Torah. When they (Israelites) committed the evil that they committed, Allah caused their enemies to overwhelm them, and many fatalities fell among them as a consequence. Their enemies also captured a great number of them, and took over large areas of their land. Earlier, anyone who would fight the Israelites would lose, because they had the Torah and the Tdhiit,'2 ' which they inherited generation after generation ever since the time of Moses, who spoke to Allah directly. Yet, the Israelites kept indulging in misguidance until some king took the Tabut from them during a battle. That king also took possession of the Torah, and only a few of the Israelites who memorized it remained. The prophethood halted among their various tribes and only a pregnant woman remained of the offspring of Lavi (Levi), in whom the prophethood still appeared. Her husband had been killed, so the Israelites kept her in a house so that Allah may give her a boy, who would be their Prophet. The woman also kept invoking Allah to grant her a boy. Allah heard her pleas and gave her a boy whom she At-Tabari 5:293. The ark of the Covenant.

Al-Baqarah (225 - 252) (Part-2) called Shamwil meaning Allah has heard my pleas. Some people said that the boy's name was Sham'un (Simeon), which also has a similar meaning. As that boy grew, Allah raised him to be a righteous person. When he reached the age of prophethood, Allah revealed to him and commanded him to call (his people) to Him and to His Tawhīd (Oneness). Shamwil called the Children of Israel (to Allah) and they asked him to appoint a king over them so that they could fight their enemies under his command. The kingship had also ended among them. Their Prophet said to them, What if Allah appoints a king over you, would you fulfill your vow to fight under his command? irr - : * SA r- 4They said, Why should we not fight in Allah's way while we have been driven out of our homes and our children?"} meaning, After our land had been confiscated and our children had been taken from us? Allah said: li Ij & 44C4 4But when fighting was ordered for them, they turned away, all except a few of them. And Allah is All-Aware of the wrongdoers meaning, only a few of them kept their promise, but the majority abandoned Jihad and Allah has full knowledge of them. And their Prophet said to them, "Indeed Allah has appointed Taliit (Saul) as a king over you." They said, "How can he be a king over us when we are fitter than him for the kingdom, and he has not been given enough wealth." He said: "Verily , Allah has chosen him above you and has increased him abundantly in knowledge and stature. And Allah grants His kingdom to whom He wills. And Allah is All-Sufficient for His creatures' needs, All-Knower.) When the Israelites asked their Prophet to appoint a king over them, he appointed Talut (Saul), who was then a soldier. But, Talut was not a descendant of the house of kings among them, which was exclusively in the offspring of Yahudha (Judah). This is why they said: " JiJ'i i) 3$ iHow can he be a king over us) meaning, how can he be the king for us. iwhen we are fitter than him for the kingdom, and he has not been given enough wealth?) They said that Talut was also poor and did not have the wealth that justifies him being king. Some people stated that Talut used to bring water to the people, while others stated that his profession was dyeing skins. The Jews, thus, disputed with their Prophet while they were supposed to obey him and to say good words to him. Their Prophet answered them: C. 4jll 0^ iVerily, Allah has chosen him above you) meaning, Allah chose Talut from amongst you while having better knowledge about him. Their Prophet stated, I did not choose Talut to be your king on my own. Rather, Allah has commanded that upon your request. Further: 44- ' 4 ")' 4 * la i...and has increased him abundantly in knowledge and stature.) meaning, Talut is more knowledgeable and honorable than you, and stronger and more patient during combat, and has more knowledge of warfare. In short, he has more knowledge and is stronger than you are. The king should have sufficient knowledge, be fair looking and should have a strong soul and body. He then said: 4* $j) $And Allah grants His kingdom to whom He wills.)

Al-Baqarah (225 - 252) (Part-2 meaning, Allah Alone is the Supreme Authority Who does what He wills and no one can ask Him about His actions, while they will be asked (about their actions by Him).

This is because Allah has perfect knowledge, wisdom and kindness with His creation. Allah said: }And Allah is All-Sufficient for His creatures' needs, All- Knower.} meaning, His favor is encompassing and He grants His mercy to whom He wills. Verily, in this is a sign for you ifyou are indeed believers.} Their Prophet then proclaimed, The sign of the blessings of Talut s kingship over you is that Allah will give you back the Tabut (wooden box) that has been taken from you. Allah said: iwhereiti is Sakinahfrom your Lord meaning, peace (or grace) and reassurance. Abdur-Razzaq stated that Qatadah said: iwherein is Sakinah means grace.* * In addition, Ar-Rabl said that Sakinah means mercy. This is also the meaning given by Ibn Abbas, as Al- Awfi narrated.  Abdur-Razzaq 1:98.

690 Tafislr Ibn Kathir Allah then said: jttj i...and a remnant of that which Musa (Moses) and Hdrun (Aaron) left behind,} Ibn Jarir related that Ibn Abbas said about this Ayah: Jl" U-j i...and a remnant of that which Miisd (Moses) and Hdrun (Aaron) left behind,} Meaning, Moses staff and the remnants of the Tablets. * This is the same Tafsir of Qatadah, As-Suddi, Ar-RabT bin Anas and Tkrimah, who added, And also the Torah. 121 Abdur- Razzaq said that he asked Ath-Thawri about the meaning of, i...and a remnant of that which Miisd (Moses) and Hdrun (Aaron) left behind,} Ath-Thawri said, Some said that it contained a pot of manna and the remnants of the Tablets, while some others said that it contained (Moses) staff and two shoes (and refer to 20 : 12). Allah then said: "LJ-} i...carried by the angels.} Ibn Jurayj stated that Ibn Abbas said, The angels came down while carrying the Tabut between the sky and the earth, until they placed it before Talut while the people were watching. As-Suddi said, The Tabut was brought to TalQt s house, so the people believed in the prophethood of ShamTin (Simeon) and obeyed Talut The Prophet then said: At-Tabari 5:331. At-Tabari 5:331,332. Allah states that TalQt, the king of the Children of Israel, marched forth with his soldiers and the Israelites who obeyed him. His army was of eighty thousand then, according to As- Suddi, but Allah knows best. Talut said: iif -^$ iVerily, Allah will try you meaning, He will test you with a river, which flowed between Jordan and Palestine, i.e., the Shari'ah river, according to Ibn Abbas and others.,2) He continued. iSo whoever drinks thereof, he is not ofme;} meaning, shall not accompany me today, 4'i^s. if^ ^ iand whoever tastes it not, he is of me, except him who takes (thereof) in the hollow ofhis hand meaning, there is no harm in this case. Ibn Jarir reported that Al-Bara bin Azib said, We used to say that the Companions of Muhammad jg who accompanied him on the battle of Badr were more than three hundred and ten, just as many as the soldiers who crossed the river with Talut. Only those who believed crossed the river with him. 131 Al-Bukhari also reported this . This is why Allah said: Li; o Z5& 'J ijd . At-Tabari 5:339. [21 At-Tabari 5:340. At-Tabari 5:345,346,347. Al-Bacjarah (225 - 252) (Part-2) iSo when he had crossed it (the river), he and those who believed with him, they said: "We have no power this day against Jdliit (Goliath) and his hosts."} This Ayah indicates that the Israelites (who remained with Saul) thought that they were few in the face of their enemy who were many then. So, their knowledgeable scholars strengthened their resolve by stating that Allah s promise is true and that triumph comes from Allah Alone, not from the large numbers or the adequacy of the supplies. They said to them: i"How often has a small group overcome a mighty host by Allah's leave?"And Allah is with As-Sabirin (the patient).} \L& y>\ ".j\" jiiij !&}& Vjlj ttlj jLU&J iif ^ . -'I wtlj Jc J Si JJ , m 1 4#< 3 St)^ isjs 4250. These are the verses of Alldh, We recite them to you (O Muliammad jfe) in truth, and surely, you are one of the Messengers (ofAllah.) Then, iand Ddwud killed Jalut} Israelite accounts claimed that (Prophet) David killed Goliath with a slingshot that he had, which he launched at Goliath causing his death. TalCit promised that whoever killed Jalut, would marry his daughter and would share his kingship and authority. He kept his promise. Later, the kingship was transferred to Prophet Dawud in addition to being granted Prophethood by Allah. Next, Allah said: ;uit &* > iAnd if Allah did not check one set of people by means of another, the earth would indeed be full of mischief.} This Ayah indicates that if it were not for the fact that Allah checks one set of people with another, such as when Talut and the bravery of Dawud helped the Children of Israel (against Goliath), then people would have perished. Similarly, Allah said: JiGlt $ iFor had it not been that Allah checks one set of people by means of another, monasteries, churches, synagogues, and Masjids, wherein the Name ofAllah is mentioned much, would surely, have been pulled down.} (22:40) Allah then said: & J i jj Sit iBut Allah is full ofbounty to the 'Alamitt (mankind, Jinn and all that exists)) meaning, by His mercy and favor He fixes some of them by some others. Important Guidelines About the Authenticity of the Reports and Quotations in the Tafsir of Ibn Kathir Reports from the Companions of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) Reports that are attributed to the companions of Allah's Messenger are commonly used for additional explanation of the meanings of the Qur'an. As for those quotes that Ibn Kathir mentions in passing, these quotes may, or may not be authentically attributed to them. Wherever it is mentioned that one of them said something, and that statement contradicts other clearly authentic texts, then such statements can not be held as an evidence against what is known to be authentic. Additional information in this regard is found in the Introduction of Ibn Kathir. Incomplete Chains of Narration The following is a list of common incomplete chains of narrations that Al-Hafiz Ibn Kathir often quotes. - Ali bin Abi Talhah (Al-Walibi) reported that Ibn Abbas said... - (Atiyah) Al-Awfi reported that Ibn Abbas said... - Ad-Dahhak from Ibn Abbas. - As-Suddi reported from Abu Malik and Abu Salih from Ibn Abbas, Ibn Mas'ud and (or) some men among the companions. - Al-Hasan Al-Basri reporting from or about the Prophet (ﷺ) - Az-Zuhri [Muhammad bin Shihab] reporting from or about the Prophet - Urwah bin Az-Zubayr reporting from or about the Prophet (ﷺ). - Ikrimah reporting from or about the Prophet (ﷺ). - Qatadah reporting from or about the Prophet (ﷺ). 53. All narrations coming from these chains are unauthentic according to the Sciences of Hadith. Their meanings, however, may be correct as understood by authentic texts, and for this reason they are commonly referenced.

Reports from the Followers of the Companions and those who Follow them The following is a list of those who did not see the Prophet (ﷺ), but they report from companions of the Prophet (ﷺ), while often they themselves are quoted for Tafsir. Reports that are attributed to them are used as additional support in understanding certain issues by Ibn Kathir. Such quotes may, or may not be authentically attributed to them. Wherever it is mentioned that one of them said something, and that statement contradicts other clearly authentic texts, then such statements can not be held as evidence against the authentic evidence. Abu Al-Aliyah, Said bin Jubayr, Said bin Al-Musayib, Ata (bin Abi Rabah), Ata Al-Khurasani, Muqatil bin Hayyan, Ar-Rabi' bin Anas, Ash-Shabbi, Qatadah, Mujahid, Ikrimah, Ad-Dahhak, Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam (Ibn Zayd), Ibn Jurayj. Other Scholars After the Companions The following are some scholars that Ibn Kathir often quotes from. Since these scholars are not well known to the average English reader, one should beware that their own statements about the Prophet (ﷺ), his companions, or circumstances surrounding the Qur'an's revelation, are not to be considered as important as authentically narrated texts. When he (showed up and) started stealing handfuls of foodstuff, I caught hold of him again and said, I will definitely take you to Allah's Messenger. He said, Leave me, for I am very needy and have many dependents. I promise I will not come back again. I pitied him and let him go. In the morning Allah's Messenger asked me, What did your prisoner do last night, O Abu Hurayrah! I replied, O Allah's Messenger! He complained of his great need and of too many dependents, so I took pity on him and set him free. Allah's Messenger said, Verily, he told you a lie; he will return. I waited for him attentively for the third time, and when he (came and) started stealing handfuls of the foodstuff, I caught hold of him and said, I will surely take you to Allah's Messenger as it is the third time you promised not to return, yet you returned. Ibrahim said, "Verily, Alldlt brings the sun from the east; then bring it you from the west." So the disbeliever was utterly defeated. And Allah guides not the people, who are wrongdoers.} The Debate BetweenIbrahim Al-KhalQandKingNimrod The king who disputed with Ibrahim was King Nimrod, son of Canaan, son of Kush, son of Sam, son of Noah, as Mujahid stated. It was also said that he was Nimrod, son of Falikh, son of Abir, son of Shalikh, son of Arfakhshand, son of Sam, son of Noah. Mujahid said, The kings who ruled the eastern and western parts of the world Eire four, two believers and two disbelievers. As for the two believing kings, they were Sulayman bin Dawud and Dhul-Qamayn. As for the two disbelieving kings, they were Nimrod and Nebuchadnezzar. Allah knows best. Allah said, 4Have you not looked} meaning, With your heart, O Muhammad! Tabari 5 :433

Nimrod denied the existence of a god other than himself, as he claimed, just as Firawn said later to his people, 4' (1-^=0 o lir- L} il know not that you have a god other than me} [28:38]. What made Nimrod commit this transgression, utter disbelief and arrant rebellion was his tyranny and the fact that he ruled for a long time. This is why the Ayah continued, id S\ & iji; $} 4Because Allah had given him the kingdom.} It appears that Nimrod asked Ibrahim to produce proof that Allah exists. Ibrahim replied, df} iMy Lord is He Wlw gives life and causes death} meaning, The proof of Allah s existence is the creations that exist after they were nothing and perish after they had existed. This only proves the existence of the Creator, Who does what He wills, for these things could not have occurred on their own without a Creator who created them, and He is the Lord that I call to for worship, Alone without a partner. This is when Nimrod said, . t. J '$} il give life and cause death.} Qatadah, Muhammad bin Ishaq and As-Suddi said that he meant, Two men who deserved execution were to be brought before me, and I would command that one of them be killed, and he would be killed. I would command that the second man be pardoned, and he would be pardoned. This is how I bring life and death. However, it appears that since Nimrod did not deny the existence of a Creator, his statement did not mean what Qatadah said it meant. This explanation does not provide an answer to what Ibrahim said. Nimrod arrogantly and defiantly claimed that he was the creator and pretended lil At-Jabari 5 :433,436,437

Al-Bagaralt (Part-3) that it was he who brings life and death. Later on, Firawn imitated him and announced, 4I know not that you have a god other than me> [28:38]. This is why Ibrahim said to Nimrod, St^ St a~^ iVerily, Allah brings the sun from the east; then bring it you from the west.} This Ayah means, You claim that it is you who brings life and death. He who brings life and death controls the existence and creates whatever is in it, including controlling its planets and their movements. For instance, the sun rises eveiyday from the east. Therefore, if you were god, as you claimed,^ bringing life and death, then bring the sun from the west. Since the king was aware of his weakness, inadequacy and that he was not able to reply to Ibrahim s request, he was idle, silent and unable to comment. Therefore, the proof was established against him. Allfih said, iAnd Allah guides not the people, who are wrongdoers meaning, Allah deprives the unjust people of any valid proof or argument. Furthermore, their false proof and arguments are annulled by their Lord, and they have earned His anger and will suffer severe torment. The meaning that we provided is better than the meaning that some philosophers offered, claiming that Ibrahim used the second argument because it was clearer than the first one. Rather, our explanation asserts that Ibrahim refuted both claims of Nimrod, all praise is due to Allah. As-Suddi stated that the debate between Ibrahim and Nimrod occurred after Ibrahim was thrown in the fire, for Ibrahim did not meet the king before that day.

because them to incline towards you> means, cut them to pieces. This is the explanation of Ibn Abbas, Ikrimah, Said bin Jubayr, Abu Malik, Abu Al-Aswad Ad-Dlli, Wahb bin Munabbih, Al-Hasan and As-SuddiJ Therefore, Ibrahim caught four birds, slaughtered them, removed the feathers, tore the birds to pieces and mixed the pieces together. He then placed parts of these mixed pieces on four or seven hills. Ibn Abbas said, Ibrahim kept the heads of these birds in his hand. Next, Allah commanded Ibrahim to call the birds to him, and he did as Allah commanded him. Ibrahim witnessed the feathers, blood and flesh of these birds fly to each other, and the parts flew each to their bodies, until every bird came back to life and came walking at a fast pace towards Ibrahim, so that the example that Ibrahim was witnessing would become more impressive. Each bird came to collect its head from Ibrahim s hand, and if he gave the bird another head the bird refused to accept it. When Ibrahim gave each bird its own head, the head was placed on its body by Allah s leave and power. 121 This is why Allah said, jcp 3 4And know that Allah is All-Mighty, All-Wise and no one can overwhelm or resist Him. This Ayah indicates that Allah grows the good deeds for its doers, just as He grows the plant for whoever sows it in fertile land. The Sunnah also mentions that the deeds are multiplied up to seven hundred folds. For instance, Imam

Then a lightning storm came and destroyed his garden. Then he did not have the strength to grow another garden, nor did his offspring offer enough help. This is the condition of the disbeliever on the Day of Resurrection when he returns to Allah, for he will not have any good deeds to provide an excuse - or refuge - for him, just as the man in the parable had no strength to replant the garden. The disbeliever will not find anything to resort to for help, just as the offspring of the man in the parable did not provide him with help. Al-Baqarah (Part-3) Allah allow this, but did not allow that, they asked in defiance of Allah's commandments. Allah s statement, iWhereas Allah has permitted trading andforbidden Riba} might be a continuation of the answer to the disbelievers claim, who uttered it, although they knew that Allah decided that ruling on trade is different from that of Riba. Indeed, Allah is the Most Knowledgeable, Most Wise, Whose decision is never resisted. Allah is never asked about what He does, while they will be asked. He is knowledgeable of the true reality of all things and the benefits they carry. He knows what benefits His servants, so He allows it for them, and what harms them, so He forbids them from it. He is more merciful with them than the mother with her own infant. Muhaqalah, which refers to trading produce not yet harvested, with crops already harvested, was also prohibited. These were prohibited to eradicate the possibility that Riba might be involved, for the quality and equity of such items are only known after they become dry. The subject of Riba is a difficult subject for many scholars. We should mention that the Leader of the Faithful, Umar bin Al-Khattab, said, I wished that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ had made three matters clearer for us, so that we could refer to his decision: the grandfather (regarding inheriting from his grandchildren), the Kalalah (those who leave neither descendants nor ascendants as heirs) and some types of Riba. ^ Umar was referring to the types of transactions where it is not clear whether they involve Riba or not. The Shari'ah supports the rule that for any matter that is unlawful, then the means to it are also unlawful, because whatever results in the unlawful is unlawful, in the same way that whenever an obligation will not be complete except with something, then that something is itself an obligation. The Two Sahihs recorded that An-Nu'man bin Bashir said that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say, I t Jiii olj cijn j. ^ J, ly J S-f iii-ii br- uBoth lawful and unlawful things are evident, but in between there are matters that are not clear. Similarly, Allah said, L =* LisS d Yj} iLet not the scribe refuse to write as Allah has taught him, so let him write.} Some say that this Ayah indicates that agreeing to become a witness is Fard Kifayah (required on at least a part of the Muslim Ummah). However, the majority of the scholars say that the Ayah, 4d 4 iesiifd i;} iAnd the witnesses should not refuse when they are called} is referring to testifying to what the witnesses actually witnessed,' thus befitting their description of being witnesses . Therefore, when the witness is called to testify to what he witnessed, he is required to give testimony, unless this obligation was already fulfilled, in which case such testimony becomes Fard Kifayah. Mujahid and Abu Mijlaz said, If you Eire csilled to be a witness, then you have the choice to agree. If you witnessed and were called to testify, then come fonvEU-d. '21 It was reported that Ibn Abbas and Al- At-Tabari 6:68. 121 Ibn Abi Hatim 3:1181, At-Tabari 6:71.

the obligation includes both cases, agreeing to be a witness and testifying to what one witnessed. Allah s statement, 4You should not become weary to write it (your contract), whether it be small or large, for its fixed term} perfects this direction from Allah by commanding that the debt be written, whether the amount is large or small. Allah said, 4You should not become weary} meaning, do not be discouraged against writing transactions and their terms, whether the amount involved is large or small. Allah s statement, pis jif x* J ifpt} 4that is more just with Allah; more solid as evidence, and more convenient to prevent doubts among yourselves} means, writing transactions that will be fulfilled at a later date is more just with Allah meaning better and more convenient in order to preserve the terms of the contract. Therefore, recording such agreements helps the witnesses, when they see their handwriting - or signatures - later on and thus remember what they witnessed, for it is possible that the witnesses might forget what they witnessed. 4And more convenient to prevent doubts among yourselves} meaning, this helps repel any doubt. Since if you need to refer to the contract that you wrote and the doubt will end. Allah s statement, kZ/jA ul 4save when it is a present trade which you carry out on the spot among yourselves, then there is no sin on you if you do not write it down} indicates that if the transaction will be fulfilled immediately, then there is no harm if it is not recorded.

No apparent matter or secret that the heart conceals is ever a secret to Him, however minor it is. Allah also states that He will hold His servants accountable for what they do and what they conceal in their hearts. In similar statements, Allah said, (-y ^X j ="& i Say (O Multammad : "Whether you hide what is in your breasts or reveal it, Allah knows it, and He knows what is in the heavens and what is in the earth. And Allah is able to do all things [3:29], and, i He knows the secret and that which is yet more hidden. There are many other Ayat on this subject. In this Ayah [2:284], Allah states that He has knowledge of what the hearts conceal, and consequently, He will hold the creation accountable for whatever is in their hearts. This is why when this Ayah was revealed, it was hard on the Companions, since out of their strong faith and conviction, they were afraid that

You will not read a letter of them, but you will be granted its benefit. This Hadlth was collected by Muslim and An-Nasa i, 1 11 and this is the wording collected by An-Nasal. The Tafsir ofthe Last Two Ayat of SuratAl-Baqarah Allah said, it . > i - \ s'-aV j & iEach one believes in Allah, His Angels, His Books, and His Messengers. (They say,) "We make no distinction between one another of His Messengers . "$> Therefore, each of the believers believes that Allah is the One and Only and the Sustainer, there is no deity worthy of worship except Him and there is no Lord except Him. The believers also believe in all Allah s Prophets and Messengers, in the Books that were revealed from heaven to the Messengers and Prophets, who are indeed the servants of Allah. Further, the believers do not differentiate between any of the Prophets, such as, believing in some of them and rejecting others. Rather, all of Allah s Prophets and Messengers are, to the believers, truthful, righteous, and they were each guided to the path of righteousness, even when some of them bring what abrogates the Law of some others by Allah s leave. Later on, the Law of Muhammad, the Final Prophet and Messenger from Allah, abrogated all the laws of the Prophets before him. So the Last Hour will commence while Muhammad s Law remains the only valid Law, and all the while a group of his Ummah will always be on the path of truth, apparent and dominant. Allah s statement, 4 Lutlj LILL iAnd they say, "I've heard, and we obey"} means, we heard Your statement, O our Lord, comprehended and implemented it, and adhered to its implications. 4(We seek) Your forgiveness, our Lord^ contains a plea and Muslim 1:554, An-Nasa'i in Al-Kubra 5:12.

Al-Baqarah (Part-3) supplication for Allah's forgiveness, mercy and kindness. Allah's statement, 4^j -fy C_i 'it v} iAllah burdens not a person beyond his scope} means, Allah does not ask a soul what is beyond its ability. This only demonstrates Allah's kindness, compassion and generosity towards His creation. This Ayah is the Ayah that abrogated the Ayah that worried the Companions, that is, Allah's statement, 4 A- A "4 U 'jjI; 4And ivltether you disclose what is in yourselves or conceal it, Allah zoill call you to accountfor it.} This indicates that although Allah will question His servants and judge them, He will only punish for what one is able to protect himself from. As for what one cannot protect himself from, such as what one says to himself - or passing thoughts - they will not be punished for that. We should state here that to dislike the evil thoughts that cross one's mind is a part of faith. Allah said next, 4iZ% <^} 4He gets reioardfor that ivltich he has earned} of good, 4 ty&j} 4And he is punished for that which he has earned} of evil, that is, concerning the acts that one is responsible for. Allah then said, [mentioning what the believers said] while directing His servants to supplicate to Him, all the while promising them that He will answer their supplication: 4"Our Lord! Push us not ifweforget or fall into error,"} meaning, If we forgot an obligation or fell into a prohibition, or made an error while ignorant of its ruling. We mentioned the Hadith by Abu Hurayrah, that Muslim collected, wherein Allah said, I shall (accept your supplication). Opening The Tafsir of Surah Al-Imran (Chapter 3) Surah Al-Imran was revealed in Al-Madinah, as evident by the fact that the first eighty-three Ayat in it relate to the delegation from Najran that arrived in Al-Madinah on the ninth year of Hijrah (632 CE). We will elaborate on this subject when we explain the Ayah about the Mubahalah [3:61] in this Surah, Allah willing. We should also state that we mentioned the virtues of Surah Al-Imran along with the virtues of Surat Al-Baqara in the beginning of the

Let not our hearts deviate (from the truth) after You have guided us, and grant us mercy from You. Truly, You are the Bestower."} 49. "Our Lord! Verily, it is You Who will gather mankind together on the Day about which there is no doubt. Verily, Allah never breaks His Promise."} The Mutashabihatand MuhkamatAyat Allah states that in the Qur an, there are Ayat that are Muhkamat, entirely clear and plain, and these are the foundations of the Book which are plain for everyone. And there are Ayat in the Qur an that are Mutashabihat not entirely clear for many, or some people. So those who refer to the Muhkam Ayat to understand the Mutashabih Ayat, will have acquired the correct guidance, and vice versa. This is why Allah said, 44&\ % Ik} 4They are the foundations of the Book}, meaning, they are the basis of the Qur an, and should be referred to for clarification, when warranted, 112 Tafstr Ibn Kathir 4And others not entirely clear as they have several meanings, some that agree with the Muhkam and some that carry other literal indications, although these meaning might not be desired. The Muhkamat are the Aydt that explain the abrogating rulings, the allowed, prohibited, laws, limits, obligations and rulings that should be believed in and implemented. As for the Mutashabihat Ayat they include the abrogated Ayat, parables, oaths, and what should be believed in, but not implemented. Muhammad bin Ishaq bin Yasar commented on, cSX. iL} ihi it are verses that are entirely clear} as Containing proof of the Lord, immunity for the servants and a refutation of opponents and of falsehood. They cannot be changed or altered from what they were meant for. He also said, As for the unclear Ayat, they can (but must not) be altered and changed, and this is a test from Allah to the servants, just as He tested them with the allowed and prohibited things. So these Aydt must not be altered to imply a false meaning or be distorted from the truth. Therefore, Allah said, iSo asfor those in whose hearts there is a deviation} meaning, those who are misguided and deviate from truth to falsehood, 4-lit U ithey follow that which is not entirely clear thereof} meaning, they refer to the Mutashabih, because they are able to alter its meanings to conform with their false interpretation since the wordings of the Mutashabihat encompass such a wide area of meanings. As for the Muhkam Aydt, they cannot be altered because they are clear and, thus, constitute unequivocal proof against the misguided people. This is why Allah said, filial – ^seeking Al-Fitnah} meaning, they seek to misguide their following by pretending to prove their innovation by relying on the Qur an - the Mutashabih of it - but, this is proof against and not for them. For instance, Christians might claim that [Isa is divine because] the Qur an states that he is Ruhullah and His Word, which He gave to Mary, all the while ignoring Allah s statements, 4& C2S&% ji 4He [Isa) was not more than a servant. We granted Our favor to him.} [43:59], and, iVerily, the likeness of 'Isa before Allah is the likeness of Adam. He created him from dust, then (He) said to him: "Be! and he was.} [3:59]. There are other Ayat that clearly assert that Isa is but one of Allah s creatures and that he is the servant and Messenger of Allah, among other Messengers. Allah s statement, 4 ifeilj} 4And seeking for its Ta wil,} to alter them as they desire. Imam Al Imran (Part-3 iAnd those who are firmly grounded in knowledge} saying that the Qur an does not address the people with what they cannot understand. Ibn Abi Najlh said that Mujahid said that Ibn Abbas said, I am among those who are firmly grounded in its Ta wil interpretation. ' The Messenger of Allah jfe supplicated for the benefit of Ibn Abbas, " ill*-} J iiif "O Allah! Bestow on him knowledge in the religion and teach him the Ta'ivil (interpretation) Ta wil has two meanings in the Qur an, the true reality of things, and what they will turn out to be. For instance, Allah said, ijA 4 iAnd he said : "O my father! This is the Ta'wfl of my dream aforetime! .} [12:100], and, iAivait they just for it's Ta'wil? On the Day (Day of Resurrection) it's Ta'wil is finally fidfilled.}(7:53) refers to the true reality of Resurrection that they were told about. If this is the meaning desired in the Ayah above [3:7], then pausing after reciting Allah s Name is warranted, because only Allah knows the true reality of things. In this case, Allah s statement, iAnd those who are firmly grounded in knowledge is connected to His statement, 4->, & 4 iSay: 'We believe in it } If the word Ta wil means the second

116 Tafslr Ibn Kathir meaning, that is, explaining and describing, such as what Allah said, 4(They said): Inform us of the Ta'wit of this"} meaning its explanation, then pausing after reciting, AAttd those who are firmly grounded in knmoledge is warranted. This is because the scholars have general knowledge in, and understand what they were addressed with, even though they do not have knowledge of the true reality of things. Therefore, Allah s statement, 4- &* '&} isay: "We believe in it } describes the conduct of the scholars. Similarly, Allah said, liS Jiy fcj} AAnd your Lord comes, and the angels, in roivs.} [89:22] means, your Lord will come, and the angels will come in rows. Allah s statement that the knowledgeable people proclaim, &' Sjjju } We believe in it} means, they believe in the Mutashabih. iall

Further, what they were granted in this life of wealth and offspring shall not avail them with Allah, or save them from His punishment and severe torment. Similarly, Allah said. 4 IJt (4 -44. This is the same Tafsir of Ikrimah, Mujahid, Abu Malik, Ad-Dahhak, and others. Other scholars said that the Ayah means, Like the practice, conduct, likeness of the people of Fir'awn. These meanings are all plausible, for the Da b means practice, behavior, tradition and habit. The Ayah indicates that the disbelievers will not benefit from then- wealth or offspring. Rather, they will perish and be punished. This is the same end the people of Fir'awn and the previous nations met, those who rejected the Messengers, the Ayat, and proofs of Allah that they were sent with. ia-i >&} iAnd Allah is severe in punishment.} meaning, His punishment is severe and His torment is painful. It was said that the meaning of Allah's statement, They saw them with their own eyes twice their number} is that the Muslims saw twice as many idolators as they were, yet Allah gave them victory over the disbelievers. Abdullah bin Mas'ud said, When we looked at the disbelievers' forces, we found that they were twice as many as we were. 124 Tafsir Ibn Kathir The True Value of This Earthly Life Allah mentions the delights that He put in this life for people, such as women and children, and He started with women, because (he test with them is more tempting. For instance, the SahO recorded that the Messenger sg said, (Jt>- ^Jlaj y to "/ did not leave behind me a test more tempting to men than women. n When one enjoys women for the purpose of having children and preserving his chastity, then he is encouraged to do so. There are many Hadiths that encourage getting married, such as, ;.U> ' ojj " Verily, the best members of this Ummah are those who have the most wives{ He jg also said, UjjJU "This life is a delight, and the best of its delight is a righteous wife {3]

The Prophet jg said in another Hadith, "/ was made to like women and perfume, and the comfort of my eye is the prayer. A ishah, may Allah be pleased with her, said, Nothing was more beloved to the Messenger of Allah than women, except horses," and in another narration, ...than horses except women.

A Hadtth states, "Marry the Wadud (kind) and Waliid (fertile) woman, for I ivill compare your numbers to the rest of the nations on the Day of ResurrectionV The desire of wealth sometimes results out of arrogance, and the desire to dominate the weak and control the poor, and this conduct is prohibited. Sometimes, the want for more money is for the purpose of spending it on acts of worship, being kind to the family, the relatives, and spending on various acts of righteousness and obedience; this behavior is praised and encouraged in the religion. Scholars of Tafsir have conflicting opinions about the amount of the Qintar, all of which indicate that the Qintar is a large amount of money, as Ad-Dahhak and other scholars said. Abu Hurayrah said The Qintar is twelve thousand Uwqiyah, each Uwqiyah is better than what is between the heavens and earth. [This was recorded by Ibn Jarir]. The desire to have horses can be one of three types. Sometimes, owners of horses collect them to be used in the cause of Allah, and when warranted, they use their horses in battle. This type of owner shall be rewarded for this good action. Another type collects horses to boast, and out of enmity to the people of Islam, and this type earns a burden for his behavior. Another type collects horses to fulfill their needs and to collect their offspring, and they do not forget Allah s right due on their horses. This is why in this case, these horses provide a shield of sufficiency for their owner, as evident by a Hadith that we will mention, Allah willing, when we explain Allah s statement. iAnd make ready against them all you can ofpower, including steeds ofwar.} [8:60]. He Alone is the Lord and God of all creation; everyone and everything are His servants, creation and in need of Him. Allah is the Most Rich, Free from needing anyone or anything. Allah said in another Ayah, "But Allah bears witness to that which He has sent down (the Qur'an) unto you (O Muhammad)" [4: 166]. Allah then mentioned the testimony of His angels and those who have knowledge after he mentioned His own testimony, "Allah bears witness that none has the right to be worshipped but He), and the angels, and those having knowledge (also bear witness to this)}. This Ayah emphasizes the great virtue of those who have knowledge. The Religion with Allah is Islam Allah said, Truly, the religion with Allah is Islam. Allah states that there is no religion accepted with Him from any person, except Islam. Islam includes obeying all of the Messengers until Muhammad who finalized their commission, thus closing all paths to Allah except through Muhammad. Therefore, after Allah sent Muhammad, whoever meets Allah following a path other than Muhammad, it will not be accepted of him. In another Ayah, Allah said, And whoever seeks a religion other than Islam, it will never be accepted of him [3:85]. In this Ayah [3:19], Allah said, asserting that the only religion accepted with Him is Islam, Truly, the religion with Allah is Islam. Allah then states that those who were given the Scripture beforehand divided in the religion after Allah sent the Messengers and revealed the Books to them providing them the necessary proofs to not do so. Allah said, Those who were given the Scripture (Jews and Christians) did not differ except out of rivalry, after knowledge had come to them. meaning, some of them wronged others. Therefore, they differed over the truth, out of envy, hatred and enmity for each other. This hatred made some of them defy those whom they hated even if they were correct. Allah then said, Indeed, 4And Allah is able to do all things.} and His ability encompasses everything. This Ayah alerts Allah's servants that they should fear Him enough to not commit what He prohibits and dislikes, for He has perfect knowledge in all they do and is able to punish them promptly. Rather, Allah disclosed these facts to you as if you were a witness, when they conducted a lottery to choose the custodian of Maryam, seeking the reward of this good deed. Ibn Jarir recorded that Ikrimah said, Maryam s mother left with Maryam, carrying her in her infant cloth, and took her to the rabbis from the offspring of Aaron, the brother of Musa. They were responsible for taking care of Bayt Al-Maqdis (the Masjidj at that time, just as there were those who took care of the Ka'bah. Maryam s mother said to them, Take this child whom I vowed [to serve the Masjid\, I have set her free, since she is my daughter, for no menstruating woman should enter the Masjid, and I shall not take her back home. They said, She is the daughter of our Imam, as Imran used to lead them in prayer, who took care of our sacrificial rituals. Zakanyya said, Give her to me, for her maternal aunt is my wife. They said, Our hearts cannot bear that you take her, for she is the daughter of our Imam. The Description of 'Isa and the MiraclesHe Performed

Allah states that the good news brought to Maryam about Isa was even better because Allah would teach him, {the Book and Al-Hikmah}. It appears that the Book the Ayah mentioned here refers to writing. We explained the meaning of Al-Hikmah in the Tafsir of Surat Al-Baqarah. {the Taivrdh and the Injil}. The Tawrah is the Book that Allah sent down to Musa, son of Imran, while the Injil is what Allah sent down to isa, son of Maryam, peace be upon them, and Isa memorized both Books. Allah's statement, {And We will make him a Messenger to the Children of Israel} means, that Allah will send Isa as a Messenger to the Children of Israel, proclaiming to them, > ..S 41 have come to you with a sign from your Lord, {I design for you out of clay, a figure like that of a bird, and breathe into it, and it becomes a bird by Allah's leave}.

These are the miracles that Isa performed; he used to make the shape of a bird from clay and blow into it, and it became a bird by Allah's leave. Allah made this a miracle for Isa to testify that He had sent him. {And I heal him who is Akmah^ meaning, a person who was born blind, which perfects this miracle and makes the challenge more daring. {And the leper} which is a known disease, / f ,-S \ Up Lf'J? {And I bring the dead to life by Allah's leave}. Many scholars stated that Allah sent every Prophet with a miracle suitable to his time. For instance, in the time of Musa, magic was the trade of the time, and magicians held a high position. So Allah sent Musa with a miracle that captured the eyes and bewildered every magician. When the magicians realized that Musa's miracle came from the Almighty, Most Great, they embraced Islam and became pious believers. As for Isa, he was sent during a time when medicine and knowledge in physics were advancing. Isa brought them the types of miracles that could not be performed, except by one sent by Allah. How can any physician bring life to clay, cure blindness and leprosy and bring back to life those entrapped in the grave? Muhammad (ﷺ) was sent during the time of eloquent people and proficient poets. He brought them a Book from Allah; if mankind and the Jinn tried to imitate ten chapters, or even one chapter of it, they will utterly fail in this task, even if they tried to do it by collective cooperation. This is because the Qur'an is the Word of Allah and is nothing like that of the creatures. Isa's statement. {And I inform you of what you eat, and what you store in your houses} means, I tell you about what one of you has just eaten and

Al-'Imran (Part-3) what he is keeping in his house for tomorrow. {Surely, therein}, all these miracles, {is a sign for you} testifying to the truth of what I was sent to you with, {If you believe. And I have come confirming that which was before me of the Tawrah,} affirming the Tawrah and upholding it, {ji j > fk=o &%>} and to make lawful to you part of what was forbidden to you.} This part of the Ayah indicates that Isa abrogated some of the Laws of the Tawrah and informed the Jews of the truth

iso zwrite us down among those who bear witness} Meaning among the Ummah of Muhammad. 111 This Hadith has a good chain of narration. The Jews Plot to Kill Isa Allah states that the Children of Israel tried to kill Isa by conspiring to defame him and crucify him. They complained about him to the king who was a disbeliever. They claimed that Isa was a man who misguided people, discouraged them from obeying the king, caused division, and separated between man and his own son. They also said other lies about Isa, which they will cany on their necks, including accusing him of being an illegitimate son. The king became furious and sent his men to capture Isa to torture and crucify him. When they surrounded Isa s home and he thought that they would surely capture him, Allah saved him from them, raising him up from the house to heaven. Allah put the image of Isa on a man who was in the house; when the unjust people went in the house while it was still dark, they thought that he was Isa. They captured that man, humiliated and crucified him. They also placed thorns on his head . However, Allah deceived these people. He saved and raised His Prophet from them, leaving them in disarray in the darkness of their transgression, thinking that they had successfully achieved their goal. Allah made their hearts hard, and defiant of the truth, disgracing them in such disgrace that it will remain with them until the Day of Resurrection. This is why Allah said, if 'j ii' iAnd they plotted, and Allah planned too. And Allah is the Best of those who plot.} ^ Some of this story is based on a report from Ibn Abbas which appears in the explanation of Surat An-Nisa no. 156. Ibn Abi Hatim 2 :294 who called them to believe in the truth in its entirety. This is why they had more right to every Prophet than his own nation, especially those who claim to follow their Prophet's way and religion, yet change and alter his religion. Furthermore, Allah abrogated all the laws that were sent down to the Prophets with the Law He sent Muhammad fg with, which consists of the true religion that shall never change or be altered until the commencement of the Last Hour. Muhammad's religion shall always be dominant and victorious over all other religions. This is why Allah allowed Muslims to conquer the eastern and western parts of the world and the kingdoms of the earth. Furthermore, all countries submitted to them; they demolished Kisra (king of Persia) and destroyed the Czar, ridding them of their treasures and spending these treasures for Allah's sake. All this occurred just as their Prophet fg told them it would, when he conveyed Allah's statement, Ljr=> j .Li i \J C cyft iif J ^ t; ; p. $ >&> p oj dUp iAlldh has promised those among you who believe and do righteous good deeds, that He will certainly grant them succession in the land, as He granted it to those before them, and that He will grant them the authority to practice their religion which He has chosen for them. Therefore, Muslims are the true believers in Isa. The Muslims then acquired Ash-Sham from the Christians, causing them to evacuate to Asia Minor, to their fortified city in Constantinople. The Muslims will be above them until the Day of Resurrection. Indeed, he, Muhammad sfe, who is truthful and who received the true news, has conveyed to Muslims that they will conquer Constantinople in the future, and seize its treasures.  This occurred after Ibn Kathir's time.

Rather, 4#3 $ i ft J-i '-fj ot 4He created him from dust, then (He) said to him : "Be! and he was.} Therefore, He Who created Adam without a father or a mother is able to create Isa, as well, without a father. If the claim is made that Isa is Allah s son because he was created without a father, then the same claim befits Adam even more. However, since such a claim regarding Adam is obviously false, then making the same claim about Isa is even more false. Furthermore, by mentioning these facts, Allah emphasizes His ability, by creating Adam without a male or female, Hawa from a male without a female, and Isa from a mother without a father, compared to His creating the rest of creation from male and female. This is why Allah said in Surah Maryam,

The reason for the call to Mubalah and the revelation of the Ayat from the beginning of this Surah until here, is that a delegation from the Christians of Najran (in Yemen) came to Al-Madinah to argue about Isa, claiming that he was divine and the son of Allah. Allah sent down the beginning of this Surah until here, to refute their claims, as Imam Muhammad bin Ishaq bin Yasar and other scholars stated. Muhammad bin Ishaq bin Yasar said in his famous Sirah, The delegation of Christians from Najran came to the Messenger of Allah The delegation consisted of sixty horsemen, including fourteen of their chiefs who make decisions. These men were Al- Aqib, also known as Abdul- Masfih, As-Sayyid, also known as Al- Ayham, Abu Harithah bin Alqamah, of (the family of] Bakr bin Wa'il and Uways bin Al- Harith. They also included, Zayd, Qays, Yazld, Nablh, Khuwaylid, Amr, Khalid, Abdullah and Yuhannas. Three of these men were chiefs of this delegation, Al- Aqib, their leader and to whom they referred for advice and decision; As-Sayyid, their scholar and leader in journeys and social gatherings; and Abu Harithah bin Alqamah, their patriarch, priest and religious leader. Abu Harithah was an Arab man from (the family of] Bakr bin Wa'il, but when he embraced Christianity, the Romans and their kings honored him and built churches for him (or in his honor). They also supported him financially and gave him servants, because they knew how firm his faith in their religion was. Abu Harithah knew the description of the Messenger of Allah jg from what he read in earlier divine Books. However, his otherwise ignorance led him to insist on remaining a Christian, because he was honored and had a high position with the Christians. Ibn Ishaq said, Muhammad bin Ja'far bin Az-Zubayr said that, The (Najran) delegation came to the Messenger of Allah jg in Al-Madlnah, entered his Masjid wearing robes and garments, after the Prophet sg had prayed the Asr prayer. They accompanied a caravan of camels led by Bani Al-Harith bin Kah. The Companions of the Messenger of Allah jg who saw them said that they never saw a delegation like them after that... Then Abu Harithah bin Alqamah and Al- Aqib Abdul- Maslh or As-Sayyid Al- Ayham spoke to the Messenger of Allah 5g, and they were Christians like the king (Roman King). However, they disagreed about Isa; some of them said, He is Allah, while some said, He is the son of Allah, and some others said, He is one of a trinity. Allah is far from what they attribute to Him. Indeed, these are the creeds of the Christians. They claim that Isa is God, since he brought the dead back to life, healed blindness, leprosy and various illnesses, told about matters of the future, created the shape of birds and blew life into them, bringing them to life. However, all these miracles occurred by 111 Ibn Hisham 2:222.

178 Tafsir Ibn Kathir Allah s leave, so that Isa would be a sign from Allah for people. They also claim that Isa is the son of Allah, since he did not have a father and he spoke when he was in the cradle, a miracle which had not occurred by any among the Children of Adam before him, so they claim. They also claim that Isa is one of a trinity, because Allah would say, *We did, command, create and demand. They said, If Allah were one, he would have said, 1 did, command, create and decide. This is why they claim that Isa and Allah are one (Trinity). Allah is far from what they attribute to Him, and we should mention that the Qur an refuted all these false Christian claims. Ibn Ishaq continued, When these Aydt came to the Messenger from Allah jg, thus judging between him and the People of the Book, Allah also commanded the Prophet sg to call them to the Mubalahah if they still refused the truth. The Prophet jg called them to the Mubalahah. They said, O Abu Al- Qasim! Let us think about this matter and get back to you with our decision to what we want to do. They left the Prophet ^and conferred with Al- Aqib, to whom they referred to for advice. They said to him, O Abdul-Masih! What is your advice? He said, By Allah, O Christian fellows! You know that Muhammad is a Messenger and that he brought you the final word regarding your fellow (Isa). You also know that no Prophet conducted Mubalahah with any people, and the old persons among them remained safe and the young people grew up. Indeed, it will be the end of you if you do it. If you have already decided that you will remain in your religion and your creed regarding your fellow (Isa), then conduct a treaty with the man (Muhammad) and go back to your land. They came to the Prophet jg and said, O Abu Al-Qasim! We decided that we cannot do Mubalahah with you and that you remain on your religion, while we remain on our religion. However, send with us a man from your Companions whom you are pleased with to judge between us regarding our monetary disputes, for you are acceptable to us in this regard.

From Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, to Heraclius, Leader of the Romans: peace be upon those who follow the true guidance. Embrace Islam and you will acquire safety, embrace Islam and Allah will grant you a double reward. However, if you turn away from it, then you will carry the burden of the peasants, and, people of the Scripture: Come to a word that is the same betxveen us and you, that we worship none but Allah (Alone), and that we associate no partners with Him, and that none of us shall take others as lords besides Allah." Then, if they turn away, say: "Bear witness that we are Muslims."y Muhammad bin Ishaq and other scholars said that the beginning of Surah Al Imran, and more than eighty verses thereafter; were revealed about the delegation of Najran. Az- Zuhri stated that the people of Najran were the first people to pay the Jizyah (tax money paid to the Muslim State). However, there is no disagreement that the Ayah that ordained the Jizyah [9:29] was revealed after the Fath (conquering Makkah, and therefore, after the delegation of Najran came to Al- Madlnah). So, how can this Ayah

[3:64] be contained in the Prophet's letter to Heraclius before the victory of Makkah, and how can we harmonize between the statements of Muhammad bin Ishaq and Az-Zuhri? The answer is that the delegation of Najran came before Al-Hudaybiyyah (before the victory of Makkah), and what they paid was in lieu of the Mubalahah, not as Jizyah. The Ayah about the Jizyah was later revealed, and its ruling supported what occurred with the Najran people. In support of this opinion, we should mention that in another instance, the ruling on dividing the booty into one - fifth (for the Prophet ﷺ) and four-fifths (for the fighters) agreed with the practice of Abdullah bin Jahsh during the raid that he led before Badr. An Ayah later on upheld the way Abdullah divided the booty. Therefore, it is possible that the Prophet ﷺ wrote this statement (Say, O People of the Scripture...) in his letter to Heraclius before the Ayah was revealed. Later on, the Qur'an agreed with the Prophet's statement, word by word. It is also a fact that the Qur'an was revealed in agreement with what Umar said regarding the captured disbelievers at Badr, the Hijab (Muslim woman code of dress), refraining from performing prayer for the hypocrites, and regarding his statements: 4And take you the Maqdm (place) of Ibrahim as a place of prayer.} [2:125], and, x/ \ Cs-^r ilt may be if he divorced you (all) that his Lord will give him instead of you, wives better than you.} [66:5]. % pe pQ 2Z& uj-l: cjS* f 'J7> d V Cfifj iff' ly-f' i/fd oi^ t*J 4 kij <*"! 465. 184 Tafsir Ibtt Kathir Disputing with the Jews and Christians About the Religion of Ibrahim Allah censures the Jews and Christians for their dispute with Muslims over Ibrahim Al-Khalil and the claim each group made that he was one of them. Al Imran (Part-3) Abdur-Razzaq recorded that Sa'sa'ah bin Yazid said that a man asked Ibn Abbas, During battle, we capture some property belonging to Ahl Adh-Dhimmah such as chickens and sheep. Ibn Abbas said, What do you do in this case? The man said, We say that there is no sin (if we confiscate them) in this case. He said, That is what the People of the Book said, Allah says there is no blame on us to betray and take the properties of the illiterates (Arabs). Verily, if they pay the Jizyah, then you are not allowed their property, except when they willingly give it up. Allah then said, Yes, whoever fulfills his pledge and fears Allah much, fulfills his promise and fears Allah among you, O People of the Book, regarding the covenant Allah took from you to believe in Muhammad when he is sent, just as He took the same covenant from all Prophets and their nations. Whoever avoids Allah's prohibitions, obeys Him and adheres to the Shari'ah that He sent with His Final Messenger and the master of all mankind. Verily, then Allah loves the Muttaqin. Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allah's covenant and their oaths, they shall have no portion in the Hereafter (Paradise). They will not have a share or part in the Hereafter's rewards, Neither will Allah speak to them nor look at them on the Day of Resurrection with His mercy. This Ayah indicates that Allah will not speak words of kindness nor look at them with any mercy, nor will He purify them from sins and impurities. Rather, He will order them to the Fire, and they shall have a painful torment. There are several Hadiths on the subject of this Ayah, some of which follow. The First Hadith Imam

If this is not the right of a Prophet or a Messenger, then indeed, it is not the right of anyone else to issue such a claim. This criticism refers to the ignorant rabbis, priests and teachers of misguidance, unlike the Messengers and their sincere knowledgeable followers who implement their knowledge; for they only command what Allah commands them, as their honorable Messengers conveyed to them. They also forbid what Allah forbade for them, by the words of His honorable Messengers. The Messengers, may Allah's peace and blessings be on all of them, are the emissaries between Allah and His creation, conveying Allah's Message and Trust. means, the proofs and evidences were established, testifying to the truth of what the Messenger was sent with. The truth was thus explained to them, but they reverted to the darkness of polytheism. Therefore, how can such people deserve guidance after they willingly leapt into utter blindness? This is why Allah said, And Allah guides not the people who are wrongdoers. He then said, They are those whose recompense is that on them (rests) the curse of Allah, of the angels and of all mankind. Allah curses them and His creation also curses them. They will abide therein in the curse, Neither will their torment be lightened nor will it be delayed or postponed. for, the torment will not be lessened, not even for an hour. After that, Allah said, *Except for those who repent after that and do righteous deeds. This is why Allah said, never will their repentance be accepted. And they are those who went astray. to those who abandon the path of truth for the path of wickedness. Al-Hafiz Abu Bakr Al-Bazzar recorded that Ibn Abbas said that some people embraced Islam, reverted to disbelief, became Muslims again, then reverted from Islam. They sent their people inquiring about this matter and they asked the Messenger of Allah On that, this Ayah was revealed, Verily, those who disbelieved after their belief and then went on increasing in their disbelief never will their repentance be accepted. The chain of narration is satisfactory. Thereafter, Allah said. JS C3S Ad-Durr Al-Manthur 2:258.

Those who die while disbelievers, shall have no good deed ever accepted from them, even if they spent the earth's fill of gold in what was perceived to be an act of obedience. The Prophet was asked about Abdullah bin Jud'an, who used to be generous to guests, helpful to the indebted and who gave food (to the poor); will all that benefit him? The Prophet said, No, for not even one day during his life did he pronounce, O my Lord! Forgive my sins on the Day of Judgment Similarly, if the disbeliever gave the earth's full of gold as ransom, it will not be accepted from him. Allah said, nor shall compensation be accepted from him, nor shall intercession be of use to him (2:123), and On which there will be neither mutual bargaining nor befriending. (14:31), and, it is said, those who disbelieve, if they had all that is in the earth, and as much again therewith to ransom themselves thereby from the torment

Al Imran (Part-3) iVerily, those who disbelieved, and died while they were disbelievers, the (whole) earth full of gold will not be accepted from anyone of them if they offered it as a ransom The implication of this Ayah is that the disbeliever shall never avoid the torment of Allah, even if he spent the earth s fill of gold, or if he ransoms himself with the earth s fill of gold, - all of its mountains, hills, sand, dust, valleys, forests, land and sea. He said, O Allah, be Witness. They said, Tell us now about your Wali among the angels, for this is when we either follow or shun you. He said, My Wali (who brings down the revelation from Allah) is Jibril, and Allah never sent a Prophet, but Jibril is his Wali. They said, We then shun you. J Ji} ibefore the Tawrah ivas revealed} [3:93], means, Israel forbade that for himself before the Tawrah was revealed. There are two objectives behind revealing this segment of the Ayah. First, he forbade himself the most delightful things for Allah s sake. This practice was allowed during his period of Law, and is, thus, suitable that it is mentioned after Allah s statement, X' 4 A0 j} ABy no means shall you attain Al-Birr, unless you spend of Ahmad 1 :287.

that which you love (3:92). What we are allowed in our Law is to spend in Allah s obedience from what we like and covet [but not to prohibit what Allah has allowed]. Allah said in other Ayat, iAnd gives his wealth, in spite oflovefor it,) [2:177], and; 4 V- J* Jj^j) iAnd they givefood, in spite of their lovefor it,) [76:8]. The second reason is that after Allah refuted the false Christian beliefs and allegations about Isa and his mother. Allah started refuting the Jews here, may Allah curse them, by stating that the abrogation of the Law, that they denied occurs, already occurred in their Law. For instance, Allah has stated in their Book, the Tawrah, that when Nuh departed from the ark, Allah allowed him to eat the meat of all types of animals. Afterwards, Israll forbade the meat and milk of camels for himself, and his children imitated this practice after him. The Tawrah later on prohibited this type of food, and added several more types of prohibitions. Allah allowed Adam to marry his daughters to his sons, and this practice was later forbidden. The Law of Ibrahim allowed the man to take female servants as companions along with his wife, as Ibrahim did when he took Hajar, while he was married to Sarah. Later on, the Tawrah prohibited this practice. It was previously allowed to take two sisters as wives at the same time, as Ya'qub married two sisters at the same time. Later on, this practice was prohibited in the Tawrah. All these examples are in the Tawrah and constitute a Naskh (abrogation) of the Law. Therefore, let the Jews consider what Allah legislated for Isa and if such legislation falls under the category of abrogation or not. Why do they not then follow Isa in this regard? Rather, the Jews defied and rebelled against Isa and against the correct religion that Allah sent Muhammad SS with. This is why Allah said, iAll food was lawful to the Children of Israel, except what Isrd'tl made unlawful for himself before the Tawrdh was revealed} [3:93] meaning, before the Tawrah was revealed, all types of foods were allowed, except what Isratl prohibited for himself. Allah then said, Cl }Say: "Bring here the Tawrdh and recite it, if you are truthful."}, for the Tawrah affirms what we are stating here. Allah said next, iThen

Therefore, follow the religion of Ibrahim that Allah legislated in the Qur'an. Indeed, this is the truth, there is no doubt in it, and the perfect way, and no Prophet has brought a more complete, clear, plain and perfect way than he did. Allah said in other Ayat, Allah said, 4This is because they disobeyed and used to transgress (the limits set by Allah).} meaning, what lured them to disbelieve in Allah's Ayat and kill His Messengers, is the fact that they often disobeyed Allah's commands, committed His prohibitions and transgressed His set limits. The Prohibition of Taking Advisors From Among the Disbelievers Allah forbids His believing servants from taking the hypocrites as advisors, so that the hypocrites do not have the opportunity to expose the secrets of the believers and their plans against their enemies. The hypocrites try their very best to confuse, oppose and harm the believers any way they can, and by using any wicked, evil means at their disposal. They wish the very worst and difficult conditions for the believers. Allah said, oi Take not as (your) Bitanah those other than your own} [3 :118], in reference to taking followers of other religions as consultants and advisors, for advisors of a certain person have access to his most secret affairs.

Only those whom Allah gives immunity are immune .d' Ibn Abi Hatim reported that Ibn Abi Ad-Dahqanah said, Umar bin Al-Khattab was told, There is young man here from the people of Hlrah (in Iraq, who were Christians) who is a proficient scribe. Why do you not appoint him as a scribe? Umar said, 1 would then be taking advisors from among the disbelievers. ' This Ayah and the stoiy about TJmar testify to the fact that Muslims are not allowed to use Ahl Adh- Dhimmah to be scribes in matters that affect the affairs of Muslims and expose their secrets, for they might convey these secrets to combatant disbelievers. The Messenger of Allah sg marched with a thousand of his Companions. When they reached the Shawt area, Abdullah bin Ubayy went back to Al-Madinah with a third of the army, claiming he was angry the Prophet sg did not listen to his advice. He and his supporters said, Ifwe knew that you would fight today, we would have accompanied you. However, we do not think that you will fight today. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ marched until he reached the hillside in the area of Uhud, where they camped in the valley with Mount Uhud behind them. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "No one starts fighting until I issue the command to fight." The Messenger ﷺ prepared his forces for battle, and his army was seven hundred men. He appointed Abdullah bin Jubayr, from Bani Amr bin Awf, to lead the archers who were fifty men. The Prophet ﷺ said to them, "Keep the horsemen away from us, and be aware that we might be attacked from your direction. If victory was for or against us, remain in your positions. And even if you see us being picked up by birds, do not abandon your positions." The Prophet ﷺ wore two protective shields and gave the flag to Mus'ab bin Umayr of Bani Abd Ad-Dar. The Prophet ﷺ also allowed some young men to participate in fighting, but not others, whom he allowed to participate in the battle of Al-Khandaq two years later. The Quraysh mobilized their forces of three thousand men with two hundred horsemen on each flank. They appointed Khalid bin Al-Walid to lead the right side of the horsemen and Ikrimah Ibn Abi Jahl on the left side. They also gave their grand flag to the tribe of Bani Abd Ad-Dar. Allah willing, we will mention the details of this battle later on, if Allah wills. Allah said here, "And (remember) when you left your household in the morning to post the believers at their stations for the battle" [3:121], designating them to various positions, dividing the army to the left and right sides and placing them wherever you command them. "And Allah is All-Hearer, All-Knower." He hears what you say and knows what you conceal in your hearts. Allah said next, "When the parties from among you were about to lose heart," [3:122].

The day of Badr is known as Yawm Al-Furqan [the Day of the Clarification], by which Allah gave victory and dominance to Islam and its people and disgraced and destroyed Shirk, even though the Muslims were few. The Muslims numbered Fath Al-Bari 8:63 I2 * Muslim 4:1948.

Al 'Imran (Part-4) three hundred and thirteen men, with two horses and seventy camels. The rest were foot soldiers without enough supplies for the battle. The enemy army consisted of nine hundred to a thousand men, having enough shields and supplies, battle-ready horses and even various adornments. However, Allah gave victory to His Messenger ﷺ, supported His revelation, and illuminated success on the faces of the Prophet ﷺ and his following. Allah also brought disgrace to Shayatan and his army. This is why Allah reminded His believing servants and pious party of this favor, "All! (1) Allah has already made you victorious at Badr, when you were a weak little force," when you were few then. This Ayah reminds them that victory is only from Allah, not because of a large army and adequate supplies. This is why Allah said in another Ayah, "and on the day of Hunayn (battle) when you rejoiced at your great number, but it availed you naught [9:25], until Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful" [9:27]. Badr is an area between Makkah and Al-Madinah and is known by the well that bears its name, which in turn was so named after Badr bin An-Narayan, the person who dug the well. "So have Taqzud of Allah that you may be grateful." [3:123], means, fulfill the obligations of His obedience. "And when you said to the believers, 'Is it not enough for you that your Lord should help you with three thousand angels set down?'" [4:125]. "But, if you hold on to patience and have Taqwd, and the enemy comes rushing at you; your Lord will help you with five thousand angels having marks (of distinction). } 4126. Allah made it not but as a message of good news for you and as an assurance to your hearts. And there is no victory except from Allah, the All-Mighty, the All-Wise.} 4127. And to Allah belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is in the earth. He forgives whom He wills, and punishes whom He wills. And Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful .} The Support of the Angels The scholars of Tafsir differ over whether the promise contained in these Ayat referred to the battle of Badr or Uhud. The First View There are two opinions about this, one of them saying that Allah's statement, Jaa3 4(Remember) when you said to the believers^ [3: 124], is related to His statement, ii' 4And Allah has already made you victorious at Badr} [3:123]. This was reported from Al-Hasan Al-Basri, Amr Ash-ShaToi, Ar-Rabl bin Anas and several others, ' Ibn Jarir also agreed  Ibn Abi Hatim no. 519-521 with this opinion. Abbad bin MansQr said that Al-Hasan said that Allah's statement, 4^x3' 'Jt && <$3S o' i'> 4(Remember) when you said to the believers, "Is it not enough for you that your Lord should help you with three thousand angels? } [3:124], is about the battle of Badr;' ' Ibn Abi Hatim also recorded this statement. Ibn Abi Hatim then reported that Amr Ash-Shaloi said, On

bin Jabir (a prominent tribe chief) was aiding the idolators, and this news was hard on them, so Allah revealed; jj yd'" o' i'"Is it not enough for you that your Lord (Allah) should help you with three thousand angels sent down?"}, until, ihaving marks (of distinction)} [3:124,125]. The news of the defeat of the idolators [at Badr] reached Kurz and he did not reinforce them, and thus, Allah did not reinforce the Muslims with the five (thousands of angels). |2 ' As for Ar-RabT bin Anas, he said, Allah supported the Muslims with one thousand (angels), then the number reached three thousand, then five thousand. ' If one asks, according to this opinion, how can we combine between this Ayah and Allah's statement about Badr, i(Remember) when you sought help of your Lord and He answered you (saying): "I will help you with a thousand angels, each behind the other (following one another) in succession."} [8:9], until, iiSfLU"^} At-Jabari 7:174. ' Ibn Abi Hatim 2 :520.Tabari 7 :178.

4 Verily! Allah is All-Mighty, All-Wise}? We say that the one thousand mentioned here does not contradict the three thousand mentioned in the above Ayah [3:124], The word in succession means they follow each other and thus indicates that thousands more will follow them. The two Ayat above [8:9 and 3:124] are similar in meaning and it appears that they both were about the battle of Badr, because the angels did fight in the battle of Badr, as the evidence indicates. Allah knows best. Allah's statement, 4's^j o\ 4But if you hold on to patience and have Taqwd,} [3:125) means, if you observe patience while fighting the enemy, all the while fearing Me and obeying My command. Al-Hasan, Qatadah, Ar-Rabl and As-Suddi said that Allah's statement, ui ffijb iand they will come rushing> means, they (angels) will rush to you instantaneously. 111 Al- Awfi said that Ibn Abbas said that the Ayah means, All at once . It is also said that it means, before their anger subsides (against the disbelievers).121 The Second View

The second opinion stipulates that the promise mentioned here [concerning the angels participating in battle] is related to Allah's statement, 4J&S) 5ojiK Up Oi 10 4And (remember) when you left your household in the morning to post the believers at their stationsfor the battle} of Uhud. However, we should add, the angels did not come to the aid of Muslims at Uhud, because Allah made it conditional, 4'^. 4But ifyou hold on to patience and have Taqwa} [3:125]. 111 Ibn Abi Hatim 2 :523,524. AMabari 7:182.

The Muslims were not patient at Uhud. Rather, they ran away and, consequently, did not receive the support of even one angel. Allah's statement, iyour Lord will help you with five thousand angels having marks}, of distinction. Abu Ishaq As-Subay'i said; from Harithah bin Mudarrib said that Ali bin Abi Talib said, The angels were distinguished by wearing white wool at Badr. 111 The angels also had special markings distinguishing their horses. Allah said, if.p$ 504,p tsA V> & Cj} iAllah made it not but as a message ofgood news for you and as an assurance to your hearts^ [3:126]. This Ayah means, Allah sent down angels and told you about their descent to encourage you and to comfort and reassure your hearts. You should know that victory only comes from Allah and that if He willed, He would have defeated your enemy without you having to fight them. For instance, Allah said after commanding the believers to fight, 5 Jb 5 y o'?-; J^iV "ii 4Qf^ ^ Qpti iBut if it had been Allah's will, He Himself could certainly have punished them (without you). iAllah made it not but as a message ofgood news for you and as an assurance to your hearts. And there is no victory except from Allah, the All-Mighty, the All-Wise} [3:126]. If the debtor asks for deferment of the loan, the creditor would require interest and this would occur year after year until the little capital becomes multiplied many times. Just as the Fire was prepared for the disbelievers. It was reported that the meaning of Allah s statement. ias wide as the heavens and the earth} draws the attention to the spaciousness of Paradise. For instance, Allah said in another Ayah, and that He may take martyrs from among you} those who would be killed in Allah's cause and gladly offer their lives seeking His pleasure. And Allah likes not the wrongdoers. And that Allah may test those who believe} [3:140,141], by forgiving them their sins if they have any. Otherwise, Allah will raise their grades according to the losses they suffered. Allah's statement, and destroy the disbelievers}, for it is their conduct that if they gain the upper hand, they transgress and commit aggression.

However, this conduct only leads to ultimate destruction, extermination, perishing and dying out. Allah then said, O you who think that you will enter Paradise before Allah knows (tests) those of you who will perform Jihad and (also) knows (tests) those who are the patient?) [3:142]. The Ayah asks, do you think that you will enter Paradise without being tested with warfare and hardships? Allah said in Surat Al-Baqarah, O you who think that you will enter Paradise without such (trials) as came to those who passed away before you? They were afflicted with severe poverty and ailments and were so shaken... [2:214]. Allah said, O you who think that you will enter Paradise before Allah knows (tests) those of you who will perform Jihad and (also) knows (tests) those who are the patient?) [3:142] meaning, you will not earn Paradise until you are tested and thus Allah knows who among you are the ones who struggle and fight in His cause and are patient in the face of the enemy. Allah said, O you who did indeed wish for death (martyrdom) before you met it. Now you have seen it openly with your own eyes) [3:143]. The Ayah proclaims, O believers! Before today, you wished to encounter the enemy, and ask Allah for your death. However, if you do encounter them, then observe patience and know that Paradise is under the shade of swords.

Our Lord! Forgive us our sins and our transgressions, establish our feet firmly, and give us victory over the disbelieving folk.

Muhammad is no more than a Messenger, and indeed (many) Messengers have passed away before him}, was revealed. This story was collected by Al-Hafiz Abu Bakr Al-Bayhaqi in Dala'il An-Nubuwwah. Allah said next, while chastising those who became weak, O you who think that you will enter Paradise before Allah knows (tests) those of you who will perform Jihad and (also) knows (tests) those who are the patient?}, become disbelievers, and he who turns back on his heels, not the least harm will he do to Allah; and Allah will give reward to those who are grateful}, those who obeyed Allah, defended His religion and followed His Messenger whether he was alive or dead. The Sahih, Musnad and Sunan collections gathered various chains of narration stating that Abu Bakr recited this Ayah when the Messenger of Allah died.

282 Tafsir Ibtidat al-Hikmah Muhammad is no more than a Messenger and indeed (many) Messengers have passed away before him. If he dies or is killed, will you then turn back on your heels? And he who turns back on his heels, not the least harm will he do to Allah; and Allah will reward the grateful.} The narrator added, By Allah, it was as if the people never knew that Allah had revealed this verse before until Abu Bakr recited it, and then whoever heard it, started reciting it. Said bin Al-Musayyib said that Umar said, By Allah! When I heard Abu Bakr recite this Ayah, my feet could not hold me, and I fell to the ground. Allah said, O you who think that you will enter Paradise before Allah knows (tests) those of you who will perform Jihad and (also) knows (tests) those who are the patient?} And no person can ever die except by Allah's leave and at an appointed term.} [3:145] meaning, no one dies except by Allah's decision, after he has finished the term that Allah has destined for him. This is why Allah said, at an appointed term which is similar to His statements, And no aged man is granted a length of life nor is a part cut off from his life, but it is in a Book [35:1-11], and, 'J3 4' 4He it is W?!o has created you from clay, and then has decreed a (stated) term (for you to die) . And there is with Him another determined term (for you to be resurrected)} [6:2]. This Ayah [3:145] encourages cowards to participate in battle; for doing so, or avoiding battle neither decreases, nor increases the life term. Ibn Abi Hatim narrated that, Habib bin Suhban said that a Muslim man, Hujr bin Adi, said in a battle, What prevents you from crossing this river (the Euphrates) to the enemy? Al-Bari 7 :751 .

*J it =" Uj^ iAnd no person can ever die except by Allah's leave and at an appointed term$>? He then crossed the river riding his horse, and when he did, the Muslims followed him. It was also said that the Ayah means that many Prophets witnessed their companions death before their eyes. However, Ibn Ishaq mentioned another explanation in his Strah, saying that this Ayah means, Many a Prophet was killed, and he had many companions whose resolve did not weaken after their Prophet died, and they did not become feeble in the face of the enemy. What they suffered in Jihad in Allah's cause and for the sake of their religion did not make them lose heart. You will find some of your killed men mutilated, but I did not urge my men to do so, yet I do not feel sorry for their deed. Only Al-Bukhari collected this Hadith using this chain of narration.' Muhammad bin Ishaq said that, Abdullah bin Az-Zubayr narrated that Az-Zubayr bin Al- Awwam said, By Allah! I saw the female servants and female companions of Hind (Abu Sufyan s wife) when they uncovered their legs and gave flight. At that time, there was no big or small effort separating us from capturing them. However, the archers went down the mount when the enemy gave flight from the battlefield, seeking to collect the booty. They uncovered our back lines to the horsemen of the disbelievers, who took the chance and attacked us from behind. Then a person shouted, Muhammad has been killed. So we pulled back, and the disbelievers followed us, after we had killed those who carried their flag, and none of them dared to come close the flag, until then. ' (1 > Fath Al-Bari 7 :405

Muhammad bin Ishaq said next, The flag of the disbelievers was left on the ground until Amrah bint Alqamah Al- Harithiyyah picked it up and gave it to the Quraysh who held it. Allah said, {Then He made you flee from them, that He might test you} [3:152].

It is recorded in the Two Sahih that when he was asked about the injuries the Messenger jg sustained [in Uhud], Sahl bin Sa d said, The face of Allah s Messenger jg was injured, his front tooth was broken and his helmet was smashed on his head. Therefore, Fatimah, the daughter of Allah s Messenger jg washed off the blood while Ali was pouring water on her hand. When Fatimah saw that the bleeding increased more by the water, she took a mat, burnt it, and placed the ashes in the wound of the Prophet sg and the blood stopped oozing out. Allah said next, AThere did Allah give you one distress after another} [3:153), He gave you grief over your grief. Ibn Abbas said, The first grief was because of the defeat, especially when it was rumored that Muhammad sg was killed. The second grief was when the idolators went up the mount and The Messenger of Allah sg said, O Allah! It is not for them to rise above us. 111 Abdur-Rahman bin Awf said, The first distress was because of the defeat and the second when a rumor started that Muhammad sg was killed, which to them, was worse than defeat. Ibn Marduwyah recorded both of these. Mujahid and Qatadah said, The first distress was when they heard that Muhammad sg was killed and the second when they suffered casualties and injury." It has also been reported that Qatadah and Ar-RabT bin Anas said that it was the opposite [order]. As- Suddi said that the first distress was because of the victory and booty that they missed and the second because of the enemy rising above them (on the mount). Slumber Overcame the Believers; the Fear that the Hypocrites Suffered Allah reminds His servants of His favor when He sent down on them tranquillity and slumber that overcame them while they were carrying their weapons and feeling distress and grief. In this case, slumber is a favor and carries meanings of calmness and safety. For instance, Allah said in Surat Al-Anfal about the battle of Badr, 4 (Remember) when He covered you with a slumber as a security from Him[^] [8 : 11]. Al-Bukhari recorded that Anas said that, Abu Talhah said, I was among those who were overcome by slumber during the battle of Uhud. This group thought that the idolaters achieved ultimate victory, when their forces took the upper hand in battle, and that Islam and its people would perish. Qatadah said that, And by the mercy of Allah, you dealt with them gently means, With Allah's mercy you became this kind. Al-Hasan Al-Basri said that this, indeed, is the description of the behavior that Allah sent Muhammad ^{gg} with. This Ayah is similar to Allah's statement, Verily, there has come unto you a Messenger from among yourselves. It grieves him that you should receive any injury or difficulty. He is anxious over you (to be rightly guided, to repent to Allah); for the believers (he is) full of pity, kind, and merciful[^] [9:128]. Allah said next, And had you been severe and harsh-hearted, they would have broken away from about you; The severe person is he who utters harsh words, and, harsh-hearted is the person whose heart is hard. Had this been the Prophet's behavior, They would have scattered from around you. However, Allah gathered them and made you kind and soft with them, so that their hearts congregate around you." For instance, before the battle of Badr, the Prophet [^] asked his Companions for if Muslims should intercept the caravan (led by Abu Sufyan). They said, O Messenger of Allah! If you wish to cross the sea, we would follow you in it, and if you march forth to Barkul-Ghimad we would march with you. We would never say what the Children of Israel said to Musa, So go, you and your Lord, and fight you two, we are sitting right here. Rather, we say march forth and we shall march forth with you; and before you, and to your right and left shall we fight. The Prophet ^{gg} also asked them for their opinion about where they should set up camp at Badr. Al-Mundhir bin Amr suggested to camp close to the enemy, for he wished to acquire martyrdom. Concerning the battle of Uhud, the Messenger ^{gg} asked the Companions if they should fortify themselves in Al-Madinah or go out to meet the enemy, and the majority of them requested that they go out to meet the enemy, and he did. He also took their advice on the day of Khandaq (the Trench) about conducting a peace treaty with some of the tribes of Al-Ahzab (the Confederates), in return for giving them one-third of the fruits of Al-Madinah. However, Sa'd bin Tbadah and Sa'd bin Mu'adh rejected this offer and the Prophet ^{gg} went ahead with their advice. The Prophet ^{sg} also asked them if they should attack the idolaters on the Day of Hudaibiyyah, and Abu Bakr disagreed, saying, We did not come here to fight anyone. Rather, we came to perform Umrah. The Prophet ^{gg} agreed. On the day of Ifk, (i.e. the false accusation), the Messenger of Allah (sg said to them, O Muslims! The Reason and Wisdom Behind the Defeat at Uhud

Allah said, When a single disaster smites you, in reference to when the Muslims suffered seventy fatalities during the battle of Uhud, although you smote (your enemies) with one twice as great, during Badr, when the Muslims killed seventy Mushriks and captured seventy others, you say: "From where does this come to us? why did this defeat happen to us? It is from yourselves." Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Umar bin Al-Khattab said, When Uhud occurred, a year after Badr, Muslims were punished for taking ransom from the disbelievers at Badr [in return for releasing the Mushriks whom they captured in that battle]. Thus, they suffered the loss of seventy fatalities and the Companions of the Messenger of Allah gave flight and abandoned him. The Messenger suffered a broken tooth, the helmet was smashed on his head and blood flowed onto his face. Allah then revealed, When a single disaster smites you, although you smote (your enemies) with one twice as great, you say: "From where does this come to us?" Say, "It is from yourselves". because you took the ransom. Furthermore, Muhammad bin Ishaq, Ibn Jurayj, Ar-Rab' bin Anas and As-Suddi said that the Ayah, It is from yourselves means, because you, the archers, disobeyed the Messenger's command to not abandon your positions. And Allah has power over all things. and He does what He wills and decides what He wills, and there is none who can resist His decision. Allah then said, What you suffered on the day the two armies met, was by the leave of Allah, for when you ran away from your enemy, who killed many of you and injured many others, all this occurred by Allah's will Tafsir Ibn Kathir and decree out of His perfect wisdom, in order that He might test the believers, who were patient, firm and were not shaken, And that He might test the hypocrites, it was said to them "Come, fight in the way of Allah or defend yourselves." They said: "Had we known that fighting will take place, we would certainly have followed you." [3:167], This refers to the Companions of Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salul who went back (to Al-Madinah) with him before the battle. Some believers followed them and encouraged them to come back and fight, saying, or defend, so that the number of Muslims increases, as Ibn Abbas, Ikrimah, Said bin Jubayr, Ad-Dahhak, Abu Salih, Al-Hasan and As-Suddi stated. Al-Hasan bin Salih said that this part of the Ayah means, help by supplicating for us, while others said it means, man the posts. However, they refused, saying, "Had we known that fighting will take place, we would certainly have followed you." meaning, according to Mujahid, if we knew that you would fight today, we would join you, but we think you will not fight. Allah said, They were that day, nearer to disbelief than to faith, This Ayah indicates that a person passes through various stages, sometimes being closer to Kufr and sometimes closer to faith, as evident by, rri

Al 'Imran (Part-4) They were that day, nearer to disbelief than to faith, Allah then said, isaying with their mouths what was not in their hearts. for they utter what they do not truly believe in, such as, -fci, & 4"Had zoe knmon that fighting will take place, we would certainly have followed you."} They knew that there was an army of idolators that came from a far land raging against the Muslims, to avenge their noble men whom the Muslims killed in Badr. These idolators came in larger numbers than the Muslims, so it was clear that a battle will certainly occur. Allah said; 4And Allah has full knowledge of what they conceal.} 4(They are) the ones who said about their killed brethren while they themselves sat (at home): "If only they had listened to us, they would not have been killed."} had they listened to our advice and not gone out, they would not have met their demise. Allah said, iU 4 op't 4Say: "Avert death from your own selves, if you speak the truth."} meaning, if staying at home saves one from being killed or from death, then you should not die. However death will come to you even if you were hiding in fortified castles. Therefore, fend death off of yourselves, if you are right. Mujahid said that Jabir bin Abdullah said, This Ayah [3:168] was revealed about Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salul (the chief hypocrite). (1 iii i+UU Uj yT . (1 < At-Tabari 7:383.

320 Tafsir Ibt Kathir give an answer, they say, 'O Lord! We wish that our souls be returned to our bodies so that we are killed in Your cause again.' Allah knew that they did not have any other wish, so they were left} There are several other similar narrations from Anas and Abu Said. Imam

Nay, they are alive, with their Lord, and they have provision. Qatadah, Ar-Rabi and Ad-Dahhak said that these Ayat were revealed about the martyrs of Uhud. [2 ' Abu Bakr Ibn Marduyah recorded that Jabir bin Abdullah said, The Messenger of Allah H looked at me one day and said, O Jabir! Why do I see you sad? I said, O Messenger of Allah! Then convey the news to those 1 left behind '" Allah revealed, yt J-Jl j 'dyi- 'D i'Thmk not of those as dead who are killed in the way of Allah ... 131 Imam Ahmad and Ibn Jarir collected this Hadith, which has a good chain of narration. It appears that the martyrs are of different types, some of them wander in Paradise, and some remain close to this river by the door of Paradise. It is also possible that the river is where all the souls of the martyrs convene and where they are provided with their provision day and night, and Allah knows best. Imam Ahmad narrated a Hadith that contains good news for every believer that his soul will be wandering in Paradise, as well, eating from its fruits, enjoying its delights and happiness and tasting the honor that Allah has prepared in it for him. This Hadith has a unique, authentic chain of narration that includes three of the Four Imams. Imam Ahmad narrated this Hadith from Muhammad bin Idris Ash-Shafi'i who narrated it from Malik bin Anas Al-Asbuhi, from Az-Zuhri, from Abdur-Rahman bin Ka'b bin Malik that his father said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, قَالَ "The soul of the believer becomes a bird that feeds on the trees of Paradise, until Allah sends him back to his body when He resurrects. This Hadith states that the souls of the believers are in the shape of a bird in Paradise. As for the souls of martyrs, they are inside green birds, like the stars to the rest of the believing souls. We ask Allah the Most Generous that He makes us firm on the faith. Allah's statement, قَالَ "They rejoice in what Allah has bestowed upon them" indicates that the martyrs who were killed in Allah's cause are alive with Allah, delighted because of the bounty and happiness they are enjoying. They are also awaiting their brethren, who will die in Allah's cause after them, for they will be meeting them soon. These martyrs do not have fear about Ahmad 1 :266 [at-Tabari 7 :387 3 :455]

the future or sorrow for what they left behind. We ask Allah to grant us Paradise. The Two Sahih record from Anas, the story of the seventy Ansar Companions who were murdered at Bir Ma'unah in one night. In this Hadith, Anas reported that the Prophet ﷺ used to supplicate to Allah in Qunut in prayer against those who killed them. Anas said, A part of the Qur'an was revealed about them, but was later abrogated, Convey to our people that we met Allah and He was pleased with us and made us pleased. [11 Allah said next, قَالَ "They rejoice in a grace and a bounty from Allah, and that Allah will not waste the reward of the believers [3 :171]. Muhammad bin Ishaq commented, They were delighted and pleased because of Allah's promise that was fulfilled for them, and for the tremendous rewards they earned. Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam said, This Ayah encompasses all the believers, martyrs and otherwise. Rarely does Allah mention a bounty and a reward that He granted to the Prophets, without following that with what He has granted the believers after them. The Battle of Hamra Al-Asad Allah said, قَالَ "Those who answered (the Call of) Allah and the Messenger after being wounded [3 :172]. This occurred on the day of Hamra Al-Asad. After the idolaters defeated the Muslims (at Uhud), they started on their way back home, but soon they were concerned because they did not finish off the Muslims in Al-Madinah, so they set out to make that battle the final one. When the Messenger of Allah got news of this, he commanded the Muslims to march to meet the disbelievers, to bring fear to their hearts and to demonstrate that the Muslims still had strength to fight. The [i] Fath Al-Bari 7 :445, Muslim 1 :468.

And the Face of your Lord full of majesty and Itonor will remain forever} [55:26,27]. Therefore, Allah Alone is the Ever-Living Who never dies, while the Jinn, mankind and angels, including those who carry Allah s Throne, shall die. The Irresistible One and Only, will alone remain for ever and ever, remaining Last, as He was the First. This Ayah comforts all creation, since every soul that exists on the earth shall die. When the term of this life comes to an end and the sons of Adam no longer have any new generations, and thus this world ends, Allah will command that the Day of Resurrection commence. Allah will then recompense the creation for their deeds, whether minor or major, many or few, big or small. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded both of these statements. The Two Sahihs record that Abu Musa said that the Messenger of Allah jg said, "Three persons will acquire a double reward. He mentioned among them, 1. Rather, they share the knowledge without a price, and this is why Allah said, "for them is a reward with their Lord, surely, Allah is Swift in account.} Mujahid commented on the verse, "Surely, Allah is swift in account}, He is swift in reckoning, as Ibn Abi Hatim and others have recorded from him. The Command for Patience and Ribat Allah said, "O you who believe! Endure and be more patient, and remember that Allah is with the patient" [3 :200]. patient in the religion that Allah chose for them, Islam. They are not allowed to abandon it in times of comfort or hardship, ease or calamity, until they die as Muslims. They are also commanded to endure against their enemies, those who hid the truth about their religion. 1,1 Similar explanation given by several other scholars among the Salaf. As for Murabatah, it is to endure in acts of worship and perseverance. It also means to await prayer after prayer, as Ibn Abbas, Sahl bin Hanf and Muhammad bin Ka'b Al-Qurazi stated. Ibn Abi Hatim collected a Hadith that was also collected by Muslim and An-Nasab from Abu Hurayrah that "Should I tell you about actions with which Allah forgives sins and raises the grade? Performing perfect ablution in unfavorable conditions, the many steps one takes to the Masjid, and awaiting prayer after the prayer, for this is the Ribat, this is the Ribat, this is the Ribat." [21] They also say that the Murabatah in the above Ayah refers to battles against the enemy, and manning

"Let the servant of the Dinar, the servant of the Dirham and the servant of the Khamisah (of clothes) perish, as he is pleased if these things are given to him, and if not, he is displeased. Let such a person perish and be humiliated, and if he is pierced with a thorn, let him not find anyone to take it out for him. Paradise is for him who holds the reins of his horse, striving in Allah's cause, with his hair unkempt and feet covered with dust : if he is appointed to the vanguard, he is perfectly satisfied with his post of guarding, and if he is appointed in the rearguard, he accepts his post with satisfaction; if he asks for permission he is not permitted, and if he intercedes, his intercession is not accepted" Ibn Jarir recorded that Zayd bin Aslam said, Abu Thabaidah wrote to Umar bin Al-Khattab and mentioned to him that the Romans were mobilizing their forces. Umar wrote back, Allah will soon turn whatever hardship a believing servant suffers, to ease, and no hardship shall ever

We were narrated about in the speech of our Prophet, an authentic statement that never lies. That the dust that erupts by Allah s horses and which fills the nostrils of a man shall never be combined with the smoke of a raging Fire. This, the Book of Allah speaks among us that the martyr is not dead, and the truth in Allah s Book cannot be denied. I met Al-Fudayl Ibn lyad in the Sacred Masjid and gave him the letter. When he read it, his eyes became tearful and he said, Abu Abdur- Rahman (Abdullah bin Al-Mubarak) has said the truth and offered sincere advice to me. He then asked me, Do you write the Hadith? I said, Yes. He said, Write this Hadith as reward for delivering the letter of Abu Abdur-Rahman to me. He then dictated, Mansur bin Al-Mutamir narrated to us that Abu Salih narrated from Abu Hurayrah that a man asked, O Messenger of Allah! (Chapter 4) Virtues of SuratAn-Nisa A Madinan Surah Al- Awfi reported that Ibn Abbas said that Surat An-Nisa was revealed in Al-Madlnah. Ibn Marduwyah recorded similar statements from Abdullah bin Az-Zubayr and Zayd bin Thabit. In his Mustadrak,

The Command to have Taqwa, a Reminder about Creation, and Being Kind to Relatives Allah commands His creatures to have Tciqwa of Him by worshipping Him Alone without partners. He also reminds to them of His ability, in that He created them all from a single person, Adam, peace be unto him. iAnd from him He created his wife) Hawwa (Eve), who was created from Adam s left rib, from his back while he was sleeping. When Adam woke up and saw Hawwa , he liked her and had affection for her, and she felt the same toward him. An authentic Hadith states, O-J&S 1 ^ ijlj i C~4i>- sLlJl jU gyi t$jj ^ <*Woman was created from a rib. Verily, the most curved portion of the rib is its upper part, so, if you should try to straighten it, you will break it, but if you leave it as it is, it will remain crooked .n * Allah s statement, i'3X iAndfrom them both He created many men and women;} means, Allah created from Adam and Hawwa many men and women and distributed them throughout the world in various shapes, characteristics, colors and languages. In the end, their gathering and return will be to Allah. Allah then said, ijc&j 4' & iAnd have Taqwa of Allah through Whom you demand your mutual (rights) and revere the wombs}, protect yourself from Allah by your acts of obedience to Him. Allah s statement, ithrough Whom you demand your mutual (rights)} , is in reference to when some people say, I ask you by Allah, and then by the relation of the Rahim (the womb, i.e. my relationship to you) , according to Ibrahim, Mujahid and Al- Hasan. Ad-Dahhak said; Fear Allah Whom you invoke when you conduct transactions and contracts. 131 And revere the womb by not cutting the relations of the womb, but keep and honor them, as Ibn Abbas, Ikrimah, Mujahid, Al-Hasan, Ad-Dahhak, Ar-Rabl , and others have stated. 111 Path Al-Bari 6 :4Tabari 7:519.Tabari 7:518.Tabari 7:521,522.

370 Tafoir Ibn Kathir Allah s statement, iSurely, Allah is always watching over you. means, He watches all your deeds and sees your every circumstance. In smother Ayah, Allah said; 4-^&$& iAnd Allah is Witness over all things.} [58:6]. An authentic Hadith states, 2lt JupU "Worship Allah as ifyou see Him, for even though you cannot see Him, He sees you. This part of the Ayah encourages having a sense of certainty that Allah is always watching, in a complete and perfect manner. Allah mentioned that He has created mankind from a single father and a single mother, so that they feel compassion for each other and are kind to the weaker among them. In his SahSh,

He would also take a good Dirham and exchange it for a fake Dirham, saying, A Dirham for a Dirham. This was also reported from Mujahid, Ikrimah, Said bin Jubayr, Al-Hasan, Ibn Sirin, Qatadah, Muqatil bin Hayyan, Ad-Dahhak, Abu Malik, Zayd bin Aslam and Abu Sinan. The meaning above is: adding their property to your property is a grave sin and a major mistake, so avoid it.

The Prohibition of Marrying Female Orphans Without

[Tafsir Ibn Kathir (Abridged), Darussalam English Edition, PDF pp. 1068–1073]

Giving a Dowry Allah said, $Zpi&t 4^ ii>} ,l * At-Jabari 7:525. At-Jabari 7:525. At-Jabari 7:526. At-Jabari 7:528. At-Tabari 7:530. Jabari 7:530.

4And if you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly with the orphan girls, then marry (other) women of your choice, two} Allah commands, when one of you is the caretaker of a female orphan and he fears that he might not give her a dowry that is suitable for women of her status, he should marry other women, who are plenty as Allah has not restricted him. Al-Bukhan recorded that A'ishah said, A man was taking care of a female orphan and he married her, although he did not desire to marry her. That girl's money was mixed with his, and he was keeping her portion from her. Afterwards, this Ayah was revealed about his case; if you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly} 11 '

374 Tahir Ibn Kathir iyet whom you desire to marry^ [4:127) refers to the guardian who does not desire to marry an orphan girl under his supervision because she is neither wealthy nor beautiful. The guardians were forbidden to marry their orphan girls possessing property and beauty without being just to them, as they generally refrain from marrying them (when they are neither beautiful nor wealthy).

 111 The Permission to Marry Four Women Allah's statement, {two or three, or four}, means, marry as many women as you like, other than the orphan girls, two, three or four. We should mention that Allah's statement in (mother Ayah, {Who made the angels messengers with wings, - two or three or four} [35:1], does not mean that other angels do not have more than four wings, as there are proofs that some angels do have more wings. Yet, men are prohibited from marrying more than four wives, as the Ayah decrees, since the Ayah specifies what men are allowed of wives, as Ibn Abbas and the majority of scholars stated. If it were allowed for them to have more than four wives, the Ayah would have mentioned it. Imam grave of Abu Righal (from ThamQd, who was saved from their fate because he was in the Sacred Area. But, when he left it, he was tormented like they were). Ash-Shafil, At-Tirmidhi, Ibn Majah, Ad-Daraqutni and Al-Bayhaqi collected this Hadith up to the Prophet's statement, Choose any four of them. Only Ahmad collected the full version of this Hadith. Therefore, had it been allowed for men to marry more than four women at the same time, the Prophet (ﷺ) would have allowed Ghllan to keep more than four of his wives since they all embraced Islam with him. When the Prophet (ﷺ) commanded him to keep just four of them and divorce the rest, this indicated that men are not allowed to keep more than four wives at a time under any circumstances. If this is the case concerning those who already had more than four wives upon embracing Islam, then this ruling applies even more so to marrying more than four. Marrying Only One Wife When One Fears He Might not Do Justice to His Wives Allah's statement, {But if you fear that you will not be able to deal justly (with them), then only one or what your right hands possess.} The Ayah commands, if you fear that you will not be able to do justice between your wives by marrying more than one, then marry only one wife, or satisfy yourself with only female captives, for it is not obligatory to treat them equally, rather it is recommended. So if one does so, that is good, and if not, there is no harm on him. In another Ayah, Allah said, {You will never be able to do perfect justice between wives even if it is your ardent desire} [4:129]. Allah said, {1 * Ahmad 2:14, Al-Umm 5:49, At-Tirmidhi no.1128, Ibn Majah no.1953, Ad-Daraqutni 3 :271 Al-Bayhaqi 7 :182.

{That is nearer to prevent you from Ta'iilu}, meaning, from doing injustice. Ibn Abi Hatim, Ibn Marduwyah and Abu Hatim Ibn Hibban, in his Sahih, recorded that A'ishah said that, the Prophet said that the Ayah, {Lyu Vi yjl} {That is nearer to prevent you from Ta'iilu}, means, from doing injustice.' ' However, Ibn Abi Hatim said that his father said that this Hadith to the Prophet (ﷺ) is a mistake, for it should be attributed to A'ishah not the Prophet (ﷺ). Ibn Abi Hatim reported from Ibn Abbas, A'ishah, Mujahid, Ikrimah, Al-Hasan, Abu Malik, Abu Razin, An-Nakhal, Ash-Sha'bi, Ad-Dahhak, Ata Al-Khurasani, Qatadah, As-Suddi and Muqatil bin Hayyan that Ta'ulu means to deviate [from justice].² ' Giving the Dowry is Obligatory Ali bin Abi Talhah reported Ibn Abbas saying, Nihlah, in Allah's statement, {And give to the women (whom you marry) their Saduqat Nihlah} refers to the dowry.³ Muhammad bin Ishaq narrated from Az-Zuhri that T'irwah said that A'ishah said that Nihlah means obligatory. Muqatil, Qatadah and Ibn Jurayj said, Nihlah means obligatory Ibn Jurayj added: specified. '4 ' Ibn Zayd said, In Arabic, Nihlah, refers to what is necessary. So Allah is commanding: Do not marry unless you give your wife something that is her right. No person after the Prophet (ﷺ) is allowed to marry a woman except with the required dowry, nor by giving false promises about the dowry [intended]. '5

Holding the Property of the Unwise in Escrow Allah prohibited giving the unwise the freedom to do as they wish with wealth, which Allah has made as a means of support for people. This ruling sometimes applies because of being young, as young people are incapable of making wise decisions. It also applies in cases of insanity, erratic behavior and having a weak intellect or religious practice. It applies in cases of bankruptcy, when the debtors ask that the property of a bankrupt person is put in escrow, when his debts cannot be paid off with his money. Ad-Dahhak reported that Ibn Abbas said that Allah's statement.

Some other way mentioned here is the abrogation of this ruling that came later. Ibn Abbas said, The early ruling was confinement, until Allah sent down Surat An-Nur (chapter 24) which abrogated that ruling with the ruling of flogging (for fornication) or stoning to death (for adultery). Similar was reported from Ikrimah, Said bin Jubayr, Al-Hasan, Ata Al-Khurasani, Abu Salih, Qatadah, Zayd bin Aslam and Ad- Dahhak, and this is a matter that is agreed upon. Imam

' Ibn Jarir chose the view that it is general, encompasses all these meanings, adultery, disobedience, defiance, rudeness, and so forth. Meaning that he is allowed to annoy his wife when she does any of these acts until she forfeits all or part of her rights and he then separates from her, and this [view] is good, and Allah knows best. We mentioned the meaning of Qintar in the Tafsir of Surah Al Imran. This Ayah is clear in its indication that the dowry could be substantial. Umar bin Al-Khattab used to discourage giving a large dowry, but later on changed his view. Imam

Hasan Sahih . Al-Hafiz Abu Yala recorded that Masruq said, Umar bin Al- Khattab stood up on the Minbar of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and said, O people! Why do you exaggerate concerning the dowry given to women? The Messenger of Allah ﷺ and his Companions used to pay up to four hundred Dirhams for a dowry, or less than that. Had paying more for a dowry been a part of Taqwa or an honor, you would not have led them in this practice. Therefore, I do not want to hear about a man who pays more than four hundred Dirhams for a dowry. He then went down the Minbar, but a woman from Quraysh said to him, O Leader of the Faithful! You prohibited people from paying more than four hundred Dirhams in a dowry for women? He said, Yes. She said, Have you not heard what Allah sent down in the Qur'an? He said, Which part of it? She said, Have you not heard Allah's statement, 'And if you have given one of them a Qintar?' He said, O Allah! Forgive me... He then went back and stood up on the Minbar saying, 'I had prohibited you from paying more than four hundred Dirhams in a dowry for women. So, let everyone pay what he likes from his money. The chain of narration for this Hadith is strong. And how could you take it (back) while you have gone in unto each other?' how can you take back the dowry from the woman with whom you had sexual relations and she had sexual relations with you? Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, As-Suddi and several others said that this means sexual intercourse.¹² * The Two Sahih's record that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said three times to the spouses who said the Mula'nah;  Abu Dawud 2:582, Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi 4 :255 , An-Nasal 6:117, Ibn Majah 1 :601 |2! Allah prohibits marrying the women whom the father married, in honor and respect to the fathers, not allowing their children to have sexual relations with their wives after they die. A woman becomes ineligible for the son of her husband as soon as the marriage contract is conducted, and there is a consensus on this ruling. Ibn Jarir recorded that Ibn Abbas said, During the time of Jahiliyyah, the people used to prohibit what Allah prohibits (concerning marriage), except marrying the stepmother and taking two sisters as rival wives. Allah sent down, 'And marry not women whom your fathers married,' and, 'and two sisters in wedlock at the same time' [4:23].¹¹¹ Similar was reported from Ata and Qatadah.¹¹² Therefore, the practice that the Ayah mentions is prohibited for this Ummah, being disgraced as an awful sin, Q} ^Indeed it was shameful and Maqtan, and an evil way.} Allah said in other Ayat, 'Come not near to Al-Fawdhish (shameful acts) whether committed openly or secretly' [6:151], and, 'if 'And come not near to unlawful sex. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Ibn Abbas said, (Allah said) I have prohibited for you seven types of relatives by blood and seven by marriage. Ibn Abbas then recited the Ayah, i'M'A j$3es 14^ iForbidden to you (for marriage) are: your mothers, your daughters, your sisters .. ,} ll]

The Mother-in-Law and Stepdaughter are Prohibited in Marriage Allah said next, ⁴⁴ p 4 Your wives mothers, your stepdaughters under your guardianship, born of your wives unto whom you have gone in - but there is no sin on you if you have not gone in unto them,} As for the mother of the wife, she becomes prohibited for marriage for her son-in-law when the marriage is conducted, whether the son-in-law has sexual relations with her daughter or not. As for the wife's daughter, she becomes prohibited for her stepfather when he has sexual relations with her mother, after the marriage contract is ratified. If the man divorces the mother before having sexual relations with her, he is allowed to marry her daughter. So Allah said; iYour stepdaughters under your guardianship, born of your wives unto whom you have gone in - but there is no sin on you if you have not gone in unto them,} to marry the stepdaughter. The Stepdaughter is Prohibited in Marriage Even if She Was Not Under the Guardianship of Her Stepfather Allah said, ⁴⁴ ^ your stepdaughters under your guardianship,} The majority of scholars state that the stepdaughter is prohibited in marriage for her stepfather [who consummated his marriage to her mother] whether she was under his guardianship or not. The Two Sahih recorded that Umm Habibah said, O Messenger of Allah! Marry my sister, the daughter of Abu Sufyan (and in one narration Azzah bint Abu Sufyan). He said, not allowed for me because she is my niece from suckling, for Thuwaybah suckled me and Abu Salamah. Therefore, do not offer me to marry your daughters or sisters." In another narration from Al-Bukhari, raḥimahu llah I not married Umm Salamah, her daughter would not have been allowed for me anyway. Consequently, the Messenger ṣallallahu alaihi waṣallam stated that his marriage to Umm Salamah was the real reason behind that prohibition. Meaning of gone in unto them The Ayah continues, 4 Sit 4 Your wives unto whom you have gone in}, meaning, had sexual relations with them, according to Ibn Abbas and several others. 131 Prohibiting the Daughter-in-Law for Marriage Allah said, *I 1 ' Path Al-Bari 9 :64 and Muslim 2 :1073 FathAl-Bdri 9:62. Allah sent down the Ayat I # iThe wives of your sons who (spring) from your own loins, } ipti } pZTl Cj } in or has He made your adopted sons your real sons.} [33:4], and, ipCj 6sA ^ 'j? } iMuhammad is not the father of any of your men } [33:40], {11 Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Al-Hasan bin Muhammad said, These Ayat are encompassing, IM At-Tabari 8 : 149.

4the wives of your sons}, and, iyour wives' mothers}. This is also the explanation of Tawus, Ibrahim, Az-Zuhri and Makhul. It means that these two Ayat encompass these types of women, whether the marriage was consummated or not, and there is a consensus on this ruling. A Doubt and Rebuttal Why is the wife of one's son from suckling prohibited for him for marriage - that is, if she is no longer married to his son from suckling - as the majority of scholars state, although they are not related by blood? The answer is the Prophet's statement, "Suckling prohibits what blood relations prohibit. n The Prohibition of Taking Two Sisters as Rival Wives Allah said, 3 C -ft ^ & } hi Muslim 2 :1072.

Therefore, no one is allowed to take or keep two sisters as rival wives, according to the consensus of the scholars of the Companions, their followers, and the Imams of old and present. They all stated that taking two sisters as rival wives is prohibited, and that whoever embraces Islam while married to two sisters at the same time is given the choice to keep one of them and divorce the other. Indeed Allah is Ever All-Knower, Well-Acquainted with all things Appointing Two Arbitrators When the Possibility of Estrangement Between Husband and Wife Occurs Allah first mentioned the case of rebellion on the part of the wife. He then mentioned the case of estrangement and alienation between the two spouses. Allah said. a; tSS-j [f, IjLuU CjJl tg ilf you fear a breach between the two, appoint (two) arbitrators, one from his family>. The Fuqaha (scholars of Fiqh) say that when estrangement occurs between the husband and wife, the judge refers them to a trusted person who examines their case in order to stop any wrongs committed between them. If the matter continues or worsens, the judge sends a trustworthy person from the woman's family and a trustworthy person from the man's family to meet with them and examine their case to determine whether it is best for them to part or to remain together. Allah gives preference to staying together, and this is why Allah said. if they both wish for peace, Allah will cause their reconciliation Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas said, Allah commands that a righteous man from the husband's side of the family and the wife's side of the family are appointed, so that they find out who among the spouses is in the wrong. If the man is in the wrong, they prevent him from his wife, and he pays some restitution. If the wife is in the wrong, she remains with her husband, and he does not pay any restitution. If the arbitrators decide that the marriage should remain intact or be dissolved, then their decision is upheld. If they decide that the marriage remains intact, but one of the spouses disagrees while the other agrees, and one of them dies, then the one who agreed inherits from the other, while the spouse who did not agree does not inherit from the spouse who agreed. This was collected by Ibn Abi Hatim and Ibn Jarir. Shaykh Abu TJmar bin Abdul-Barr said, The scholars agree that when the two arbitrators disagree, then the opinion that dissolves the marriage will not be adopted. They also agree that the decision of the arbitrators is binding, even if the two spouses did not appoint them as agents. This is the case if it is decided that they should stay together, but they disagree whether it is binding or not when they decide for separation. Then he mentioned that the majority holds the view that the decision is still binding, even if they did not appoint them to make any decision. v 4^-^ si j'i'j 436. However, Allah will then seal their mouths and their hands and feet will disclose what they used to do. Then, those who disbelieved and disobeyed the Messenger will wish that they were buried in the earth, but they will never be able to hide a single fact from Allah. Abdur-Razzaq 1

O you who believe! Do not approach Salah while you are in a drunken state until you know what you are saying, nor while Junub (sexually impure), except while passing through, until you bathe (your entire body), and if you are ill, or on a journey, or one of you comes from the Gha'it (toilet), or from Lamastum (touching) women, but you do not find water, then perform Tayammum with clean earth, rubbing your faces and hands. Truly, Allah is Ever Oft-Pardoning, Oft-Forgiving. The Prohibition of Approaching Prayer When Drunk or Junub Allah forbade His believing servants from praying while drunk, for one does not know the meaning of what he is saying in that state, and He forbade them from attending the Masjids while sexually impure, except when one is just passing through the Masjid from one door to another. This Ayah was revealed before alcohol consumption was completely prohibited, as evident by the Hadith that we mentioned Surat Al-Baqarah when we explained Allah's statement, They ask you about alcoholic drink and gambling In that Hadith, the Messenger of Allah, recited this Ayah to Umar, who said, O Allah! Explain the ruling about Khamr (intoxicants) for us in a plain manner. When this Ayah [4:43] was revealed, the Prophet recited it to Umar, who said, O Allah! Explain the ruling about Khamr (intoxicants) for us in a plain manner. After that, they would not drink alcohol close to the time of prayer. When Allah's statement, you who believe! alcoholic drinks, gambling, Al-Ansab, and Al-Azlam [11 are an abomination of Shayatan's handiwork. So avoid that in order that you may be successful. [5:90], until, Al-Ansab are stone altars used for the sacrifice of animals to other than Allah. Al-Azlam refers to a type of arrows used for divination

Surah 4, Att-Nisd' (Part-5 4So, will you not then abstain?) [5:91] was revealed, Umar said, We abstain, we abstain. In another narration, when the Ayah in Siirat An-Nisa was revealed, C[&>&& 2 I&5S V 40 you who believe! Another Reason Ibn Abi Hatim narrated that Ali bin Abi Talib said, Abdur- Rahman bin Awf made some food to which he invited us and served some alcohol to drink. When we became intoxicated, and the time for prayer came, they asked someone to lead us in prayer. He recited Say, O disbelievers! I do not worship that which you worship, but we worship that which you worship [refer to the correct wording of the Surah: 109]. Allah then revealed, U csj& ijSjJu y you who believe! Allah s statement, iuntil you know what you are saying is the best description for when one is intoxicated, that is, when he does not know the meaning of what he is saying. When a person is drunk, he makes obvious mistakes in the recitation and will not be able to be humble during the prayer. Imam

Allah s Messenger jg got up when dawn broke and there was no water. So Allah revealed the verses of Tayammum, and they all performed

Allah's statement, 4And "Hear and let you hear nothing. means, hear our words, may you never hear anything, as Ad-Dahhak reported from Ibn Abbas. 121 This is the Jews' way of mocking and jesting, may Allah's curse descend on them. 4And Ra'ina, zoith a twist of their tongues and as a mockery of the religion meaning, they pretend to say, Hear us, when they say, Ra'ina (an insult in Hebrew, but in Arabic it means Listen to us.). It was reported that the reason behind revealing this Ayah was that a man from the Ansar and a Jew had a dispute, and the Jew said, Let us refer to Muhammad to judge between us. However, the Muslim man said, Let us refer to Kah bin Al- Ashraf (a Jew) to judge between us. It was also reported that the Ayah was revealed about some hypocrites who pretended to be Muslims, yet they sought to refer to the judgment of Jahiliyyah. Other reasons were also reported behind the revelation of the Ayah. However, the Ayah has a general meaning, as it chastises all those who refrain from referring to the Qur'an and Sunnah for judgment and prefer the judgment of whatever they chose of falsehood, which befits the description of Taghut here. Another Reason In his Tafsir, Al-Hafiz Abu Ishaq Ibrahim bin Abdur- Rahman bin Ibrahim bin Duhaym recorded that Damrah narrated that two men took their dispute to the Prophet and he gave a judgment to the benefit of whoever among them had the right. The person who lost the dispute said, I do not agree. The other person asked him, What do you want then? He said, Let us go to Abu Bakr As-Siddiq. They went to Abu Bakr and the person who won the dispute said, We went to the Prophet jg with our dispute and he issued a decision in my favor. Abu Bakr said, Then the decision is that which the Messenger of Allah jg issued. The person who lost the dispute still rejected the decision and said, Let us go to TJmar bin Al- Khattab. When they went to TJmar, the person who won the dispute said, We took our dispute to the Prophet jg and he decided in my favor, but this man refused to submit to the decision. TJmar bin Al- Khattab asked the second man and he concurred. Umar went to his house and emerged from it holding aloft his sword. He struck the head of the man who rejected the Prophet's decision with the sword and killed him. The Reason Behind Revealing this Honorable Ayah

Ibn Jarir recorded that Said bin Jubayr said, An Ansari man came to the Messenger of Allah sg while feeling sad. The Prophet said to him, Why do I see you sad? He said, O Allah s Prophet! I was contemplating about something. The Prophet sg said, What is it? The Ansari said, We come to you day and night, looking at your face and sitting by you. Tomorrow, you will be raised with the Prophets, and we will not be able to see you. The Prophet jg did not say anything, but later Jibril came down to him with this Ayah, Si*| !' Si i*"" Syi' iAnd whoever obeys Allah and the Messenger then they will be in the company of those on whom Allah has bestowed His grace, of the Prophets}, and the Prophet sent the good news to the Ansari man. ' This Hadith was narrated in Mursal form ' from Masruq, Ikrimah, Amir Ash-Shalji, Qatadah and Ar-Rabx bin Anas. This is the version with the best chain of narrators. Abu Bakr bin Marduwyah recorded it with a different chain from A ishah, Al-Bari 8 : 103 4:1893 4:1894 At-Tabari 8 :534 * The chain of narration is missing the name of the Companion

For instance, Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salul, may Allah curse him, used to linger behind and lure other people to do the same and refrain from joining Jihad, as Ibn Jurayj and Ibn Jarir stated. They were also commanded to be forgiving and forbearing with the idolators and to observe patience with them at the time. However, they were eager and anticipating the time when they would be allowed to fight, so that they could punish their enemies. The situation at that time did not permit armed conflict for many reasons. For instance, Muslims were few at the time, compared to then- numerous enemies. The Muslims city was a sacred one and the most honored area on the earth, and this is why the command to fight was not revealed in Makkah. Later on when the Muslims controlled a town of their own, Al-Madinah, and had strength, power and support, Jihdd was then legislated. Yet, when the command to fight was revealed, just as Muslims wished, some of them became weary and were very fearful of the Messenger of Allah divorced his wives, he came from his house, entered the Masjid and found the people talking about this news. He could not wait and went to the Prophet to ask him about what had truly happened, asking him, Have you divorced your wives? The Prophet said, No. Umar said, I said, Allah knows and mentioned the rest of the Hadith. In the narration that Muslim collected, Umar said, I asked, Have you divorced them? He said, Yes. So, I stood by the door of the Masjid and shouted with the loudest voice, The Messenger of Allah did not divorce his wives. Then, this Ayah was revealed, "When there comes to them some matter touching (public) safety or fear, they make it known (among the people), if only they had referred it to the Messenger or to those charged with authority among them, the proper investigators would have understood it from them (directly)." Warning Against Intentional Murder

After Allah mentioned the ruling of unintentional murder, He mentioned the ruling for intentional murder. Allah said, ty j- 4And whoever kills a believer intentionally,} This Ayah carries a stem warning and promise for those who commit so grave a sin that it is mentioned along with Shirk in several Ayat of Allah s Book. For instance, in Surat Al- Furqan, Allah said, % ill p$ tfZ % . & 4And those who invoke not any other god along with Allah, nor kill such person as Allah has forbidden, except for just cause}. Allah said, 4Say : "Come, I will recite what your Lord has prohibited you from: Join not anything in worship with Him.} [6:151]. There are many Ayat and Hadiths that prohibit murder. In the Two Sahihs, it is recorded that Ibn Mas ud said that the Messenger of Allah sg said, iBlood offenses are the first disputes to be judged between the people on the Day ofResurrection ." 111 Path Al-Bari 1 1 : 402 and Muslim 3 :1304

}And those who invoke not any other god along with Allah}, until, 4Except those who repent and believe, and do righteous deeds}. The Ayah we just mentioned should not be considered abrogated or only applicable to the disbelievers [who become Muslim], for this contradicts the general, encompassing indications of the Ayah and requires evidence to support it. Allah knows best. Allah said, 4?i' ij~j Oi i" * V I iSay: "O My servants who have transgressed against themselves! Despair not of the mercy ofAllah}. This Ayah is general, covering all types of sins, including Kufr, Shirk, doubt, hypocrisy, murder, sin, and so forth. Therefore, everyone who repents sincerely from any of these errors, then Allah will forgive him. Allah said, a c *X& d #5 -t& l\} 4 Verily, Allah forgives not that partners should be set up with Him (in worship), but Heforgives except that (anything else) to whom He wills}. This Ayah is general and includes eveiy sin except Shirk, and it has been mentioned in this Surah, both after this Ayah and before it, in order to encourage hope in Allah, and Allah knows best. It is confirmed in the Two Sahihs, that an Israeli killed one hundred people then he asked a scholar, Is it possible for me to repent? So he replied, What is there that would prevent you from repentance? So he told him to go to another land where Allah was worshipped. He began to emigrate to it but died on the way, and the angel of mercy was the one to take him. ' Although this Hadith is about an Israeli, it is even more suitable for the Muslim community that their repentance be accepted. Indeed, Allah relieved Muslims (i) Fath Al-Bari6 :59 1 and Muslim 4 :2 1 18 from the burdens and restrictions that were placed on the Jews, and He sent our Prophet jg with the easy Hanifiyyah way (Islamic Monotheism). As for the honorable Ayah, o*jf 4And whoever kills a believer intentionally}, Abu Hurayrah and several among the Salaf said that this is his punishment, if Allah decides to punish him. And this is the case with every threat that is issued for eveiy sin. For instance, there could be good deeds that this person has done that would prevent him from being punished for that, and Allah knows best. Even if the murderer inevitably enters the Fire - as Ibn Abbas stated because his repentance was not accepted, or he did not have good deeds to save him, he will not remain there for eternity, but only for a long time. emigration is for Allah and His Messenger. And whoever emigrated for worldly benefits or for a woman to marry, his emigration is for what he emigrated for. ",1J This Hadith is general, it applies to Hijrah as well as every other deed. In the Two Sahihs, it is recorded that a man killed ninety-nine people and completed the number one hundred when he killed a worshipper. He then asked a scholar if he has a chance to repent. The scholar said, What prevents you from repentance? The scholar told the killer to emigrate from his land to another land where Allah is worshipped. When he left his land and started on the migration to the other land, death overtook him on the way. The angels of mercy and the angels of torment disputed about the man, whereas the former said that he went out in repentance, while the latter said that he did not arrive at his destination. They were commanded to measure the distance between the two lands and to whichever land he is closer to, he will be considered part of that land. Allah commanded that the righteous land to move closer and the land of evil to move farther. The angels found that he died closer to the land that he intended to emigrate to by a hand- span, and thus the angels of mercy captured his soul. In another narration, when death came to that man, he moved his chest towards the righteous village that he emigrated to. i:k.&# \tfr kgs k rtf 4101. Verily, Allah has prepared a humiliating torment for the disbelievers.} The Description of The Fear Prayer The Fear prayer has different forms, for the enemy is sometimes in the direction of the Qiblah and sometimes in another direction. The Fear prayer consists sometimes of four Rak'ahs, three Rak'ahs, as for Maghrib, and sometimes two Rak'ah like Fajr and prayer during travel. The Fear prayer is sometimes prayed in congregation, but when the battle is raging, congregational prayer may not be possible. In this case, they pray each by himself, facing the Qiblah or otherwise, riding or on foot. In this situation, they are allowed to walk and fight, all the while performing the acts of the prayer. Some scholars said that in the latter case, they pray only one Rak'ah, for Ibn 'Abbas narrated, By the words of your Prophet si, Allah has ordained the prayer of four Rak'ah while residing, two Rak'ah during travel, and one Rak'ah during fear.

Yet, the hypocrites disclose this evil with Allah, Who has perfect watch over their secrets and knows what is in their hearts. This is why Allah said, "He is with them (by His knowledge), when they plot by night in words that He does not approve. And Allah ever encompasses what they do" threatening and warning them. Allah then said, "Lo! '>-ilt will not be in accordance with your desires, nor those of the People of the Scripture, whosoever works evil, will have the recompense thereof} . ,1) This Ayah indicates that the religion is not accepted on account of wishful thinking or mere hopes. Rather, the accepted religion relies on what resides in the heart and which is made truthful through actions. It is not true that when one utters a claim to something, he attains it merely on account of his claim. It is not true that every person who claims to be on the truth is considered as such, merely on account of his words, until his claim gains merit with proof from Allah. Hence Allah's statement, ' > it will not be in accordance with your desires, nor those of the People of the Scripture, whosoever works evil, will have the recompense thereof}, meaning safety will not be acquired by you or them just by wishful thinking. Rather, the key is in obeying Allah and following what He has legislated through the words of His honorable Messengers. He also stated that He will admit the believers into Paradise and will not withhold any of their righteous deeds, even the weight of a Naqir - speck on the back of a date-stone. Earlier, we discussed the FatH - the scaly thread in the long slit of a date-stone, and both of these, along with the Qitmir - the thin membrane over the date-stone were mentioned in the Qur'an. Allah then said, 4^, lA-i &A IfdA [ff} iAnd who can be better in religion than one who submits his face to Allah.} meaning, performs the good actions in sincerity for his Lord with faith and awaiting the reward with Allah, iand he is a Muhsin} following the correct guidance that Allah legislated in the religion of truth which He sent His Messenger Sg with. These are the two conditions, in the absence of which no deed will be accepted from anyone; sincerity and correctness. The work is sincere when it is performed for Allah alone and it becomes correct when it conforms to the Shar'ah. So, the m At-Tabari 9 :239 deed becomes outwardly correct with following the Sunnah and inwardly correct with sincerity. When any deed lacks either of these two conditions, the deed becomes null and void. For instance, when one lacks the pillar of sincerity in his work, he becomes a hypocrite who shows off for people. Whoever does not follow the Shari'ah, he becomes an ignorant, wicked person. When one combines both pillars, his actions will be the deeds of the faithful believers whose best deeds are accepted from them and their errors erased. An-Nisa (Part-5) forbidden to marry their orphan girls possessing property and beauty without being just to them, as they generally refrain from marrying them (when they are neither beautiful nor wealthy). 11 The basis of this is recorded in Two Sahihs. Consequently, when a man is the caretaker of a female orphan, he might like to marry her himself. In this case, Allah commands him to give her a suitable dowry that other women of her status get. If he does not want to do that, then let him marry other women, for Allah has made this matter easy for Muslims. Sometimes, the caretaker does not desire to marry the orphan under his care, because she is not attractive to his eye. In this case, Allah forbids the caretaker from preventing the female orphan from marrying another man for fear that her husband would share in the money that is mutually shared between the caretaker and the girl. Ali bin Abi Talhah said that Ibn Abbas said, During the time of Jahiliyyah, the caretaker of a female orphan would cover her with his rope, and when he did that, no man would marry her. If she was beautiful and he desired to marry her, he married her and took control of her wealth. If she was not beautiful, he did not allow her to marry until she died, and when she died he inherited her money. Allah prohibited and outlawed this practice. I He also said about Allah s statement, iand the children who are weak and oppressed that during the time of JcLhiliyyah, they used to deny young children and females a share of inheritance. sometimes he parts with her. In the first case, when the wife fears that her husband is steering away from her or deserting her, she is allowed to forfeit all or part of her rights, such as provisions, clothing, dwelling, and so forth, and the husband is allowed to accept such concessions from her. Hence, there is no harm if she offers such concessions, and if her husband accepts them. Ali bin Abi Talhah related that Ibn Abbas said that the Ayah refers to, When the husband gives his wife the choice between staying with him or leaving him, as this is better than the husband preferring other wives to her. 11 ' However, the apparent wording of the Ayah refers to the settlement where the wife forfeits some of the rights she has over her husband, with the husband agreeing to this concession, and that this settlement is better than divorce. For instance, the Prophet jfe kept Sawdah bint Zam'ah as his wife after she offered to forfeit her day for A ishah. By keeping her among his wives, his Ummah may follow this kind of settlement. In a similar Ayah, Allah said, And if you turn away, He will exchange you for some other people and they will not be your likes} Allah's statement, Whoever desires the rewards of this life, then with Allah is the reward of this worldly life and of the Hereafter.} means, O those whose ultimate desire is this life, know that Allah owns the rewards of this life and the Hereafter. Therefore, if you ask Allah for both, He will enrich you, award you and suffice for you. As Allah said, It is up to Allah to give you what He will. But of mankind there are some who say: "Our Lord! Give us in this world! and for such there will be no portion in the Hereafter. And of them there are some who say: "Our Lord! Allah's statement, "And they do not remember Allah but little" means, during the prayer they do not feel humbleness or pay attention to what they are reciting. Rather, during their prayer, they are inattentive, jesting and avoid the good that they are meant to receive from prayer. Imam Malik reported that Al-Ala bin Abdur-Rahman said that Anas bin Malik said that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said, "This is the prayer of the hypocrite, this is the prayer of the hypocrite, this is the prayer of the hypocrite. Mujahid said; "(They are) swaying between this and that, belonging neither to these The Companions of Muhammad (ﷺ), nor to those": the Jews. [Tafsir Ibn Kathir (Abridged), Darussalam English Edition, PDF pp. 1317–1327]

Allah forbids His believing servants from taking the disbelievers as friends instead of the believers. This includes being friends and associates of the disbelievers, advising them, being intimate with them and exposing the secrets of the believers to them. In another Ayah, Allah said, "Whoever is with the hypocrites, Allah will punish him." [11:343 Al-Bari 2 :53 and Muslim 1 :451]

4Let not the believers take the disbelievers as friends instead of the believers, and whoever does that, will never be helped by Allah in any way, except if you indeed fear a danger from them. And Allah warns you against Himself meaning, He warns you against His punishment if you fall into what He has prohibited. This is why Allah said here, iDo you wish to offer Allah a manifest Sultan against yourselves?} meaning, proof against you that warrants receiving His torment. Ibn Abi Hatim narrated that Ibn Abbas commented; imanifest Sultan}, The word Sultan in the Qur'an means proof. There is an authentic chain of narration for this statement, which is also the saying of Mujahid, Ilcrimah, Said bin Jubayr, Muhammad bin Kal) Al-Qurazi, Ad-Dahhak, As-Suddi and An-Nadr bin Arabi. The Hypocrites and the Friends of Disbelievers are in the Lowest Depth of the Fire, Unless they Repent Allah then states that, 4M S? 4-^" 4 <&&& $1 Verily, the hypocrites will be in the lowest depths of the Fire;} on the Day of Resurrection due to their tremendous Kufr. Al- Walibi [Ali bin Abi Talhah] said that Ibn Abbas said, 4in the lowest depths (grade) of the Fire;} means, in the bottom of the Fire. Allah then states that whoever among the hypocrites repents in this life, Allah will accept his repentance and sorrow, if his repentance were sincere and he then follows it by performing righteous deeds, all the while depending on his Lord. Allah said, iExcept those who repent (from hypocrisy), do righteous good deeds, depend on Allah, and purify their religion for Allah} replacing showing off with sincerity, so that their good deeds will benefit them, even if they were minute. ik&P c? ithen they zoill be with the believers.} on the Day of Resurrection, iilf yjj iAnd Allah tvill grant to the believers a great reivard.} Allah then states that He is too Rich to need anyone and that He only punishes the servants because of their sins, i pX'3 i&pZ } iWhy should Allah punish you if you have thanked (Him) and have believed in Him.} Ill At-Tabari 9 :339

Important Guidelines About the Authenticity of the Reports and Quotations in the Tafsir of Ibn Kathir Reports from the Companions of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) that are attributed to the companions of Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) are commonly used for additional explanation of the meanings of the Qur'an. As for those quotes that Ibn Kathir mentions in passing, these quotes may, or may not be authentically attributed to them. Wherever it is mentioned that one of them said something, and that statement contradicts other clearly authentic texts, then such statements can not be held as an evidence against what is known to be authentic. Additional information in this regard is found in the Introduction of Ibn Kathir. Incomplete Chains of Narration The following is a list of common incomplete chains of narrations that Al-Hafiz Ibn Kathir often quotes. - Ali bin Abi Talhah (Al-Walibi) reported that Ibn Abbas said... - (Atiyah) Al-Awfi reported that Ibn Abbas said... - Ad-Dahhak from Ibn Abbas. - As-Suddi reported from Abu Malik and Abu Salih from Ibn Abbas, Ibn Mas'ud and (or) some men among the companions. - Al-Hasan Al-Basri reporting from or about the Prophet (ﷺ). - Az-Zuhri [Muhammad bin Shihab] reporting from or about the Prophet (ﷺ). - Urwah bin Az-Zubayr reporting from or about the Prophet (ﷺ). - Ikrimah reporting from or about the Prophet (ﷺ). - Qatadah reporting from or about the Prophet (ﷺ). All narrations coming from these chains are unauthentic according to the Sciences of Hadith. Their meanings, however, may be correct as understood by authentic texts, and for this reason they are commonly referenced.

Reports from the Followers of the Companions and those who Follow them The following is a list of those who did not see the Prophet (ﷺ), but they report from companions of the Prophet (ﷺ), while often they themselves are quoted for Tafsir. Reports that are attributed to them are used as additional support in understanding certain issues by Ibn Kathir. Such quotes may, or may not be authentically attributed to them. Wherever it is mentioned that one of them said something, and that statement contradicts other clearly authentic texts, then such statements can not be held as evidence against the authentic evidence. Abu Al-Aliyah, Said bin Jubayr, Said bin Al-Musayib, Ata (bin Abi Rabah), Ata Al-Khurrasani, Muqatil bin Hayyan, Ar-Rab' bin Anas, Ash-ShaTibi, Qatadah, Mujahid, Ikrimah, Ad-Dahhak, Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam (Ibn Zayd), Ibn Jurayj. Other Scholars After the Companions The following are some scholars that Ibn Kathir often quotes from. Since these scholars are not well known to the average English reader, one should beware that their own statements about the Prophet ﷺ, his companions, or circumstances surrounding the Qur'an's revelation, are not to be considered as important as authentically narrated texts. And those who believe in Allah and His Messengers and make no distinction between any of them (Messengers), We shall give them their rewards; and Allah is Ever Forgiving, Most Merciful .} Believing in Some Prophets and Rejecting Others is Pure Kufr Allah threatens those who disbelieve in Him and in His Messengers, such as the Jews and Christians, who differentiate between Allah and His Messengers regarding faith. They believe in some Prophets and reject others, following their desires, lusts and the practices of their forefathers. They do not follow any proof for such distinction, because there is no such proof. Rather, they follow their lusts and prejudices. I 1 * Muslim 4 :2001 .

The Jews, may Allah curse them, believe in the Prophets, except Isa and Muhammad, peace be upon them. The Christians believe in the Prophets but reject their Final and Seal, and the most honored among the prophets, Muhammad, peace be upon him. In addition, the Samirah (Samaritans) do not believe in any Prophet after Yuwsha' (Joshua), the successor of Mtisa bin Imran. The Majus (Zoroastrians) are said to believe only in a Prophet called Zoroaster, although they do not believe in the law he brought them casting it behind them, and Allah knows best. Therefore, whoever rejects only one of Allah s Prophets, he will have disbelieved in all of them, because it is required from mankind to believe in every prophet whom Allah sent to the people of the earth. And whoever rejects one Prophet, out of envy, bias and personal whim, he only demonstrates that his faith in other Prophets is not valid, but an act of following desire and whim. This is why Allah said, iVerily, those who disbelieve in Allah and His Messengers... Thus, Allah describes these people as disbelievers in Allah and His Messengers; iand wish to make distinction between Allah and His Messengers} in faith, > /. cyty isaying, "We believe in some but reject others," and wish to adopt a way in between .} Allah then describes them; iThey are in truth disbelievers.} meaning, their disbelief in the Prophet they claim to believe in is clear. This is because their claimed faith in a certain Messenger is not true, for had they truly believed in him, they would have believed in other Messengers, especially if the other Messenger has a stronger proof for his truthfulness. Or

An-Nisa' (150 - 151) (Part-6) at least, they would have strived hard to acquire knowledge of the truth of the other Messenger. Allah said, iAttd We have prepared far the disbelievers a humiliating torment.} This is just punishment for belittling the Prophets whom they disbelieved in, by ignoring what the Prophet brought to them from Allah, and because they are interested in the insignificant possessions of this world. Or, their behavior could be the result of their disbelief in the Prophet after they were aware of his truth, just as the Jewish rabbis did during the time of Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah jg. The Jews envied the Messenger because of the great prophethood that Allah gave him, and as a consequence, they denied the Messenger, defied him, became his enemies and fought against him. Ibn Jurayj said that the Jews asked the Messenger to cause books to come down to them addressed to so-and-so among them, testifying to the truth of what he was sent with.¹² The Jews only asked for this because of their stubbornness, defiance, rejection and disbelief. The disbelievers of Quraysh also asked for similar things from the Prophet, as is mentioned in Surat Al-Isra , At-Tabari 9:356, 357. Jabari 9:357.

Allah then said, -ji iso they believe not but a little.} for their hearts became accustomed to Kufr, transgression and weak faith. The Evil Accusation the Jews Uttered Against Maryam and Their Claim that They Killed Isa Allah said, iAnd because of their (Jews) disbelief and uttering against Maryam a grave false charge.} Ali bin Abi Talhah said that Ibn Abbas stated that the Jews accused Maryam of fornication.' ' This is also the saying of As- Suddi, Juwaybir, Muhammad bin Ishaq and several others. |2 This meaning is also apparent in the Ayah, as the Jews accused Maryam and her son of grave accusations: They accused her of fornication and claimed that Isa was an illegitimate son. Some of them even claimed that she was menstruating while fornicating. May Allah s continued curse be upon them until the Day of Resurrection. The Jews also said.Tabari 9:367. ' At-Tabari 9 :367

4"We killed Al-Masih, 'isa, son ofMaryam, the Messenger of Allah,"} meaning, we killed the person who claimed to be the Messenger of Allah. The Jews only uttered these words in jest and mockery, just as the polytheists said, iO you to whom the Dhikr (the Qur'an) has been sent down! Verily, you are a mad man!} When Allah sent Isa with proofs and guidance, the Jews, may Allah s curses, anger, torment and punishment be upon them, envied him because of his prophethood and obvious miracles; curing the blind and leprous and bringing the dead back to life, by Allah s leave. He also used to make the shape of a bird from clay and blow in it, and it became a bird by Allah s leave and flew. Isa performed other miracles that Allah honored him with, yet the Jews defied and bellied him and tried their best to harm him. Allah s Prophet Isa could not live in any one city for long and he had to travel often with his mother, peace be upon them. Even so, the Jews were not satisfied, and they went to the king of Damascus at that time, a Greek polytheist who worshipped the stars. They told him that there was a man in Bayt Al-Maqdis misguiding and dividing the people in Jerusalem and stirring unrest among the king s subjects. The king became angry and wrote to his deputy in Jerusalem to arrest the rebel leader, stop him from causing unrest, crucify him and make him wear a crown of thorns. When the king s deputy in Jerusalem received these orders, he went with some Jews to the house that Isa was residing in, and he was then with twelve, thirteen or seventeen of his companions. That day was a Friday, in the evening. They surrounded Isa in the house, and when he felt that they would soon enter the house or that he would sooner or later have to leave it, he said to his companions, Who volunteers to be made to look like me, for which he will be my companion in Paradise? A young man volunteered, but Isa thought that he was too young. He asked the question a second and third time, each time the young man volunteering, prompting Isa to say, Well then, you will be that man. Allah made the young man look exactly like Isa, while a hole opened in the roof of the house, and Isa was made to sleep and ascended to heaven while asleep. Allah said, it),\ J^ iAnd (remember) when Allah said: "O 'Isa! I will take you and raise you to Myself.}" When Isa ascended, those who were in the house came out. When those surrounding the house saw the man who looked like Isa, they thought that he was Isa. So they took him at night, crucified him and placed a crown of thorns on his head. The Jews then boasted that they killed Isa and some Christians accepted their false claim, due to their ignorance and lack of reason. As for those who were in the house with Isa, they witnessed his ascension to heaven, while the rest thought that the Jews killed Isa by crucifixion. They even said that Maryam sat under the corpse of the crucified man and cried, and they say that the dead man spoke to her. All this was a test from Allah for His servants out of His wisdom. Allah explained this matter in the Glorious Qur'an which He sent to His honorable Messenger, whom He supported with miracles and clear, unequivocal evidence. Allah is the Most Truthful, and He is the Lord of the worlds Who knows the secrets, what the hearts conceal, the hidden matters in heaven and earth, what has occurred, what will occur, and what would occur if it was decreed. He said, ‘‘But they killed him not, nor crucified him, but it appeared as though to them,’’ referring to the person whom the Jews thought was Isa. This is why Allah said afterwards, ‘‘Those who differ therein are full of doubts. They have no (certain) knowledge, they follow nothing but conjecture.’’ referring to the Jews who claimed to kill Isa and the ignorant Christians who believed them. Indeed they are all in confusion, misguidance and bewilderment. This is why Allah said, ‘‘Indeed, they are all in confusion, misguidance and bewilderment.’’

‘‘For surely; they killed him not.’’ meaning they are not sure that Isa was the one whom they killed. Rather, they are in doubt and confusion over this matter. ‘‘But Allah raised him up unto Himself. And Allah is Ever All-Powerful,’’ meaning, He is the Almighty, and He is never weak, nor will those who seek refuge in Him ever be subjected to disgrace, ‘‘All-Wise.’’ in all that He decides and ordains for His creatures. Indeed, Allah's is the clearest wisdom, unequivocal proof and the most glorious authority. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Ibn Abbas said, Just before Allah raised Isa to the heavens, Isa went to his companions, who were twelve inside the house. When he arrived, his hair was dripping water and he said, There are those among you who will disbelieve in me twelve times after he had believed in me. He then asked, Who volunteers that his image appear as mine, and be killed in my place. He will be with me (in Paradise)? One of the youngest ones among them volunteered and Isa asked him to sit down. Isa again asked for a volunteer, and the young man kept volunteering and Isa asking him to sit down. Then the young man volunteered again and Isa said, ‘‘You will be that man, and the resemblance of Isa was cast over that man while Isa ascended to heaven from a hole in the house. When the Jews came looking for Isa, they found that young man and crucified him. Some of Isa's followers disbelieved in him twelve times after they had believed in him. They then divided into three groups. One group, Al-Yaqubiyah (Jacobites), said, Allah remained with us as long as He willed and then ascended to heaven. Another group, An-Nasturiyyah (Nestorians), said, The son of Allah was with us as long as he willed and Allah took him to heaven. Another group, Muslims, said, The servant and Messenger of Allah remained with us as long as Allah willed, and Allah then took him to Him. The two disbelieving groups cooperated against the Muslim group and they killed them. Ever since that happened, Islam was then veiled until Allah sent Muhammad (ﷺ). This statement has an authentic chain of narration leading to Ibn Abbas, and 30 Tafsir Ibn Kathir Hurayrah said that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said, ‘‘By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, the son of Maryam (Isa) will shortly descend among you as a just ruler, and will break the cross, kill the pig and abolish the Jizyah. Then there will be an abundance of wealth and nobody will accept charitable gifts any more. At that time, one prostration will be better for them than this Ufa and all that is in it.’’ Abu Hurayrah then said, Read if you

The Christians exaggerated over Isa until they elevated him above the grade that Allah gave him. They elevated him from the rank of prophethood to being a god, whom they worshipped just as they worshipped Allah. They exaggerated even more in the case of those who they claim were his followers, claiming that they were inspired, thus following every word they uttered whether true or false, be it guidance or misguidance, truth or lies. Isa was a word from Allah that He bestowed on Maryam, meaning He created him with the word Be that He sent with Jibril to Maryam. Jibril blew the life of Isa into Maryam by Allah's leave, and Isa came to existence as a result. This incident was in place of the normal conception between man and woman that results in children. This is why Isa was a word and a Ruh (spirit) created by Allah, as he had no father to conceive him. Saying that something is from Allah, such as the spirit of Allah, the she-camel of Allah or the House of Allah, is meant to honor such items. Allah said, iSC^} iThis is the she-camel of Allah...} and, iand sanctify My House for those who circumambulate it.} An authentic Hadith states, J Jj J "/ will enter on my Lord in His Horned All these examples are meant to honor such items when they are attributed to Allah in this manner. The Christians, may Allah curse them, have no limit to their disbelief because of their ignorance, so their deviant statements and their misguidance grows. Some of them believe that Isa is Allah, some believe that he is one in a trinity and some believe that he is the son of Allah. Their beliefs and creeds are numerous and contradict each other, prompting some people to say that if ten Christians meet, they would end up with eleven sects! The Christian Sects Said bin Batriq, the Patriarch of Alexandria and a famous Christian scholar, mentioned in the year four hundred after the Hijrah, that a Christian Council convened during the reign of Constantine, who built the city that bears his name. In this Council, the Christians came up with what they called the Great Trust, which in reality is the Great Treachery. There were more than two thousand patriarchs in this Council, and they were in such disarray that they divided into many sects, where some sects had twenty, fifty or a hundred members, etc.! When the king saw that there were more than three hundred Patriarchs who had the same idea, he agreed with them and adopted their creed. Constantine who was a deviant philosopher - gave his support to this sect for which, as an honor, churches were built and doctrines were taught to young children, who were baptized on this creed, and books were written about it. Meanwhile, the king oppressed all other sects. Another Council produced the sect known as the Jacobites, while the Nestorians were formed in a third Council. These three sects agreed that Isa was divine, but disputed regarding the manner in which Isa's divinity was related to his

What testifies to this, is that Allah said afterwards, C+li JLi-1 iLeaving a sister, she shall have half the inheritance.} Had there been a surviving ascendant, the sister would not have inherited anything, and there is a consensus on this point. Therefore, this Ayah is referring to the man who dies leaving behind neither descendants nor ascendants, as is apparent for those who contemplate its meaning. This is because when there is a surviving parent, the sister does not inherit anything, let alone half of the inheritance. Ibn Jarir and others mentioned that Ibn Abbas and Ibn Az- Zubayr used to judge that if a person dies and leaves behind a daughter and a sister, the sister does not inherit anything. They would recite, &JUa lilx% % & Ifctf o\} ilf it is a man that dies, leaving a sister, but no child, she shall have half the inheritance.} They said that if one leaves behind a daughter, then he has left behind a child. Therefore the sister does not get anything. The majority of scholars disagreed with them, saying the daughter gets one half and the sister the other half, relying on other evidence. This Ayah (4:176 above) gives the sister half of the inheritance in the case that it specifies. As for giving the sister half in other cases, 68 Tafcir Ibn Katfur said, Abu Musa Al-Ash ari was asked about the case when there was a daughter, grand-daughter and sister to inherit. He said, The daughter gets one-half and the sister one-half. Go and ask Ibn Mas'ud, although I think he is going to agree with me. So Ibn Mas*ud was asked and was told about Abu Musa s answer, and Ibn Mas*ud commented, I would have deviated then and would not have become among those who are rightly guided. I will give a judgment similar to the judgment given by the Prophet jg. The daughter gets one-half, the grand-daughter gets one-sixth, and these two shares will add up to two-thirds. Whatever is left will be for the sister. We went back to Abu Musa and conveyed to him Ibn MasTid s answer and he said, Do not ask me (for legal verdicts) as long as this scholar is still among you. 111 Allah then said, ds a j? fi 4uu 4 . . . and he will be her heir ifshe has no children.} This Ayah means, the brother inherits all of that his sister leaves behind if she has no surviving offspring or parents. If she has a surviving parent, her brother would not inherit anything. If there is someone who gets a fixed share in the inheritance, such as a husband or half brother from the mother s side, they take their share and the rest goes to the brother. It is recorded in the Two Sahihs that Ibn Abbas said that the Messenger of Allah jg said, ajSi jJ-j I iGive the Fardi'd to its people, and whatever is left is the share of the nearest male relative Allah said, i'i'j 6 j&t os 3 ar 4} iff there are two sisters, they shall have two-thirds of the inheritance;} meaning, if the person who dies in Kalalah has two sisters, they get two-thirds of the inheritance. Opening !' -"ir vif' .Hj . j'" -5} p^" ^ off zj Kj&Vj 4Forbidden to you (for food) are : Al-Maytah (the dead animals), blood, the flesh of swine, and what has been slaughtered as a sacrifice for others than Allah, and that which has been killed by strangling, or by a violent blow, or by a headlong fall, or by the goring of horns - and that xohich has been (partly) eaten by a wild animal .${5:3}, for although the animals mentioned in this Ayah are types of permissible cattle (except for swine), they become impermissible under the circumstances that the Ayah (5:3) specifies. This is why Allah said afterwards, Je jui l*j U iUnless you are able to slaughter it (before its death) and that which is sacrificed (slaughtered) on An-Nusub (stone altars)$ as the latter type is not permissible, because it can no longer be slaughtered properly. Allah said, <)j- jpr 44P$ igrme (also) being unlawful when you assume Ihrdm.$ Some scholars said that the general meaning of cattle includes domesticated cattle, such as camels, cows and sheep, and wild cattle, such as gazzelle, wild cattle and wild donkeys. Allah made the exceptions mentioned above (dead animals blood, flesh of swine etc.), and prohibited hunting wild beasts while in the state of Ihr&m. It was also reported that the meaning here is, We have allowed for you all types of cattle in all circumstances, except what We excluded herewith for the one hunting game while in the state of Ihr&m. Allah said, 76 Tafsfr Ibn Kathtr &%%& J&i >))But ifone is forced by necessity, without willful disobedience, and not transgressing, then, Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.) This Ayah means, We allowed eating the meat of dead animals, when one is forced by necessity, under the condition that one is not transgressing the limits or overstepping them. Here, Allah states, Just as We allowed the meat of cattle in all conditions and circumstances, then do not hunt game when in the state of Ihrdm, for this is the decision of Allah, Who is the Most Wise in all that He commands and forbids. So Allah said; cpc a iVerily, Allah commands that which He wills.) The Necessity of Observing the Sanctity of the Sacred Area and the Sacred Months Allah continues, 40 you who believe! Violate not the sanctity of Sha'd ir Allah (the symbols ofAllah),) Ibn Abbas said, Sha'd ir Allah means the rituals of Hey/. Mujahid said, As-Safa and Al-Marwah, and the sacrificial animal are the symbols of Allah. * It was also stated that Sha a ir Allah is what He prohibited. Therefore, it means, do not violate what Allah prohibited. Allah said afterwards, "?CJf *^ inor of the Sacred Month,) for you are required to respect and honor the Sacred Month and to refrain from what Allah forbade during it, such as fighting. This also lays emphasis on avoiding sins during that time. As Allah said; At-Tabari 9 :463 At-Tabari 9 :463

They ask you concerning fighting in the Sacred Month. Say, "Fighting therein is a great (transgression) and, Verily, the number of months with Allah is twelve months (in a year)."

Al-Ma'idah (1 - 2) (Part-6 The Necessity of Preserving the Sanctity and Safety of those who Intend to Travel to the Sacred House Allah said, "O you who are coming to the Sacred House (Makkah), seeking the bounty and good pleasure of their Lord." The Ayah commands: Do not fight people who are heading towards the Sacred House of Allah, which if anyone enters it, he must be granted safe refuge. Likewise, those who are heading towards the Sacred House seeking the bounty and good pleasure of Allah, must not be stopped, prevented, or frightened away from entering the Sacred House. Mujahid, Ata, Abu Al-Aliyah, Mutarrif bin Abdullah, Abdullah bin Ubayd bin TMayr, Ar-Rabf bin Anas, Muqatil bin Hayyan, Qatadah and several others said that, "seeking the bounty of their Lord." refers to trading. A similar discussion preceded concerning the Ayah; "There is no sin on you if you seek the bounty of your Lord (during pilgrimage by trading)." Allah said; "and pleasure." Ibn Abbas said that the word pleasure in the Ayah refers to, seeking Allah's pleasure by their Hajj. Ikrimah, As-Suddi and Ibn Jarir mentioned that this Ayah was revealed concerning Al-Hutam bin Hind Al-Bakri, who had raided the cattle belonging to the people of Al-Madlnah. The following year, he wanted to perform 'Umrah to the House of Allah and some of the Companions wanted to attack him on his way to M At-Tabari 9 :480-481 so Tafstr Ibn Kathir the House. Allah revealed, "O you who are coming to the Sacred House (Makkah), seeking the bounty and good pleasure of their Lord." [I HuntingGame is Permissible After Ihram] Allah said, "But when you finish the Ihram, then hunt." When you end your Ihram, it is permitted for you to hunt game, which was prohibited for you during Ihram. Although this Ayah contains a command that takes effect after the end of a state of prohibition (during Ihram in this case), the Ayah, in fact, brings back the ruling that was previously in effect. If the previous ruling was an obligation, the new command will uphold that obligation, and such is the case with recommended and permissible matters. There are many Ayat that deny that the ruling in such cases is always an obligation. Such is also the case against those who say that it is always merely allowed. What we mentioned here is the correct opinion that employs the available evidence, and Allah knows best. Justice is Always Necessary Allah said, "and let not the hatred of some people in (once) stopping you from Al-Masjid Al-Haram (at Makkah) lead you to transgression (and hostility on your part)."

The meaning of this Ayah is apparent, as it commands: Let not the hatred for some people, who prevented you from reaching the Sacred House in the year of Hudaibiyyah, make you transgress Allah's Law and commit injustice against them in retaliation. Rather, rule as Allah has commanded you, being At-Tabari 9:472,475. The narrations about the cause of revelation for this Ayah are not authentic Al-Mu'tah (1-2) (Part-6) just with every one. We will explain a similar Ayah later on, "And let not the enmity and hatred of others make you avoid justice. Be just: that is nearer to piety which commands: do not be driven by your hatred for some people into abandoning justice, for justice is ordained for everyone, in all situations. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Zayd bin Aslam said, The Messenger of Allah ﷺ and his Companions were in the area of Al-Hudaybiyyah when the idolators prevented them from visiting the House, and that was especially hard on them. Later on, some idolators passed by them from the east intending to perform Umrah. So the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ said, Let us prevent those {from Umrah} just as their fellow idolators prevented us. Thereafter, Allah sent down this Ayah. ' Ibn Abbas and others said that Shana'an refers to enmity and hate. Allah said next, if 4Help you one another in Al-Birr and At-Taqwa; but do not help one another in sin and transgression Allah commands His believing servants to help one another perform righteous, good deeds, which is the meaning of Al- Birr , and to avoid sins, which is the meaning of At-Taqwa . Allah forbids His servants from helping one another in sin, Ithm and committing the prohibitions. Ibn Jarir said that, "Ithm means abandoning what Allah has ordained, while transgression means overstepping the limits that Allah set in your religion, along with overstepping what Allah has ordered concerning yourselves and others. (Forbidden) also is to make decisions with Al-Azldm (arrows) (all) that is Fisq (disobedience and sin). This day, those who disbelieved have given up all hope of your religion ; so fear them not, but fear Me. This day, I have perfected your religion for you, completed My favor upon you, and have chosen for you Islam as your religion. But as for him who is forced by severe hunger, with no inclination to sin (such can eat these above mentioned animals), then surely, Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful The Animals that are Unlawful to Eat Allah informs His servants that He forbids consuming the mentioned types of foods, such as the Maytah, which is the animal that dies before being properly slaughtered or hunted. Allah forbids this type of food due to the harm it causes, because of the blood that becomes clogged in the veins of the dead animal. Therefore, the Maytah is harmful, religiously and physically, and this is why Allah has prohibited it. The only exception to this ruling is fish, for fish is allowed, even when dead, by slaughtering or otherwise. Malik in his Muwatta, also Allah s statement, 4the flesh of swine.. .} includes domesticated and wild swine, and also refers to the whole animal, including its fat, for this is what the Arabs mean by Lahm or flesh .

86 Tafsir Ibn Kathir Therefore, the animals on which a name other than Allah was mentioned upon slaughtering it, is impermissible, because Allah made it necessary to mention His Glorious Name upon slaughtering the animals, which He created. Whoever does not do so, mentioning other than Allah's Name, such as the name of an idol, a false deity or a monument, when slaughtering, he makes this meat unlawful, according to the consensus. Allah's statement, and that which has been killed by strangling...^ either intentionally or by mistake, such as when an animal moves while restrained and dies by strangulation because of its struggling, this animal is also unlawful to eat. or by a violent blow .. .> This refers to the animal that is hit with a heavy object until it dies. Ibn Abbas and several others said it is the animal that is hit with a staff until it dies. ' Qatadah said, The people of Jahiliyyah used to strike the animal with sticks and when it died, they would eat it. 121 It is recorded in the Sahih. that Adi bin Hatim said, I asked, O Allah's Messenger! I use the Mi'radf31 for hunting and catch game with it. He replied, dst xij j*j jLil jL_j i -uSo L Ijl qIfthegame is hit by its sharp edge, eat it. But, if it is hit by its broad side, do not eat it, far it has been beaten to death. Therefore, the Prophet jg made a distinction between killing the animal with the sharp edge of an arrow or a hunting stick, and rendered it lawful, and what is killed by the broad side of an object, and rendered it unlawful because it was beaten to death. There is a consensus among the scholars of Fiqh on this subject. Tabari 9:496. Tabari 9:496. * A sharp-edged piece of wood or a piece of wood provided with a piece of iron used for hunting. Al-B&ri9:518.

As for the animal that falls headlong from a high place and dies as a result, it is also prohibited. Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn 'Abbas said that an animal that dies by a headlong fall, Is that which falls from a mountain. 111 Qatadah said that it is the animal that falls in a well. * As- Suddi said that it is the animal that falls from a mountain or in a well.131 As for the animal that dies by being gorged by another animal, it is also prohibited, even if the horn opens a flesh wound and it bleeds to death from its neck. Allah's statement, and that which has been (partly) eaten by a wild animal,} refers to the animal that was attacked by a lion, leopard, tiger, wolf or dog, then the wild beast eats a part of it and it dies because of that. This type is also prohibited, even if the animal bled to death from its neck. There is also a consensus on this ruling. During the time of Jahiliyyah, the people used to eat the sheep, camel, or cow that were partly eaten by a wild animal. Allah prohibited this practice for the believers. Allah's statement, unless you are able to slaughter it,} before it dies, due to the causes mentioned above. This part of the Ayah is connected to, XYJXtj and that which has been killed by strangling, or by a violent blow, or by a headlong fall, or by the goring of horns - and that which has been (partly) eaten by a wild animal.} 'Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas commented on Allah's statement. m At-Tabari 9:498. unless you are able to slaughter it,} Unless you are able to slaughter the animal in the cases mentioned in the Ayah while it is still alive, then eat it, for it was properly slaughtered. 11 ' Similar was reported from Said bin Jubayr, Al-Hasan Al-Basri and As-Suddi.'2 Ibn Jarir recorded that 'Ali, may Allah be pleased with him, said, If you are able to slaughter the animal that has been hit by a violent blow, or by a headlong fall, or by the gorging of horns while it still moves a foot or a leg, then eat from its meat. '3 ' Similar was reported from Tawus, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, Ubayd bin Umayr, Ad-Dahhak and several others, that if the animal that is being slaughtered still moves, thus demonstrating that it is still alive while slaughtering, then it is lawful.'4 The Two Sahih recorded that Rafi bin Khadij said, I asked, O

Allah's Messenger! We fear that we may meet our enemy tomorrow and we have no knives, could we slaughter the animals with reeds? The Prophet said, la ilaha illa Allah and you can use what makes blood flow and you can eat what is slaughtered with the Name of Allah. But do not use teeth or claws (in slaughtering). I will tell you why, as for teeth, they are bones, and claws are used by Ethiopians for slaughtering. Allah said next, And that which is sacrificed on an-Nusub. Nusub were stone altars that were erected around the Ka'bah, as Mujahid and Ibn Jurayj stated.⁶ Ibn Jurayj said, There were three hundred and sixty Nusub [around the Ka'bah] (At-Tabari 9:502. Al-Maidah (3) (Part-6) Ka'bah that the Arabs used to slaughter in front of, during the time of Jahiliyyah. They used to sprinkle the animals that came to the Ka'bah with the blood of slaughtered animals, whose meat they cut to pieces and placed on the altars. Allah forbade this practice for the believers. He also forbade them from eating the meat of animals that were slaughtered in the vicinity of the Ka'bah, even if Allah's Name was mentioned on these animals when they were slaughtered, because it is a type of Shirk that Allah and His Messenger have forbidden. The Prohibition of Using Al-Azlam for Decision Making Allah said, Forbidden also is to make decisions with Al-Azlam The Ayah commands, O believers! You are forbidden to use Al-Azlam (arrows) for decision making, which was a practice of the Arabs during the time of Jahiliyyah. They would use three arrows, one with the word Do written on it, another that says Do not, while the third does not say anything. Some of them would write on the first arrow, My Lord commanded me, and, My Lord forbade me, on the second arrow and they would not write anything on the third arrow. If the blank arrow was picked, the person would keep trying until the arrow that says do or do not was picked, and the person would implement the command that he picked. Ibn Abbas said that the Azlam were arrows that they used to seek decisions through. * Muhammad bin Ishaq and others said that the major idol of the tribe of Quraysh was Hubal, which was erected on the tip of a well inside the Ka'bah, where gifts were presented and where the treasure of the Ka'bah was kept. There, they also had seven arrows that they would use to seek a decision concerning matters of dispute. Whatever the chosen arrow would tell them, they would abide by it! Al-Bukhari recorded that when the Prophet ﷺ entered Al-Makkah At-Tabari 9:508 At-Tabari 9:515. ⁷ At-Tabari 9:513. ⁸ Fath Al-Bari 6:446

Mujahid commented on Allah's statement. Forbidden also is to make decisions with Al-Azlam These were arrows that the Arabs used, and dice that the Persians and Romans used in gambling. ¹⁰ This statement by Mujahid, that these arrows were used in gambling, is doubtful unless we say that they used the arrows for gambling sometimes and for decisions other times, and Allah knows best. We should also state that Allah mentioned Azlam and gambling in His statement before the end of the Surah (5:90, 91), And you who believe! Intoxicants (all kinds of alcoholic drinks), and gambling, and Al-Ansdb, and Al-Azlam are an abomination of Shaytan's handiwork. So avoid that in order that you may be successful. Shaytan wants only to excite enmity and hatred between you with intoxicants (alcoholic drinks) and gambling, and hinder you from the remembrance of Allah and from the Salah (the prayer). So, will you not then abstain? In this Ayah, Allah said, (Forbidden) also is to make decisions with Al-Azldm, (all) that is Fisq.b meaning, all these practices constitute disobedience, sin, misguidance, ignorance and, above all, Shirk. m At-Tabari 9:512.

' Sufyan (one of the narrators) doubted if Friday was mentioned in this narration. Sufyan s confusion was either because he was unsure if his teacher included this statement in the Hadth or not. Otherwise, if it was because he doubted that the particular day during the Farewell Hajj was a Friday, it would be a mistake that could not and should not have come from someone like Sufyan Ath-Thawri. The fact that it was a Friday, is agreed on by the scholars of Sirah and Fiqh. There are numerous Hadiths that support this fact that are definitely authentic and of the Mutawati^ type. Muqatil said, At-Tayyibat includes everything Muslims are allowed and the various types of legally earned provision. Az-Zuhri was once asked about drinking urine for medicinal purposes and he said that it is not a type of Tayyibat. Ibn Abi Hatim also narrated this statement. Using Jawarih^ to Hunt Game is Permissible Allah said, $And those Jawarih (beasts and birds of prey) which you have trained as hounds ...$ That is, lawful for you are the animals slaughtered in Allah s Name, and the good things for sustenance. Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas said that, *P ik 4And those Jawarih (beasts and birds of prey) which you have trained as hounds... refers to trained hunting dogs, falcons and all types of birds and beasts that are trained to hunt, including dogs, wild cats, falcons, and so forthJ ' Ibn Abi Hatim collected this and said, Similar was reported from Khaythamah, Tawus, Mujahid, Makhul and Yahya bin Abi Kathir. ' Ibn Jarir recorded that Ibn Tjmar said, You are permitted the animal that the trained birds, such as falcons, hunt for you if you catch it (before it eats from it). Otherwise, do not eat from it. 13 I say, the majority of scholars say that hunting with trained birds is just like hunting with trained dogs, because bird s of prey catch the game with their claws, just like dogs. Therefore, there is no difference between the two. Ibn Jarir recorded that Adi bin Hatim said that he asked the Messenger of Allah jg about the game that the falcon hunts and the Messenger sg said, j j killii- ilLj! U ^Whatever it catchesfor you, eatfrom if." These carnivores that are trained to catch game are called Jawarih in Arabic, a word that is derived from Jarh, meaning, what one earns. The Arabs would say, So-and-so has Jaraha something good for his family, meaning, he has earned them something good. The Arabs would say, So-and-so does not have a Jarih for him, meaning, a caretaker. Allah also said, 4And He knows what you have done during the day. At-Jabari 9 : 548 At-Jabari 9:547-548. meaning, the good or evil you have Allah's statement, earned or committed. (trained as hounds,) those Jawarih that have been trained to hunt as hounds with their claws or talons. Therefore, if the game is killed by the weight of its blow, not with its claws, then we are not allowed to eat from the game. Allah said, (and training than in the manner as directed to you by Allah,) as when the beast is sent, it goes after the game, and when it catches it, it keeps it until its owner arrives and does not catch it to eat it itself. This is why Allah said here, (and you eat of what they catch for you, but pronounce the Name of Allah over it,) When the beast is trained, and it catches the game for its owner who mentioned Allah's Name when he sent the beast after the game, then this game is allowed according to the consensus of scholars, even if it was killed. There are Hadiths in the Sunnah that support this statement. The Two Sahih's recorded that Adi bin Hatim said, I said, O Allah's Messenger! I send hunting dogs and mention Allah's Name. He replied, (1) If you send your hunting dog, then mention Allah's Name, you let loose your tamed dog after a game and it catches it, you may eat what it catches. I said, Even if it kills the game? He replied, (2) If it kills the game, unless another dog joins the hunt, for you mentioned Allah's Name when sending your dog, but not the other dog. I said, I also use the Mi'rad and catch game with it. He replied,

(3) If the game is hit by its sharp edge, eat it, but if it is hit by its broad side, do not eat it, for it has been beaten to death. In another narration, the Prophet (ﷺ) said, (4) If you send your hunting dog, then mention Allah's Name and whatever it catches for you and you find alive, slaughter it. If you catch the game dead and the dog did not eat from it, then eat from it, for the dog has caused its slaughter to be fulfilled. In yet another narration of two Sahih's, the Prophet (ﷺ) said, (5) If the dog eats from the game, do not eat from it for fear that it has caught it as prey for itself. (6) Mention Allah's Name Upon Sending the Predators to Catch the Game Allah said, (7) If you eat of what they catch for you, but pronounce the Name of Allah over it, meaning, upon sending it. The Prophet (ﷺ) said to Adi bin Hatim, (8) When you send your trained dog and mention Allah's Name, eat from what it catches for you. (16) Permitting the Slaughtered Animals of the People of the Book After Allah mentioned the filthy things that He prohibited for His believing servants and the good things that He allowed for them, He said next, fi iMade lawful to you this day are At-Tayyibat .> Allah then mentioned the ruling concerning the slaughtered animals of the People of the Book, the Jews and Christians, Jr Z/& f $Thefood of the People of the Scripture is lawful to you..)? meaning, their slaughtered animals, as Ibn Abbas, Abu Umamah, Mujahid, Said bin Jubayr, Ikrimah, Ata , Al-Hasan, Makhul, Ibrahim An-Nakha I, As-Suddi and Muqatil bin Hayyan stated.¹¹ ' This ruling, that the slaughtered animals of the People of the Book are permissible for Al-Md'idah (5) (Part-6 before it is divided. The scholars of the Hanafi, the Shafil and the Hanbali Madhhab rely on this Hadith to allow eating parts of the slaughtered animals of the Jews that they prohibit for themselves, such as the fat. They used this Hadith as evidence against the scholars of the Maliki Madhhab who disagreed with this ruling. A better proof is the Hadith recorded in the Sahth that the people of Khaybar gave the Prophet jg a gift of a roasted leg of sheep, which they poisoned. The Prophet jg used to like eating the leg of the sheep and he took a bite from it, but it told the Prophet jg that it was poisoned, so he discarded that bite. The bite that the Prophet jg took effected the palate of his mouth, while Bishr bin Al-Bara bin Ma'rur died from eating from that sheep. The Prophet jg had the Jewish woman, Zaynab, who poisoned the sheep, killed. Therefore, the Prophet jg and his Companions wanted to eat from that sheep and did not ask the Jews if they removed what the Jews believed was prohibited for them, such as its fat. ¹¹¹ Allah s statement, J*pas iand your food is lawful to them.} means, you are allowed to feed them from your slaughtered animals. Therefore, this part of the Ayah is not to inform the People of the Scriptures that they are allowed to eat our food - unless we consider it information for us about the ruling that they have - i.e, that they are allowed all types of foods over which Allah s Name was mentioned, whether slaughtered according to their religion or otherwise. The first explanation is more plausible. So it means: you are allowed to feed them from your slaughtered animals just as you are allowed to eat from theirs, as equal compensation and fair treatment. The Prophet 5& gave his robe to Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salfil, who was wrapped with it when he died. They say that he 4g did that because Abdullah had given his robe to Al- Abbas when Al- Abbas came to Al- Madinah. The Permission to Marry Chaste Women From the People ofthe Scriptures Allah said, 4(Lawful to you in tnarriage) are chaste women from the believers^ The Ayah states: you are allowed to marry free, chaste believing women. Allah said in another Ayah, O iitii Vj Jf. 4Desiring chastity not committing illegal sexual intercourse, nor taking them as boyfriends (lovers). [4:25] Abdullah Ibn Umar used to advise against marrying Christian women saying, I do not know of a worse case of Shirk than her saying that Isa is her lord, while Allah said, 4And do not marry idolatresses till they believe.4" Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Abu Malik Al-Ghifari said that Ibn Abbas said that when this Ayah was revealed, 4U& And do not marry idolatresses till they believe,> the people did not marry the pagan women. Some of the Companions married Christian women and did not see any problem in this, relying on the honorable Ayah, 4(Lawful to you in marriage) are chaste women from those who were given the Scripture before your time} Therefore, they made this Ayah an exception to the Ayah in Surat Al-Baqarah, 4U:& 4And do not marry the idolatresses till they believe, considering the latter Ayah to include the People of the Book in its general meaning. Otherwise, there is no contradiction here, since the People of the Book were mentioned alone when mentioning the rest of the idolators. Allah said, iThose who disbelieve from among the People of the Scripture and the idolators, were not going to leave (their disbelief) until there came to them clear evidence. and, jJu Jci'S \yj\ yjj 4And say to those who were given the Scripture and to those who are illiterates: "Do you (also) submit yourselves?" There is a difference of opinion about the length of time between Isa and Muhammad jg. Abu Uthman An-Nahdi and Qatadah were reported to have said that this period was six hundred years. *

This Hadith refutes the opinion of Al-Qudal and others, that there was a Prophet after Isa called Khalid bin Sinan. Allah sent Muhammad jg after a period of time during which there was no Prophet, clear path, or unchanged religions. Idol worshipping, fire worshipping and cross worshipping flourished during this time. Therefore, the bounty of sending Muhammad jife was the perfect bounty at a time when he was needed the most. is that He will give them all of the good of this life and the Hereafter, if they remain on the righteous and straight path. Allah said, 4And (remember) when Musa said to his people: "O my people! There were many Prophets among the Children of Israel

Allah states next that Musa encouraged the Children of Israel to perform Jihad and enter Jerusalem, which was under their control during the time of their father Ya'qub. Ya'qub and his children later moved with his children and household to Egypt during the time of Prophet Yusuf. His offspring remained in Egypt until their exodus with Musa. They found a mighty, strong people in Jerusalem who had previously taken it over. Mfisa, Allah s Messenger, ordered the Children of Israel to enter Jerusalem and fight their enemy, and he promised them victory and triumph over the mighty people .if they did so. They declined, rebelled and defied his order and were punished for forty years by being lost, wandering in the land uncertain of where they should go. This was their punishment for defying Allah s command. Allah said that Musa ordered them to enter the Holy Land, iwhich Allah has assigned to you} meaning, which Allah has promised to you by the words of your father Isra il, that it is the inheritance of those among you who believe. if- i iand turn not back} in flight from Jihad. A. ' tfif f > > i ...for then you will be returned as losers." They said, "O Musa! We are unable to stand against these people or fight them. Therefore, they said, we are incapable of entering this city as long as they are still in it, but if they leave it, we will enter it. Otherwise, we cannot stand against them.

Forbidding the Jews from Entering the Holy Land for Forty Years Allah said, &&&&4 iTherefore it is forbidden to them for forty years; in distraction they will wander through the landf When Musa supplicated against the Jews for refusing to fight in Jihad, Allah forbade them from entering the land for forty years. They wandered about lost in the land of At-Tih, unable to find their way out. During this time, tremendous miracles occurred, such as the clouds that shaded them and the manna and quails Allah sent down for them. Allah brought forth water springs from solid rock, and the other miracles that He aided Musa bin Imran with. During this time, the Tawrah was revealed and the Law was established for the Children of Israel and the Tabernacle of the Covenant was erected. Conquering Jerusalem Allah's statement, ifor forty years defines, $o?jVl 4 iin distraction they will wander through the land .> When these years ended, Yuwsha' bin NQn led those who remained among them and the second generation, and laid siege to Jerusalem, conquering it on a Friday afternoon. Allah made the sun stop setting until Yuwsha' bin Nun Tabari 10:189.

conquered Jerusalem. Next, Allah commanded Yuwsha' to order the Children of Israel to enter Jerusalem from its gate while bowing and saying Hittah, meaning, remove our sins. Yet, they changed what they were commanded and entered it while dragging themselves on their behinds and saying, Habbah (a seed) in Sha'rah (a hair). We mentioned all of this in the Tafsir of Surat Al-Baqarah. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Ibn Abbas commented, . "t)f . ^ o' -Vt * ^ iTherefore it is forbidden to them for forty years; in distraction they will wander through the land They wandered in the land for forty years, during which Musa and Harun died, as well as everyone above forty years of age. When the forty years ended, Yuwsha* son of Nun assumed their leadership and later conquered Jerusalem. When Yuwsha' was reminded that the day was Friday and the sun was about to set, while they were still attacking Jerusalem, he feared that the Sabbath might begin. Therefore, he said to the sun, I am commanded and you are commanded. Allah made the sun stop setting and the Jews conquered Jerusalem and found wealth unseen before. They wanted to let the fire consume the booty, but the fire would not do that. Yuwsha' said, Some of you have committed theft from the booty. So he summoned the twelve leaders of the twelve tribes and took the pledge from them. Then, the hand of one of them became stuck to the hand of Yuwsha' and Yuwsha' said, You committed the theft, so bring it forth. So, that man brought a cow's head made of gold with two eyes made of precious stones and a set of teeth made of pearls. When Yuwsha' added it to the booty, the fire consumed it, as they were prohibited to keep the booty.

There is evidence supporting all of this in the Sahih. Allah Comforts Musa Conforting MQsa, Allah said i-tfJI Jt'yill jfr J-b Su$> 4So do not greivefor the rebellious people. A Similar version was recorded by At-Tabari 10 :193

Allah said: Do not feel sorrow or sadness over My judgment against them, for they deserve such judgment. This story chastises the Jews, exposes their defiance of Allah and His Messenger, and their refusal to obey the order for Jihad. They were weak and could not bear the thought of fighting their enemy, being patient, and enduring this way. This occurred although they had the Messenger of Allah and the one whom He spoke to among them, the best of Allah s creation that time. Their Prophet promised them triumph and victory against their enemies. They also witnessed the torment and punishment of drowning with which Allah punished their enemy Fir awn and his soldiers, so that their eyes were pleased and comforted. All this did not happen too long ago, yet they refused to perform Jihad against people who had less than a tenth of the power and strength than the people of Egypt had. Therefore, the evil works of the Jews were exposed to everyone, and the exposure was such an enormous one that the night, or the tail, can never cover its tracks. They were also blinded by their ignorance and transgression. Thus, they became hated by Allah, and they became His enemies. Yet, they claim that they are Allah s children and His loved ones! May Allah curse their faces that were transformed to the shape of swine and apes, and may Allah s curse accompany them to the raging Fire. May Allah make them abide in the Fire for eternity, and He did; all thanks are due to Him. . The Story of Habil (Abel) and Qabil (Cain) Allah describes the evil end and consequence of transgression, envy and injustice in the story of the two sons of Adam, Habil and Qabil. One of them fought against the other and killed him out of envy and transgression, because of the bounty that Allah gave his brother and because the sacrifice that he sincerely offered to Allah was accepted. The murdered brother earned forgiveness for his sins and was admitted into Paradise, while the murderer failed and earned a losing deal in both the lives. They also said that in every pregnancy, Adam was given a twin, a male and a female, and he used to give the female of one twin, to the male of the other twin, in marriage. Habfl's sister was not beautiful while Qabll's sister was beautiful, resulting in Qabll wanting her for himself, instead of his brother. Adam refused unless they both offer a sacrifice, and he whose sacrifice was accepted, would marry Qabll's sister. Habll's sacrifice was accepted, while Qabll's sacrifice was rejected, and thus what Allah told us about them occurred. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Ibn Abbas said - that during the time of Adam - The woman was not allowed in marriage for her male twin, but Adam was commanded to marry her to any of her other brothers. In each pregnancy, Adam was given a twin, a male and a female. A beautiful daughter was once bom for Adam and another one that was not beautiful. So the twin brother of the ugly daughter said, Marry your sister to me and I will marry my sister to you. He said, No, for I have more right to my sister. So they both offered a sacrifice. The sacrifice of the one who offered the sheep was accepted while the sacrifice of the other [the twin brother of the beautiful daughter), which consisted of some produce, was not accepted. Shaytan came to Qabll and said, Do you want to kill him? He said, Yes. Shaytan said, Take that stone and throw it on his head. So Qabll took the stone and threw it at his brother's head and smashed his head. Shaytan then went to Hawwa in a hurry and said to her, O Hawwa ! Qabll killed Habll. She asked him, Woe to you! What does 1011 mean? He said, He will no longer eat, drink or move. She said, And that is death? He said, Yes it is. So she started to weep until Adam came to her while she was weeping and said. Saving life in this case occurs by not killing a soul that Allah has forbidden. So this is the meaning of saving the life of all mankind, for whoever forbids killing a soul without justification, the lives of all people will be saved from him. Al-Maidah (32 - 34) (Part-6) offered the obligatory prayer, O Abu Musa! I seek your help. I am so-and-so from Murad and I waged war against Allah and His Messenger and caused mischief in the land. I repented before you had any authority over me. Abu Musa proclaimed, This is so-and-so, who had waged war against Allah and His Messenger and caused mischief in the land, and he repented before we had authority over him. Therefore, anyone who meets him, should deal with him in a better way. If he is saying the truth, then this is the path of those who say the truth. If he is saying a lie, his sins will destroy him. So the man remained idle for as long as Allah willed, but he later rose against the leaders, and Allah punished him for his sins and he was killed. Ibn Jarir recorded that Musa bin Ishaq Al-Madani said that Ali Al- Asadi waged war, blocked the roads, shed blood and plundered wealth. The leaders and the people alike, sought to capture him, but they could not do that until he came after he repented, after he heard a man reciting the Ayah, if# & My servants who have transgressed against themselves! Despair not of the mercy of Allah, verily, Allah forgives all sins. Truly, He is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful. So he said to that man, O servant of Allah! Recite it again. So he recited it again, and Ali put down his sword and went to Al-Madlnah in repentance, arriving during the night. He washed up and went to the Masjid of the Messenger of Allah and prayed the dawn prayer. He sat next to Abu Hurayrah amidst his companions. In the morning, the people recognized him and went after him. He said, You have no way against me. I came in repentance before you had any authority over me. Abu Hurayrah said, He has said the truth, and he held his hand and went to Marwan bin Al-Hakam, who was the governor of Al-Madlnah during the reign of Mu'awiyah. Abu Hurayrah said, This is Ali and he came in repentance and you do not have a way against him, nor can you have him killed. So Ali was absolved of punishment and remained on his repentance and went to the sea to perform Jihad in Allah s cause. The Muslims met the Romans in battle, and the

After Allah commanded Muslims to avoid the prohibitions and to work towards obedience, He commanded them to fight against their enemies, the disbelievers and idolators who have deviated from the straight path and abandoned the correct religion. Allah encouraged the believers by reminding them of the unending success and great happiness that He prepared for them for the Day of Resurrection, which will never change or decrease for those who join Jihad in His cause. They will remain in the lofty rooms of Paradise that are safe and beautiful. Those who live in these dwellings will always be comfortable and will never be miserable, living, never dying, and their clothes will never grow thin, nor will their youth ever end. 174 Tafsir Ibn Kathir may Allah be pleased with them - and it is the view of Umar bin Abdul-'Aziz, Al-Layth bin Sa'd, Al-Awza'i, and Ash-Shafil and his companions. This is also the view of Imam Ahmad bin Hanbal and Ishaq bin Rahwayh in one of the narrations from him, as well as Abu Thawr, and Dawud bin 'Ali Az-Zahari, may Allah have mercy upon them. As for Imam Abu Hanifah and his students Abu Yusuf, Muhammad and Zufar, along with Sufyan Ath-Thawri, they said that the least amount of theft that deserves cutting off the hand is ten Dirhams, whereas a Dinar was twelve Dirhams at that time. The first ruling is the correct one, that the least amount of theft is one fourth of a Dinar or more. This meager amount was set as the limit for cutting the hand, so that the people would refrain from theft, and this is a wise decision to those who have sound comprehension. Hence Allah's statement, $\text{ins a recompense for that xohich both committed, a punishment by way of example from Allah. Malik reported that Nafi said that Abdullah bin TJmar said, The Jews came to Allah s Messenger sg and mentioned that a man and a woman from them committed adultery. Allah s Messenger said to them, jli, 11What dofind of the ruling about stoning in the Taivrah ?" They said, We only find that they should be exposed and flogged. Abdullah bin Salam said, You lie. The Tawrah mentions stoning, so bring the Tawrah. They brought the Tawrah and opened it but one of them hid the verse about stoning with his hand and recited what is before and after that verse. Abdullah bin Salam said to him, Remove your hand, and he removed it, thus uncovering the verse about stoning. So they said, He (Abdullah bin Salam) has said the truth, O Muhammad! It is the verse about stoning. The Messenger of Allah sg decided that the adulterers be stoned to death and his command was carried out. I saw that man shading the woman from the stones with his body. Al-Bukhari and Muslim also collected this Hadith and this is the wording collected by Al-Bukhari. In another narration by Al-Bukhari, the Prophet jg said to the Jews, c V -l ^ jj Li What would you do in this case? They said, We would humiliate and expose them. The Prophet jg recited, Lfc^bli iBring here the Tawrah and recite it, ifyou are truthful.} So they brought a man who was blind in one eye and who was respected among them and said to him, Read (from the Tawrah). So he read until he reached a certain verse and then covered it with his hand. He was told, Remove your hand, and it was the verse about stoning. So that man said, O Muhammad! Rather, the Prophet did this because Allah commanded him to do so. He asked them about the ruling of stoning in the Tawrah to make them admit to what the Tawrah contains and what they collaborated to hide, deny and exclude from implementing for all that time. They had to admit to what they did, although they did it while having knowledge of the correct ruling. What made them go to the Prophet for judgement in this matter was their lusts and desires, hoping that the Prophet jg would agree with their opinion, not that they believed in the correctness of hisjudgment. Jews. During the time of Jahiliyyah, one of them had defeated the other. As a result, they made a treaty that they would pay blood money totaling fifty Wasaq [of gold] (each Wasaq approx. 3 kg) for every dead person from the defeated group killed by the victors, and a hundred Wasaq for every dead person the defeated group killed from the victors. This treaty remained in effect until the Prophet came to Al-Madlnah and both of these groups became subservient under the Prophet sfe. Yet, when the mighty group once suffered a casualty at the hands of the weaker group, the mighty group sent a delegation demanding the hundred Wasaq. The weaker group said, How can two groups who have the same religion, one ancestral lineage and a common land, have a Diyah that for some of them is half of that of the others? We only agreed to this because you oppressed us and because we feared you. Now that Muhammad has come, we will not give you what you asked. So war was almost rekindled between them, but they agreed to seek Muhammad s judgement in their dispute. The mighty group among them said [among themselves], By Allah! Muhammad will never give you double the Diyah that you pay to them compared to what they pay to you. They have said the truth anyway, for they only gave us this amount because we oppressed and overpowered them. Therefore, send someone to Muhammad who will sense what his judgement will be. If he agrees to give you what you demand, accept his judgment, and if he does not give you what you seek, do not refer to him for judgement. Al-Bara bin Azib, Hudhayfah bin Al-Yaman, Ibn Abbas, Abu Mijlaz, Abu Raja Al- Utaridi, Ikrimah, Ubaydullah bin Abdullah, Al-Hasan Al-Basri and others said that this Ayah was revealed about the People of the Book.' ' Al-Hasan Al- Basri added that this Ayah also applies to us . 121 Abdur- Razzaq said that Ath-Thawri said that Mansur said that Ibrahim said that these Ayat, Were revealed about the Children of Israel, and Allah accepted them for this Ummah." Ibn Jarir recorded this statement.'3 ' Ali bin Abi Talhah also stated that Ibn Abbas commented on Allah s statement, iAnd whosoever does not judge by what Allah has revealed, such are the disbelievers,$ Whoever rejects what Allah has revealed, will have committed Kufr, and whoever accepts what Allah has revealed, but did not rule by it, is a Zalim (unjust) and a Fasiq (rebellious) and a sinner." Ibn Jarir recorded this statement.'4 ' Abdur-Razzaq said, Ma'mar narrated to us that Tawus said that Ibn Abbas was asked about Allah's statement, $&Tabari 10:347-357.Tabari 10:357.Tabari 10:356. This Ayah also chastises and criticizes the Jews because in the Tawrah, they have the law of a life for a life. Yet, they defied this ruling by transgression and rebellion. They used to apply this ruling when a person from Bani An-Nadlr was killed by a Qurayzah person, but this was not the case when the opposite occurred. Rather, they would revert to Diyah in this case. They also defied the ruling in the Tawrah to stone the adulterer and instead came up with their own form of punishment, flogging, humiliation and parading them in public. This is why Allah said in the previous Ayah, ilfgs pi &&X iX) 4And whosoever does not judge by what Alldh has revealed, Abdur-Razzaq 1 :191 , At-Jabari 4 :595. At-Tabari 10:355.

In this Ayah, Allah said, isuch are the unjust because they did not exact the oppressed his due rights from the oppressor in a matter which Allah ordered that all be treated equally and fairly. Instead, they defied that command, committed injustice and transgressed against each other. AMan is Killed for aWomanWhom He Kills Imam Abu Nasr bin As-Sabbagh stated in his book, Ash- Shamil, that the scholars agree that this Ayah [5:45] should be implemented, and the Imams agree that the man is killed for a woman whom he kills, according to the general indications of this Ayah. 196 Tafsir Ibn Kathir abrogated. Allah then mentioned the Injil, praised it and commanded its people to adhere to it and follow it, as we stated. He next mentioned the Glorious Qur'an that He sent down to His honorable servant and Messenger. Allah said, ig31 30 i Su[iAnd We have sent down to you the Book in truth... meaning, with the truth that, no doubt, is coming from Allah, zz Q. 4confirming the Scripture that came before ify meaning, the Divinely Revealed Books that praised the Qur an and mentioned that it would be sent down from Allah to His servant and Messenger Muhammad sg. The Qur an was revealed as was foretold in the previous Scriptures. This fact increased faith in the previous Scriptures for the sincere who have knowledge of these Scriptures, those who adhered to Allah s commands and Laws and believed in His Messengers. Allah said, o&u 'oU& j4 & 4 Cj jij 'yy kt ,/ > / i! t: /> 4Say : "Believe in it or do not believe (in it) . Verily, those who were given knowledge before it, when it is recited to them, fall down on their faces in humble prostration." And they say: "Glory be to our Lord! Truly, the promise of our Lord must be fulfilled meaning that they say, the promise of our Lord, concerning the coming of Muhammad ^ by the words of His previous Messengers, will certainly be fulfilled. Allah s statement, iand Muhayminan over ify means entrusted over it, according to Sufyan Ath-Thawri who narrated it from Abu Ishaq from At-Tamlmi from Ibn Abbas . m Af-Tabari 10:378.

Al-Md'idah (48 - 50) (Part-6) Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas said, Muhaymin is, the Trustworthy . Allah says that the Qur an is trustworthy over every Divine Book that preceded it. 111 This was reported from Ikrimah, Said bin Jubayr, Mujahid, Muhammad bin KaT), Atiyyah, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, Ata Al-Khurasani, As- Suddi and Ibn Zayd . 121 Ibn Jarir said, The Qur an is trustworthy over the Books that preceded it. Therefore, whatever in these previous Books conforms to the Qur an is true, and whatever disagrees with the Qur an is false. Al- Walibi said that Ibn Abbas said that Muhayminan means, Witness .13 ' Mujahid, Qatadah and As-Suddi said the same. Al- Awfi said that Ibn Abbas said that Muhayminan means, dominant over the previous Scriptures .'41 These meanings are similar, as the word Muhaymin includes them all. Consequently, the Qur an is trustworthy, a witness, and dominant over every Scripture that preceded it. This Glorious Book, which Allah revealed as the Last and Final Book, is the most encompassing, glorious and perfect Book of all times. The Qur an includes all the good aspects of previous Scriptures and even more, which no previous Scripture ever contained. This is why Allah made it trustworthy, a witness and dominant over all Scriptures. Allah promised that He will protect the Qur an and swore by His Most Honorable Self, /i 'Tilt iVerily, We, it is We Who have sent down the Dhikr and surely, We will guard it (from corruption).} Allah said, iSo judge between them by what Allah has revealed.} The Ayah commands: O Muhammad! Al-Ma'idah (48 - 50) (Part-6) 41/Allah willed, He would have made you one nation. This is a general proclamation to all nations informing them of Allah's mighty ability. If Allah wills, He would make all mankind follow one religion and one Law, that would never be abrogated. Allah decided that every Prophet would have his own distinct law that is later abrogated partially or totally with the law of a latter Prophet. Later on, all previous laws were abrogated by the Law that Allah sent with Muhammad g, His servant and Messenger, whom Allah sent to the people of earth as the Final Prophet. Allah said, z 40a js; 14 iii js;} 41/Allah willed, He would have made you one nation, but that (He) may test you in what He has given you This Ayah means, Allah has instituted different laws to test His servants obedience to what He legislates for them, thus, He rewards or punishes them according to their actions and what they intend. Abdullah bin Kathir said that the Ayah, 4In what He has given you.} means, of the Book. Next, Allah encouraged rushing to perform good deeds, strive as in a race in good deeds.} which are obedience to Allah, following His Law that abrogated the laws that came before it, and believing in His Book, the Qur'an, which is the Final Book that He revealed. Al-Ma'idah (48 - 50) (Part-6) Therefore, the majority of humans are disobedient to their Lord, defiant of the truth and deviate away from it. Allah said in other Ayat, iAnd most people will not believe even if you desire it eagerly,} and, tjffi 0* oft iAnd if you obey most of those on the earth they will mislead you far away from Allah's path.} Muhammad bin Ishaq reported that Ibn Abbas said, Ka'b bin Asad, Ibn Saluba, Abdullah bin Surya and Shas bin Qays said to each other, Let us go to Muhammad to try and misguide him from his religion. So they went to the Prophet and said, O Muhammad! You know that we are the scholars, noblemen and chiefs of the Jews. If we follow you, the Jews will follow suit and will not contradict us. But, there is enmity between us and some of our people, so we will refer to you for judgement in this matter, and you should rule in our favor against them and we will believe in you. The Messenger of Allah g refused the offer and Allah sent down these Ayat about them, iAnd so judge between them by what Allah has revealed and follow not their vain desires, but beware of them lest they turn you far away from some of that which Allah has sent down to you.} until, if a people who have firm faith.} Ibn Jarir¹¹¹ and Ibn Abi Hatim recorded this Hadith. Allah continues, oi 0 0 jlgll m At-Tabari 10:393.

4Do they then seek the judgement of (the days of) ignorance? And who is better in judgement than Allah for a people who have firm faith?} Allah criticizes those who ignore Allah's commandments, which include every type of righteous good thing and prohibit every type of evil, but they refer instead to opinions, desires and customs that people themselves invented, all of which have no basis in Allah's religion. During the time of Jahiliyyah, the people used to abide by the misguidance and ignorance that they invented by sheer opinion and lusts. The Tatar (Mongols) abided by the law that they inherited from their king Genghis Khan who wrote Al-Yasiq, for them. This book contains some rulings that were derived from various religions, such as Judaism, Christianity and Islam. Many of these rulings were derived from his own opinion and desires. Later on, these rulings became the followed law among his children, preferring them to the Law of the Book of Allah and the Sunnah of His Messenger s||. Therefore, whoever does this, he is a disbeliever who deserves to be fought against, until he reverts to Allah's and His Messenger's decisions, so that no law, minor or major, is referred to except by His Law. Allah said, "Do they then seek the judgement of (the days of) ignorance?" meaning, they desire and want this and ignore Allah's judgement, "And who is better in judgement than Allah for a people who have firm faith?" Who is more just in decision than Allah for those who comprehend Allah's Law, believe in Him, who are certain that Allah is the best among those who give decisions and that He is more merciful with His creation than the mother with her own child? Allah has perfect knowledge of everything, is able to do all things, and He is just in all matters. Al-Hafiz Abu Al-Qasim At-Tabarani recorded that Ibn Abbas said that the Messenger of Allah said, "The most hated person to Allah is the one who sums up the affair of the Messenger of Allah and the believers, and then he turns back from his religion (Islam), Allah will bring a people whom He will love and they will love Him; humble towards the believers, stem towards the disbelievers, fighting in the way of Allah, and never fearing the blame of the blamers. That is the grace of Allah which He bestows on whom He wills. And Allah is All-Sufficient for His creatures' needs, All-Knower." 455. Verily, your Protector is Allah, His Messenger, and the believers, those who perform the Salath, and give Zakah, and they bow down 456. And whosoever takes Allah, His Messenger, and those who have believed, as protectors, then the party of Allah will be the victorious."

3. "O you who believe! Take not the Jews and the Christians as friends, for they are enemies of yours. And you see those in whose hearts there is a disease... A disease of doubt, hesitation and hypocrisy. They hurry to their friendship, meaning, they rush to offer them their friendship and allegiances in secret and in public, saying: 'We fear lest some misfortune of a disaster may befall us.' They thus offer this excuse for their friendship and allegiances to the disbelievers, saying that they fear that the disbelievers might defeat the Muslims, so they want to be in favor with the Jews and Christians, to use this favor for their benefit in that eventuality! Allah replied, 'Perhaps Allah may bring a victory...' referring to the conquering of Makkah, according to As-Suddi. 'Or a decision according to His will' requiring the Jews and Christians to pay the Jizyah, as As-Suddi stated, 'Then they will become' meaning, the hypocrites who gave their friendship to the Jews and Christians, will become, 'for what they have been keeping as a secret in themselves' of allegiances, 111 Ibn Abi Hatim 4:1156. At-Jabari 10:405.

regretful for their friendship with the Jews and Christians which did not benefit them or protect them from any harm. Rather, it was nothing but harm, as Allah exposed their true reality to His faithful servants in this life, although they tried to conceal it. When the signs that exposed their hypocrisy were compiled against them, their matter became clear to Allah's faithful servants. So the believers were amazed at these hypocrites who pretended to be believers, swearing to their faithfulness, yet their claims were all lies and deceit. This is why Allah said, 'And those who believe will say, "Are these the men who swore their strongest oaths by Allah that they were with you?" All that they did has been in vain, and they have become the losers.' 454. O you who believe! Whoever from among you turns back from his religion (Islam), Allah will bring a people whom He will love and they will love Him; humble towards the believers, stem towards the disbelievers, fighting in the way of Allah, and never fearing the blame of the blamers. That is the grace of Allah which He bestows on whom He wills. And Allah is All-Sufficient for His creatures' needs, All-Knower." 455. Al-Ma'idah (54 - 56) (Part-6) Threatening to Replace the Believers With Another People if They Revert from Islam Allah emphasizes His mighty ability and states that whoever reverts from supporting His religion and establishing His Law, then Allah will replace them with whomever is better, mightier and more righteous in Allah's religion and Law. They are you, with these characteristics, 4* & those who incurred the curse of Allah were expelled from His mercy, and who incurred His wrath) and anger, after which He will never be pleased with them, those of whom He transformed into monkeys and swine,) as we mentioned in Surat Al-Baqarah (2) and as we will mention in Surat Al-A'raf (7). Sufyan Ath-Thawri narrated that Ibn Mas'ud said, Allah's Messenger (s) was asked if the current monkeys and swine were those whom Allah transformed. He said, (S) Allah never destroyed a people by transforming them and making offspring or descendants for them. The monkeys and swine existed before that.* This was also recorded by Muslim. 121 Allah said, (Those who worshipped Taghiit...) and served them, becoming their servants. The meaning of this Ayah is: you, O People of the Scriptures, who mock our religion, which consists of Allah's Tawhid, and singling Him out in worship without others, how can you mock us while these are your characteristics? This is why Allah said, "a Mushkil Al-Athar 4 :275 Muslim 4:2051.

The Reason Behind Revealing these Ayat

Said bin Jubayr, As-Suddi and others said that these Ayat were revealed concerning a delegation that An-Najashi (King of Ethiopia) sent to the Prophet ﷺ in order to hear his words and observe his qualities. When the delegation met with the Prophet and he recited the Qur'an to them, they embraced Islam, cried and were humbled. Then they returned to An-Najashi and told him what happened. 11 Ata bin Abi Rabah commented, They were Ethiopians who embraced Islam when the Muslims who migrated to Ethiopia resided among them. Qatadah said, They were some followers of the religion of Isa, son of Maryam, who when they saw Muslims and heard the Qur'an, they became Muslims without hesitation. 12 Ibn Jarir said that these Ayat were revealed concerning some people who fit this description, whether they were from Ethiopia or otherwise. Allah said, Tabari 10:499,500. Tabari 10:501.

Verily, you will find the strongest among men in enmity to the believers the Jews and those who commit Shirk,} This describes the Jews, since their disbelief is that of rebellion, defiance, opposing the truth, belittling other, people and degrading the scholars. This is why the Jews - may Allah's continued curses descend on them until the Day of Resurrection - killed many of their Prophets and tried to kill the Messenger of Allah ﷺ several times, as well as, performing magic spells against him and poisoning him. They also incited their likes among the polytheists against the Prophet Allah's statement, and you will find the nearest in love to the believers those who say: "We are Christians."} refers to those who call themselves Christians, who follow the religion of the Messiah and the teachings of his Injil. These people are generally more tolerant of Islam and its people, because of the mercy and kindness that their hearts acquired through part of the Messiah's religion. In another Ayah, Allah said; Vj O'j iAnd We ordained in the hearts of those who followed him, compassion, mercy, and monasticism . .> [57:27]. Allah made the Ka'bah, the Sacred Month, the Hady, the garlanded animals and people an asylum of safety for the Arabs who used to consider these symbols sacred. Thus, these symbols were just like the chief who is obeyed by his followers, and who upholds harmony and public safety. As for the Ka'bah, it includes the entire sacred boundary. Allah termed it Haram because He prohibited hunting its game and cutting its trees or grass. Similarly, the Ka'bah, the Sacred Month, the animals of offerings and the garlands were the landmarks of existing Arabs. These symbols were sacred during the time of Jahiliyyah and the people's affairs were guided and protected by them. With Islam they became the symbols of their Hajj, their rituals, and the direction of the prayer, [i.e., the Ka'bah in Makkah.] 4 US 4 U jt 3 ithat you may know that Allah has knowledge of all that is in the heavens and all that is in the earth, and that Allah is the All-Knower of each and everything .> Allah says; O people, I made these symbols an asylum for you, so that you know that He Who made these symbols that benefit your life and provide you with security, also knows everything in the heavens and earth that brings about your immediate or eventual benefit. The Amr mentioned in the above Hadith is the son of Luhay bin Qam'ah, one of the chiefs of the tribe of Khuza'ah who were the caretakers of the House of Allah after the tribe of Jurhum, (and before the Prophet's tribe, Quraysh). He was the first to change the religion of Ibrahim (Al-KhaM in Makkah) bringing idol worshipping to the area of Hijaz (Western Arabia). He also called the foolish people to worship idols and offer sacrifices to them and started these ignorant rituals concerning the animals as well as other rituals of Jdhiliyyah. Allah said in Surat Al-An'am, % cSi k iAnd they assign to Allah a share of the tilth and cattle which He has created. ^{(3:136J. As for the Bahirah, Ali bin Abi Talhah said that Ibn Abbas said, It is the female camel that has given delivery five times. After that, they looked at the fifth delivery, if it were a male, they would slaughter it and give it to the men only and not the women. If it were a female, they would cut off its ears and proclaim, This is a Bahirah (no one is allowed to milk it). 121 As-Suddi and others mentioned a similar statement.131 As for the S& ibah, Mujahid said that it is for sheep, and mentioned a similar meaning as for Bahirah. He said that it delivers six females and then a male, female or two males, and that they then would slaughter it (the newly born sheep) and feed its meat to the men, but not to the woman.' Muhammad bin Ishaq said that the S& ibah is the female [1 * Ahmad 1 :446. ' At-Tabari 11 :129. At-Tabari 11:130. At-Tabari 11 :128.

camel that delivers ten females, without giving birth to a single male between them. They would then set it free and no one was allowed to ride it, cut its wool or milk it, except for a guest. Abu Rawq said, The Sa'ibah was made as such when one goes out for some of his affairs and succeeds in whatever he intended to do. So he would designate a S& ibah from his property, a female camel or another type, and would set it free for the idols (in appreciation for his success). Then, whatever this camel gave birth to was set free for the idols too. As- Suddi said, When one's affair was successful, or if he was cured from an illness, or if his wealth increased, he would set some of his wealth free for the idols. Those who would try to acquire any of the Sa'ibah property were punished in this world. As for the Was'ah, Ali bin Abi Talhah said that Ibn Abbas said, It is the sheep that gives birth seven times, if she gives birth to a male or a female stillborn at its seventh delivery, the men, but not the women, would eat from it. If she gave birth to a female, or a female and a male, they would set them free, proclaiming (about the male in this case). His sister Wasalat (literally, connected him to being forbidden on us). Ibn Abi Hatim recorded this statement. 111 Abdur-Razzaq narrated that Ma'mar said that Az-Zuhri said that Said bin Al-Musayyib said that, 'It is the female camel that gives delivery to a female and then another female at its second delivery. They would call such a camel a Wasilah, proclaiming that she has Wasalat (connected) between two females without giving birth to a male between them. So they used to cut off the ears of the Was'ah and let it roam free to pasture for their idols. A similar explanation was reported from Imam Malik bin Anas. Muhammad bin Ishaq said, The Was'ah sheep is the ewe that gives birth to ten females in five deliveries, giving birth to two females at each delivery. This sheep would be called 111 Ibn Abi Hatim 4:1222. Abdur-Razzaq 1:196.

Was'ah and would be set free. Whatever this sheep delivers afterwards, male or female, would be given to the men, but not the women, but if it delivers a stillborn, men and women would share it! As for the Ham, Al- Awfi said that Ibn Abbas said, If a man's camel performs ten copulations, they would call him a Ham, So set him free., 1 Similar was reported from Abu Rawq and Qatadah. Ali bin Abi Talhah said that Ibn Abbas said, The Ham is the male camel whose offspring gave birth to their own offspring; they would then proclaim, This camel has Hama (protected) its back. Therefore, they would not carry anything on this male camel, cut his wool, prevent him from grazing wherever he likes or drinking from any pool, even if the pool did not belong to its owner. 121 Ibn Wahb said, I heard Malik saying, As for the Ham, it is the male camel who is assigned a certain number of copulations, and when having finished what was assigned to him, would have peacock feathers placed on him and be set free. Other opinions were also mentioned to explain this Ayah. There is a Hadith on this subject that Ibn Abi Hatim collected from Abu Ishaq As-Subay'i from Al-Ahwas Al- Jushami from his father Malik bin Nadlah who said, I came to the Prophet (ﷺ) wearing old clothes. So he said to me, "Do you have any property?" I said, Yes. He asked, "What type?" I said, All types; camels, sheep, horses and slaves. He said, "If Allah gives you wealth, then let it show on you." He then asked, "Do your camels deliver calves that have full ears?" I said, Yes, At-Tabari 11:129. Ibn Abi Hatim 4 :1225 and do camels give birth but to whole calves? He said, "Yes." I said, "Do you take the knife and cut off the ears of some of them saying, This is a Bahirah/ and tear the ears of some of them and proclaim, 'This is Sacred?'" He said, Yes. He said, "Then do not do that, for all the wealth that Allah has given you is allowed for you." Then he said; "Allah has not instituted things like Bahirah or a Sa'ibah or a Wasilah or a Ham." As for the Bahirah, it is the animal whose ears were cut, one would not allow his wife, daughters, or any of his household to benefit from its wool, hair or milk. But, if it died, they would share it. As for the Sa'ibah, they used to set it free for their idols and announce this fact in the vicinity of the idols. As for the Wasilah, it is the sheep that gives birth to six offspring. When she delivered for the seventh time, they would cut its ears and horns, saying, It has Wasalat (connected deliveries), and they would not slaughter it, hit it or prevent it from drinking from any pool. 11 This Hadith was narrated with the addition of the explanation of these words in it. In another narration for this Hadith from Abu Ishaq from Abu Al-Ahwas, Awf bin Malik used his own words (Le., he explained these words not as a part of the Hadith itself) and this is more sound. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Ibn Abbas said, They said to Isa, son of Maiyam, Supplicate to Allah to send down to us from heaven, a table spread with food. He also said, So the angels brought the table down containing seven fish and seven pieces of bread and placed it before them. So the last group of people ate as the first group did. 121 Ibn Jarir recorded that Ishaq bin Abdullah said that the table was sent down to Isa son of Maryam having seven pieces of bread and seven fish, and they ate from it as much as they wished. But when some of them stole food from it, saying, It might not come down tomorrow, the table ascended.131 At-Tabari 11:233.Tabari 5 :132 , Ibn Abi Hatim 4 :1246Tabari 5:134.

These statements testify that the table was sent down to the Children of Israel during the time of Isa, son of Maryam, as a result of Allah s accepting his supplication to Him. In this Ayah, Allah describes darkness in the plural, Zulumat [where Zulmah is singular for darkness], while describing the light in the singular, An-Nur, because An- Nur is more honored. In other Ayat, Allah said. iTo the right and to the left. [16:48] Near the end of this Surah (chapter 6), Allah also said; ^ J?>? Here, Allah answered the disbelievers when they said, "if 4 Is it these (poor believers) that Allah has favored from amongst us?" Does not Allah know best those who are grateful?} Meaning is not Allah more knowledgeable of those who thank and appreciate Him in statement, action and heart? Thus Allah directs these believers to the ways of peace, transfers them from darkness to light by His leave, and guides them to the straight path. In another Ayah, Allah said; 4As for those who strive hard for Us (Our cause), We will surely guide them to Our paths (i.e. Allah's religion). And verily, Allah is with the doers of good"} [29:69]. An authentic Hadith states, "Allah does not look at your shapes or colors, but He looks at your heart and actions." n 1 4: 1987.

Allah's statement, "When those who believe in Our Ayat come to you, say: 'Salamun Alaykum' (peace be on you);} means, honor them by returning the Salām and give them the good news of Allah's exclusive, encompassing mercy for them. So Allah said; "your Lord has written Mercy for Himself,} meaning, He has obliged His Most Honored Self to grant mercy, as a favor, out of His compassion and beneficence, "So that, if any of you does evil in ignorance. . .} as every person who disobeys Allah does it in ignorance, and thereafter repents and does righteous good deeds,} by repenting from the sins that he committed, intending not to repeat the sin in the future, but to perform righteous deeds, "for surely, He is Oft-Forgiving Most Merciful." Allah said, iAnd invoking for his father's forgiveness was only because of a promise he had made to him. But when it became clear to him that he was an enemy to Allah, he dissociated himself from him. Verily Ibrahim was patient in supplication and forbearing. [9:114].

It was recorded in the Satuh that Ibrahim will meet his father Azar on the Day of Resurrection and Azar will say to him, My son! This Day, I will not disobey you. Ibrahim will say, O Lord! You promised me not to disgrace me on the Day they are resurrected; and what will be more disgraceful to me than cursing and dishonoring my father? Then Allah will say, O Ibrahim! Look behind you! He will look and there he will see (that his father was changed into) a male hyena covered in dung, which will be caught by the legs and thrown in the (Hell) Fire. 111 Tawhid.BecomesApparent to Ibrahim Allah s statement, (Thus did I've show Ibrahim the kingdom of the heavens and the earth...) [6:75], means, when he contemplated about the creation of the heaven and earth, We showed Ibrahim the proofs of Allah s Oneness over His dominion and His creation, which indicate that there is no god or Lord except Allah. Allah said in other Ayat, (Say : "Behold all that is in the heavens and the earth.") [10:101], and, (It is not for us to see what is before them and what is behind them, of the heaven and the earth? If We will, We sink the earth with them, or cause a piece of the sky to fall upon them. Verily, in this is a sign for every servant who turns to Allah.) [34:9) Allah said next, Path Al-Bdri 6:445. There are a number of reasons explained for this incident, among them, that Ibrahim will not feel disgraced by seeing a dung-covered hyena thrown in the Fire, and that this is the true worth of his father. This is why he said next, i"and I am not ofthe idolaters. } Prophet Ibrahim Debates with his People We should note here that, in these Ayat, Ibrahim, peace be upon him, was debating with his people, explaining to them the error of their way in worshipping idols and images. In the first case with his father, Ibrahim explained to his people their error in worshipping the idols of earth, which they made in the shape of heavenly angels, so that they intercede on their behalf with the Glorious Creator. His people thought that they are too insignificant to worship Allah directly, and this is why they turned to the worship of angels as intercessors with Allah for their provisions, gaining victory and attaining their various needs. He then explained to them the error and deviation of worshipping the seven planets, which they said were the Moon, Mercury, Venus, the Sun, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn. The brightest of these objects and the most honored to them was the Sun, the Moon then Venus. Ibrahim, may Allah's peace and blessings be on him, first proved that Venus is not worthy of being worshipped, for it is subservient to a term and course appointed that it does not defy, nor swerving right or left. Venus does not have any say in its affairs, for it is only a heavenly object that Allah created and made bright out of His wisdom. Venus rises from the east and sets in the west where it disappears from sight. This rotation is repeated the next night, and so forth. Such an object is not worthy of being a god. Ibrahim then went on to mention the Moon in the same manner in which he mentioned Venus, and then the Sun. When he proved that these three objects were not gods, Ibrahim Receives the News of Ishaq and Ya'qub During His Old Age Allah states that after Ibrahim became old and he, and his wife, Sarah, lost hope of having children, He gave them Ishaq. The angels came to Ibrahim on their way to the people of Prophet Lut (to destroy them) and they delivered the good news of a child to Ibrahim and his wife. Ibrahim's wife was amazed at the news, $8 tc-i yz 0; 'A 47 U 5* 'A /& 4She said (in astonishment): "Woe unto me! Shall I bear a child while I am an old woman, and here is my husband, an old man? 3&L Tafsir Ibn Kathir Prophet and that he will have offspring of his own. In another Ayah, Allah said; iAnd We gave him the good news of Ishaq a Prophet from the righteous.}[37:112), which perfects this good news and completes the favor. Allah said, iof Ishaq, and after him, of Ya'qub...} [11:71), meaning, this child will have another child in your lifetime, so that your eyes are comforted by him, just as your eyes will be comforted by his father. Certainly, one becomes jubilant and joyous when he becomes a grandfather, because this means that his offspring will continue to exist. It was also expected that if an elderly couple had children, due to the child's weakness, he would have no offspring. This is why Allah delivered the good news of Ishaq and of his son Ya'qub, whose name literally means multiplying and having offspring . This was a reward for Ibrahim who left his people and migrated from their land so that he could worship Allah alone. Allah compensated Ibrahim with better than his people and tribe when He gave him righteous children of his own, who would follow his religion, so that his eyes would be comforted by them. In another Ayah, Allah said; iSo when he turned away from them and from those whom they worshipped besides Allah, We gave him Ishaq and Ya'qub, and each one of them We made a Prophet.} [19:49] Allah said here, iAnd We bestowed upon him Ishaq and Ya'qub, each of them We guided,} Allah said; Ji Cjlm. li-yj} iand before him. Al-An'am (84 - 90) (Part-7 meaning, We guided Nuh before and gave him righteous offspring, just as We guided Ibrahim and gave him righteous children. Qualities of Nuh and Ibrahim Each of these two Prophets had special qualities. When Allah caused the people of the earth to drown, except those who believed in Nuh and accompanied him in the ark, Allah made the offspring of Nuh the dwellers of the earth thereafter. Ever since that occurred, the people of the earth were and still are the descendants of

NQh. As for Ibrahim, Allah did not send a Prophet after him but from his descendants. Allah said in other Ayat, {And We ordained among his (Ibrahim's) offspring prophethood and the Book.} [29:27], {And indeed, We sent Nuh and Ibrahim, and placed in their offspring Prophethood and the Book.} [57:26], and. {Those were they unto whom Allah bestowed His grace from among the Prophets, of the offspring of Adam, and of those whom We carried (in the ship) with Nuh, and of the offspring of Ibrahim and Ismail and from among those whom We guided and chose. When the verses of the Most Beneficent (Allah) were recited unto them, they fell down prostrating and weeping.} [19:58] Allah said in this honorable Ayah here, {and among his progeny...} meaning, We guided from among his offspring. {</"}

{Dawud, Sulayman...} from the offspring of Nuh, according to Ibn Jarir.' It is also possible that the Ayah refers to Ibrahim since it is about him that the blessings were originally mentioned here, although Lut is not from his offspring, for he was Ibrahim's nephew, the son of his brother Maran, the son of Azar. It is possible to say that Lut was mentioned in Ibrahim's offspring as a generalization. As Allah said, {Or were you witnesses when death approached Ya'qub? When he said unto his sons, "What will you worship after me?" They said, "We shall worship your God, and the God of your fathers, Ibrahim, Isma'il, Ishaq, One God, and to Him we submit"} [2:133]. Here, Ismail was mentioned among the ascendants of Ya'qub, although he was Ya'qub's uncle. Similarly Allah said, {So the angels prostrated themselves, all of them together. Except Iblis - he refused to be among those to prostrate.} [15:30-31]. Allah included Iblis in His order to the angels to prostrate, and chastised him for his opposition, all because he was similar to them in that (order), so he was considered among them in general, although he was a Jinn. Iblis was created from fire while the angels were created from light. Mentioning Isa in the offspring of Ibrahim, or NQh as we stated above, is proof that the grandchildren from a man's daughter's side are included among his offspring, Isa is included among Ibrahim's progeny through his mother, although Isa did not have a father. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Abu Harb bin Abi Al-Aswad said, Al-Hajjaj sent to Yahya bin Ya'mar, saying, 'I was told that you claim that Al-Hasan and Al-Husayn are from the offspring of the Prophet did you find it in the Book of Allah? I read the Quran from beginning to end and did not find it. Yahya said, Do you not read in Surat Al-An'am, {At-Jabari 11:507}.

{I added among his progeny Dawud, Sulayman . . .} until, {and Yahya and Isa...} Al-Hajjaj said, Yes. Yahya said, Is not Isa from the offspring of Ibrahim, although he did not have a father? Al-Hajjaj said, You have said the truth. For example, when a man leaves behind a legacy, a trust, or gift to his offspring then the children of his daughters are included. But if a man gives something to his sons, or he leaves a trust behind for them, then that would be particular to his male children and their male children. Allah's statement, {And also some of their fathers and their progeny and their brethren,} (6:87), mentions that some of these Prophets' ascendants and descendants were also guided and chosen. So Allah said, {We chose them, and We guided them to a straight path.} Shirk Eradicates the Deeds, Even the Deeds of the Messengers Allah said next, {This is the guidance of Allah with which He guides whomsoever He wills of His servants.} meaning, this occurred to them by Allah's leave and because He directed them to guidance. In this case, the Ayah would mean, what makes you - you idolaters - preceive that you are truthful in the vows that you swore? Therefore, in this recitation, the Ayah means, the idolaters will still not believe if the sign that they asked for came. It was also said that you in, what will make you preceive , refers to the believers, meaning, what will make you preceive, O believers, that the idolaters will still not believe if the signs come. Allah also said, iSS& h 4 "What prevented you (O Iblts) that you did not prostrate, when I commanded you?" [7:12] and, 4And a ban is laid on every town (population) which We have destroyed that they shall not return (to this world again). [21:95] These Ayat mean: What made you, O Iblls, refrain from prostrating, although I commanded you to do so, and, in the second Ayah, that village shall not return to this world again. In the Ayah above [6:109], the meaning thus becomes: What makes you perceive, O believers, who wish eagerly for the disbelievers to believe, that if the Ayat came to them they would believe? Allah said next, ffl ."as -i* p'4 {And We shall turn their hearts and their eyes away, as they refused to believe thereinfor the first time,} Al- Awfi said that Ibn Abbas said about this Ayah, When the idolaters rejected what Allah sent down, their hearts did not settle on any one thing and they turned away from every matter (of benefit). 1 11 Mujahid said that Allah s statement, p'4 {andWe shall turn their hearts and their eyes away,} means, We prevent them from the faith, and even if every sign came to them, they will not believe, just as We prevented them from faith the first time. Similar was said by Ikrimah and Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam. Ali bin Abi Talhah said that Ibn Abbas said, Allah mentions what the servants will say before they say it and what they will do before they do it. Allah said; & JSg vj" {And none can inform you like Him Who is the All-Knower.} [35:14] and, {$ sj&r 4 c-1it 4^ {Lest a person should say, "Alas, my grief that I was undutifal to Allah."} [39:56] until, Oi 4 3b {"Ifonly I had another chance, then I should indeed be among the doers ofgood."} [39:58]. truth of the Messengers, as they asked, when they said, 'is it for you bring Allah and the angels before (us) face to face.' [17:92] They said: "We shall not believe until we receive the like of that which the Messengers of Allah had received." [6:124] and, 'And those who expect not a meeting with Us said: "Wine are not the angels set down to us, or why do we not see our Lord?" Indeed they think too highly of themselves, and are scornful with great pride.' [25:21] Allah said, 'and the dead had spoken unto them,' This is, to inform them of the truth of what the Messengers brought them; they may remain pleased with it, and that they may commit what they are committing. Every Prophet Has Enemies Allah says, just as We made enemies for you, O Muhammad, who will oppose and rebel against you and become your adversaries, We also made enemies for every Prophet who came before you. Therefore, do not be saddened by this fact. Allah said in other Ayat. 'Verily, Messengers were denied before you, but with patience they bore the denial, and they were hurt...' [6:34], and, 'Nothing is said to you except what was said to the Messengers before you. Verily, your Lord is the Possessor of forgiveness, and (also) the Possessor of painful punishment.' [41:43] and, 'Thus have We made for every Prophet an enemy among the criminals.' [25:31]. Waraqah bin Nawfal said to Allah's Messenger, 'None came with what you came with but he was the subject of enmity. Allah's statement, 'Shayatin among mankind...' refers to, 'enemies...' meaning, the Prophets have enemies among the devils of mankind and the devils of the Jinns. The word, Shaytan, describes one who is dissimilar to his kind due to his or her wickedness. Indeed, only the Shaytan, may Allah humiliate and curse them, from among mankind and the Jinns oppose the Messengers. Abdur-Razzaq said that Ma'mar Al-Bukhari no : 3 narrated that Qatadah commented on Allah's statement, 'Shayatin (devils) among mankind and Jinn...' There are devils among the Jinns and devils among mankind who inspire each other. Allah's statement, 'They inspire one another with adorned speech as a delusion.' means, they inspire each other with beautified, adorned speech that deceives the ignorant who hear it, 'as if your Lord had so willed, they would not have done it;' for all this occurs by Allah's decree, will and decision, that every Prophet had enemies from these devils, '->- let them alone with their fabrications.' and lies. This Ayah orders patience in the face of the harm of the wicked and to trust in Allah against their enmity, for, Allah shall suffice for you (O Muhammad) and aid you against them. Allah's statement, 'And Tasghid to it.' means, according to Ibn Abbas, incline to it. 'The hearts of those who do not believe in the Hereafter...' their hearts, mind and hearing. Ali bin Abi Talhah and Al-'Awfi narrated that Ibn Abbas said; When they, the enemies of Allah, would cultivate the land or collect produce, they would assign a part of it to Allah and another part to the idol. They would keep the share for the idol, whether land, produce or anything else, and preserve its division to such an extent that they would collect anything that accidentally falls from the share they assigned to Allah and add it to the share of the idol. If the water that they assigned for the idol irrigated something (a section of land, for instance) that they assigned for Allah, they would add whatever this water irrigated to the idol s share! If the land or produce that they assigned for Allah was accidentally mixed with the share that they assigned for the idol, they would say that the idol is poor. Therefore, they would add it to the share they assigned for the idol and would not return it to the share

Jr Ibn KathirE they assigned for Allah. If the water that they assigned for Allah irrigated what they assigned for the idol they would leave it (the produce) for the idol. Yet for what they sacrificed in the names of the idols, they would not mention Allah s Name when slaughtering it. He then recited the Ayah (6:136) until he reached, 4Evil is the way theyjudge!^ This Ayah means, evil is that which they determined, for they committed error in the division. Certainly, Allah is the Lord, Owner and Creator of all things and His is the dominion. All things are His property and under His supreme control, will and decree. There is no deity worthy of worship, or Lord, except Him. And even when the polytheists made this evil division, they did not preserve it, but cheated in it.
