We have already mentioned this when explaining the Hadiths quoted when we discussed the Ayah, {3(Jij \)i p: Z) iwhen fear is banishedfrom their hearts, they say "What is it that your Lord has said?" Perhaps the flaming fire will strike him before he is able to throw it down, or perhaps he will throw it - by the decree of Allah - before the flaming fire strikes him and burns him. The stars did not move and the Shayatin were not struck. When they heard the revelation, they would come down to earth and to every word they would add nine of their own. When the Messenger of Allah was sent, if a Shaytan wanted to take his seat in the heavens, the flaming fire would come and would not miss him; it would burn him eveiy time. They complained about this to Iblls, may Allah curse him, and he said, Something must have happened. Allah refined the wine of Paradise from the bad effects of the wine of this world, which causes headaches and stomach aches - which is the meaning of Ghawl - causing people to lose their minds completely. So He says here: iRound them will be passed a cup of pure wine meaning, wine from a flowing stream which they do not fear will ever be cut off or cease. So, when Allah mentions the wine of Paradise, He states that it is free of these characteristics, as mentioned in Surat As-Saffat. 4And beside them will be Qdsirat At-Tarfo means, chaste females, who will not look at anyone other than their husbands, as Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Zayd bin Aslam, Qatadah, As-Suddi and others said.' iwith (wide and beautiful) eyes ^means, with beautiful eyes. Abu Ja far bin Jarir recorded that Furat bin Thalabah Al-Bahrani said concerning the Ayah, Urt} 4$ 4$ 4 Verily, I had a companion There were two men who were partners and had collected eight thousand Dinars. One of them had a craft and the other did not. The one who had a craft said to the other, 'You do not have a craft, so I think I will divide the money with you and leave you So he left him. Then the man bought a house, belonging to a king who had died, for the price of one thousand Dinars. He called his companion and showed him the house, saying, What do you think of this house? I bought it for one thousand Dinars. He said, How beautiful it is. When he went out he said, O Allah, this companion of mine has bought this house for one thousand Dinars', I ask You for one of the houses of Paradise - and he gave one thousand Dinars in charity. Then as much time passed as Allah willed should pass. The first man married a woman with a dowry of one thousand Dinars, and invited his companion and made food for him. On the basis of this Ayah and this story, some of the scholars of Usui have stated that it is valid for a ruling to be abrogated before anyone is able to act upon it - unlike some of the Mutazilah. The evidence for this is obvious, because Allah commanded Ibrahim, peace be upon him, to sacrifice his son, then He abrogated that and pointed out the ransom. The purpose of His command had been primarily to reward His close Friend for his patience and resolve in sacrificing his son. Allah says: 4 ^' iytl 'fr 'i* di>\$ iVerily, that indeed was a manifest trial. meaning, it was clearly a test when he was commanded to sacrifice his son, so, he hastened to do it, in submission to the command of Allah and in obedience to Him. As-Saffat (99 - 113) (Part-23) Ismail, peace be upon him. Ibn Jarir narrated that Ibn Abbas said, The one who was ransomed was Ismail, peace be upon him. The Jews claimed that it was Ishaq, but the Jews lied. It was reported that Ibn Tjmar said, The sacrifice was Ismail. 121 Ibn Abi Najih said, narrating from Mujahid, It was Ismail, peace be upon him. 131 This was also the view of Yusuf bin Mihran. 14 Ash-Shalai said, It was Ismail, peace be upon him, and I saw the horns of the ram in the Ka bah. [51 Muhammad bin Ishaq reported from Al-Hasan bin Dinar and Amr bin Tjbayd from Al-Hasan Al-Basri that he did not doubt that the one of the two sons Ibrahim was commanded to sacrifice was Ismail, peace be upon him. 16 * Ibn Ishaq said, I heard Muhammad bin Ka*b Al-Qurazi say. The one whom Allah commanded Ibrahim to sacrifice of his two sons was Ismail. We find this in the Book of Allah, because when Allah finishes the story of the one of the two sons of Ibrahim who was to be sacrificed, He then says: iAnd We gave him the glad tidings of Ishaq - a Prophet from the righteous>, and 4So, We gave her glad tidings of Ishaq and after Ishaq, of Ya'qub} (11:71). He mentions the son and the son of the son, but He would not have commanded him to sacrifice Ishaq when He had promised that this son would in turn have a son. The one whom He commanded him to sacrifice can only have been Ismail. 17 Ibn Ishaq said, I heard him say that often. '8 Tabari 21:83. |2' At-Tabari 21:82. [3 ' At-Tabari 21 :84. [4 At-Tabari 21:84. Umar said to him, This is something about which I have never given any thought, but I see that it is as you say. Then he sent for a man who was with him in Syria, a Jew who had become a Muslim and was committed to Islam, and he thought that he had been one of their scholars. Umar bin Abd Al- Aziz, may Allah be pleased with him, asked him about that. Muhammad bin Kah said, I was with Umar bin Abd Al- Aziz. Umar said to him, Which of the two sons of Ibrahim was he commanded to sacrifice? He said, Ismail. By Allah, O Commander of the faithful, the Jews know this, but they were jealous of you Arabs because it was your father about whom Allah issued this command and the virtue that Allah mentioned was because of his patience in obeying the command. So they denied that and claimed that it was Ishaq, because he is their father. Abdullah bin Al-Imam Ahmad bin Hanbal, may Allah have mercy on him, said, I asked my father about which son was to be sacrificed - was it Ismail or Ishaq? He said, Ismail. This was mentioned in Kitab Az-Zuhd.}2^ Ibn Abi Hatim said, I heard my father say, The correct view is that the one who was to be sacrificed was Ismail, peace be upon him. This was also the view of Ad-Dahhak . * Wahb bin Munabbih said, He is Ilyas bin Yasln bin Finhas bin Al-Tzar bin Harun bin Imran . 131 Allah sent him to the Children of Israel after Hizqil (Ezekiel), may peace be upon them both. They had started to worship an idol called Bal, and he called them to Allah, may He be exalted, and forbade them to worship anyone besides Him. Their king believed in him, then he apostatized, and they persisted in their misguided ways, and not one person among them believed in him. So he prayed to Allah against them, and Allah withheld the rain from them for three years. Then they asked him to relieve them from that, and promised that they would believe in him if rain came to them. So he prayed to Allah for them, and the rains came, but they persisted in their evil ways of disbelief. So he asked Allah to take him to Him. Al-Yasa bin Akhtub had grown up under his care, may peace be upon them both. So Ilyas was commanded to go to such and such a place, and whatever mount came to him, he was to ride on it and not to give it away. A horse of fire was brought to him, so he rode it, and Allah clothed him with light and covered him with feathers, and he used to fly with the angels as a human angel, heavenly yet also earthly. iThen he (agreed to) cast lots,$ means, to draw lots. iand he was among the losers .> means among those who have been overcome. This was because the ship was being pounded by the waves on all sides, and they were at risk of drowning, so they drew lots, and whoever lost would be thrown overboard so as to lighten the load. The Prophet of Allah Yunus, peace be upon him, lost the draw three times, but they did not want to throw him overboard. He took off his garment so that he could throw himself into the sea, and they tried to stop him. Then Allah commanded a large fish from the Green Sea (i .e Mediterranean Sea) to cleave the oceans and come and swallow Yunus, peace be upon him, without cutting his flesh or breaking his bones. The fish came and Yunus, peace be upon him, threw himself overboard, and the fish swallowed him and took him away, traveling through all the seas with him. When Yunus had stayed for some time in the fish s belly, he thought that he had died; then he moved his head and legs and arms, and saw that he was alive. He prayed in the belly of the fish, and one of the things he said in his main prayer was: O Lord, I have taken as a place of worship to You a place which no other person has reached. They differed as to how long he spent in the belly of the fish. Some said three days; this was the view of Qatadah. Some said seven days; this was the view of Ja'far As-Sadiq, may Allah be pleased with him. The Reason for the Revelation of These Ayah

Abu JaYar bin Jarir recorded that Ibn Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, said, When Abu Talib fell sick, some of the people of the Quraysh, including Abu Jahl, entered upon him and said, Your brother s son is insulting our gods; he does such and such and says such and such. Why don t you send for him and tell him not to do that? So he sent for the Prophet ﷺ and he entered the house. There was space enough for one man to sit between them and Abu Talib, and Abu Jahl, may Allah curse him, was afraid that if [the Prophet ﷺ] were to sit beside Abu Talib he would be more lenient with him, so he jumped up and sat in that spot, and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ could find nowhere to sit near his uncle, so he sat by the door. Abu Talib said to him, O son of my brother, why sire your people complaining about you and claiming that you m At-Tabari 2 1 :152

Sad (4 -11) (Part-23) insult their gods and say such and such? They made so many complaints against him. Thereupon, he said, i i>! *< If, "O uncle, all I want from them is one word which, if they say it, the Arabs will become their followers and the non-Arabs will pay jizyah to them ." They were worried about what he said, so they said, One word? Yes, by your father, (we will say) ten words! What is it? Abu Talib said, What word is it, O son of my brother? He said, "Si) i 'i/i iiii "L" ilaha illallah. They stood up in agitation, brushing down their clothes, saying, 4Q&&&k m $3 } Has he made the gods into One Cod. Verily, this is a curious thing!} Then this passage was revealed, from this Ayah to the Ayah: $Nay, but they have not tasted (My) torment!}" This is the wording of Abu Kurayb. Something similar was also recorded by Imam Ahmad and An-Nasal, and At-Tirmidhi said, Hasan. 4yfi\ 4 6? } 4We have not heard (the like) of this in the religion of these later days.} means, *we have not heard anything like this Tawhld to which Muhammad calls us in the religion of these later days. His servants do not possess any power and have no control over His dominion, not even a speck of dust s weight; they do not possess even a thin membrane over a date stone. If a bird flew by him and heard him chanting the Zabur, it would not go away; instead it would stay hovering in the air, glorifying Allah along with him. Advice to Rulers and Leaders This is advice from Allah, may He be exalted, to thosewho are in positions of authority. They should rule according to the truth and justice revealed from Him, they should not turn away from it and be led astray from the path of Allah. Allah has issued a stem warning of a severe punishment to those who go astray from His path and forget the Day ofResurrection. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Ibrahim Abu Zur ah, who read the Scripture, reported that Al-Walld bin 'Abd Al-Malik said to him: Does anyone have the right to question the Khallfah? You have read the first Scripture and the Qur'an, and you have understood them. He replied, May I speak, O Commander of the faithful? He said, Speak, for you are under the protection of Allah. They are not equal before Allah, and since this is the case, there must inevitably be another realm in which those who obey Allah will be rewarded and the wicked will be punished. This teaching indicates to those of a sound mind and upright nature that there must inevitably be a resurrection and recompense. We see evildoers and criminals are prospering and increasing in wealth, children and luxury, until they die in that state. We see oppressed believers dying of grief and distress, so by the wisdom of the All-Wise, All-Knowing, All-Just who does not do even a speck of dust's weight of injustice, there should be a time when the rights of the oppressed are restored with due justice. If this does not happen in this world, there must be another realm where recompense may be made and consolation may be found. He said, Because he would not punish an animal by cutting its hamstrings or destroy his own wealth for no other reason than that he had been distracted from his prayer by looking at it, and it was not the animals fault. This view which Ibn Jarir thought more correct is subject to further review, because such action may have been permissible according to their law, especially since he got angry for the sake of Allah for being distracted by these horses until the time for prayer had lapsed. Then, since he dispensed with them for the sake of Allah, Allah compensated him with something better, the wind which blew gently by his order wherever he willed. Its morning lasted a month s (journey), and its afternoon lasted a month s (journey). This was faster and better than horses. Imam

These tests afflicted his body, his wealth and his children, until there was no part of his body that was healthy except his heart. Then he had nothing left in this world which he could use to help him deal with his sickness or the predicament he was in, besides his wife, who retained her devotion to him because of her faith in Allah and His Messenger. She did not leave him, morning and evening, except for when she was serving people, then she would come straight back to him. When this had gone on for a long time, and things had gotten very bad, and the time allotted by divine decree had come to an end, Ayyub prayed to the Lord of the worlds, the God of the Messengers, and said: t} iVerily, distress has seized me, and You are the Most Merciful of all those who show mercy$ (21:83). And according to this Ayah: iAnd remember Our servant Ayyub, wlien he invoked his Lord (saying): "Verily, Shaytan has afflicted me with distress and torment! } It was said that distress referred to bodily afflictions and torment referred to the loss of his wealth and children. Then the Most Merciful of those who show mercy responded to him, telling him to stand up and strike the ground with his foot. He did this, and Allah caused a spring of water to flow. Before creating Adam, peace be upon him, Allah told the angels that He was going to create a human being from sounding clay of altered smooth black mud. He told them that when He finished creating and forming him, they were to prostrate to him as a sign of honor and respect, and out of obedience to the command of Allah, may He be exalted. All of the angels obeyed this command except for Iblis, who was not one of them. He was one of the Jinn, and his nature betrayed him at his time of greatest need. He refused to prostrate to Adam, and he disputed with his Lord about him, claiming that 352 Tafsir Ibn Kathir he was better than Adam, because he was created from fire while Adam was created from clay, and fire was better than clay, or so he said. He made a mistake by doing this, and he went against the command of Allah, thus committing the sin of disbelief. So Allah exiled him, humiliated him, and cast him out of His mercy and His sacred Presence, and called him Iblis symbolizing that he had Ablasa min Ar-Rahmah (despaired of mercy) - that there was no hope for him of mercy. He cast him down from the heavens, disgraced and rejected, to the earth. Iblis asked Allah to give him a reprieve until the Day of Resurrection, so the Forbearing One, Who does not hasten to punish those who disobey Him, gave him a reprieve. When he knew that he was safe from destruction until the Day of Resurrection, he rebelled and transgressed. Az-Zumar (1 - 4) (Part-23) iSurely, the religion is for Allah only.) meaning, He will not accept any deed unless it is done purely and sincerely for Him Alone, with no partner or associate. Then Allah tells us that the idolaters say: > t) 4We worship them only that they may bring us near to Allah.) meaning what motivates them to worship them is the fact that they made their idols in the image of the angels - or so they claim - and when they worship those images it is like worshipping the angels, so that they will intercede with Allah for them to help and give them provision and other worldly needs. As far as the resurrection is concerned, they denied it and did not believe in it. Qatadah, As-Suddi and Malik said, narrating from Zayd bin Aslam and Ibn Zayd: 4&& Ji ionly that they may bring us near to Allah.) means, So that they may intercede for us and bring us closer to Him. 111 During Jahiliyyah, they used to recite the following for their Talbiyah when they performed Hajj; At Your service, You have no partner except the partner You have; he and all that he owns belong to You. This pretentious argument which the idolators of all times, ancient and modern, used as evidence is what the Messengers, may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon them all, came to refute and forbid, and to call people to worship Allah Alone with no partner or associate. This is something that the idolators themselves invented; Allah did not give them permission for it, nor does He approve of it; indeed, He hates it and forbids it. ill IjAicI J '3_yC> iil 4 CJ1> Jjjj) 4And verily, We have sent among every Ummah a Messenger (proclaiming): "Worship Allah, and avoid Taghiit.") This Ayah tells us that Allah, may He be blessed and exalted, will forgive all the sins of those who repent to Him and turn back to Him, no matter what or how many his sins are, even if they are like the foam of the sea. This cannot be interpreted as meaning that sins will be forgiven without repentance, because Shirk can only be forgiven for the one who repents from it.

Al-Hasan Al-Basri, may Allah have mercy on him, said, Look at this generosity and kindness! They killed His close friends but He still called them to repentance and forgiveness. There are many Ay&t on this topic. The Two SdhXhs record the Hadith of Abu Said, may Allah be pleased with him, from Messenger of Allah ijg about the man who killed ninety-nine people. Later on, he regretted it and asked a worshipper among the Children of Israel whether he could repent. He told him no, so he killed him, thus completing one hundred. Then he asked one of their scholars whether he could repent. He said, What is stopping you from repenting? Then he told him to go to a town where Allah was worshipped. He set out for that town, but death came to him while he was on the road. The angels of mercy and the angels of punishment disputed over him, so Allah commanded them to measure the distance between the two towns; whichever he was closer to was the one to which he belonged. They found that he was closer to the town he was heading for, so the angels of mercy took him. It was said that when he was dying, he moved himself (towards that town), and Allah commanded the good town to move closer to him and the other town to move away.^{1,1} This is basic meaning of the Hadith, we have quoted it in full elsewhere. Opening The Tafsir of Surah Ghafir" (Chapter - 40)

Which was revealed in Makkah

The Virtues of the Surahs that begin with Ha Mim Ibn Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, said, Everything has an essence and the essence of the Qur'an is the family of Ha Mim, or he said, the Ha Mans. ' Mis'ar bin Kidam said, They used to be called the brides. All of this was recorded by the Imam, great scholar, Abu TJBayd Al-Qasim bin Sallam, may Allah have mercy upon him, in his book Fada il Al-Qur'an. W Humayd bin Zanjuyah narrated that Abdullah, may Allah be pleased with him, said, The parable of the Qur'an is that of a man who sets out to find a place for his family to stay, and he comes to a place where there is evidence of rainfall. While he is walking about, admiring it, he suddenly comes upon beautiful gardens. He says, liked the first traces of rainfall, but this is far better. It was said to him, The first place is like the Qur'an, and these beautiful gardens are like the splendor of family of Ha Mim in relation to the rest of the Qur'an. This was recorded by Al-Baghawi. [sl Ibn Mas'ud, may Allah be pleased with him, said, When I reach the family of Ha Mim, it is like reaching a beautiful garden, so I take my time. 4-Sgfl P * ^ In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. When they actually experience the unbearable punishment of Allah, they will hate themselves with the utmost hatred, because of the sins they committed in the past, which were the cause of their entering the Fire. As-Suddi said, he was a cousin [son of the paternal uncle] of Fir'awn. And it was said that he was the one who was saved along with MQsa, peace be upon him. Then, for the sake of argument, he went along with them and said, 4And ifhe is a liar, upon him will be (the sin of) his lie; but if he is telling the truth, then some of that (calamity) wherewith he threatens you will befall on you.) meaning, if you do not believe in what he is saying, then it is only common sense to leave him alone and not harm him; if he is lying, then Allah will punish him for his lies in this world and in the Hereafter. If he is telling the truth and you harm him, then some of what he is warning about will happen to you too, because he is threatening you with punishment in this world and in the Hereafter if you go against him. It is possible that he is telling the truth in your case, so you should leave him and his people alone, and not harm them. Similarly, the Messenger of Allah told the Quraysh to leave him alone and let him call the servants of Allah to Allah; he asked them not to harm him, and to uphold the ties of Allah says: 4 40& 'V 4Say: "No reward do I ask of you for this except to be kind to me for my kinship with you."} (42:23), meaning, do not harm me, because of the ties of kinship that exist between me and you; so do not harm me, and let me address my call to the people. Then he did them the favor of accepting ransom from them. Shortly after that, Allah enabled him to conquer Makkah, and he rejoiced in his return to his homeland, the sacred and holy land of Al-Haram. Through him, Allah saved it from its disbelief and Shirk. Then Allah enabled him to conquer the Yemen, and the entire Arabian Peninsula submitted to him, and the people entered the religion of Allah in crowds. Then Allah took him (in death), because of his high status and honor, and He established his Companions as his Khalifahs. They conveyed the religion of Allah from him, called mankind to Allah, they conquered many regions, countries and cities, and opened people's hearts, until the call of Muhammad jg spread throughout the world, east and west. Ghafir (82 - 85) (Part-24) The Lesson to be learned from what happened to Those Who Came before Allah tells us about the nations who rejected their Messengers in ancient times. He mentioned the severe punishment they suffered despite their great strength, He mentioned the traces which they left behind in the earth and the great wealth they amassed. None of that availed them anything and could not prevent the punishment of Allah at all. That is because when the Messengers came to them with clear signs and decisive evidence, they did not pay any attention to them. Instead, they were content with the knowledge with them, or so they claimed, and they said that they did not need what the Messengers brought them. Mujahid said, They said, we know better than them, we will not be resurrected and we will not be punished. * As-Suddi said, In their ignorance, they rejoiced in what they had of (worldly) knowledge. The Zakdh paid on one s wealth is so called because it purifies wealth, and it is a means of increasing it, blessing it and making it more beneficial, and a means of assisting one to use it in doing good deeds. Qatadah said, They withheld the Zakdh of their wealth. This is the apparent meaning according to many of the scholars of Tafslr, and this is the view favored by Ibn Jarir.11 ' But the matter is subject to further examination, because the obligation of Zakdh was instituted during the second year after the Hijrah to Al-Madlnah, according to what is stated by several scholars. Yet this Ayah was revealed in Makkah. However, it is not unlikely that the principle of giving charity and Zakdh was already in place and had been enjoined at the beginning of the Prophet s mission, as Allah says: ibut pay the due thereofon the day of their harvest} (6:141). As for the details of Zakdh and how it is to be calculated according to the Nusub, were explained in Al-Madinah. This is how we may reconcile between the two opinions. Similarly, prayer was originally enjoined before sunrise and before sunset at the beginning of the Prophet s mission; it was only on the Night of the Isra , a year and a half before the Hijrah, that m At-Tabari 21 :431

If times of ease come to him, he becomes arrogant and

This is like what the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to the women: "O women, give in charity, for I have seen that you form the majority of the people of Hell. A woman asked, Why is that, O Messenger of Allah? He said: Because you complain too much, and you are ungrateful to (your) husbands. If one of you were to be treated kindly for an entire lifetime, then that kindness was lacking for one day, she would say, I have never seen anything good from my husband." Muslim 1 :86.

This is the case with most women, except for those whom Allah guides and who are among the people who believe and do righteous deeds. As the Prophet said, the believer is the one who: if something good happens to him, he is thankful, and that is good for him. If something bad happens to him, he bears it with patience, and that is good for him. This does not happen to anyone except the believer. To Allah belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth. Adam, peace be upon him, was created from clay, from neither a male nor a female. Hawwa , peace be upon her, was created from a male without a female. 4And he (Isa) shall be a known sign for (the coming of) the Hour The correct view concerning this phrase is that it refers to his descent before the Day of Resurrection, as Allah says: it ' lb o\j} 4And there is none of the People of the Scripture but must believe in him before his death> (4:159). - meaning before the death of Isa, peace be upon him - (IjjJ6 oj$2 f&if 'fff} 4And on the Day of Resurrection, he will be a witness against them (4:159). This meaning has the support from an alternate recitation of the Ayat; (ULUJ pjj (And he shall be a known sign for (the coming of) the Hour.) means, evidence that the Hour will surely come. Mujahid said: 4And he shall be a sign for (the coming of) the Hour.} means, sign and One of the signs of the Hour will be the appearance of Isa son of Maryam before the Day of Resurrection. 111 Something similar was also narrated from Abu Hurayrah, Ibn already been mentioned in Surat Ar-Rum [30 : 1-5] where there was a narration stating that it means, "Luxury." Ibn Kathir's view is that it is more general than that, as seen by his comment here

But the varying ranks and degrees of Paradise will be attained according to one's righteous deeds. iTherein for you will be fruits in plenty,) means, of all kinds. i'oM iof which you will eat.) means, whatever you choose and desire. In Musnad Al-Bazzar, it is recorded from Abu At-Tufayl Amir bin Wathilah from Zayd bin Harithah that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to Ibn Sayyad: ui b- ikJ.Z Ji "I am concealing something, what is it? The story of Ibn Sayyad was recorded by Al-Bukhari, no. 1354 , and Muslim no. 7345, but there is no mention of the Surah in question. That is the smoke that will come on the Day of Resurrection. It will take away the hearing and sight of the hypocrites, but for the believers it will be like having a cold. And it is part of knowledge that when a man does not know something, he should say, Allah knows best. 1 will tell you a Hadith about that. When the Quraysh did not respond to Islam and they grew stubborn, the Messenger of Allah Sg invoked Allah against them that they would have years like the years (of drought and famine) of Yusuf. They became so exhausted and hungry that they ate bones and dead meat. They looked at the sky, but they saw nothing but smoke. There are numerous Marfa' and Mawquf Hadiths, Sahih, Hasan and others, which indicate that the smoke is one of the awaited signs (of the Hour). This is also the apparent meaning of Ayat in the Qur'an. Allah says: iThen wait you for the Day when the sky will bring forth a visible smoke. meaning, clearly visible, such that all people will see it. According to Ibn Mas'ud's interpretation, this was a vision which they saw because of their intense hunger and exhaustion. He also interprets the Ayah iCovering mankind,} meaning, it covered them and overwhelmed them. But if it was only an illusion which happened to the idolators of Makkah, Allah would not have said covering mankind. 4 iThis is a painful torment.} means, this will be said to them by way of rebuke. Refutation of Those Who deny the Resurrection Here Allah denounces the idolaters for their denial of the Resurrection and their belief that there is nothing after this life and no life or resurrection after death, which they based on the fact that their forefathers had died and had not returned. They said. If the resurrection is true, {Then bring back our forefathers, if you speak the truth 1.} This is false evidence and a specious argument, for the resurrection will happen on the Day of Judgement, not in this world; it will happen when this world has ended and ceased to be. Allah will bring all creatures back, created anew. He will make the evildoers fuel for the fire of Hell, and on that Day you will be witnesses over mankind and the Messenger will be a witness over you. Then Allah threatens them and warns them of the irresistible torment other idolaters like who denied the resurrection, suffered. Such as the people of Tubba', i.e., Saba . Allah destroyed them, wreaked havoc upon their land and scattered them here and there throughout the land, as we have already seen in Surah Saba f This was brought about because the idolaters denied the Resurrection. Here too, the idolaters are compared to them. They Tubba' were Arab descendants of Qahtan, just as these people (Quraysh) were Arab descendants of Adn&n. Among the people of Himyar - who are also known as Saba - when a man became their king, they called him Tubba', just as the title Chosroes was given to the king of Persia, Caesar to the king of the Romans, Fir'awn to the disbelieving ruler of Egypt, Negus to the king of Ethiopia, and so on among other nations. But it so happened that one of the Tubba' left Yemen and went on a journey of conquest until he reached Samarqand, expanding his kingdom and domain. He is the one who founded Al-Hirah. It is agreed that he passed through Al- Madfnah during the days of Jahiliyyah. He fought its inhabitants but they resisted him; they fought him by day and supplied him with food by night, so he felt ashamed before them and refrained from harming them. He was accompanied by two Jewish rabbis who advised him and told him that he would never prevail over this city, for it would be the place to which a Prophet would migrate towards the end of time. The Conviction of the Disbelievers, Their Argument and the Refutation of it Allah mentions here the creed of Ad-Dahriyyah and the Arab idolators who embraced their creed, denying Resurrection, 4&J C% (2C- VI Jt \ij) 4And they say: There is nothing but our life of this world, we die and we live....") They say that there is only this life, some people die while others are born to life, without Resurrection or Judgement. This was the creed of Arab idolators who used to deny Resurrection, in addition to, the creed of the atheist philosophers among them who denied the creation and Resurrection. This was also the statement of atheist philosophers who deny the Creator and think that the world will return to its original form once every thirty-six thousand years, when everything will restart its life-cycle again! They claim that this cycle was repeated for infinity, thus contradicting the sound reason and the divine revelation. They said,

We should mention that Ibn Hazm and those of the Zahiriyyah like him made an error when they used this Hadith to include Ad-Dahr among Allah's most beautiful Names. Allah's statement, \>\f) 4And when Our Clear Ayat are recited to them,) means, when the truth is made plain to them and used as evidence against them, asserting that Allah is able to resurrect the bodies after they have perished and disintegrated, 4us"Xo> o'. Muhammad bin Ishaq bin Yasar * narrated from Ba'jah bin Abdullah Al- Juhani that a man from his tribe (Juhaynah) married a woman from Juhaynah. She delivered a baby after six months. So her husband went to TJthman, may Allah be pleased with him, and told him about that. Thus, Uthman summoned her. When she was getting dressed, her sister started crying. She asked her: Why do you cry? By Allah, no one has ever approached me (for sexual relations) of Allah's creation except him (my husband). So let Allah decree (for me) as He wills. When she was brought before TJthman, he commanded that she be stoned to death (for adultery). All heard of this, came to TJthman, and said: What are you doing? He (TJthman) said: She delivered after six months! Can this ever happen? All, may Allah be pleased with him, said: Don't you read the Qur'an? He said: Yes, of course! He (AH) then said: haven't you heard Allah's saying, iand his gestation and weaning is thirty months}, and; i two complete years} (2:233) (Subtracting the two numbers) we are only left with six months. It kept eating him up until he died. 121 ^ This narration is not authentically transmitted. Ibn Abi Hatim and Ibn Al-Mundhir according to Ad-DurrAl-Manthur 6 :9 . Opening denies them any rewards or blessings for them. This is similar to His saying, And We will approach what they have done of deeds and make them as dispersed dust. (25:23) Allah then says, And those who believe and do righteous good deeds, Which means that their hearts and souls have believed, and their limbs and their hidden and apparent acts have complied with Allah's Law. And believe in that which has been sent down to Muhammad Adding this statement to the previous one is a method of adding a specific meaning to a general one. This provides proof that after Muhammad's advent, believing in him is a required condition for the true faith. Allah then says, For it is the truth from their Lord. which is a beautifully placed parenthetical clause. Thus, Allah says, He expiates from them their sins and amends their Bal. Ibn Abbas, said, This means their matter. Mujahid said, This means their affair. Qatadah and Ibn Zayd both said, Their condition. And all of these are similar in meaning. It has been mentioned (from the Prophet in the Hadith of the responding to one who sneezes, "May Allah guide you and rectify your (Bal) affairs. Then Allah says, m Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi 8 : 11 .

deeds. Imam Ahmad Ibn Nasr Al-Marwazi reported in Kitab As-Salah (the Book of Prayer) that Abu Al- Aliyah said, The Prophet s Companions used to think that no sin would harm a person who says 'La ilaha illallah, just as no good deed would benefit a person who joins partners with Allah. So Allah revealed, % j it ljXx, -it \JS\} iObey Allah and obey the Messenger and do not invalidate your deeds.} This made them fear that some sins could nullify their deeds. 11 It has also been reported from Ibn Tjmar, may Allah be pleased with him, that he said, We, the Companions of Allah s Messenger used to think that good deeds would all be accepted, until Allah revealed, $ % j#f \jSjS iObey Allah and obey the Messenger and do not invalidate your deeds.} So we asked each other: What is it that can nullify our deeds? We thereafter continued to fear for those who committed great sins and immoral sins and to have hope for those who did not. Then, Allah commands His believing servants to obey Him and His Messenger s , which would result in their happiness in this worldly life and the Hereafter. He also prohibits them from apostasy, because that would result in the nullification of their deeds. Thus He says. As-Salah by Al-Marwazi 2 :645. 2 As-Salah by Al-Marwazi 2 :646.

Thus, Allah says, 4So do not lose heart and beg for peace while you are superior.} meaning, in the condition of your superiority over your enemy. If, on the other hand, the disbelievers are considered more powerful and numerous than the Muslims, then the Imam (general commander) may decide to hold a treaty if he judges that it entails a benefit for the Muslims. This is like what Allah s Messenger did when the disbelievers obstructed him from entering Makkah and offered him treaty in which all fighting would stop between them for ten years. Consequently, he jg agreed to that. Allah then says:

The Reason behind revealing Surat Al-Fath

This honorable Surah was revealed after the Messenger of Allah ﷺ returned from the area of Al-Hudaybiyyah, during the month of Dhul-Qa'dah, in the sixth year of Hijrah. This is when the idolators prevented him from reaching Al-Masjid Al-Haram to perform the Umrah he intended. They stopped the Prophet ﷺ from reaching Makkah at that time, but then were prone to peace negotiations. A peace treaty was conducted stipulating that the Messenger ﷺ would return this year and then come back for 'Umrah the following year. The Messenger ﷺ agreed. However, some of the Companions disliked these terms, including Umar bin Al-Khattab, as we will mention in detail, Allah willing, while explaining this Surah. After the Prophet ﷺ slaughtered his sacrificial animals in the area where he was stopped and headed back to Al-Madinah, Allah the Exalted and Most Honored revealed this Surah about what occurred between him and the idolators. Allah declared the Al-Hudaybiyyah peace treaty a manifest victory, because of the benefits peace would carry and the good results that did originate from it. Abdullah bin Mas'ud and other Companions said, You consider the conquering of Makkah to be Al-Fath (the victory), while to us, Al-Fath is the treaty conducted at Al-Hudaybiyyah. Jabir (bin Abdullah) said, We only considered Al-Fath to be the day of Hudaybiyyah! 11

accepted the call of Allah and His Messenger jg and obeyed the decisions of Allah and His Messenger jg. When their hearts felt content with acceptance and were at peace, Allah increased their faith, joining it to the faith they already had. Al-Bukhari, and other Imams, relied on this Ayah as proof that faith increases and decreases in the hearts. Allah the Exalted said next that had He willed, He would have inflicted defeat on the disbelievers, Allah says; 4 lyylil' ij~*r 4And to Allah belong the armies of the heavens and the earthy and had He willed to send only one angel to them, that angel would have brought destruction to all what they had. However, Allah the Exalted willed Jihad and fighting to be established for, and by, the believers for great wisdom, clear reasons and unequivocal evidences that He had in all this. Al-Fath (8-10) (Part-26) Qualities of the Messenger of Allah 5 Allah the Exalted says to His Prophet, Muhammad 'Verily, We have sent you as a witness of the creation, as a bearer of glad tidings to the believers, and as a Warner to the disbelievers. We explained these meanings in the Tafseer of Surat Al-Ahzab 11 Allah said, in order that you may believe in Allah and His Messenger, and that you Tu'azzirih or you honor him, according to Abdullah bin Abbas and several others, and Tuwaqqiruh, where Tawqir means, respect, honor and high regard, and that you Tusabbihih, glorify Allah's praises, Bukrah and Asilai, the early and late part of the day. The Pledge of Ar-Ridwan Allah the Exalted and Most Honored honors, regards and praises His Messenger by saying, 'C' 111 See volume seven, the Tafseer of Surat Al-Ahzab (33 : 45 - 46) Tabari 22:207.

132 Tafsir Ibn Kathir 'Verily, those who give pledge to you, they are giving pledge to Allah.} Allah the Exalted and Most High said in another Ayah, 'He who obeys the Messenger, has indeed obeyed Allah.' (4:80) Allah said, next, 'if the Hand of Allah is over their hands.} meaning, He is with them, hearing their statements and witnessing their stand, having full knowledge of them inwardly and outwardly. Therefore, Allah the Exalted was indeed taking the pledge from them through His Messenger, 'for which Allah has purchased of the believers their lives and their properties for which theirs shall be the Paradise. They fight in Allah's cause, so they kill and are killed. It is a promise in truth, binding on Him in the Torah and the Injil and the Qur'an. And who is truer to his covenant than Allah? Then rejoice in the bargain you have concluded. That is the supreme success.' (9:111) Allah said, 'and whosoever fulfills what the covenants he makes with Allah, He will bestow on him a great reward.} a generous reward. The pledge mentioned here is the pledge of Ar-Ridwan which was pledged under a tree, a Samurah, in the area of Al-Hudaybiyyah. The number of the Companions who gave their pledge to Allah's Messenger at that time was either 1,300, 1,400 or 1,500. However, 1,400 is the better choice.

Hadiths about the Pledge at Al-Hudaybiyyah

134 Tafstr Ibn Kathir The Reasonbehind conductingthe Pledge ofAr-Ridwan Muhammad bin Ishaq bin Yasar said in his book on Sirah: The Messenger of Allah sg beckoned Umar bin Al-Khattab in order to send him to Makkah, so that he could inform the chiefs of Quraysh of the Prophet s intent (to perform Vmrah at Makkah). Umar said, O Allah s Messenger! I fear the Quraysh for my being. There are no longer any chiefs from the tribe of Bani Adi bin Ka*b remaining in Makkah who would protect me, in addition, the Quraysh know my enmity and harshness against them. However, I could tell you about a man who is mightier than I in Makkah: Uthman bin Affan. We should send him to Abu Sufyan and the chiefs of the Quraysh informing them that you did not come to fight them, but to. visit this House and to honor its holiness. Uthman left to Makkah. He met Aban bin Said bin Al- As upon entering Makkah or just before that. As a result, Aban took Uthman with him and extended his protection to him so he could deliver the message of Allah s Messenger j . Uthman indeed went to Abu Sufyan and the chiefs of Quraysh and imparted the Prophet s message that he was sent with. When Uthman finished delivering the Prophet s message to them they said to him, If you wish, you can perform Tawafaround the House. Uthman replied, I would not do that before the Messenger of Allah gets the chance to perform Tawafaround it. So the Quraysh kept Uthman waiting in Makkah. However, the Messenger ofAllah jg and the Muslims were told that Uthman had been killed. Ibn Ishaq continued, I was told by Abdullah bin Abu Bakr that when news of Uthman s death was conveyed to him, the Messenger ofAllah said, 3?^ & kVe will not leave until wefight the people .s Ibn Ishaq continued, The Messenger of Allah $g called the Muslims to give a pledge of allegiance, resulting in the pledge of Ar-Ridwan being conducted under the tree. Later, people used to say that the Messenger of Allah took the pledge from them to die. However, Jabir bin Abdullah said, The ^ Ibn Hisham 3 :329-330. This part of the narration is not authentic but its general meaning is found in the upcoming references

The remaining people then started giving the pledge. When about half the people have given the pledge, the Messenger^ said to me, "Give me the pledge, O Salamah! I said, O Allah s Messenger! I have already pledged my pledge in the first group of people. He jg said, "Do it again. So I pledgedmy pledge again. He also saw that I was not wearing any armor and gave me some. I had left my family and wealth and migrated to Allah and His Messenger (so I was poor). After the people of Makkah and us conducted peace and were freely mingling with each other, I went by a tree, removed its thorny branches and rested under its shade. Four of the idolators of Makkah stood close to me and started mentioning the Messenger of Allah ^ in an improper way and I hated being close to them. So, I moved under the shade of another tree. They hanged their weapons and rested under it. Meanwhile, a caller shouted these words from the bottom of the valley, O Emigrants! Ibn Zunaym was killed, so I held my sword and went after the four idolators. They were asleep, so I took possession of their weapons and held them in my hand, saying, By He Who has honored the face of Muhammad sg, if any one of you raises his head, I will strike that which holds his eyes! I brought them to the Messenger of Allah jg, while my uncle Amir brought another mein, an idolator, whose name was Mikraz, and I and my uncle brought the men to the Messenger of Allah $5 . The number of captured idolators swelled to seventy. The Messenger of Allah jg looked at them and said, Let them go, for theirs will be the initiation of hostilities and its burden . " The Messenger of Allah jg forgave them and Allah the Exalted and Most Honored said, 4And He it is Who has withheld their hands from you and your hands from them in the midst of Makkah, after He had made you victors over them.}[48:24]m

Allah characterizes the bedouins who lagged behind the Messenger of Allah during the Vmrah of Hudaybiyyah, saying that when the Prophet jg and his Companions later went on to conquer Khaybar, the bedouins asked them to take them along. They were hoping to collect war booty, having been absent when it was time to fight the enemy and enduring with patience therein. Allah the Exalted ordered His Messenger to refuse to give them permission to accompany him, being a punishment that is similar to their error. Allah has promised those who were present at Al-Hudaybiyyah to earn Khaybar's war spoils alone, not shared in that with the bedouins who lagged behind. Scholars of Tafsir differ over who the people mentioned here are. They are people experienced at warfare who will be called to fight. There are many opinions, first, they are the tribe of Hawazin, as ShuTiah narrated from Abu Bishr from Said bin Jubayr, or Ikrimah, or both of them . Hushaym narrated this explanation from Abu Bishr, from both Said bin Jubayr and Ikrimah . 121 Qatadah, as narrated from him in one version, held the same view . 131 The second view is that these people are the tribe of Thaqlf, according to Ad-Dahhak. The third view is that they are Banu Hanlfa, according to Juwaybir and Az-Zuhri, as Muhammad bin Ishaq narrated from him . 141 Similar was narrated from Said bin Jubayr and Ikrimah . 151 The fourth opinion is that they are the Persians, according to Ali bin Abi Talhah who reported that from Abdullah bin Abbas. This is also the view of Ata , Mujahid, and Ikrimah . 161 Ka b Al-Ahbar said that they are the Romans , 171 while Ibn Abi Layla, Ata, Al-Hasan and Qatadah - in a different narration from him, said that they are the Persians and Romans . 1 1 Mujahid also said that they are the idolators . 191 In another narration Mujahid said, They are men given to great warfare, and did not specify any particular people. This last explanation is the view preferred by Ibn Jurayj and Ibn Jarir. Allah's statement, 1,1 At-Tabari 22:220. At-Jabari 22:220. Tabari 22:220. At-Tabari 22:220. |S) At-Tabari 22:220. For instance, Allah the Exalted helped His loyal faithful supporters during the battle of Badr and they defeated His idolater enemies, even though the Muslims were few in number and lightly armed, while the idolaters were large in number and heavily armed. Allah restrained the hands of the believers and they did not fight the idolaters near Al-Masjid Al-Haram. Rather, Allah saved both parties from battle and brought forth a peace treaty that produced good results for the believers, in addition to, earning them the good end in this life and the Hereafter. Budayl said, I will inform them of what you have said. Some of the fools among the Quraysh shouted that they were not in need of this information, but the wiser among them said, Relate what you heard him saying. How can a person be returned to the idolators after he has become a Muslim? While they were in this state Abu Jandal bin Suhayl bin Amr came from the valley of Makkah staggering with his chains and fell down among the Muslims. Suhayl said, O Muhammad! When the writing of the peace treaty was concluded, Allah's Messenger said to his Companions, iGet up and slaughter your sacrifices and have your heads shaved ." By Allah none of them got up, and the Prophet jg repeated his order thrice. When none of them got up, he left them and went to Umm Salamah and told her of the people's attitudes towards him. Umm Salamah said, O Prophet of Allah! Do you want your order to be carried out? The people of Quraysh sent a message to the Prophet jg requesting him for the sake of Allah and kith and kin to send for (Abu Baslr and his companions) promising that whoever among them came to the Prophet jg, would be secure. Allah has indeed fulfilled the True Vision which He showed to His Propheti In a dream, the Messenger of Allah saw himself entering Makkah and performing Tawafaround the House. He told his Companions about this dream when he was still in Al- Madlnah. When they went to Makkah in the year of Al- Hdaybiyyah, none of them doubted that the Prophet s vision would come true that year. When the treaty of peace was conducted and they had to return to Al-Madinah that year, being allowed to return to Makkah the next year, some of the Companions disliked what happened. Umar bin Al-Khattab asked about this, saying, Haven t you told us that we will go to the House and perform Tawaf around it? The Prophet sgj said. iYes. Have I told you that you will go to it this year?" Umar said, No. The Prophet jg said, Hj 4j! JjUJiD ' Then you will go to it and perform Tawafaround it." Umar received the same answer from Abu Bakr As-Siddlq, letter for letter.' ' This is why Allah the Exalted and Most honored said, XL o> 4Indeed Allah shall fulfill the true vision which He showed to His Messenger in very truth. Certainly, you shall enter Al- Masjid Al-Hardm, ifAllah wills,} and He willed that this matter shall certainly occur, {^f} {secure,} means, *upon your entering, {(some) having your heads shaved, and (some) having your hair cut short,} Al-Bari 5 :390

The people said, O Allah s Messenger! And those who get their hair cut short. The Prophet jg said, to a part of its green fields and divided the province among those who attended Al-Hdaybiyyah with him. No one else except those Companions took part in attacking Khaybar, except Ja'far bin Abi Talib, who came back with his companions from Ethiopia. Abu Musa Al-Ash ari and his people also attended that battle. None of them were absent except Abu Dujanah Simak bin Kharashah, according to Ibn Zayd. 111 This fact is well recorded in (the Books of) history. The Prophet sg then returned to Al-Madlnah. When the month of Dhul-Qa dah came, the seventh year of Hijrah, the Prophet jg went to Makkah for Umrah accompanied by those who were with him at Al-Hdaybiyyah. He resumed Ihram from Dhul-Hulayfah and took the sacrificial animals with him. It was said that the sacrificial animals were sixty. The Prophet jg and his Companions started reciting the Talbiyah aloud. When they came close to Marr Az-Zahran, he sent Muhammad bin Maslamah before him with the horses and weapons. When the idolators saw this advance regiment, they were overwhelmed with fear. They thought that the Messenger of Allah ag would attack 'hem and that he had betrayed the treaty that he conducted with them, which stipulated cessation of hostilities for ten years. The idolators went quickly to Makkah to inform its people. When the Prophet ag made camp in the area of Marr Az-Zahran, where he was close enough to see the idols that were erected all around the Haram, he sent the weaponry, arrows, arrow cases and spears, to the valley of Ya'jaj. He next went on his way towards Makkah with the swords resting in their sheaths, just as he agreed to in the peace treaty. While the Prophet jg was still on the way to Makkah, the Quraysh sent Mikraz bin Hafs who said, O Muhammad! We never knew you to be one who betrays his promises. The Prophet sg said, Villi Why do you say that?" Mikraz said, You are headed towards us with the weaponry, the arrows and the spears. The Prophet ag said, HT At-Tabari 22 :259.

" fl; Jij Jus s& jj" / did not do that, I sent all that to the valley of Ya'jajj Mikraz said, This is the way we knew you to be, trustworthy and keeping to your promises. The leaders of the disbelievers left Makkah so that they would not have to look at the Messenger of Allah jg and his Companions, out of rage and anger. As for the rest of the people of Makkah, men, women and children, they sat on the pathways and house roofs watching the Messenger of Allah jg and his Companions. The Messenger entered Makkah with his Companions while reciting the Talbiyah. The Prophet jg sent the sacrificial animals to Dhu Tuwa while riding his camel, Al-Qaswa , the same camel he was riding on the day of Hdaybiyyah. Abdullah bin Rawahah, from Al-Ansar, was holding the bridle of the Prophet s camel and repeating this poem, In the Name of He, other than Whose religion there is no true religion, In the Name of He, Whom Muhammad is His Messenger, O children of the disbelievers, stay out of his way, For today, we shall impose on you the fulfillment of its interpretation, Just as we fought with you to accept its revelation, Severe fighting that removes the heads from where they rest, And overwhelms the companion from attending to his companion, Ar-Rahmfin has sent down in His revelation, In pages that are being recited before His Messenger, That the best death is that which occurs in His cause, So, O Lord, I believe in its statements. Allah s best reward is Paradise that contains His bounties and favors, abundant provisions, as well as, earning His good pleasure that is greater than the former reward. Allah said, 4جاءهم من الجنة بغير حساب 4But the greatest bliss is the acceptance by Allah (9:72) The statement of Allah the Exalted next, 4The mark of them is on their faces from the traces of prostration.} refers to graceful appearance, according to Ibn Abbas as reported from him by Ali bin Abi Talhah.¹² Mujahid and several others explained: It means, humbleness and reverence. ,³¹ Some said, The righteous good deed brings light to the heart, brightness to the face, ampleness in provisions, and love in people s hearts. They gave the Messenger aid, support and victory, just as the shoot hardens the plant, 4that He may enrage the disbelievers with them> Relying on this Ayah, Imam Malik stated that the Rawafid are disbelievers because they hate the Companions, may Allah be pleased with them all. Malik said, The Companions enrage them, and according to this Ayah, he who is enraged by the Companions is a disbeliever. Several scholars agreed with Malik s opinion, may Allah be pleased with them. There are numerous Hadiths mentioning the virtues of the Companions and prohibiting the criticism on their mistakes. It is sufficient that Allah the Exalted has praised them and declared that He is pleased with them. Allah the Exalted and Most Honored said, 4Allah has promised those among them who believe and do righteous deeds, forgiveness> for their sins, and a mighty reward . a generous reward and honorable provisions. Certainly, Allah s promise is true and shall come to pass and will never be broken or changed. Surely, all those who follow the guidance of the Companions, may Allah be pleased with them all, will be similar to them. However, the Companions have the better virtue, the obvious lead and the perfection in character, on account of which none among this Ummah will be able to attain their level. May Allah be pleased with them and make them pleased. May He place them in the gardens of Al-Firdaws, and make it their abode, and He indeed has done all of that. In his Sahlh, Anas commented, We used to see Thabit walk among us knowing that he was (to be) among the dwellers of Paradise. During the battle of Yamamah, our forces suffered retreat. Suddenly, Thabit bin Qays bin Shammah came, having put on his Hanuf and shrouds, and said, The worst habit is the one you acquire from your enemy and do not set a bad Al-Bori:454. 'Fragrance used when shrouding the dead for burial

Al-Hujurat (1-3) (Part-26) example for your companions. And he went on fighting until he was martyred, may Allah be pleased with him. 11 Allah then prohibited speaking to the Prophet ﷺ in a loud voice, just as one speaks loudly to another in a way that offends him. Instead, they were required to speak to him in terms of respect, honor and calmness. This is why Allah the Exalted and Most Honored said, "وَلَا تَرْفَعُوا صَوْتَكُمْ عَلَيْهِ" just as He said in another Ayah, "وَلَا تَجْعَلُوا دُعَاءَ الرَّسُولِ بَيْنَكُمْ كَدُعَاءِ النَّاسِ" (24:63) Allah's statement, "لَا تَقْصُرُوا مِّنْ دُعَائِهِمْ" means, We ordered you to refrain from raising your voices to the Prophet ﷺ , so that he will not get angry with you, because in doing so, you will also anger Allah. The good deeds of he who caused the Prophet's anger will become useless without him even knowing. In the Sahih, there is a Hadith that states, "فِي الْوُجُوهِ" "Verily, a man might utter a word that pleases Allah the Exalted, even though he does not recognize the significance of his word, and on its account Paradise is written for him. Verily, a man might utter a word carelessly that angers Allah the Exalted, and on its account, he is cast in the Fire farther than the distance between the heavens and earth." (2)

Allah then ordains lowering one's voice before the Messenger and encourages, directs and recommends this better behavior. "وَلَا تَرْفَعُوا صَوْتَكُمْ عَلَيْهِ" "Verily, those who lower their voices in the presence of Allah's Messenger, they are the ones whose hearts Allah has tested for Taqwa whose hearts have been purified by Allah and made as a residence and dwelling for the Taqwa, "وَلَهُمْ أَجْرٌ كَثِيرٌ" For them is forgiveness and a great reward Imam

Allah revealed this honorable Ayah commanding them to make peace between them. 121 As-Suddi said, A man from Al-Ansar, whose name was Imran, had a wife called Umm Zayd. She wanted to visit her family, but her husband prevented her from visiting them by locking her in an upper room. So, none of her family could visit or see her. She sent someone to her family. They came, took her down from the room and wanted to take her away. Her husband was absent at the time, so his family called on their people. Their cousins came to help prevent the wife from going with her family. A push and shove situation occurred that led to them fighting using slippers. This Ayah was then revealed in their case, and the Messenger of Allah sent someone to bring peace between them, and they both agreed to resort to the decision of Allah the Exalted. 131 The statement of Allah the Exalted, next, ivLbtt Lk& k sM; & \r&^ iThen if it complies, then make reconciliation between them justly, and be equitable. Allah the Exalted said about backbiting; {neither backbite one another), thus prohibiting it, which was explained in a Hadith collected by Abu Dawud that Abu Hurayrah said, It was asked, O Allah's Messenger! What is backbiting? He said, {Mentioning about your brother in a manner that he dislikes .} He was asked, What if my brother was as I mentioned? He said, {If he was as you mentioned, you will have committed backbiting. But if he was not as you say about him, you will have falsely accused him. At-Tirmidhi collected this Hadith and said Hasan Sahih."^ Backbiting was sternly warned against, and this is why Allah the Exalted and Most Blessed compared it to eating the flesh of a dead human being, {Would one of you like to eat the flesh of his dead brother? There is a difference of opinion if whether feeling remorse is required in this case, and also if one should apologize to those who he has backbitten. Some scholars stated that it is not necessary for one to ask those whom he has backbitten to forgive him, because if they knew what was said about them, they could be hurt more than if they were not told about it. It is better, they said, that one should preuse those whom he has backbitten in audiences in which he has committed the act. It is also better if one defends the injured party against any further backbiting, as much as one can, as recompense for his earlier backbiting. 9 " - / ' AX>\ 3:351

All of Mankind are the Children of Adam and Hawwa Allah the Exalted declares to mankind that He has created them all from a single person, Adam, and from that person He created his mate, Hawwa . From their offspring He made nations, comprised of tribe, which include subtribes of all sizes. It was also said that nations refers to non-Arabs, while tribes refers to Arabs. Various statements about this were collected in an individual introduction from the book, Al-Inbah, by Abu Amr Ibn Abdul-Barr, and from the book, Al-Qasad wal-Amam fi Ma'rifah Ansab Al-Arab wal-'Ajam. Therefore, all people are the descendants of Adam and Hawwa and share this honor equally. The only difference between them is in the religion that revolves around their obedience to Allah the Exalted and their following of His Messenger sg. After He forbade backbiting and belittling other people, alerting mankind that they are all equal in their humanity. Allah said, 40 mankind! We have created you from a male and a female, and made you into nations and tribes that you may know one another. so that they get to know each other by their nation or tribe. Muj&hid said that Allah s statement. i that you may know one another refers to one's saying, So-and- so the son of so-and-so, from the tribe of so-and-so. 111 Sufyan Ath-Thawri said, The Himyar (who resided in Yemen) dealt

The Beginning of the Mufasssal Section of the Qur'an This Surah is the first Surah in the Mufasssal section of the Qur'an, according to the correct view. It is said that the Mufasssal starts with Surat Al-Hujurat. Some common people say that the Mufasssal starts with Surah Amma An-Naba, (chapter 78), however, this is not true because none of the respected scholars ever supported this opinion. Aws (bin Hudhayfah) said; I asked the Companions of Allah's Messenger (j&) how they divided the Qur'an. They said; Three, five, seven, nine, eleven, thirteen, and the Mufasssal section as one. This was recorded by Ibn Majah and Imam Ahmad. 121 If one counts forty-eight Surahs, the next Surah will be Surah Qaf. The details are as follows: The [first] three Surahs are Al-Baqarah (chapter 2), Al-Imran (3), then An-Nis& (4). The five are Al-Maidah (5), Al-An'am (6), Al-Araf (7), Al-Anfal (8) and Bara'ah (or At-Tawbah) (9). The seven next Surahs are Surah Yunus (10), Hud (11), Yusuf (12), Ar-Ra'd (13), Ibrahim (14), Al-Hijr (15) and An-Nahl (16). The nine next Surahs are, Subhan (or Al-Isra (17)), Al-Kahf (18), Maryam (19), Ta Ha (20), Al-Anbiya (21), Al-Hajj (22), Al-Mu'minun (23), An-Nur (24) and Al-Furqan (25). The next eleven Surahs are Surat Ash-Shu'ara (26), An-Naml (27), Al-Qasds (28), Al-'Ankabut (29), Ar-Rum (30), Luqm&n (31), Alif Lam Mim As-Sajdah (32), Al-Ahzab (33), Saba (34), Fatir (35) and Yd Sin (36). The next thirteen are Surat As-Sajfat (37), Sad (38), Az-Zumar (39), Ghafir (40), I 1 Mufasssal refers here to the short Surahs. This starts from Surah Qaf to the end of the Qur'an Abu Dawud 2:114, Ibn Majah 1:427 and Ahmad 4:9. This is part of a weak Hadith which was removed

226 Tafsir [bn Kathir Ha Mim As-Sajdah (or Fussilat) (41), Ash-Shura (42), Az-Zukhruf (43), Ad-Dukhan (44), Al-Jathiyah (45), Al-Ahqaf (46), Al-Qital (or Muhammad) (47), Al-Fath (48) and Al-Hujurat (49). After that comes the Mufasssal section, according to the Companions, may Allah be pleased with them all. Therefore, Surah Qaf (chapter 50) is the first of the Mufasssal, just as we stated, and all praise is due to Allah and all favors are from Him. The Virtues of Surah Qaf Imam

228 Tafstr Ibn Kathlr \$And We are nearer to him than his jugular vein.} means, His angels are nearer to man than his jugular vein. Those who explained We in the Ayah to mean Our knowledge, have done so to avoid falling into the idea of incarnation or indwelling; but these two creeds are false according to the consensus of Muslims. Allah is praised and glorified, He is far hallowed beyond what they ascribe to Him. The words of this Ayah do not need this explanation (that We refers to Allah's knowledge), for Allah did not say, and I am closer to him than his jugular vein. Rather, He said, 4 Sr- U? ill i And We are nearer to him than his jugular vein.} just as He said in the case of dying persons, $\text{iBut We are nearer to him than you, but you see not.}$ (56:85), in reference to His angels (who take the souls). Allah the Exalted the Blessed said. $\text{4U /j ']'>' $ Gy yi [} \text{i}$ Verily, We, it is We Who have sent down the Dhikr and surely, We will guard it.} (15:9) Therefore, the angels brought down the revelation, the Qur'an, by the leave of Allah, the Exalted, the Most Honored. Thus, the angels are closer to man than his own jugular vein, by the power and leave of Allah. ' Consequently, the angel touches mankind, just as the devil touches them, for the devil is as close to them as the blood that runs in their veins; just as Allah's Prophet who is truthful and was told the truth, told us. Allah's statement here, $\text{4yG j~X\& i}$ (Remember) that the two receivers receive,} in reference to the two angels who receive and record the deeds of mankind. m Path Al-Bari 1 1 :557

Oaf (16-22) (Part-26) $\text{ione sitting on the right and one on the left.}$ means ready to note, $\text{4whatever he utters in reference to the human, iofa word}$, means any word that he or she speaks, $\text{ibut there is a watcher by him ready.}$ means, but there is a scribe whose job is to record it, leaving no word or movement unrecorded. Allah the Exalted said, $\text{iBut verily, over you (are appointed angels) to watch you, Kiraman (Iwnorable) Katibin writing dcnvn (your deeds), they knoiv all that you do.}$ (82:10-12) Therefore, the scribe records every word that is spoken, according to the explanation of Al-Hasan and Qatadah. This is also the apparent meaning of this Ayah. Imam

230 Tafsxr Ibn Kathir Alqamah used to say, How many words did I not utter because of the Hadith that Bilal bin Al-Harith narrated. * At- Tirmidhi, An-Nasal and Ibn Majah collected this Hadith. The fox went out howling and continued until his neck was cutoff, (i.e.,) he died. This parable indicates that just as the fox had no way of escaping or avoiding the earth, likewise, man has no way of avoiding death. Allah the Exalted the Blessed said, iAnd the Trumpet will be blown - that will be the Day of the threat.} Earlier we discussed the information about the blowing of the Trumpet, the fear that follows it, the death of everything and then resurrection, all this will occur on the Day of Resurrection. 21 We also mentioned that the Messenger of Allah jfe said in a Hadith, jijj jl ujjill Jii j f&\ -W9J Hoiv can I feel comfort while the angel responsible for the Trumpet has placed the Trumpet to his mouth and lowered his forehead awaiting what he will be commanded (by Allah to blow in it)? Ali said, it refers to The angels. Some scholars said that Al-Jariyat Yusra refers to the stars that float in their orbits with ease. 254 Tafsir Ibn Kathir things mentioned were ascendant in their order, beginning with the lower, then mentioning the higher one after that, etc. The winds bring the clouds, the stars are above them and the angels who distribute by Allah s order are above that, and they descend with Allah s legislative orders and the decrees He determines. These Ayat contain a vow from Allah that Resurrection shall come to pass. Allah s statement, 4 Verily, that which you are promised is surely true.?, it is a truthful promise, 4And verily, Ad-Din} the Recompense, 4will occur}, it will surely come to pass. days past!)>{69:24) Allah the Exalted described the good acts that they performed, iThey used to sleep but little at night. ^ The scholars of Tafsir have two opinions about this: The First Opinion The first is that, they used to spend a little part of every night awake. Ibn 'Abbas said, Every night, they would worship Allah, even during a little part of the night. 111 Qatadah narrated that Mutarrif bin Abdullah said, Hardly a night would pass by them that they did not pray to Allah the Exalted and Most Honored, either in the beginning, or the middle of it. ' Mujahid said, Only a few nights, if any, would they sleep through the night until the morning without praying Tahajjud.. [31 Qatadah said similarly 41 Anas bin Malik and Abu Al- Aliyah said, They used to pray between Al- Maghrib and Al-'Isha. . ^ The Second Opinion They used to spend a little part of the night in sleep. This was preferred by Ibn Jarir. Al-Hasan Al-Basri said:Tabari 22:407. At-Tabari 22:407. At-Tabari 22:408. At-Tabari 22:408, At-Tabari 22:407-408.

iThey used to sleep but little by night}, They performed voluntary night prayer and would not sleep during the night except a little. They were active and would continue until they were seeking forgiveness right before dawn. Abdullah bin Salam said, When the Messenger of Allah arrived at Al-Madinah, people quickly gathered around him and I was among them. When I saw his face, I knew that it was not the face of a liar. The first statement I heard from him was, IjJL oJl 1 i ^Ulj "O people! Feed with food, keep relations to kith and kin, spread the Salam, pray at night while people are asleep, and you will enter Paradise in peace ." ' Imam Mujahid and several others said: They were performing Sa/dh. ' Others said that they would stand in prayer during the night and delayed asking Allah for forgiveness until the latter hours before dawn. As Allah, the Exalted the Blessed, said; iAnd those who seek forgiveness during the last hours of the night.>{3:17); This is because it is better if asking for forgiveness is done while praying. It is confirmed in the Sahih collections as well as others, from several Companions, that the Messenger of Allah jg said, : Jyf? He says, "Is there anyone who is repenting so that 1 may accept his repentance? Is there anyone seeking forgiveness, so that I may forgive him? Is there anyone asking of Me, so that I may grant him his request?" until Fajr begins ."121 Many of the scholars of Tafstr said that when the Prophet Ya'qub said to his sons: ixfp^ il will ask my Lord for forgiveness for i/o"^(12:98), he delayed doing so until the hours before dawn. Allah the Exalted and Most Honored said, M &&Tabari 22:413. 121 Path Al-Bari 3:35, 11:133 and 13:473, Muslim 1:521 and 523, Abu Dawud 2:77 and 5:101, Tuhfat Al-Ahwadhi 9:471, An-Nasal in Al-Kubra, 4 :24 and Ibn Majah 1 :435.

iAnd on the earth are signs for those who have faith with certainty.) Allah says that there are signs on earth that testify to the might of the Creator and His boundless ability. These signs include what Allah placed on the earth, the various plants, animals, valleys, mountains, deserts, rivers and oceans. He also created mankind with different languages, colors, intentions and abilities, and a variety among them, differences in the power of understanding and comprehension, their deeds, and ultimately earning happiness or misery. Allah put every organ in their bodies in its rightful place where they most need it to be. So He said; iAtid also in yourselves. Will you not then see?) Qatadah commented, He who thinks about his own creation will realize that he was created with flexible joints so that it is easy for him to perform acts of worship. 111 Allah the Exalted said next, iAnd in the heaven is your provision,) meaning, rain, Cj) iand that which you are promised.) meaning Paradise. It is visited every day by seventy thousand angels who will not come back to visit it again. n 1 The angels worship Allah in Al-Bayt Al-Ma'mur and perform Tawafaround it just as the people of the earth perform Tawaf around the Ka'bah. Al-Bayt Al-Ma'mur is the Ka'bah of those who reside in the seventh heaven. During the Isra' journey, the Prophet saw Ibrahim Al-Khalll, who was reclining with his back on Al-Bayt Al-Ma'mur. It was Ibrahim who built the Ka'bah on earth, and surely, the reward is compatible with the action. Al-Bayt Al-Ma'mur is parallel to the Ka'bah; every heaven has its own house of worship, which is also the direction of prayer for its residents. The house that is located in the lower heaven, is called Bayt Al-Izzah. And Allah knows best. Similar was said by Mujahid, Qatadah, As-Suddi, Ibn Jurayj, Ibn Zayd and preferred by Ibn Jarir.¹¹ The statement of Allah the Exalted, 4And by the sea that is Masjur.} The majority say it refers to the oceans of the earth. Masjur, means, the sea will be kindled with fire on the Day of Resurrection just as Allah said in another Ayah, 4And when the seas become as blazing fire.}(81:6) i.e., it will be kindled with fire and become a raging fire that surrounds the people in the gathering area, this was reported by Said bin Al-Musayyib from Ali bin Abi Talib. 2 It was also reported from Ibn Abbas, and it is the view of Said bin Jubayr, Mujahid, Abdullah bin TJBayd bin TJmayr and others. Qatadah said, Masjur is the filled sea. Ibn Jarir preferred this explanation saying, The sea is not lit with fire now, so it is filled. Allah's statement; iVerily, the torment of your Lord will surely come to pass.} contains the subject of the vow, indicating that His torment will surely strike the disbelievers, as Allah stated in another Ayah if. %^ iThere is none that can avert it.} indicating that when Allah decides to send the torment upon them, none can prevent it or stop it from striking them. Mujahid said: Spin violently. Ad-Dahhak commented on the Ayah, saying, The earth will violently spin and move by the command of Allah, and its areas will violently move towards each other. 121 This was preferred by Ibn Jarir, because of the meaning of the word, Mawra, which denotes meanings of spinning and shaking. Allah scud, iAnd Tasir the mountains will Sayr.} will fade away and become scattered particles of dust blown away by the wind, iThen woe that Day to those who denied}, woe to them that Day as a result of Allah's torment, punishment and affliction that He will direct at them, At-Tabari 22:462. Added to this blessing is the fact that they were entered into Paradise, which has delights that no eye has ever seen, no ear has ever heard, nor has a heart ever imagined. The statement of Allah the Exalted, 4"Eat and drink with happiness because of what you used to do"} is similar to another of His statements, iEat and drink at ease for that which you have sent on before you in days past!}(69:24) meaning this is the just reward for your deeds; surely, all this is a favor from Allah and a reward from Him. When the offspring of the righteous believers imitate (1 * See the Tafsir of Surat Ar-Rahman (55:56 and 72) and As-Saffat (37 :48-49) , and Ad-Dukhan (44 :54)

their parents regarding faith, Allah will elevate the latter to the ranks of the former, even though the latter did not perform deeds as goodly as their parents. Allah will comfort the eyes of the parents by seeing their offspring elevated to their grades. Surely, Allah will gather them together in the best manner, and He will not decrease the reward or the grades of those higher in rank for joining them together, hence His statement, وإنا جعلناهم قبلكم ولهم أجرهم (We join their offspring, and We shall not decrease the reward of their deeds in anything.) Ath-Thawri reported that Ibn Abbas said, Verily, Allah elevates the ranks of the believers offspring to rank of their parents, even though the latter have not performed as well as the former, so that the eyes of the parents are comforted. Ibn Abbas then recited this Ayah, وإن الذين آمنوا واتبعتهم ذريتهم بإيمان - لنجعلنهم سعة وزرعهم مغرة (And those who believe and whose offspring follow them in faith, - to them shall We join their offspring, and We shall not decrease the reward of their deeds in anything.) [1] Ibn Jarir and Ibn Abi Hatim recorded this statement from Sufyan Ath-Thawri from Ibn Abbas . 121 Ibn Abi Hatim also recorded that Ibn Abbas commented on Allah's statement, وإن الذين آمنوا واتبعتهم ذريتهم بإيمان - لنجعلنهم سعة وزرعهم مغرة (4Pj P And those who believe and whose offspring follow them in faith, - to them shall We join their offspring.) saying, They are the offspring of the believers who died on the faith. If the ranks of their parents are higher than their ranks, they will be joined with their parents. No part of the reward their parents received for their good deeds will be reduced for them. Abdullah, son of Imam

The Prophet ﷺ then recited the Ayah, وإن الذين آمنوا واتبعتهم ذريتهم بإيمان - لنجعلنهم سعة وزرعهم مغرة Certainly, it is Allah's grace and favor that He grants the children this blessing because of the good deeds of their parents. He also grants His favor to parents on account of their offspring invoking Allah for them. Imam

However, there is a witnessing narration for it in Sahih Muslim, from the Hadith of Abu Hurayrah, who said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said. لأن ابن آدم إذا مات جازى على ما عمل، إلا ما كان له من صدقة أو علم أو ولد صالح يدعو له (When a man dies, his record of deeds will cease except in three cases : an ongoing charity, knowledge that people are benefiting from and a righteous son who invokes Allah for him.) [21] Allah is Just with the Sinners Allah the Exalted said, وإن كل نفس لبرئ مما كسبت (Every person is a pledge for that which he has earned.) After Allah mentioned His favor of elevating the offspring to the ranks of their parents, even though the deeds of the former did not qualify them, He affirmed His fairness in that, He does not punish anyone for the mistakes of others, وإن كل نفس لبرئ مما كسبت (Every person is a pledge for that which he has earned.) Therefore, every person will be responsible for his actions. No sin committed by others shall ever be added to one's load, even if committed by his or her parents or offspring. Allah the Exalted said, وإن كل نفس لبرئ مما كسبت (Every person is a pledge for what he has earned, except those on the Right. (Chapter - 53) Which was revealed in Makkah The First Surah in which a Prostration is revealed

By the star when it goes down .} Ibn Abi Najm reported that Mujahid said, The star refers to Pleiades when it sets at Fajr. 111 Ad-Dahhak said When the Shayatin are shot with it. And this Ayah is like Allah's saying; "A swear by the setting of the stars. And verily, that is indeed a great oath, if you but know. That is indeed an honorable recitation. In a Book well-guarded. Which none can touch but the pure. A revelation from the Lord of all that exists (53:75-80) Allah said; iYour companion has neither gone astray nor has erred,} This contains the subject of the oath. This part of the Ayah is the witness that the Messenger of Allah is sane and a follower of Truth. He is neither led astray, such as in the case of the ignorant who does not proceed on any path with knowledge, nor is he one who erred, such as in the case of the knowledgeable, who knows the Truth, yet deviates from it intentionally to something else. Therefore, Allah exonerated His Messenger and his Message from being similar to the misguided ways of the Christians and the erroneous paths of the Jews, such as knowing the Truth and hiding it, while abiding by falsehood. Rather, he, may Allah's peace and blessings be on him, and his glorious Message that Allah has sent him with, are on the perfect straight path, following guidance and what is correct. Muhammad was sent as a Mercy for all that exists; He does not speak of His Desire Allah said, Tabari 22:495.

At that time, the distance between them became only two bow lengths, when the bows are extended to full length, according to Mujahid and Qatadah.¹²¹ It was said that the meaning here is the distance between the bow s string and its wood center. Allah s statement, ⁴$ 4or less^ indicates that the distance was as only as far described, not more. This type of usage is found in several instances in the Qur an, such as, ⁴j~ i'ji* & li dlSi ⁴Then, after that, your hearts were hardened and became as stones or even worse in hardness.>(2:74) The Ayah says that their hearts became not softer than rocks, but as hard and difficult as rocks, and more. means, Jibril conveyed to Allah s servant Muhammad jg whatever he conveyed. Or, the meaning here could be: Allah revealed to His servant Muhammad jg whatever He revealed through Jibril. An-Naim (5-18) (Part-27) several others said similarly that the Prophet gg saw Allah twice in his heart. Masruq said, I went to A ishah and asked her, Did Muhammad sg see his Lord? An-Naim (19-26) (Part-27) Refuting Idolatry, Al-Lat and Al-'Uzza Allah the Exalted rebukes the idolators for worshipping idols and taking rivals to Him. They built houses for their idols to resemble the Ka'bah built by Prophet Ibrahim, Allah s Khalil. iHave you then considered Al-Lat,> Al-Lat was a white stone with inscriptions on. There was a house built around Al-Lat in At-Ta if with curtains, servants and a sacred courtyard around it. The people of At-Ta if, the tribe of Thaqif and their allies, worshipped Al-Lat. They would boast to Arabs, except the Quraysh, that they had Al-Lat. Ibn Jarir said, They derived Al-Lat s name from Allah s Name, and made it feminine. Allah is far removed from what they ascribe to Him. It was reported that Al-Lat is pronounced Al-Lat because, according to Abdullah bin Abbas, Mujahid, and Ar- Rabf bin Anas, Al-Lat was a man who used to mix Sawlq (a kind of barley mash) with water for the pilgrims during the time of Jahiliyyah. When he died, they remained next to his grave and worshipped him.

320 TafsTr Ibn Kathir Manat was another idol in the area of Mushallal near Qudayd, between Makkah and Al-Madlnah. The tribes of Khuza'ah, Aws and Khazraj used to revere Manat during the time of Jahiliyyah. They used to announce Hajj to the Ka'bah from next to Manat.

An-Naim (19-26) (Part-27) Abu Sufyan Sakhr bin Harb to destroy Al-Lat. They carried out the Prophet s command and built a Masjid in its place in the city of At-Ta if. Muhammad bin Ishaq said that Manat used to be the idol of the Aws and Khazraj tribes and those who followed their religion in Yathrib (Al-Madlnah). Manat was near the coast, close to the area of Mushallal in Qudayd. The Prophet jg sent Abu Sufyan Sakhr bin Harb or Ali bin Abi Talib to demolish it. Ibn Ishaq said that Dhul-Khalasah was the idol of the tribes of Daws, Khath'am and Bajillah, and the Arabs who resided in the area of TabalahJ' I say that Dhul-Khalasah was called the Southern Ka*bah, and the Ka'bah in Makkah was called the Northern Ka'bah. The Messenger of Allah jg sent Jarir bin Abdullah Al-Bajall to Dhul-Khalasah and he destroyed it. Ibn Ishaq said that Fals was the idol of Tay and the neighboring tribes in the Mount of Tay , such as Salma and Ajja. Ibn Hisham said that some scholars of knowledge told him that the Messenger of Allah sg sent Ali bin Abi Talib to Fals and he destroyed it and found two swords in its treasure, which the Prophet jg then gave to Ali as war spoils. Muhammad bin Ishaq also said that the tribes of Himyar, and Yemen in general, had a house of worship in San'a called Riyam. He mentioned that there was a black dog in it and that the religious men who went with Tubba' removed it, killed it and demolished the building. Ibn Ishaq said that Ruda was a structure of Bani RabT'ah bin Ka*b bin Sa'd bin Zayd Manat bin Tamim, which Al-Mustawghir bin Rabi'ah bin Ka*b bin Sa'd demolished after Islam. In Sindad there was Dhul-KaTsats, the idol of the tribes of Bakr and Taghlib, the sons of the Wa il, and also the Iyad tribes. Qatadah said about: ifulfilled^, He obeyed Allah and delivered His Message to His creatures. This is the view preferred by Ibn Jarir because it includes the statement before it and supports it. Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas said that Rayhan means green leaves. The meanings here, and Allah knows best, are the various crops that produce straw, such as wheat and barley, and Rayhan are the leaves that grow on the stems. These two gardens are lower, in virtue and in status than the two before them, as supported in the Qur an. Allah said: rJ-> 4And below these tivo, there are two other Gardens.} We previously mentioned the Hadith stating that there are two gardens made of gold, their vessels and all they contain, and there are two gardens made of silver, their vessels and all they contain. The first two are for the near believers (Muqarribm) and the latter two are for those on the right (Ashab Al- yaminJ ' Abu Musa commented, There are two gardens made of gold for the Muqarribln and two gardens made of silver for Ashab Al-Yamm." There are several proofs that the former two gardens in Paradise are better in grade than the latter. Allah mentioned the former two gardens before the latter two, thus indicating their significance, then He said, 4ly,d&r rj> 4And below these tivo, there are two other Gardens.} And this is an obvious form of honoring the first two gardens over the latter two. Allah described the former gardens: iWith Afnan}, which are the extending branches, as we explained, or various types of delights. But He said about the latter two gardens, iMudhammatan}, being dark, because of the intense irrigation. Ibn Abbas said, Mudhdmmtan means, they have become dark green because of extensive water irrigation. 121 Muhammad bin Ka*b said: iMndhamtnatdn} Full of greenery. There is no doubt that the former two gardens are better, their branches are fresh, FathAl-Bari 8 :491 . 121 Ad-DurrAl-Manthur 7 :715 .

iKadhilah} Muhammad bin Ka*b said: It will certainly occur, while Qatadah said, It shall not be discontinued, taken back or aborted. Allah s statement, 4 - Bringing low, exalting indicates that Al-Waqi'ah lowers some people to the lowest parts of the Fire, even if they had been mighty in this life. It also elevates others to the highest grades in the residence of eternal delight, even if they were weak in this life. This was said by Al-Hasan, Qatadah and others.121 Al- Awfi reported from Ibn Abbas: 4Bringing low, exalting}, It made the near and the far hear it, while Iknmah said, It lowered, and thus those who were close heard it, and elevated, and thus those in the distance heard it. Ad-Dahhak and Qatadah said similarly. Allah said, iWhen the earth will be shaken with a terrible shake.} meaning, it is shaken and moved violently over all of its surface and through its depths. Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Qatadah and others said about Allah s saying; iWhai the earth will be shaken with a terrible shake.} it means Violently shaken. 131 Ar-Rabi bin Anas said, The earth will be shaken with all that is in it, just as a

Throne, and they are those who were brought forth from Adam's right side.' ' This category will be given their Books of Records in their right hand and will be taken to the right side. As-Suddi explained that they will comprise the majority of the residents of Paradise. Another category is those who will be placed to the left of Allah's Throne, and they are those who were brought forth from Adam's left side. This category will be given their Books of Records in their left hands and will be taken to the left side. They are the residents of the Fire, may Allah save us from their actions. A third category is comprised of those who are the foremost and nearest before Allah. They are in a better grade and status and nearer to Allah than those on the right side. They are the chiefs of those on the right side, because they include the Messengers, Prophets, true believers and martyrs. They are fewer than those on the right side; so Allah said, 11 u 4So those on the right - how will be those on the right! And those on the left - how will be those on the left! And those foremost will be foremost. Allah divides people into these three groups upon their death, as indicated by the end of this Surah. But only the saying of: "Salaman! Salaman!"} The Reward ofthe Foremost in Faith Allah states that the foremost of the close believers are a multitude, a crowd among the earlier generations and a few from the latter generations. There is a difference over the meaning of the first generations and the later generations. Some said that the former means earlier (believing) nations, while the later refers to this Ummah. This was reported from Mujahid and Al-Hasan Al-Basri, in the collection of Ibn Abi Hatim, and this is the preference of Ibn Jarir.¹¹¹ He considered it supported by the saying of Allah s Messenger sg: m At-Tabari 23 :98

416 Tafstr Ibn Kathir "We are the later nation, but the foremost on the Day of Resurrection ."[1 Ibn Jarir did not mention any other interpretation nor did he attribute this view to anyone else. There is another Hadith that could support this meaning. Imam Abu Muhammad bin Abi IJatim recorded that Abu Hurayrah said that when these Ayat were revealed, iA multitude of those (foremost) will be from the first ones. And a feio of those will befrom the later ones .^, this news became hard for the Companions of the Prophet These this Ayat, Si yij iA multitude of those will be from the first ones. Al-Wdqi ah (13-26) (Part-27) refers to the earlier generations of this Ummah, while, i 3ij> iAnd afew of those will befrom the later ones.}, refers to the latter people of this Ummah. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that As-Sari bin Yahya said that Al- Hasan recited this Ayah, iAnd those foremost will beforemost. These will be the nearest (to Allah). In the Gardens of Delight. A multitude of those will befrom the first ones.}, Then he commented, A multitude from the earlier generation of this Ummah. Ibn Abi Hatim also recorded that Muhammad bin Sirin commented: iA multitude of those will befrom the first ones. And afew of those will befrom the later ones.}, They stated, or hoped that they will all be from this

Ummah. Therefore, these are the statements of Al-Hasan and Ibn Sirin that those foremost in faith are all from this Ummah. There is no doubt that the earlier generations of each nation were better than the latter generations. In this pretext, this Ayah might include all previous believing nations. In this regard, it is confirmed in the authentic Hadith compilations, from more than one route, that the Messenger of Allah said; 6*^* p 'JiA A*- eThe best people are my generation, then the next generation, then the next generation n ' He also said: 4pLUI "A group of my Ummah will always remain on the truth and m Al-Bukhari no. 3651

Rather, this wine does not affect their minds, even though it has a strong and tremendously delightful taste. So Allah mentioned the wine of Paradise free of these characteristics. 111 Mujahid, Ikrimah, Said bin Jubayr, Atiyah Al- Awfi, Qatadah and As- Suddi said that Allah s statement, iy^ ^} iWherefrom neither Yusadda'un} means, It does not give them a headache. 121 While they said that iM %~} inor will they Yunzifun.} means that It does not change then- sense of reasoning. 131 Allah s statement, iAnd with fruit that they may choose. Allah encourages spending from what He has made mankind trustees of, the wealth that you - mankind - have, that He has lent you. This wealth was in the hands of those before you and was later transferred to you. Therefore, O mankind, spend as Allah commanded you from the wealth that He entrusted to you for His obedience. Otherwise, He will hold you accountable and punish you for your ignoring what He ordained on you in this regard. Allah's statement, of that whereof He has made you trustees, indicates that you - mankind - will surrender this wealth to someone else. In this case, those who will inherit from you might obey Allah with their wealth, and thus acquire more happiness than you on account of what Allah has granted them. They might disobey Allah, and in this case you will have helped them commit evil and transgression. Imam

After Allah commanded mankind to first believe and spend, He again encouraged them to acquire faith and stated that He has removed all barriers between them and the acquisition of faith. Allah again encouraged them to spend, And what is the matter with you that you spend it not in the cause of Allah? And to Allah belongs the heritage of the heavens and the earthy means, spend and do not fear poverty or scarcity. Surely, He in Whose cause you spend is the King and Owner of the heavens and earth and has perfect control over their every affair, including their treasures. They know that Allah will surely compensate them for whatever they spend.

The Virtues of spending and fighting before the Conquest of Makkah Allah's statement, if it is not equal among you are those who spent before the conquest and fought. meaning those who did not fight and spend before the Conquest are not equal to those who spent and fought. Before Makkah was conquered, things were difficult for Muslims and only the righteous ones embraced Islam. After Makkah was conquered, Islam spread tremendously throughout the known world and people embraced the religion of Allah en masse. Similarly He said: > f * )s s s i f/ f " yf i s 1+ s Ssss iSuch are higher in degree than those who spent and fought afterwards. But to all Allah has promised the best (reward) The majority considers the Conquest here to be the conquest of Makkah. Ash-Sha bi and several others said that the Ayah refers to the treaty at Al-Hudaybiyyah. There is proof for this opinion found in a Hadith from Anas, collected by Imam Ahmad. Anas said, Khalid bin Al-Walid and Abdur-Rahman bin A'waf had a dispute. Khalid said to Abdur-Rahman, You boast about days (battles) that you participated in before us. When the news of this statement reached the Prophet he said, [i] At-Tabari 23 : 175

474 Tafsir Ibn Kathir L' a L-i Do "of both my Companions, for by He in Whose Hand is my soul! If you spend an amount of gold equal to (Mount) Uhud, (or equal to the mountains), you will not reach the level of their actions. n 1 ' 1 It is a known fact that Khalid bin Al-Walid, whom the Prophet addressed this statement to, embraced Islam during the period between the treaty of Al-Hudaybiyyah and the conquering of Makkah. The dispute between Khalid and Abdur-Rahman occurred because of the battle of Bani Jadhimah. The Prophet $g sent Khalid bin Al-Walid to them after the conquest of Makkah, and they said, Saba na, [2] instead of saying, Aslamna (we embraced Islam). So Khalid ordered their execution and the execution of their prisoners (of war); Abdur- Rahman bin A'waf and Abdullah bin Umar opposed him. This is the reason behind the dispute that occurred between Khalid and Abdur-Rahman. But in the Sahih, the Messenger of Allah $g said, aJL LI , ? , j' ji lj~Lj 'i'j None should revile my Companions, for by He in Whose Hand is my soul! If one of you were to spend as much gold as Wind, it would not reach the level of them equal to an amount as much as one Mudd of one of them or half of it." [4] Allah said, "All that Allah has promised the best (reward)."} meaning, those who spent before and after the conquest of Makkah; they all will gain a reward for their good deeds, even 3:266. 121 Meaning, "we are Sabians. That was because they did not know the name of the religion of Allah's Messenger (ﷺ). A dry measurement of three handfuls Muslim 4:25.

Al-Hadid (7-11) (Part-27) though some of them vary in rank and earn a better reward than others as Allah said, "Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home), except those who are disabled, and those who strive hard and fight in the cause of Allah with their wealth and their lives. Allah has preferred in grades those who strive hard and fight with their wealth and their lives above those who sit (at home). To each, Allah has promised good, but Allah has preferred by a great reward those who strive hard and fight, above those who sit (at home)."(4:95) There is a Hadith in the Sahih that states, "The strong believer is better and more beloved to Allah than the weak believer; both have goodness in them." The Prophet ﷺ ended his statement this way to draw attention to the second type of believer, so that their own qualities are not forgotten in the midst of preferring the former type. In this way, the latter is not dismissed as being degraded in the Hadith. Therefore, the Prophet ended his statement by praising the second type - the weak believers - after giving preference to the first type. Allah said: "And Allah is All-Aware of what you do." meaning, since Allah is perfectly aware of all things. He made distinctions between the rewards of the believers who spent and fought before the Conquest and those who spent and fought afterwards. Surely, Allah does this by His knowledge of the intention of the former type and their perfect sincerity to Him, all the while spending in times of hardship, poverty and dire straits. This is found in the Hadith, Muslim 4:2052

"Spending one Dirham is preceded over a hundred thousand." There is no doubt that the people of faith consider Abu Bakr As-Siddiq to be the person who has the best share according to the meaning of this Ayah. He was the chief of those who implemented it, among all followers of all Prophets. He spent all of his wealth seeking the Face of Allah, the Exalted and Most Honored. He did it voluntarily too, not to repay a debt or a favor that anyone from mankind had on him. May Allah be pleased with him. The Encouragement to make a Handsome Loan in the Cause of Allah Allah said, "Who is he that will lend Allah a handsome loan :$> Umar bin Al-Khattab said that this Ayah refers to spending in Allah's cause. It was also said that it pertains to spending on children. What is correct is that it is more general than that. So all those who spend in the cause of Allah with good intentions and a sincere heart, then they fall under the generality of this Ayah. This is why Allah the Exalted said in another Ayah: "Who is he that will lend Allah handsome loan : then (Allah) will increase it manifold to his credit (in repaying), and in another Ayah, "times$ (2:245), meaning, being handsome reward and tremendous provisions: Paradise on the Day of Resurrection. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Abdullah bin Mas'ud said, "When this Ayah, "An-Nasab 5:59.

"Who is he that will lend Allah handsome loan : then (Allah) will increase it manifold to his credit (in repaying) ," was revealed, Abu Ad-Dahdah Al-Ansari said, "O Allah's Messenger! On the Day when the hypocrites men and women will say to the believers : "Wait for us! Let us get something from your light!" Allah informs us in this Ayah of the terrible horrors, horrendous incidents and tremendous events that will take place on the Day of Resurrection in the Gathering Area. No one will be saved on that Day, except those who believed in Allah and His Messenger, obeyed Allah's commands and avoided His prohibitions. Al- Awfi, Ad-Dahhak and others reported from Ibn Abbas: When the people are gathering in darkness, Allah will send light, and when the believers see the light they will march towards it. This light will be their guide from Allah to Paradise. When the hypocrites see the believers following the light, they will follow them. However, Allah will extinguish the light for the hypocrites and they will say (to the believers), 'A'fj o? Si iWaitfor us! Let us get somethingfrom your light .)" The meaning here is that the believers will answer the hypocrites by saying, You were with us in bodies which were heartless and devoid of intentions. You were cast in doubt and suspicion. You were showing off for people and remembered Allah, little. Mujahid commented, The hypocrites were with the believers in this life, marrying from among each other, yet betraying them even when they were associating with them. They were dead. They will both be given a light on the Day of Resurrection, but the light of the hypocrites will be extinguished when they reach the wall; this is when the two camps separate and part! years separated our acceptance of Islam and the revelation of this Ayah, in which Allah subtly admonished us, Has not the time yet come for the believers that their hearts should be humble for the remembrance of Allah?} This is the narration Muslim collected, just before the end of his book.' An-Nasal also collected this Hadith in the Tafsir of this Ayah. Allah's statement, they become as those who received the Scripture before, and the term was prolonged for them and so their hearts were hardened?} Allah is prohibiting the believers from imitating those who were given the Scriptures before them, the Jews and Christians. As time passed, they changed the Book of Allah that they had, and sold it for a small, miserable price. They also abandoned Allah's Book behind their back and were impressed and consumed by various opinions and false creeds. They imitated the way others behaved with the religion of Allah, making their rabbis and priests into gods beside Allah. Consequently, their hearts became hard and they would not accept advice; their hearts did not feel humbled by Allah's promises or threats, And many of them were rebellious.} meaning, in action; therefore, their hearts are corrupt and their actions are invalid, just as Allah the Exalted said, So, because of their breach of their covenant, We cursed them and made their hearts grow hard. They changed the words from their (right) places and have abandoned a good part of the Muslim 4:2319. An-Nasal in Al-Kubr 6:48 1

Message that was sent to them. (5: 13) meaning, their hearts became corrupt and they hardened, and they acquired the behavior of changing Allah's Speech from their appropriate places and meanings. They abandoned acts of worship that they were commanded to perform and committed what they were prohibited to do. This is why Allah forbade the believers from imitating them in any way, be it basic or detailed matters. Allah the Exalted said, Know that Allah gives life to the earth after its death! Indeed We have made clear the Ayat to you, if you but understand.} This Ayah indicates that He brings subtleness to hearts after they have become hard, guides the confused after they were led astray, and relieves hardships after they have intensified. And just as Allah brings life back to the dead and dry earth by sending the needed abundant rain, He also guides the hardened hearts with the proofs and evidences of the Qur'an. The light (of faith) would have access to the hearts once again, after they were closed and, as a consequence, no guidance was able to reach them. All praise is due to Him Who guides whomever He wills after they were misguided, Who misguides those who were led aright before. Surely, it is He Who does what He wills and He is the All-Wise, the Most Just in all that He does, the Most Subtle, the Most Aware, the Most High, the Proud. 3 S&k iSL 3 ' % ciiZS, &X& ie A IP* Ufa

They do not seek worldly rewards or appreciation from those to whom they give in charity. Allah s statement, 4it shall be increased manifold, indicating that He will multiply the good deeds from tenfold, up to seven hundredfold and even more than that. iand theirs shall be an honorable good reward. theirs will be a generous, handsome reward, a good dwelling to return to and an honorable final destination. Allah s statement, 4And those who believe in Allah and His Messengers - they are the Siddiqun This completes His description of those who have faith in Him and in His Messengers, by describing them as Siddiqun, true believers. Al- Awfi reported from Ibn Abbas about 4And those who believe in Allah and His Messengers - they are the SiddTqiin} that its meaning does not continue to the next Ayah, iand the martyrs (are) with their Lord. Abu Ad-Duha (stopped after he) recited. jti 4they are the Siddtqiin then initiated recitation: iand the martyrs (are) with their Lord. Masruq, Ad-Dahhak, Muqatil bin Hayyan and others said similarly. Imam Malik bin Anas recorded in his Muwatta that Abu Said Al-Khudri said that the Messenger of Allah jg said, ja ^ 'jAZs The people of Paradise will look at the dwellers of the lofty mansions as one looks at a brilliant starfar away in the east or in the west on the horizon, because of their superiority over one another ." This is also the parable of mankind in this life; they are young and strong in the beginning. In this stage of life, they look youthful and handsome. then grow old and feeble; moving becomes difficult for them, while doing easy things becomes beyond their ability. Allah's statement, kXIjj} iBut the monasticism which they invented for themselves,} refers to the monasticism that the Christian nation invented, &} iWe did not prescribe for them} 'We - Allah - did not ordain it for them, but they chose it on their own.

There are two opinions about the meaning of, ionly to please Allah therewith,} The first is that they wanted to please Allah by inventing monasticism. Said bin Jubayr and Qatadah said this. The second meaning is: We did not ordain them to practice that but, rather, We ordained them only to seek what pleases Allah. Allah's statement. iBut that they did not observe it with the right observance.} meaning, they did not abide by what they ordered themselves to do. This Ayah criticizes them in two ways: first, they invented in things in their religion, things which Allah did not legislate for them. The second is that they did not fulfill the requirements of what they themselves invented and which they claimed was a means of drawing near to Allah, the Exalted and Most Honored. Ibn Jarir and Abu Abdur-Rahman

Another group among them said, Let us go about in the land and eat and drink like beasts do, and if you find us in your own land, then kill us. Another group among them said, Build homes (monasteries) for us in the deserts and secluded areas, where we can dig wells and plant vegetables. Then, we will not refute you and will not even pass by you. These groups said this, even though they all had supporters among their tribes. It is about this that Allah the Exalted and Most Honored sent down this Ayah, ﴿وَمَا يَكْفُرُ لَكُمْ بِهِ اللَّهُ خَالِكُنَا لِإِثْمِكُمْ إِذْ لَبِثْتُمْ فِيهَا اثْنَتَا عَشْرَ نَجْوً﴾ But the monasticism which they invented for themselves. There is an Ayah in Surat Al-Qasas to support this meaning. 121 Also, there is a Hadith from Ash-Sha'bi from Abu Burdah from his father from Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, 1 di ^ T ^ Iy. This Hadith is recorded in the Two Sahih. [I] Ad Dahhak, Utbah bin Abi Hakim and others agreed with Ibn Abbas in this, and Ibn Jarir preferred it. He replied, 'A Kifl (portion) which is about three hundred and fifty good merits. So Umar said, *Praise be to Allah who gave us two Kifls.' Then Said mentioned Allah saying: He will give you a double portion of His mercy, Said said, And the two Kifls on Friday are similar to that. Who will do the work for me from the Zuhr prayer to the time of the Asr prayer for one Qirat each?

The parable of the Muslims, Jews and Christians is that of a man who employed laborers to work for him from morning until night for a known wage. So, they worked until midday and said, 'We are not in need of the wages that you promised and our work was in vain.' So, the man said, 'Do not quit now, complete the rest of the work and yours will be the full wage I have fixed for it.' However, they refused and quit, and he had to hire another batch of workers. He said (to the second batch), 'Complete the work for the rest of the day and I will give you the same wage I promised the first batch.' So, they worked until the time of the 'Asr prayer and said, 'Whatever we have done is in vain and we forfeit the wages you promised us.' He said to them, 'Complete your day's work, for only a small part of the day remains.' However, they refused, and he employed another batch to work for the rest of the day, and they worked until sunset and received the wages of the two former batches. This is an example of them (i.e., the Jews and Christians) and of those who accepted this light (i.e., Islam). " Al-Bukhari was alone in recording it. Therefore, Allah s statement, ui f&l J-M} iThose among you who make their wives unlawful to them by Zihar refers to Zihar, which is derived from Az-Zahr, meaning, the back. During the time of Jdhiliyyah, when one wanted to declare Zihar towards his wife, he would say, To me, you are like the back of my mother. That was one way they issued divorce during that time. Allah allowed this Ummah to pay expiation for this statement and did not render it as a divorce, contrary to the case during the time of Jdhiliyyah. Allah said, ' o' 4they cannot be their mothers. A similar matter is when Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) consulted with his Companions about what should be done with the captives of Badr. Abu Bakr As-Siddiq thought that they should accept ransom for them so the Muslims could use the money to strengthen themselves. He mentioned the fact that the captured were the cousins and the kindred, and that they might embrace Islam later on, by Allah's help. Umar said, But I have a different opinion, O Allah's Messenger! The End that Bani An-Nadir suffered Allah said, } 4He it is Who drove out the disbelievers among the People of the Scripture} referring to the Jewish tribe of Bani An-Nadir, according to Ibn

Abbas, Mujahid, Az-Zuhri and several others.^ When the Messenger of Allah jg migrated to Al-Madlnah, he made a peace treaty with the Jews stipulating that he would not fight them and they would not fight him. They soon betrayed the treaty that they made with Allah's Messenger jg. Therefore, Allah sent His torment down on them; it can never be averted, and His appointed destiny touched them; it can never be resisted. The Prophet jg forced them to evacuate and abandon their fortified forts that we kill your soldiers and take your women captive. When the news of this threat reached Abdullah bin Ubayy and the idolaters of Al-Aws and Al-Khazraj, they prepared to fight the Prophet jg. The news of this reached the Prophet jg and he went to them saying, 77ie threat of the Quraysh has caused you extreme anxiety! The Quraysh cannot cause you more harm than what you will cause yourselves by your actions. Do you want to fight your children and brethren?" When they heard these words from the Prophet jg, they dispersed and the news of what happened reached the Quraysh idolaters. After the battle of Badr, the Quraysh idolaters wrote to the Jews of Al-Madlnah, You have armor and forts! You should fight our citizen or we will do such and such to you, and nothing will prevent us from acquiring your women. The news of this letter also reached the Prophet jg and Bani An-Nadlr intended to betray their treaty. Bani An-Nadlr sent a message to the Prophet jg asking him to come with thirty of his Companions to meet thirty of their rabbis half way, from either side. They said that the rabbis would listen to the Prophet jg and if they believe in him, the rest of Bani An- Nadlr would believe. They intended to kill the Messenger jg, and Allah informed His Messenger jg of this plot before they could harm him. The next day, the Prophet jg gathered his forces and laid siege to their area, saying to them, Ajjii Yj t Xj> j Y 4ilj By Allah ! You will not be safe until and unless you renew your peace treaty with me ." They refused to do so, and the Prophet jg fought them the rest of that day. The next morning, the Prophet jg laid siege to the tribe of Bani Qurayzah and left Bani An-Nadlr alone that day. The Prophet jg ordered Bani Qurayzah to sign a new treaty of peace, and they accepted. The Prophet jg left Bani Qurayzah and went back to Bani An-Nadir with his forces and fought them until they agreed to surrender in return for safe passage out of Al-Madlnah. Bani An-Nadir evacuated Al- Madinah and took with them all whatever their camels could carry from their furniture, including even the wood and the doors to their houses. The date trees of Bani An-Nadir were granted to the Messenger jg by Allah when He said, iri & Ayo "li(4And what Allah gave as booty to His Messenger from them - for this you made no expedition with either cavalry or camelry that is, what you earned without a fight. The Prophet ag divided most of their trees between the emigrants and gave to only two men who were poor from Al-Ansar. He did not give the Ansar any of it, except for these two men. The Prophet jg kept a part of the war booty for himself and that part of charity of the Prophet jg was transferred to the administration of his daughter s children, i.e., children of Fatimah. [I ' However, let us summarize the battle of Bani An-Nadir here. From Allah alone we seek help.

The Reason behind the Battle of Bani An-Nadir

After the seventy Companions whom the Prophet jg sent to teach the Qur an were killed at the area of Bi r Ma'unah, excluding Amr bin Umayyah Ad-Damn, who killed two men from the tribe of Bani Amir on his way back to Al-Madinah. He did not know that these two men had a promise of safe passage from Allah s Messenger jg. When he went back to Al- Madlnah, he told the Prophet sg what happened and the Prophet jg said, U&V JAfj diii jiJ" You have killed two men, I shall pay the blood money for them. Bani An-Nadir and Bani Amir were allies and had treaties. The Prophet jg asked Bani An-Nadir to help pay the blood money for the two dead men. The area of Bani An-Nadir was in a suburb of Al-Madinah, a few miles to the east.¹² Abu DSwud 3 :404 Ad-Durrari fi Ikhtisar Al-Maghazi was-Siyar 180, 181, and Ibn Hisham 3 :195. This narration is Mursal.

Stlrah 59. Al-Hashr (1-5) (Part-28 547 In his book of Sirah, Muhammad bin Ishaq bin Yasar said; Then the Messenger of Allah jg went to Bani An-Nadlr to ask them for financial help to pay the blood money of the two men from Bani Amir, who were killed by 'Amr bin Umayyah Ad- Damri. They had a promise of safe passage from the Prophet according to the (subnarrator) Yazld bin RCtman. Bani An-Nadlr and Bani Amir had a treaty and were allies. When Allah s Messenger jg went to Bani An-Nadlr asking them for help to pay the blood money for the two men, they said, Yes, O Abu Al-Qasim! We will help you, since you asked us for help. Yet, when they met each other in secret, they said, You will not find a better chance with this man than this, while the Messenger of Allah jgg was sitting next to a wall of one of their houses. They said, Who will ascend this wall and drop a stone on this man and rid us of his trouble? Amr bin Jhash bin Ka*b volunteered and ascended the wall of the house to drop a stone on the Messenger jg. The Messenger of Allah was sitting with several of his Companions, such as Abu Bakr, TJmar and Ali. The news of this plot was conveyed to the Prophet from heaven, and he stood up and went back to Al- Madlnah. When the Companions thought that the Messenger was absent for a long time, they went to see where he was and saw a man coming from Al-Madlnah. They asked him, and he said that he saw the Prophet jg enter Al-Madlnah. The Messenger s Companions went to him, and he told them the news of the betraying plot that the Jews planned against him. He ordered them to prepare for war and to march forth to Bani An-Nadlr. The Prophet^ gathered his forces and marched to the area of Bani An-Nadlr, who had taken refuge in their fortified forts. The Messenger j|| ordered their date trees be cut down and burned. The Jews heralded at the Prophet, O Muhammad! You used to forbid mischief in the earth and blame those who did it. Why is it that you had the date trees cut down and burned? Meanwhile, Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salul, Wadi'ah, Malik bin Abi Qawqal, Suwayd, Da*is and several other men who all belonged to the tribe of Al-Khazraj bin Bani Awf, sent a message to Bani An-Nadlr saying, Be firm and strong. We will never abandon you. If you are fought against, we will fight along with you and if you are forced to leave Al-Madinah, we will accompany you. The Jews waited for this claim of support, but the hypocrites did not deliver. Allah cast terror in the hearts of the Jews. They asked the Messenger jg to allow them safe passage out of Al-Madinah and to spare their lives. In return, they would only take what their camels could carry, except for weapons. The Prophet sg agreed. The Jews collected all the wealth their camels could transport. One of the Jews would demolish his own house around its door, so that he could carry the door on the back of his camel. Bani An-Nadir moved to Khaybar, and some of them went to Ash-Sham. They left all that remained behind for the Messenger of Allah jg, who had control over how it was to be divided. The Prophet jg divided it between the emigrants and none of Al-Ansar got a share, except for Sahl bin Hunayf and Abu Dujanah Simak bin Kharashah. They said that they were poor and the Messenger of Allah jg gave them their share. Only two men from Bani An-Nadir embraced Islam, Yamin bin Umayr bin KaTa bin Amr bin Jhash and Abu Sa d bin Wahb and they saved their wealth due to their acceptance of Islam. Ibn Ishaq continued, Some of the offspring of Yamin narrated to me that the Messenger of Allah said to Yamin, ii p- 'tL ji' y p' Have you not heard what your cousin plotted to do against me?n Yamin bin TJmayr promised someone a reward if he killed his cousin Amr bin Jhash, and someone killed him, according to their claim ,1, Ibn Ishaq then said, All of Surat Al-Hashr was revealed about Bani An-Nadir. A similar story was recorded by Yunus bin Bukayr from Ibn Ishaq. 121 Allah s statement, 4He it is Who drove out the disbelievers among the People of the Scripture refers to Bani An-Nadir, This chain is not authentic. Ibn Hisham 3:199-202.

He who was given victory, by Allah frightening his enemies the distance of a month, laid siege to them. May Allah's peace and blessings be on the Prophet. As in Ibn Ishaq's explanation - which preceded; that they demolished their own dwellings with their own hands and the hands of the believers.} the Jews brought down what they wanted to transport from their roofs and doors, so that they could carry them on camels. Similar was said by Thawab bin Az-Zubayr, Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam and several others. Allah's statement, and had it not been that Allah had decreed exile for them, He would certainly have punished them in this world; meaning, if it was not for the fact that Allah had already decreed that they would evacuate Al-Madina, leaving behind their homes and wealth, He would have sent another type of punishment upon them, such as being killed and captured. This was said by Az-Zuhri. Thawab, As-Suddi and Ibn Zayd said that Allah decreed that the Jews would be punished in the life of this world and face the torment of the fire of Hell He prepared for them in the Hereafter. 2) Allah said, and in the Hereafter theirs shall be the torment of the Fire. meaning, it is a matter ordained that they will surely face, that is because they opposed Allah and His Messenger. means, Allah prepared this specific punishment and sent His Messenger and his Companions against them, because they defied Allah and His Messenger and denied the good news that Allah sent forth in the Books of previous Messengers regarding the coming of Muhammad. The Jews knew these facts about Muhammad just as they knew their own children. Allah said. and whosoever opposes Allah, then verily, Allah is Severe in punishment. I Al-Qurtubi 18:4. Ar-Razi 29:245.

Cut down the Date Trees of the Jews by the Leave of Allah Allah said, and what you cut down of the Linah, or you left them standing on their stems, it was by leave of Allah, and in order that He might disgrace the rebellious Linah is an especially good type of date tree. Abu Thabayah said that Linah is a different kind of dates than Ajwah and Sami. Several others said that Linah refers to every type of date fruits, except for the Ajwah (ripen dates), while Ibn Jarir said that it refers to all kinds of date trees. 121 Ibn Jarir quoted Mujahid saying that it also includes the Buwayrah type. When the Messenger of Allah laid siege to Bani An-Nadlr, to humiliate them and bring fear and terror to their hearts, he ordered their date trees to be cut down. Muhammad bin Ishaq narrated that Yazid bin Raman, Qatadah and Muqatil bin Hayyan said, Bani An-Nadlr sent a message to the Messenger, saying that he used to outlaw mischief in the earth, so why did he order that their trees be cut down? Allah sent down this honorable Ayah stating that whatever Linah was felled or left intact by the

For instance, the booty collected from Bani An-Nadir was not acquired because of fighting them using horses and camels. The Muslims did not fight Bani An-Nadir in battle, but Allah forced them out of their forts on account of the fear that He placed in their hearts for Allah s Messenger jg. Therefore, it was Fai that Allah awarded His Messenger, with his discretion to spend it however he sees fit. Indeed, the Prophet spent the Fai on righteous causes and for the benefit of Muslims in the areas that Allah mentioned in this Ayat, 4(*rJ Li? t))} iAnd what Allah gave as booty (Fai') to His Messenger from them} meaning, from Bani An-Nadir, i'j^ Li SZIZji ftL} 4for this you made no expedition with either cavalry camelry.} refering to using camels, or iBut Allah gives power to His Messengers over whomsoever He wills. However, by Allah, neither did he take possession of it and leave you, nor did he favor himself with it to your exclusion. Allah's Messenger ag took the yearly expenses from it for himself and his family and left the rest in the Muslim Treasury. He then asked the group, I ask you by Allah with Whose permission the heavens and earth exist, do you know this? They replied, Yes. Umar then said to Ali and Al- Abbas, I ask you by Allah, with Whose permission that heavens and earth exist, do you know this? They said, *Yes. Umar added, When Allah took His Prophet sg unto Him, Abu Bakr said: I am the

When Abu Bakr died, I said: I am the successor of Allah's Messenger jfct and the successor of Abu Bakr. So I managed it as long as Allah allowed me to manage it. Then you both (Ali and Al- Abbas) came to talk to me, bearing the same claim and presenting the same case, asking for that property. I said to you: I am ready to hand over this property to you if you wish. I will do so on the condition that you will take a pledge before Allah's that you will manage it in the same way as Allah's Messenger used to. So, both of you agreed and on that condition I handed it over to you. Now you come to me to render a different judgement over the property than the one I made before. By Allah, I will never give any decision other than what I have already given, until the Last Hour begins. If you are unable to manage it, then return it to me, and I will do the job on your behalf., 111 They recorded this from the Hadith of Az-Zuhri. 121 Allah said, $\text{ipIM \% \& -i iin}$ order that it may not become a fortune used by the rich among you.} means, We made the expenditures for the Fai like this, so that the wealth does not remain among the wealthy, who would spend it as they wish and desire and give none of it to the poor. Allah the Exalted praised the Ansar next and emphasized their virtue, status and honor, preferring to give to others over themselves, even though they were in need, and not feeling enviousness. Allah the Exalted said, i'j)j oi j'j!' _>"je iAnd (it is also for) those who, before them, had homes and had adopted the faith,} referring to those who resided in the city to which the migration occurred, before the emigrants arrived at it, and who embraced the faith before many of the emigrants. Allah s statement, 4that which they have been given,} refers to what the Muhajirin were favored with, according to Qatadah and Ibn Zayd. Selflessness of the Ansar Allah said, iand give them preference over themselves even though they were in need of that.} meaning, they preferred giving to the needy rather than attending to their own needs, and began by giving the people before their own selves, even though they too were in need. An authentic Hadith stated that the Messenger of Allah jg said, Jijl JL^_aI The best charity is that given when one is in need and struggling .d This exalted rank is better than the rank of those whom Allah described in His statements, 4^& t^ iAnd they give food, in spite of their love for it.>(76:8), and, & 30 *' Zj} 4And gives his wealth, in spite of love for it.>(2:177) m Abu Dawud 2 :146

The latter give charity even though they love the wealth they give, not that they really need it, nor that it is necessary for them to keep it. The former prefer others to themselves even though they are in need and have a necessity for what they spend in charity. Abu Bakr As-Siddiq gave away all his wealth in charity and Allah s Messenger asked him, "What did you keep for your family, " and he said, I kept for them Allah and His Messenger. Ikrimah (bin Abi Jahl) and two other wounded fighters were offered water when they were injured during the battle of Al- Yarmuk, and each one of them said that the sip of water should be given to another of the three wounded men. They did so even though they were badly injured and craving water. When the water reached the third man, he and the other two died and none of them drank any of the water! May Allah be pleased with them and make them pleased with Him.

revealing the beginning of this honorable Surah. Hatib was among the Early Emigrants and participated in the battle of Badr. Hatib had children and wealth in Makkah, but he was not from the tribe of Quraysh. Rather, he was an ally of the Thman. When the Messenger of Allah ﷺ decided to conquer Makkah, after its people broke the peace treaty between them, he ordered the

So we proceeded on our way, with our horses galloping, until we reached the Rawdah. There we found the lady and said to her, Take out the letter. She said, I am not carrying a letter. We said, Take out the letter, or else we will take off your clothes. So she took it out of her braid, and we brought the letter to Allah's Messenger ﷺ. The letter was addressed from Hatib bin Abu Balta'ah to some pagans of Makkah, telling them about what Allah's Messenger ﷺ intended to do. Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "O Hatib! What is this? Hatib replied, O Allah's Messenger! Do not make a hasty decision about me. I was a person not belonging to Quraysh, but I was an ally to them. All the Emigrants who were with you have kinsmen (in Makkah) who can protect their families. So I wanted to do them a favor, so they

Al-Mumtahanah (10-11) (Part-28) Abu Al- As bin Ar-Rabl* was married to Zaynab, the Prophet's daughter. She was a Muslim, while Abu Al- As was still an idolator like his people. When he was captured during the battle of Badr, his wife, Zaynab, sent his ransom, a necklace that belonged to the Prophet's first wife Khadijah. The Prophet ﷺ became very emotional when he saw the necklace and said to the Companions, "You decide to set free the prisoner who belongs to her, then do so." They did, and Allah's Messenger ﷺ set him free. His ransom was that he send his wife to Allah's Messenger ﷺ. Abu Al- As fulfilled his promise and sent Zaynab to Allah's Messenger ﷺ along with Zayd bin Harithah. Zaynab remained in Al-Madinah after the battle of Badr, which took place in the second year of Hijrah, until her husband Abu Al- As bin Ar-Rahl embraced Islam in the eighth year after the Hijrah. She returned to their marriage without renewing the dowry. Allah's statement, "But give them that which they have spent." meaning, the husbands of the emigrant women who came from the idolaters, return the dowry that they gave to their wives. This was said by Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Qatadah, Az- Zuhri and several others. 31 Allah's statement, "And there will be no sin on you to marry them if you have paid their due to them." means, when you wish to marry them, then give them their 111 Abu Dawud 3 :140. 2 What is correct is that it was the sixth year before Al-Hudaybiyyah before this Ayah was revealed At-Jabari 23 :328, 329.

That is, marry them under the condition that their Iddah (waiting period) is finished and they have a legal guardian for their marriage etc. Allah said, "Likewise do not keep disbelieving women, thus forbidding His faithful servants from marrying idolator women or remaining married to them. In the Sahih, it is recorded that Al-Miswar and Marwan bin Al-Hakam said that after the Messenger of Allah ﷺ conducted the treaty with the Quraysh idolators at Al-Hudaybiyyah, some Muslim women emigrated to him and Allah the Exalted sent down this Ayah about them, "O you who believe! When believing women come to you as emigrants until, if you like, do not keep disbelieving women, Then Umar bin Al-Khattab divorced two of his wives, who were idolatresses, and one of them got married to Mu'awiyah bin Abi Sufyan, while the other got married to Safwan bin Umayyah. Ibn Thawr narrated that Umar said that Az-Zuhri said, This Ayah was revealed to Allah's Messenger while he was in the area of Al-Hudaybiyyah, after making peace. He agreed that whoever comes from the Quraysh to his side, will be returned to Makkah. When some women came, this Ayah was revealed. Allah commanded that the dowry that was paid to these women be returned to their husbands. Allah also ordered that if some Muslim women revert to the side of the idolators, the idolators should return their dowry to their Muslim husbands. Allah said, "Likewise do not keep disbelieving women". 121 Al-Bukhari 5:391. At-Jabari 23 :329 . See the section about narrations at the beginning of the book

Allah's statement, "And ask for that which you have spent and let them ask for that which they have spent." means, ask them for what you have paid to your wives who reverted to the side of the idolaters, and they are entitled to get back the dowry that they gave their wives who emigrated to the Similarly, during the days of Hajj, Allah s Messenger jg used to ask, "Who will support me in conveying the Message of my Lord? When he migrated to them with his Companions, they fulfilled their vow to Allah. This is the reason why Allah and His Messenger sg called them, Al-Ansar, the Supporters. The name became synonymous with them. May Allah be pleased with them and please them, as well. Children of Israel believed. They accepted the guidance that Isa brought to them, while another group, was led astray. This group rejected what Isa brought them, denied his prophethood and invented terrible lies about him and his mother. They are the Jews, may Allah curse them until the Day of Judgement. Another group exaggerated over Isa, until they elevated him to more than the level of prophethood that Allah gave him. They divided into sects and factions, some saying that Isa was the son of Allah, while others said that he was one in a trinity, and this is why they invoke the father, the son and the holy ghost! Some of them said that isa was Allah, as we mentioned in the Tafsir of Surat An-Nisa ^ Allah gives Victory to the Believing Group Allah said, ipZ& ip:$ iSo, We gave power to those who believed against their enemies, [1] See volume three, the Tafsiroi SuratAn-Nisa (4 :171).

At that time, there were twelve men at the house. Isa said to them, Some of you will disbelieve in me twelve times after having believed in me. He then asked, Who among you volunteers that he be made to resemble me and be killed instead of me; he will be with me in my place (in Paradise). One of the youngest men present volunteered, but Isa commanded him to sit down. Isa repeated his statement and the young man again stood up and volunteered, and Isa again told him to sit down. Isa repeated the same statement and the young man volunteered. This time, Isa said, Then it will be you. The appearance of Isa was cast upon that young man, while Isa, peace be on him, was raised to heaven through an opening in the roof of the house. The Jews came looking for Isa and arrested the one that appeared as him, killing him by crucifixion. Some of them disbelieved in Isa twelve times, after they had believed in him. They divided into three groups. One group, Al-Ya qubiyah (the Jacobites), stud, Allah remained with us as much as He walled and then ascended to heaven. Another group, An-Nasturiyyah (the Nestorians), said, Allah s son remained with us as much as Allah walled and He then rasied him up to heaven. A third group said, Allah s servant and Messenger remained vrith us as much as Allah willed and then Allah raised him up to Him. The last group was the Muslim group. The two disbelieving groups collaborated against the Muslim group and annihilated it. The Virtues of SuratAl-Jumu'ah Ibn Abbas and Abu Hurayrah narrated that Allah's Messenger used to recite SuratAl-Jumu'ah and SuratAl-Munafiq during the Friday Prayer. Muslim collected this Hadith in his Sahih. In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. 33 In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. 34 He it is Who sent among the unlettered ones a Messenger from among themselves, reciting to them His Ayat, purifying them, and teaching them the Book and the Hikmah. And verily, they had been before in manifest error. 35 And others among them who have not yet joined than. And He is the Almighty, the All-Wise. 36 That is the grace of Allah, which He bestows on whom He wills. And Allah is the Owner of mighty grace. Everything praises and glorifies Allah. Allah states that everything in the heavens and the earth glorifies His praises, including all types of living creatures and inanimate objects. Allah the Exalted said in another Ayat, in Muslim 2:597,599.

37 Glorify Him and there is not a thing but glorifies His praise (17:44) Allah said, 38 the King, the Holy, meaning that He is the Owner and King of the heavens and the earth Who has perfect control over their affairs. He is the Holy, free of all shortcomings, His attributes are perfect, 39 the Almighty, the All-Wise. whose explanation is already discussed in many places. The Favor that Allah granted by sending Muhammad (ﷺ) Allah the Exalted said. 40 He it is Who sent among the unlettered ones a Messenger from among themselves, the word unlettered here refers to the Arabs. Allah the Exalted said in another Ayat, 41 And say to those who were given the Scripture and those who are illiterates: "Do you submit yourselves? If they do, they are rightly guided; but if they turn away, your duty is only to convey the message; and Allah is All-Seer of (His) servants." (3:20) Mentioning the unlettered ones in specific here does not mean that Muhammad (ﷺ) was only sent to them, because the blessing to the Arabs is greater than that of other nations. In another Ayat, Allah said, 42 And verily, this is indeed a Reminder for you and your

Al-lumu'ah (1-4) (Part-28 people (43:44). Surely, the Qur'an is also a reminder for those other than Arabs to take heed. Allah the Exalted said, warn your tribe of near kindred. (26:214) These Ayaat do not negate Allah's statements, 43 Say: O mankind! verily, I am sent to you all as the Messenger of Allah.} (7:158), and, i that I may therewith warn you and whomsoever it may reach.} (6:19) and in His statement about the Qur'an, i But those of the groups that reject it, the Fire will be their promised meeting place.} (11:17) There are other Ayat that indicate that his Message is universal. He, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, was sent to all people, mankind and the Jinns alike. We mentioned this meaning before in Surat Al-An'am producing various Ayat and Hadiths. All praise and thanks are due to Allah. This Ayah testifies that Allah has indeed accepted the invocation of His friend Ibrahim when he supplicated Allah to send a Messenger to the people of Makkah from among them their own. One who will recite to them Allah's statements, purify them and teach them the Book and the Hikmah. So, Allah - all praise and thanks be to Him - sent him when the Messengers ceased and the way was obscure. Indeed it was a time when it was most needed. Especially since Allah hated the people of the earth, Arabs and non-Arabs alike, except for a few of the People of the Scripture, who kept to the true faith Allah the Exalted sent to Isa bin Maryam, peace be upon him. This is why Allah said, ; &) < & iju & $y s~Vt 4^ djr"

They later changed, corrupted and contradicted it, choosing polytheism instead of Tawhid. and doubts instead of certainty. They invented a religion that Allah did not legislate, just as the People of the Scriptures did when they changed and corrupted their Divine Books. Allah sent Muhammad jj , with a great divine legislation, perfect religion that is suitable for all humans and Jinns. In it, there is guidance and explanations of all that they need in this life and the Hereafter. It draws them closer to Paradise and Allah's pleasure and takes them away from the Fire and earning Allah's anger. In it, there is the final judgement for all types of doubts and suspicion for all major and minor matters of the religion. In Muhammad sg, Allah gathered all the good qualities of the Prophets before him, and gave him what He has never given the earlier and later generations of mankind. However, they did not abide by it, and this is why Allah resembled them to the donkey that carries volumes of books. Surely, when the donkey carries books, it will not understand what these books contain because it is only carrying these books using its strength. This is the example of those who were entrusted with the Tawrah; they read its letter but did not understand its meanings nor abided by them. Rather, they even corrupted and changed the Tawrah. The people of Islam gather weekly, on every Friday in the major places of worship. It was during Friday when Allah finished the creation, the sixth day, during which Allah created the heavens and earth. During Friday, Allah created Adam, and he was placed in Paradise, and ironically, it was a Friday when he was taken out of Paradise. It will be on a Friday when the Last Hour will commence. There is an hour during Friday, wherein no faithful servant asks Allah for something good, but Allah will give him what he asked for. All of this is based upon Hadiths in the authentic collections. In the ancient language Friday was called, 'Arubah. It is a fact that previous nations were informed about Friday, but they were led astray from it. The Jews chose Saturday for their holy day, but Adam was not created on Saturday. The Christians chose Sunday, which is the day the creation was initiated. Allah chose Friday for this Ummah, because it is the day the creation was finished.

Opening The Tafsir of Surat Al-Munafiqun (Chapter - 63) Which was revealed in Al-Madinah J-ag*P *- In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. 1. In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. 2. They have made their oaths a screen. Thus they hinder (others) from the path of Allah. Verily, evil is what they used to do. 3. That is because they believed, and then disbelieved; therefore their hearts are sealed, so they understand not. 4. And when you look at them, their bodies please you; and when they speak, you listen to their words. They are as blocks of wood propped up. They think that every cry is against them. They are the enemies, so beware of them. May Allah curse them! How are they denying the right path? The Case of the Hypocrites and their Behavior Allah the Exalted states that the hypocrites pretended to be Muslims when they went to the Prophet ﷺ. In reality, they were not Muslims, but rather the opposite. This is why Allah the Exalted said,

When the hypocrites come to you, they say: 'We bear witness that you are indeed the Messenger of Allah.' meaning, when the hypocrites come to you, they announce this statement and pretend to believe in it. Allah informs that there is no substance to their statement, and this is why He said, 'Allah knows that you are indeed His Messenger,' then said, 'And Allah bears witness that the hypocrites are liars indeed.' meaning, their claims, even though it is true about the Prophet. But they did not believe inwardly in what they declared outwardly, and this is why Allah declared their falsehood about their creed. Allah's statement, 'They have made their oaths a screen. Thus they hinder (others) from the path of Allah.' meaning, the hypocrites shield themselves from Muslims when they falsely and sinfully swear to be what they are not in reality. Some Muslims were deceived because they did not know their falsehood, and thus, thought that they were Muslims. Some Muslims believed what hypocrites say and even imitated them in their outward behavior. However, inwardly, hypocrites seek the destruction of Islam and its people, and this is why trusting them might bring great harm to many people. This is why Allah said next, 'Thus they hinder (others) from the path of Allah. Verily, evil is what they used to do. Allah said, [il At-Jabari 23 : 394

Verily, Allah guides not the people who are the rebellious.} As Allah said in Surat Bara. ah, and a discussion preceded there, and here we will present some of the Hadiths reported that are related to it. Several of the Salaf mentioned that this entire passage was revealed in the case of Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul, as we will soon mention, Allah willing and our trust and reliance are on Him. U1 See the volume four , the TafsJr of SuratAt-Tawbah (9 :80)

In his book, As-Sirah, Muhammad bin Ishaq said, After the battle of Uhud ended, the Prophet jg returned to Al-Madlnah. Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul - as Ibn Shihab narrated to me - would stand up every Friday, without objection from anyone because he was a chief of his people, when the Prophet m would sit on the Minbar, just before he delivered the Jumu'ah Khutbah to the people. Abdullah bin Ubay would say, O people! This is the Messenger of Allah with you. Allah has honored us by sending him and gave you might through him. Support him, honor him and listen to and obey him. He would then sit down. So after the battle of Uhud, even after he did what he did, that is, returning to Al-Madlnah with a third of the army, he stood up to say the same words. But the Muslims held on to his clothes and said to him, Sit down, O enemy of Allah! You are not worthy to stand after you did what you did. Abdullah went out of the Masjid crossing people's lines and saying, *By Allah, it is as if I said something awful when I wanted to support him. Some men from Al-Ansar met him at the gate of the Masjid and asked him what happened. He said, I just stood up to support him and some men, his Companions, jumped at me, pulled me back and admonished me, as if what I said was an awful thing; I merely wanted to support him. They said to him, Woe to you! Go back so that Allah's Messenger jg asks Allah to forgive you. He said, TBy Allah, I do not wish that he ask Allah to forgive me. Qatadah and As-Suddi said, This Ayah was revealed about Abdullah bin Ubay. A young relative of his went to Allah's Messenger sg and conveyed to him an awful statement that Abdullah said. The Messenger sg called Abdullah, who swore by Allah that he did not say anything. The Ansar went to that boy and admonished him. However, Allah sent down what you hear about Abdullah's case and Allah's enemy was told, Go to Allah's Messenger, but he turned his head away, saying that he will not do it. Muhammad bin Ishaq said that Muhammad bin Yahya bin Hibban, Abdullah bin Abi Bakr and Asim bin Tlmar bin Qatadah narrated to him the story of Bani Al-Mustaliq. They  Ibn Hisham 3:111. * At-Jabari 23 :399

said that while the Messenger of Allah jg was in that area, Jahjah bin Said Al-Ghifari, a hired hand for Umar, and Sinan bin Wabr fought over the water source. Sinan called out, O Ansar, while Al-Jahjah called, O Muhajirin! Zayd bin Arqam and several Ansar men were sitting with Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul at that time. When Abdullah heard what happened, he said, They are bothering us in our land. By Allah, the parable of us and these foolish Quraysh men, is the parable that goes, Feed your dog until it becomes strong, and it will eat you. By Allah, when we go back to Al-Madinah, the most mighty will expel the weak from it. He then addressed his people who were sitting with him, saying to them, What have you done to yourselves? You let them settle in your land and shared your wealth with them. By Allah, if you abandon them, they will have to move to another area other than yours. Zayd bin Arqam heard these words and conveyed them to Allah's Messenger jg. Zayd was a young boy then. Umar bin Al-Khattab was with the Messenger and he said, O Allah's Messenger! Order Abbad bin Bishr to cut off his head at his neck. The Prophet jg replied, J <'1 |JU jl fJ- u r.0l Ijl _aISo" What if people started saying that Muhammad kills his companions, O Umar? No. However, order the people to start the journey (back to Al-Madinah) ." When Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul was told that his statement reached Allah's Prophet jg, he went to him and denied saying it. He swore by Allah that he did not utter the statement that Zayd bin Arqam conveyed. Abdullah bin Ubay was a chief of his people and they said, O Allah's Messenger! May be the young boy merely guessed and did not hear what was said correctly. Allah's Messenger jg started the journey at an unusual hour of the day and was met by Usayd bin Al-Hudayr, who greeted him acknowledging his prophethood. Usayd said, By Allah! You are about to begin the journey at an unusual time. The Prophet jg said, ^ j I Jli U Ui

656 TafsTr Ibn Kathir "jiVi it Did not the statement of your friend, Ibn Ubay reach you? He claimed that when he returns to Al-Madinah, the mighty one will expel the weak one out of it ." Usayd said, Indeed, you are the mighty one, O Allah's Messenger, and he is the disgraced one. Usayd said, Take it easy with him, O Allah's Messenger! By Allah, when Allah brought you to us, we were about to gather the pearls (of a crown) so that we appoint him king over us. He thinks that you have rid him of his kingship. The Messenger of Allah Si traveled with the people until the night fell, then the rest of the night until the beginning of the next day and then set camp with the people. He wanted to busy them from talking about what had happened. The minute people felt the ground under their feet, they went to sleep and Surat Al-Munafiqin was revealed. Al-Hafiz Abu Bakr Al-Bayhaqi recorded that Jabir bin Abdullah said, We were in a battle with Allah's Messenger S& and a man from the Emigrants kicked an Ansari man. The Ansari man called out, O Ansar! and the Emigrant called out, O Emigrants! Allah's Messenger Si heard that and said, IfejpS JU La uWhat is this call of Jahiliyyah? Abandon it because it is offensive ." Abdullah bin Ubay heard that and said, Have they (the Emigrants) done so? By Allah, if we return to Al-Madinah, surely, the more honorable will expel therefrom the meaner. The Ansar at that time, were more numerous than the Emigrants when the Messenger of Allah si came to Al- Madinah, but later on the Emigrants increased in number. When this statement reached the Prophet Si, Umar got up and said, O Allah's Messenger! Let me chop off the head of this hypocrite! The Prophet si said: * J * Ibn Hisham 2:290-292. This and the last two narrations are not authentic, from the view of the chain of narrators. Much of the information can be seen again in the following narrations which are authentic, among them the narration in the Two Sahuhs.

At-Talaq (1) (Part-28) There is aPeriod duringwhich DivorcedWomen remain in TheirHomes The Prophet jg was addressed first in this Ayah, to honor him, even though his Ummah is also being addressed in Allah's statement, 40 Prophet! When you divorce women, divorce them at their Iddah"

35Siirah 65. At-Taldq (1) (Part-28) clear that she is pregnant, or he does not due to having sex, or since he does not know if she is pregnant or not. This is why the scholars said that there are two types of divorce, one that conforms to the Sunnah and another innovated. The divorce that conforms to the Sunnah is one where the husband pronounces one divorce to his wife when she is not having her menses and without having had sexual intercourse with her after the menses ended. One could divorce his wife when it is clear that she is pregnant. As for the innovated divorce, it occurs when one divorces his wife when she is having her menses, or after the menses ends, has sexual intercourse with her and then divorces her, even though he does not know if she became pregnant or not. There is a third type of divorce, which is neither a Sunnah nor an innovation where one divorces a young wife who has not begun to have menses, the wife who is beyond the age of having menses, and divorcing one s wife before the marriage was consummated. Allah said, 4 ;lii \f^j} }and count their 'Iddah meaning, count for it and know its beginning and end, so that the Iddah does not become prolonged for the woman and she cannot get married again, 4|^=vj }And have Taqwd ofAllah, your Lord.} in this matter. Spending and Housing is up to the Husband during the Revocable Iddah Period Allah said, 4And turn than not out of their homes nor shall they leave,} meaning, during the duration of the Iddah, she has the right to housing from her husband, as long as the Iddah period continues. Therefore, the husband does not have

pcfc ^%} iexcept in case they are guilty ofFahishah Mubayyinah.} meaning that the divorced wife is not to abandon her husband s house unless she commits Fahishah Mubayyinah, in which case, she vacates her husband s house. For example, Fahishah Mubayyinah implies adultery, according to Abdullah bin Mas fld, Ibn Abbas, Said bin Al-Musayyib, Ash-ShaTai, Al- Hasan, Ibn Sirin, Mujahid, Ikrimah, Said bin Jubayr, Abu Qilabah, Abu Salih, Ad-Dahhak, Zayd bin Aslam, Ata Al- Khurasani, As-Suddi, Said bin Hilal and others. * Fahishah Mubayyinah implies disobeying her husband openly or when she abuses her husband s family in words and actions, according to Ubay bin Ka b, Ibn Abbas, Ikrimah and others. 2 Allah s statement, yji &j} 4And those are the set limits ofAllah.} means, these are from His legislation and prohibitions, i (*  ""1 Jjj- ir-jf 4And whosoever transgresses the set limits ofAllah,} meaning, whoever violates these limits, transgresses them and implements anything else besides them, &{*} 4then indeed he has wronged himself.} by doing so. Az-Zuhri said that Tjbaydullah bin Abdullah said that Fatimah bint Qays said about Allah s statement, ^You know not, it may be that Allah will afterward bring some new thing to pass.) Taking her back. 111 Similar was said by Ash-Shalji, Ata , Qatadah, Ad-Dahhak, Muqatil bin Hayyan and Ath-Thawri. 21 The IrrevocablyDivorcedWoman does not have a Right to Provisions andAccommodations from the Husband Here the view of the scholars of the Salaf and those who follow them is that housing is not obligatory in the case of the irrevocably divorced woman. They also relied on the Hadith of Fatimah bint Qays Al-Fihriyah when her husband Abu Amr bin Hafs divorced her the third and fined time. He was away from her in Yemen at the time, and he sent her his decision to divorce her. He also sent some barley with his messenger, but she did not like the amount or method of compensation. He said, By Allah I am not obligated to spend upon you. So, she went to Allah s Messenger sg, who said, tThere is no obligation on him to spend on you ! Muslim added in his narration, "nor housing ." And he ordered her to finish her 'Iddah period in the house ofUmm Shank. He then said, IaLLwj sl illd1 JiiL'C is a woman my Companions visit. Spend this period in At-Tabari 23:441. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Abdullah bin Mas'ud said, The most comprehensive Ayah in the Qur'an is, 'Verily, Allah enjoins Al-Adl (justice) and Al-Ilisan (doing good)' (16:90). The greatest Ayah in the Qur'an that contains relief is, 'And whosoever has Taqwa of Allah, He will make a way for him to get out.' Ikrimah also commented on the Ayah, 'Whoever divorces as Allah commanded him, then Allah will make a way out for him.' Similar was reported from Ibn Abbas and Ad-Dahhak. Abdullah bin Mas'ud and Masruq commented on the Ayah, 'And whosoever has Taqwa of Allah, He will make a way for him to get out.' And that is the one whose menstruation has stopped due to her older age. Her Iddah is three months instead of the three monthly cycles for those who menstruate, which is based upon the Ayah in (Surat) Al-Baqarah. (see 2:228] The same for the young, who have not reached the years of menstruation. Their Iddah is three months like those in menopause. This is the meaning of His saying; 'And for those who have no courses...' as for His saying; 'if you have doubt. . .} There are two opinions: First, is the saying of a group of the Salaf, like Mujahid, Az-

44 Tafstr Ibn Kathir Zuhn and Ibn Zayd. That is, if they see blood and there is doubt if it was menstrual blood or not. The second, is that if you do not know the ruling in this case, then know that their Iddah is three months. This has been reported from Said bin Jubayr and it is the view preferred by Ibn Jarir J2 And this is the more obvious meaning. Supporting this view is what is reported 131 from Ubay bin Ka'b that he said, O Allah's Messenger! Some women were not mentioned in the Qur'an, the young, the old and the pregnant. Allah the Exalted and Most Honored sent down this Ayah, 'And whosoever has Taqwa of Allah, He will make a way for him to get out.' Those in menopause among your women, for them the 'Iddah, if you have doubt, is three months; and for those who have no courses. And for those who are pregnant, their Iddah is until they lay down their burden . Ibn Abi Hatim recorded a simpler narration than this one from Ubay bin Ka'b who said, O Allah's Messenger! When the Ayah in Surat Al-Baqarah was revealed prescribing the Iddah of divorce, some people in Al-Madlnah said, There are still some women whose Iddah has not been mentioned in the Qur an. There are the young, the old whose menstruation is discontinued, and the pregnant. The Tafsir of Surat At-Tahrim

[Tafsir Ibn Kathir (Abridged), Darussalam English Edition, PDF pp. 6003–6023]

(Chapter - 66) Which was revealed in Al-Madinah. In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. Why do you forbid that which Allah has allowed to you, seeking to please your wives? And Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful. Allah has already ordained for you (O men) the absolute

The All-Knower, the All-Aware has told me.

If you both turn in repentance to Allah, your hearts are indeed so inclined; in reference to A'ishah and Hafsa. And (remember) when the Prophet disclosed a matter in confidence to one of his wives, which refers to this saying, "But I have drunk honey." Ibrahim bin Musa said that Hisham said that it also meant his saying, "I will not drink it anymore, I have taken an oath to that. Therefore, do not inform anybody about it."

to you, say to him, Have you eaten Maghdjv? And when he says to you, No, then ask him, What is this odor? He will say to you, Hafsa has given me a drink of honey. Then you should say to him, The honeybees might have eaten from Urfut, and I will also say the same to him. Safiyyah, you should also say this. Sawdah later said, It was under compulsion that I had decided to state that which you told me; soon, by Allah, he was standing at my door. So when Allah's Messenger came near her, she said, O Messenger of Allah! Did you eat Maghdjv? He said, No. She again said, Then what is this odor? He said, No. "Mi V, # q * Lp 4jmm ignJL" Hafsa gave me honey to drink. She said, The honeybees might have eaten from Urfut. A'ishah continued, When he came to me I said the same to him. He then visited Safiyyah and she also said similar to him. When he again visited Hafsa, she said, O Messenger of Allah, should I not give you that (drink)? He said, "I do not need it." Sawdah said, "By Allah! We have prevented him from drinking honey. I said to her, Keep quiet!"

In another narration collected from Tjibayd bin Umayr, from A'ishah, it was Zaynab bint Jahsh who gave the honey to the Prophet, while A'ishah and Hafsa were the plotters. Allah knows best. Some might say that they were two separate incidents. However, it is not likely that the Ayat were revealed about both incidents, if indeed they were two separate incidents. Allah knows best. A Hadith that Imam do you dislike me talking back to you? By Allah, the wives of the Prophet talk back to him, and some of them may not speak with him for the whole day, until nightfall. Then I went to Hafsa and asked her, Do you talk back to Allah's Messenger? She said, Yes. I asked, Does any of you keep Allah's

Messenger angry all day long, until night? She replied, Yes. I said, Whoever among you does this is a ruined, losing person! Doesn't she fear that Allah may get angry for the singer of His Messenger and, thus, she will be ruined? Don't ask Allah's Messenger too many things, and don't retort him in any case. Demand from me whatever you like, and don't be tempted to imitate your neighbor, for she is more beautiful than you, and more beloved to Allah's Messenger than you.' He meant A'ishah. I, and an Ansari neighbor of mine used to visit the Prophet (ﷺ) in turns. He used to go one day, and I another day. When I went I would bring him the news of what had happened that day regarding the revelation and when he went, he used to do the same for me. In those days it was rumored that the Ghassan (tribe) were preparing their horses to invade us. My companion went and returned to us at night and knocked at my door. I came out to him. He said that a grave thing happened. I asked him, What is it? Have Ghassan come? He replied that it was worse and more serious than that, adding that Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) had divorced all his wives. I said, Hafsah is a ruined loser! I expected that would happen some day. So I dressed myself and I performed the Subh. prayer. I went to Hafsah and found her weeping. I asked her, Has Allah's Messenger divorced all of you? She replied, I don't know. He is there alone in the upper room. I went to the upper room and asked a black slave of the Prophet (ﷺ) to ask for his permission to see me, and the boy went in and then came out saying, He mentioned you to him and he remained silent. I then went out and came to the Minbar and found a group of people around it and some of them were weeping. I sat with them for some time, but could not endure the situation. So, I requested to the boy, Will you get the permission for Umar? He went in and then came out saying, He mentioned you to him, but he did not reply. So, I went to

Minbar and sat with the people who were sitting by the Minbar, but I could not bear the situation, so I went to the boy again and said, Will you get the permission for Umar? He went in and brought the same reply as before. When I was leaving, behold, he called me saying, Allah's Messenger has granted you permission. So, I entered the Prophet's room, greeted him with the Salam and saw him lying on a mat without bedding on it, and the mat had left its mark on the body of the Prophet (ﷺ). I said, Have you divorced your wives, O Allah's Messenger? He raised his eyes to me and replied no. I said, 'Allahu Akbar. O Allah's Messenger! We, the people of Quraysh used to have the upper hand over our women. But when we came to Al-Madainah, we found a people whose women had the upper hand over them. Our women started learning this behavior from them. Once, I got angry with my wife, and she talked back to me. I disliked that behavior from her and she said, Why do you dislike that I talk back to you? By Allah, the Prophet's wives talk back to him and one of them would ignore him the whole day, until the night. I said to her, Whoever does this among them is the ruined loser! Does she feel safe from Allah getting angry with her on account of His Messenger's anger? In that case, she would be ruined. On that the Prophet (ﷺ) smiled. I then said, O Allah's Messenger! I went to Hafsah and said to her, Do not be tempted to imitate your companion (A'ishah) for she is more beautiful than you and more beloved to the Prophet. The Prophet (ﷺ) smiled again. Thus, Allah says, iNay, but they continue meaning, they persist in their transgression, lying and misguidance. 4to be in pride, and flee. meaning, they continue in obstinance, arrogance and fleeing away from the truth. They do not listen to it nor do they follow it. The Parable of the Disbeliever and the Believer hen Allah says, ils he who walks prone on his face, more rightly guided, or he who walks upright on a straight path?} This is a parable which Allah made of the believer and the disbeliever. So the condition of the disbeliever is like one who walks prone on his face. This is like a person walking bent over on his face (with his head down) instead of walking upright. This person does not know where he is going or how. Rather, he is lost, astray and confused. Is this person more guided, it ior he who walks upright meaning, hewho stands erect. >>? ion a straight path?} meaning, this person who walks upright is on a clear path, and he is straight within himself while his path is straight as well. This is their likeness in this world, and their likeness will be the same in the Hereafter. So the believer will be gathered (on the Day of Judgement) walking upright upon the straight path and the vast and spacious Paradise will be opened up for him. However, the disbeliever will be gathered Verily, your Lord is the best Knower of him who has gone astray from His path, and He is the best Knower of those who are guided.) We have already discussed the special letters of the Arabic alphabet at the beginning of Surat Al-Baqarah. Thus, Allah s saying, 4^> 4Nun), is like Allah s saying, i'j 4Siid), and Allah s saying,  Also called Surat Al-Qalam.

The Explanation of the Pen Concerning Allah s statement, 4M& 4By the pen The apparent meaning is that this refers to the actual pen that is used to write. This is like Allah s saying, iRead! And your Lord is the Most Generous . Who has taught by the pen. He has taught man that which he knew not.} (96:3-5) Therefore, this statement is Allah s swearing and alerting His creatures to what He has favored them with by teaching them the skill of writing, through which knowledge is attained. Thus, Allah continues by saying. 4and by what they Yastur.} Ibn Abbas, Mujahid and Qatadah all said that this means, what they write. 111 As-Suddi said, The angels and the deeds of the servants they record. Others said, Rather, what is meant here is the pen which Allah caused to write the decree when He wrote the decrees of all creation, and this took place fifty-thousand years before He created the heavens and the earth. For this, they present Hadiths that have been reported about the Pen. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded from Al-Walid bin Tjbadah bin As-Samit that he said, My father called for me when he was dying and he said to me: Verily, I heard the Messenger of Allah ;g| say, : Jli 4o 'i jUi3" ifol jU li Jj\ !>)" m At-Tabari 23:527, 528.

The Pen said: O my Lord, what shall I write?

iThen they shall have a reward without end> (95:6) Mujahid said, 4Without Mamniin) means Without reckoning. 111 And this refers back to what we have said before.

This is like that which has been confirmed in the Two Sahih's that Anas said, I served the Messenger of Allah ^{jg} for ten years, and he never said a word of displeasure to me (lfff), nor did he ever say to me concerning something I had done: Why did you do that? And he never said to me concerning something I had not done: *Why didn't you do this? They believed that they had been mistaken in the path they took in walking to it. Truly, we hope in our Lord.} It has been said, They were hoping for something better in exchange in this life. It has also been said, They were hoping for its reward in the abode of the Hereafter. And Allah knows best. Some of the Salaf mentioned that these people were from Yemen. Said bin Jubayr said, They were from a village that was called Darawan which was six miles from San'a (in Yemen). It has also been said, They were from the people of Ethiopia whose father had left them this garden, and they were from the People of the Book. Their father used to handle the garden in a good way. Whatever he reaped from it he would put it back into the garden as it needed, and he would save some of it as food for his dependants for the year, and he would give away the excess in charity. Then, when he died, and his children inherited the garden they said, Verily, our father was foolish for giving some of this garden s harvest to the poor. If we prevent them from it, then we will have more. So when they made up their minds to do this they were punished with what was contrary to their plan. Allah took away all of what they possessed of wealth, gain and charity. Nothing remained for them. Allah then says, iSuch is the punishment,} meaning, such is the punishment of whoever opposes the command of Allah, is stingy with what Allah has given him and favored him with, withholds the right of the poor and needy, and responds to Allah s blessings upon him with ungratefulness (or disbelief). ibut truly, the punishment of the Hereafter is greater if they but knew.} meaning, this is the punishment in this life, as you have heard, and the punishment of the Hereafter is even harder.

120 Tafslr Ibn Kathir plate (the bone will not bend or flex).* This Hadith was recorded in the Two Sahihs and other books from different routes of transmission with various wordings. It is a long Hadith that is very popular. Concerning Allah's statement, I' ' V iTheir eyes will be cast down and ignominy will cover them;} means, in the final abode, due to their crimes and arrogance in the worldly life. Thus they will be punished with the opposite of what they did. When they were called to prostrate in the worldly life, they refused to do so even though they were healthy and secure. Therefore, they will be punished with the lack of ability to do so in the Hereafter. When the Almighty Lord makes Himself visible (before the believers), then the believers will fall down in prostration to Him, but no one of the disbelievers and hypocrites will be able to prostrate, rather, their backs will become one plate.

Everytime one of them attempts to prostrate, he will bow his neck but will not be able to prostrate. This is just like in the life of this world, when these people were in opposition to what the believers were doing. For whoever denies the Qur'an Then Allah says, 'I will leave him alone with such as he believes this narration.' meaning, the Qur'an. This is a severe threat which means, leave Me alone with this person; I know about him and how I will gradually punish him and increase him in his falsehood. I am giving him respite for a while, then I will seize him with a mighty and powerful punishment. Thus, Allah says, 'We shall punish them gradually from directions they perceive not.' meaning, and they will not even be aware of it. Rather, they  Fath Al-Bari 8:531, 532, and Muslim 1:167.

Nun (42-47) (Part-29) will believe that it is a noble blessing from Allah, but really the same matter is actually a form of humiliation (for them). This is similar to Allah's statement, 'Do they think that in wealth and children with which We expand them, We hasten unto them with good things. Nay, but they perceive not.' (23:55,56) Allah also said, 'When they forgot that which they had been reminded, We opened for them the gates of everything, until in the midst of their enjoyment in that which they were given, all of a sudden. We punished them, and lo! They were plunged into destruction with deep regrets and sorrows.' Therefore, Allah says here, 'And I will grant them a respite. Verily, My plan is strong.' meaning, I will delay them, give them respite and extend their time. Yet, this is My plan, and My plot against them. Thus, Allah says, 'Verily, My plan is strong.' meaning, great against whoever opposes My command, rejects My Messengers and dares to disobey Me. In the Two Sahih's it is recorded from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ that he said, 'The Exalted gives respite to the wrongdoer until He seizes him and he will not be able to escape Him. the explanation of these two Ayat preceded in Siirat At-Tur)2 ^

The meaning of it is, you, O Muhammad, call them to Allah without taking any wages from them, rather, you hope for the reward with Allah. Yet, they reject that which you have brought to them simply due to ignorance, disbelief and obstinacy. 'I will leave him alone with such as he believes this narration.' meaning, the Qur'an. This is a severe threat which means, leave Me alone with this person; I know about him and how I will gradually punish him and increase him in his falsehood. I am giving him respite for a while, then I will seize him with a mighty and powerful punishment. Thus, Allah says, 'We shall punish them gradually from directions they perceive not.' meaning, and they will not even be aware of it. This means they are jealous of you due to their hatred of you, and were it not for Allah's protection of you, defending you against them (then their evil eye would harm you). The Effect of the Evil Eye is Real In this Ayah is a proof that the effect of the evil eye and its affliction by the command of Allah is real. Many Hadiths have been reported concerning this through numerous routes of transmission. The Hadith of Buraydah bin Al-Husayb Abu Abdullah bin Majah recorded from Buraydah bin Al-Husayb that the Messenger of Allah said, \4j^ "There is no Ruqyah except to cure the evil eye and the sting. Warning concerning the Greatness of the Day of Judgement Al-Haqqah is one of the names of the Day of Judgement, because during it the promise and the threat will inevitably occur. Due to this, Allah has declared the greatness of this matter. So He says, iAnd what will make you know what Al-Haqqah is?} Mention of the Destruction of the Nations Then Allah mentions the destruction of the nations that denied the Resurrection. He says, <$Asfar Thamiid, they were destroyed by the Tdghiyah!} It is the ciy which will silence them, and the quake that will silence them. Qatadah said similar to this when he said, At-Taghiyah is the shout. * Mujahid said, At-Taghiyah means the sins. This was also said by Ar-Rabx bin Anas and bin Zayd. They said that it means transgression. After mentioning this, Ibn Zayd recited the following Ayatas prooffor his statement, iThamud denied through their transgression .} Then Allah says, iAnd asfar Ad, they were destroyed by a wind Sarsar meaning, a cold wind. Qatadah, As-Suddi, Ar-Rabl bin Anas and Ath-Thawri all said about, i'Atiyah} This means severe blowing of the wind. Qatadah said, It m At-Tabari 23 :571

Then his head would shatter and it would remain a lifeless corpse as if it were without branches, motionless. 236 Tafsir Ibn Kathir {committed Al-Khati'ah.} This means disobedience. Mujahid said, They committed errors. Thus, Allah says, {And they disobeyed their Lord's Messenger,} meaning they were all of the same type, they all denied the Messenger of Allah who was sent to them. As Allah says, {Everyone of them denied the Messengers, so My threat took effect.} So whoever denies a Messenger, then verily, he denies all of the Messengers. This is as Allah says, {The people of Nuh belied the Messengers} {Ad belied the Messengers.} {Thamiid belied the Messengers.} However, only one Messenger came to every nation. Thus, Allah says here, {And they disobeyed their Lord's Messenger, so He seized them with a punishment that was Rabi'ah.} Rabi'ah means, great, severe and painful. Mujahid said, Rabi'ah means severe. ' As-Suddi said, It means destructive. At-Tabari 23:576. At-Tabari 23:577.

Al-Hdqqah (1-12) (Part-29) A Reminder about the Blessing of the Ship Then, Allah says, {iVerily, when the water rose beyond its limits, meaning, it rose up over its shores by the leave of Allah and it overcame all that existed. Ibn Abbas and others said, The water rising beyond its boundary means it increased abundantly. * This happened due to the supplication of Nuh against his people when they denied him, opposed him and worshipped other than Allah. Therefore, Allah answered his supplication and the people of the earth were covered with the flood except for those who were with Nuh in the ship. Thus, are humans all from the loins of Nuh and his progeny. For this reason Allah reminds humanity of His blessing, {iVerily, when the water rose beyond its limits, We carried you in the ship.} meaning, a ship running along upon the surface of the water. {That We might make it an admonition for you The pronoun it here refers to the species of the object (ships) due to the general meaning alluding to this. Thus, the meaning is, *We caused its type of creation (ships) to remain (in the earth) for you, so that you ride upon the currents of the water in the seas. This is as Allah says, {We have appointed for you ships and cattle on which you ride; In order that you may mount on their backs, and then may remember the favor of your Lord when you mount thereon} (43:12,13) in At-Tabari 23 :577

That Day shall you be brought to Judgement, not a secret of you will be hidden.} A Mention of the Horrors of the Day of Judgement Allah informs of the horrors that will take place on the Day of Judgement. The first of these events is the blowing of fright (into the Trumpet), which will be followed by the blowing of destruction when everyone in the heavens and the earth will be struck down except whoever Allah wills. Then, after this will be the blowing of standing before the Lord of all that exists, and the resurrection, and the gathering. And this is that blowing.¹¹¹ It is emphasized here that it is one blowing, because the command of Allah cannot be opposed or prevented, and it does not need to be repeated or stressed. Thus, Allah goes on to say, . & so$ j.j\afj} 4And the earth and the mountains shall be removed from their places, and crushed with a single crushing.} meaning, they will be stretched out to the extent of the surface (of the earth) and the earth will change into something else other than the earth. 4Then on that Day shall the Event occur.} meaning, the Day of Judgement. 4 -jf. ^} I 1 ' The majority of scholars say that there are two times the Trumpet is blown. Ar-Rabl bin Anas said concerning Allah s statement, $ &a\j} 4And the angels will be on its sides,} This means that they will be standing on what has been ground to powder of the heavens looking at the people of the earth. Out of his extreme pleasure is his saying to everyone that he meets, 4Here! read my Record!} meaning, take my Book and read it. He will say this because he knows that what is in it is good and purely virtuous deeds. He will be of those whom Allah replaced their bad deeds (evils) with good deeds. Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd said, The meaning of 4Here! read my Record!} is Here, read my Book. ... The suffix C/m is a grammatical addition. This is what he (Abdur-Rahman) said. It seems apparent that the suffix C/m means here you all. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Abdullah bin Abdullah bin Hanzalah - and he (Hanzalah) was the Companion who was washed by the angels for his funeral - said, Verily, Allah will stop His servant on the Day of Judgement and He will make his sins appear on the outside of his Book of Records. Then He will say to him, Did you do this? The servant will respond, Yes my Lord. Then Allah will say to him, will not expose you (or dishonor you) for it, for verily, I have forgiven you. Al-Hdqqah (19-24) (Part-29) This will be when he (the servant of Allah) will be saved from being disgraced and exposed on the Day of Judgement. In the Sahih, it is recorded from Ibn Tjmar that he was asked about the private counsel. The Qur'an is the Speech ofAllah Allah swears by His creation, in which some of His signs can be seen in His creatures. These also indicate the perfection of His Names and Attributes. He then swears by the hidden things that they cannot see. This is an oath swearing that the Qur an is His Speech, His inspiration and His revelation to His servant and Messenger, whom He chose to convey His Message, and the Messenger carried out this trust faithfully. So Allah says, fSo I swear by whatsoever you see, and by whatsoever you see not, that this is verily the word ofan honored Messenger.9 meaning, Muhammad jg. The Tafsir of "Lord of the ways of ascent"

Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from Ibn Abbas, Lord of the ways of ascent means loftiness and abundance. * Mujahid said, Lord of the ways of ascent means the ways of ascension into the heavens. * Concerning Allah's statement, iThe angels and the Ruh Ta'ruju to Him Abdur-Razzaq reported from Ma'mar from Qatadah that Ta'ruju means to ascend. In reference to the Ruh, Abu Salih said, They are creatures from the creation of Allah that resemble humans but they are not humans. It could be that here it means Jibril, and this is a way of connecting the specific to the general (other angels). It could also be referring to the name of the souls (Arwah) of the Children of Adam (humans). For verily, when they (the human souls) are taken at death, they are lifted up to the heavens just as the Hadith of Al-Bara proves.

Ibn Abi Hatim recorded from Ibn Abbas that he said concerning the Ayah, Yunus 104: "In a Day the measure whereof is fifty thousand years" It is the Day of Judgement. The chain of narration of this report (from Ibn Abbas) is authentic. Ath-Thawri reported from Simak bin Harb from Ikrimah that he said concerning this verse, It is the Day of Judgement. * Ad-Dahhak and Ibn [1 *

Sa'ala Sa'il (1-7) (Part-29) Zayd both said the same. Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from Ibn Abbas concerning the Ayah, "The angels and the Ruh ascend to Him in a Day the measure whereof is fifty thousand years." It is the Day of Judgement that Allah has made to be the measure of fifty thousand years for the disbelievers. Many Hadiths have been reported with this same meaning. Imfim

168 TafsTr IbtI Kathtr Mas'Qd, MasrOq and Ibrahim An-Nakha!. 111 It has also been said that it means tranquility and humble concentration (in the prayer). This is similar to Allah s statement, ("$" ( J",Successful indeed are the believers. Those who with their Salah are Khashi'un> (23:1-2) This was said by TJqbah bin Amir. From its meanings is the same terminology used to describe standing (still) water (Al-Ma Ad-Da'im). This proves the obligation of having tranquility in the prayer. For verily, the one who does not have tranquility (stillness of posture) in his bowing and prostrating, then he is not being constant (Da'im) in his prayer. This is because he is not being still in it and he does not remain (in its positions), rather he pecks in it (quickly) like the pecking of the crow. Therefore, he is not successful in performing his prayer. It has also been said that the meaning here refers to those who perform a deed and are constant in its performance and consistent in it. This is like the Hadith that has been recorded in the Sahih on the authority of 'A'ishah that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, ^{3^} L)j JLLcVl aThe most beloved deeds to Allah are those that are most consistent, even if they are few. s Then Allah says, ⁴And those in whose wealth there is a recognized right. Reckoning and the Recompense. Therefore, they perform the deeds of one who hopes for the reward and fears the punishment. For this reason Allah says, ⁴And those who fear the torment of their Lord.} meaning, they are fearful and dreadful. j* fry v'j ⁴Verily, the torment of their Lord is that before which none can feel secure.} meaning, no one is safe from it (Allah's torment) of those who understand the command from Allah, except by the security of Allah Himself. Then Allah says, ⁴And those who guard their private part (chastity).} meaning, they keep their private parts away from that which is forbidden and they prevent their private parts from being put into other than what Allah has allowed them to be in. This is why Allah says, if ⁴Except from their wives or their right hand possessions} meaning, from their female slaves. ⁴for (then) they are not blameworthy. But whosoever seeks beyond that, then it is those who are trespassers.}

of Surat Al-Mu'minun, and therefore does not need to be repeated here. Allah said, ⁴of 6 p&Ai f c/$} ⁴And those who keep their trusts and covenants.} meaning, if they are given a trust they do not deceive and when See the volume six, the Tafsil of Surat Al-Mu'minun (23 :6-7)

they make a covenant they do not break it. These are the characteristics of the believers which are opposite of the characteristics of the hypocrites. This is like what is reported in the authentic Hadith, "The signs of the hypocrites are three. When he speaks he lies, when he promises he breaks his promise, and when he is given a trust he behaves treacherously (with ifjj In another narration it states. "j&i lilj ijle- jS\ - tilj i Jj'jtS lit When he speaks he lies, when he makes a covenant he breaks it, and when he argues he is abusive Concerning Allah's statement, ⁴And those who stand firm in their testimonies.} This means that they guard their testimonies. They do not add or decrease from what they testify to nor do they conceal their testimonies. Allah says in another Ayah, ikS iWho hides it, surely, his heart is sinful.} (2:283) Then Allah says, iAnd those who are with their Salah, Yuhafizun.} meaning, they maintain its proper times, its pillars, its obligations and its recommended acts. So Allah begins this discussion (of the believers attributes) with prayer and He concludes it with prayer. This proves the importance of it and the praise of its noble status, just as what preceded at the beginning of Surat Al-Mu minun. It is exactly the same discussion. This is why Allah says there (in Al-Mu minun), Al-Bari 1:111. Al-Bari 1:111.

iThese are indeed the inheritors. Who shall inherit the Firdaws (Paradise). They shall dwell therein forever.} (23:10-11) And He says here, iSuch shall dwell in the Gardens, honored.} meaning, they will be honored with various types of pleasures and delights. The Rebuke of the Disbelievers and the Threat against Them Allah rebukes the disbelievers who, in the time of the Prophet saw him and the guidance Allah sent him with. They witnessed the magnificent miracles Allah aided him with. Then, after all of this they fled from him and separated themselves from him. They fled right and left, group by group and party by party. This is as Allah says, os& % pe iThen what is wrong with them that they run away from admonition? As if they were (frightened) wild donkeys. Fleeing from a beast of prey.> (74:49-51) This is the example of disbeliever. And this Ayah is similar. As Allah says, iSo what is the matter with those disbelievers, before you Muhti'ln meaning, what is wrong with these disbelievers who are with you, O Muhammad? Why are they Muhti'ln, meaning hastily running away from you? This is as Al-Hasan Al-Basri said, Muhti'ln means departing. 4fee & iOn the right and on the left, 'Izln.} The singular of Izin is 'Izah, which means separating. meaning in their separating and their differing. he (Ibn Abbas) said, Al- l2m is a group among the people. On the right and on the left means they are turning away (right and left) from him (the Prophet 5g) and mocking him. I swear by the Lord of the easts and the wests} meaning, the One Who created the heavens and the earth and made the east and the west. He is the One Who subjected the stars causing them to appear in the eastern parts of the sky and vanish in the western parts of it. The point of this statement is that the matter is not as the disbelievers claim: that there is no final return, no reckoning, no resurrection and no gathering. Rather all of this will occur and come to pass. There is no way of avoiding it. This is the reason that Allah has stated a negation at the beginning of this oath. This shows that He is swearing by a denial of their claim. This is a refutation of their false claim of rejecting the Day of Judgement. They already witnessed the greatness of Allah's power in what is more convincing than the Day of Judgement, that is the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the subjection of the creatures in them, the animals, the inanimate objects and the other types of creatures that exist. This is why Allah says, وَالْقَائِلُ عَلَىٰ مَا خَلَقَ هَٰذَا بَشِيرٌ أَوْ نَذِيرٌ {The creation of the heavens and the earth is indeed greater than the creation of mankind; yet, most of mankind know not.} (40:57) Allah also says, وَلَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا هُوَ يُحْيِي الْمَيِّتَ وَيُمِيتُ الْمَحْيَا {He is the All-Knowing Supreme Creator. Verily, His command, when He intends a thing, is only that He says to it, "Be!"- and it is!} (36:81,82) So here He says, وَلَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا هُوَ يُحْيِي الْمَيِّتَ وَيُمِيتُ الْمَحْيَا {But no! I swear by the Lord of the easts and the wests that surely We are Able -to replace them by (others) better than them..} meaning, on the Day of Judgement We will bring them back (to life) in bodies that are better than these bodies that they have now. For verily, Allah's power is suitable (able) to do that. وَلَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا هُوَ يُحْيِي الْمَيِّتَ وَيُمِيتُ الْمَحْيَا {and We are not to be outrun.} meaning, *We are not unable. This is as Allah says, وَلَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا هُوَ يُحْيِي الْمَيِّتَ وَيُمِيتُ الْمَحْيَا {Does man think that We shall not assemble his bones? Yes, We are able to put together in perfect order the tips of his fingers.} (75:3,4) Allah also says, وَلَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا هُوَ يُحْيِي الْمَيِّتَ وَيُمِيتُ الْمَحْيَا {We have decreed death to you all, and We are not outstripped. To transfigure you and create you in (forms) that you know not.} (56:60,61) Ibn Jarir preferred the meaning to be: a nation who will obey

Nun and Sad. This (Nusub) means an idol. With this recitation the Ayah means, as if their rushing to this place was like when they used to hurry in the worldly life to the idol when they saw it. They would rush hurriedly to see who would be the first of them to touch it. This has been reported from Mujahid, Yahya bin Abi Kathir, Muslim Al-Batini, Qatadah, Ad-Dahhak, Ar-Rabi bin Anas, Abu Salih, Asim bin Bahdalah, Ibn Zayd and others. Concerning Allah's statement, وَلَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا هُوَ يُحْيِي الْمَيِّتَ وَيُمِيتُ الْمَحْيَا {With their eyes lowered in fear> meaning humbled. ^covering them with humility.} meaning, in return for how they behaved arrogantly in the worldly life by refusing to be obedient (to Allah). وَلَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا هُوَ يُحْيِي الْمَيِّتَ وَيُمِيتُ الْمَحْيَا {That is the Day which they were promised!}

Nuh's Invitation to His People Allah says concerning Nuh that He sent him to his people commanding him to warn them of the punishment of Allah before it befell them. He was to tell them that if they would repent and turn to Allah, then the punishment would be lifted from them. Thus, it is recommended to recite this Surah in the prayer for rain due to this Ayah. This has been reported from the Commander of the faithful, Umar bin Al-Khattab. He ascended the Minbar to perform the prayer for rain, and he did not do more than seeking Allah s forgiveness and reciting the Ayat that mention seeking Allah s forgiveness. He also determined fixed stations and positions for the moon, and He made its light vary so that sometimes it increases until it reaches a maximum, then it begins to decrease until it is completely veiled. All of this is from what Nuh informed them of concerning Allah s power and His greatness in creating the heavens and the earth. It demonstrates the favor that He did for them by making both heavenly benefits and earthly benefits. He called them sometimes by encouragement and sometimes by intimidating warnings. Yet, they disobeyed him, opposed him, denied him and followed the children of the world. The Idols of the People ofNuh and what happened to Him % & % &): y ijig@ 1 i iAnd they have plotted a mighty plot. And they have said: You shall not leave your gods, nor shall you leave Wadd, nor Suwd', nor Yaghuth, and Ya'iiq and Nasr.'} These are the names of their idols which they used to worship besides Allah. Al-Bukh&ri recorded from Ibn Abbas that he said, The idols that were among the people of NQh wound up among the Arabs afterwards. In reference to Wadd, it became the idol of the people of Kalb in the area of Dawmat Al-Jandal. Suwa became the idol of the people of Hudhayl. Yaghuth became the idol of the people of Murad, then the people of Bani Ghutayf at Al-Juruf in the area of Saba worshipped it after them. Ya uq became the idol of the people of Hamdan. Nasr became the idol of the people of Himyar for the family of Dhu Kala . These idols were all named after righteous men from the people of NQh. Then when these men died, Shaytan inspired his (NQh s) people to erect statues in honor of them at their gathering places where they used to come and sit, and to name these statues after these men (with their names). So they did this (as Shaytan suggested), but these statues were not worshipped until after those people (the ones who built them) had died and the knowledge was lost. Then, those statues were later worshipped. This has also been similarly reported from Ikrimah, Ad-Dahhak, Qatadah and Ibn Ishaq. Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from Ibn Abbas that he said, These are statues that were worshipped in the time of NQh. * Ibn Jarir recorded from Muhammad bin Qays that he said concerning YaghQth, Ya*Qq and Nasr, They were righteous people between the time of Adam and NQh, and they had followers who used to adhere to their guidance. Then, when they died, their companions who Path Al-Bari 8 :535 * At-Jabari 23:640.

used to follow them said, If we make images of them, it will increase our desire to perform worship when we remember them. So they made images of them. Then, when those people died and other people came after them, Iblis approached them and said, They (your predecessors) used to worship these statues and they were granted rain by their worship of them. Thus, they (the latter people) worshipped them. The Supplication of Nuh against His People and for whoever believed inHim Allah then says, 4U 4And indeed they have led many astray meaning, by the idols that they took for worship, they mislead a large number of people. For verily, the worship ofthose idols continued through- out many generations until our times today, among the Arabs, the non-Arabs and all the groups of the Children of Adam. Al- KhalU (Prophet Ibrahim) said in his supplication, s; <*r o&a Vk ojt&LM o' 4And keep me and my sons away from worshipping idols."O my Lord! They have indeed led astray many among mankind..." (14:35,36) Allah then says, 4; ;&uk Sji^ jj%} 4Grant no increase to the wrongdoers save error.} This is a supplication from him (NOh) against his people due to their rebellion, disbelief and obstinacy. meaning, they will have no helper, assistant, or savior who can rescue them from the punishment of Allah. This is similar to Allah s statement, YJ& Lri iThis day there is no saviorfrom the decree ofAllah except him on whom He has mercy. (1 1:43) 05? * Jis fi f 4And Nuh said: "My Lord! Leave not one of the disbelievers on the earth Dayyar!"} meaning, do not leave a single one of them on the face of the earth, not even a lone individual. This is a method of speaking that gives emphasis to the negation. Ad-Dahhak said, Dayyar means one. As-Suddi said, Dayyar is the one who stays in the home. So Allah answered his supplication and He destroyed all of those on the face of the earth who were disbelievers. He (Allah) even destroyed Nuh s (biological) son from his own loins, who separated himself from his father (Nuh). He (Nuh s son) said, i'-j J4 Y) Ort Y u ipt \%z 41 will betake myself to some mountain, it will save me from the ivater. Allah said, 4lf You leave them, they will mislead Your servants,} meaning, if You leave a single one of them they will lead your servants astray. This refers to those whom He will create after them. 41 ==> Y1 & iarid they will beget none but wicked disbelievers meaning, wicked in their deeds and disbelieving in their hearts. He {Nuh) said this due to what he knew about them since he remained among them for nine hundred and fifty years. Then he said, 4My Lord! Forgive me, and my parents, and him who alters my home as a believer,> " Ad-Dahhak said, This means, my Masjid." However, there is no harm in understanding the Ayah according to its apparent i meaning, which would be that he (Nuh) supplicated for every personwho entered his househowas a believer.Then he said, iand all the believing men and women. He supplicated for all of the believing men and women, and that includes those of them who were living and those of them who were dead. For this reason, it is recommended to supplicate like this, in following the example of NQh, and that which has been reported in the narrations and well-known, legislated supplications. Then, he said, iAnd to the wrongdoers, grant You no increase but destruction!$ As-Suddi said, But destruction. Mujahid said, But loss. This means in both this life and in the Hereafter.

Al-Iinn (1-7) (Part-29 4And He, exalted be the Jadd ofour Lord,} Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from Ibn Abbas that he said concerning Allah s statement, 4the Jadd ofour Lord,} This means, His actions, His commands and His power. J1 Ad-Dahhak reported from Ibn Abbas that he said, Allah s Jadd is His blessings. His power and His favor upon His creation. It has been reported from Mujahid and IkTimah that they said, It (Jadd) is the magnificence of our Lord. Qatadah said, Exalted is His magnificence. His greatness and His command. As-Suddi said, Exalted is the command of our Lord. It has been reported from Abu Ad-Darda , Mujahid and Ibn Jurayj that they said, Exalted is His remembrance (Dhikr)" The Jinns Affirmation that Allah does not have a Wife and Children Allah says, 4He has taken neither a wife nor a son.} meaning, far exalted is He above taking a mate and having children. This means that when the Jinns accepted Islam and believed in the Qur'an they professed Allah's magnificence above having taken a spouse and a child (or a son). Then they said, wa'alli lahil lahu {And that the foolish among us used to utter against Allah that which was an enormity in falsehood.} Mujahid, Ikrimah, Qatadah and As-Suddi, all said, wa'alli lahil lahu {They were referring to Ibils. 4&8} Jabari 23:648.

196 Tafslr Ibn Kathir ithat {which was an enormity in falsehood.} As-Suddi reported from Abu Malik that he said, This means a transgression. Ibn Zayd said, A great injustice. The foolish (Safih) also carries the meaning of everyone in the category who claims that Allah has a spouse or a son. This is why Allah says here, wa'alli lahil lahu {And that the foolish among us used to utter} meaning, before his acceptance of Islam. wa'alli lahil lahu {against Allah tlwt which was an enormity in falsehood.} meaning, falsehood and a lie. Thus, Allah says, wa'alli lahil lahu {And verily, we thought that men and Jinn would not utter a lie against Allah.} meaning, we did not think that humans and Jinns would join each other in lying about Allah by attributing a spouse and a son to Him. So when we heard this Qur'an we believed in it and we knew that they (Jinns and men) had been lying about Allah in this matter. Among the Causes of the Transgression of the Jinns were that Humans sought Refuge with Them Allah says. wa'alli lahil lahu {And verily, there were men among mankind who took shelter with the males among the Jinn, but they increased them in Rahaq.} meaning, We used to think that we had some virtuous status over mankind because they used to seek refuge with us whenever they (men) would settle in a valley or any place in the wilderness, the open country steppes and other places. This was the custom of the Arabs in the pre-Islamic days of ignorance. They used to seek refuge with the greatest Jinn of a particular place so that no harm or evil would afflict them.

Al-linn (1-7) (Part-29) Like one would do if he entered into the land of his enemies, in the vicinity of a great and powerful man, he would seek the protection and guardianship of that man. So when the Jinns saw that the humans were seeking refuge with them due to their fear of them, they increased them in Rahaq which means fear, terror and fright. They did this so that the people would be more afraid of them and seek refuge with them even more. As Qatadah said concerning this Ayah, ibut they increased them in Rahaq. $ meaning, in sin, and that the Jinns become more bold and daring against them. Ath-Thawri said from Mansur, from Ibrahim, concerning the Ayah ibut they increased them in Rahaq.} means, the Jinns were courageous and increased in insolence against them. As-Suddi said, A man used to set out with his family (on a journey) until he came to a piece of land where he would settle. Then he would say, seek refuge with the master {Jinn} of this valley from the Jinns, or that myself, my wealth, my child or my animals are harmed in it. Qatadah said, When they sought refuge with them instead of Allah, the Jinns would overcome them with harm because of that. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded from Ikrimah that he said, The Jinns used to fear humans just like humans fear them, or even worse. So whenever humans would come to a valley the Jinns would flee. So the leader of the people would say, We seek refuge with the leader of the inhabitants of this valley. So the Jinns said, We see these people fleeing from us just like we flee from them. Thus, the Jinns started coming near the humans and afflicting them with insanity and madness. Thus, Allah said, Ujib $ 0* {And verily, there were men among mankind who took shelter with the males among the Jinn, but they increased them in m} At-Tabari 23 :655.

And we ktiow not whether evil is intended for those on the earth, or whether their Lord intends for than guidance. } The Jinns stealing Information from the Sky before the the Messenger jg was sent and striking Them with flaming Fire after His Coming Allah informs about the Jinns when He sent His Messenger Muhammad jg and revealed the Qur an to him. Among the ways He protected it (the Qur an) was by filling sky with stem guards guarding it from all of its sides. The devils were then expelled from the places where they used to sit prior to that. This was so that they could not steal anything from the Qur an and tell it to the soothsayers, thereby causing matters to be confused and mixed up. If this happened it would not be Al-litm (8-10) (Part-29) known who was being truthful. Allah did this out of His kindness to His creation, His mercy upon His servants and His protection of His Mighty Book (the Qur an). This is why the Jinns said, J&'&ZZK c# &Z2 Cj i3> 4 ife %4 '& iAnd we have sought to reach the heaven ; but found it filled with stern guards and flaming fires. And verily, we used to sit there iti stations, to (steal) a hearing, but any who listens now will find a flaming fire watching him in ambush meaning, whoever would like to steal some information by listening, he will find a flaming fire waiting in ambush for him. It will not pass him or miss him, but it will wipe him out and destroy him completely. pFJ (r j!3 ^ j 44 tsjx V 1)^ iAnd we know not whether evil is intended for those on earth, or whether their Lord intends for them guidance meaning, we do not know if this - the matter which has occurred in the sky - is intended for those who sire in the earth or if their Lord intends some guidance for them. They stated this in such a manner out of their etiquette in phrasing their speech, because they did not attribute the doing of evil to anyone and they attributed the good to Allah. Verily, it has been recorded in the Sahih, Jjdi - And evil is not attributed to You (Allah) .n' 1 It used to be that shooting stars (meteors) occurred before this, however it did not happen much, rather only occasionally. As was reported in the Hadlth of Ibn Abbas when he said, While we were sitting with the Messenger of Allah 5&> a shooting star flashed in the sky. So the Prophet% said, "?!JU ofijjb 'pZf ' - 1 :535.

What did you all used to say about this? We replied, We used to say that a great person has been bom and a great person has died. The Prophet jg said, nUiJJ ^ \i\ 2.1 JSj .ill& This is not so, rather whenever Allah decrees a matter in the heaven..." and then he went on to narrate the rest of the Hadith) 1] which we have already mentioned in its entirety in Surah Saba'. 121 This is what caused them to seek the reason for this occurrence. So they set out searching in the east and the west. Then they found the Messenger of Allah reciting (the Qur an) while leading his Companions in prayer. Thus, they knew that this Qur an was the reason for the sky being guarded. Therefore, some among them believed in it and the others became more rebellious in their transgression. A discussion of this has preceded in a Hadith of Ibn Abbas concerning Allah s statement in Surat Al-Ahqaf, OjIjLj jjJi \Ju iAnd (remetnber) when We sent towards you (Muhammad) a group of the Jinn (quietly) listening to the Qur'an (46:29) There is no doubt that when so many shooting stars began appearing in the sky, it horrified humans and Jinns alike. They were very disturbed and alarmed by it. They thought that it was the destruction of the world. As-Suddi said, The sky was never guarded except if there was a Prophet in the earth or the religion of Allah was victorious and dominant in the earth. So the devils before the time of Muhammad jg had taken sitting stations for themselves in the heaven of this world and they would listen to the matters that occurred in the heaven.

Al-Iinn (11-17) (Part-29) But when Allah sent Muhammad jg as a Prophet and Messenger, they were suddenly pelted one night (with the flaming, shooting stars). So the people of Ta if were frightened because of this and they began to say, The dwellers of the sky have been destroyed. This was because they saw the severe fires in the sky and the shooting flames. They began freeing their servants and abandoning their luxuries. So Abd Yalayl bin 'Amr bin TJmayr said to them - and he was referred to for judgement among them - Woe to you O people of Ta ifl Hold on to your wealth and look at these guiding stars in the sky. If you see them remaining in their place, then the dwellers of the sky have not been destroyed, rather this has happened because of Ibn Abi Kabshah (- meaning Muhammad jg). And if you look and see that you can no longer see these stars, then verily the dwellers of the sky have been destroyed. So, they looked and saw that the stars still remained, and thus, they kept their wealth. The devils also were frightened during that night. They went to Iblls and informed him of what happened to them. So he (Iblls) said, Bring me a handful of dirt from every land so that I may smell it. So they brought it and he smelled it and said, It is your friend in Makkah. Then he sent a group of seven Jinns to Makkah, and they found the Prophet of Allah standing in prayer in Al-Masjid Al-Haram while reciting the Qur an. They drew near to him eager to hear the Qur an, until their chests almost pressed against him. Then they accepted Islam and Allah revealed their matter to His Messenger sg. In this noble Ayah is an evidence that the Hadith that many of the ignorant people often circulate, which says that the Prophet jg will not remain under the earth more than one thousand years (i.e., the Hour will be before that period) is a baseless lie. We have not seen it in any of the Books (of Hadith). Verily, the Messenger of Allah 3g was asked about the time of the Hour and he would not respond. When Jibril appeared to him in the form of a bedouin Arab, one of the questions he asked the Prophet was, O Muhammad! Tell me about the Hour? So the Prophet replied, tjsiiji^ u" *The one questioned

So that the Prophet of Allah would know that the Messengers had conveyed their Messages from Allah and that the angels have protected them and defended them. 121 This has also been reported by Said bin Abi Arubah from Qatadah, and Ibn Jarir preferred this interpretation.13 Al- Baghawi said, Ya'qCb recited it as. (in order to be known) this means, so that the people may know that the Messengers had conveyed the Message. 4 It also could carry the meaning that the pronoun refers to Allah (i.e., So that He (Allah) may know). This opinion has been mentioned by Ibn Al-Jawzi in Zdd Al-Masir. The meaning of this is that He protects His Messengers through His angels so that they will be able to convey His Messages. He protects what He reveals to them of revelation so that He will know that they have indeed conveyed the Messages of their Lord.Tabari 23:673. ,2 Abdur-Razzaq 3:323. (2:143) Allah also said, iVerily, Allah knows those who believe, and that He knows the hypocrites.) (29:11) It should be added to these examples that from Allah s knowledge is that He knows all things before they

"Is there not for you all an excellent example in me?" So he forbade them from that and made them testify that they would take their wives back. Then he (Said) returned to us and informed us that he went to Ibn Abbas and asked him about the Witr (prayer). Ibn Abbas said, Shall I not inform you of the person who is the most knowledgeable person on the earth about the Witr prayer of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ? He said, Yes. Ibn Abbas then said, Go to A'ishah and ask her, then return to me and inform me of what she tells you. He said, Then I went to Hakim bin Aflah and requested him to go with me to her. But he said, do not want to be near her. Verily, I forbade her from saying anything concerning these two parties (the parties of Ali and Mu'awiyah), but she refused and continued being involved with them (in their conflict). So I adjured him by Allah, so he came with me and we entered upon her (in her house). So she said, Is this the Hakim that I know? He (Hakim) said, Yes. Then she said, Who is this that is with you? He said, Said bin Hisham. She said, Who is Hisham? He said, He is Ibn Amir. She then asked Allah to have mercy upon him (Amir). Then she said, Yes, Amir was a true man. Then I (Said) said, O Mother of the believers! Inform me about the character of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. She replied, Have you not read the Qur'an? I said, Of course. Then she said, Verily, the character of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was the Qur'an. I was about to stand and leave, but then I remembered to ask about the night prayer of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. I said, O Mother of the believers! Inform me about the night prayer of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. She said, Have you not read the Surah, 40 ya H wrapped up.} I said, Of course. She then said, Verily, Allah made standing at night (for prayer) obligatory at the beginning of this Surah, So the Messenger of Allah and his Companions stood for an entire year during the night (in prayer) until their feet swelled. Allah held back the revelation of the end of this Surah for twelve months. Then, Allah revealed the lightening of this burden at the end of this Surah. Then, the standing for night prayer became voluntary after it used to be obligatory.

I was about to leave when I remembered to ask her about the Witr prayer of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. So I said, O Mother of the believers! Inform me about the Witr prayer of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. She said, We used to prepare his Siwak (toothstick) for him and his ablution water, and Allah would awaken him whenever He wished to awaken him during the night. Then, he would clean his teeth with the Siwak and perform ablution. Then, he would pray eight (Rak'ahs) units of prayer and he would not sit during them except at the end of the eighth one. At this point he would sit and remember his Lord the Most High, and supplicate to Him. Afterwards he would stand without saying the greeting of peace (Taslim). He would then pray a ninth unit of prayer and then sit. He would remember Allah Alone and then supplicate to Him (during this sitting). Then, he would say the greetings of peace (to conclude the prayer) making it audible to us. Then, he would pray two more units of prayer after this salutation of peace, while he would be sitting. So these are eleven units of prayer, O my son. Then, when he became older and heavier, he would perform Witr prayer with seven units of prayer, and then he would pray two extra units of prayer after them while sitting after the salutation of peace. So these are nine units of prayer, O my son. Whenever the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to pray a particular prayer, he liked to remain consistent in its performance. If he would ever be preoccupied from performing the night prayer by oversleeping, pain or illness, he would pray twelve units of supererogatory prayer during the day. I do not know of Allah's Prophet ever reciting the entire Qur'an in one night before morning nor did he fast an entire month other than the month of Ramadan. So I went to Ibn Abbas and told him what she had said. Ibn Abbas then said, She has spoken truthfully and if I had went to her house I would have remained until she spoke directly to me and I could see her lips moving. 11 This is how Imam

Therefore, you will be even more deserving of destruction and ruin if you deny your Messenger, because your Messenger is more noble and greater than Prophet Musa, the son of Imran. This has been reported from Ibn Abbas and Mujahid. The Threat of the Day of Judgement Allah says, 4iff ojiU iJlSH } 4Then how can you protect yourselves from the punishment, if you disbelieved, on a Day that will make the children gray-headed?} Ibn Jarir quoted in the recitation of Ibn Mas'ud: How can you, O people, fear a Day that makes the children grey-headed, if you disbelieve in Allah and do not testify to Him? 121 So the first interpretation would mean, how can you attain safety for yourselves from the Day of this great horror if you disbelieve? It could imply the meaning, how can you all attain piety if you disbelieve in the Day of Judgement and reject it. Both of these meanings are good. However, the first interpretation is closer to the truth. And Allah knows best. The meaning of Allah's statement, o'jji feZ &j } 4On a Day that will make the children gray-headed?} is that this will happen due to the severity of its horrors, its earth-quake. At-Tabari 23:693. They are those who are ill and therefore they are not able to perform it, and those who are traveling in the land seeking the bounty of Allah in business and trade, and others who will be busy with that which is more important to them. An example of this is going on expeditions to fight in the way of Allah. This Ayah, rather, this entire Surah was revealed in Makkah even though fighting was not legislated until after it was revealed. Thus, it is among the greatest of the signs of prophethood, because it informs about unseen matters of the future. Al- Awfi reported from Ibn Abbas; iAnd purify your garments!} This means, do not let your garments that you wear be from earnings that are unlawful. It has also been said, Do not wear your clothes in disobedience. Muhammad bin Sirin said,131 iAnd purify your garments!} This means clean them with water. |41 Ibn Zayd said, The idolators would not clean themselves, so Allah commanded him to clean himself and his garments. Allah recounts to him His favors upon him when He says, 4 Leave Me alone (to deal) with whom I created lonely. meaning, he came out of the womb of his mother alone, without any wealth or children. According to what has been stated by As-Suddi, Abu Malik and Asim bin Umar bin Qatadah, they were thirteen (children) in number. * Ibn Abbas and Mujahid said that they were ten. * This was a great blessing in their living with him. 4 And made life smooth and comfortable for him.} meaning, 1 made possible for him to amass wealth, luxuries and other than that. 4 After all that he desires that I should give more. i Then he said: "This is nothing but magic from that of old." $ meaning, this is magic that Muhammad received from those who were before him, and he is merely saying what he got from them. This is why he said, $ & 'I & i This is nothing but the word of a human being!} meaning, it is not the Words of Allah. The person who is mentioned in this discussion is Al-Walid bin Al-Mughirah Al-Makhzumi. He was one of the chiefs of the Quraysh - may Allah curse him. Among the narrations about this is what was reported by Al-'Awfi from Ibn Abbas. He (Ibn Abbas) said, Al-Walid bin Al-Mughirah entered the house of Abu Bakr bin Abi Quhafah and asked him about the Qur'an. When Abu Bakr informed him about it, he left and went to the Quraysh saying, What a great thing this is that Ibn Abi Kabshah is saying. I swear by Allah that it is not poetry, nor magic, nor the prattling of insanity. Verily, his speech is from the Words of Allah! So when a group of the Quraysh heard this they gathered and said, *By Allah, if Al-Walid converts (to Islam) all of the Quraysh will convert. When Abu Jahl bin Hisham heard this he said, *By Allah, I will deal with him for you. So he went to Al-Walid's house and entered upon him. He said to Al-Walid, Don't you see that your people are collecting charity for you? Al-Walid replied, Don't I have more wealth and children than they do? Abu Jahl answered, They are saying that you only went to Ibn Abi Quhafah's house so that you can get some of his food. Al-Walid then said, Is this what my tribe is saying? Nay, by Allah, I am not seeking to be close to Ibn Abi Quhafah, nor T Jmar, nor Ibn Abi Kabshah. And his speech is only inherited magic of old. So Allah revealed to His

Messenger sg, }Leave me alone with whom I created lonely.} until His statement, m He meant the Prophet jg.

Then their organs will be changed into something else. They will remain in this (form), not living or dying. This was stated by Ibn Buraydah, Abu Sinan and others. 131 Concerning Allah s statement, At-Tabari 24:24. See also Al-Hakim 2:507, who graded it Sahih and Adh-Dhahabi agreed. It has been said that Abu Al- Ashaddayn, and his name was Kaladah bin Usayd bin Khalaf, said, O people of Quraysh! You defend me against two of them and I will defend you against seventeen of them. He said this thinking himself to be very great. For they claimed that he achieved such strength that he would stand on a skin meaning, by way of examples like this, faith becomes firm in the hearts of some people and it is shaken with others. This has a profound wisdom and it is an irrefutable proof. None knows the Soldiers of Allah except Him Allah says, (7) And none can know the hosts of your Lord but He. meaning, none knows their number and their count except Allah. This is so that one does not make the mistake of thinking that they are only nineteen in all. It has been confirmed in the Hadith concerning Al-Mas'ud that is reported in the Two Sahih and other collections, that the Messenger of Allah said in describing the Frequented House (Al-Bayt Al-Ma'mur), which is in the seventh heaven, (8) I swear by Allah, it is seventy thousand angels enter into it every day and they do not return to it as it is all that is due upon them (one visit in their lifetime). Opening

Opening Al-Qiyamah (1-15) (Part-29) Allah said; 4Does man think tlwt We shall not assemble his bones?} meaning, on the Day ofJudgement does he think that We are not able to return his bones and gather them from their various places? J iif 4Yes, We are able to put together in perfect order the tips of his fingers.} meaning, does man think that We will not gather his bones? Surely, We will gather them and We are quite able to put together his fingertips. This means Our power is suitable to gather (and recreate) them, and if We wished We could surely resurrect him with more than what he originally had. We could make his Banan, which are the tips of his fingers, all equal (in length). Concerning Allah s statement, +4& iNay! Man desires to break out ahead ofhimself.} Said reported from Ibn Abbas that he said, This means to proceed forward. Mujahid said about, ito break out ahead ofhimself.} This means that he wants to proceed ahead following his own whims. Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from Ibn Abbas that he said, This refers to the disbeliever who denies the Day of Reckoning. Ibn Zayd said the same thing. Thus, Allah says after this, fk Js-4He asks: When will be this Day ofResurrection?"} meaning, he says when will the Day of Judgement be? Say : The appointment to you is for a Day, which you cannot put backfor an Iwur nor putforward."} (34:29-30) Here Allah says, 4So, when Bariqa the sight.} Abu Amr bin Al-Ala recited this Ayah as Bariqa with a Kasrah under the letter J?d,m which means to be diminished. That which he (Abu Amr) has said resembles the statement of Allah, iTheir gaze returning not towards them.} (14:43) meaning, they will be looking this way and that way in horror. Their gaze will not be able to rest upon anything due to the severity of the terror on that Day. Others recited it as Baraqa with a Fathah over the letter Ra, and its meaning is close to the first recitation (Bariqa). The intent here is that the eyes will be dazzled, humbled, diminished, and humiliated qn the Day of Judgement due to the severity of the horrors and the greatness of the matters that they will witness on that Day. Concerning Allah s statement, 4And the moon will be eclipsed.} meaning, its light will go away. 4And the sun and moon will be joined together.} Mujahid said, They will be rolled up. ^ In explaining this Ayah, Ibn Zayd recited the following Ayat,  As is known from the recitation ofHafs.Jabari 24:57.

266 Tafslr Ibn Kathir The Deeds ofMan willbe placed before Him on the Day ofJudgement Then Allah says, ^ i ts. iOti that Day man will be informed of what he sent forward, and what he left behind.} meaning, he will be informed of all of his deeds, the old of them and the recent of them, the first of them and the last of them, the small of them and the large of them. This is as Allah says, itL iJL* U iAnd they will find all that they did, placed before them, and your Lord treats no one with injustice.}

(18:49) Likewise, Allah says here, }Nay! Man will be well informed about himself, though he may putforth his excuses.} meaning, he will be a witness against himself, knowing full well what he did, even though he will try to make excuses and deny it. This is as Allah says, 4 (11 will be said to him): "Read your book. You are sufficient as a reckoner against yourself this Day."} Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas said, 4Nay! Man will be well informed about himself.} His hearing, his sight, his two hands, his two legs and his limbs. Qatadah said, This means he is a witness against himself. Al-Oiyamah (16-25) (Part-29) The Cause ofrejecting the Day ofJudgement is Love of the World and Heedlessness ofthe Hereafter Concerning Allah s statement, iBut no! Rather you love the present life of this world. And neglect the Hereafter.} meaning, the only thing that has caused them to reject the Day of Judgement and oppose the true revelation and the Mighty Qur an Allah revealed to His Messenger jg is that their only concern is the present worldly life. They are preoccupied and distracted from the Hereafter. Seeing Allah in the Hereafter Then Allah says, iSomefaces that Day shall be Nadirah.} which comes from the word Nadarah, which means splendid, radiant, glowing, delighted with goodness. Looking at their Lord.} meaning, they will see Him with their very eyes. This is just as was recorded by

Then he recited this Ayah, 2UB  FathAl-Bari 13:430, 431 and Muslim 1 :163,162. FathAl-Bari 13:429, and Muslim 1 :439.

Al-Oiudmah (16-25) (Part-29) 4For those who have done good is the best and extra (Ziyddah).} (10:26)m Also among the Hadiths, which Muslim was alone in recording, is the Hadith of Jabir in which the Prophet jg said, 3 jl" " Verily, Allah will appear before the believers while He is laughing . " This will take place on the open plains of the Resurrection place. In some of these Hadiths, it mentions that the believers will be looking at their Lord on the open plains and some mention that this will occur in the Gardens of Paradise. If it were not due to fear of taking up a lot of space, we would present all of these Hadiths with their routes of transmission and wordings from those that are in the Sahih collections, the collections of good narrations, the Musnad collections and the Sunan collections. However, we have mentioned this in separate places in this Tafsir, and Allah is the Giver of success. This issue is something that the Companions, the Successors and the Salaf of this nation have agreed upon, and all praise is due to Allah. It is something that is agreed upon between the Imams of Islam and the guides of all mankind. Blackening of the Faces of the Disobedient People on the Day of Judgement Allah says, 4TO 0 4And some faces that Day will be Bdsirah. Thinking that some calamity is about to fall on them These are the faces of the sinners that will be Bdsirah on the Day of Judgement. Qatadah said, This means gloomy. As- Suddi said, They will be certain that they are going to be destroyed. Ibn Zayd said, They will think that they are going to enter into the Hellfire. This situation is similar to Allah s statement, &>> w w fjir 4On the Day when somefaces will become white and somefaces will become black.} (3:106) Similarly Allah says, (&}@ <"& itk tjtio 4Somefaces that Day will be bright. 276 Tafstr Ibn Kathtr 440. Is it not so then, that He would be able to give life to the dead?) Certainty will occur at the Time ofDeath Allah informs of the condition at the time of death and what terrors it contains. May Allah make us firm at that time with the Firm Statement. Allah says, 4Nay, when it reaches to the collarbones.) If we make the word Kalla." negative, then this Ayah means, O son of Adam! You are not able to deny that which I informed you of at that time (death). This will become something witnessed by you with your own eyes. If we consider the word Kalla. to be a word of affirmation, then this would be the most obvious meaning. In this case it would mean that it is certainly true when the soul reaches the collarbones - meaning, your soul will be pulled out of your body and it will reach your collarbones. This is similar to Allah s statement, 4Then why do you not (intervene) when (the soul of the dying person) reaches the throat? And you at the moment are looking on, butWe are nearer tohim than you, butyou see not, then why do you not ifyou are exemptfrom the reckoning and recompense, bring back the soul, ifyour are truthful?) (56:83-87) Thus, Allah similarly says here, S 0* ui it) 4Nay, when it reaches to the collarbones. And it will be said: "Who can cure him?) Ikrimah reported from Ibn Abbas that he said, Meaning, who is the person who recites divine prayers of healing so that he may come and cure him? Abu Qilabah made a similar statement when he said, (i| At-Tabari 24:75.

Jt I* ipueS^ iSo worship what you like besides Him.) (39:15) And like Allah s statement, 4 L C \p\) $Do what you will.) (41:40) There are other examples of this as well. Abu Abdur-Rahman iDoes man think that he will be left neglected?} As-Suddi said, Meaning not resurrected. Mujahid, Ash-Shafil and Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin Aslam, all said, Meaning, he will not be commanded and prohibited." Apparently the Ayah includes both meanings. This means that he will not be left neglected in this worldly life, without being commanded and prohibited. He also will not be left neglected in his grave unattended to without being resurrected. Rather he will be commanded and prohibited in this life, and gathered back to Allah in the abode of the Hereafter. The intent here is to affirm the existence of the abode of the final return and to refute whoever rejects it from the people of deviance, ignorance and stubbornness. Thus, Allah uses the beginning of creation as a proof for the repetition of the creation in His saying, Jr he not a Nutfah of semen emitted? meaning, was not man a weak drop of sperm from a despised fluid known as semen, that is emitted from the loins into the wombs? Then he became an 'Alaqah; then shaped and fashioned in due proportion . meaning, he became a clot, then a lump of flesh, then he was formed and the soul was blown into him. Then he became a perfect creation with healthy limbs, as either a male or a female by the permission and decree of Allah. Thus, Allah says, And made of him two sexes, male and female. Then Allah says, uA J# iA A Is it not so then, that He would be able to give life to the dead? meaning, is not He Who made this perfect creation from this weak drop of sperm able to repeat that as He did originally?

282 Tafslr Ibn Kathir And the ability to repeat that either refers to the origination only, or to both that and the process of perfecting it, according to two different views, as in Allah s saying; /t // > " 'l' It \K .If f jVUJ' 'j-O y^Jr i And He it is Who originates the creation, then He will repeat it; this is easier for Hint.} (30:27) The first view is more popular, and Allah knows best. The Recitation of SuratAs-Sctfdah and Al-Insan in the Morning Prayer on Friday It has been mentioned previously that it is recorded in Sahih Muslim from Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah jg used to recite in the Morning prayer on Friday: iAlifLam Mtm. The revelation.. .^(32) and; iHas there not been over matt...} (76) [2 In the Name ofAllah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. % jfi] 11 . 284 Tafstr Ibn Kathir not even a thing worth mentioning, due to his lowliness and weakness. Allah says, iHas there not been over man a period of time, when he was not a thing worth mentioning?) Then Allah explains this by saying, iliS j iVerily, We have created manfrom Nutfah Amshaj,) meaning, mixed. The words Mashaj and Mashij mean something that is mixed together. Ibn Abbas said concerning Allah s statement, iiti #) ifrom Nutfah Amshaj,) This means the fluid of the man and the fluid of the woman when they meet and mix. Then man changes after this from stage to stage, condition to condition and color to color. Ikrimah, Mujahid, Al-Hasan and Ar-RabT bin Anas all made statements similar to this. They said, Amshaj is the mixing of the man s fluid with the woman s fluid. 12, Concerning Allah s statement, iin order to try him,) means, We test him. It is similar to Allah s statement, p] p' l) iThat He may test you which ofyou is best in deed.) The word Yashrabu (to drink) includes the meaning of Yarwa (to quench one's thirst). Allah then says, 4 (fry 4causing it to gush forth abundantly (Tajjir).} meaning, they will have control of it however and wherever they wish. They will have access to it from their castles, their homes, their sitting rooms and their residences. At-Tajjir means to cause to gush forth or flow out. This is as Allah says, .I,*? The Deeds of these Righteous People Allah says, i(yr M& }They fulfill vows, and they fear a Day whose evil will be wide-spreading.} meaning, they devote to worship Allah using that which He made obligatory upon them from actions of obligatory obedience that is based on Islamic legislation. Ibn Abbas said, At that time (when this Ayah was revealed) their (the Muslims) captives were idolaters. * Proof for this is that on the day of Badr the Messenger of Allah jg commanded his Companions to treat the captives respectfully. The Messenger of Allah |S advised treating servants well in more than one Hadith. They do not say this with their tongues, but rather, Allah knows it in their hearts and He commends them for it. Every seeker should seek after this. 4 Jii'iy^ ki ot -" iVerily, We fear from our Lord a Day that is Abus and Qamtarir.} meaning, we only do this so that perhaps Allah may have mercy on us and treat us with gentleness on the Day that is Abus and Qamtarir. Ikrimah and others said from Ibn Abbas, 4a Day that is Abus and Qamtarir (hard and distressful, that will make thefaces look horriblefrom extreme dislike to it.)) The disbeliever will frown on that day until sweat will flow between his eyes like tar. 12 ' Mujahid said, Abus 'Abis means (frowning with) the two lips and Qamtarir means drawing up the face in a scowl. Said bin Jubayr and Qatadah said, Faces will be made to frown due to dismay. Qamtarir is the contraction of the forehead and what is between the two eyes due to dismay. Ibn Zayd said, Abus is the evil and Qamtarir is the severity. Some DetailsconcerningtheRewardoftheRighteousin Paradise and what it contains ofDelights Allah says, 4So,

Then it will be as if they were inspired with what to do, so they will drink from one of them and Allah will remove whatever harmfulness there may be within them. The Revelation of this Surat and its Recitation in the Maghrib Prayer

4By the Mursalat (Urfa.) (77:1) so she said, O my son! You reminded me with your recitation of this Surat. Verily, it is the last thing I heard from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. He recited it in the Maghrib prayer (i.e., before he died). "I 1 * Both

il5. Woe that Day to the deniers (of the Day of Resurrection)!} Allah's swearing by Different Creatures about the Occurrence of the Hereafter Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Abu Hurayrah said, 4By the Mursalat (Urfa.)} The angels. From Masruq, Abu Ad- Duha, Mujahid in one narrations from him, As-Suddi and Ar- Rabi bin Anas, statements similar to this have been reported. It has been reported from Abu Salih that he said, These are the Messengers. In another narration from him (Abu Salih) he said that it means the angels. Abu Salih has also said the meaning of Al-'Asifat, An-Nashirat, Al-Fariqat and Al-Mulqiyat, that they all refer to the angels. Ath-Thawri narrated from Salamah bin Kuhayl, who reported from Muslim Al-Batin, who reported from Abu Al-TJbaydayn that he asked Ibn Mas'ud about the meaning of Al-Mursalat (Urfa), and he (Ibn Mas'ud) said, The wind. He said the same about Al-'Asifat 'Asfa and An-Nashirat Nashra, that they all refer to the wind.¹¹¹ Ibn Abbas, Mujahid and Qatadah all said the same.¹²¹ Ibn Jarir confidently affirmed that Al-'Asifat Asfa means the wind just as Ibn Mas'ud and those who followed him said. However, he (Ibn Jarir) did not affirm whether An-Nashirat Nashra are the angels or the wind as has preceded. It has been reported from Abu Salih that An-Nashirat Nashra is the rain. The most obvious meaning is as Allah says, }And we send the winds fertilizing.} (15:22) He also says, 1 U \ > *j iAnd it is He Who sends the winds as heralds of glad tidings, going before His mercy (rain).} (7:57) At-Tabari 24:124, 125. Tabari 24:123-126.

Similarly, Al-'Asifat are winds. It is said (in Arabic) that the winds Asifat when they make noise with their blowing. Likewise, An-Nashirat are the winds that scatter into clouds in the horizons of the sky according to the will of the Lord. Allah then says, & ^ iThe Fariqat that separate, the Mulqiyat that remind, excusing or warning. ^ meaning, the angels. This was said by Ibn Mas'ud, Ibn Abbas, Masruq, Mujahid, Qatadah, Ar-Rabi bin Anas, As-Suddi and Ath-Thawri.¹¹¹ There is no difference of opinion here, because they (the angels) are the ones who descend with Allah's command to the Messengers, separating between the truth and falsehood, guidance and misguidance, and the lawful and the forbidden. They bring the revelation to the Messengers, which contains exemption or absolvment for the creatures and a warning for them of Allah s torment if they oppose His command. Allah said, iSurely, what you are promised will occur. This is the subject of these oaths. This means, what you all have been promised concerning the establishment of the Hour (Judgement Day), the blowing of the horn, the resurrection of the bodies, the gathering of those of old and those of latter times on one common ground and the rewarding of eveiy doer of a deed based upon his deed. If he did good, then his reward will be good, and if he did evil, then his reward will be evil. All of this will occur, meaning it will come to pass and there is no avoiding it. This is as Allah says, iAnd they ask you concerning the mountains : Say, "My Lord will blast them and scatter them as particles of dust."} (20:105) Allah also says, * > * f " Iff v jJ* ujC iSjj pjy? iAnd (remember) the Day We shall cause the mountains to pass away (like clouds of dust), and you will see the earth as a leveled plain, and we shall gather them all together so as to leave not one of them behind.} (18:47) Then He says, iAnd when the Messengers are Uqqitat.} Al- Awfi narrated from Ibn Abbas that he said that Uqqitat means Gathered. * Ibn Zayd said, This is similar to Allah s statement, At-Tabari 24:129.

^ ' k }' & iOn the Day when Allah will gather the Messengers together Mujahid said, iUqqitat.^ This means postponed. 21 Ath-Thawri narrated from Mansur, who narrated from Ibrahim that he said concern- ing the word, ! > iUqqitat.} This means promised. 131 It seems as though he holds this to be similar to Allah s statement, 4 ^ ' * & iAnd the earth will shine with the light of its Lord : and the Book will be produced ; and the Prophets and the witnesses will be brought forward; and it will be judged between them with truth, and they will not be wronged.> (39:69) Then Allah says, 4For what Day are these signs postponed? Allah said, iThey will abide therein Ahqab.} meaning, they will remain in it for Ahqab, which is the plural of Huqb. Huqb means a period of time. Khalid bin Ma'dan said, This Ayah, and the Ayah, i$} its iexcept your Lord wills.} (11:107) both refer to the people of Tawhid. ^ Ibn Jarir recorded this statement. Ibn Jarir also recorded from Salim that he heard Al-Hasan being asked about Allah's statement, 4cpiid 'q hJ} iThey will abide therein Ahqab} In reference to Ahqab, it has no specific amount of time other than its general meaning of eternity in the Hellfire. However, they have mentioned that the Huqb is seventy years, and every day of it is like one thousand years according to your reckoning (in this life). 12' Said reported from Qatadah that he said, Allah says, iThey will abide therein Ahqab.} (78:23) And it is that which has no end to it. Whenever one era comes to an end, a new era follows it. It has been mentioned to us that the Huqb is eighty years. this Ahqab is, except for Allah, the Mighty and Sublime. It has been mentioned to us that one Huqb is eighty years, and the year is three hundred and sixty days, and each day is equivalent to one thousand years according to your reckoning (in this life). Ibn Jarir has recorded both of these state- ments. 11 Allah's statement: ft iNothing cool shall they taste therein, nor any drink> meaning, they will not find any coolness in Hell for their hearts, nor any good drink for them to partake of. Thus, Allah says, i&J&j 'Or 4Except Hamim, and Ghassaq} Abu Al- Aliyah said, The Hamim has been made an exception to the coolness, and Ghassaq is the exception to the drink. ' This has also been said by Ar- Rabi bin Anas. In reference to the Hamim, it is the heat that has reached its maximum temperature and point of boiling. The Ghassag131 is gathered from the pus, sweat, tears, and wounds of the people of Hellfire. It is unbearably cold with an intolerable stench. May Allah save us from that by His beneficence and grace. Then He continues, 4An exact recompense .^ meaning, that which will happen to them of this punishment is in accordance with their wicked deeds, which they were doing in this life. which they would be taken to account. iBut they denied Our Aydt Kidhhaba meaning, they used to deny the evidences of Allah and His proofs for His creation, which He revealed to His Messengers. So they met these proofs with rejection and obstinance. His statement, iKidhhaba} it means rejection, and it is considered a verbal noun that does not come from a verb. Allah said; iAnd all things We have recorded in a Book meaning, surely We know the deeds of all of the creatures, and We have written these deeds for them. We will reward them based upon this. If their deeds were good then their reward will be good, and if their deeds were evil their reward will be evil. Allah then says, iSo taste you. No increase shall We give you, except in torment. This means that it will be said to the people of the Hellfire, Taste that which you were in. We will never increase you in anything except torment according to its type (of sin), and something else similar to it. Qatadah. reported from Abu Ayyub Al-Azdi, who reported from Abdullah bin Amr that he said, Allah did not reveal any Ayah against the people of the Hellfire worse than this Ayah, iSo taste you. No increase shall We give you, except in torment.Y Then he said, They will continue increasing in torment forever. 111 m At-Tabari 24:169.

will wish that he had not been created and that he had never come into existence. This will be when he sees the torment of Allah and he looks at his wicked deeds that will be written down against him by the noble righteous scribes among angels. It has been said that he will only wish for that when Allah passes judgement between all of the animals that were in the worldly life. He will rectify matters between them with His just wisdom that does not wrong anyone. Even the hornless sheep will be allowed to avenge itself against the sheep with horns. Then, when the judgement between them is finished, He (Allah) will say to them (the animals), Be dust. So they will all become dust. Upon witnessing this the disbeliever will say, iWould that I were dust!} meaning, 1 wish I was an animal so that I would be returned to dust. Something of similar meaning to this has been reported in the well-known Hadith about the Siir. There are also narrations recorded from Abu Hurayrah, Abdullah bin Amr, and others concerning this.

Swearing by Five Characteristics that the Day of Judgement will occur Ibn Mas'ud, Ibn Abbas, Mas'ud, Said bin Jubayr, Abu Salih, Abu Ad-Duha and As-Suddi all said, 4fiy those who pull out, drowning. These are the angels who remove the souls from the Children of Adam. 111 Among them are those whose souls are removed by the angels with difficulty, as if he is being drowned during its removal. There are those people whose souls the angels remove with ease, as if they were unraveling him (i.e., his soul from him) due to their briskness. This is the meaning of Allah's statement, 4By those who free briskly. This has been mentioned by Ibn Abbas. ' In reference to Allah's statement, 4And by the swimmers, swimming.) Ibn Mas'ud said, They are the angels. 13' Similar statements have been reported from Ali, Mujahid, Said bin Jubayr, and Abu Salih.'4 ' Concerning Allah's statement, 4And by the racers, racing.) It has been narrated from Ali, Mas'ud, Mujahid, Abu Salih, and Al-Hasan Al-Basri that this means the angels.'5 ' Then Allah says, 4:>:0 4And by those who arrange affairs.) An-Nazi'at (1-14) (Part-30) Ali, Mujahid, Ata , Abu Salih, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, Ar-Rabi' bin Anas, and As-Suddi all said, They are the angels. * Al- Hasan added, They control the affairs from the heaven to the earth, meaning by the command of their Lord, the Mighty and Majestic.

and what They will say Then Allah says, iOn the Day the Rajifah shakes, followed by the Radifah.} Ibn Abbas said, These are the two blasts (of the Trumpet) - the first and the second. * Mujahid, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, Ad- Dahhak and others have made similar statements. * It has been reported from Mujahid that he said, In reference to the first, it is the statement of Allah, i^Jf 0 iOn the Day the Rajifah shakes,}

This is similar to Allah's statement, {On the Day the earth and the mountains shake.} (73:14) The second is Ar-Radifah, and it is like the Allah's statement, {And the earth and mountains shall be removed from their places, and crushed with a single crushing.} (69: 14) Concerning Allah's statement, {Hearts that Day will tremble.} Ibn Abbas said, This means m At-Tabari 24:190, Al-Qurtubi 19:194, and Ad-Durr Al-Manthur 8:403-405.. afraid. Mujahid and Qatadah also said this. {Their vision humiliated.} meaning, the eyes of the people. It means that the eyes will be lowly and disgraced from what they will witness of terrors. Allah then says, {They say : "Shall we indeed be brought back from Al-Hdfirah? } meaning, the idolators of the Quraysh and whoever rejects the Hereafter as they did. They consider the occurrence of the resurrection after being placed in Al-Hafirah - which are the graves - as something farfetched. This has been said by Mujahid.³¹ They feel that this is something impossible after the destruction of their physical bodies and the disintegration of their bones and their decaying. Thus, Allah says, {Even after we are bones Nakhirah?} It has also been recited: (Ndkhirah) Ibn Abbas, Mujahid and Qatadah, all said, This means decayed. ⁴¹ Ibn Abbas said, It is the bone when it has decayed and air enters into it. Concerning their saying, {It would in that case be a return with loss.} (79:12) Muhammad bin Ka*b said that the Quraysh said, If Allah brings us back to life after we die, then surely we will be losers. ¹⁵¹ Allah then says, Tabari 24:193. The people will be standing and looking. This will be when Allah commands the angel Israfil to blow into the Stir, which will be the blowing of the resurrection. At that time the first people and the last people will all be standing before their Lord looking. This is as Allah says, >'4 4 A - fjt} {On the Day when He will call you, and you will answer with His praise and obedience, and you will think that you have stayed but a little while!} (17:52) Allah has also said, }And our commandment is but one as the twinkling of an eye.} (54:50) Allah also says, JJ%} 4And the matter of the Hour is not but as a twinkling of the eye, or even nearer.} (16:77) Allah then says, {When behold, they are at As-Sahirah.} Ibn Abbas said, As- Sahirah means the entire earth. ¹¹¹ Said bin Jubayr, Qatadah and Abu Salih have all said this as well. Hcrimah, Al-Hasan, Ad-Dahhak, and Ibn Zayd have all said, As-Sahirah means the face of the earth. ¹²¹ Mujahid said, They will be at its (the earth's) lowest part, and they will be brought out to highest part. Then he said, As-Sahirah is a level place. ¹³¹ Ar-RabT bin Anas said, m At-Tabari 24:198. At-Tabari 24:198. Tabari 24 :198 , and Ad-DurrAl-Manthur8 :408

He mentions that he sent Musa to Fir'awn and He aided him with miracles. Yet, even after this, Fir'awn continued in his disbelief and transgression until Allah seized him with a mighty and powerful punishment. Thus is the punishment of whoever opposes you (Muhammad jg) and rejects that which you have been sent with. This is why Allah says at the end of the story, 4In this is a Lesson for whoeverfears.) Allah begins by saying, 4Has there come to you the story ofMusa?) meaning, have you heard of his story? 4VWhen his Lord called him) meaning, He called out speaking to him. 4cr2ii fji) 4in the holy valley) meaning purified 4Tuwa) According to what is correct, it is the name of a valley.

So what happened with him was that his heart disbelieved, and Musa (i.e., his call) could not internally or externally affect it. Along with this, his knowledge that what Musa had come to him with was the truth, did not necessitate his being a believer in it. This is because recognition is the knowledge of the heart, and faith is its action. And it (faith) is to comply with the truth and submit to it. Concerning Allah s statement, it ^ 'b

This was by his gathering the group of magicians in order to confront that which Musa had come up with of spectacular miracles. 4So he gathered (his people) and called out meaning, among his people. iAnd after that He spread the earth,} He explains this statement by the statement that follows it, iAnd brought forth therefrom its water and its pasture.} It already has been mentioned previously in Surat Ha Mim As- Sajdah111 that the earth was created before the heaven was created, but it was only spread out after the creation of the heaven. This means that He brought out what was in it with a forceful action. This is the meaning of what was said by Ibn Abbas and others, and it was the explanation preferred by Ibn Jarir.l2 ! In reference to the statement of Allah, iAnd the mountains He has fixed firmly,} meaning, He settled them, made them firm, and established them in their places. And He is the Mbst Wise, the All-Knowing. He is Most Kind to His creation, Most Merciful. Allah then says, <&&&& 4As provision and benefitfor you and your cattle.} meaning, He spread out the earth, caused its springs to gush forth, brought forth its hidden benefits, caused its rivers to flow, and caused its vegetation, trees, and fruits to grow. He also made its mountains firm so that it (the earth) would be calmly settled with its dwellers, and He stabilized its dwelling places. All of this is a means of beneficial enjoyment for His creatures (mankind) providing them of what cattle they need, which they eat and ride upon. Honorable and obedient.} The Prophet being reprimanded because He frowned at a Weak Man. More than one of the scholars of Tafsir mentioned that one day the Messenger of Allah was addressing one of the great leaders of the Quraysh while hoping that he would accept Islam. While he was speaking in direct conversation with him, Ibn Umm Maktam came to him, and he was of those who had accepted Islam in its earliest days. He (Ibn Umm Maktum) then began asking the Messenger of Allah about something, urgently beseeching him. The Prophet hoped that the man would be guided, so he asked Ibn Umm Maktum to wait for a moment so he could complete his conversation. He frowned in the face of Ibn Umm Maktum and turned away from him in order to face the other man. Thus, Allah revealed, He frowned and turned away. Because there came to him the blind man. And how can you know that he might become pure?} meaning, he may attain purification and cleanliness in his soul. Or he might receive admonition, and the admonition might profit him?}

Abasa (1-16) (Part-30) meaning, he may receive admonition and abstain from the forbidden. As for him who thinks himself self-sufficient. To him you attend meaning, you face the rich person so that perhaps he may be guided. What does it matter to you if he will not become pure? meaning, you are not responsible for him if he does not attain purification. But as for him who came to you running. And is afraid. meaning, he is seeking you and he comes to you so that he may be guided by what you say to him. Of him you are neglectful and divert your attention to another. meaning, you are too busy. Here Allah commands His Messenger to not single anyone out with the warning. Rather, he should equal warn the noble and the weak, the poor and the rich, the master and the slave, the men and the women, the young and the old. Then Allah will guide whomever He chooses to a path that is straight. He has the profound wisdom and the decisive proof. Abu Yala and Ibn Jarir both recorded from Aishah that she said about, He frowned and turned away This was revealed about Ibn Umm Maktum, the blind man. He came to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and began saying, Guide me. At the time the Messenger of Allah ﷺ had a man with him who was one of the great leaders of the idolators. So the Prophet ﷺ turned away from him (IbnUmm Maktum) and faced the other man and said.

Qatadah said, &t} iHow ungrateful he is!} This means none is more cursed than he is. 1 ! 'Abasa (17-32) (Part-30 }But he has not done what He commanded him.} Allah is saying that man has not fulfilled for his Lord the obligations that were imposed upon him. creatures and repeats their creation just as He initially created them. The Growth of the Seed and Other Things is a Proof of Life after Death {Then let man look at his food} This is a call to reflect upon Allah's favor. Ibn Abbas and Mujahid both said, It means everything that is gathered and collected. 131 Allah said, iAnd fruits (Fakihah) and herbage (Abb).} Fakihah includes every type of fruit. Ibn Abbas said, Al-Fakihah is everything that is eaten ripe, and Al-Abb is what the earth grows that is eaten by grazing animals and not people. In one narration reported from him he said, It is the grass for the livestock animals. ,5) At-Jabari 24:226. At-Jabari 24 :228,421. At-Jabari 24 :227 At-Tabari 24 :230, 231 Ad-DurrAl-Manthur8 :42 1

Abasa (17-32) (Part-30 Abu TJBayd Al-Qasim bin Sallam reported from Ibrahim At- Taymi that he said, Abu Bakr As-Siddiq was asked about Allah's statement, 4And fruits (Fakihah) and herbage (Abb).) and he said, What sky would shade me and what earth would carry me if I said about the Book of Allah that which I did not have knowledge of. [1) In reference to what Ibn Jarir recorded from Anas, that he said, Umar bin Al-Khattab recited 4Hefrowned and turned away.) then when he reached this Ayah 4And fruits (Fakihah) and herbage (Abb).) he said, We already know what Al-Fakihah is, but what is Al-Abb? Then he said, By your life, O Ibn Al-Khattab, this is something overburdensome (i.e., unnecessary to ask about). '2) This report has an authentic chain of narration. More than one person has narrated it from Anas. The meaning of the narration is that Umar wanted to know how it looks, its type and its exact description, because he (Umar) and everyone who reads this Ayah knows that it is one of the plants that grows from the earth. This is clear due to the Allah's saying, 4And We cause therein the Habb to grow. And grapes and Qadb, and olives and date palms. And Ghulb Hada'iq. And fruits (Fakihah) and herbage (Abb).) And then He says, 4A provision and benefit for you and your cattle.) meaning, a means of livelihood for you all and your cattle in l 1 * Al-Baghawi 4 :449 At-Tabari 24:229.

Abasa (33-42) (Part-30) to get away from them because horror will be so great and the matter will be so weighty. There is an authentic Hadith related concerning the intercession that states that every one of the great Messengers of firm resolve will be requested to intercede with Allah on behalf of the creation, but each of them will say, O myself! O myself! Today I will not ask You (O Allah) concerning anyone but myself. Even 'Isa bin Maryam will say, I will not ask Him (Allah) concerning anyone but myself today. I will not even ask Maryam, the woman who gave birth to me. 111 Thus, Allah says, {That Day shall a man flee from his brother, and from his mother and his father, and from his wife and his children.} Qatadah said, The most beloved and then the next most beloved, and the closest of kin and then the next closest of kin - due to the terror of that Day. Allah said, {Every man that Day will have enough to make him careless of others.} meaning, he will be preoccupied in his business and distracted from the affairs of others. Ibn Abi Hatim recorded from Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah said, {Yo" will all be gathered barefoot, naked, walking and uncircumcised." So his wife said, O Messenger of Allah! Will we look at or see each other's nakedness? The Prophet replied, {Every man among them on that Day will have enough (worries) to make him careless of others* - or he said: they will be too busy to look.* Muslim 1 :182. Al-Hakim 2 :251 . Ibn Abbas narrated that the Prophet 5 said, {You will all be gathered barefoot, naked and uncircumcised." So a woman said, Will we see or look at each other's nakedness? He replied, {O so-and-so woman! Every man among them on that Day will have enough (worries) to make him careless of others. At-Tirmidhi said, This Hadith is Hasan Sahih. ^ The Faces of the People of Paradise and the People of the Fire on the Day of Judgement Allah says; {Some faces that Day will be bright (Musfirah), laughing, rejoicing at good news> meaning, the people will be divided into two parties. What will happen on the Day of Judgement, and that is the rolling up of the Sun Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from Ibn Abbas: 4When the sun is Kuunvirat.} This means it will be darkened. 11 Al- Awfi reported from Ibn Abbas; It will go away. Qatadah said, Its light will go away. Said bin Jubayr said, Kuwwirat means it will sink in. Abu Salih said, Kuwwirat means it will be thrown down. At-Takwir means to gather one part of something with another part of it (i.e., folding). From it comes the folding of the turban (7mamah) and the folding of clothes together. Thus, the meaning of Allah's statement, $> 4Kuwwirat} is that part of it will be folded up into another part of it. Then it will be rolled up and thrown away. When this is done to it, its light will go away.

372 Tafsir Ibn Kathir yuani The sun and the moon will be rolled up on the Day of Judgement .n 1 Al-Bukhari was alone in recording this Hadith and this is his wording of it. Dispersing the Stars 4,^ fy3\ iAnd when the stars Inkadarat> meaning, when they are scattered. This is as Allah says, itgcgs 4#ji iAnd when the stars have fallen and scattered> (82:2) The basis of the word Inkidar is Insib&b, which means to be poured out. Ar-Rabr bin Anas reported from Abu Al- Aliyah, who reported from Ubayy bin Ka'b that he said, Six signs will take place before the Day of Judgement. The people will be in their marketplaces when the sun's light will go away. When they are in that situation, the stars will be scattered. When they are in that situation, the mountains will fall down upon the face of the earth, and the earth will move, quake and be in a state of mixed up confusion. So the Jinns will then flee in fright to the humans and the humans will flee to the Jinns. The domestic beasts, birds and wild animals will mix together, and they will surge together in a wave (of chaos). 4 rs"- iAnd when the wild beasts are gathered together. So they will all go to the sea, and it will be a blazing fire. While they are in that state, the earth will be split with one huge crack that will extend from the lowest, seventh earth to the highest, seventh heaven. So while they are in that state, a wind will come that will kill all of them. Ibn Jarir recorded this narration with this wording. Moving of the

Mujahid said, Uttilat means abandoned and left. * Ubayy bin Ka*b and Ad-Dahhak both said, Their owners will neglect them. Ar-RabT bin Khuthaym said, They will not be milked or tied up. Al-Maw'udah is the female infant that the people of the pre-Islamic time of ignorance would bury in the dirt due to their hatred of girls. Therefore, on the Day of Judgement, the female infant will be asked what sin she committed that caused her to be murdered. This will be a means of frightening her murderer. For verily, if the one who was wronged is questioned, what does the wrongdoer (the one who is guilty of the oppression) think then? Ali bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas said, iAnd when the female infant (Al-Maw'udah) buried alive Su'ilat:} This means that she will ask. Abu Ad-Duha made a similar statement when he said, She will ask, meaning she will demand restitution for her blood. The same has been reported from As-Suddi and Qatadah. Hadiths have been reported concerning the Maw'udah. Imam

The Explanation of the Words Al-Khunnas and Al- Kurinas

$} iAnd by the night when it 'As'as.} There are two opinions about this statement. One of them is that this refers to its advancing with its darkness. Mujahid said, It means its darkening. Said bin Jubayr said, When it begins. Al-Hasan Al-Basri said, When it covers the people. 111 This was also said by Atiyah Al- AwfiJ21 Ali bin Abi Talhah and Al- Awfi both reported from Ibn Abbas: fy} iwlten it 'As'as} This means when it goes away. 131 Mujahid, Qatadah and Ad-Dahhak, all said the same.141 Zayd bin Aslam and his son Abdur-Rahman also made a similar statement, when they said, iivhen it 'As'as} This means when it leaves, and thus it turns away. 151 I believe that the intent in Allah s saying, iwhen it As'as} is when it approaches, even though it is correct to use this word for departing also. However, approachment is a more suitable usage here. It is as if Allah is swearing by the night and its darkness when it approaches, and by the morning and its light when it shines from the east. This is as Allah says, iBy the night as it envelops. By the day as it appears in brightness} (92: 1-2) and He also says, At-Jabari 24:256. At-Tabari 24:256. At-Tabari 24:255. At-Tabari 24:256. At-Tabari 24:256.

iBy the forenoon. By the night when it darkens. (93:1-2) Allah also says, iCleave of the daybreak. He has appointed night for resting.> (6:96) And there are other similar Ayat that mention this. Many of the scholars of the fundamentals of language have said that the word As'as is used to mean advancing and retreating, with both meanings sharing the same word. Therefore, it is correct that the intent could be both of them, and Allah knows best. Concerning Allah s statement, iAtid by the day when it Tanaffas.} Ad-Dahhak said, When it rises. He is respected and has been chosen for (the delivery of) this magnificent Message. Allah then says, 4trustworthy.4 This is a description of Jibril as being trustworthy. This is something very great, that the Almighty Lord has commended His servant and angelic Messenger, Jibril, just as He has commended His servant and human Messenger, Muhammad jfe by His statement, 4And your companion is not a madman.} Ash-ShaTfi, Maymun bin Mihran, Abu Salih and others who have been previously mentioned, all said, This refers to Muhammad jg. 40 man! What has made you careless about your Lord, the Most Generous?} This is a threat. It is not an attempt to get a reply as some people mistakenly think. They consider it as if the Most Generous is asking them so that they will say, His honor deceived him (or made him careless of his Lord). rather the meaning of this Ayah is, O Son of Adam! What has deceived you from your Lord, the Most Generous - meaning the Most Great - so that you went forth disobeying Him, and you met Him with that which was unbecoming. 398 Tafsir Ibn Kathir with measurement and weight, either by increasing it if it is due from the others, or decreasing it if it is a debt. Thus, Allah explains that the Mutaffifin - those whom He has promised loss and destruction, whom are meant by Woe - are ij*$m 4 iThose who, when they have to receive by measure from men,} meaning, from among the people. 4demand full measure,} meaning, they take their right by demanding full measure and extra as well. 4And when they have to give by measure or weight to (other) men, give less than due.} meaning, they decrease. Verily, Allah commanded that the measure and weight should be given in full. He says in another Ayah, Sr$ % -ft jXK %&} iAnd give full measure when you measure, and weigh with a balance that is straight. That is good and better in the end.} (17:35) Allah also says, A S if' i,And give full measure and fill weight with justice. Al-Mutaffifin (1-6) (Part-30) Threatening the Mutaffifin with standing before the Lord of all that exists Then Allah says as a threat to them. 4Do they not think that they will be resurrected, on a Great Day?) meaning, do these people not fear the resurrection and standing before He Who knows the hidden matters and the innermost secrets, on a Day that contains great horror and tremendous fright? Whoever loses on this Day will be made to enter into a blazing fire. Then Allah says, 4The Day when (all) mankind will stand before the Lord of all that exists?) meaning, they will stand barefooted, naked and uncircumcised at a station that will be difficult, hard, and distressful for the criminals. They will be covered by the command from Allah, and it will be that, which the strength and the senses will not be able to bare. Imam Malik reported from Nafi* who reported from Ibn Umar that the Prophet jg said. oThis will be the Day that mankind will stand before the Lord of all that exists, until one of them will sink up to the middle of his ears in sweat.

been recorded in the Musnad and the Sunan collections on the authority of Bahz bin Haldm bin Mu'awiyah bin Haydah, who reported from his father, who reported from his grandfather that the Messenger of Allah jg said, J JJj 1 wi>< (Jij Woe unto whoever speaks, and lies in order to make the people laugh. Woe unto him, woe unto him .")²¹ Then Allah says, in explaining who are the wicked, disbelieving deniers, iThose who deny the Day ofRecompense.> meaning, they do not believe it will happen, and they do not believe in its existence. Thus, they consider it a matter that is farfetched. Allah then says, iAnd none can deny it except every transgressor, sinner.> meaning, transgressive in his actions by doing that which is forbidden and exceeding the limits when acquiring the 111 Ad-DurrAl-Manthur8 :444 ' An-Nasal in Al-Kubrd6 :509 permissible. He is a sinner in his statements, because he lies whenever he speaks, he breaks his promises whenever hemakes them, and he behaves in an abusive and wicked manner whenever he argues. Concerning Allah s statement, iWhen Our Aydt are recited to him, he says: "Tales of the ancients!"} meaning, whenever he hears the Words of Allah from the Messenger he denies it and has ill thoughts about it. Thus, he believes that it is a collection gathered from the books of the ancients. But on their hearts is the Ran (covering) which tlthey used to earn.} meaning, the matter is not as they claim, nor as they say: Verily, this Qur an is tales of the ancients. Rather, it is the Word of Allah, His inspiration and His revelation to His Messenger jg. The only thing that blocked their hearts from believing in it is the dark covering cast over it from the many sins and wrong they committed that has covered up their hearts. Thus, Allah says, iNay! It has been reported from Hilal bin Yasaf that Ibn Abbas asked Ka'b about Sijjin while he was present, and Ka*b said, It is the seventh earth and in it are the souls of the disbelievers. Then Ibn Abbas asked him about 'IUiyyin, so he said, It is the seventh heaven and it contains the souls of the believers. 1 11 This statement - that it is the seventh heaven - has been said by others as well. All bin Abi Talhah reported that Ibn Abbas said concerning Allah s state- ment, 4Nay! Verily, the Record of Al-Abrar (the righteous believers) is in IUiyyin.} This means Paradise. Others besides him have said,  Al;-Tabari 24:291. ' At-Tabari 24:290. ' At-Tabari 24 :292

408 Tafcir Ibt Kathtr u, Iliyyin is located at Sidrat Al-Muntaha. [n The obvious meaning is that the word 'Iuiyyin is taken from the word Uluw, which means highness. The more something ascends and rises, the more it becomes greater and increases. Thus, Allah magnifies its affair and extols its matter by saying, iAnd what will make you know what 'Iuiyyin is?} Then He says by way of affirming what will be written for them. It has been said, This means that they will be gazing at their kingdom and what Allah has given them of good and bounties that will not end or perish. It has also been said, iOn thrones, looking.} This means that they will be looking at Allah, the Mighty and Sublime. This is the opposite of what those wicked people have been described with, if I Taban 24 :292 . 4Na{j! Surely, they (evildoers) will be veiled from seeing their Lord that Day.) (83:15) Thus, it has been mentioned that these (righteous people) will be allowed to look at Allah while they Eire upon their thrones and elevated couches. Concerning Allah s statement, 'l . \jJu j)You will recognize in their faces the brightness of delight. meaning, you will notice a glow of delight in their faces when you look at them. This is a description of opulence, decorum, happiness, composure, and authority that they will be experiencing from this great delight. Concerning Allah s statement, fry OJ iThey will be given to drink of pure sealed RahTq .) meaning, they will be given drink from the wine of Paradise. Ar-Rahiq is one of the names of the wine (in Paradise). Ibn Mas fId, Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Al-Hasan, Qatadah and Ibn Zayd all said this. Ibn Mas*Qd said concerning Allah s statement, iSealed with musk,) This means it will be mixed with musk. ¹²¹ Al- Awfi reported from Ibn Abbas that he said, Allah will make the wine have a pleasant aroma for them, so the last thing that He will place in it will be musk. Thus, it will be sealed with musk. ¹³¹ Qatadah and Ad-Dahhak both said the same.¹⁴¹ Then Allah says, 4 Jjj'i j'j))and for this let (all) those strive who want to strive.) On thrones, looking.} 436. Are not the disbelievers paid for what they used to do?} The Wicked Behavior of the Criminals and Their mocking of the Believers Allah informs that the criminals used to laugh at the believers in the worldly life. In other words, they would mock them and despise them. Whenever they would pass by the believers, they would wink at each other about them, meaning in contempt of them. 4And when they returned to their own people, they would return jesting.} meaning, when these criminals turn back, or return to their homes, they go back pleased. This means that whatever they request, they find it. Yet, with this, they still are not grateful for Allah's favor upon them. Rather they busy themselves with despising and envying the believers. J/j> ijli jijij \ij} 4And when they saw them, they said: "Verily, these have indeed gone astray!"} meaning, because they are upon a religion other than their own religion. Allah then says, ijy %} 4But they were not sent as watchers over them.} meaning, these criminals have not been sent as guardians over the deeds and statements of these believers. These wrongdoers have not been made responsible for them. So, why are they so concerned with them, and why have they made them the focus of their attention? This is as Allah says, ^ " * ^&U*p>&S^' &&% it$u X J> 4He (Allah) will say : "Remain you in it with ignominy! And speak you not to Me!" Verily there was a party of My servants, who used to say: "Our Lord! But you took them for a laughing stock, so much so that they made you forget My remembrance while you used to laugh at them! Verily, I have rewarded them this Day for their patience: they are indeed the ones that are successful. (23 :108-111) Thus, Allah says here, & $But this Day} meaning, the Day of Judgement. 4those who believe will laugh at the disbelievers meaning, as retribution for how those people laughed at them. $} $On thrones, looking.} meaning, looking at Allah as reward for bearing the false claims against them that they were misguided. They were not misguided at all. Rather they were the close AwUya of Allah, who will be looking at their Lord in the place of His honor. Concerning Allah's statement, C MX 4Are not the disbelievers paid for what they used to do?} meaning, will the disbelievers be recompensed for their mockery and belittlement against the believers, or not? This means that they surely will be paid in full, completely and perfectly (for their behavior). This is the .end of the Tafsir of Surat Al-Mutaffifin, and all praise and thanks are due to Allah.

The Prostration of Recitation in Surat Al-Inshiqaq It is reported from Abu Salamah that while leading them in prayer, Abu Hurayrah recited, {When the heaven is split asunder.} and he prostrated during its recitation. Then when he completed the prayer, he informed them that the Messenger of Allah prostrated during its recitation. This was recorded by

This will occur on the Day of Judgement. {And it must do so.} meaning, it is right for it to obey the command of its Lord, because it is great and cannot be rejected,

Al-Inshiqaq (1-15) (Part-30) nor overcome. Rather it overpowers everything and everything is submissive to it. Then Allah says, {And when the earth is stretched forth, meaning, when the earth is expanded, spread out and extended. This was said by Mujahid, Said, and Qatadah. {And listens to and obeys its Lord, and it must do so.}

The explanation of this is the same as what has preceded.

The Recompense for Deeds is True Allah says, man! There are some people who refer the pronoun back to the statement your Lord. Thus, they hold the Ayah to mean, and you will meet your Lord. Ibn Jarir chose the view that it means the positions of the sun and the moon, which are twelve Buruj. The sun travels through each one of these Buij (singular of Buruj) in one month. The moon travels through each one of these Burj in two-and-a-third days, which makes a total of twenty-eight positions, and it is hidden for two nights.

The boy used to treat the people suffering from congenital blindness, leprosy, and other diseases. There was a courtier of the king who had become blind and he heard about the boy. He came and brought a number of gifts for the boy and said, "All these gifts are for you on the condition that you cure me. The boy said, "I do not cure anybody; it is only Allah who cures people. When they sat by it. And they witnessed what they were doing against the believers. And they had no fault except that they believed in Allah, the Almighty, Worthy of all praise! To Whom belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth! And Allah is Witness over everything (85 :4-9) This is what Muhammad bin Ishaq said in his book of Sirah - that the one who killed the People of the Ditch was Dhu Nuwas, and his name was Zur'ah. In the time of his kingdom he was called Yusuf. He was the son of Tuban As ad Abi Karib, who was the Tubba who invaded Al-Madlnah and put the covering over the Ka bah. [1 ^ He kept two rabbis with him from the Jews of Al-Madinah. After this some of the people of Yemen accepted Judaism at the hands of these two rabbis, as Ibn Ishaq mentions at length. So Dhu Nuwas killed twenty thousand people in one morning in the Ditch. Only one man among them escaped. He was known as Daws Dhu Thalaban. He escaped on a horse and they set out after him, but they were unable to catch him. He went to Caesar, the emperor of Ash-Sham. So, Caesar wrote to An-Najashi, the King of Abyssinia. So, he sent with him an army of Abyssinian Christians, who were lead by Aryat and Abrahah. They rescued Yemen from the hands of the Jews. Dhu Nuwas tried to flee but eventually fell into the sea and drowned. After this, the kingdom of Abyssinia remained under Christian power for seventy years. Then the power was divested from the Christians by Sayf bin Dhi Yazin Al-Himyari when Kisra, the king of Persia sent an army there (to Yemen). He (the king) sent with him (Sayf Al-Himyari) those people who were in the prisons, and they were close to seven hundred in number. So, he (Sayf Al-Himyari) conquered Yemen with them and returned the kingdom back to the people of Himyar (Yemenis). We will mention a portion of this - if Allah wills - when we discuss the Tafsir of die Surah: iHave you not seen how your Lord dealt with the Owners of the Elephant?^ (105:1) I 1 ' Ibn Hisham 1 : 36. This means that he comes to them unexpectedly at nighttime.} Concerning Allah's statement, i &} 4Ath-Thdqib.} Ibn Abbas said, The illuminating. ,31 Ikrimah said, It is illuminating and it burns the Shaytan. Then Allah says. 4There is no human being but has a protector over him.} meaning, every soul has a guardian over it from Allah that protects it from the calamities. This is as Allah says, 4$ Cii -jit- g. It " At-Tabari 24:351. Al-Bari 9:251 At-Tabari 24:352.

They guard him by the command of Allah.} (13:1 1) How Man is created is a Proof of Allah's Ability to Return Him to Him Allah says. iSo, let man see from what he is created!} This is alerting man to the weakness of his origin from which he was created. The intent of it is to guide man to accept (the reality of) the Hereafter, because whoever is able to begin the creation then he is also able to repeat it in the same way. This is as Allah says, i * >" > 2 jjEJT 4 \ Ji> 4And He it is Who originates the creation, then He will repeat it; and this is easier for Him.} (30:27) Then Allah says, 4He is created from a water gushing forth.} meaning, the sexual fluid that comes out bursting forth from the man and the woman. Thus, the child is produced from both of them by the permission of Allah. Due to this Allah says, ^Proceeding from between the backbone and the ribs.} meaning, the backbone (or loins) of the man and the ribs of the woman, which is referring to her chest. Shabib bin Bishr reported from Ikrimah who narrated from Ibn Abbas that he said. ^Proceeding from between the backbone and the ribs.} The backbone of the man and the ribs of the woman. It (the fluid) is yellow and fine in texture. The child will not be born except from both of them (i.e., their sexual fluids). 111 Ad-Durr Al-Manthor 8 :475 .

Concerning Allah's statement, -* -j ii- [] iVerily, He is Able to bring him back (to life)!} This means that He is able to return this man that is created from fluid gushed forth. In other words, He is able to repeat his creation and resurrect him to the final abode. This is clearly possible, because whoever is able to begin the creation then he surely is able to repeat it. Indeed Allah has mentioned this proof in more than one place in the Qur'an. On the Day of Judgement, Man will have no Power or Assistance In this regard Allah says, #0 iThe Day when all the secrets will be examined.} meaning, on the Day of

Judgement the secrets will be tested. This means that they will be exposed and made manifest. Thus, the secret will be made open and that which is concealed will be well known. For indeed, this worldly life is lowly and temporal, whereas the Hereafter is noble and eternal. Thus, how can an intelligent person prefer that which is short-lived over that which is eternal. Reciting Surat Al-A la and Al-Ghashiyah in the Friday Prayer It has already been mentioned on the authority of An-Nu man bin Bashir that the Messenger of Allah jgg used to recite Surat Al-A la (87) and Al-Ghashiyah in the Id and Friday prayers. Imam Malik recorded that Ad-Dahhak bin Qays asked An-Nu'man bin Bashir, What else did the Messenger of Allah sg recite on Friday along with Surat Al-Jumu'ah? An-Nu man replied, Al-Ghashiyah (88). The Day of Judgement and what will happen to the People ofthe Fire during it Al-Ghashiyah is one of the names of the Day of Judgement. This was said by Ibn Abbas, Qatadah and Ibn Zayd.' ' It has been called this because it will overwhelm the people and overcome them. Allah then says, wi iSome faces that Day will be Khashi'ah.} meaning, humiliated. This was said by Qatadah.121 Ibn Abbas said, They will be humble but this action will be of no benefit to them." Then Allah says. iLaboring, weary$ meaning, they did many deeds and became weary in their performance, yet they will be cast into a blazing Fire on the Day of Judgement. Al-Hafiz Abu Bakr Al-Burqani narrated from Abu Imran Al-Jawni that he said, Umar bin Al-Khattab passed by the monastery of a monk and he said: O monk! Then the monk came out, and Umar looked at him and began to weep. Then it was said to him: O Commander of the faithful! Why are you weeping? He replied: 1 remembered the statement ofAllah, the Mighty and Majestic, in His Book, iLaboring, weary. They will enter into Fire, Hamiyah.} So that is what has made me cry. l3i

The Condition of the People of Paradise on the Day of Judgement After mentioning the situation of the wretched people, Allah changes the discussion to mention those who will be happy. He says,

He says. 4Do they not look at the camels, how they are created?} Indeed it is an amazing creation, and the way it has been fashioned is strange. For it is extremely powerful and strong, yet gentle, carrying heavy loads. It allows itself to be guided by a weak rider. It is eaten, benefit is derived from its hair, and its milk is drunk. They are reminded of this because the most common domestic animal of the Arabs was the camel. Shurayh Al-Qadi used to say, 'Come out with us so that we may look at the camels and how they were created, and at the sky and how it has been raised. Meaning, how Allah raised it in such magnificence above the ground. This is as Allah says, aiQtj Cfej-. SS' Xpj \

462 Tafslr Ibn Kathir Then Allah says, 4$ 4And at the mountains, how they are rooted?} meaning, how they have been erected. For indeed they are firmly affixed so that the earth does not sway with its dwellers. And He made them with the benefits and minerals they contain. JT 4And at the earth, how it is outspread?} meaning, how it has been spread out, extended and made smooth. Thus, He directs the bedouin to consider what he himself witnesses. His camel that he rides upon, the sky that is above his head, the mountain that faces him, and the earth that is under him, all of this is proof of the power of the Creator and Maker of these things. These things should lead him to see that He is the Lord, the Most Great, the Creator, the Owner, and the Controller of everything. Therefore, He is the God other than Whom none deserves to be worshipped. The Story of Dimam bin Tha'labah These are the things Dimam swore by after questioning the Messenger of Allah jlg. Recitation of SuratAl-Fajrin the Prayer

By the daunt;} 42. And by the ten nights,} 43. And by the even and the odd.} 44. And by the night when it departs.} 45. Is there (not) in them sufficient proofs for men of understanding!} 46. Verily, your Lord is Ever Watchful.} The Explanation of Al-Fajrand what comes after it Concerning Al-Fajr, it is well known that it is the morning. This was said by Ali, Ibn Abbas, Ikrimah, Mujahid and As- Suddi.' It has been reported from Masraq and Muhammad bin Ka*b that Al-Fajr refers to the day of Sacrifice (An-Nahr) in particular, and it is the last of the ten nights.'²¹ The ten nights refers to the (first) ten days of Dhul-Hijjah. This was said by Ibn Abbas, Ibn Zubayr, Mujahid and others among the Salaf and the latter generations.'³ ' It has been confirmed in Sahih Al-Bukhari from Ibn Abbas that the Prophet[^] said, {jt rfct 4)1 JJ JaaJI j"UI {jA Ud There are no days in which righteous deeds are more beloved to Allah than these daysj Af-Tabari 24 :395 , and Al-Baghawi 4 :481 [2' Al-Qurjubi 20:39. At-Tabari 24:396.

Al-Fair (1-14) (Part-30) meaning the ten days of Dhul-Hijjah. They said, Not even fighting Jihad in the way of Allah? He replied, iri jlil Jtr- ^_> Not even Jihad in the way of Allah; except for a man who goes out (for Jihad) with his self and his wealth, and he does not return with any of that. Allah then says, mm > iAnd by the even and the odd.} It has been mentioned in a Hadith that Al-Watr (the odd) is the day of Arafah because it falls on the ninth, and Ash-Shafi (the even) is the day of An-Nahr (sacrifice) because it falls on the tenth day. This was also said by Ibn Abbas, Ikrimah and Ad-Dahhak. ' There are also other opinions about the explanation of these two words. Explanation of Night Concerning Allah s statement, iAnd by the night when it departs.} Al- Awfi reported from Ibn Abbas that he said, When it goes away. ' Abdullah bin Zubayr said, iAnd by the night when it departs.} As some parts of it remove other parts of it. ' Mujahid, Abu Al- Aliyah, Qatadah, and Malik who reported it from Zayd bin Aslam and Ibn Zayd, they all said; Al-Bari²:530. The Hadith in question is unauthentic. At-Tabari 24 :397 , 398 ' Al-Tabari 24 :401 At-Tabari 24 :401 iAnd by the night when it departs. When it moves along. ' Concerning Allah's statement, p 4 iThere is indeed in them sufficient proofs for men with Hija!} meaning, for he who possesses intellect, sound reasoning, understanding and religious discernment. The intellect has only been called Hija because it prevents the person from doing that which is not befitting of him of actions and statement. From this we see the meaning of Hija Al-BayP because it prevents the person performing Tawaffrom clinging the wall facing Ash-Sham. Also the term Hija Al-Yamamah (the cage of the pigeon) is derived from this meaning (i.e. prevention). It is said, Hajara Al-Hakim so-and-so (The judge passed a judgement preventing so-and-so), when his judgement prevents the person from his liberty (i.e., of freely utilizing his wealth). Allah says, ft. iAnd they will say: "Hija MahjSr."^ (25:22) All of these examples are different cases but their meanings are quite similar. The oath that is referred to here is about the times of worship and the acts of worship themselves, such as Hajj, Salah and other acts of worship that Allah's pious, obedient, servants who fear Him and are humble before Him, seeking His Noble Face, perform in order to draw nearer to Him. Mentioning the Destruction of Ad After mentioning these people, and their worship and obedience, Allah says, iSaw you not how your Lord dealt with 'Ad?} 'At-Tabari 24:401. ' The area on the northern side of the Ka'bah that is a walled-in precinct. ' Meaning, completely shunned.

Al-Fajr (1-14) (Part-30) These were people who were rebellious, disobedient, arrogant, outside of His obedience, deniers of His Messengers and rejectors of His Scriptures. Thus, Allah mentions how He destroyed them, annihilated them and made them legends to be spoken of and an exemplary lesson of warning. He says, 4Saw you not how your Lord dealt with Ad? Iram of the pillars,} These were the first people of Ad. They were the descendants of Ad bin Iram bin Aws bin Sam bin NUh. This was said by Ibn Ishaq. 11 They are those to whom Allah sent His Messenger Hdd. However, they rejected and opposed him. Therefore, Allah saved him and those who believed with him from among them, and He destroyed others with a furious, violent wind. Ji* it'lr* JtJ \jCj.} 4Which Allah imposed on them for seven nights and eight days in succession, so that you could see men lying overthrown, as if they were hollow trunks of date palms! Do you see any remnants of them?} (69:7-8) Allah mentioned their story in the Qur'an in more than one place, so that the believers may learn a lesson from their demise. Allah then says, 4Iram of the pillars.} This is an additional explanation that adds clarification who they actually were. Concerning His saying, 4of the pillars.} is because they used to live in trellised houses that were raised with firm pillars. They were the strongest people of their time in their physical stature, and they were the mightiest people in power. Thus, Hud reminded them of this m At-Tabari 24 :404 blessing, and he directed them to use this power in the obedience of their Lord Who had created them. He said, tft; to: 4 -m it iAnd remember that He made you successors after the people of Niih and increased you amply in stature. So remember the graces from Allah so that you may be successful.^ (7:69) Allah also said, it dSt ! JJ i!. lit 4As for 'Ad, they were arrogant in the land without right, and they said: "Who is mightier than us in strength?" See they not that Allah Who created them was mightier in strength than them.)(41:15} And Allah says here, 4 ?& 4The like of which were not created in the land?) meaning, there had been none created like them in their land, due to their strength, power and their great physical stature. Mujahid said, Iram was an ancient nation who were the first people of Ad. Qatadah bin Di'amah and As-Suddi both said, Verily, Iram refers to the House of the kingdom of Ad. This latter statement is good and strong. Concerning Allah's statement, 4 $ Jf) 4The like of which were not created in the land?) Ibn Zayd considered the pronoun of discussion here to refer to the pillars, due to their loftiness. He said, They built pillars among the hills, the likes of which had not been constructed in their land before. However, Qatadah and Ibn Jarir m At-Jabari 24 :406 considered the pronoun of discussion to refer to the tribe (of Ad), meaning that there was no tribe that had been created like this tribe in the land - meaning during their time.' 11 And this latter view is the correct position. The saying of Ibn Zayd and those who follow his view is a weak one, because if He intended that, He would have said The like of which were not produced in the land. But He said: iThe like of which were not created in the land.} Then Allah says, 4 tj 4$ jj iAnd Thamud, who hewed (Jabii) rocks in the valley?} meaning, they cut the rocks in the valley. Ibn Abbas said, They carved them and they hewed them. ,2) This was also said by Mujahid, Qatadah, Ad-Dahhak and Ibn Zayd.131 From this terminology it is said (in the Arabic language), the hewing of leopard skin when it is tom, and The hewing of a garment when it is opened. The word Jayb (pocket or opening in a garment) also comes from Jdbu. Allah says, iAnd you hew in the mountains, houses with great skill } (26:149) A Mention of Fir'awn Allah then says, iAnd Fir'awn with Al-Awtd?} Al- Awfi reported from Ibn Abbas that he said, Al-Awtd are At-Tabari 24:406. At-Tabari 24:408. At-Tabari 24:408.

the armies who enforced his commands for him. * It has also been said that Fir'awn used to nail their hands and their feet into pegs (Awtad) of iron that he would hang them from. A similar statement was made by Mujahid when he said, He used to nail the people (up) on pegs."121 Sa'id bin Jubayr, Al-Hasan and As-Suddi all said the same thing. 3 Allah said, iWho did transgress beyond bounds in the lands. And made therein much mischief. meaning, they rebelled, were arrogant, and went about making corruption in the land, and harming the people. -by*" iSo, your Lord poured on them different kinds of severe torment.} meaning, He sent down a torment upon them from the sky and caused them to be overcome by a punishment that could not be repelled from the people who were criminals. The Lord is Ever Watchful Concerning Allah s statement, 4Verily, your Lord is Ever Watchful.} Ibn Abbas said, He hears and He sees. 14 This means that He watches over His creation in that which they do, and He will reward them in this life and in the Hereafter based upon what each of them strove for. He will bring all of the creation before Him and He will judge them with justice. He will requit each of them with that which he deserves, for He is far removed from injustice and tyranny. 476 Tafsir Von Kathir 4Do they think that in wealth and children with which We enlarge them. We hasten unto them with good things. As Allah says, 4But no!} meaning, the matter is not as he claims, neither in this nor in that. For indeed Allah gives wealth to those whom He loves as well as those whom He does not love. Likewise, He withholds sustenance from those whom He loves and those whom He does not love. The point is that Allah should be obeyed in either circumstance. If one is wealthy, he should thank Allah for that, and if he is poor, he should exercise patience. From the Evil that the Servant does regarding Wealth Allah said, ^ J iBut you treat not the orphans with kindness and generosity!} This contains the command to honor him (the orphan).

So he will go and seek to intercede with Allah as the session of Judgement will have come, and Allah will allow him to intercede for that (the Judgement).111 This will be the first of the intercessions, and it is the praiseworthy station that has already been discussed in Surat Subhan (Al-Isra). So Allah will come for the session of Judgement as He wills, and the angels will also come, lined up in rows upon rows before Him. Khusayf reported from Mujahid; 4Nay! I swear by this city;} The word "La" (Nay) refers to the refutation against them (Quraish). I swear by this city. 111 Shablb bin Bishr narrated from Ikrimah, from Ibn Abbas that he said, i'Jp' U^r^ 'fy iNay! I swear by this city;) This means Makkah. conquer Makkah) as an excuse (to fight there), then tell him that Allah permitted it for His Messenger and He has not permitted it for you. Concerning Allah's statement, "And by the begetter and that which he begot." Mujahid, Abu Salih, Qatadah, Ad-Dahhak, Sufyan Ath-Thawri, Said bin Jubayr, As-Suddi, Al-Hasan Al-Basri, Khusayf, Shurahbil bin Sa'd and others have said, Meaning, by the begetter, Adam, and that which he begot is his children. 121 This view that Mujahid and his companions have chosen is good and strong. This is supported by the fact that Allah swears by the Mother of the Towns, which are dwellings. Then after it He swears by the dwellers therein, who is Adam, the father of mankind, and his children. Abu Imran Al-Jawni said, It refers to Ibrahim and his progeny. Ibn Jarir recorded this statement¹³¹ as did Ibn Abi Hatim. Ibn Jarir preferred the view that it is general and it refers to every father and his children. This meaning is also acceptable. 141 Allah then says, "Verily, We have created man in Kabad." Ibn Abi Najih and Jurayj reported from Ata, from Ibn Abbas concerning the phrase in Kabad, "He was created while in hardship. Don't you see him? Then he mentioned his birth and the sprouting of his teeth." 151 Mujahid said, "In Kabad." A drop of sperm, then a clot, then a lump of flesh, enduring in his creation. Mujahid then said, This is similar to Allah's statement, Al-BQri 1 : 238. 121 Al-Qurtubi 20:61, Ad-Durr Al-Manthur 8:519, and At-Tabari At-Jabari 24 :433 At-Tabari 24 : 433 At-Tabari 24:434.

His mother bears him with lordship. And she brings him forth with hardship. (46:15) and she breast-feeds him with hardship, and his livelihood is a hardship. So he endures all of this. Said bin Jubayr said, "Verily We have created man in Kabad." In hardship and seeking livelihood. Ikrimah said, In hardship and long-suffering. 11 Qatadah said, In difficulty. It is reported from Al-Hasan that he said, Enduring the hardships of the world by life and the severity of the Hereafter. Man is encompassed by Allah and His Bounties Allah says, "Does he think that none can overcome him?" Al-Hasan Al-Basri said, "Does he think that none can overcome him?" Meaning no one is able to take his wealth. Qatadah said, "Does he think that none can overcome him?" The Son of Adam thinks that he will not be asked about this wealth of his - how he earned and how he spent it. Allah said: "He says: 'I have wasted wealth in abundance!'" Ad-DurrAl-Manthur8:520. At-Tabari 24:433. At-Jabari 24:436.

This means, the Son of Adam says, I spent an abundance of wealth. Mujahid, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, As-Suddi and others have said this. [11] "Does he think that none sees him?" Mujahid said, Does he think that Allah, the Mighty and Majestic, does not see him. Others among the Salaf have said similar to this. Allah said; "Have We not made for him two eyes?" meaning, for him to see with them. And a tongue meaning, for him to speak with, and so that he can express that which is inside of him. And two lips? In order to help him with speaking, eating food, and beautifying his face and his mouth. The Ability to distinguish between Good and Evil is also a Blessing. And shown him the two ways? This refers to the two paths. Sufyan Ath-Thawri narrated from Asim, from Zirr, from Abdul-lah bin Mas'ud that he said, "And shown him the two ways?" The good and the evil. 12' Similar to this has been reported from Ali, Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Ikrimah, Abu Wa'il, Abu Salih,

Muhammad bin Ka'b, Ad- Dahhak, and Ata Al-Khurasani among others.¹³¹ Similar to this Ayah is Allah's statement, in At-Tabari 24:436.Tabari 24:437.Tabari 24 :437 , 438 , and Ad-DurrAl-Manthur⁸ : 521 , 522

Ibn Zayd said, He made its Fujur and its Taqwa inside of it. Ibn Jarir recorded from Abul-Aswad Ad-Dlli that he said, Imran bin Husayn said to me, Do you think that what the people do, and what they strive for is a thing that is pre- ordained and predestined for them, or is it a thing which is only written after the Message comes to them from the Prophet 3g, when there will be an evidence against them? I said, Rather it is something preordained upon them. Then he said, Is that an injustice? Then I became extremely frightened of him (due to what he was saying), and I said to him, There is nothing except that He (Allah) created it and possesses it in His Hand. He is not asked about what He does, while they (His creation) will be asked. He (Imran) then said, May Allah guide you! I only asked you about that in order to inform you that a man from Muzaynah or Juhaynah tribe came to the Allah s Messenger and asked him: O Messenger of Allah! [Tafsir Ibn Kathir (Abridged), Darussalam English Edition, PDF pp. 6463–6468]

Ad-Duha (1-11) (Part-30) The Hereafter is Better Than This First Life 4 And indeed the Hereafter is better for you than the present meaning, the abode of the Hereafter is better for you than this current abode. For this reason the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) used to be the most abstinent of the people concerning the worldly things, and he was the greatest of them in his disregard for worldly matters. This is well known by necessity from his biography. When the Prophet (ﷺ) was given the choice at the end of his life between remaining in this life forever and then going to Paradise, or moving on to the company of Allah, he chose that which is with Allah over this lowly world. Imam Abu Amr Al-Awzal recorded that Ibn Abbas said, The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) was shown that which his Ummah would be blessed with after him, treasure upon treasure. So he was pleased with that. Then Allah revealed, 4 And verily, your Lord will give you so that you shall be well-pleased.} ' So, Allah will give him in Paradise one million palaces, and each palace will contain whatever he wishes of wives and servants. Then his uncle, Abu Talib took responsibility for him and continued to protect him, assist him, elevate his status, honor him, and even restrain his people from harming him when he was forty years of age and Allah commissioned him with the prophethood. Even with this, Abu Talib continued to follow the religion of his people, worshipping idols. Tabari 24:487. 121 Meaning information that the Prophet informed him of.

After this (Abu Talib's death) the foolish and ignorant people of the Quraysh began to attack him, so Allah chose for him to migrate away from them to the city of Al-Aws and Al-Khazraj among those who helped him (in Al-Madīnah). Allah caused his Sunnah to be spread in the most perfect and complete manner. Then, when he arrived at their city, they gave him shelter, supported him, defended him and fought before him (against the enemies of Islam) - may Allah be pleased with all of them. All of this was from Allah's protection for him, guarding over him and caring for him. Thus, the meaning here is what we have already mentioned (i.e., the first view), which is similar to Allah's saying, By Al-'Asr. Verily man is in loss, except those who believe and perform righteous deeds. (103:1-3) Concerning Allah's statement, Then they shall have a reward without end. meaning, that will not end, as we have mentioned previously. Then Allah says, Then what causes you to deny? meaning, O Son of Adam! After this the Recompense? meaning, in the recompense that will take place in the Hereafter. For indeed you know the beginning, and you know that He Who is able to begin (the creation) is also able to repeat it which is easier. So what is it that makes you deny the final return in the Hereafter after you have known this? Then Allah says, Is He not the best of judges? meaning, is He not the best of judges, Who does not oppress or do any injustice to anyone? And from His justice is that He will establish the Judgement, and He will give retribution to the person who was wronged in this life against whoever wronged him.

Then he said, So he (the angel) seized me and pressed me until I could no longer bear it. Then he released me and said: Read! So I replied: I am not one who reads. So they wrapped him up until his fear went away. After that Jr t)\s BT MU rmm 'i.it -t Ml tasn&s.

Al-'Alaq (1-5) (Part-30) settled and he would return (down from the mountain). Then, when the revelation did not come again for a long time, he set out as he had done before. So when he reached the peak of the mountain, Jibril appeared to him again and said to him the same as he had said before. This Hadith has been recorded in the Two Sahih by way of Az-Zuhri. * We have already discussed this Hadith's chain of narration, its text and its meanings at length in the beginning of our explanation of Sahih Al-Bukhari. Therefore, whoever would like to read it, it is researched there, and all praise and blessings are due to Allah. So the first thing that was revealed of the Qur'an were these noble and blessed Ayat. They are the first mercy that Allah bestowed upon His servants and the first bounty that Allah favored them with. The Honor and Nobility of Man is in His Knowledge These Ayat inform of the beginning of man's creation from a dangling clot, and that out of Allah's generosity He taught man that which he did not know. Thus, Allah exalted him and honored him by giving him knowledge, and it is the dignity that the Father of Humanity, Adam, was distinguished with over the angels. Knowledge sometimes is in the mind, sometimes on the tongue, and sometimes in writing with the fingers. Thus, it may be intellectual, spoken and written. And while the last (written) necessitates the first two (intellectual and spoken), the reverse is not true. For this reason Allah says, Wa idha qultu lahu al-kalima! And your Lord is the Most Generous. Who has taught by the pen . He has taught man that which he knew not.} There is a narration that states, Record knowledge by writing. * There is also a saying which states, Whoever acts Ahmad 6:232. * Fath Al-Bari 12:368, and Muslim 1 :139. * This narration is an unauthentic Hadith. See Al-Hakim 1 :106. It is also attributed to a saying of Umar with a weak chain of narration with Ibn Abi Shaybah (26418) and others.

Al- Alaa (6-19) (Part-30 Wa idha qultu lahu al-kalima meaning, unto Allah is the final destination and return, and He will hold you accountable for your wealth, as to where you obtained it from and how did you spend it. Scolding of Abu Jahl and the Threat of seizing him Then Allah says, Wa idha qultu lahu al-kalima! Have you seen him who prevents. A servant when he prays?} This was revealed about Abu Jahl, may Allah curse him. He threatened the Prophet for performing Salah at the Ka'bah. Thus, Allah firstly admonished him with that which was better by saying, Wa idha qultu lahu al-kalima! Have you seen if he is on the guidance.} meaning, do you think this man whom you are preventing is upon the straight path in his action, or 'Allah enjoins Taqwa?} in his statements? Yet, you rebuke him and threaten him due to his prayer. Thus, Allah says, Wa idha qultu lahu al-kalima! Does he not know that Allah sees?} meaning, doesn't this person who is preventing this man who is following correct guidance know that Allah sees him and hears his words, and He will compensate him in full for what he has done? Then Allah says by way of warning and threatening, Wa idha qultu lahu al-kalima! Nay! If he ceases not,} meaning, if he does not recant from his discord and obstinacy, We will scorch his forehead.} meaning, indeed We will make it extremely black on the Day of Judgement. Then He says, Wa idha qultu lahu al-kalima! Lying, sinful forehead!} meaning, the forehead of Abu Jahl is lying in its statements and sinful in its actions. Wa idha qultu lahu al-kalima! Then let him call upon his council.} meaning, his people and his tribe. In other words, let him call them in order to seek help from them. Wa idha qultu lahu al-kalima! We will call out the guards of Hell!} And they are the angels of torment. This is so that he may know who will win - Our group or his group?

Al-'Alaa (6-19) (Part-30 Ibn Abbas then said, If he had called his people, the angels of torment would have seized him at that very instant. At- Tirmidhi said, Hasan Sahih . Ibn Jarir recorded from Abu Hurayrah that Abu Jahl said, Does Muhammad cover his face with dust (i.e., from prostration) while he is among you all? They (the people) replied, Yes. Then he said, By Al-Lat and Al-'Uzza, if I see him praying like this, I will stomp on his neck, and I will certainly put his face in the dust. So the Messenger of Allah j came and he began praying, which made it possible for Abu Jahl to stomp on his neck. Then the people became surprised at him (Abu Jahl) because he began retreating on his heels and covering himself with his hands. Then it was said to him, What is the matter with you? He replied, Verily, between me and him is a ditch of fire, monsters and wings. Then the Messenger of Allah j said. *If he had come near me, the angels would have snatched him limb by limb ." The narrator added; Allah revealed an Ayah, but I do not know whether it is concerning the Hadith of Abu Hurayrah or not: Wa idha qultu lahu al-kalima! Verily, man does transgress.} to the end of the Surah. Imam

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful, We have sent it down in the Night of Al-Qadr. And what will make you know what the Night of Al-Qadr is? The Night of Al-Qadr is better than a thousand months. Therein descend the angels and the Ruh by their Lord's permission with every matter. There is peace until the appearance of dawn. The Virtues of the Night of Al-Qadr (the Decree) Allah informs that He sent the Qur'an down during the Night of Al-Qadr, and it is a blessed night about which Allah says, We sent it down on a blessed night. (44:3) This is the Night of Al-Qadr and it occurs during the month of Ramadan. This is as Allah says, The month of Ramadan in which was revealed the Qur'an. (2:185) Ibn Abbas and others have said, Allah sent the Qur'an down all at one time from the Preserved Tablet (Al-Lawh Al-Mahfud).

Al-Qadr (1-5) (Part-30) The Descent of the Angels and the Decree for Every Good during the Night of Al-Qadr Allah says, Therein descend the angels and the Ruh by their Lord's permission with every matter. meaning, the angels descend in abundance during the Night of Al-Qadr due to its abundant blessings. The angels descend with the descending of blessings and mercy, just as they descend when the Qur'an is recited, they surround the circles of Dhikr (remembrance of Allah) and they lower their wings with true respect for the student of knowledge. In reference to Ar-Ruh, it is said that here it means the angel Jibril. Therefore, the wording of the Ayah is a method of adding the name of the distinct object (in this case Jibril) separate from the general group (in this case the angels). Concerning Allah's statement, Peace concerning every matter. Mujahid said, Peace concerning every matter. Said bin Mansur said, Isa bin Yunus told us that Al-A'mash narrated to them that Mujahid said concerning Allah's statement, There is peace. It is security in which Shaytan cannot do any evil or any harm. Qatadah and others have said, The matters are determined during it, and the times of death and provisions are measured out (i.e., decided) during it. Allah says, Therein is decreed every matter of decree. (44:4) Then Allah says, There is peace until the appearance of dawn. Said bin Mansur said, Hushaym narrated to us on the authority of Abu Ishaq, who narrated that Ash-Sha'bi said concerning Allah's statement, {With every matter, there is a peace until the appearance of dawn.} The angels giving the greetings of peace during the Night of Al-Qadr to the people in the Masjids until the coming of Fajr (dawn). Qatadah and Ibn Zayd both said concerning Allah's statement, {There is peace.} This means all of it is good and there is no evil in it until the coming of Fajr (dawn). Specifying the Night of Decree and its Signs This is supported by what Imam we did not see anything (i.e., clouds) in the sky. But then a patch of wind-driven clouds came and it rained. So the Prophet ﷺ led us in prayer until we saw the traces of mud and water on the forehead of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, which confirmed his dream. In one narration it adds that this occurred on the morning of the twenty-first night (meaning the next morning). They both ( from him, and this is most likely. And Allah knows best. Supplication during the Night of Decree It is recommended to supplicate often during all times, especially during the month of Ramadan, in the last ten nights, and during the odd nights of it even more so. It is recommended that one say the following supplication a lot: O Allah! Verily, You are the Oft-Pardoning, You love to pardon, so pardon me. This is due to what Imam (Chapter - 100) Which was revealed in Makkah. Surah Al-Adiyat is a Meccan surah. It is a short surah consisting of 42 verses. It is a surah of warning and threat. It is a surah of the horses. It is a surah of the steeds. It is a surah of the snorting. It is a surah of the striking sparks of fire. It is a surah of the scouring to the raid at dawn. It is a surah of the raising the dust in clouds the while. It is a surah of the penetrating forth with as one into the midst. It is a surah of the verily, man is ungrateful to his Lord. It is a surah of the and to that He bears witness. It is a surah of the and verily, he is violent in the love of wealth.

Ad-Adiyat (1-11) (Part-30) invasion of the horses in the morning in the way of Allah. 111 And His statement, <$< 4 And raise the dust in clouds the while.} This is the place in which the attack takes place. And His statement, 4 And penetrating forth with as one into the midst.} Al-Awfi narrated from Ibn Abbas, Ata, Tkrimah, Qatadah and Ad-Dahhak that they all said, This means into the midst of the disbelieving enemy. 121 Concerning Allah's statement, ill & 4 Verily, man is ungrateful (Kaniid) to his Lord.} This is the subject what is being sworn about, and it means that he (man) is ungrateful for the favors of His Lord and he rejects them. Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Ibrahim An-Nakha'i, Abu Al-Jawza, Abu Al-Aliyah, Abu Ad-Duha, Said bin Jubayr, Muhammad bin Qays, Ad-Dahhak, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, Ar-Rabl bin Anas and Ibn Zayd all said, Al-Kanud means ungrateful. 131 Al-Hasan said, Al-Kanud is the one who counts the calamities (that befall him) and he forgets Allah's favors. 141 Concerning Allah's statement, 4 i&%} 4 And to that He bears witness.} Qatadah and Sufyan Ath-Thawri both said, And indeed Allah is a witness to that. 151 It is also possible that the pronoun (He) could be referring to man. This was said by Muhammad bin Kah Al-Qurazi. Thus, its meaning Tabari 24:562. At-Tabari 24:564, 565. Tabari 24:566. At-Tabari 24:566. Tabari 24:576.

568 Tafsir Ibn Kathir would be that man is a witness himself to the fact that he is ungrateful. This is obvious in his condition, meaning this is apparent from his statements and deeds. This is as Allah says, m d j&ji.lu } Al-Adiyat is not for the idolators, to maintain the Masjid of Allah, while they witness disbelief against themselves.} (9:17) Allah said; . j5Lt fo} A And verily, he is violent in the love of wealth.} meaning, and indeed in his love of the good, which is wealth, he is severe. There are two opinions concerning this. One of them is that it means that he is severe in his love of wealth. The other view is that it means he is covetous and stingy due to the love of wealth. However, both views are correct. The Threat about the Hereafter Then Allah encourages abstinence from worldly things and striving for the Hereafter, and He informs of what the situation will be after this present condition, and what man will face of horrors. This is like Allah's statement, Al-Qari'ah is a Day whereon mankind will be like moths scattered about.} (54:7) Allah said, Al-Qari'ah is a Day whereon mankind will be like moths scattered about.} meaning, they will become like carded wool that has begun to wear out (fade away) and be torn apart. Mujahid, Ikrimah, Said bin Jubayr, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, Ata Al-Khurasani, Ad-Dahhak and As-Suddi have all said, Al-Qari'ah is like wool (Ihn).} Woolen. Then Allah informs about the results received by those who performed the deeds, and the honor and disgrace they will experience based upon their deeds. He says, Al-Qari'ah is a Day whereon mankind will be like moths scattered about.} meaning, his good deeds are more than his bad deeds. Al-Qari'ah is a Day whereon mankind will be like moths scattered about.} meaning, in Paradise. Al-Qari'ah is a Day whereon mankind will be like moths scattered about.} meaning, his bad deeds are more than his good deeds. 572 Tafsir Ibn Kathir Al-Qari'ah is a Day whereon mankind will be like moths scattered about.} It has been said that this means he will be falling and tumbling headfirst into the fire of Hell, and the expression Al-Qari'ah is a Day whereon mankind will be like moths scattered about.} has been used to refer to his brain (as it is the mother of his head). A statement similar to this has been reported from Ibn Abbas, Ikrimah, Abu Salih and Qatadah. 111 Qatadah said, He will fall into the Hellfire on his head. 121 Abu Salih made a similar statement when he said, They will fall into the Fire on their heads. 131 It has also been said that it means his mother that he will return to and end up with in the Hereafter will be Hawiyah, which is one of the names of the Hellfire. Ibn Jarir said, Al-Qari'ah is only called his mother because he will have no other abode except for it. 141 Ibn Zayd said, Al-Qari'ah is the Fire, and it will be his mother and his abode to which he will return, and where he will be settled. Then he recited the Ayah, Al-Qari'ah is a Day whereon mankind will be like moths scattered about.} (3:151) ,5! Ibn Abi Hatim said that it has been narrated from Qatadah that he said, It is the Fire, and it is their abode. 161 Thus, Allah says in explaining the

How Amr bin Al-*As was aware of the Qur'an s Miracle due to this Surah They have mentioned that Amr bin Al- As went to visit Musaylimah Al-Kadhdhab after the Messenger of Allah jg was commissioned (as a Prophet) and before Amr had accepted Islam. Upon his arrival, Musaylimah said to him, What has been revealed to your friend (Muhammad jg) during this time? Amr said, A short and concise Surah has been revealed to him. Musaylimah then said, What is it? Amr replied; 4By Al-'Asr. Verily, man is in loss. Except those zoho believe and do righteous deeds, and recommend one another to the truth, and recommend one another to patience. So Musaylimah thought for a while. Then he said, Indeed something similar has also been revealed to me. Amr asked him, What is it? He replied, O Wabr (a small, furry mammal; hyrax), O Wabrt You are only two ears and a chest, and the rest of you is digging and burrowing. Then he said, What do you think, O Amr? So Amr said to him, By Allah! Verily, you know that I know you are lying. 11 I saw that Abu Bakr Al-Khara iti mentioned a chain of narration for part of this story, or what was close to its meaning, in volume two of his famous book Masawi ul- Akhldq. The Wabr is a small animal that resembles a cat, and HI He also mentioned it in Al-Bidayah wan-Nihayah 6:320, and Al- Hafiz mentioned similar to it in Al-Isabah 3 :225

Musayli- mah intended by the composition of these nonsensical verses to produce something which would oppose the Qur an. Yet, it was not even convin- cing to the idol wor- shipper of that time. At-Tabarani recor- ded from Abdullah bin Hisn Abi Madlnah that he said, Whenever two men from the Companions of the Messenger of Allah used to meet, they would not part until one of them had recited Surat Al- Asr in its entirety to the other, and one of them had given the greetings of peace to the other. He saved them from the People of the Elephant who had tried to tear down the KaTxah and wipe out all traces of its existence. Allah destroyed them, defeated them, thwarted their plans, made their efforts in vain and sent them back routed. They were people who were Christians, and thus, their religion was closer to the True Religion (Islam) than the idolatry of the Quraysh. However, this was a means of giving a sign and preparing the way for the coming of the Messenger of Allah 5. For verily, he was bom during that same year according to the most popular opinion. So the tongue of destiny was saying, We will not help you, O people of Quraysh, because of any status you may have over the Ethiopians (Abyssinians). We are only helping you in order to defend the Ancient House (the Katah), which We will honor, magnify, and venerate by sending the unlettered Prophet, Muhammad the Finality of all Prophets.

ASummary ofthe Story ofthe People ofthe Elephant This is the story of the people of the Elephant, in brief, and summarized. It has already been mentioned in the story of the People of the Ditch that Dhu NuWas, the last king of Himyar, a polytheist - was the one who ordered killing the People of the Ditch. They were Christians and their number was approximately twenty thousand. None of them except a man named Daws Dhu Thalaban escaped. He fled to Ash-Sham where he sought protection from Caesar, the emperor of Ash- Sham, who was also a Christian. Caesar wrote to An-Najashi, the king of Ethiopia (Abyssinia), who was closer to the home of the man. An-Najashi sent two governors with him: Ary&t and Abrahah bin As-Sabah Abu Yaksum, along with a great army. The army entered Yemen and began searching the houses and looting in search of the king of Himyar (Dhu Nuwas). Dhu Nuwas was eventually killed by drowning in the sea. Thus, the Ethiopians were free to rule Yemen, with Aryat and Abrahah as its governors. However, they continually disagreed about matters, attacked each other, fought each other and warred against each other, until one of them said to the other, There is no need for our two armies to fight. Instead let us fight each other (in a duel) and the one who kills the other will be the ruler of Yemen. So the other accepted the challenge and they held a duel. Behind each man was a channel of water (to keep either from fleeing). Aryat gained the upper hand and struck Abrahah with his sword, splitting his nose and mouth, and slashing his face. But Atawdah, Abrahah s guard, attacked Aryat and killed him. Thus, Abrahah returned wounded to Yemen where he was treated for his injuries and recovered. He thus became the commander of the Abyssinian army in Yemen. Then the king of Abyssinia, An-Najashi wrote to him, blaming him for what had happened (between him and Aryat) and threatened him, saying that he swore to tread on the soil of Yemen and cut off his forelock. Therefore, Abrahah sent a messenger with gifts and precious objects to An-Najashi to appease him and flatter him, and a sack containing soil from Yemen and a piece of hair cut from his forelock. He said in his letter to the king, Let the king walk upon this soil and thus fulfill his oath, and this is my forelock hair that I send to you. When An-Najashi received this, he was pleased with Abrahah and gave him his approval. Then Abrahah wrote to An-Najashi saying that he would build a church for him in Yemen the like of which had never been built before. Thus, he began to build a huge church in San'a , tall and beautifully crafted and decorated on all sides. The Arabs called it Al-Qullays because of its great height, and because if one looked at it, his cap would be in danger of falling off as he tilted his head back. Then Abrahah Al-Ashram decided to force the Arabs to make their pilgrimage to this magnificent church, just as they had performed pilgrimage to the Ka bah in Makkah. He announced this in his kingdom (Yemen), but it was rejected by the Arab tribes of Adnan and Qahtan. The Quraysh were infuriated by it, so much so that one of them journeyed to the church and entered it one night. He then relieved himself in the church and ran away (escaping the people). When its custodians saw what he had done, they reported it to their king, Abrahah, saying; One of the Quraysh has done this in anger over their House in whose place you have appointed this church. Upon hearing this, Abrahah swore to march to the House of Makkah (the Ka bah and destroy it stone by stone. Muqatil bin Sulayman mentioned that a group of young men from the Quraysh entered the church and started a fire in it on an extremely windy day. So the church caught on fire and collapsed to the ground. Due to this Abrahah prepared himself and set out with a huge and powerful army so that none might prevent him from carrying out his mission. He took along a great, powerful elephant that had a huge body the like of which had never been seen before. This elephant was called Mahmfid and it was sent to Abrahah from An-Najashi, the king of Abyssinia, particularly for this expedition. It has also been said that he had eight other elephants with him; their number was also reported to be twelve, plus the large one, MahmQd - and Allah knows best. Their intention was to use this big elephant to demolish the Ka bah. They planned to do this by fastening chains to the pillars of the Ka bah and placing the other ends around the neck of the elephant. Then they would make the elephant pull on them in order to tear down the walls of the Ka bah all at one time. When the Arabs heard of Abrahah s expedition, they considered it an extremely grave matter. They held it to be an obligation upon them to defend the Sacred House and repel whoever intended a plot against it. Thus, the noblest man of the people of Yemen and the greatest of their chiefs set out to face him (Abrahah). His name was Dhu Nafr. He called his people, and whoever would respond to his call among the Arabs, to go to war against Abrahah and fight in defense of the Sacred House. He called the people to stop Abrahah s plan to demolish and tear down the Ka'bah. So the people responded to him and they entered into battle with Abrahah, but he defeated them. This was due to Allah s will and His intent to honor and venerate the Ka'bah. Dhu Nafr was captured and taken along with the army of Abrahah. The army continued on its way until it came to the land of Khath'am where it was confronted by Nufayl bin Habib Al- Kath'ami along with his people, the Shahrani and Nahsi tribes. They fought Abrahah but he defeated them and captured Nufayl bin Habib. Initially he wanted to kill him, but he forgave him and took him as his guide to show him the way to Al-Hijaz. When they approached the area of At-Ta'if, its people - the people of Thaqif - went out to Abrahah. They wanted to appease him because they were fearful for their place of worship, which they called Al-Lat. Abrahah was kind to them and they sent a man named Abu Righal with him as a guide. When they reached a place known as Al-Mughammas, which is near Makkah, they settled there. Then he sent his troops on a foray to capture the camels and other grazing animals of the Makkans, which they did, including about two hundred camels belonging to Abdul-Muttalib. The leader of this particular expedition was a man named Al-Aswad bin Mafsud. According to what Ibn Ishaq mentioned, some of the Arabs used to satirize him (because of the part he played in this historical incident). Then Abrahah sent an emissary named Hanatah Al-Himyari to enter Makkah, commanding him to bring the head of the Quraysh to him. He also commanded him to inform him that the king will not fight the people of Makkah unless they try to prevent him from the destruction of the Ka'bah. Hanatah went to the city and he was directed to Abdul-Muttalib bin Hashim, to whom he relayed Abrahah's message. Abdul-Muttalib replied, By Allah! We have no wish to fight him, nor are we in any position to do so. This is the Sacred House of Allah, and the house of His KhaM, Ibrahim, and if He wishes to prevent him (Abrahah) from (destroying) it, it is His House and His Sacred Place (to do so). And if He lets him approach it, by Allah, We have no means to defend it from him. So Hanatah told him, Come with me to him (Abrahah). And so Abdul-Muttalib went with him. When Abrahah saw him, he was impressed by him, because Abdul-Muttalib was a large and handsome man. So Abrahah descended from his seat and sat with him on a carpet on the ground. Then he asked his translator to say to him, What do you need? Abdul-Muttalib replied to the translator, I want the king to return my camels which he has taken from me which are two hundred in number. Abrahah then told his translator to tell him, I was impressed by you when I first saw you, but now I withdraw from you after you have spoken to me. You are asking me about two hundred camels which I have taken from you and you leave the matter of a house which is (the foundation of) your religion and the religion of your fathers, which I have come to destroy and you do not speak to me about it? Abdul-Muttalib said to him, Verily, I am the lord of the camels. As for the House, it has its Lord Who will defend it. Abrahah said, I cannot be prevented (from destroying it). Abdul-Muttalib answered, Then do so. It is said that a number of the chiefs of the Arabs accompanied Abdul-Muttalib and offered Abrahah a third of the wealth of the tribe of Tihamah if he would withdraw from the House, but he refused and returned Abdul-Muttalib's camels to him. Abdul-Muttalib then returned to his people and ordered them to leave Makkah and seek shelter at the top of the mountains, fearful of the excesses which might be committed by the army against them. Then he took hold of the metal ring of the door of the Ka'bah, and along with a number of Quraysh, he called upon Allah to give them victory over Abrahah and his army. Abdul-Muttalib said, while hanging on

Al-Fil (1-5) (Part-30) to the ring of the Ka'bah's door, There is no matter more important to any man right now than the defense of his livestock and property. So, O my Lord! Defend Your property. Their cross and their cunning will not be victorious over your cunning by the time morning comes. According to Ibn Ishaq, then Abdul-Muttalib let go of the metal ring of the door of the Ka'bah, and they left Makkah and ascended to the mountains tops. Muqatil bin Sulayman mentioned that they left one hundred animals (camels) tied near the Ka'bah hoping that some of the army would take some of them without a right to do so, and thus bring about the vengeance of Allah upon themselves. When morning came, Abrahah prepared to enter the sacred city of Makkah. He prepared the elephant named Mahmud.

He mobilized his army, and they turned the elephant towards the Ka'bah. At that moment Nufayl bin Habib approached it and stood next to it, and taking it by its ear, he said, Kneel, Mahmud! Then turn around and return directly to whence you came. For verily, you are in the Sacred City of Allah. Then he released the elephant's ear and it knelt, after which Nufayl bin Habib left and hastened to the mountains. Abrahah's men beat the elephant in an attempt to make it rise, but it refused. They beat it on its head with axes and used hooked staffs to pull it out of its resistance and make it stand, but it refused. So they turned him towards Yemen, and he rose and walked quickly. Then they turned him towards Ash-Sham and he did likewise. Then they turned him towards the east and he did the same thing. Then they turned him towards Makkah and he knelt down again. Then Allah sent against them the birds from the sea, like swallows and herons. Each bird carried three stones the size of chickpeas and lentils, one in each claw and one in its beak: Everyone who was hit by them was destroyed, though not all of them were hit. They fled in panic along the road asking about the whereabouts of Nufayl that he might point out to them the way home. Nufayl, however, was at the top of the mountain with the Quraysh and the Arabs of the Hijaz observing the wrath which Allah had caused to descend on the people of the elephant. Nufayl then began to say, Where will they flee when the One True God is the Pursuer? For Al-

Ashram is defeated and not the victor. Ibn Ishaq reported that Nufayl said these lines of poetry at that time, Didn't you live with continued support? We favored you all with a revolving eye in the morning (i.e., a guide along the way). If you saw, but you did not see it at the side of the rock covered mountain that which we saw. Then you will excuse me and praise my affair, and do not grieve over what is lost between us. I praised Allah when I saw the birds, and I feared that the stones might be thrown down upon us. So all the people are asking about the whereabouts of Nufayl, as if I have some debt that I owe the Abyssinians. Ata bin Yasar and others have said that all of them were not struck by the torment at this hour of retribution. Rather some of them were destroyed immediately, while others were gradually broken down limb by limb while trying to escape. Abrahah was of those who was broken down limb by limb until he eventually died in the land of Khath'am. Ibn Ishaq said that they left (Makkah) being struck down and destroyed along every path and at every water spring. Abrahah's body was afflicted by the pestilence of the stones and his army carried him away with them as he was falling apart piece by piece, until they arrived back in San'a\ When they arrived there he was but like the baby chick of a bird. And he did not die until his heart fell out of his chest. So they claim. Ibn Ishaq said that when Allah sent Muhammad with the prophethood, among the things that he used to recount to the Quraysh as blessings that Allah had favored them with of His bounties, was His defending them from the attack of the Abyssinians. Due to this they (the Quraysh) were allowed to remain (safely in Makkah) for a period of time. Thus, Allah said, iHaoe you not seen how your Lord dealt with the Owners of the Elephant? Ibn Hisham said, Al-AbabU are the groups, as the Arabs do not speak of just one (bird). He also said, As for As-SijjU, Yunus An-Nahwi and Abu TJbaydah have informed me that according to the Arabs, it means something hard and solid. He then said, Some of the commentators have mentioned that it is actually two Persian words that the Arabs have made into one word. The two words are Sanj and JiZ, Sanj meaning stones, and Jil meaning clay. The rocks are of these two types: stone and clay. He continued saying, aAl-'Asfare the leaves of the crops that are not gathered. One of them is called As/ah. 11 This is the end of what he mentioned. Hammad bin Salamah narrated from Asim, who related from Zirr, who related from Abdullah and Abu Salamah bin Abdur- Rahman that they said, ibirds Abdbil In groups. Ibn Abbas and Ad-Dahhak both said, Abdbil means some of them following after others. Al- Hasan Al-Basri and Qatadah both said, Abdbil means many. Mujahid said, Abdbil means in various, successive groups. Ibn Zayd said, Abdbil means different, coming from here and there. They came upon them from everywhere. 12 Al-Kasai said, I heard some of the grammarians saying, The singular of Abdbil is IbH Ibn Jarir recorded from Ishaq bin Abdullah bin Al-Harith Ibn Hisham 1:51-56. bin Nawfal that he said concerning Allah's statement, iAnd He sent against them birds, Ababil.i This means in divisions just as camels march in divisions (in their herds). It is reported that Ibn Abbas said, iAnd He sent against them birds, Abdbil They had snouts like the beaks of birds and paws like the paws of dogs. * It has been reported that Ikrimah said commenting on Allah's statement, ibirds, Abdbil. They were green birds that came out of the sea and they had heads like the heads of predatory animals. It has been reported from Ubayd bin TJmayr that he commented: ik0 (M - ibirds, Abdbil. They were black birds of the sea that had stones in their beaks and claws. And the chains of narration (for these statements) are all authentic. It is reported from TJbayd bin TJmayr that he said, When Allah wanted to destroy the People of the Elephant, he sent birds upon them that came from sea swallows. Each of the birds was carrying three small stones - two stones with its feet and one stone in its beak. They came until they gathered in rows over their heads. Then they gave a loud cry and threw what was in their claws and beaks. Thus, no stone fell upon the head of any man except that it came out of his behind (i.e., it went through him), and it did not fall on any part of his body except that it came out from the opposite side. Then Allah sent a severe wind that struck the stones and increased them in force. Thus, they were all destroyed. Concerning Allah's statement, I 1 ' At-Tabari 24:606. * At-Tabari 24:607. iAnd He made them like Asf, Ma'kul.) Said bin Jubayr said, This means straw, which the common people call Habbur. In a report from Said he said, The leaves of wheat. 1 11 He also said, Al-'Asfis straw, and Al-MaTad refers to the fodder that is cut for animals. Al-Hasan Al-Basri said the same thing. Ibn Abbas said, uAl- Asf is the shell of the grain, just like the covering of wheat. * Ibn Zayd said, Al-'Asf are the leaves of vegetation and produce. When the cattle eat it they defecate it out and it becomes dung.

The meaning of this is that Allah destroyed them, annihilated them and repelled them in their plan and their anger. They did not achieve any good. He made a mass destruction of them, and not one of them returned (to their land) to relate what happened except that he was wounded. This is just like what happened to their king, Abrahah. For indeed he was split open, exposing his heart when he reached his land of San'a. He informed the people of what happened to them and then he died. His son Yaqm became the king after him, and then Yaqm's brother, Masruq bin Abrahah succeeded him. Then Sayf bin Dhi Yazan Al-Himyari went to Kisra (the king of Persia) and sought his help against the Abyssinians. Therefore, Kisra dispatched some of his army with Sayf Al-Himyari to fight with him against the Abyssinians. Thus, Allah returned their kingdom to them (i.e., the Arabs of Yemen) along with all the sovereignty their fathers possessed. Then large delegations of Arabs came to him (Sayf Al-Himyari) to congratulate him for their victory. We have mentioned previously in the Tafsir of Surat Al-Fath that when the Messenger of Allah[^] approached the mountain pass that would lead him to the Quraysh on the Day of Al-Hudaybiyyah, his she-camel knelt down. Then the people attempted to make her get up but she refused. So, the people said, Al-Qaswa has become stubborn. They (the Companions) wrote In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful on the line (i.e., the space) between these two Surahs. They did this even though this Surah is directly related to the one which precedes it, as Muhammad bin Ishaq and Abdur-Rahman bin Zayd bin 0 0ZF&Z&Kk o'

Aslam have both clarified. This is because the meaning of both of them is, We have prevented the Elephant from entering Makkah and We have destroyed its people in order to gather (ilafl the Quraysh, which means to unitethemand bringthem together safelyin their city. It has also been said that the meaning of this {hajj} is what they would gather during theirjourney in the winter to Yemen and in the summer to Ash-Sham through trade and other than that. Then they would return to their city in safety during their journeys due to the respect that the people had for them because they were the residents of Allah s sanctuary. Therefore, whoever knew them would honor them. Even those who came to them and traveled with them, would be safe because of them. This was their situation during their journeys and travels during their winter and summer. In reference to their living in the city, then it is as Allah said, osS & 8 ! iHave they not seen that We have made it a secure sanctuary, while men are being snatched away from all around them?} (29 :67) Thus, Allah says, ih? iFor the hafof the Quraysh. This may either be referring to its act entirely, as Ibn Abbas said, or it may be referring to performing it in its stipulated time that has been legislated Islamically. This means that the person prays it completely outside of its time. This was said by Masruq and Abu Ad-Duha.121 Ata bin Dinar said, All praise is due to Allah, the One Who said, iwith their Salah are Sahun.} and He did not say, those who are absent minded in their prayer. It could also mean the first time of the prayer, which means they always delay it until the end of its time, or they usually do so. It may also refer to not fulfilling its pillars and conditions, and in the required manner. It could also mean performing it with humility and contemplation of its meanings. The wording of the Ayah comprises all of these meanings. However, whoever has any characteristic of this that we have mentioned then a portion of this Ayah applies to him And whoever has all of these characteristics, then he has completed his share of this Ayah, and the hypocrisy of actions is fulfilled in him. This is just as is confirmed in the Two At-Tabari 24:632. At-Tabari 24:631. 131 Al-Qurpibi 20:212.

said: {And withhold Al-Ma'un.} This means that they do not worship their Lord well, nor do they treat His creation well. They do not even lend that which others may benefit from and be helped by, even though the object will remain intact and be returned to them. These people are even stingier when it comes to giving Zakah and different types of charity that bring one closer to Allah. Al-Masfadi narrated from Salamah bin Kuhayl who reported from Abu Al-TJbaydin that he asked Ibn Masfud about Al-Ma'un and he said, It is what the people give to each other, like an axe, a pot, a bucket and similar items.

It commands a complete disavowal of that. Allah's statement, 4Say: "O disbelievers! } includes every disbeliever on the face of the earth, however, this statement is particularly directed towards the disbelievers of the Quraysh. It has been said that in their ignorance they invited the Messenger of Allah jg to worship their idols for a year and they would (in turn) worship his God for a year. Therefore, Allah revealed this Surah and in it He commanded His Messenger sg to disavow himself from their religion completely. Allah said, 41 worship not that which you worship.} meaning, statues and rival gods. 4Nor will you worship whom I worship.} and He is Allah Alone, Who has no partner. Rather, you have invented something out of the promptings of your own souls. This is as Allah says, 4They follow but a guess and that which they themselves desire, whereas there has surely come to them the guidance from their Lord!} (53:23) Therefore, the disavowal is from all of what they are involved. For certainly the worshipper must have a god whom he worships and set acts of worship that he follows to get to him. So the Messenger jg and his followers worship Allah according to what He has legislated. This is why the statement of Islam is There is no God worthy of being worshipped except Allah, and Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah. This means that there is no (true) object of worship except Allah and there is no path to Him (i.e., way of worshipping Him) other than that which the Messenger came with. The idolaters worship other than Allah, with acts of worship that Allah has not allowed. This is why the Messenger jg said to them, S3} 4To you be your religion, and to me my religion.} This is similar to Allah's statement, &} 4And if they believe you, say: For me are my deeds and for you are your deeds! You are innocent of what I do, and I am innocent of what you do!"} (10:41) and He said, "To us our deeds, and to you your deeds." (28:55) Al-Bukhari said, It has been said, &i

But it is not suitable for Ar-Rahman that He should beget a son . There is none in the heavens and the earth but comes unto Ar-Rahman as a slave. Opening iSay: I seek refuge with the Lord of mankind (114:1), This Hadith was recorded by whenever you go to sleep and whenever you get up

I replied, "What should I say O Messenger of Allah? He said, "What I say:

Al-Falaq (1-5) (Part-30) 45. And from the evil of the envier when he envies." Ibn Abi Hatim recorded that Jabir said, Al-Falaq is the morning. Al-Awfi reported from Ibn Abbas, Al-Falaq is the morning. The same has been reported from Mujahid, Said bin Jubayr, Abdullah bin Muhammad bin Aqil, Al-Hasan, Qatadah, Muhammad bin Ka'b Al-Qurazi and Ibn Zayd. Malik also reported a similar statement from Zayd bin Aslam. * Al-Qurazi, Ibn Zayd and Ibn Jarir all said, This is like Allah's saying, "He is the Cleaver of the daybreak." (6:96) Allah said, "From the evil of what He has created," This means from the evil of all created things. Thabit Al-Bunani and Al-Hasan Al-Basri both said, Hell, Iblis and his progeny, from among that which He (Allah) created. "And from the evil of the Chhisiq when Waqab," Mujahid said, Ghasiq is the night, and when it Waqab refers to the setting of the sun. Al-Bukhari mentioned this from him. * Ibn Abi Najih also reported a similar narration from him (Mujahid). The same was said by Ibn Abbas, Muhammad bin Ka'b Al-Qurazi, Ad-Dahhak, Khusayf, Al-Hasan and Qatadah. They said, Verily, it is the night when it advances with its darkness. * Az-Zuhri said, "H  AMabari 24:700. O Muhammad? The Prophet jg replied, "Yes." So Jibril said, In the Name of Allah, I recite prayer (Ruqyah) over you, from every illness that harms you, from the evil of every envious person and evil eye. Opening P * A In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. o&P Ji A. ^ ji" 41 . Say : "I seek refuge with the Lord ofAn-Nas, } 42. "The King ofAn-Nas,"} 43. "The God ofAn-Nas,"} 44. "From the evil of the whisperer who withdraws."} 45. "Who whispers in the breasts ofAn-Nas."} 46. "OfJinn and An-Nas. } These are three attributes from the attributes of the Lord, the Mighty and Majestic. They are lordship, sovereignty and divinity. Thus, He is the Lord of everything, the King of everything and the God of everything. All things are created by Him, owned by Him, and subservient to Him. Therefore, He commands whoever is seeking protection to seek refuge with the One Who has these attributes from the evil of the whisperer who withdraws. This (the whisperer) is the devil that is assigned to man. For verily, there is not any of the Children of Adam except that he has a companion that beautifies wicked deeds for him. This devil will go to any lengths to confuse and confound him. The only person who is safe is He Whom Allah protects. It is confirmed in the Sahih that he (the Prophet ig) said, Ji B In ^D There is not a single one of you except that his companion (a devil) has been assigned to him. They (the Companions) said, What about you, O Messenger of Allah? He replied, V)pfk 2)1 c)t Yes. However, Allah has helped me against him and he has 648 Tafstr Ibn Kathir accepted Islam. Thus, he only commands me to do good.^ It is also confirmed in the Two Sahihs from Anas, who reported the story of Safiyyah when she came to visit the Prophet #5 while he was performing 1 tikaf, that he went out with her during the night to walk her back to her house. So, two men from the Ansar met him (on the way). When they saw the Prophet j , they began walking swiftly. So, the Messenger of Allah jg said, Slow down! This is Safiyyah bint Huyayh They said, Gloiy be to Allah, O Messenger of Allah! He said, jf t fSi ^ oikin oi" "l J- :Jli Verily, Shaytan runs in the Son of Adam like the running of the blood. And verily, I feared that he might cast something into your hearts - or he said - evil. Said bin Jubayr reported that Ibn Abbas said concerning Allah s statement. iThe whisperer (Al-Waswds) who withdraws.> The devil who is squatting (perched) upon the heart of the Son of Adam. So when he becomes absentminded and heedless he whispers. Then, when he remembers Allah he withdraws. Mujahid and Qatadah also said this . Al-Mulamir bin Sulayman reported that his father said, It has been mentioned to me that Shaytan is Al-Waswds. He blows into the heart of the Son of Adam when he is sad andwhen he is happy. But when he (man) remembers Allah, Shaytan withdraws. Al- Awfi reported from Ibn Abbas; * l * Muslim no. 2167. Al-Bari4 :326 At-Tabari 24:709. At-Tabari 24:710. [S1 At-Tabari 24:710.

iThe whisperer.) He is Shaytan. He whispers and then when he is obeyed, he withdraws. As for Allah s saying; 4Who whispers in the breasts of An-Nas. Is this specific for the Children of Adam as is apparent, or is it general, including both mankind and Jinns? There are two views concerning this. This is because they (the Jinns) are also included in the usage of the word An-Nas (the people) in most cases. Ibn Jarir said, The phrase Rijalun min Al-Jinn * (Men from the Jinns) has been used in reference to them, so it is not strange for the word An-Nas to be applied to them also. Then Allah says, iOfJinn and An-Nas.) Is this explanatory of Allah s statement,)Who whispers in the breasts ofAn-Nas.)? Then, Allah explains this by saying, iOf Jinn and An-Nas.) This is supportive of the second view. It has also been said that Allah s saying, iOf Jinn and An-Nas) is an explanation of who is it that whispers into the breasts of mankind from the devils of mankind and Jinns. This is similar to Allah s saying, JjiJl of*.) j?j> CfiMj ofi^ e? '< 4 ^ * l * At-Tabari 24:710. * He is referring to SuratAl-Jinn 72 :6. * AMabari 24:711.

iAnd so We have appointed for every Prophet enemies - Shayatin among mankind and jinn, inspiring one another with adorned speech as a delusion .> (6: 1 12) Imam
